School Annexation Is Under Fire In Hearing On Friday

A hearing has been set for Friday morning, March 22, in 88th district court to determine whether a temporary order, which would restrain the county school board from putting into effect annexation of the Mangum Common School District with the Carbon Independent School District, should not be issued.

A temporary order to restrain the county board was asked in a petition filed in the court previously this week by N. B. Gray, a trustee of the Mangum school district, and E. N. Mangum, voter in that community, who claim that the county board illegally annexed by order the Carbon and Mangum school districts.

They claim that the purported annexation is not legal under the steps the county board has taken. The case will be heard later on its merits.

Cornelius Invites Public to Inspect Plant and Offices

The public has been invited to attend open house this afternoon at the new plant and offices of Victor Cornelius, Eastland business man and owner of a patented theatrical poster service which is used by several hundred theatres in 40 states.

Located at 115 East Commerce street, the plant and offices of Mr. Cornelius are acclaimed by authorities as being among the latest and most modern anywhere. Those who visit during the open house hours today, from 3 o'clock to 6 o'clock in the afternoon, will see the modern printing facilities which are necessary in the production of the posters, the manner in which the posters are prepared for shipment to all parts of the nation and offices where a staff keeps records on orders, shipments and other business.

The Cornelius theatrical advertising service is regarded as unique in that Mr. Cornelius conceived the idea and is responsible for its successful operation. Testifying to the growth of the business is the fact that in the offices is a machine with which it is possible to send and receive Western Union telegrams.

Because of the large shipments of theatrical advertising posters, receipts of the Eastland Postoffice and American Railway Express company have increased considerably since the service was initiated.

Also housed in the modern building, of which there are two separate units although they are inter-connected, is a music department operated exclusively in 15 counties by Mr. Cornelius. The music department is supervised by A. B. Cornelius.

Employees in the various departments are: Printing—Joe Stephen, Glenn Graham. Shipping—Eldred Gattis, Lowell Snyder, Clyde Pettit, C. W. Pettit. Office—Mrs. E. O. Everett, Mrs. W. Q. Vermer, Miss Gertrude Van Horn. Music—A. B. Cornelius, Roger Moorhead, Orville Reed.

Right-of-way Sought For a New Highway

A Ranger Chamber of Commerce committee, composed of Pleas E. Moore and E. A. Ringold has been busy the past two days contacting landowners along the right-of-way of Highway 301, which follows the railroad line from Desdemona to Ranger. Deeds calling for enough land to build a highway alongside the railway right-of-way were left with the landowners by the two, who will later contact them to see if they are willing to sign the land over to the state highway department for road building purposes.

A Soft Voiced Girl Is Truant Officer

BELMONT, Mass.—No longer is the truant officer a person to be feared, for the supervisor of attendance in Belmont schools is a 125-pound young woman with blue eyes and a soft voice. Miss Eleanor McCormack has held the position for six months and has found only 25 truancy cases in 500 investigated. She "tries to bring a friendly feeling to the work" and wherever possible makes personal visits instead of using the telephone.

PICK GORMAN AS LOCATION FOR S.W.P.G.

Dick Weckes, manager of the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association, announced Monday the organization has selected Gorman as future headquarters. The organization is now located in Eastland.

Weckes said the removal to Gorman will be within 30 to 60 days and is being taken because more peanuts are marketed in Gorman than in any town of the state. In 1939 he said, 2,250 tons of peanuts were bought by the association in Gorman and that in 1938 the figure was 2,450 tons. Weckes added that the tonnage was only one-half of the total marketed in the town.

He also stated that Gorman would be the location of any co-operative undertaking established by the organization.

Weckes, Conrad Schaefer, Rising Star, president; J. D. Sargent, Tolar, vice president, and T. D. Robinson, De Leon, secretary-treasurer, on Friday of this week are to leave on a trip during which they will inspect cooperative fertilizer and peanut mill undertakings in Georgia and Florida. While in Georgia they will visit in Camilla, Ga., headquarters of the Georgia, Florida and Alabama Growers Association, an organization similar to the Southwestern Peanut Growers Association.

Reduction of WPA Workers On Jobs Due

R. Towner Dickinson, area WPA engineer, announced Thursday that a reduction of 250 workers has been ordered for Eastland county projects, effective April 1. The reduction is in keeping with a national WPA quota reduction, stated the official.

The reduction of workers will be shared on the various projects sponsored by the county and other political subdivisions, he said. Over the Fort Worth district, in which the county is a part, the quota reduction averages 15 per cent, declared Dickinson.

Golf Tournament Of Ranger Club Will Be Staged

The directors of the Ranger Country Club have decided to hold another club tournament this year, similar to the one held last year.

The tournament will be for club members and regular players. Qualifying rounds will start anytime before Sunday, April 7, and the meet will continue through Sunday, April 21. Registration fee will be $1. Match play will begin Sunday, April 7 and will be completed by Sunday, April 21.

H. H. Vaughn, vice president of the club, appointed a committee composed of T. J. Hensley, H. T. Schooley and A. N. Larson, which will have charge of all arrangements.

Valuable awards, similar to those used in previous club tournaments, will be given, it was announced today by members of the committee.

The tournament was decided upon because of the popularity of the event in past years, and because a number of members had urged that it be staged. It was decided by the directors that the annual invitation tournament be set for the latter part of May or the first of June, but dates for this tournament have not been set, as yet.

WASHINGTON, Mar. 21.—The treasury department reported today that income tax payments in the first 20 days of March were 31.2 per cent better than during the same period of last year, but said collections were still insufficient to cover the extra $460,000,000 emergency national defense program.

Pigeons Try Out Bird of an Idea

Folks in Elizabeth, N. J., thought they were hearing things when they saw pigeons flying around, apparently carrying like canaries. But their ears weren't deceiving them. Two British Ships Leave for Duty In Transport Service

NEW YORK, Mar. 21.—The British liner, Queen Mary, 81,000 tons, second largest ship in the world, and the 35,000 ton Mauretania, have sailed mysteriously from New York harbor. The Mauretania left last night in a driving rain and the Queen Mary left today.

It was presumed that the two ships had sailed for Australia to transport troops for the British Army, concentrating in the Near East.

The Mauretania was armed with two anti-aircraft guns and one six-inch gun on her stern. The Queen Mary was unarmed.

It was believed that the ships sailed under sealed orders. Several sailors who were to go on board the Queen Mary, arrived in New York six hours too late, as the boat had already sailed when they arrived.

Newspaper's Annual School On Cooking Scheduled April 4-6

The greatest achievement one can aspire to in these modern times is doing whatever job is ours to do, not half heartedly, but skillfully and better than anyone else can do it. This same principle applies to woman's place in the home. There is no finer accomplishment than to be one of those women who takes pride in the management of her home and who is always seeking new ways to improve old methods in marketing, or cooking the daily meals.

So that it may serve the women of this community on a broader scope, the Eastland Daily Telegram and Chronicle have secured the services of Mrs. Gertrude Burbank, widely known Home Economist and Lecturer, to conduct the Happy Kitchen Cooking School, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 4, 5 and 6, at the roof garden of the Connellee Hotel.

Miss Burbank's wealth of knowledge in running the home more efficiently will inspire every woman who attends the Happy Kitchen Cooking School. During the sessions many valuable suggestions will be given, including the proper equipment required in the modern kitchen to enable one to work efficiently and save labor. Little household hints will be divulged that will lighten everyday tasks. New economy cuts on marketing and planning will be discussed. New and appetizing menus will be given, enabling one to change up the order of old stand-bys that no longer tempt the jaded appetites of the family. The importance of different vitamins and how they affect the energy and well being of the family and many more helpful suggestions that will help each woman raise the standard of living in her own home. Something new is offered every day, so plan now to attend every day. The admission is free to the Happy Kitchen Cooking School. Plan now to attend each and every session. Remember the dates are Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 4, 5 and 6.

South American Trade Picks Up

American business men who feared the effects of the war on foreign commerce, can take some comfort from the fact that nothing very sinister has happened so far.

What trade has been lost with Germany has been amply made up in increased business with Great Britain, France, the Netherlands and the Scandinavian countries.
And, meanwhile, the new PanAmerican solidarity has doubled exports from the United States to South America, according to United States Department of Commerce figures, based on comparisons between January, 1939, and January, 1940.

In January, 1939, this country exported $18,695,000 worth of goods to South American countries. In January, 1940, $38,566,000 worth of material was shipped down.
Imports from South America, on the other hand, rose only slightly—from $27,309,000 for January, 1939 to $31,570, 000 for January, 1940.

In any school of economics, this looks like a favorable balance of trade. In January, 1939, we imported goods worth 8 1-2 million dollars more than we exported. In January, 1940, we sent to South America seven million dollars more than we exported. In January, 1940, we sent to South America seven million dollars more in goods than we took from her. It looks good except for one hitch: South American republics can't hold down their end of the teeter-totter unless something is done about arranging credits or providing exchange.

It would be wise to preserve the South American market, not alone for its immediate value but for its potentialities. The United States has not suffered heavily from collapse of trade in Europe. As a matter of fact, if the war should increase in its fury, chances are the United States would pick up a new flood of orders from the allies.
Before the war ends, the allies may be stone broke.
Under any circumstances, when the fighting is over, trade will drop off very suddenly. That's when this country will be able to use a reliable market such as South America can provide.

In the long run, American business men might find it more profitable all the way around to concentrate on the markets in this hemisphere than to rely too heavily on the possible economic spurt in Europe.

YOU ROLL EGGS FOR EASTER NOW,
ONCE YOU'D ROLL YOURSELF

Easter, one of the most holy days on the Christian calendar, draws its name from Eostre, pagan Anglo-Saxon goddess of spring.
Many of the outward symbols with which the day is marked—outside the religious observance—also had their origin in pagan sources. Pagans once rolled one another down hill to express joy at the coming of spring and ate red eggs as symbols of power at the feast of spring. Since then it has been found simpler to roll eggs instead of people.

The eggs traces to an old German legend. It's foundation is doubtful, for a hare would be as surprised to find his burrow full of eggs as are children finding them under the bed Easter morn.

Rugged children of Finland, aping the child who holds his breath for spit, spank each other with pussywillow or birch switches until their parents come through with rewards of Easter eggs.
In Hungary, the village boys used to duck girls in streams or pour buckets of water over their heads. More discreet modern method of noting Easter is to sprinkle the girls with perfume.
Victims thus drenched pay tormentors with gifts of colored eggs.

White House egg rolling dates to the days of Dolly Madison, the Mrs. Roosevelt of a century ago.
Dispensed with during the Wilson administration, when White House gates were locked, the custom was revived by Mrs. Harding in 1921.
South of the border, Mexicans burn effigies on Easter eve, each representing the Judas or traitor in the life of a peon.

BRUCE CATTON IN WASHINGTON

By BRUCE CATTON
NEA Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON.—A political situation extremely unfavorable to the President's third-term hopes—if he really has any—is developing in California.

A Democratic factional fight there is rapidly shaping up which, in the opinion of party leaders in Washington, will badly embarrass him in getting the state's convention delegates, may throw those delegates to some other candidate and thus his chance of carrying the state next fall if he does get the nomination.

Importance of this last point lies in the fact that California has heretofore been rated a fairly safe Democratic state, and is considered one of the states the Democratic nominee must carry if he is to be elected.

TWO SLATES BEING FORMED FOR F. D. R.

To begin with, two Roosevelt slates of delegates are in the making. One is headed by Gov. Culbert L. Olson; the other will shortly be formed by the McAdoo-Creeley wing of the California Democracy. Under California's law, a local committee can enter a slate pledged to any candidate, and the consent of the candidate is not necessary, to keep such a slate off the ballot he must formally disavow it, in writing.

Governor Olson at the moment is in exceptionally hot water. Recent petitions in circulation, with enough signatures to force an election virtually assured. Recall election date is expected to be set for some time just before the Democratic convention; recent advices say that the governor's recall is almost a certainty. Olson is in bad with both right and left wingers in his state; also, he has been hurt by recent changes that have shaken down heavily.

Thus there will be two delegate slates. Let them both go on the ballot—and they will be likely to split the vote and let a third slate through. Preparation of such a slate, nominally pledged to a favorite son and prepared to throw its vote either to Wheeler, Farley or Hull, is reliably reported; one California politician here flatly predicts that it will win if it opposes two FDR slates.

Yet the President can hardly disavow either of the two Roosevelt slates—which he must do, in writing, to keep one off the ballot—without, by inference, coming out in the open as a formal candidate.

Complicating the situation is the fact that in 1936 FDR did endorse a California slate, over his signature. Some men from that slate are today in the McAdoo-Creeley faction, some are in the Olson faction; and the third faction has photostats of the 1936 endorsement which it is ready to flourish, to add to everybody's embarrassment.

DOWNNEY IS READY TO ENTER BATTLE

LASTLY, California's Senator Sheridan Downey is ready for battle. He is keeping clear of the primary fight—has turned down requests that he be a favorite son candidate—but he is quietly prepared to a third term, and has quietly let it be known that if F. D. R. is nominated here—Downey will spend the last two months of the campaign stumping California to beat him.

Downey holds the Townsend vote in a firm grip, and that vote is very strong in California. He is also a stunner speaker of great energy and ability. All in all, he could be an uncommonly painful thorn in the presidential side.

Midnight A Critical Time Of Ones Life

By United Press
EDINBURGH.—The registrar general for Scotland claims to have debunked the whole belief that the early hours of the morning are the most critical times of births and death, and that midnight is the moment of foreboding.

Taking a cross section of 6,059 deaths, he found that 48.8 per cent took place in the first half of the day and 51.6 per cent in the second half of the day; 50.8 per cent took place between 6 in the morning and 6 in the evening, compared with 49.2 per cent between 6 in the evening and 6 in the morning, when it generally is supposed that deaths occur more frequently.

REPORT GIVEN UPON CITY PAVING WORK

Property owners of Eastland were again urged Saturday to avail themselves of the opportunity of paving their streets by cooperating in the City of Eastland-sponsored WPA paving project.

While many blocks of the city have already been paved still more are unpaved, officials pointed out. The project was started in June, 1938. The first unit of the project was completed in September, 1939, according to R. Townner Dickinson, area WPA engineer, with expenditure of the WPA totaling $73,316.55 and the sponsor's contribution in assisting valued at $30,474.73.

Property owners are required to pay a small part of the paving cost. The cost to the property owner is so low now that it is probable in future years the opportunity to pave so cheaply will never be equaled, it is pointed out.

At present the project is operating under the second unit which began October 1, 1939. Under this unit the WPA proportion is $69,853.10 and the sponsor's $32,255.75. In the second unit thus far the WPA's expenditure has been $19,602.12 and the sponsor's contribution valued at $7,595.20.

Under both units, or since the beginning of the project in June, 1938, the WPA has spent $92,918.67 and the sponsor's contribution valued at $38,069.95.

Listed are the names of streets on which work has been performed or is being performed under both units of the project, including paving or curb and gutter, and the number of blocks on each street: Connellee, four blocks; Dixie, five blocks; Ostrom, two blocks; Neblett, two blocks; West Main, eight blocks; Valley, three blocks; S. Marsh, three blocks; South Daugherty, six blocks; Oak, one block; Lamar, one block; Hill, three blocks; Bassett, one-half block and Garvin, one block.

In addition, paving of the drives in front of the high school and junior high school, paving in the cemetery and park drives have been completed.

Recently the construction of side walks has been included as permissible as work to be permitted under the project.

An average of 90 men have been employed on the project.

Banker Thanked For Helping 4-H Group To Success

F. E. Walker of Rising Star, sponsor of the Eastland County Dairy Jersey Cattle Club, which from a small beginning several years ago has developed into one of the most outstanding in the state, in a letter Saturday to the American Jersey Cattle Club gave much credit for the success of the organization to Albert Taylor, who is manager of the Eastland National Bank.

When the club first started, the bank, through Mr. Taylor, aided the organization in getting its start and has continued in its development.

Walker wrote the letter to Lewis Morley, secretary of the American Jersey Cattle Club, with headquarters in New York.

"Dear Mr. Morley: 'Will do my best to tell you how our 4-H club boys of Eastland County have made such a wonderful success in their work the past three years. You asked me for this information some time ago and I have been so busy that I haven't had time to answer your letter.

"For the first time Eastland county had the best 5 heifers from any county in the state at Fort Worth this year. In 1938 we had the best 5 heifers at Dallas State Fair at Dallas. I am very proud of these boys and am hoping that they do better from year to year.

"The man that has done for our boys, is Mr. Albert Taylor, president of the Eastland National Bank. He has made it possible for the boys to buy well-bred and good quality heifers to use in their club work.

"We all are proud that Mr. Taylor of the Eastland National Bank has helped these boys make their wonderful success in 4-H club work.

"Several of the boys have won free trips out of the state and three of them went to the National Dairy Show in California with their assistant county agent.

Selling Beer On Train In County Is Illegal, Too

For sale of beer in a diner of a train of the Texas and Pacific Railway Company while it stopped in Eastland a negro paid a $100 fine and costs Saturday in county court.

V. L. DeLaney of Abilene, district supervisor of the Texas Liquor Control Board, said three inspectors had boarded the train at another point and in compliance with an order the negro, Ed Anderson, employe in the diner, served the beer.

The specific charge on which the negro paid the fine and costs was "sale of beer in dry territory." The offense was alleged to have occurred the latter part of January.

Reynaud Forms a New Cabinet for French Govern'm't

PARIS, March 21.—Premier-designate Paul Reynaud, today presented to Albert Lebrun, president of France, the new cabinet which he has formed at the request of Lebrun. Reynaud is known to be a bitter foe of the nazis.

Reynaud, former finance minister, and known as "The Fox" was requested to form the cabinet when Premier Daladier and the cabinet resigned after a weak vote of confidence by the chamber of deputies.

No announcement as to the membership of the cabinet had been made today, though it was stated that former Premier Daladier had been named to the post of minister of war and national defense. Reynaud is to have the dual post of premier and foreign minister.

Raisers of Sheep And Goats to Meet Tuesday, Mar. 26

Sheep and goat raisers of Eastland County are being invited to meet at Eastland on Tuesday, March 26 at 2 p. m. to form a county organization and discuss how to market their wool and mohair. Elmo V. Cook, county agent, has announced. L. F. Aston, manager of the Mid-West Wool Marketing Association, Fort Worth, will talk to the group on cooperative marketing. Frank Grayson, Marketing Specialist for the U. S. Department of Agriculture will discuss mohair and wool grades.

There is no definite marketing set-up for wool and mohair in Eastland County, according to County Agent Cook. For this reason he is expecting a high percentage of the wool and mohair producers of the county to attend the meeting and help work out plans for a definite marketing arrangement. Growers have also requested the meeting in order that a county organization of sheep and goat raisers can be formed to sponsor an educational program to acquaint growers with solutions to some of their production problems such as selecting breeding animals, feeding, and control of parasites.

Cook estimates that the numbers of sheep and goats in Eastland County have increased at least ten fold in the last five years and states that if there were as many sheep and goats in the county as the land could conveniently carry their income would exceed all the present agricultural income of the county and the cattle carrying capacity would be increased greatly by the resulting eradication of weeds and brush.

Germans Harrass British Ships On England's Coast

German warplanes swept down again today on British shipping along the eastern coast, killing five men aboard a British freighter after sinking one and damaging two neutral ships in a convoy near Scapa Flow last night. German claims were that nine warships and merchantmen had been sunk in the Scapa Flow raids, and these claims were denied by the British.

Meantime Ronald Cross minister of economic warfare, announced in London that Great Britain was keeping a close watch on Russian purchases in the United States to see that none of the materials bought got to Germany.

German experts at Bucharest were trying to cement trade agreements with Rumania, and Italy was reported to have sought 470,000 tons of Rumanian oil for this year.

Three Hearts In A Tin Cup Just "Get Goats" of Officers

JUAREZ, Mex.—Three hearts in a tin cup found floating in the Rio Grande brought visions of fiendish murder to Juarez police—until the incident "got their goat."

The hearts, each the size of a small apple and jabbed with hairpins, were found by Mexican immigration officials who turned them over to Juarez police. Medical examination revealed the hearts to be those of goats and police relaxed, content that Mexican-Indian black magic instead of gruesome "child murder" was all with which they had to contend.

Some persons believe that pins stuck in animal hearts will bring bad luck to enemies.

Town Prepares An Easter Pageant

LAWTON, Okla. — The vast crowds that have attended Lawton's annual Easter pageant are expected to be even larger this year because of the "sobering influence" of the war in Europe.

The spectacle of Christ's life, death and resurrection will be performed for the 13th time on March 24 in a replica of the Holy City set in a natural amphitheater of the Wichita Mountains.

Rehearsals for the cast of 3,000 persons is well under way. The Rev. A. W. Wallock, who founded the pageant in 1927 and has directed it ever since, said the script this year calls for 56 speaking parts. Until the "Holy City" was wired for sound last year, the acting was in pantomime with a monologue through a loud-speaking system.

As the reputation of the pageant has grown, attendance has soared past the 100,000 mark, creating a major traffic and housing problem. The crowd has become as much a spectacle as the tableaux.

Thousands of early arrivals, unable to obtain rooms in Lawton, spend the night on the granite slope that rises from the "stage" in the valley. Their campfires are visible for miles.

But the standout object in the early morning darkness will be this year, as last, the huge illuminated cross on the hilltop. A rocky path leads to the summit, with lighted shrines where the faithful may kneel in prayer.

The Rev. Wallock said the 1940 pageant will consist of 60 scenes, or tableaux, and will begin about 3 A. M. Floodlights, strategically placed on the hillside, will illuminate the setting with almost daytime intensity. The climax will be the portrayal of the Resurrection at dawn.

Gov. Leon Phillips has directed 88 officers and enlisted men of three units of the Oklahoma National Guard to assist in the control of traffic. Col. Grover C. Wamsley of Anadarko, commander of the 158th Field Artillery regiment, will be in charge.

Officials said they hesitated to predict the 1940 attendance figures because these depend on so many factors, the most important of which is the weather.

"But the prospects are for the largest crowd ever," the Rev. Wallock said. "For one thing, the war is turning the minds of the people to spiritual things. Many are prayerfully thankful that we have not become involved."

"Are you guilty or not guilty?" the judge demanded.

Engineer Gives A Bright Picture Of The Future Life

CLEVELAND, O.—Daylight visibility at night, air in private homes as pure as mountain air, and choicest fruits and vegetables will be common in the civilization of the future, Dr. Phillips Thomas, research engineer, believes.

"Only the question of time and economics stands in the way," he said. "From new germicidal lamps—which kill bacteria effectively by rays—and the precipitron, a new device operating electrically to remove dust and even smoke particles from the air, will come the germ- and dust-free air in the homes of the future."

He demonstrated a two-inch lamp rated as the "brightest thing on earth" and showed fluorescent lamps which he said would make possible a world in which people would "suit the light to their mood."

BLANTON SUIT COMES TO END ON DISMISSAL

In a surprise move Friday afternoon in 88th district court, Thomas L. Blanton voluntarily dismissed his $40,000 libel suit against Congressman Clyde L. Garrett and J. W. Cockrell, Garrett's secretary.

The sudden ending of the case was in sharp contrast to action which had preceded the previous sessions of the court. Smiles replaced bitter words and handshakes were evident to replace objections and exceptions, many of which were made by attorneys on both sides since the case began Monday.

Immediately preceding Judge E. W. Patterson's sustinment of Blanton's motion to dismiss, the plaintiff had read depositions from congressmen telling of Blanton's record in congress.

Technically, Blanton Friday afternoon took a non-suit and must pay the court costs. The motion by Blanton to dismiss the case was phrased as follows: "Now comes the plaintiff in the above entitled and numbered cause and says that he will not further prosecute said cause, and said plaintiff hereby takes a non-suit in said cause and the court is asked to dismiss this suit at the cost of the plaintiff."

Asked to comment on the dismissal, Blanton told a newspaperman: "I never did want one cent of Clyde Garrett's money, but all I wanted was the opportunity in a courthouse to bring the sworn testimony of a score of the most substantial members of congress, with whom I have served for many years, and know me and my service better than anyone else, to prove that during my entire career in congress that I have never been guilty of a dishonorable act. Their sworn testimony has proven that. That was all I wanted and that is what I got. Let Clyde go forth rejoicing."

"I have no comment to make at this time," stated Garrett, who plans to return to congress in several days.

Citizens Free of Cost

H. J. Tanner, secretary-manager of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, has received a supply of 1940 Texas Highway maps issued by the Texas Highway Department which are available to the public without charge.

The maps were sent to the Chamber of Commerce by Julian Montgomery, state highway engineer, in compliance with a request by Tanner.

The new maps are corrected to Feb. 15, 1940, and are printed on linen-like paper. On one side are printed facts about Texas, pictures of highway markers, descriptions of points of interest in the state and many pictures taken in the state. On the other side is the map of the state, an index to aid in finding towns and the population of the towns.

American Legion Dance Saturday

Second in a series of dances sponsored by the Eastland American Legion post will be held Saturday evening at the clubhouse at the City Park. Post Commander Henry Pullman has announced.

Because of the interest shown at the first dance, which attracted persons from over this section, the event Saturday night is expected to be attended by a larger crowd.

The Eastland American Legion orchestra will play for the dance Saturday night, it was stated.

The public has been invited to attend.

An Indian mound, 190 feet long, 145 feet wide and 30 feet high, located on the Red River near Texarkana has given up to University of Texas and WPA excavators seven successive dwelling levels of early Texas Indians.
