Here And There With The Mavericks

BY JOHN JACKSON

The Mavericks and the De Leon Bears played a 0-0 tie last Friday night at De Leon. The game was a see-saw affair all the way through. There were no penetrations on either side but the Mavericks went to the De Leon 25 yard line one time while the Bears only got to the Mavericks 40 yard line one time.

Several good runs were made by Crossley, Edleman, and Matthews and others. There were very few first downs made on either side. The game was counted as a half of a game won and a half game lost for both sides.

The Mavericks have played their second tie and it is going to be a habit before long if any more turn out that way. The game last week was played on a muddy field and it was to the disadvantage of both teams, mainly Eastland.

This afternoon at 2:30 o'clock the Mavericks will take on their second contestant in the 1945 District 10-A Conference race. Their opponent will be the Gorman Panthers. This will be the first home game and should draw a good crowd unless some of the rain clouds return.

The Gorman Panthers have been beaten by De Leon, 27-0, and by Dublin Lions, 25-0, so you can get an idea of how the score might turn out. The Dublin Lions play De Leon tonight so after tonight one should be able to get an idea of how the Conference stands. The Panthers are handicapped by lack of experience and weight but they are expected to give the Mavericks a run for their money.

The Mavericks have been handicapped this past week by the rainy weather. It has rained nearly every day during practice hours and the Mavericks have been working out in the gym. Wednesday they got to put on their pads for a real workout and again Thursday for a light practice.

There are some changes in the Mavericks line-up this week but this writer will not attempt to name any of them, just yet. The best way for you to find out is to come out to the game. That way it will benefit both you and the team. If you come to the game for no other reason at all, come out and see the improvements that are being made and have been made on the field and stadium. In time to come the stadium will actually be something the team, and the town will be proud of.

Next week the Mavericks have an open date and will rest up and get in shape for a tough game with the highly touted Dublin Lions. It has not yet been decided but there may be a "B" team game next Friday or possibly a fill up for the open date.

WANT A BOOK TO READ . . .

"Pride's Way" a first novel by Robert Molloy, Book Review Editor of the New York Sun, has its setting in Charleston, South Carolina, birth place of Mr. Molloy.

The time of the story is 1910. The principal characters are two sisters, "Miss Tessie" and "Miss Julie". The things they do and say, the things they like make this a story full of the humor, and pathos which grow out of little human contradictions.

Back of the characters is the lovely old town of Charleston. Mr. Molloy uses words to a great advantage in his descriptions. As one reads, the fine old mansions, the Victorian gingerbread houses, the negro shacks are easy to see. Turbanned negro woman, the "raw swamp" man hawling his wares in rich Gullah, the "sisters" patching up their quarrels all pass along in easy pictures. The trees and shrubs even the red geraniums in the rusty tin cans which adorn some negro shacks take on a brilliance under the pen of this man who is new in the field of fiction.

"Pride's Way" should be a good read for an evening by the fire.

The largest oak tree in the world is located at Hahnville, La. It is the president of the "Live Oak Society," an organization composed of the States largest oaks. Annual dues of members are 20 acorns each.

MORE THAN 300 ATTEND COUNTY LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION BARBECUE AND FIELD DAY

The Annual Barbecue and Field Day of the Eastland County Livestock Association was held Saturday, October 6 at the City Park. Business men of Eastland were invited for the event. An excellent barbecue dinner was served to over 300 guests.

John Childress, president of the organization, presided, introducing the speakers of the evening, Judge V. T. Seaberry, W. B. Pickens, and County Agent, J. M. Cooper.

A resume of Eastland County's livestock assets was the main theme of Judge Seaberry's speech. "Eastland County has more than 10,000 beef cattle, 6,000 dairy cattle, 75,000 sheep, and goats, more than 10,000 turkeys and over 100,000 laying hens," related Seaberry. The important thing now is to improve the grades and quality of the animals and fowls on the farms and ranches of the county. One way to do this, and it is an essential step toward stability, is to have County Fair grounds and buildings of a permanent nature." The speech was enthusiastically received.

W. B. Pickens brought an enlightening and instructive talk to the crowd in his summing up of the progress being made by REA and Texas Electric Service Co., in extending to rural communities electric service by the building of more lines.

J. M. Cooper talked on the objective of the Livestock Association, the up grading of stock in the County and the attaining of permanent ground and exhibit facilities for display of such stock and other produce of the county. Will There Be Any Flues in the Plans for Your New Home?

... THEY ARE MOST IMPORTANT

It has been said that heat is almost as important as food to life and health. This is why house heating should be an important consideration in the planning of your new home.

Flues are necessary for venting the equipment if natural gas heat is to be enjoyed at its best. So whether you plan to heat your new home with floor furnaces, circulators, gasteam radiators or a combination of these, or with a central furnace, the location of the equipment and the flues should be included in the plans and specifications.

When heating equipment is vented, wall sweating is prevented and stuffy air eliminated. For more healthful and comfortable heat, plan your heating as part of house and install necessary flues when house is built.

Note to:
Architects, Builders, Plumbers, Lumber Yards and Heating Contractors

Your gas company has available for you a free booklet which tells in detail the proper installation of all kinds of gas equipment in the home, and gives specific information about location of equipment and necessary flues. Call at gas company office for your copy.

Here's Good News For Mr. and Mrs. America

H. J. Heinz Company is pointing the way to postwar food price stabilization. A special announcement from the Pittsburgh home office said the company has authorized a six and one-half percent reduction in the case lot price of ketchup effective immediately over almost all of the United States.

H. J. Heinz II, president, explained that the cut was made possible because of the Heinz Company's ability to produce in greater volume at lower cost and also because of savings effected in distribution of the Heinz line. "We are pleased," he added, "to pass this advantage along to the consumer."

"We are not," he continued, "waiting for the pressure of competitive events to move us. The food industry, like any other, owes an obligation to the public to do everything consistently possible to keep price ranges on consumer goods within reach of all. In so doing, business does not need government edicts to enforce values."

Heinz Ketchup, which the company sold even below its government ceiling during the war, is being turned out in greater volume than any time in its history, but the company pointed out that the allotment system to grocers will remain in effect for the time being in order to get proper distribution.

During the war years many grocery shelves were bare of Heinz Ketchup and others of the famous 57 Varieties, due to government commitments and increased demands. "However," Mr. Heinz said, "government cutbacks are enabling us to concentrate heavily upon the civilian market and we are confident that in the near future our production will be such as to give the retail store owner an opportunity to begin his postwar merchandising with the knowledge that ample stocks will be always available."

Funeral services were held in the Gansight cemetery, Wednesday, Oct. 3, at 2:30 p. m. for Mrs. Josephine Baggett, widow of J. D. Baggett.

The member of the Bernice Coles Post, American Legion met last Thursday night with a Chili doughnut and coffee feast at the Legion hall.

The Lions Club had as guest speaker last Friday at the regular weekly luncheon, Miss Alice Choy, Chinese student of journalism at Hardin - Simons University. She was introduced by Gib Sandeford and spoke in perfect English. Those present were surprised at her youth. She opened her speech by expressing the thanks of her countrymen for the aid given China by the United States. Her entire talk was simple and to the point.

She said she had spent days and days without food or water, and at times her throat ached. This was the time when the cities had been bombed and there was no food nor water available. Sometimes the soldiers of China had only rice and water to eat and once in a while a small bowl of vegetables. This went on for eight years. She expects to return to China and publish a paper. She said that the Americans and Chinese had always been the best of friends, and hoped they would continue.

Miss Choy referred to the inflation in China, in giving her experience in preparing to come to America, she had to have $1,700. She had some jewelry, which she sold through an agent, for a million dollars, Chinese money, after the commission was paid she had only $3,000, American money.

At a meeting called at Lamesa Monday, five representatives from Breckenridge attended. This meeting was called for the purpose of extending and improving Highway 180 into New Mexico, the movement was organized by A. L. Hoover of Artesia, N. M. President, three vice presidents from Texas were named and three to be named from New Mexico. Vice presidents from Texas were Allen Guin, of Mineral Wells, Floyd Jones of Breckenridge, and C. N. The towns represented were Snyder, Breckenridge, Mineral Wells, Seminole, Gaile, and Lamesa, Texas, and Hobbs, Loving and Artesia in New Mexico. The hi-way needs quite a bit of improvement on the Texas side, and more in New Mexico. The Association plans to make this highway an inter-regional highway from Almagorda N. M. to Weatherford, Texas.

According to reports from the meeting no action was taken as to a possible strike, but matters of local interest were discussed. It was stated that the meeting was held in compliance with national order which was issued with the intention of showing the strength and unity of the company union in an effort to forestall interference from other labor organizations.

Towns represented at the meeting were Ranger, Cisco, Eastland, Breckenridge, Albany, Dublin and Graham.

According to available records, the first white man known to have viewed the wonders of Yellowstone National Park was John Colter, who entered the region in 1807.

"Thanks For Victory Campaign" Near Close — May Open Again! Next Monday evening, October 15, is the time formerly set and announced to close the current drive for $3,000 to be applied on our annual debt retirement and to create a fund for repairs. At the time this copy was handed to the printers (Wednesday morning) the campaign was lagging a bit. One hundred and seven people had contributed a total of $2,000. There is enough money yet to be contributed which is in sight to bring this total of near $2,500. But this is all that is in sight. We are hopeful that we will have the twenty-five hundred dollars to report by next Monday.

In handling this consequence the Finance Committee has given serious study and discussion to the method. We have said all along that the first money received would be applied on our building debt; the full check to cover this annual indebtedness has been mailed. We have also said that the $2,000 which would be left out of the three thousand dollars made up the minimum needs — Not The Maximum — which our building calls for. The Finance Committee refuses to back down on this call; we must have $2,000, before we are willing to undertake any sort of repair program on this church building! The decision was that the entire $3,000 would be raised before final efforts were satisfied!

It is likely that such a goal will not be realized by next Monday. Many reasons are available as to why we are short. (1) The membership as a whole has not taken the call seriously. Too many folk have given in much smaller proportions than their ability. (2) The inclement weather has "dampened" our spirits and slowed the promotional aspect of the drive. (3) Too few people coming to church services on Sunday, therefore missing the inspiration of the drive as well as the chance to respond as a part of the group. When we know these truths we cannot feel disappointed over the nearness we have come to the goal.

Here is the summary of the decision that has been made as to the future of the "Thanks For Victory Campaign" by the Finance Committee. The drive will come to an end next Monday, whether the money is raised or not. We will then have time to concentrate on their iniquity" (Isiah 53:20,24). Among the citations which comprise the Lesson - Sermon is the following from the Bible: "The statutes of the Lord are right, rejoicing the heart; the commandment of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes" (Psalms 19:8).

The Lesson - Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "God is the lawmaker, but He is not the author of barbarous codes. In infinite Life and Love there is no sickness, sin, nor death, and the Scriptures declare that we live, move, and have our being in the infinite God" (page 318).

Last Sunday there were 238 people in Sunday School — an excellent attendance. We want to build this beyond this number. Come and help us!

Only a question of time...

Telephone factories are already turning out some of the equipment needed to serve the 246,000 persons waiting for telephones in the Southwest at war's end.

That stream will grow mightily in the months ahead. It will move slowly for a while of course. It takes time to manufacture and install new apparatus.

A telephone alone contains 248 precision parts. Switchboards and dial central office equipment for only 10,000 telephones must be designed to handle nearly 50,000,000 possible interconnections.

But we've made a start. We've turned the corner. We're on our way. Every month ahead brings us closer to serving all who want telephones without delay.
