Kellam, Texas Director of the National Youth Administration, that NYA funds were used to provide employment during the last school year for as many as 30 students. He wrote that "the NYA really has been a God-send to the young people of our territory." He urged that the program be enlarged and continued.

"A league was organized among the ward and junior high school boys, and they played a schedule which aroused the interest of the public, kept the boys off the streets, and taught them the rudiments of the game," he said. "The youths employed benefited through a development of sense of responsibility and thorough experience in leadership, he reported. "Practically without exception there has been a most excellent attitude and a desire to be of community help on the part of this group of workers," his report concluded.

Two students at Ranger Junior College were assigned to clerical work, five to stenographic work, six to library assistance, one to laboratory assistance, six to building and maintenance, three to teacher assistance, one to a local civic agency, and two for work in the College band.

COUNTY, CITY GROUPS ACT TO URGE STOPPING OF W. P. A. REDUCTIONS

Representatives of three city governments and members of commissioner's court viewed with alarm Monday in session at Eastland the reduction of County Works Progress Administration employees from approximately 1,200 to 960 and discussed possible ways for their reemployment.

The meeting, held in commissioner's court, was called after receipt by the commissioner of a letter from George L. Dickey, Fort Worth, district 7 WPA director, who advised of the 20 per cent reduction of WPA workers in this and other counties.

Plans of the group developed at the session call for a trip by city and county citizens to San Antonio at the state WPA office for a plea that the reduction be stopped and that sponsors' total on project be reduced. On the trip also the group will visit the state highway department to ask that Eastland county be given projects to furnish employment for discharged employees.

That the burden is expected to go to the county was indicated in a paragraph of Dickey's letter: "We are giving you this information (on the reduction of employees) in order that you may know the conditions and in the hope that some provision may be made for taking care of these unfortunate people."

Supervisors of projects have been instructed to discharge 5 per cent of the workers on jobs each week for four weeks with the reduction to be completed July 15. Being cut off, it was brought out at the meeting, are old and inefficient workers and those of a type who will experience difficulty in finding work in other channels.

Also discussed at the meeting was the impossibility of cities and counties, with finances low, sponsoring projects when the WPA requires 30 per cent of the total furnished by them. The sponsor total formerly was 20 per cent. It has been reported the sponsor percentage will be increased to 40 per cent of the total cost.

A delegation to be organized through the county and cities is expected to make the trip to Austin and San Antonio this week.

Those attending included members of the commissioners court; J. L. Wren, Fred Sickman, Frank Roberson, Colquitt Williams, Rising Star, T. H. Key, T. L. Acrea, Charles Gentry, Bill Hooper, Joe Gibson, Desdemona; Hall Walker, J. J. Kelly and Calvin Brown, Ranger.

LEON FLOOD AREA WORK GETS CHECK

Howard McMahon of Austin, state reclamation engineer, arrived Monday afternoon in Eastland to check progress of a crew making a topographical survey for mapping of the proposed lake and dam site near Mangum, Eastland county, in the Leon River Flood Control District.

The work being conducted by the crew of the Texas Reclamation Department will be completed in a month or six weeks. The mapping was at the request of the directors of the Leon River Flood Control District of which Frank Sparks, Eastland, is chairman.

Land being mapped at two-foot contour intervals is estimated covering 10,000 acres. The maps will be given to the directors following the completion, according to McMahon.

McMahon, explaining the work, stated it served the purpose of bringing the project "into the office" of directors. From the mapping directors can formulate plans for the proposed dam and lake-site without leaving an office. Any engineer could design a project from the work now being conducted, said McMahon.

The ultimate goal of district directors is inclusion of the project in the federal government's list of water conservation and irrigation plans. The district, created by the legislature, is composed of Eastland and Callahan counties.

Pete Ball, technical assistant, is in charge of the mapping. He has four assistants.

The Texas Reclamation Department was created 27 years ago. It acts as a consulting engineering department in flood control work and levee work in Texas.

Flatwood HDC Hears Talk Upon Canning

"Allow the petcock to remain open until steam escapes for seven minutes, indicating that no air remains inside," said Miss Ramey, county home agent, at the Flatwood Home Demonstration club which met Thursday, June 17, at the home of Mrs. T. E. Robertson.

Maintain a uniform pressure while processing, by regulating the heat. Allowing the pressure to be raised and then lowered, is to be avoided in any case, especially when using jars, as this will result in loss of liquid, the speaker declared.

After removing jars from canner check the seal. Allow jars to cool quickly, putting tin cans in cold water.

A visitor, Mrs. Herman Jordan, was present, and the following members: Mmes. M. L. Foster, J. S. Turner, H. E. Wilson, J. H. Pittman, M. W. Gieger, Cyrus Justice, Tommy Clark, D. E. Webb, W. F. Alkali Becoming New Texas Industry In South of State

HOUSTON. — Texas yearly is adding to her industrial fame. One of her newest industries is described by Harry Van Demark in his article, "Alkali, a Fast-Growing Industry," in the June issue of the Texas Good Roads Association's official organ, Texas Parade, just from the press.

"A new Texas industry, a fast-growing industry, the expression of the belief of level-headed business men in the industrial potentialities of Texas, is represented by the plant of the Southern Alkali Company at Corpus Christi," writes Mr. Van Demark. "Thus one of the most important chemical developments in the history of the Great Southwest has become a reality.

"Three years of planning and preparation preceded the opening of the plant. Every detail was perfected so that alkali buyers might from the very beginning obtain the fullest cooperation.

"It is difficult to over-estimate the importance of this, the first alkali plant in the far South. An adequate home supply of basic alkalis has for years been one of the recognized needs of the industries in this section. Petroleum refineries, soap factories, paper mills, glass factories, cottonseed oil refineries and other Texas industries usink alkalis, now have available a convenient supply of materials at short-haul low cost rates. All of which means lower production costs for these industries and the ability to compete more advantageously with manufacturers located in other parts of the country.

"Petroleum refineries, especially, are large users of caustic soda, soda ash and other common alkalis.

"All the requirements for the manufacture of alkalis are within easy access of the plant. Salt brine is obtained by dissolving rock salts 1800 feet beneath the surface of the earth. The brine wells are located six miles north of Benavides, Texas, and the raw brine is transported to the plant through a 61-mile cast iron pipeline.

"Limestone is quarried in the San Antonio district. Oyster shells are obtained from Nueces Bay. The coke comes from Birmingham, Ala., the ammonia from artificial gas plants in the east.

"Thus Texas industry marches on and to the state's advantages in commerce and industry another major and most important unit is added."

R. A. to Start Work On 78 More Farms; Plan Announced

DALLAS. — Immediate construction of 78 farm units on Texas land recently purchased by the Resettlement Administration has been authorized, it was announced today by Paul V. Maris, acting regional director. Maris said that an increase in the number of houses which can be built with available funds was made possible as a result of economies in planning and construction. The work authorized today covers 38 units of RA's Fannin county project and 25 units of the Sabine project for negroes in Harrison and Panola counties. The 15 remaining units covered to today's announcement are additions to the number previously announced for the Farm Tenant Security project scattered over North Central Texas, where 86 jobs are already under way.

A new development announced by Maris was that contract for construction in a majority of these cases will be let by the farmer to whom the unit is to be sold. The money will be lent him by Resettlement, instead of Resettlement doing the work and selling the completed job, as has been the case on the units previously started. This new procedure applies to the Tenant Security and Sabine projects. RA's own construction division will build the Fannin county units.

Contract for 70 units on Sam Houston Farms, Harris county, will be let by RA itself on competitive bids from private contractors. The three methods of procedure used—construction by RA, contracts let by RA, and contracts let by the farmer—are expected to develop the comparative merits of each, for guidance in future activity.

LUBBOCK. — Texas Technological College opened its first traffic safety course on June 7th, to last until July 16.

PUPILS GIVE OWN OPERA. CLEVELAND. — Pupils of the Preparatory Theory department of the Cleveland Institute of Music, all under 16, composed and sang their own operetta. The operetta, of three acts, was based on the story of Cinderella.

Texas May Have a Warm Springs as a Rival to Georgia's

HOUSTON. — The famous Warm Springs of Georgia will soon have a rival, according to Jack Blackwell, who, under the title of "Suffer Little Children," tells of the projected warm springs foundation of Texas in the June issue of Texas Parade, official organ of the Texas Good Roads association.

"Few things," says Mr. Blackwell, "are as inspiring as a happy, healthy child, and one of childhood's greatest boons is the opportunity to run, to play childish games, to develop physically as well as mentally.

"Texas only recently has discovered the health giving qualities of a God-given flow of mineral waters in the valley of the San Marcos river, and a group of public-spirited citizens have joined in the movement to develop a warm springs foundation where the crippled children of Texas may find succor from pain and a chance to build strong, healthy, useful bodies.

"The site for the foundation is at Ottine, a few miles from Gonzales, where pools and streams of warm mineral water lay placidly at shores lined with luxuriant tropical growth. Nearby, at Palmetto state park, has already been provided auxiliary facilities that will make of the area a traveler's mecca.

"Texans who have visited the area believe that its full usefulness has not been reached in making it not only a recreation spot and that provision of additional facilities for the care of crippled children, together with the improvements already installed by CCC workers, will make it one of the most beautiful as well as the most valuable from a health standpoint in Texas.

"The move to build this convalescent and rehabilitation center for the state's unfortunate children is being sponsored by the Gonzales Warm Springs Foundation, whose membership and directorate includes leading Texas citizens.

"The foundation hopes to be able to finance the construction of therapeutic pools for warm water exercises, administration buildings and small modern cottages for the use of physically handicapped children and their parents. The foundation is incorporated by the state as a benevolent institution and has the endorsement of the Texas and International Societies for Crippled Children.

Query About Early Texan Brings Out Musty Old Records

HOUSTON. — A query from the Seneca county clerk of Waterloo, N. Y., to the Harris county clerk here concerning John R. Harris, Texas pioneer, brought out musty records.

The old records, same written in faded Spanish, revealed many sidelights on acquisition of old Spanish land grants.

The New York clerk wanted information about "a man named John R. Harris and his wife, Jane, who left this county to settle in Texas in 1837."

Harris was a member of a prominent family which founded Harrisburg, Pa., the query said. Records showed that the New York clerk's dates were mixed.

John R. Harris, who came to Texas in 1837, was the son of the couple mentioned. The original Harris, John and Jane, received a Spanish land grant in 1824 as members of Stephen F. Austin's colony.

The elder Harris' settling in Texas caused Harris county and the city of Harrisburg, once the state capital, to be named for him.

Harris obtained a grant of "one sitio" or league on the south bank of Buffalo bayou, now famous as Houston's ship channel. It was witnessed by Baron de Bastrop and Empresario Estevan F. Austin. The grant was described in age-worn Spanish script.

In the old Spanish form, it was recorded that the grantors "did take him by the hand over it and tell him in loud and perceptible tones" that the land was his. Harris "shouted, pulled grasses, threw stones, planted stakes and performed" the other necessary ceremonies" of taking possession.

Harris died in New Orleans in 1829, according to his granddaughter - daughter, Miss Annie Hume.

Test of a Good Actor Is His Desire to Compete With Other Good Actors

"It takes a good actor to insist upon having other good actors in his supporting cast."

That's one of the reasons why Director Richard Thorpe admires Robert Montgomery. Thorpe directed Montgomery and Rosalind Russell in "Night Must Fall," the unusual mystery drama currently showing at the Connellee Theatre.

"Montgomery not only influenced the studio to buy the hit play, which ran for fifty-five weeks in London, after he had seen it three times," Thorpe said. "But he was so enthusiastic about the cast that Producer Hunt Stromberg engaged half of the principals to come to Hollywood from England to make the film."

Not since "David Copperfield" has M-G-M imported so much talent from abroad for a film, and not even for that film was so large a proportion as fifty per cent of the cast brought from England.

Among the players M-G-M induced to desert the London stage are Dame May Whitty, Merle Tottenham, Kathleen Harrison and Matthew Boulton. Dame May, whose title corresponds to the knightships conferred upon distinguished men by the British Crown, is a 71-year-old star who has appeared more than 56 years in principal parts in English stage productions. She plays Mrs. Bramson in "Night Must Fall."

"The play which captured Montgomery's imagination has a completely different role for him," Thorpe said. "His fans will scarcely recognize him. Instead of being a charming hero, he is presented as an ingratiating murderer. It's a different and daring role."

Rosalind Russell likewise had an unusually delicate problem to solve in her characterization.

"Miss Russell utilized all the talent she showed in 'Craig's Wife,' to win mention from critics of the United States as having given one of the five best performances of the year," Thorpe added. "She plays the part of a poor-relation secretary who has

"There's never been a story like 'Night Must Fall,'" Thorpe considers it the most interesting production he has ever directed.

Weldon Rushing had come in from Lake Charles, La., on Friday night for a three days vacation but after finding his mother so ill he wired his boss that it was impossible for him to return at once. Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Sloan of Stephenville, were here Monday afternoon. He was selling candy to his regular customers and Mrs. Sloan visited her old friends, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Bedford.

Rev. and Mrs. W. M. Ford of Ladonia, East Texas came in Friday to visit for a week with her daughter, Mrs. Walter Henry, and family and also with her mother, Mrs. S. E. Browning and family.

If we are correctly informed, W. H. Davis, one of our leading merchants is due the thanks of the community for the dust being abated on Main street by having a tank of crude oil sprinkled on it. Mr. Davis got the donations to buy the oil from the Prairie Sinclair Co., whose eight oil trucks run day and night in moving the oil from their tank from a few miles south of town to the two tanks which they bought from the Magnolia company and which are in the northwest part of town.

Work on the Gallagher & Lawson No. 1 Bobbie Terry deep test well is progressing nicely. The depth at noon today (Tuesday) was 1700 feet. Almost one third of the contract depth. Among the visitors at the well today was Carl Barker, formerly of Desdemona, but now of Ranger. His many friends are glad to know that his broken arm is now improving after being treated several months.

A Texan predicts we may drill 15,000 feet deep for oil, which would almost call for a refill for the lamps of China.

Judging from annuities reported settled on the Duke of Windsor, he should be able to live like a king, anyway.

Heralding Finish Fight on the Dust Pest

Occasionally when man is working frantically to free himself from the shackles Nature has placed upon him, Nature itself comes along and, overnight, gratuitously slashes the knots.

Such was the case when the early June "million-dollar storm" swept down the east side of the Rocky Mountains, killing grasshoppers and cricket hordes, and providing moisture for large areas of drought-plagued farming land.

Moe welcome was this storm because it fitted in with Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace's announcement that the federal government is ready with its first long-range, co-ordinated plan to prevent the so-called "dust bowl" from becoming a desert.

Soil conservation services already have completed the aerial mapping of nearly 50 million acres in the "dust bowl" region, the photographs showing the devastating effects of winds which shift billions of tons of top soil. Ground surveys have added to our knowledge of the situation.

With this information, Secretary Wallace has appointed a director to guide the work of federal agencies in about 100 counties of Colorado, Kansas, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Texas, where wind erosion has been most severe. The area covered by the program will amount to more than 90 million acres of which more than 70 million is farm land.

The major move involves a shift from wheat production to combination crop and livestock operations. Land now in crops would be restored to grass, and crop cultivation would be confined to areas best fitted for that purpose.

This is commendable progress, but it should not blind us to the fact that a long fight lies ahead before we can consider this immense territory completely rehabilitated. Simply because people outside the "dust bowl" have not heard so much of the scourge this year, there is a strong temptation to let the crusade take care of itself.

But it is vain to hope that dust storms will decide all at once to call quits and whirl off to some other planet. Like the unwelcome visitor, they are with us to stay as long as we will stand for them. Since it was partly national carelessness in planting, tilling and conserving the soil that created the situation, the nation generally should keep on providing realistic assistance to those dust bowl residents who are unable to move out.

Governmental resources are being thrown into the skirmish lines, and nature has relented long enough for us to get a toe-hold in a new position. The federal shelter belt is leafing out with its small but growing challenge to dust. But the battle has just started. And we must stay with it to the end, determined to fight it out along scientific lines if it takes all of several summers.

A Michigan girl was forced to drive 130 miles by an armed, cross-eyed man. Still, her experience might have been worse; he might have taken the wheel.

Steps To Aid In Foiling Summer Burglars Listed

W. J. Peters, Eastland police chief, Tuesday urged persons taking vacations to observe precautions before leaving in order to prevent burglary of their homes.

"Summer is here and many citizens are planning their vacation," said Chief Peters. "But before they leave they should take precautions to add greatly to their protection and peace of mind."

"The vacation months, when so many residences are empty and unguarded, provide ideal working conditions for the housebreaker. The burglar of unoccupied houses does not have to be careful of sleepers who may wake up and sound an alarm. He does not have to fear that a dog's angry barking will reveal his presence. He can work leisurely and thoroughly."

Chief Peters urged the following precautions to be taken:

1. Lock securely all doors, windows or other entrances to the house.

2. Inform the police that your house will be empty. They can keep watch on it and try the doors and windows at regular intervals.

3. Take with you or lock securely all jewelry, silverware, furs, valuable clothing and other articles easily converted into cash by a thief.

Body Decides On Carnival at Fair

The midway committee for the eleventh annual Eastland County Fair, Sept. 16-18, Monday in a meeting at the Chamber of Commerce at Eastland decided to sponsor a carnival at the event.

Carnival companies will be contacted, decided the members of the committee meeting with H. J. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. Members of the committee attending were T. P. Johnson, chairman, and Mrs. James Horton.

Former Official May Attend Event

J. J. Strickland, former state senator and now chairman of the board of directors for the Great American Life Insurance company at San Antonio, has written H. J. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, that he will attend the Eastland July 3, 4 and 5 celebration if business permits.

Strickland, formerly a lawyer of Eastland, is one of hundreds of ex-residents invited by Tanner to attend the celebration.

4. Be sure to suspend all deliveries, such as milk, papers, mail. A heap of papers or milk bottles on a porch are sure signs that a house is unoccupied.

Girls You Can Now Enter In Bathing Revue

Registration in the bathing beauty contests on the final night of the July 3, 4 and 5 celebration in Eastland was underway yesterday.

Those entering the contest may register at the Chamber of Commerce or at any dry goods store for one of the three divisions of the contest.

Group one will include girls up to seven years of age. Prizes in that division are first, $5; second, $3; and third, $2.

In group 2, girls from eight to twelve, prizes are $5 for first, $3 for second and $2 for third.

Twenty-five dollars will be first prize in the group 3, for girls from 13 years of age up. Second prize will be $12.50 and $10 for third place.

Judges will be from Fort Worth, Abilene and Brownwood, according to present plans.

Speaking System Installed at Park

Harper Music and Battery company installed a public address system Saturday at the City Park in Eastland.

The system, adaptable for speaking, phonograph records and radio entertainment will be controlled from the bath house.

Also installed by Harper at the park was an electric refrigerator in the concession operated by the city with Mrs. Edna Metcalf in charge.

Farley Follows-Up On Eastland Visit

Letters of appreciation for their interest in meeting him at the depot in Eastland when he passed through the city recently have been received by numerous citizens from Postmaster General James A. Farley.

The letters, said to have all been different in the reading text, were sent in the official post office department stationery.

Change In Time Of Buses Listed

Revisement in the schedule of the Southwestern Greyhound Bus Line was announced Saturday.

The new schedule provides for eastbound departures at 1.02 a. m., 4.37 a. m., 8.57 a. m., 2.07 p. m., and 4.42 p. m.

Westbound buses will leave at 5.23 a. m., 11.33 a. m., 1.48 p. m., 5.03 p. m., 7.43 p. m., and 11.23 p. m.

The Connellee hotel serves as the bus line depot and agency.

No Changes Due In Softball Schedule

Eastland's softball schedule will not be changed, it was announced Tuesday following a meeting of team managers at the city hall.

The present schedule was believed better than any other that might be arranged, it was stated.

The lower diving board at the large swimming pool at the city park has been re-installed following its temporary removal recently for a better fitting.

Olden Man Obtains Bull From A. & M.

W. L. Connell of Olden has purchased a high type registered Jersey bull from the dairy husbandry department of Agricultural and Mechanical College at College Station.

The bull, three weeks old, is expected to be used on Connell's own herd of registered Jersey cows and for outside breeding. In September it will be exhibited at the county fair in Eastland.

Agri Prospect In County Is Better

Eastland county crop prospects are viewed by County Agent Elmo V. Cook as slightly better than those at this time last year.

Seasonable weather will carry the crops through satisfactorily, it is believed.

Needing rain in the next few weeks will be corn. Row crops have had sufficient rain for the time being. The grain crop, now being harvested, is short.

Peanuts, in the early stage of development, can go for some time without rain, according to Cook.

Feed crops are not suffering.

Ranger Is Host To An Inter-City Rotary Meeting

Ranger was host, Wednesday night, to the inter-city meeting of Rotary Clubs with Eastland, Cisco, Breckenridge and Ranger clubs participating in the program.

Fred Wimple of Midland, district governor of Rotary International, was the principal speaker of the evening. He was introduced by Ken Ambrose of the Ranger Club.

S. P. Boon, president of the Ranger Rotary Club, was toastmaster. Dr. L. B. Gray, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Ranger, pronounced the invocation.

Eastland, Cisco and Breckenridge each presented two numbers on the musical program. Eastland presented Ace Horton's orchestra; Breckenridge presented C. B. Ribble in vocal solos, accompanied by Mrs. Weldon Webb, and Cisco's part of the program was rendered by James Haynie on the cornet, Virgie Sue Wyatt, accompanied by Marie Plummer, in xylophone numbers, furnished Ranger's part of the program.

There were 110 Rotarians, Rotary Annes and visitors present at the meeting.

Trouble with the arms traffic is that most nations are trying to pass the others on a one-way road to death.

200 Acres of Pop Corn May Bring Return of $10,000

GORMAN, June 18.—R. D. Whatley, who resides four miles south of Gorman is cultivating approximately two hundred acres of pop corn, which, unless wind or hail hits it, will produce from 40 to 50 bushels per acre.

Whatley planted his corn during March and April, and has cultivated it carefully. He did not use fertilizer on any of the land, however he has 20 acres that it would have paid him to have used it on. The remainder of his corn is on bottom land and those who have grown and had to do with the corn in this section state that it is the finest have ever seen.

Whatley states that he used 1500 pounds of seed in planting the acreage and he conservatively estimates that his yield if conditions continue to be favorable, will bring him in $10,000.

School Roll For County at 8,124

In his territory he will check oil and gas developments in 50 counties, using Eastland as a base.

County Terracing Over 8,000 Acres

A total of 8187 acres of field and pasture land have been surveyed for terracing and other forms of soil and water conservation in Eastland County by workers from the County Agent's Office since October 1, 1936, according to figures released by Elmo V. Cook, County Agent.

Terrace lines were run on 7887 acres of field land and pasture ridge and contour lines were run on 300 acres of pasture land.

In addition, four pasture demonstration plots were completed, totaling 28 acres and distributed at cost for use in sub-irrigating home gardens. The pasture demonstration plots are as follows:

On the George P. Fee ranch 1 mile north of Cisco on the Breckenridge highway, eight acres were cleared of timber, fenced for modified grazing, ditched to keep off hillside water, terrace ridged, and contour furrowed. A sign was placed calling attention to the demonstration.

On Dr. M. L. Stubblefield's place, 4 miles northwest of Gorman on the Carbon Highway nine acres were cleared, ditched to keep off hillside water, terraced with wide terraces, terraced with narrow pasture ridges and contour furrowed. A tank was dained and the terraces were sodded with buffalo grass. A sign has been placed calling attention to the demonstration.

On Dr. W. S. Carter's place, 1 mile north of Rising Star on the Cisco Highway, 6 acres were cleared of timber, contour furrowed, and re-fenced for deferred grazing. A sign has been placed calling attention to the demonstration.

A 5 acre plot on Dr. R. H. Hodges ranch 2 miles north of Olden, has been cleared and is awaiting suitable weather for contour furrowing.

All soil and water conservation work done by the County Agent has been in cooperation with the National Youth Administration under the supervision of W. F. Shaffer, District 13 NYA Supervisor and County Supervisors D. L. Childress, T. E. Castleberry, and R. R. Bradshaw. The Texas A. & M. College Extension Service supplied funds for part of the supervision.

Large Congregation Greet A. K. Bailey

It was a large congregation that greeted Alvin Bailey as he mounted the First Presbyterian church pulpit for the first time last Sunday, which post he is to occupy regularly for the summer as supply pastor. Not only was the audience fine in numbers, but also in the genuinely worshipful attitude it assumed. As the members and friends assembled with the express aim of worship, there was no room for confusion for the atmosphere of communion and fellowship became more potent as the group grew in size.

Bailey announced that he was highly pleased and well satisfied with the successful beginning of his summer program here, made possible only through the superb support of the loyal friends of the church.

Music, under the direction of Mrs. Cyrus James, is to be a ministry in the church, and Mrs. James announces that with the aid of Mrs. Carl Johnson the junior choir is prepared to furnish the music for the services next Sunday. With a real leader in Mr. Conrad Reeves, the young people of the church have been organized into an active group, and with Miss Anna Belle Lobaugh in charge, they opened their activities with a swim and picnic Wednesday evening. Carl Johnson, superintending the Sunday school, announces that teachers have been secured to handle the increased attendance at the church school. With David Vermillion in charge, the church property and equipment have been greatly improved. "The Slavery of Liberty" will be the title of Bailey's sermon for Sunday.—Reporter.

London Women Entering Air-Raid Corps of Wardens

LONDON. — Another 300,000 men and women are to be added to the British government's anti-air-raid organization.

Recruiting will begin at once for a corps of "air-raid wardens." They will be civilians over 30, unpaid, and trained by the government. Their main job will be to organize the safety of all men, women and children in their areas, if there should be an air raid.

Seventy to eighty thousand wardens will be wanted for Greater London. There will be one warden's post—with two or three reliefs so that a 24-hour watch can be maintained in case of war—for every 500 inhabitants in residential areas, and one post each quarter of a mile in industrial or business areas.

All local authorities in Britain have been told by the Home Office to begin the organization of the corps.

The duties of the wardens will be to advise people in the streets to take cover, when an air-raid warning has been given; to report fires to the fire brigades, and to report the presence of gas, and, where possible, to sound the special gas alarms.

Word 'Blue' Enriches American Language

CHICAGO.—The English adjective "blue" has supplied Americans with many of their picturesque compounds and colloquialisms, according to a resume of its history contained in the second section of the "Dictionary of American English."

From "blue," active American tongues have given to the language "Blue Monday," which, the dictionary says, dealt with the 19th century "Sunday spree" and its resultant hangover.

Kentucky, the "Blue Grass state," Delaware, "The Blue Hen" and Connecticut, "the 'Blue-law state,'" all derived their names from this English adjective.

Other usages are "blue stocking," "the blues," "Blue Point" (oysters), and "blue streak."

Some 250 osteopathic leaders will present papers and read reports to the assembly and submit them to what is new in hygiene, sanitation, surgery, obstetrics, gynecology, anatomy, physiology, chemistry, osteopathic therapeutics and practice, pathology, and other public health subjects.

Dr. C. E. Still Jr., of Austin will address the general convention, delivering a sketch on the life and work of his grandfather, Dr. Andrew Taylor Still, founder of osteopathy. Dr. Still also is on the reserve program for a discussion of "An osteopathic program for the prevention of tuberculosis."

Dr. Louis H. Logan of Dallas will speak on "Occupation lesions." Dr. E. H. Peterson of Wichita Falls will discuss "Some phases of allergy as influenced by endocrine pathology."

Cryer, El Paso, "Endocrine vitals; its treatment with physiotherapy and osteopathy;" Dr. R. R. Norwood, Mineral Wells, "Skin cancers;" and Dr. H. B. Mason, Temple, "The menopause."

Old Firebell Sold to Buy Parts for Truck

CLEBURNE, Texas. — A 511-pound firebell, that warned of fires in Cleburne for more than 30 years, has been removed to help buy parts for a city fire-truck.

The bell was bought in 1905 and was used during the horse-and-wagon days of fire-fighting. A few years ago, it was disconnected and a modern siren installed. As scrap metal it was expected to bring about $30.

In its early days, the bell was tolled by hand. With the advent of electricity, however, a motor-driven device sounded the bell.

August 10 and 16 Set For District Softball Tourneys

Dates for the Amateur Softball Association of America district men's and women's tournament at Eastland were set Wednesday afternoon at Eastland by District Commissioner Earl Weathersby who met with members of the Fire Department committee in charge of the field upon which the games will be played.

The women's tournament will start August 10 and the men's tournament six days later. The dates for the termination of the meeting were not determined as it was not known the exact number of teams to participate.

Weathersby expects 35 to 40 teams from 13 surrounding counties which comprise the district to play at the meeting beginning on August 16. From 10 to 12 teams are anticipated in the other tournament.

BABY STAGES "SIEGE"
By United Press
CANTON, Ohio.—Firemen had to climb through a window to capture a two-year-old boy who locked himself in the bathroom at the apartment of Samuel Kotsen, turned on the water in the tub, and defied all comers. The water was flooding the room when they entered.

LEGISLATURE HAS FUN HONOLULU.—Samuel B. Kemp, attorney general of Hawaii, is convinced that the Hawaiian legislature really enjoyed law making. He has found that in some cases the same bill was passed three times, others failed to appropriate necessary funds and still others contradicted themselves. He is trying to straighten it all out. Two bills for example reduced the marriage license fee from $5 to $2.

Here's the effect—steering is easier and steadier, driving is a whole lot safer, and joints and jars are out of your life for good! Take a ride and test the result—the greatest comfort you've ever known.
