Eastland and Winters Open Grid Play

Brashier Hurts While Hunting

Brashier, scheduled to be the chief passing threat for the Mavericks this season, was hurt on crutches this week as a result of a freak accident while hunting.

Brashier was on the Power Plant Saturday riding the front of a car driven by Billy Lewis. Along also was Lewis, signal-caller for the Mavericks.

While hunting, Brashier saw some doves, and he was jammed on the brakes, and he was carrying a gun, catapulting the fender to the road. The car skidded over his foot.

Brashier's foot was broken, but the injury was not serious and he is expected to be back in action in two weeks. Brashier said he hopes to be back in action in two weeks.

Brashier suffered a broken arm in the football season last year, and a year before a broken nose, and he is expected to be back in action this year especially in football.

First Game On New Lighted Field Set For Friday Night

The brand new 1946 football season will open in Eastland Friday night with an 8 o'clock game against the usually strong Winters Blizzards.

It will be Eastland's first night football game, and a big turnout is expected.

Last year, Eastland won from Winters in a game there, 12 to 0, but the game was played the day after a Winters player had died as the result of football injuries.

Eastland's new coach, John Little, will present his modified single and double wingback plays for the first time in the game, and there probably will be plenty of substitutions as he tries out players for ability under actual game conditions.

Injuries, some serious, plagued the Eastland team as it prepared for its first game. Billy Brashier, scheduled to be chief Maverick passing threat, will be out with a foot injured in a dove hunting accident. Johnny Hicks, chief rushing threat, suffered a severe charley horse, and may be able to play only briefly if at all. Several other players suffered injuries ranging from minor to severe.

But most of the squad will be ready to go, and fans will be anxious to see whether the team will be, as anticipated, a major threat for the District 10-A championship this year. The team won the title two years ago, and last year finished in a tie for second place.

Lights at Maverick Field, donated by the Eastland Quarterback Club, will be turned on for the second time officially, and the first time for a real football game.

The first game was Monday night. In a scrimmage, the Maverick first team beat down the scrubs, but it was not too easy an accomplishment.

Neil Don Hart, 17, Killed Accidentally

Neil Don Hart, 17, son of Mrs. James A. Hart of Alameda and nephew of Sheriff John Hart of Eastland, was buried Tuesday in the Corinth Baptist Cemetery northwest of Eastland after he was fatally wounded Sunday while target shooting.

The accidental shooting happened while Hart and a life-long friend and neighbor, Billy Wayne Reid, were shooting at tin cans with a .45 pistol. The Hart and Reid boys had been inseparable since young childhood.

Hart died in a Gorman hospital. He and young Reid were 1946 graduates of Gorman High.

Funeral services were held Tuesday in the Cheaney Baptist Church. Survivors include his mother, three sisters, Foye, Beth and Wanda, five brothers, James A., Jr., of Lubbock, Jack and R. D., both of Alameda, Carter of Ranger, and Cpl. Glenn Hart, in the Army in Colorado, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. J. Carter of Eastland.

Bob Vaught Buys Conner Apartments

Bob Vaught Thursday announced that he had purchased the old Conner Apartments on North Lamar Street to be used as a warehouse for his peanut and bag business.

Purchase price of the building was about $6,000. The Royal Arch Masons, from whom Vaught bought the building, had put on a $1000 roof in recent months, but before that the building had stood vacant and neglected for many years.

Vaught said he considered it impractical to try to obtain plumbing and other items that would be required to fix the structure up for apartments again. He will rip out at least part of the partitions and store peanuts and bags in the building, he said. Vaught operates a large-scale peanut bag business on South Seaman Street, and in season buys peanuts and sell peanut seed and fertilizer.

Dec. 11 Chosen As Date For Planting Pecans In County Beautification Project

December 11 Wednesday was designated as the day for planting pecan trees in Eastland County as memorials to those who served in World War II.

The date was chosen by the Eastland County Highway Beautification Committee, a local division of a state group, in a meeting at the home of Mrs. James Horton, chairman.

Earlier, the committee has decided to push the planting of pecan trees and abelia shrubs along highways and streets of Eastland County as beautification project and to honor those who served during the war.

County Agent J. M. Cooper and nurserymen told Mrs. Horton that

Football Admission Price For Adults Climbs To 75 Cents

The price of football, like nearly everything else, is going up.

The District 10-A executive committee, meeting in De Leon Thursday night of last week, agreed to put a price of 75 cents for adults on district games. Last year's price was 60 cents.

Student tickets remain the same price as last year, at 34 cents for high school students and 15 cents for grade school pupils.

Members of hands and pep squad leaders will be admitted free.

It was voted that each school would pay a $4 fee for a trophy to be awarded the district football champion.

A method was worked out also for providing a champion in case of a tie at the end of the season. Each tie game will count as a half game won and half game lost on the percentage column, and if two or more teams are tied in the standing, the championship will be awarded on the basis of 20-yard-line penetrations made in all district games played, or if these are tied, by a number of first downs. Game officials will be instructed to keep the necessary figures.

The method can be used this year because all teams in the district meet each other. In recent years, Eastland and Hico have not met.

Rising Star Entry Wins Eastland's Softball Tourney

Coasting along behind the supremely successful pitching of J. D. "Junior" Brown, Rising Star's entry in the Eastland Softball Tournament walked off with top honors Saturday night by shutting out Gorman, 7 to 0.

In an earlier game, Gorman had edged out Cisco, 6 to 4. Friday night, Rising Star won from Breckenridge 12 to 1, and Thursday night, Gorman beat Eastland's last entry, King Tractor, 9 to 0.

Brown yielded but one hit to Gorman in the final game, and was almost unhittable throughout the tournament as he fired in his fast balls and sinkers with effortless precision.

An overflow crowd, one of the two largest ever to watch a softball game at Firemen's Field, helped wind up a successful season of softball for the Eastland Fire Department, owner of the field and sponsor of the season's play.

Kiln Is Set Up At Aggregate Plant

One huge drum-type kiln had been set up and was being lined with fire brick this week at the new Eastland plant of the Texas Lightweight Aggregate Company, and C. W. Cline, head of the concern, said he has hopes of getting into operation by Oct. 1, his original goal.

Operations at the plant were delayed somewhat by the recent rains.

Two big kilns are to be operated at the plant to begin with and Cline planned to add more of demand for Haydite, the material to be produced, is great enough.

Grady Pipkin Adds Store At Midland

Grady Pipkin, Eastland grocery chain operator, this week added another store to his chain to increase the total to seven.

The new store is located in Midland. It was purchased from the previous operators, but had been in operation only a short time.

Other Pipkin's Piggly-Wiggly Stores owned by Pipkin are located in Eastland, Ranger, Breckenridge, Graham, Odessa and Monahans. Offices and warehouses are in Eastland.

Miss Nell Caton of Dallas is here visiting her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Caton.

Side Issues

Those who saw the Monday night preview of the newer and better Maverick Field may have wondered if they noticed, about the multitude of dark brown splotches on the newly returned playing field.

The grass looked as if it had developed a case of smallpox, or in this case largepox.

The splotches were dirt, and the dirt was put there because a short while back, after the rains, a couple of cows invaded the soft turf to partake of the luscious green grass. Everywhere the bossys stepped, they left holes, the kind of holes that boded no good for football players' ankles after the ground hardened.

So early this week a number of football players, under the stern direction of Coaches Little and Harvey, filled in the holes.

The crashing of soft drink bottles against the steel underpinning of the new stands was a frequent accompaniment Monday to the music of E. J. Pryor's band, the shouts of the football players, and the subdued cheering of the crowd.

It should not have been. A soft drink bottle is not very expensive, but it costs somebody money—in this case the Quarterback Club that sponsored the show—and in the aggregate the bottles cost a lot.

And they're hard to replace. How about trying to aim at the ground instead of the steel at the football games?

It's hard to pass out orchids to the people who made the improvements at the field possible.

There were so many involved who did so much in one time—another that it's hard to single out the ones to whom the most credit is due.

Conard Reeves, president of the Quarterback Club, did a lot of work on the lights. So did Jack Chamberlain, treasurer of the club. C. W. Hoffmann's crew dug the holes for the light poles without any charge. Buck Pickens of Texas Electric Service Company saw that the lights were turned on in time—and it took some doing. There are lots of others who deserve credit, too, but I'm afraid I can't name them all.

Then there are the school board members who voted some of their scanty funds to build the new stands, and especially there is Curtis Hertig, the school board secretary, financial secretary, and general factotum, who did most of the work in seeing that they actually were built.

Hertig, incidentally, has plans for some even finer stands next year on the west side of the field, with genuine press box and everything. So for my sake, please turn out for the home games this year—us scribblers surely do need a press box!

Horton Ceramics Plant Has First Firings Of Kiln

Eastland's newest industry, Horton Ceramics, got underway in earnest this week as the first two test firings of the artware pottery plant's kiln were made.

The first firing was not a blazing success, said Horace Horton, owner of the plant, but was largely experimental. The second firing began Wednesday night. Each firing takes 48 hours.

The plant in a new Quonset hut type building on South Bassett Street, currently employed five people exclusive of Horton and his artistic wife, who designs the vases, ashtrays, and other art objects turned out, but Horton said other workmen are to be added soon.

Horton stayed up all Wednesday night to watch the kiln, but said his employees were so anxious to get the plant going and make a success of it that they offered to stay and watch it instead.

Involved in the business, a new one for Eastland County since none of the other clay products plants here turn out glazed artware, are such complex problems as clay plasticity, proper kiln structure and heating, and intricate chemical formulae in working out the glaze used on the clay objects.

Clay for the plant is being obtained at a point just south of Breckenridge, Horton said. He selected the clay after a survey of many deposits in this area.

The first firings of the kiln followed many weeks of preliminary and experimental work in making designs, transferring them to plaster molds, setting up the clay mixing machine and kiln, and working out techniques.

Joe Mills Suffers Stroke On Street

Joe Mills, who suffered a light stroke and fell while crossing a downtown street in Eastland Tuesday afternoon, was reported considerably improved later in the week at the Eastland Hospital.

In the fall to the pavement, Mills skinned his face and forehead, but the injuries were slight.

Dr. W. H. Caton said of Mills, "He is much better and is responding to treatment."

Rev. Jeff Ray To Preach To Baptists

Rev. Jeff D. Ray of Fort Worth will preach at both services of the First Baptist Church Sunday in the absence of the pastor, Rev. Fred Porter, who went with his wife on a vacation.

Mr. Ray, who is 85 years old, is a man of exceptional vigor for his age. He is a veteran Baptist preacher and retired teacher in the Southwestern Baptist Seminary at Fort Worth.

Miss Betty Jean Lane of Dallas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Lane, and brother, George, Jr., last week end.

Mrs. Ethel Kelly of Austin was here last week renovating her home at 509 South Seaman Street, which she rented to Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Cooper.

Earl Conner, Jr. Lost Temporarily While On Dove Hunt

County Attorney Earl Conner, Jr., who has searched through many a law book, had a hard time Monday searching himself out of the woods and hills of western Eastland County when he got lost on a dove hunt, but he made it.

Conner and Galand Poe went on the hunt together west of Cisco, separated and agreed to meet back at the car. However, when Poe returned, he waited and waited, but Conner failed to appear.

After it got dark, Poe decided Conner was lost or in trouble and drove to Eastland, where he went to the Quarterback Club's football light program, gathered up about 20 men and the group drove back to hunt for Conner.

Conner meanwhile had walked and walked until finally he came to a road in the vicinity of Dothan. He was met walking along the road by some of the Eastland group and was brought home tired but unharmed.

Jack Brown Given Navy Discharge

Lieutenant Commander Jack W. Brown, of Eastland was discharged from the Naval Service at the U. S. Naval Air Station, Alameda, Calif., this week.

Mrs. Donald Tow of Dallas is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Altom.

Here's The Story On Friday 13th— Today's The Day

Friends Here Foot Bill For Burleson As He Vacations

Omar Burleson, Congressman-nominate from the 17th District, and his wife were enjoying a post-election vacation this week in the Baker Hotel, Mineral Wells, as the "guests of a group of Eastland friends," his old friend Fred Brown said Thursday.

Brown said that without consulting anyone, he asked the Burlesons immediately after the runoff election to take the vacation at the expense of Eastland friends. The Burlesons spent Monday night and part of Tuesday in Eastland, and after they were gone, Brown told of his action at a meeting of Chamber of Commerce directors. Shortly after, several people offered to chip in and pay part of the costs, Brown said.

Farmers To Delay Harvest Until Late; Price Is Excellent

Friends Here Foot Bill For Burleson As He Vacations

Possibility of a bumper peanut crop in Eastland County was seen this week as ideal growing weather combined with moisture in the soil to produce excellent peanut maturing conditions.

AAA Administrator Emmett Powell has said that the county this year has the largest peanut acreage ever planted. Farmers were glum toward the end of August when the long dry spell and record summer heat combined to make peanut prospects look gloomy, but the rains came just in time for the majority of the crop.

Some earlier planted peanuts already have been harvested, and were reported to have made good yields.

Something more than 55,000 of the county's acres were reported planted in peanuts this year.

Some farmers who had given up on peanuts and had a good peanut hay stand were plowing up the hay to get current top prices for it—if it doesn't rain on it. Prices of up to $40 a ton on hay were reported.

However, County Agent J. M. Cooper said that experienced farmers reported that new peanuts being coming on the plants after the rains late in August, and that most farmers will hold off plowing up their peanuts until late this year, to allow the new crop to mature.

Recent warm days have been ideal for maturing the new crop, it was said, giving rise to hopes of excellent yields in most late-planted fields.

Bob Vaught, Eastland peanut buyer, said there will be an excellent crop all over the peanut growing area of the Southwest.

Eastland County peanut yields will be at least average, he said, and perhaps better than that. Most farmers he has talked to intend to leave the nuts in the ground as long as possible, he said.

The government's support price on peanuts this year has been increased about 15 cents a bushel this year over last, bringing the average price to be paid to about $2.75 per bushel.

With this kind of return, an average yield in the county will bring peanut farmers close to $2,500,000, based on 55,000 acres planted and an average yield of 15 bushels per acre, both conservative figures.

This does not include the return from peanut hay, which could be high if harvesting conditions are favorable. Heavy rains during harvest, of course, could damage the peanut crop also, but not as readily as the hay.

One of the most eloquent speeches in the history of American politics was the speech of James A. Garfield nominating John Sherman for President. An excerpt follows:

fury and tossed into spray, and its grandeur moves the soul of the dullest man; but I remember that it is not the billows, but the calm level of the sea, from which all heights and depths are measured. When the storm has passed and the hour of calm settles on the ocean, when the sunlight bathes its peaceful surface, then the astronomer and surveyor take the level from which they measure all terrestrial heights and depths.

Gentlemen of the convention, your present temper may not mark the healthful pulse of our people. When your enthusiasm has passed, when the emotions of this hour have subsided, we shall find below the storm and passion, that calm level of public opinion from which the thoughts of a mighty people are to be measured and by which final action will be determined.

Not here in this brilliant circle where fifteen thousand men and women are gathered is the destiny of the Republic to be decreed for the next four years. Not here, where I see the enthusiastic faces of seven hundred and fifty-six delegates waiting to cast their lots into the urn and determine the choice of the Republic, but by four millions of Republican firesides, where the thoughtful voters are seated, with the calm thoughts inspired by love of home and country, with the history of the past, the hopes of the future, and reverence of the great men who have adorned and blessed our nation in days gone by, burning in their hearts,—there God prepares the verdict which will determine the wisdom of our work tonight. Not in Chicago, in the heat of June, but at the ballot-boxes of the Republic, in the quiet of November, after the silence of deliberate judgment, will this question be settled.

Safe Construction Of Roads Possible, Engineer Asserts

State Highway Engineer DeWitt C. Greer Sunday assured accident-scarred Texas that by a comprehensive program of "building safety into our roads" it is possible to eliminate traffic accidents as a major public problem.

In a radio broadcast from Houston the veteran road chief outlined the hope engineering offers in traffic accident prevention by "improving the conditions under which vehicles are driven." He urged public support of a balanced highway improvement program designed to add proven safety features to the present highway system and simultaneously bring rural Texas out of the mud.

His address was sponsored by the Texas Safety Association as a part of the current nationwide crusade to check traffic accidents which threaten to claim 10,000 lives and pile up a property damage loss of $500,000,000 in Texas during the next ten years, according to the Association's estimates.

"For virtually every type of accident the engineer has a road design which will reduce the likelihood of such accidents virtually to the vanishing point, at the same time permitting the swift, congestion-free movement of all vehicles," Greer said. He cited the gratifying results obtained from a former nationwide program to engineer the hazards out of railroad grade crossings.

"The overpasses and underpasses built under this program made it impossible for a car traveling the highway to collide with a train traveling the railroad," he pointed out, adding that improved automatic warning signals at other crossings brought an impressive reduction in accidents.

"Since 1923 the grade crossing accident rate has dropped 65 per cent," the engineer said. He assured his radio audience it is physically possible to achieve equally dramatic results if the same engineering principles could be extended more generally to road intersections, where 55 per cent of the highway fatalities now occur. Divided lane pavements were offered to reduce the 20 per cent of the fatalities now caused by head-on collisions, side-swiping and other passing movements.

Upholding the feasibility of clover-leaf grade separations, divided lane roadways, and other features. Sometimes criticized as "Engineers' Monuments," Greer said, "Those who berate these safety improvements have not yet had their accident. Those who have already had their accident and escaped with their lives are almost unanimous in their acclaim of these improvements which reduce the penalties for the inevitable human error in driving."

"In the past ten years Texas has paid nearly $300,000,000 for traffic accidents that adequate highway design would have prevented," he declared. "This is nearly half the total capital investment of the present entire State Highway System." He warned that accidents would claim the cost of a safe and adequate road system during the next ten years if the present rate of slaughter on our highways remains unchecked.

Greer emphasized that "Getting Texas Out of the Mud" has always been the main objective of road administrators in Texas and that the increased costs of safety features must be considered in the light of extending new roads into areas not served by any road at all.

He urged support of a three-point program to protect and maintain present road construction revenue, to secure a controlled access law to realize the maximum safety benefits from roads now built, and a balanced road improvement plan designed to simultaneously bring rural Texans out of the mud, provide increased safety to motorists on heavily traveled roads and to bring some relief to congestion and hazards of motor travel through urban and thickly populated areas.

Carl Bryant, Jr., Named Engineer

Carl Bryant, Jr., has been named a production engineer at Athens, according to L. T. Potter, production superintendent with the Lone Star Gas System, in a write up in "Blue Blaze," the Lone Star magazine for August.

He began working for Lone Star under Ernest J. Sneed, Eastland district production engineer, in September of 1945.

Of the new production engineer, Sneed wrote, "Every man I have talked to since Carl got the chance in East Texas has said a good word for him and they believe he deserves the chance. . . . We all hope him the best of luck."

Carl was reared in Eastland by his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Van Geem, after his mother's death when he was three. He graduated from Eastland High School and attended Ranger Junior College before joining Lone Star.

Mrs. Jack Lusk and Mrs. Chi Meadors, were visiting sight seeing, through the cities of August in Brentwood, San Francisco and Los Angeles, Calif.

Gunsight Cemetery Funds Plea Gets Notable Response

A remarkable response has been received from former Gunsight community residents to an appeal for funds with which to improve the Gunsight Cemetery, according to Gracie Booker Shepard, Route 3, Box 49, Cisco, in a letter to The Record.

Mrs. Shepard said the "improvement to the cemetery is very pronounced. They have spent around $650 and need about $300 more."

She said, "The brotherly kindness has been shown here since the early settlement of this county."

"In 1923 a storm struck a schoolhouse, when an agriculture meeting was in progress. The state agriculture agent present remarked, 'You can't tell who is kinfolks and who isn't,' the injured were so lovingly cared for."

Secretary-treasurer of the Gunsight Cemetery Association is Mrs. Ralph Baggett, Route 3, Cisco. Ralph Baggett is chairman and Roy Boles and Henry Perry assistants.

In an appeal for funds, Mrs. Baggett wrote that the aims of the association are to raise funds from friends and relatives of those buried in the cemetery so the plot might be properly fenced and kept fenced, and for construction of a tool house, outdoor toilets and a small tabernacle to be used for services at the cemetery.

Mrs. Shepard listed these names of contributors:

"Some time ago I received from you a box, A850, with articles of vestment. Please excuse me that I didn't write immediately and don't think that we were not glad with your magnificent gift. On the contrary we are very thankful for it.

"Besides for my family there was still much with which I could make happy relations and friends. Though in Holland the situation has much bettered after the war textile and shoes are still very rare. Acquisition of new clothes is still hardly possible and that's why I thank you very heartily on behalf of all those who have got something."

Teeth Inspection Need Is Stressed By Health Officer

AUSTIN—The fact that dental decay is likely to occur in the mouth of the average person, despite proper home care given the teeth, does not lessen the importance of brushing the teeth and massaging the gums daily, nor does it minimize the need for a cleaning and inspection of the teeth twice a year by the family dentist.

Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, says that the lack of these measures gives added power to germs that attack the enamel of the teeth and gum tissues.

"If, despite the proper application of such procedures, decay is suspected or teeth are injured in any way, the thoughtful person will seek the dentist's office promptly for the necessary corrective work," Dr. Cox said.

"It is surprising, though, even in these days of comparatively painless dentistry, that so many persons neglect to make good their dental defects, inevitable or otherwise, because they foolishly fear the discomfort they might experience in the dentist's chair," said the State Health Officer.

"There are others who having lost a tooth or several teeth make no effort to obtain replacements. Apparently they believe they can get along without them. Reduce masticating power, the annoyance and sometimes actual discomfort of chewing hard substances on the exposed gums, and crooked teeth are some of the possible consequences of gaps in the teeth."

Dr. Cox advised those who are interested in experiencing the best dental and bodily health possible, to give daily attention to their mouth and visit the dentist twice each year, and promptly seek the dentist's services should decay or other suspicious condition arise between the periodic visits.

"In short," Dr. Cox declared, "successful mouth hygiene means not only intelligent personal daily application of prophylaxis but complete and timely cooperation with the family dentist as well."

See us for the tires that OUTWEAR PREWAR TIRES

"For safety's sake," says Mr. R. W. Thompson, driver of Yellow Cabs, Louisville, Ky., "I want the protection of the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertowns. No prewar tires I ever rode on could match them for ruggedness and traction."

Over 17 million miles of tests were run on taxi fleets, police cars, and on the B.F. Goodrich test fleet.

From these tests came proof that the new B.F. Goodrich Silvertown was a superior tire that outperformed, outran, outlasted, and outwore prewar tires—even at high speeds.

Supplies of this new tire are still limited. However, we'll do our best to keep your car rolling until we can get new tires for you.

Housewives say "thanks" for the recent reduction in the cost of their electric service and in the same breath ask "how can you do it in the face of higher costs?"

That is a logical question. Facts are that housewives like to use electric service - and have been using it in increasing quantities. The increased volume of business, together with savings resulting from technical progress and lower costs of capital have enabled us to make the reduction.

In return we say "thanks for your increased use" - electric service is one of the few items in the household budget which costs less than before the war.

Veteran's Survivors To Be Given Help In Filing Claims

A representative of the Abilene Social Security Administration office will be at the U. S. Employment Service office in Eastland at 1 p. m. next Thursday to assist with claims to be filed by survivors of veterans of World War II who died after leaving the service. Other retirement and death claims under the Social Security Act will also be handled, said Ralph T. Fisher, manager of the Abilene office.

The 1946 amendments to the Social Security Act provide for the payment of monthly benefits or lump-sum payments to qualified survivors of veterans who die within three years of their discharge and whose dependents are not qualified to receive compensation or pensions from the Veterans Administration. National Service Life Insurance is not considered as compensation or pension. These special social security payments may be made regardless of whether the veteran had even been employed in work coming under social security.

In the case of such veterans who died before the enactment of the new amendment, the measure provides for monthly benefits retroactive to the date of the veteran's death if the survivors file their claims with the nearest office of the Social Security Administration before midnight Feb. 10, 1947. Monthly benefits other than retroactive are payable on claims filed at any time by qualified persons.

In cases where survivors of veterans who qualify under the new amendments have filed claim for monthly benefits earned by the veteran under the old-age and survivors insurance program of the Social Security Administration, it is possible that the provisions of the new measure will provide greater benefits than those earned by the veteran. These survivors are included in the immediate potential beneficiaries, Fisher said, and they should make application at once.

The same applies to survivors who have filed claim for lump-sum benefits under the old-age and survivors insurance program on a qualified veteran's account. The new amendment may make them eligible for monthly benefit payments, or it may increase the amount of the lump-sum benefit. In the latter case, they will receive the difference between the lump-sum they received and the larger amount they are eligible for under the amendment, if they apply as soon as possible.
