Kokomo Club Told How Sacks May Make Luncheon Set

"A 4-H club member can learn to make useful things without any expense," stated Miss Mabel Caldwell, assistant county home demonstration agent, at a meeting of the Kokomo girls 4-H club at the school house Wednesday, Oct. 19.

Large sugar sacks, feed sacks and fertilizer sacks, when bleached and made into attractive luncheon sets, dresser scarfs and aprons. Luncheon sets or dresser scarfs with at least one inch hem make more expensive looking articles. Articles that are too decorative detract rather than add to the appearance. Blind-stitched hems with a small amount of single or double hem-stitching in the corners of luncheon sets or dresser scarfs make them very attractive with only a small amount of time spent in making them.

Each club girl is required to make one article by hand. The girls have their choice in making one of the following luncheon set, dresser scarf, head scarf or handkerchief.

Ima Timmons was elected parliamentarian.

Those present at this meeting were visitors, Mrs. Roy Crawley and Mrs. J. C. Timmons, Members, Virda Mae Eaves, Ima Timmons, Ernestine Jumper, Wanda Donaldson, Louise Eaves, Billie Jo Crawley, Phyllis Donaldson, Mrs. L. R. Higginbottom, club sponsor, and Miss Mabel Caldwell, assistant county home demonstration agent. —Phyllis Donaldson, reporter.

CISCO MAVS GAME STARTS FRIDAY 3:30

Officials announced Thursday that time for the Cisco-Eastland football game start Friday afternoon has been set for 3:30 at Welch field, Eastland.

The Eastland Mavericks will be attempting to uphold a several year record of no defeats from the Lobos, ancient grid foes.

With Cisco having the best team in many years and an impressive record behind the Mavericks, the odds strongly favor the visitors.

Coch Grady has indicated that the Mavericks, notwithstanding, are predicting a victory. Because of the intense rivalry between the cities, Eastland is expected to produce its best.

Latch, Tipton and Preston's absence from the Cisco squad during the game is giving Eastland a better advantage, dopests believe.

HOMECOMING FOR RANGER DRAWS CROWD

Ranger's second annual Homecoming came to a successful close Friday night, with crowds equally as large as those who thronged to the more elaborate celebration of a year ago swarming the streets from midday until early in the morning hours of the following day.

The preparations for the Homecoming were simple, but well planned, and the crowds which turned out were much larger than was anticipated, and the entire program proceeded with a smoothness one would expect only from a celebration planned much farther in advance.

Approximately 100 attended a luncheon at noon, sponsored by the Rotary and Lions clubs, at which Judge Coombes of Abilene and Congressman Clyde L. Garrett of Eastland were speakers.

A parade, including bands and pep squads from Eastland, Breckenridge and Ranger High schools, entries from each of the Ranger ward schools, the Ranger Junior College, parent-teacher organizations, individuals and business firms formed the mid-afternoon entertainment feature.

Friday night the Ranger-Breckenridge football game drew a crowd that filled to overflowing the new Ranger stadium, which was dedicated before the start of the game. Music before the game was furnished by the Universal Cowboys of Fort Worth, who played over a sound truck furnished by the Gulf Refining company. W. T. Walton, superintendent of Ranger schools, N. S. Holland, superintendent of Breckenridge schools, Eck Curtis, the Breckenridge coach, Bill Tipton, Ranger coach and Buster Mills, former Bulldog star, were speakers.

A dance at the old Elks hall which was well attended, closed the day's activities. Bob Blackburn and his Varistonians furnished the music.

Two Are Arrested In Desdemona Robberies

The men were arrested at Spearman and taken to the jail at Stannett and will be removed in several days to Eastland where the sheriff said he had filed charges against the pair.

The sheriff stated that a gun and a wrist watch, allegedly part of the stolen goods from Desdemona, were found in their possession at Spearman.

Sheriff Woods has been working on the case for the past 30 days, going to various cities and obtaining tips on their presence and then going to other towns visited by the suspects. Later he followed a tip that one had a relative in the Spearman area.

He also stated that Amos and Cooper had been to Missouri since the date of the Desdemona burglaries. Stores at which goods were missed recently included Walter May's Drug store, Key's Grocery store, Bruce's Grocery store and a filling station and confectionery. The amount of the missing goods was not of a large sum, said Woods.

BURNING OF GRASS STARTS NEXT MONDAY

Reminding that dead grass conditions in Eastland constitute the worst fire hazard in 18 years, Fire Chief W. J. Hennessee announced Thursday that the department was to take steps to combat the danger.

Hennessee stated that beginning Monday firemen will begin the burning of the grass to prevent possible fires.

Unless notified otherwise, Hennessee and members of the department will burn grass in all vacant lots as soon as possible. Should vacant lot owners not want the grass burned then they should notify Hennessee.

In cases where buildings and other structures are near the grass owners were asked to clear away the grass at least two feet from the property.

Chief Hennessee stated the grass problem was acute because of the abundance of rain early this year.

Burning of the grass will be under the strict supervision of the firemen with equipment available should the fires create danger.

EASTLAND IN MOVE TO FIX CITY'S DEBT

Under the provisions of the municipal bankruptcy law, the city of Eastland has filed application in federal court at Abilene for approval of a contract covering a six-year refunding program of its bonded indebtedness.

The petition sets forth that the city of Eastland is "unable to meet its debts as they mature and desires to effect a plan for the composition of its debts."

The financial statement of the city shows that total bonded debt at Eastland is $1,034,700, with maturity dates of bonds and warrants ranging from 1932 to 1965. The gross deficit in the interest and sinking funds as of Sept. 30, 1938, is listed at $555,628.

Under the plan which Eastland seeks to put into effect, said Frank Sparks, attorney for the city, a given amount of the tax income would be set apart each year to meet bond principal and interest. After six years, he explained, the debt would be reduced to the point that bonds could be redeemed or be met on original maturity dates.

If the contract is accepted by two-thirds of the creditors of the city of Eastland, then by court order it likewise would be binding on the remaining one-third. The petition sets out that already owners of 51 per cent of the securities of the city have accepted the plan.

The 1937 assessed property values of Eastland totaled $1,746,854. The tax rate was $2.50; total assessments, $43,671, and total collections $33,334.

Exercising Care In Stoves' Use Is Urge of Officials

Local fire department officials Monday urged citizens to exercise care in the installation and use of gas heaters and equipment this winter.

Gas connections should be carefully checked, both to prevent fires as well as forestall any possible leaks which might result in asphyxiation or an explosion.

Officials cautioned against placing heaters too close to walls, curtains or other inflammable material. It was urged that where rubber connections are used that the hose be inspected to make sure that they are not rotten and leaky.

Metal connections are preferable, but strong rubber hose is safe if in good condition and properly installed.

Householders also were urged to see that open front heaters have protectors which will prevent persons contact with flames and guard against setting fire to clothing of persons standing too close to the stove.

Officials have also warned against carelessness in lighting the heaters or other gas stoves, especially urging that gas jets not be opened too long before applying a match to start the fire.

EASTLAND TO BE ANOTHER STORAGE SITE

Dick Weekes, manager of the Southwestern Peanut Growers association, headquartered at Eastland, announced Tuesday that by the week-end the cooperative will have paid Eastland county farmers $200,000 for this season's peanuts.

At the same time Weekes announced that through the sponsorship of the Eastland chamber of commerce a warehouse for receipt of peanuts in Eastland will be opened by the latter part of this week.

D. O. Simpson will be manager of the new warehouse, which will be located in the 200 block of West Main street, next to the Heartstill Candy company.

The buying of peanuts, said Weekes, is probably at its height but will continue for 60 to 90 days.

Eastland will mark the cooperative's tenth warehouse. Others are at Fort Worth, Ranger, Rising Star, Cisco, Gorman, DeLeon, Comanche, Tolar and May. Total number of tons of peanuts bought thus far at all warehouses is 5,000. Last year, with only warehouses at Rising Star, Ranger and Brownwood, the season's total was 111 tons.

The Comanche warehouse has handled 1,200 tons, setting a record among the warehouses of the cooperative to date.

W. A. Gwaltney of Washington, D. C., marketing specialist, is in Eastland assisting Weekes in the opening of warehouses.

Weekes and Gwaltney's headquarters are in room 302 of the Eastland National Bank building. The association is a cooperative, working as a division of the AAA, buying and storing the surplus peanut crop to stabilize the market.

The association uses RFC funds and operates through the community credit division of the AAA. There are no crop reduction restrictions, but association members must pay 7 1/2 cents for each acre in peanuts.

Resident Project In Ranger Operating Under the NYA

The National Youth Administration in co-sponsorship with the City of Ranger, last week commenced operation of an NYA Resident Shop Project. This project was approved by Mr. J. C. Kellam, State Director for the National Youth Administration in Texas.

The youths participating in this shop project will be afforded the opportunity of receiving pre-apprentice training in sheet metal, automotive mechanics, machine work, electric welding, oxy-acetylene welding, painting and finishing, blue print reading and woodworking.

Hugh A. Gaunt, a graduate of Sul Ross State Teacher College was named Project Superintendent and H. A. Tillett, a graduate of Rice Institute is instructor in the shop.

A mayor, city council and chief of police were elected by the project workers in their first meeting and a constitution and bylaws was approved for the self government of the participants. This constitution could be amended by two-thirds majority and certain penalties were approved that would be assessed against those violating the existing laws.

The National Youth Administration in approving and aiding in the operation of this project believe this to be a step in the right direction to in part furnish industry with apprentices who will not be a burden on industry during their period of learning a trade. It is hoped that this will in a measure reduce the number of vocational misfits that have burdened the industry in the past. Also this type project will furnish training to many that would not otherwise receive such an opportunity.

Discovery of America as International Villain

The recent Czech crisis would not have been complete until British newspapers found some way to blame the whole business on Uncle Sam. That moment has finally arrived, and so the whole thing is now official.

According to the magazine Newsweek, an astonishing amount of anti-American sentiment is finding expression in England these days, and it is being argued in London that the Czechs would not have been sold down the river if America had only done its part.

That amazing argument, it seems, goes like this: The British were slow in backing up France because the British were reluctant to commit themselves without assurance of American support. Such assurance not being forthcoming, the British government hedged and hedged until Czechoslovakia was signed, sealed, and delivered to the mercies of Hitler. Further, it is added, "Czechoslovakia was Woodrow Wilson's invention anyway," and hence the United States should have borne the chief responsibility.

Now it may well be that America should have been more active in European affairs in recent years. But it hardly becomes Britons to say so.

If your memory runs back to the early 1930's you may recall that the first serious blow at the Kellogg treaty, the league covenant, and the rest of the world's peace machinery was struck by Japan, in Manchuria. At that time it was an American secretary of state, Henry L. Stimson, who took the lead in trying to rally the democracies to stop the steal. Mr. Stimson boldly took his country out on a limb in his effort to stop the Japanese, trusting that the British—whose interests in the Orient were far greater than America's—would back him up as they had promised.

If Stimson's effort had succeeded, the history of the last half-dozen years would probably have been profoundly different. But the effort failed—because, when the pinch came, the British were looking the other way with great steadfastness.

It is important to remember this. For it was the Manchurian invasion that put the world's peace machinery to its first great test. If that machinery had worked then, Mussolini and Hitler would have behaved differently. That it did not work was due solely to the fact that in the pinch the British refused to let it work.

In the face of that indisputable fact, any Briton who complains that America failed to back up the British government in the Czech crisis is displaying a gall that ought to win medals.

And so to Czechoslovakia being Woodrow Wilson's baby: let it be remembered that Wilson, alone of the allied statesmen, went to Paris without an ax to grind, anxious solely to fabricate a more decent and happier world. It was the British government that campaigned on a "hang the kaiser" platform just before the Versailles conference, thereby making certain that an atmosphere in which a just peace could be created would not exist.

America has a good many things on her conscience, but when it comes to the failure of the world's peace machinery, the bulk of the load must be carried in London.

Peanut Growers to Get $50,000 From Ranger Warehouse

By $50,000 will be paid to farmers for peanuts stored in the Ranger warehouse, which contains 800 tons. Many more peanuts were available in this section for storage in the warehouse, but the warehouse was unable to handle more because of storage facilities and bond requirements.

It is expected that the total amount due farmers will be paid in cash before the end of the week. Records show that approximately $9,000 or $10,000 had been paid out Wednesday afternoon, and at 10 o'clock this morning more than $12,000 additional had been paid to the farmers.

Trip to Dallas Fair Described By Four-H Boy

L. V. Mauney member of the Gorman Boy's 4-H Club, who with seven other Eastland County 4-H Club boys, that attended the 4-H Club encampment at the Dallas Fair last week, writes the following account of his trip.

I might say in the beginning that this trip to the 4-H Club Boys encampment held in connection with the State Fair of Texas was one of the best trips that I have made since I have been a 4-H club member. I won this four day all expense trip to the Dallas Fair on my peanut demonstration this year which made an average yield of fifty three bushels of peanuts per acre.

I met the following boys at the Eastland depot on Monday, Oct. 17th: L. C. Love, Dwight Bryant, Neil Eaves, Vernon Bennett, Howard Henson, Jack Walker and Assistant County Agent Hugh F. Barnhart. We got on the 11:59 train and left for Dallas. We arrived in Dallas at 3:40 in the afternoon, where we were joined by several other 4-H Club Boys from other parts of Texas. We went to the 4-H Club building where we were met by Mr. L. L. Johnson, State Boys' Club Agent, and Mr. J. W. Potts, Assistant State Boys' Club Agent. We registered and were assigned beds to use while attending the encampment.

We were given our meals in the building which was formerly the Black Forest during the Centennial. On Monday night were given a picture show in the 4-H Club building on the subject 4-H Club activities in Texas.

The boys were lined up and groups were selected according to ages. Twenty five boys composed a group, and a county agent was assigned to each group.

After the organization work we went to the livestock department, where we watched them judge Jersey cattle. We saw some of the Eastland County 4-H Club heifers judged. From the livestock department we went to visit the agricultural building where we saw the many exhibits from the various counties. That afternoon we visited the Dallas zoo as well as a cotton manufacturing concern. Tuesday night was spent on the midway.

Wednesday Following breakfast we were allowed to visit the different departments until ten o'clock and then we went to the band shell where we had a 4-H Club program.

Following this program we went to the Castle of Foods building where we watched the Eastland County and Dallas County 4-H Club Dairy demonstration teams give their dairy demonstrations, and then off to the Golden Jubilee Follies. Wednesday night we were allowed to visit the individual booths and take in the midway.

Thursday After breakfast Bozo, an educated dog, was presented to the boys. This dog could add, subtract, multiply, read a person's mind and many other things. After this program we went to see the things we had not seen before at the fair.

We left the fair grounds at 11:30 and caught the westbound train at 12:25. We arrived in Eastland at 4:35 Thursday afternoon, ending one of the most wonderful trips I had ever made.

EXPENSES OF COUNTY WILL BECOME MORE

Eastland county's expenses next year will show an increase over those of the current year, according to the 1939 budget on file in the county clerk's office.

Expense of the county from January 1 to December 1, 1939, according to the adopted budget, will be $320,405.80. The adopted budget for the current year provides for expenditure of $316,408.02. In 1937 expenditures were listed at $289,150.23.

While the expenditures show an increase next year, revenues, too, are expected to increase. The estimated tax revenue for the county next year is fixed at $321,762.50.

An increase of $15,750 in net current ad valorem tax collections is expected. On the other hand a decrease of $1,994.20 is seen in other taxes and revenues.

Net current ad valorem tax collections next year are expected to yield $250,500, $25,000 is expected from delinquent taxes and other taxes and revenues are to bring the county approximately $76,262.50, bringing the total revenue to $321,762.50.

TWC-St. Edwards Game Transferred To Ranger Field

The T. W. C. Rams of Fort Worth and the St. Edwards football teams of the Texas conference will play in Ranger, Saturday night, Nov. 5, beginning at 8 o'clock in a conference game.

Negotiations have been completed for the game to be played at Bulldog Stadium and Head Coach Gus Miller and Line Coach John Bray of TWC will be in Ranger Friday to complete other arrangements for the game. All details will be handled by TWC officials, who will be the "home team," as the game was originally scheduled to be played in Fort Worth.

Because the stadium at Fort Worth is not completed it was agreed between the two teams that the game would be played on neutral territory, and Ranger was selected for the game site because of its convenience and because of the fine field and stadium.

The TWC-St. Edwards game is expected to be a closely contested affair, as the two teams are tied for second place in the conference rating and are rated at about even.

Lemmie Bray of Ranger plays at center on the TWC rams, Harold Gracey of Caddo plays in the backfield and John Bray of Ranger is line coach, which is expected to attract considerable local interest in the game.

Eastland W. P. A. Nursery Notes Its First Anniversary

Over 200 persons Tuesday attended the first anniversary of the Works Progress Administration nursery sponsored by the City of Eastland, Mrs. Joe Stephen, project sponsor, reported Wednesday.

The anniversary was at the project's headquarters in the former Pickering Lumber company building on North Lamar street.

Mothers who have children enrolled in the project acted as hostesses and escorted visitors through the building, pointing out features of activity. The mothers were Mrs. Greathouse, Hughes, Everington, Bennett, Davenport, Ballard, Willingham, Rich, Franklin, Hogan, Cheatham, Ingie, Ellis, Barrett, Walker and Barcroft.

There are 50 children enrolled at the present time. A total of 80 children have been served since the project's inauguration, said Mrs. Stephen. This week graduation of several who have become 5, discharge age, will be held. Only children from 2 to 5 are enrolled for three months in the work.

Attendance average for the enrollees, it was said, is 45 per cent.

Personnel of the project, part of the emergency education work of the WPA, is Mrs. Stephen; Mrs. Grace Burke, teacher; Julia Lindsey, nurse, and Lorene Hankins, dietitian. All have been employed in the work since its beginning. Elena Segovia is maid.

In keeping with the occasion, the project rooms were marked by Halloween decorations. Merchants patronized the past year donated food and refreshments on the anniversary. Cut flowers and roses were also in the rooms in abundance. A cake with one candle also was noted.

Out of 39 nurseries in the state, the Eastland project is adjudged by officials as having the best equipment. During the training period children usually gain from one to several pounds. In a recent case, however, one girl gained 11 pounds while enrolled in the work.

Fifty new suits and coats for the children were recently delivered. They were prepared in the Eastland WPA sewing room of which Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite is supervisor.

Mrs. Stephen thanked all who have cooperated in the work past year and expressed appreciation for interest in the nursery.

W. K. Gordon and Texas Pacific Coal & Oil Company Celebrate Two Anniversaries During October, 1938

1. Thurber, Texas, as it appeared several years ago, a friendly, busy little mining town.
 2. The famous McClesky well that came in a gusher, opening the Ranger oil field in 1919.
 3. An old Thurber landmark.
 4. The Texas Pacific Coal Company's first coal mine.
 5. The "old Opera House" presented leading road shows.
 6. W. K. Gordon of Fort Worth.

FORT WORTH, Texas—“The Father of Ranger.” W. K. Gordon, who for fifty years has been an important part of the Texas Pacific Coal & Oil company will observe two anniversaries this month—each with a hard days work. The beginning of the Ranger Oil boom, twenty years ago marked the inauguration of the most dramatic era in the history of Texas commercial development. This month his company also is observing the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil company at Thurber in October of 1888.

Gordon's persistence, determination and faith led to the discovery well of the Ranger field which opened up a vast source of wealth for the people of West Texas and contributed largely to the present proud position of Texas in the petroleum industry. That determination and energy is still evident in the “retired oil man” who fills every day with activity and accomplishment.

In October, 1918, the McClesky well drilled on a Texas Pacific Coal company lease was brought in—a gusher. And Gordon was a happy man.

As manager of the coal company, he had urged the officers to permit him to drill for oil but because of adverse reports from visiting geologists, he had not been permitted to follow through with his ideas.

“It was necessity that forced me into looking for oil,” Gordon said in relating the trials and tribulations that preceded the discovery of oil on the Texas Coal company leases.

“Labor trouble brought on the organization of unions. Union wages ran the production of coal so high that the railroads were threatening to put in oil burners because of our prices. We just had to have oil and I knew where to get it,” he said.

“As a mining engineer, I'd studied geology and couldn't help knowing what certain formations indicated. Geologists from out of the state came down, looked it over shook their heads and made adverse reports. They didn't have the nerve it takes for wildcatting but I knew the ground too well to give up and besides we just had to have oil,” he related.

“Finally Edgar Marston, then president of the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil company, a man who had confidence in me gave me an O. K. on a ‘go ahead’ program and I stepped out with a leasing crew headed by Luther Davenport.”

“After some activity around the mine at Thurber, a delegation came over from Ranger. There was a preacher, the county officials and another leading citizen who asked me why we didn't come around Ranger to spend some money. They'd had a long drought and things were slow. We came to an agreement of twenty-five cents an acre lease price and a one-eighth royalty.

“I drove the stakes down myself on the more than 30,000 acres. I never was so busy before in my life—nor happier. I now had my chance to test my belief that beneath that earth lay a sea of oil.

“First to come in was a gusher on the Nannie Walker farm and then the McClesky oil gusher which set the ball rolling and the mud to splashing. From then on we had a boom and the T-P had oil to supply the railroads right at the time they were converting their coal burners into oil.” With the discovery of oil the price of T-P stock went from $141.00 to the huge price of $2,040.00. At this time the company also changed its name to the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil company.

Born in Spotsylvania, Virginia, and educated as an engineer in Fredericksburg, he came to Texas in 1889, one year after Col. R. D. Hunter of the Hunter-Evans Cattle company of St. Louis had started the Texas Pacific Coal Mine at Thurber. Gordon was engaged as a civil engineer by the Colonel but his industry soon put him into the position of mining engineer. In 1900 he became manager of the mine.

For half a century he watched Thurber grow from a mining camp to a village, then to the most important town between Fort Worth and El Paso, only to drop again to almost a ghost town with the closing of the mines which came after the oil boom.

He is known as the best loved executive to work in the mines. His fairness, kindness and consideration endeared him to his people who rejoiced with him in his triumph of the Ranger discovery field.

Today as chairman of the board of directors of the Texas Pacific Coal and Oil company, he is proud to have been a part in the company's pioneering of Texas natural resources. Other officers of the company are: J. R. Penn, President; John Hancock, Vice President and General Counsel; R. Seibel, Treasurer and Secretary; O. E. Mitchell, Vice-President in charge of Sales; C. E. Yager, Vice-President in Charge of Exploration.

Gonzales Lodge Has Record Long Session

By United Press
 GONZALES, Texas. — Husbands who find it difficult to convince their wives that lodge meetings last so long can cite the Gonzales Odd Fellows.

The local lodge claims the record for the longest unadjourned session. It opened at the usual hour on June 18, 1860, and remained in session.

Many years later a secretary inscribed: “A call to arms broke up the meeting.” The record book of the Lodge shows the next session began on Jan. 27, 1868.

Striking out 17 batters is good enough in any company, but when you fan 14 of them in succession in a no-hit victory, you get your picture in the paper. That is what George Bock, above, of Nappanee, Ind., high school did against Millersburg high in an autumn league game.

Somebody in New York has unearthed a rare old “backward gun.” There's something the world needs more of—guns that are a little backward.

CURB “CON” MEN
 LONDON. — Confidence men are having a lean time in Great Britain. The annual report of Sir Philip Game, commissioner of police, shows that the total loss to their get-rich-quick methods was only $5,195 last year, as compared with $63,720 in 1936.

Gas Gas All Time

Taxpayers' Revolt Against Deadheads Started Over State

By United Press
 FORT WORTH, Texas—A revolt of taxpayers against “deadheads” who ignore their taxes is underway in Texas. State Comptroller George H. Sheppard of Sweetwater told the Texas Tax-Assessor - Collectors convention here.

“Seventy-five per cent of the taxpayers are now bearing the full burden of government,” he said. “Recently I have heard many of them complain, at my office, that they are tired of bearing this burden.”

“Nothing is undermining the government more than non-compliance with the existing revenue laws.”

W. Lee O'Daniel, non-voting Democratic nominee for governor, was not mentioned by name, but Sheppard and two men who will be railroad commissioners urged stronger poll tax laws instead of abolition of the tax. Sheppard and G. A. (Jerry) Sadler, nominee for railroad commissioner, both asked for stricter collection of the poll tax.

Railroad Commissioner Lon A. Smith said he thought “that no man should be allowed to hold office without a poll tax receipt.”

Drop kicking is no longer confined to the sports page. The politicians start kicking when the relief rolls drop.

Eastland County Students at Tex. University Organize

By MAVIS MURRAY
 AUSTIN, Oct. 22.—Students of Eastland county at the University of Texas this year met Friday night in the Texas Union to organize a home town club on the campus. The large increase of representatives from this section of the state makes this organization possible. There are more than 100 students from Ranger, Eastland, Cisco, Gorman, Rising Star, and other near-by towns among the 10,000 students registered for the 1938-39 long session.

Russell, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Russell of Eastland, was elected temporary president of the club. He is classified as a sophomore taking a pre-law course. Mr. Russell is secretary of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, where he has his residence this year. He was elected into Eta Sigma, honorary freshman.

Other officers elected by the club were Marshall Coleman, vice president; Mavis Murray, secretary; and Clyde Garrett, Jr., treasurer. A membership drive will be headed by Eugene Lankford of Cisco.

Marshall Coleman, a senior in the engineering school, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Coleman of Eastland. He is a member of the Tejas Club, where he makes his residence in Austin.

Clyde Garrett, Jr., son of Congressman C. L. Garrett, of Eastland, is a transfer to the University this year from George Washington University. He is a pledge of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity, and makes his residence at Roberts Hall.

Frank Conley first year law student, holds the office of corresponding secretary of Chi Phi fraternity. He is also editor of the Nu News, monthly fraternity paper. Frank and his sister, Catherine Jane, make their home with their mother, Mrs. Chas. A. Conley of Ranger, this year at 3306 Harris Park Blvd. in Austin. Miss Conley is enrolled in the University this year as a freshman. She is a '37 graduate of Ranger High school.

Mavis Murray, daughter of Mrs. Blanche Murray of Ranger, is a junior in the journalism department and treasurer of the Press Club. She is a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority, and lives at Andrews dormitory.

Eugene Lankford, Jr., of Cisco, is an assistant in the Physics department. Livius Lee Lankford is a member of Alpha Epsilon Delta, honorary pre-medical fraternity, and vice-president of Alpha Phi Omega, honorary scouting service fraternity. Both students make their home at 707 1-2 W. 25 1-2 St. in Austin.

Eastland Students

HENRY FORD SAYS—

"America knows but one direction, and that is—onward! Time will bring changes, but not in the main course. The openings and opportunities for men and women who can do things, who know their jobs, are becoming more numerous. Our schools should bear this in mind and prepare their students for life. Every school should be a place where students learn by doing."

Considered in the light of some current events, and Mr. Ford's connection with them, the above statement from his pen so recently is rather remarkable. But he still has faith in WORK, in PREPARATION, in INDIVIDUALITY—his secrets to opportunity and success.

And what does Mr. Ford believe about home ownership? Those who have been out to the great Ford industrial center near Detroit have been impressed with this part of it—the beautiful homes of the hundreds of employees paid for on the company's own monthly installment plan. Available to you is a similar plan right here in Eastland.
