DESDEMONA'S DEEP TEST IS BELOW 3,450 FT

According to a report from Cisco, home office of Gallagher and Lawson, operators on the deep test near Desdemona, the No. 1 Bobbie L. Terry was drilling Tuesday at 3,450 feet with the bit approximately 25 feet in the Ellenberger line.

The report from Cisco also stated: "The Ellenberger was topped at 3,404 feet. Unless commercial production of sufficient magnitude to justify a change of plans, the well will be carried to the Hickory and below it to the Wilbourn series in search of new oil resources believed to exist under a horizon which in 1918 and thereabouts furnished oil with its most sensational play to that time and for a long period afterward.

Records of another test in the area, drilled during the boom and abandoned below 4,000 feet, were reported to have revealed that, under the Ellenberger lies a promising sand body. Strong gas and oil rainbows were reported to have come up through a column of several thousand feet of water which caused abandonment of the earlier test, it was said.

The Terry will be able to case off any water easily. It set the longest string of 10 3-4-inch casing ever set in this section, measuring 2,731 feet of Grade D seamless pipe, about 15 days ago. The test is located about half a mile south of Desdemona and just over the line in Comanche county.

N. D. Gallagher, one member of the firm, is now supervising the drilling of the well. O. G. Lawson, the other member, is on a vacation with Mrs. Lawson in East and South Texas. At a camp near Kerville the Lawsons will visit their daughter, Helen Louise, Mrs. Gallagher and her daughter, Peggy Jean, and son, Norvell D., Jr., are also at the camp, where they have a cottage.

Housing Project in Dallas to be Ready To Occupy in Fall

By United Press

DALLAS.—Laborers are rushing in on Cedar Springs Place, the Federal Government's $900,000 contribution toward better housing in Dallas and officials of the project said it will become the home of 181 families by early in the fall.

August 1 is the deadline set for completion of interior work and landscaping on the model housing project, said James T. Haile, its manager.

Soon after work has been finished on the project, government managers of Cedar Springs Place will pick 181 families to live there—families whose annual income is no more than five times their annual rent in the new community—from a list that now numbers 500 applicants and is growing rapidly.

The families, many of whom have had their applications in for several months, must pass approval of a group of investigators to be set up by a local committee and must be approved finally by local committeemen themselves.

Low-cost housing—rarely will monthly rent and utilities be more than $7—will be offered in the form of two, three, four or five-room apartments. Furnished in each apartment will be a kitchen range, an electric refrigerator and a built-in kitchen cabinet. Furniture must be provided by tenants for other rooms.

One Language Is Urged to Weld the Peace of Nations

LONDON.—"Nothing will make more for world peace than a common language—a tongue that will enable ordinary folk of all nations to fraternize with one another."

This assertion is made by Sir Benjamin Drage, business chief and technical adviser, who has launched a campaign calling on the League of Nations to sponsor a universal language.

"Daily we are physically brought nearer our fellow-men," he said, "but the mental distance continues. A common language will bring the world closer, mentally and morally. I am appealing to the statesmen of the league to give this proposal their grave consideration."

Sir Benjamin said that the medium for a universal language was a matter of indifference to him. It might be Esperanto, Ido, Basic English or an entirely new language created by experts appointed by the league.

Whatever medium was chosen, the universal language would have to be taught compulsorily in all schools of the 52 league countries. Newspapers would be asked to print columns or sections in the universal language. Soon all countries, whether in the league or not, would be bound, from commercial interests alone, to adopt it.

"At present language is a bar to mutual understanding," he declared. "The curse of Babel is upon us yet. The solution lies in a common tongue."

REPORTER EXPLODES MYTH NEWSHAWKS SOLVE CRIMES

Martin Money, who probably knows more about the workings of the underworld than any other crime reporter in the United States, scoffs at the idea of newspaper men as detectives. "They either know, or they don't know," Mooney says, "and that's all there is to it. The reporter who breaks ahead of all his competitors with the exclusive story of the solution of a crime may set himself up as a detective extraordinary—he may report in great detail how he worked out the case; but it's about a hundred-to-one shot that he got the answer by the very simple device of asking some one who knew."

"When George R. Batcheller of Chesterfield Motion Pictures Corporation asked me to write 'Missing Girls,' he said he wanted the real inside story, and I gave it to him. But, make no mistake! I didn't do any 'detecting' to get my material. Neither I nor any other reporter could have dug up the material for one-half a reel of this story through independent investigation. Long before this story was ever discussed, I had a complete picture of what actually does happen to 'Missing Girls,' the thousands upon thousands who disappear every year."

"Missing Girls," which is Mooney's latest screenplay, is now showing at the Connelley Theatre. Roger Pryor, Muriel Evans, Sidney Blackmer, Noel Madison, and Ann Doran head the cast.

Work to Start On Old Eastland Road Monday Morning

Henry Davenport, commissioner for Precinct No. 1, announced today that work would start Monday morning on grading and graveling the old Eastland-Ranger road, which runs north from Olden to the Ranger-Breckenridge Road, which it joins about two miles west of Ranger.

The work is to be sponsored under a WPA project, with Eastland County as the local sponsor. The commissioner stated today that about 124 men would be given work under the project, but that the number would not be employed at all times, as the work would be done in shifts.

In announcing the starting of the project, Davenport remarked that the engineer who has charge of road work in 12 counties in this section of the state said the county roads in Eastland County were maintained in better condition than in any of the other 11 counties.

Davenport, who sustained a broken neck in an automobile accident some time ago, is able to be out and to supervise the work under his jurisdiction, though his neck and head are still in a metal and leather brace.

Depressions might be easier to take if the banker could be persuaded to offer one on the house after every third check he cashes.

EX-EMPLOYEE OF HOSTELRY IS VICTIM

A leap from the roof garden of the Connellee hotel at Eastland proved immediately fatal Thursday morning at 9 o'clock to Roger Trimble Williams, 63-year-old former engineer and part-time clerk at the hotel.

Suicide was the verdict of Justice of Peace E. E. Wood. Officials investigating found that Williams leaped from the northeast corner of the roof garden kitchen and landed on the top of the ground floor kitchen, the roof of which extends backward from the building.

Examination of the body, taken to Hamner Undertaking company in Eastland, for arrival of word from a sister, Mrs. J. T. Livingston, 1008 West White Street, Champaign, Ill., indicated Williams landed on his side. Broken were his left chest, shoulders, back and arms.

Employees of the kitchen, said Cook J. L. Riggan, "thought something blew up in the basement" when the body landed. Edward Morris, engineer, colored, investigating the sound with others finally went to the roof for inspection of equipment there after a basement examination and saw the body five stories down.

Of such intensity was the sound resulting from the leap to death was that persons a half a block away believed it thunder or a shot. Manager Thomas of the adjoining Western Union office was one of those who thought the sound that of thunder. T. E. Seelye, ice cream manufacturer, was one who heard the noise at a barber shop half a block away.

Since his absence from the hotel Williams had lived at the Truly rooming house on North Lamar street. B. T. Gilmore, manager of the rooming house, stated he last saw Williams early Wednesday night. Williams had not left his bed when he left the house at 8 a. m. Thursday, said Gilmore.

Gilmore stated the roomer had told him recently that "I've gone about as far as I can."

Officials removing the clothes of Williams discovered a sack of tobacco and a pocket knife. It was found from letters in his room at the Truly place officials learned the name of the Illinois sister. A stationer's office gave the impression Williams had evidently planned to leave Eastland. Included in the suitcase was his shaving equipment clean shirts and other items. Three magazines were partly open on the trunk in the bedroom which was his residence.

Williams came to Eastland to the hotel job about a year ago. It was stated his former address was Odessa, where he had been unemployed.

Williams limped when walking. An old injury to his right leg accounted for the handicap.

Funeral services awaited word from his sister in Illinois.

Van Bibber acting as chairman, the program consisted of a talk by Harry Henry on "What to do in case you have an accident while driving a company car," discussion by Archie Robinson on some of the safety features of the new loading rack recently installed; and a general discussion was had on certain conditions found by the inspection committee.

J. R. Jarvis, general superintendent of the Lone Star Gasoline company; Alton Alfred, assistant safety supervisor; D. U. Baker, field engineer of the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Co.; C. F. Wilson, supervisor of stores, and Harry Wheelon, district superintendent, all gave talks at the meeting.

Girl Encampment To Begin Friday

Seventy-five 4-H club girls of 12 clubs in the county Friday morning, July 23, at 10 o'clock will register at the City Park in Eastland for a one-day encampment.

The recent encampment for the girls was postponed because of rain.

Miss Cornelia Faye Stewart, assistant home demonstration agent in charge of 4-H club work for girls, stated a canned products and judging contest will be held at the encampment to determine the county winner to enter the contest at the August short course at College Station. Five dollars will be given to apply on her expenses at the short course and $3.75 applied from her club.

Each club girl entering the contest has been asked to bring two quart jars of canned tomatoes or salad pack tomatoes and a tasting spoon.

The demonstrator clothing contest also will be held. Each demonstrator will be expected to bring her club dress and slip. Winner will enter the dress contest at the short course with all expenses paid.

Big Crowd Seen For Fiesta Show

Milburn McCarty, president of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, Thursday interpreted indications as pointing to a large delegation of citizens attending the Fort Worth Frontier Fiesta on

"Eastland Day" Monday. H. J. Tanner, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Thursday was in Fort Worth to arrange plans for the reception of Eastland citizens at the special day. McCarty will leave early Monday morning to make further arrangements before the Eastland delegation leaves at 2 p. m., Monday, for the show.

Assisting the Eastland group in arrangements for the attendance and program at the event are D. A. Banded, general manager, of Stamford; John M. Hendrix, assistant manager and publicity representative, Fort Worth, and J. A. Rix, assistant manager, Fort Worth, all of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The Eastland high school band will attend the show and play a concert. Miss Clara June Kimble will be introduced at the Casa Manana revue.

Adults Are Taught To Play at School

PARIS.—A school where adults can learn to play with toys is the idea which Mme. Jeanne Valreux is successfully developing in a fashionable part of Paris.

Mme. Valreux believes that adults need relaxation after the strain of a busy day's work and find it in playing with toys. A newspaperman who visited her school saw an elderly lawyer building houses out of miniature bricks and a bearded professor of the Paris University playing with a miniature railway, assisted by other grave business men.

"These hard-working people forget all their worries here," Mme. Valreux said. "It is better than a gymnasium course. But as a matter of fact this grown-up playroom is a mental gymnasium."

Success of the President's Chesapeake Bay parley can be measured by usual picnic standards of how many guests got a bug in their ear.

But now there is no reason why you should take this chance. Goodrich Silvertowns have an amazing new invention—the Life-Saver Golden Ply. EASTLAND'S FIRE GIRLS WIN AT W.F.

The Fire Department girls of Eastland descended upon the widely heralded Levines (Red Jackets) team Tuesday night at Wichita Falls and came away victorious by a 4 to 3 score.

By the victory the Eastland team established itself as one of the state's leading girls' clubs. The defeated Wichita Falls foe is known as the state champion of last year.

Observers described the game as one packed with thrills and hair-raising situations. Edith Rosenquest, the Eastland pitcher-captain, gave a masterful game and was at her best when the going was the toughest.

Bradbury, first up in the fourth, hit a home run into the left field that would have been a credit to Tully, one of Eastland's best male pitchers, and would have been good for four bases in a man's game.

The Eastland team now has a record of 10 wins out of 12 games and has won the last seven in a row.

Youths to Attend Six-Week Course Listed by the NYA

The complete list of Eastland county youths to attend a six-week elementary agricultural course beginning formally this week was announced at Eastland by H. A. Ziegler, assistant district 7 director of the National Youth Administration, Fort Worth, agency sponsoring the plan.

The youths listed were James Barker of Eastland, Marlin Sneed of Ranger, Elton M. Burns of Okra, John Hughes of Eastland, James Robert Gilkey of Eastland and Ben Truly of Eastland. The majority of the youths were interviewed by Ziegler and explained the schooling Monday at an Eastland meeting.

The youths will earn their schooling at North Texas Agricultural college, Arlington, by performing work at the institution. Also incidental money plus room and board funds will be earned.

First goal of most young writers—getting a "by-line" designating him as the author of a story—has been reached by Earl Braly, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Braly of Eastland. Young Braly, a sophomore journalism student at Texas Technological college at Lubbock, works afternoons on the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal.

SCORES OF MOTORISTS PROVE SKID CONTROL OF US ROYAL MASTER TIRES

With its HUNDREDS OF ADDITIONAL SHARP-EDGED TREAD UNITS, the De-Skidded U. S. Royal Master has introduced a new degree of safe, positive control over all wet weather skidding hazards. The clean-cut edges bite through slippery road film—wipe the water away—eliminate the very cause of skidding by giving every inch of the tread a safe, dry road contact. Only Royal Master has so many hundreds of gripping edges in both directions, only Royal Master gives complete control from both forward and side skids.

You can prove it too, in our demonstration car, equipped with these De-Skidded tires. Take the wheel and in just ten minutes you'll discover new driving safety.
