Two Congressional Candidates Meet For First Time In Office Of Record

WILLIAM W. BLANTON

TED MILES

The office of The Eastland County Record was the scene of something unusual Thursday afternoon when two war veteran candidates for Congress met there for the first time.

The candidates are William W. Blanton, Albany, and Ted Miles, Stamford.

Both are veterans of World War II.

Blanton had dropped in to say hello, and had been gone only a few minutes when Miles dropped in for the same purpose. Blanton a little later saw Miles' car parked in front, and came back in to meet his opponent for the first time.

They had a nice friendly chat, scaring each other with tales of other prospective candidates for the same post, and then left for their respective homes.

Blanton, county judge of Shackelford County, served 18 months overseas in India and Burma, and was discharged in November with rank of staff sergeant. He is the son of Tom Blanton, long a congressman from this district.

Miles, in the insurance business in Stamford, was in the Army when friends ran him for the state senate in 1944. He did no campaigning, but lost by just 33 votes. He is the author of a book on the G.I. Bill of Rights, published in 1945. In the Army, he was in the Air Corps.

Parking Limit On Square Here To Be Considered

Downtown parking in Eastland, and the possibility of putting in a two-hour limit on the streets around the Courthouse square, will come up for discussion at the meeting of the City Commission Monday.

City officials have sounded out downtown merchants on the idea of a parking time limit, and reported most were favorable.

The idea is that shoppers now have great difficulty finding downtown parking space because early all-day parkers, such as merchants, their employees, and Courthouse employees, beat them to it.

Under the plan as proposed, all-day parkers would find space in two free parking lots, east of the Connelley Theater and east of the Chamber of Commerce, which would be gravelled by the city.

Polio Fight Funds Being Built Up By County Drive

Eastland County's funds for the fight against infantile paralysis, depleted during the last year by calls on it from three Cisco victims of the swift-striking disease, were being built back up slowly this week, with an American Legion-sponsored President's Ball in the Legion Hall Friday night expected to furnish a large part of the total funds gathered in the annual March of Dimes campaign in the county.

The drive was progressing at a good clip on several fronts as theaters took up March of Dimes collections, and stores provided space for coin donation jars.

The President's Ball in the Eastland Legion Hall at 9 p. m. Friday is being sponsored by the of the local post said that all proceeds will go to the infantile paralysis fund.

Of funds raised by the drive in Dulin-Daniel Post 70 officials the county, half go to the national foundation for the continuing fight against infantile paralysis, and the other half is kept by the chapter in the county for helping local victims of the disease.

Until the past year, the local funds had accumulated without calls being made on them, but the three county cases in one year just about drained the treasury, officials said.

Victor Cornelius is Eastland chairman of the fund-raising campaign.

Basketball Teams To Meet Dublin

Eastland High School basketball players, settling down to the home portion of their schedule, defeated De Leon 34 to 27 Tuesday night, and will take on the favored Dublin five in the local gymnasium Friday night.

In the De Leon game, Bill Edleman was high for the local basketball players with 14 points, and Bill Brashier looped 10 points.

Eastland girls lost to De Leon 32 to 20.

A girls game will come first in the Dublin encounters at 7 p. m. Friday, with the boys game following.

Tuesday night, Gorman teams will come to Eastland for games that should create some excitement. Basketball games between Eastland and Gorman traditionally are hotly contested.

Over 2100 Pounds Of Clothing Given In Eastland Drive

With over 2100 pounds of clothing collected in Eastland to date in the Victory Clothing drive, extension of the drive for several more days was announced this week by the local chairmen, C. W. Geue and Clyde Karkalits.

Boy Scouts again will collect clothing Saturday, it was announced. Those who have been unable to take clothing to collection centers should call the Chamber of Commerce before 9 a. m. Saturday, and Scouts will pick up the clothing between 9 a. m. and noon.

Clothing also may be left at the collection points for several days, it was announced. The collection places are local groceries, including the A & P, Piggy Wiggly, Clover Farm, and Lewey's, the Courthouse lobby, elevator lobby of the Eastland National Bank, and the elevator lobby of the Exchange Building.

The collection thus far was running far behind that of last April, when over 7000 pounds of clothing was collected.

Clothing goes to the liberated areas of Europe and Asia.

Legion Post Plans To Induct Forty

Forty new members of the Dulin-Daniel Post No. 70, American Legion, will be initiated at a post meeting next Wednesday night in the Legion Hall in City Park.

A buffet supper will be served before the meeting. The affair will begin at 7:30 p. m.

Each Legion member was urged to take to the meeting at least one ex-serviceman.

The local post's recruitment drive has resulted in a membership gain to a total of 325 members now, officials said this week.

One of the newer members is Ethel Gufstason Day, second current woman member. She served as a first lieutenant in the Army Nurses Corps before her discharge.

Record Cover Crop Planting In County Has Good Prospects

Farmers of Eastland County, with the largest plantings of winter cover crops in the history of the county a long-established fact, this week had an excellent chance to come out extremely well on their plantings.

Something over 10,000 acres had been planted in vetch, peas, and other types of winter legumes, and the weather so far has been almost perfect for the growth of the winter crops, said County Agent J. W. Cooper.

Recent rains and snows have put enough moisture in the soil to insure growth of the crops if the proper number of sunshiny days come in the late winter and early spring, Cooper said.

Soil conservationists point out that winter cover crops serve several functions. One is to save the denuded soil from wind and rain erosion during the winter months. Another is to restore nitrogen to the soil through the action of the leguminous plants. Yet

County's Title To Right-of-Way For Road Arrives

Long-delayed papers which would give the county title to right-of-way for construction of the new Strawn Hill highway arrived Thursday, and County Commissioner Henry Davenport was getting the papers inspected for final payment.

The deal, approved on all sides several months ago, was held up by the fact that Frank Walker of Ranger was buying the land through which the highway passes from the T & P Coal and Oil Company and neither side was in position to give title at the time.

The new route is to go to the south of the present "Dead Man's Hill" route which has been the scene of a number of serious accidents. The new route will follow the general course of a canyon which cuts into the steep hill.

Also Thursday, County Commissioner Lon Medford of Precinct 2 went to Desdemona to wind up final details preparatory to obtaining right-of-way for the Eastland County portion of a Stephenville-Desdemona paved road.

The road project originally had been an Erath County farm-to-market road from Lingleville northwest to the county line, but was extended recently to go on into Desdemona and meet the paved road from Gorman to Desdemona. The final road will give the residents of the southern part of Eastland County a new paved outlet to the east.

Temporarily, the business is operating only in the front of the building the partners bought from Bob and Jack Vaught. Bob Vaught still has his feed and sack business in the rear.

W. E. "Bill" Brashier and W. G. "Willys" Smith Friday were to open their new furniture store on South Seaman Street, which they have named the Willy-Willys Furniture.

Approximately 6650 poll taxes were paid in Eastland County before the deadline Thursday at midnight, County Tax Collector Clyde Karkalits estimated.

Karkalits had final figures for the Eastland office, but not for other poll tax payment stations in the county, and not for late payments by mail.

The figure will exceed the total for two years ago considerably, Karkalits said.

Mrs. C. E. Moore, former Eastland High School teacher who has accepted a similar teaching position in Weatherford High School, spent last week end in Eastland and said her family will follow her to Weatherford as quickly as housing can be obtained.

Major and Mrs. Horace Horton and baby daughter, Tony, arrived Tuesday evening, and are visiting in the home of Major Horton's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Horton. Major Horton is on terminal leave. He and Mrs. Horton plan to make their home in Eastland.

Side Issues

By HENRY G. VERMILLION

Despite the fact that recently The Eastland County Record made what Boyce House described as 5th the best publicized move in West Texas in a long time, a number of people right here in Eastland still apparently don't know that we now are located on North Seaman Street instead of at the former location on South Lamar.

Every few days someone comes in who has looked for us at the former place and says with a surprised look, "I didn't know you had moved!"

This despite the fact that we had stories about the move before and after, I wrote it up in this column, and some of my comments (unfavorable) were re-printed in the Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

It was all this that led Boyce House to make his remark. And besides, I had signs plastered all over the front of our new building so I thought everyone surely would know that this now is the home of The Record.

Maybe I should have hired a sky writer also. I don't know. I guess there are just some people who can't be reached.

Speaking of Boyce House, he apparently is making all the preliminary moves to running again for Lieutenant governor. He made the race four years ago and was nosed out of the runoff. Boyce has a lot of friends yet in Eastland County, where he worked on Ranger, Eastland and Cisco newspapers, and he could be expected to swing a lot of strength in this part of the country, as he did in his first race.

He was in the county not long ago, and friends said at that time he was sort of feeling out the ground prior to tossing his hat in the ring.

Conard Reaves over at the Men's Shop has what strikes me as a bright idea in offering to take in new men's clothing that people have accumulated at home for one reason or another, and sell it to veterans of World War II only.

Many of the veterans have been unable to buy civilian clothing of the kind they need. A lot of them developed physically a lot in the service and no longer can wear their pre-war suits and shirts.

Except for the war, no subject has so engrossed the attention of the people in my memory as the recent wave of labor strife.

I get around a lot each week and talk to quite a lot of people, and in the last few weeks almost every conversation has shown at least some concern over the labor troubles or some other feature of our reconversion period.

The business people are especially concerned, of course, since their living is directly tied in with the amount of goods they can buy and sell, and the goods aren't coming through so well because of strikes of one kind or another.

I say one kind or another because capital definitely is on strike too in at least one sense. Tales keep drifting in of warehouses in the East packed and jammed with the kind of merchandise we have been crying for—men's shirts, suits and shorts, towels, sheets, and so forth, and buyers unable to get them because the manufacturers say if they sell at present OPA ceilings, they will lose money. All are just waiting the day when price ceilings are lifted or removed, or the rules are changed.

Somehow this country has got itself snarled up in a pretty big mess, and a lot of us would like to know how and when it's going to get out.

Jack Cross visited this week with his aunt, Mrs. Florence Graham, who is in a Dallas hospital.

One Driver Held After Accident On Narrow Road

Six persons in one family were injured, one critically, about dusk Wednesday in a head-on crash between a passenger car and a light truck on Highway 6 about three miles northwest of Gorman.

Injured were: Mrs. Jack Abbott of Dublin, head injuries, internal injuries, badly gashed leg. Condition critical.

Her husband, Jack Abbott, four broken ribs, cuts and bruises.

Their daughter, Doris Nell, cuts and bruises.

Mrs. Wayne Parsons, broken hip, broken foot, bad cut on head.

Her husband, Wayne Parsons, son of Mrs. Abbott, minor cuts and bruises.

A son-in-law of the Abbotts in the car suffered broken ribs and a head injury. The seventh person in the car, Jackie Lou, another daughter of the Abbotts, was not injured.

Driver of the pick-up, Ernest McLaughlin of near Energy, was jailed in Eastland by state Highway Patrol officers after the accident, pending filing of charges in Gorman justice court.

Parsons said that all the family were en route to Carbon to visit Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wyatt, parents of Mrs. Abbott, when the crash occurred. He said he saw the pick-up coming toward him on his side of the highway, very narrow at that point, and had no time to swerve.

All seven of the persons in the Abbott car were thrown out. The car stopped with a wheel resting on Mrs. Parsons' leg.

The injured were taken to the Blackwell Hospital in Gorman, where Mrs. Abbott's condition was unchanged Thursday night.

Orchard Field Day Held With 25 Fruit Men On Hand

Postponed from Dec. 15 because of inclement weather, the Eastland County orchard field day was held last Friday at the A. P. Broiles orchard three miles southwest of Carbon.

Twenty-five orchardists from all parts of the county were in attendance at the all day meeting on problems of the fruit grower.

Beginning at 10 a. m. the meeting lasted until 2:30 p. m. with time out for a picnic lunch at noon.

Such topics as selection of soils and sites for orchards, suitable varieties, setting out fruit trees, pruning and control of diseases and pests, both of fruit and pecan trees, were discussed.

Those appearing on the program were C. R. Heaton and Paul Gregg of the A. & M. College Extension Service, George I. Lane, FSA, Eastland, Tom Denman, Agricultural Experiment Station, Stephenville; Myra Tankersley, county home demonstration agent, Eastland and J. W. Foster, Jr., of Weatherford.

AUTOBIOGRAPHIES FINISHED

Last week, part of the mighty senior class finished their autobiographies and completed their course in Senior English. "Teacher" Johnson has been proudly displaying the masterpieces of these students. Some very cute names were thought up by these students for their work. Emily Jean named hers "Jeanies Journal." Lynda called hers "Lyndie Lou." Carl called his "Hoffmans' Hopes."

Starting this week, the remainder of the seniors start work on their life story. "Teacher" has been busy giving instructions orally and written. Since before mid-term most of the class of '46 has been trying to think of a suitable and fitting name for the autobiography he is to write.

The Seniors have also been issued by the same "Teacher," David Copperfield, or another autobiography to read in the spare time, who no one has any of.

FRESHMAN SPOTLIGHT

This week the Freshman Spotlight shines on a very popular girl, Patsy Rushing, otherwise known as "Rut." Patsy is 5 feet, 4 inches tall, weighs 114 pounds, and has brown hair and green eyes.

Her favorite pastime is riding horses and her favorite movie is "Week End at the Waldorf." Her actor is Van Johnson and her actress is June Allison.

She likes English when it comes to lesson and her favorite color is blue. Here's wishing a swell Freshman lots of luck and happiness.

DOUBLE SEVEN MEETING

The Double Seven met at the house of Margaret Bourland. They discussed many important businesses. They elected new officers. The officers are president, Barbara Hague; vice-president, Margaret Bourland; secretary, Mary Wilson; treasurer, Barbara Patterson; and reporter Billie Horn.

The refreshments were potato chips, sandwiches, cocoa, olives and candy. Everyone seemed to enjoy the refreshments and got a lot settled at the club meeting. The next meeting will be at the home of Marlece Elliott.

SENIORS TAKE APPITUDE TEST

Last week the senior class took an aptitude test, given by the Dean of Weatherford Junior College, John R. Carruth.

The class was given a series of short timed tests on the elementary subjects.

The tests were very interesting and will help to show the individual just what field he or she is most apt in. The results, which will be known in about three weeks should prove to be very interesting.

The school officials are considering having the juniors take these tests, and so place them according to their ability.

SOCIALITES LOSE SPONSOR

Wanda Lou entertained the Socialites last Tuesday at 4:00 p.m. Dues were collected from those present and it was decided that they buy a gift for their sponsor, Julia Lawson, who is leaving them. A lovely bath set was selected. The Socialites hate to see Julia leave, but they wish her all the happiness in the world.

New officers elected were Glynn, president; Dorothy Sue, secretary-treasurer and Marion, reporter.

Delicious servings of doughnuts, ice cream, cheesits and candy were served to Paula, "Proxie," Ruthie, Lynn, Marge, Bobby Nell, Lynda, Glynn, Marion and Wanda Lou.

THINGS WE NOTICE

Everyone sayin "Oh, Mine are Terrible" (Pickens we mean).

The wonderful crowds at the basketball games.

How strange it seems to have Mrs. Moore gone. Everyone sure misses her.

The new Math teacher. Hubba! Hubba! Hubba! Well hello Jack!

Doesn't "Teach" Johnson's room look simply wo-OO-wonderful.

Shirley and Jack, and Shirley and Allen.

Jan and Eddie—we've got to patch it up.

How silly some girls do act in second period study hall.

How nice Mr. Peck is. Mrs. Moore's leaving. Good luck to her.

Annual pictures. Basketball games. Milton Hunt's whiskers. Cameras!

How nice "Red" Cooper would be to Joyce in 1st period English. If she would only let him.

Home-making girls, trying to learn to sew.

The way Jeanne boils when she hears the word "Beannie."

All the cute pictures. All the notes Betty Ferguson receives from Jack Chamberlain in 3rd period English.

Why is Patsy Young so happy? We wonder.

Audrey Fay—why does she beam? Aspherotic.

MR. E. A. PECK

New on the faculty list at EHS is Mr. E. A. Peck. He is filling the position left by Mrs. Jones as Algebra teacher.

Recently discharged from the Army as an Infantry Captain, Mr. Peck is making his home in Eastland. He served in Africa and Italy during his Army days, while his family lived here.

SOPHOMORE SPOTLIGHT

The Sophomore spotlight this week sprinkles moonbeams on none other than that brown-eyed, blonde haired Naomi Wood. She is 5 feet, 1 inch and tips the scales at 98 pounds.

Her favorites in the world of entertainment are Tom Drake, Betty Hutton, and Bing Crosby. She picks "The Bells of St. Mary's" as the picture of the year. "Symphony" and "I Can't Begin to Tell You" top her hit parade.

Of course, as everyone knows her favorite pastime is talking. She likes English and "Teach" Johnson.

Her favorite sport is football and she likes to eat chicken while listening to the Huntsville Penitentiary program. To her Kay Kyser tops the band list.
