STREET ERROR REPAVED
By United Press
GRAND FORKS, N. D. — Everything is running smoothly here again. There was a half-block paving job to be done and the big tractor towing a pavement plow laid open a nice furrow down the center of the wrong half-block. The furrow has been re-asphalted, and the right half-block paved.

Eastland Pioneer Club Has Meeting In Home at Dallas

The Eastland Pioneer's Club held its October meeting last week at the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pettit. Transportation was furnished by Mmes. C. L. Garrett, Chas. C. Robey and Ed Sparr. Mr. and Mrs. Pettit formerly resided in Eastland, and on a recent visit to Eastland extended a cordial invitation to the Club to meet with them upon the completion of their home. The motor party arrived shortly after eleven, and from the time they entered the colonial home, with its spacious and well-planned grounds, until their departure, the host and hostess did everything possible for their comfort and happiness. Much thought has been given to the building of the Pettit home and its furnishings. Mrs. Pettit took an interior decorator to New York to purchase much of the latter. The chandelier in the dining room is a replica of one of those which hangs in the east room of the White House. The paper in the dining room is from the same design which won first prize at the Paris Exposition. One would never think of it being wallpaper, but exquisite paintings of the Swiss Alps and Swiss villages. The paper in the breakfast room depicts an old water mill, and is copied from a pattern recently discovered on a wall at Mount Vernon under two other layers of paper. No detail is lacking in making this home not only beautiful and livable, but one of the show places in Dallas.

Luncheon was served at one, consisting of baked turkey, dressing and accessories, ice cream and cake. Members of the club occupied honor seats at the long table in the dining room, and the other guests found places in the breakfast room. The table in the dining room was laid in Italian cutwork, the other in blue linen. Gorgeous autumn flowers, grown by Mrs. Pettit, resting on mirror plaques, formed the table decorations. Other bowls of flowers were placed throughout the house. During a short business session each guest expressed appreciation and delight for a perfect day spent with old-time, loyal friends. Mr. and Mrs. Pettit graciously responded, stating that it was a genuine pleasure to have the club members and others, and regretted that more of their Eastland friends didn't come. The guests included Mesdames Annie Day, Anna Townsend, R. B. Braly, M. E. Lawrence, C. L. Garrett, Exer Hunt, Sallie Hill, Robert Jones, M. Westbrook, Ida Jones, Dixie Williamson, Callie Hague, Ed Sparr, Chas. C. Robey, May Harrison, of Eastland and Wesley Beard of Dallas.

Davis of Carbon brought the sermon closing the morning session with adjournment to the lower basement room of the church at the noon hour for lunch. The Women's Missionary society of the Eastland church was in charge. Opening the afternoon program Mrs. R. A. Lerner of Eastland gave the devotional taken from Mark 12: 28-34. Mrs. J. C. Burnett of Cisco, president of the W. M. S. of the district, conducted the business period. Recognition of the newly organized missionary societies of the district were given to Nimrod, Pioneer and Hodnet Grove. Mrs. C. P. Cole of Cisco was presented and gave an inspirational talk on "Keeping and Teaching the Law." She preceded Mrs. A. M. Moon of Cisco, who discussed "Warnings and Exhortations." The program closed with special music offered by Mrs. Victor Ginn in a vocal selection. She was accompanied by Mrs. D. L. Kinaird.

Farmers Warned Not to Move to Western States

With income from crops for 1938 less than anticipated, many farm families are thinking of selling what goods they have and moving to the West Coast. The Farm Security Administration advises strongly against it, according to Geo. L. Lane, Eastland county supervisor, who headquarters at Eastland. He said that a recent study of California conditions was made by W. J. Green, Assistant Regional Director for FSA in this region, and it offers no encouragement to the farm families of the Southwest unless they already have permanent employment. "Frequently statements reach Texas (Oklahoma) that there is a shortage of laborers at certain points in the west," M. Green reported. These statements are probably correct, but the people making them often fail to add that the work will last for only a short time, that living conditions in the area are undesirable and that when the work is finished, the laborer may find himself stranded in a community far from other employment with no hope of assistance from local sources. Green pointed out that agricultural labor in California is almost entirely seasonal and that the land is owned in large units and operated for the most part by machinery. Only at harvest time is there a demand for additional labor, and when the highly perishable fruit and vegetable crops are harvested, the worker must move on to other places to find employment. These people have become known as migratory laborers and rarely stay in one place as long as six months. "Along the roadside of California, many people from the Southwest are camping out under conditions much worse than the ones they left behind them," Mr. Green reported. "Usually they live in tents which they carry along with them. In many cases their only supply of drinking water is an open irrigation ditch into which the waste from other camps has been thrown. No protection from disease is possible. The Farm Security Administration has made some progress in improving the circumstances of migratory workers by establishing camps with the minimum essential of healthful living at a few of the Southwest slow up, conditions for those people who have already gone to the Coast states may be expected to improve in time. Nevertheless, as long as there is a surplus of laborers in that region as is found at the present time, California is not a refuge for financially distressed farmers of this state, it was pointed out.

Found With Gems —and Hangover

Suffering from a hangover, and hazy about events since his employer's wife entrusted about $120,000 in jewelry to his care, George Fleming, chauffeur for Edward N. Townsend, Jr., of Syosset, L. I., was arrested by New York police in the home of a friend where he had gone after a two-day drinking spree. At the police station where, bleary-eyed, he is pictured above, Fleming said he didn't know why he made off with the gems, most of which were found on him. He was held for grand larceny.

THOMAS SAYS LCRA WOULD SUPPLY POWER

Power from the Lower Colorado River Authority will probably be used by the Comanche and Eastland County Cooperative Association, A. C. Thomas, a coordinator for the Rural Electrification Administration stated Saturday in Eastland. Thomas declared that indications point to 600 farmers in Eastland county signing for the power and the same number have signed in Comanche county. The coordinator also stated the LCRA power will be supplied at the "wholesale" price of 2-5 of a cent for each kilowatt. The Eastland county line will probably be 150 miles in length while that in Comanche will be 184 miles in length, commented Thomas. He stated that after the signing is completed by farmers application will be made to Washington REA officials for an allotment. If granted then army engineers will design the line. Probable minimum charge will be $2.25 for each customer. The official emphasized that those signing the application for power would not be held liable for more than the price of power they use. Thomas is headquartered for the present at Comanche.

To the Hills! The Women Are Coming!

It is mortally easy to take a running jump into the wrong conclusion, when an unexpected bit of news comes over the horizon; and the report on women workers—submitted to President Roosevelt by John D. Biggers, director of the Federal Unemployment Census—deserves some careful thought before any deductions are based on it.

Mr. Biggers succeeded in clearing up part of the mystery about where men's missing jobs have gone. The women have 'em—to the extent, at least, of 2,740,000 cases.

On the basis of the 1930 census and the normal population increase it was expected that by the fall of 1937—when Mr. Biggers' census was taken—there would be about 11,750,000 women gainfully employed. But when Mr. Biggers made his check-up, he found that there were actually 14,496,000 women holding jobs.

Somewhere along the line, then, something quite unforeseen happened, resulting in an utterly unprecedented increase in the number of women workers.

Census Bureau experts blame it on the depression. Ordinarily, they explain, women enter the labor market at the age of 20, or thereabouts, and leave it a few years later—to get married, or for other reasons. But in the last half-dozen years they haven't been leaving their jobs. When male members of the family lose their jobs or can't find work, the woman who has a job hangs on to it.

Now from all this it would be easy to reach the conclusion that one cause of male unemployment today is the presence of too many women in the labor market. Already you can hear the first faint muttering of stout-hearted males declaring that women's place is in the home. Before long, more and more people will tell us that the unemployment problem won't be solved until women give up their jobs.

Yet this would be one of those easy conclusions that don't stand up under analysis.

Suppose we did chase those extra 2,740,000 women out of their jobs and replaced them with men: we still would have made only a small dent in the unemployment situation. The basic problem would remain unsolved. The nation's payrolls would not be higher by one dime. The total income going to the families of working folk would not be increased in the least.

We would be precisely where we were before, except that the identities of some two and three-quarters millions of the workers would be different.

Nor would we be better off if we went a lot farther and replaced more and more women workers with men. We would not have progressed one inch in the direction of improving the general well-being of people who have to work for a living.

The unemployment problem ceases to exist only when any industrious, capable, honest citizen who wishes a job can get one. Any "solution" which doesn't bring us nearer that day is no solution at all.

Chevrolet Takes Big Strides Ahead for 1939

New Aero-stream styled bodies combine with major mechanical improvements to provide new beauty, safety, comfort and operating ease, in the 1939 Chevrolets, presented October 22, and featured at the big auto shows this month. Santa Claus to Carry 225 Million Pack; 'Do Things' Is Toy Motif This Year

By United Press

NEW YORK — Santa Claus' $225,000,000 pack this year will reproduce in workable miniature virtually every activity of American home life, industry and transportation. Scientific advance testing of 1938 toy models by children to determine fun possibilities, age suitability, safety and educational value was reported at the annual Christmas preview sponsored by toy manufacturers.

In the roster of 10,000 new American made toys, Snow White, the G-Man, the cowboy, and a score of movie cartoons and radio stars competed for the spotlight of juvenile worship.

Old favorites with streamlined additions include new models in electric steam engines, two-faced, black and white boards, non-breakable marionettes, automatic scoring marble bowling sets, a shoofly modeled after a panda and a new electric pencil for etching wood, leather and cork.

A new miniature organ boasts four octaves. A velocipede has a chain drive like a bicycle. A rapid-fire bubble blower emits a continuous stream of large rainbow hued bubbles from a single dip, and there's a large repertoire of films for magic guns that shoot pictures on the wall. Sleds have gone streamline, they have tip-proof brakes.

"Like parent, like child," is an inevitable guide to children's play interests," said James L. Fri, director of the Toy Association. "It is a happy commentary on American life that American children are principally interested in play that imitates home and business activities. Scientific tests show that children have much more fun with toys which enable them to 'do things'."

The housing boom is fulfilled in 1938 toylands. There are new styles in prefabricated houses made of blocks, bricks and cardboard.

Polarized light is the latest scientific gadget to be adapted to playroom technique. A child can tell mother whether the tablecloth is cotton or linen.

Ft. Stockton Seeks Flood Control Dam

By United Press

FORT STOCKTON, Texas. — Consideration of Comanche creek as the site of a flood control and water conservation project was asked in a brief submitted recently to U. S. Army engineers at Carlsbad, N. M.

The dam, for which preliminary surveys have been made, would be nearly two miles long and would impound a lake covering 2,500 acres of land with a capacity of 10,000 acre-feet of water.

Pecos County Water Improvement District No. 1, through its attorney, R. D. Blades, submitted the brief.

Blades said that the dam would protect low districts of Fort Stockton and would save from overflow of the creek a park and numerous farms. He pointed out that the project would also prevent damages from excess rain runoffs.

Aid of Public Is Asked In Keeping Courthouse Clean

Peter Clement, courthouse engineer, Thursday asked cooperation of the public in keeping the building clean.

"While the great majority cooperates well with officials in the keeping of the courthouse clean there is a certain element which apparently does not care," commented Clement.

He had especially in mind tobacco chewers who expectorate without regard to cleanliness or the trouble it causes courthouse employees.

On the east and north sides of the courthouse signs have been painted warning "Fine to Spit on Steps or Sidewalks. Law Enforced."

Clement added that it was not his desire to cause trouble for the tobacco chewers but that he would call the matter to the attention of officials should the rule not be observed in the future.

"There are 300 spittoons in the courthouse; I see no reason for violation of the rule either in or outside the courthouse," stated Clement.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. H. E. Calvert, Friday afternoon, Nov. 4. The afternoon was spent in a business meeting.

Warning Is Issued To Citizens Upon Holiday Gyp Deals

H. J. Tanner, secretary-manager of the Chamber of Commerce at Eastland, has warned merchants and citizens against the "gyp" salesmen who usually begin to make their appearance this time of the year as Christmas approaches.

Tanner stated that only recently was it discovered that a man falsely purporting to represent magazine companies was found out and left before gaining any subscriptions in Eastland.

Tanner pointed out that information will be given on salesmanship itinerants or "deals" if the Chamber of Commerce is called.

Dam Is Protested As Menace to Farmers

EL PASO, Tex.—Rio Grande Valley farmers are being urged by Leo Heisel of Canutillo, Texas, to protest the proposed construction of a dam on the Rio Grande near Monta Vista, Colo.

Heisel said the proposed dam threatens the water supply of farmers depending upon the Elephant Butte project.

"The proposed dam will catch the snow run-off, which is about the only water we are getting now from Elephant Butte Dam for irrigation purposes," he said.

"If that dam is built, there won't be a drop of water for Elephant Butte."

Roland Harweel, El Paso district manager, and Frank C. G. ton, Texas commissioner of Tri-State Compact Commission are in Colorado to attend a hearing on the proposed dam.

IT'S TOO GOOD TO BE TRUE!

One of the large companies which we represent has just advised us of a plan whereby one or more of its listed properties may be purchased without a down payment.

Those who really want a home and have not been able to accumulate sufficient funds to make a substantial down payment before purchase, as has been the rule in the past, should be interested in this proposition.

You occupy the home at once and begin paying in 30 days. This particular company has 39 nice homes in Eastland, and they want to sell them on this plan.

We list a few of them here, and we want you to drive by and inspect these homes. If interested, get all details at this office.

Come To Eastland For Your Entertainment

HERE AND THERE

BY CECIL BARHAM

Four-legged fish that was in front of the Lyric and Saturday attracted attention than anything that has seen in Eastland for some time among those looking for that recognized were Patterson, Sheriff Lass City Commissioners Charles L. Lambert and C. B. E. Harbick and Stewart of the Eastland Telegram others, everyone was to know that they were given every name for them is the simple name—Action News.

When we saw "You Take It With You" in the room. Today we are to believe to be a great to emphasize the lesson: That life offers you can take with you, gets the material and strives instead to the blessings of friendship, and understanding.

Vanderhof's philosophy is simple one, he believes should do the things you happy, even if it's a pleasure as playing the piano. If Vanderhof found sympathy at variance with the tycoon who sought and more power, it only prove that wealth alone is standard for happiness and that happiness may be by the number of sincere and loving kin who help with day's rounds pleasant.

World, when the lams thing ideas battle each a gigantic fight for con-cast by Warners for "Tough Angels," an air stewardess story, the seven "Tough Angels" will be Ann Sheridan, Jane Wyman, Gale Page, Marie Wilson, Margaret Lindsay, Jane Bryan and Gloria Dickson. They will relate in celluloid the individual and collective adventures of the girls who fly the transcontinental air-lines.

The only thing missing from Warner studios after the visit of 50,000 American Legionnaires was a "No Visitors" sign (H. Pullman, local Post Commander of the Legion was there and it might be that a search of his place would reveal the missing sign).

When "Artists and Models Abroad" is completed Jack Benny will get the first print for a sneak preview at his home. He has this promise from the director.

Heard two good sermons Sunday, heard Rev. P. W. Walker, pastor of the Methodist church Sunday morning and Rev. J. L. Cartledge, pastor of the Baptist church Sunday night.

Bob Burns' latest picture, "The Arkansas Traveler," opening Nov. 4th at the Lyric Theatre, shows him as a type he has always wanted to play on the screen. He is a happy-go-lucky wandering printer who turns crusading newspaper editor to help a small town family out of trouble. The sage of Arkansas has played every sort of character from a cowpuncher to a senator, but now, in "The Arkansas Traveler," he plays Bob Burns. The picture shows him doing the things he likes best.

I will be expecting to see your smiling faces around the Lyric and Connellee several times during the coming week. Don't disappoint me.

Bob Burns First Picture to Play at Connellee Fri., - Sat.

Back about four years ago Bob Burns was just one of the many extra players in Hollywood looking for work and one of his first roles of any importance was his part as a ruff and tumble two-gun sheriff in "Tombstone Canyon" playing at the Connellee Friday and Saturday. Ken Maynard has the starring role.

The movie fans who like to compare the acting of their stars first work with their present day roles will get a kick out of comparing Burns' role in "Tombstone Canyon" with that of his latest picture, "Arkansas Traveler" that comes to the Lyric next Friday and Saturday.

Bing Crosby, who went to Bermuda for a vacation after viewing the first cut of his new picture, "Paris Honeymoon," writes that he is in enforced training. Automobiles are not allowed on the island and Crosby either has to walk, ride a bicycle or use a carriage.

Four Big Hits at Lyric this Week

EASTLAND LITTLE THEATRE Announces Their First Fall Play!

Friday and Saturday ushers in the Marx Brothers' latest comedy scream "Room Service" based on the play by the same name that played for two years on Broadway. This is said to be the Best Marx brothers picture to date and the cast includes Lucille Ball, Ann Miller and Frank Albertson.

Sunday and Monday brings to the screen Frank Capra's "You Can't Take It With You" which as a stage play was awarded the Pulitzer Prize and the picture promises to be one of the greatest hits of this generation. The story deals with the life of Grandpa Vanderhof, whose pet theory of life was to love thy neighbor as thyself and in living this kind of life he brings to the screen a drama that gives you laughs, tears and heartaches. Put this picture on your must see list.

On Tuesday and Wednesday comes "Hold That Co-Ed," 20th Century-Fox's grand successor to last year's "Ficikin Parade." The story deals with John Barrymore as a vote-chasing, co-ed kissing, budget-bouncing governor who goes goss collegiate, George Murphy, Marjorie Weaver, Joan Davis and Jack Haley interrupt their sparkling and larking to heed the man who rounds up the best football team money can buy, and puts in a female fullback to give you 70 minutes of hilarious fun.

On Thursdays 15c bargain day program will be "Boy Meets Girl" another great picture based on a sensational stage show success. The cast features Pat O'Brien and James Cagney together for the first time since "Ceiling Zero" the cast also includes Marie Wilson, Frank McHugh and Ralph Bellamy. The story deals with a big shot film producer who gets a nervous breakdown from the colossal carrying on of his star writing team.

Who all in one week organize a mass movement to give Hollywood back to the Injuns, inflict a mammoth case of measles on the human cowboy star, crash the broadcast of the premiere of the first million-dollar moompicher and howl something over the air that even made the "mike" blush, with half the lovelies in filmville begging to be romanced they both topple for the small blonde—a cafeteria bean-hustler and such a dizzy! Then they discover how to make a trans-Atlantic phone call for a nickel and get change. No wonder it's the funniest story of Hollywood that ever came out of Hollywood.

If you want to have a week of real entertainment see all four of these pictures.

IN SOUTHERN WATERS—San Francisco-born Natalie Park loves the sea and can always be found on her yacht when not broadcasting. She is here shown wearing a new form fitting swim suit, while cruising about the southern waters.

DRAMA AND COMEDY highlight the airwaves' 4-star shows by day and by night. (1) Charming Alice Frost, who plays the name role in "Big Sister" over the CBS network at 11:30 A.M. EST, Mondays through Fridays, shows how to use a washer during National Washer and Ironer Week, October 23-29. (2) Young Judy Wilbur, played by Joan Tompkins, accused of the killing of Stephen R. Treadway on the night of October 7th, in "Your Family and Mine," heard over the NBC Red network at 5:15 P.M. EST, Mondays through Fridays. (3) Bob Hope grins like the proverbial Cheshire Cat over the success of his own starring program, aired over the NBC Red network every Tuesday at 10 P.M. EST.

RECORD BRICKER—Springfield, Ill. — Hundreds and hundreds of bricks, but only enough to keep Roy Swinford, 44-year-old W.P.A. worker, busy for three hours. He claims a world's record in laying 45,000 bricks daily.

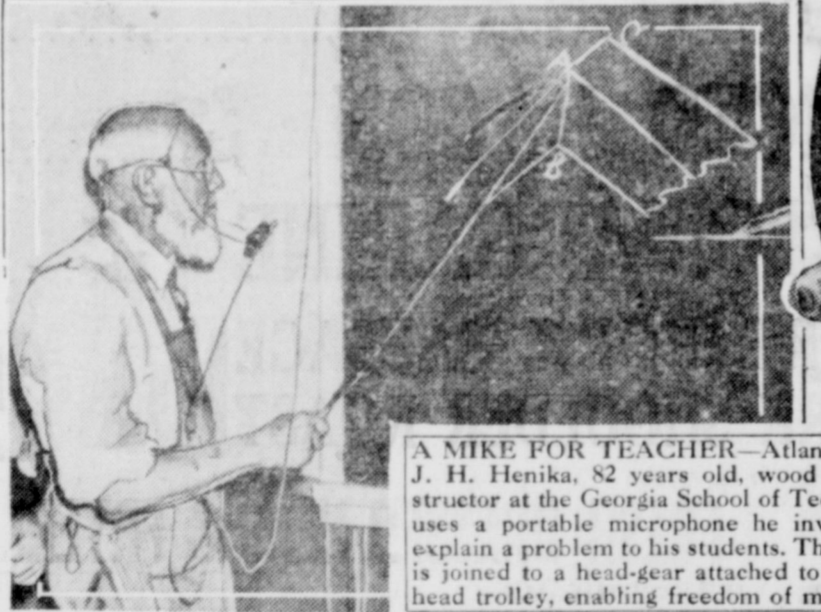

PLENTY OF DOUGH—That's what this giant mixer handles, enough for 1,000 loaves of bread. You can't have a machine like this in your kitchen, but as Consumers Information points out, American manufacturers have developed prepared flours, with all needed ingredients in exact proportions, to save the housewife time and insure against trouble.

LOVELY—Kay Winters, beautiful screen star, snatches a moment of relaxation between "takes" — but the photographer couldn't resist.

A MIKE FOR TEACHER—Atlanta, Ga.—J. H. Henika, 82 years old, wood shop instructor at the Georgia School of Technology, uses a portable microphone he invented to explain a problem to his students. The "mike" is joined to a head-gear attached to an overhead trolley, enabling freedom of movement.

VILLAGE SMITHY ON WHEELS—Realizing that the good old horse and buggy days are gone, old Bill Bennett, blacksmith for 40 years in Newark, New Jersey, now goes to the horses in a completely equipped blacksmith's shop on wheels, creating a new era of modern horse shoeing. Inset shows Mr. Bennett heating a shoe in the portable forge.

FASHIONS FOR LATE FALL—(1) Crowns are going up again in the new Paris fall hats. This one is in black felt trimmed with tiny grosgrain bows in red, green and black. (2) Taupe gray is the smart color of this informal dinner crepe gown. Narrow bands of silver kid give a corseleted look to the waistline. The "hat" is a taupe of gray plume and a wisp of silk net in the same shade.

FATHERS ANTI-CHAIN STORE BILL—Representative Wright Patman, sponsor of the Federal Chain Store Tax Bill to prevent chains from operating in interstate commerce, Congressman Patman illustrates: "The largest food chain—which has about 15,000 stores in 40 states—might for example, be restricted to 500 stores in one state." The remaining 14,500, he says, "would be sold to local managers and citizens, giving that number of people an opportunity of going into business for themselves."

Gorman, director of the department of horticulture, Texas State College for Women, Denton. 500,000 Visit In Texas State Parks During Summer

AUSTIN, Tex.—Eleven Texas state parks were visited by more than half-a-million persons during the four months ending Oct. 1, the National Park Service announced.

The attendance represents an increase of more than 20 per cent over the number of visitors to the same parks during the same period of 1937. The figure for this year was 524,700, while that of 1937 was 422,802.

Mackenzie State Park at Lubbock drew highest attendance with 263,200 visitors. Tyler was second and Daingerfield third.

Goliad State Historical Park, it was revealed in a study separate from the general survey had attendance of 56,400. Attendance at other state parks was:

Balmorhea 26,600; Fort Parker 19,500; Lockhart 15,000; Lake Brownwood 14,200; Longhorn Cavern 9,000; Garner 7,900; Huntsville 7,200; Cleburne 5,700.

In the metropolitan areas where the National Park Service is supervising CCC development the attendance at Bachman-White Rock Park in Dallas dropped from 771,049 in 1937 to 410,300 during the corresponding four months of this year. This decrease was due to main entrances and some of the park roads being closed during construction work, officials said.

The attendance at Tyrrell Metropolitan Park, Beaumont, increased from 43,093 in 1937 to 44,709 in 1938.

The greatest per centages of increase were registered at Tyler and Daingerfield, where lakes the CCC developed were opened to the public for swimming and boating. The attendance at Tyler jumped from 12,989 in 1937 to 60,100 this year, while at Daingerfield it advanced from 20,423 to 48,600.

The attendance figures were included in a general recreational study the National Park Service is making in a selected group of CCC-developed state parks. The State Park Board is cooperating. Public participation in the study included return of questionnaires in which park users designated facilities most enjoyed and offered suggestions for additional features that might advantageously be provided. These questionnaires are being reviewed as the basis of working out future development programs.

"The study has revealed," Acting Regional Director Herbert Maier said, "that Texans are quick to take advantage of added recreational facilities, and that they are alert in recognizing possibilities for future development. The questionnaires seem to indicate that Texans are 'naturals' as park planners. The practical suggestions we have received under this public cooperative plan will be helpful in working up long-range development programs for the state parks of Texas."

Graduate School For Negroes Is Planned

FORT WORTH, Tex.—A plan for a campaign to secure graduate school training for Negroes in Texas will be mapped here Nov. 18 and 19 when the Texas Commission on Inter-Racial Cooperation meets.

The commission has advocated such a school, possibly in connection with the present Prairie View Normal for Negroes. Present plans are to ask a separate appropriation from the legislature or to include the appropriation in the general bill to provide money for state schools.

Should these fail, the commission may institute a test case in court, commission members said. A similar case, now on appeal before the U. S. Supreme Court, was presented in Missouri. A Negro was refused admission to the state university law school, and the Negro pleaded in court that he had no alternative.

The Commission on Inter-Racial Cooperation is composed equally of White and Negro members. Mrs. J. L. Brock of Bryan is state chairman, and W. R. Banks, president of Prairie View Normal is secretary.

Freshman Camera Fan Finds Nice Job

STATE COLLEGE, N. M.—John Gaines, camera fan and editor of the campus newspaper, has an enviable job at the New Mexico A. & M. College here.

Gaines takes moving pictures of bathing-suited freshman co-eds in a personal health class at the college.

Mrs. G. H. Hines, director of women's athletics, then shows the pictures to the co-eds so they may observe any defects in their pictures.

Late in the school year, another set of pictures will be made of the girls after they have taken exercises to correct the defects.

Texas Baptists to Hear Reports On Missions of World

DALLAS, Tex.—Texas Baptists meeting in their annual sessions here Nov. 8-11, will hear reports from their war-ravaged mission fields throughout the world, particularly in the Orient.

The important report on foreign missions, in which the state's 660,000 members of the denomination are keenly interested, will be brought to the convention at an afternoon session Nov. 10. Baptist headquarters here recently received the news of the bombing of the Stout Memorial Hospital at Wuxhow, Kwangai, South China.

The Wuchow hospital is the largest maintained overseas by Southern Baptists, with whom the Baptist General Convention of Texas is affiliated. Among Texans there were Dr. and Mrs. E. E. Beddoe of Dallas and Rev. and Mrs. Rex Ray of Whitewright.

The institution has been doing double duty as a base hospital for wounded soldiers and as a haven for sick refugees.

The convention—the largest gathering of its kind in the world—is expected to draw 12,000 delegates to this North Texas city. Sessions begin Tuesday evening, Nov. 8, and end at noon Friday, under the presidency of Dr. J. B. Tidwell of Waco, professor of Bible at Baylor University.

Challenging the general meeting in interest are two preliminary sessions. The Woman's Missionary Union will hold its forty-eighth annual convention beginning Monday afternoon Nov. 7 under the direction of Mrs. B. A. Copass of Fort Worth, president. The annual pastors' and laymen's conference will also begin Monday afternoon with George J. Mason of Dallas presiding.

The important roles of church women and laymen in carrying on the manifold activities of the denomination in Texas—including the ministry of healing in hospitals, Christian education and home and foreign missions—will be thoroughly discussed and plans for the next year's activities will be made.

Outstanding at the laymen's conference will be discussions of "Texas Baptists and the Liquor Question," by Jeff Davis of Dallas, and a talk on "America and the Nations—A Picture of This Bewildered World," by C. B. Jackson.

Cattle Shipments In Drop From Last Year

AUSTIN, Tex.—During September total shipments of livestock from Texas to Fort Worth stockyards and interstate points were only slightly below those of the corresponding month last year, according to the University of Texas Bureau of Business Research. Shipments of cattle increased, while forwardings of calves, sheep and hogs declined in comparison with a year ago.

Reports from about 1,500 Texas shipping points show total shipments of 7,678 cars, compared with 7,718 cars during September last year, a decline of less than 1 per cent. Cattle shipments, 4,328 cars, were up 8 per cent from last year; shipments of calves, 1,694 cars, declined 8 per cent; hog shipments, 589 cars, also were down 8 per cent, and shipments of sheep, 1,067 cars, were off 13 per cent.

Receipts of Texas cattle, calves and hogs at the Fort Worth market were substantially below September last year, but receipts of sheep at this market increased sharply.

Diver Says It's Easy To Grab Big Fish

WAKEFIELD, Mass. Here's a new tip for anglers who spend countless hours trying to lure fish to bite.

John Forward of Medford, professional diver, recommends that they don diver togs and catches the fish by hand.

While cleaning intake pipes in Crystal lake, part of this city's water supply system, a workman asked Forward to bring me up a fish.

Soon Forward emerged, clutching a 15-inch pickerel.

"It's really very simple," he explains. "I stand perfectly still on the lake bottom with hands outstretched. The fish are curious and swim around and under my arms. When a good one crosses my palms I close 'em, that's all."

Four Students On JTAC's High List

Among the 107 students at John Tarleton College in Stephenville listed as having honor ratings for the first six weeks of the first semester four are from Eastland county.

Students on the list from the county were: Ernest Roland Green, Ranger; Coleman A. O'Brien, Cisco; Dorothy Parker, Gorman; and Vada Belle Tomlinson, Cisco.

Work Experience Is Being Gained By Coryell Farm Boys

AUSTIN, Texas.—Work experience in progressive subsistence farming will be offered 50 Coryell county farm boys on a part-time resident project approved for operation at Gatesville, J. C. Kellam, state NYA director, has announced. The project, scheduled to begin operation by Nov. 15, for a 7-month period, is sponsored by the Gatesville public schools.

Housed in a fourteen-room residence on a 25-acre experimental farm at the edge of the city, the boys will receive practical training in better farming practices under the supervision of a vocational agriculture teacher, furnished through the vocational division of the state department of education, and the Coryell county agricultural agent. They will alternate for two-week periods of residence at the farm, where they will live on a cooperative basis.

To assist in the cooperative operation of the residence and farm, livestock will be placed at the disposal of the group. Emphasis will be placed on raising crops which will supply necessary foodstuffs. In addition to practical experience in operating the farm, youths will receive class instruction each day in the fundamentals of agriculture.

The boys will be employed part-time at the Gatesville public school campus on work in line with their training program. They will help construct a building to be used as a farm shop and classroom, assist in operating a general school work shop, and help improve campus buildings and facilities. Each youth will earn a wage sufficient to pay his part of the cost of operation of the cooperative residence and farm, and to have about $9 left for personal expenses.

"This part-time residence project," said Mr. Kellam, "is a part of the program of the NYA in Texas to help train and encourage rural youth to be better farmers and better rural citizens."

Two Are Shocked Riding Through Pond

HEREFORD, Tex.—M. C. Harcock and W. B. Harris of Hereford got bad shocks when they attempted to ride their horses through a pond of water.

Both riders were thrown to the ground. The horses fell into the water and did not rise. They had been electrified by the current from a power line that had fallen into the pond.

New Wrapping Is Given A Test On Bales of Cotton

NEW ORLEANS.—The Central American jute and the Pittsburgh steel ties tangled in the history of the South's cotton bales soon may be obsolete to the benefit of home-grown products.

First it was jute bagging against which economic experts protested. Why not, they argued, wrap cotton in cotton and dispose of several million bales of an enormous surplus?

This year, 1,000,000 bales of cotton will be wrapped in cloth made from low grade cotton. The department of Agriculture has awarded a $720,000 contract for 6,000,000 yards to the Lane Cotton Mills of New Orleans.

Now Sigmond Odenheimer, president of the textile company, has submitted cotton rope ties to the government for tests. Odenheimer declared he invented cotton bagging in 1888.

He is certain that the government will award him a contract to manufacture enough rope to wrap the 1,000,000 cotton-covered bales.

Rope to cover a bale of cotton weighs four pounds against nine for iron bands. This alone would reduce freight costs on a 12,000,000 bale crop by 184,000,000 pounds.

And, if the government tests are favorable, 200,000 bales of low grade cotton may be taken out of circulation every year.

Army Day Holiday Observed at Fort

EL PASO, Texas.—Army Day was a holiday for College of Mines students, special guests of Fort Bliss on the first of an annual open day at the fort.

Pretty co-eds mounded rides in turreted armored cars from embarrased soldiers.

Students and troopers mingled at lunch in mess halls of the post. Professors and pupils watched regiments at the fort wheel by in a review staged for them, and passed away the afternoon as spectators at polo games.

College of Mines day at Fort Bliss was promised last year when Maj. Gen. Ben Lear spoke at the college on Army Day. He told the students he wanted better understanding between civilians and army men.

Five hundred students visited the fort.

Old Trick Played On Garage Wreckers

DALLAS, Tex.—Tired long ago of attempting to deal with garages that send wreckers racing over the streets to compete for repair jobs after they hear broadcasts of accidents, police set a trap the other day.

A broadcast told of a "wreck" that actually did not happen. Motorcycle Officers P. B. Leach and L. S. Reeves were stationed at an underpass near the scene of the reported wreck.

When three wreckers came through the underpass, racing each other, Leach and Reeves trailed them to the scene, then jailed drivers of all three trucks for speeding.

Wedding Dream Doesn't Come True

By United Press
LUBBOCK, Texas.—Co-eds at Texas Technological college literally have worn out a slice of wedding cake in attempting to verify a belief that if a maid sleeps on wedding caks for eight nights she will dream of the man she is going to marry.

In 96 successive nights, the slice of cake lay under the pillows of 12 curious and pretty co-eds.

"It doesn't work," declared one. "I dreamed about the awfulest goons."
