I Give You Texas

By Boyce House

"Oh, to be in England, now that Christmas is there," to paraphrase Robert Browning.

It may be the Charles Dickens' influence but this commentator has always thought that the Yuletide season in the "right little, tight little isle" was just a bit warmer than anywhere else—a big log crackling in the fire-place, the table laden with such delicacies as a whole roast pig, steaming hot, with a red apple in its mouth, and plum pudding. Then, of course, fragrant "Tom and Jerry"; snow covering everything and changed to bright silver by the moon; singers, all bundled up, going from street to street, singing "God Rest Ye, Merry Gentlemen"; an icy crunching underfoot; icicles dangling like crystals from every roof, and sleigh bells all a-jingle.

Well, anyway, pass the turkey.

How about an "oldest joke" contest to determine the most ancient jest in the world? My nomination is the story of the farmer who saw a giraffe at a circus and declared, "There ain't no such animal."

Today's bit of philosophy: Mark Twain once said, "A certain amount of fleas is good for a dog; it keeps him busy and prevents him from broodin' over the fact that he is a dog."

Roaming around over Texas: As one drives along the Eastland-Ranger-Cisco highway to Breckenridge, he observes what appears to be a man standing beside the road at the top of a hill. It turns out to be a life-size figure of Uncle Sam, in red, white and blue costume, holding the

NEW YORK.—Basketball schedules reveal the steadily broadening trend toward inter-sectional contests and the breaking down of provincial borders.

Introduction of the game at Madison Square Garden has had much to do with this. An appointment there enables college teams from distant points to make profitable barnstorming trips.

Fourteen double-headers... 28 games... are booked at the Garden between Dec. 17 and March 8, bringing in, as opponents for Manhattan clubs, Northwestern, Minnesota, Illinois, Marquette, Toledo, DePaul, Notre Dame, Kentucky, Colorado, Oregon, and Southern California.

A number of teams prepare for their championship campaigns, beginning early in January, by making Christmas tours.

Four of the old Eastern League combinations are taking advantage of the holiday dates.

Yale visits Bradley Tech and the University of Chicago. Cornell takes on Baldwin-Wallace of Berea, O., Pittsburgh, Notre Dame, and Illinois. Dartmouth goes to the coast to engage Stanford, encountering Denver, Western Reserve of Cleveland, and Toledo en route. Princeton travels to North Carolina and Duke of Durham.

OHIO STATE is another outfit headed for the far west to meet Washington in Seattle and Southern California, among others, and in addition to their Western Conference schedule, the Buckeyes swing east to tackle Army, Texas.

scenios you never heard of in football are powers in basketball... institutions such as Bradley Tech and Long Island University. Bradley Tech has one of the more representative inter-sectional schedules.

The Braves go to the golden slope to battle California, pausing along the road to square off with Nebraska and New Mexico. At home Bradley entertains such prominent visitors as Pittsburgh, Oregon, Southern Methodist, Duquesne, George Washington, City College of New York, Omaha, Yale, and New York University.

These games are in addition to its commitments in the Illinois Conference, where it has been unbeaten for two seasons.

FOR the first time in many cases, New York and other eastern quintets are bound across the Alleghenies to meet midwestern stalwarts. Some of these trips are the outgrowth of relations established by visits of the outlanders in recent years to the metropolis. City College goes to Chicago to meet Loyola and to Peoria to engage Bradley Tech, which made its first eastern appearance last March in the intercollegiate invitation tournament.

New York University, for the first time, has a home-and-home arrangement with Notre Dame and will include a stop at Bradley Tech. Manhattan plays Detroit in the Chicago Coliseum, where St. John's deploys against Alabama and Long Island University tackles New Mexico State.

The Eastern intercollegiate and other league schedules extend from Jan. 7 to March 11, and before, during, and after that time the basketballers really will see the footballers how to get around farmer's mail box... No excuse for a veteran to miss a session of the Breckenridge American Legion Post. On the appropriate day, signs reading "Legion Meets Tonight" are placed on traffic markers along Main Street... Private Operative No. 2-11-44 says that the most popular tune for fiddle bands and music machines in beer taverns is "It Makes No Difference Now." Odd that folks out for a good time seem to prefer tunes tingled with melancholy. A perennial favorite has the lugubrious line, "I wish I had died as a baby and then I'd have never met you."

Sometimes, if I ever get around to it, I'm going to write a book on the "forgotten men" in American literature. Eugene Field, who wrote "Little Boy Blue" (and thereby contributed more in three stanzas than all the hundreds of poems by John Greenleaf Whittier) will be given a place. So will James Whitcomb Riley (you remember "When the Frost Is on the Punkin" and "That Old Sweetheart of Mine"). And there will be space for Frank L. Stanton (everyone knows "Mighty Lak a Rose") and those priceless lines:

"This world that we're a-livin' in Is mighty hard to beat; You git a thorn with every rose, But ain't the roses sweet!"

Bridegroom Fails to Bring Along Bride

LOCKHART, Texas.—A youth who asked a justice of the peace to marry him recently was greatly surprised to learn that the bride would have to be present for the ceremony. He told the justice he would be back just as soon as he could steal the girl away from her home.

A favorite story of Senator Tom Connally's: Two negroes were standing in front of a bank. One read aloud the sign, "Capital and surplus, $1,000,000" and the other asked, "Sam, if you had a million dollars, what would you do?" The other replied, "I'd pay it on my debts just as far as it would go."

Styled to Meet Modern Cooking Requirements!

The GIFT Any Woman Will Appreciate In the Home!

Homemakers today have definite opinions as to certain basic features that a cooking appliance should possess. To meet these requirements the Magic Chef ranges were designed for...

More convenience and better utilization of top burner cooking space; more efficiency, convenience and comfort in broiling; higher speed oven—500° in seven to eight minutes from a cold start; low oven temperature, 225° indefinitely; better insulation; lower and more comfortable cooking top height; sturdier construction; and smooth, symmetrical design.

These Magic Chefs are revolutionary, being another important advance in modern cooking appliances. The "semi-direct-action" high speed oven; "swing-out" broiler; center cover—all are all offered for the first time.

MEET "THE HARDY FAMILY" AMERICA' NO. 1 SENSATION

Mickey Rooney, who has created the average American boy with tremendous success in the Hardy Family pictures, goes Wild West with Andy Hardy in his current hit. He was born with a stick of dynamite in his hand on September 23rd in Brooklyn, N. Y. He made his first appearance on the stage at the age of eleven months at the Palace Theatre, New York, and was featured in his own song-and-dance act when he was four. He scored his first success in the Mickey McGuire comedies. At the age of sixteen he is veteran star. Mickey has had one smash hit after another in the past year in "Stable Hands," "Boys' Town," and "Love Finds Andy Hardy." At the present time he is the number one box office star of the United States.

LEWIS STONE, who plays the part of Judge Hardy, was born in Westchester, Massachusetts, November 15th. An American soldier in the wars, explorer, adventurer and matinee idol, he turned his talents to the screen in 1915. His career has been one of the most notable in Hollywood, but of the hundreds of starring roles he has played he considers his Judge Hardy characterization the finest and happiest of all.

CECELIA PARKER, the incurable romanticist of the Hardy Family, Marian, has one of her most serious love affairs in their latest picture. Born in Port William, Canada, April 28th, Miss Parker returns to her first love in the ranch atmosphere of the new picture. She began her career as an extra and first won attention for her work in Westerns. As Greta Garbo's sister in "The Painted Veil" she was an immediate success and has since appeared in scores of pictures, notably the Hardy pictures.

FAY HOLDEN, as lovable "Ma" Hardy was born in Birmingham, Alabama, September 28th, and like so many fine actors and actresses, began her training in the provincial theatres of her native country. She has been on the stage and screen since the age of nine. Her recent pictures were "Sweethearts" and "Test Pilot," in addition to the Hardy successes.

ANN RUTHERFORD, who plays the part of Polly, Andy's best friend, teaches Andy a good lesson in the new hit when Andy comes too cocky after winning his football letter. She was born in Ontario, Canada, November 2nd, she began her career on the stage and still in grade school. Selected as the perfect type for Polly, she signed under a long-term contract and is considered one of Hollywood's most promising young players.

SARA HADEN, as Aunt Milly of the family, is the daughter of the late Walter, noted stage actress, and Dr. John B. Haden, she was born in Galveston, Texas. She appeared successfully on the stage and in "Spitfire" on Broadway and hired her for the same role on the screen version. She is now permanently cast as Aunt Milly, and has been placed under a long contract.

The Lyric Management unconditionally guarantee's "Out West with the Hardys" to be as fine entertainment as money can buy.

Be sure and go to church some where Christmas morning.

The Lyric will have two big midnight shows during the Holidays, Christmas Eve with "Garden of the Moon" starring Pat O'Brien, Jimmy Fidler, Margaret Lindsay and Jimmy Fidler and the other on New Year's Eve featuring "Men With Wings" starring Fred MacMurray.

All the stars of Hollywood join in with me and the employees of Lyric and Connellee theatres, to extend you and yours every wish for Christmas and a Year of Happy Days.

THE WHOLE WORLD HAS HOPED AND DREAMED THAT THESE TWO STARS WOULD CROSS!

Sophisticated Comedy of Kitchen Maid Who Crashes Society, Comes to Lyric Screen Tuesday

Marking her third American screen appearance, Franciska Gaal, noted European stage actress, has the starring feminine role opposite Franchot Tone in "The Girl Downstairs," which opens a 2-day showing at the Lyric theatre next Tuesday.

In the new picture Miss Gaal has the role of a scullery maid in a home of wealth in Switzerland. The story is a modern comedy romance written by Sandor Hunyady, famous Continental dramatist, Norman Taurag directed.

The supporting cast includes Walter Connolly, Reginald Gardiner, Rita Johnson, Reginald Owen and Franklin Pangborn.

Miss Gaal, an accomplished vocalist, sings one song, "When You're in Love," written especially for her by Bob Wright and Chet Forrest.

In "The Girl Downstairs" Tone, playing a wealthy young playboy, falls in love with Rita Johnson. Rita's father, Walter Connolly, decides that he doesn't like Tone and orders his servants to refuse him admittance into the house. To outwit Connolly, Tone strikes up a friendship with Franciska Gaal, the scullery maid. He poses as a chauffeur.

FIDLER AT HOME

Jimmie Fidler felt perfectly at home while playing the role of himself in "Garden of the Moon," playing on the midnight show, Saturday at the Lyric.

The motion picture studio reproduced in detail for his broadcast in the picture the radio studio from which he broadcasts regularly on Tuesday and Friday evenings.

In addition to making the set an accurate, "homey" reproduction of Fidler's real radio workshop, the studio also hired his regular announcer, Bob Sherwood, to do the announcements and introductions in the picture.

As small as a minute and twice as fast!

This timely description aptly fits that "Hundred Thousand Dollar Mopet," Irene Dare, who is making her film debut with Bobby Breen in "Breaking the Ice," showing at the Lyric theatre, Thursday.

Small Irene will soon be queen throughout the land, in the opinion of those who have seen her flitting across the ice.

The six-year-old lass from St. Paul, Minn., is a veritable scorch on skates. Her short legs pump like toy pistons in giving her sufficient momentum to carry her fifty pounds of personality through her Charlotte stops, whirls and figure-eight.

Her pre-production schedule required Irene to rehearse three hours daily under the watchful eye of her mother, but it required the King's horses to get off the ice when her time was up!

To give Irene the proper send-off on her film career, Producer Sol Lesser allotted $100,000 to the ice skating sequences in which she appears.

Homburg-devotee Eden shouldn't go home without sampling that great American dish, the Homburg.

ASKS AUTO DRIVERS TO USE SAFETY

Criminal District Attorney Earl Conner, Jr., Wednesday solicited the cooperation of all drivers to assist in keeping traffic violations and accidents at a minimum during the holiday season.

"Particular attention," commented the official, "will be directed to drivers operating under the influence of liquor, as statistics recently received from the National Safety Council show that most accidents resulting from influence of liquor occur during the period from Dec. 20 to Jan. 15."

Conner requested the cooperation of citizens in reporting all accidents to officers.

It was pointed out that progress in reducing accidents in the U. S. this year was greatly aided because of investigation of mishaps and scientific study of the causes.

Since Monday, Dec. 20, also will be observed as a holiday by the majority of citizens, the traffic conditions on that day and also on Christmas will be doubly hazardous, it was said.
