

Bull Town Bulletins

By Bill Ellis

CONGRATULATIONS to Larry Wiseman on winning the Blade's annual Football Contest. Wiseman joins the list of some pretty salty football predictors who have reigned as the local champion in this regard down through the years.

The 1982 contest will be remembered as the one which we conducted "almost without the professional games." Due to the first strike in the NFL's history, we only were able to include the pro games in only four of the contest's 13 weeks.

That caused us to have to expand the number of high school and college games somewhat, and to include some games which were perhaps not as familiar to contestants as they otherwise might have been.

For instance, in our Friona Star contest, which has 22 games on the schedule each week, we accepted a dare from wife Carol and included the game involving Slippery Rock on one of the week's contests. A few of the contestants raised their eyebrows at this, but they took it in stride, picking Slippery Rock for the most part, and they won, so this wasn't so bad.

The problem in assembling the schedule of games to be picked, strike or no strike, is to get the right number of games, all of which are to be played that particular weekend, preferably not on Thursday, which would be an unfair advantage to some, due to the Friday afternoon deadline for contest entries.

This is not always as easy as it might appear to the casual observer.

First, there is the problem of printing mistakes which may crop up on the various schedules. For the college and professional games, we use a magazine which has proven basically reliable through the years.

Then, we use a combination of schedules for the high school games, including the Top of Texas Football Magazine, along with the special football edition of the Amarillo Daily News, published pre-season.

We also have to throw in the TV Guide, because we like to include as many college and professional games as possible which will be televised each week--that is providing that the TV Guide is out in time. And since we do our games for the Star more than a week in advance, this is rarely the case.

However, the televising of games turns out to be one of the major problems in selecting games for the football contest.

What the networks do is select a number of games they want to televise, after the schedules have been made up, and then re-schedule the games for their own convenience. And this year there were three networks involved in the college games, the most in history.

They will not only change the starting time of a game from nighttime to daytime, for example, but their favorite trick is to change the date on which the game was scheduled entirely. This is what drives us football contest promoters up the wall.

A few of the games which fell into this category include Army-Navy, Oklahoma-Nebraska, and Texas-Arkansas. The OU-Nebraska game, which would have been a great game for contestants to worry over, was played on Friday afternoon (of all times), Thanksgiving week.

The other two games mentioned were moved from prior scheduled weeks to this Saturday (December 4). By double-checking schedules, we caught the Texas-Arkansas switch, but did not know of the Army-Navy postponement.

Then, as to why we included the Army-Navy game twice on our Bovina contest, when it wasn't played at all--that's too involved, and you probably wouldn't believe the story anyway.

Area Gets Snowfall

The Bovina area received a nice snowfall during Thanksgiving week; in fact two different three-inch snows, along with rain and sleet.

The combined moisture was estimated at from .75 inch to an inch, which should be a big help to the winter wheat crop, which was beginning to need some help.

Wednesday afternoon prior to Thanksgiving was the date of the first snow, when three to four inches of snow fell by nightfall.

That earlier snow melted off Thursday, and then Friday, a light rain began to fall, turning into sleet late in the evening, and again by morning, a nice "lazy" snow was falling, this time amounting to about two inches.

Harry Johnson, who lives 2½ miles southwest of town, said he received around 5½ inches of snow overall, and his guage caught a half-inch of moisture.

Although there is still some cotton in the fields, most agriculturists were ready for some beneficial moisture. This is the greatest amount of moisture received at any one time since back in the summer.

Mustangs Cited On All-Dist.

The All-District 5-AA team was announced last week, with the Bovina Mustangs gaining nine spots.

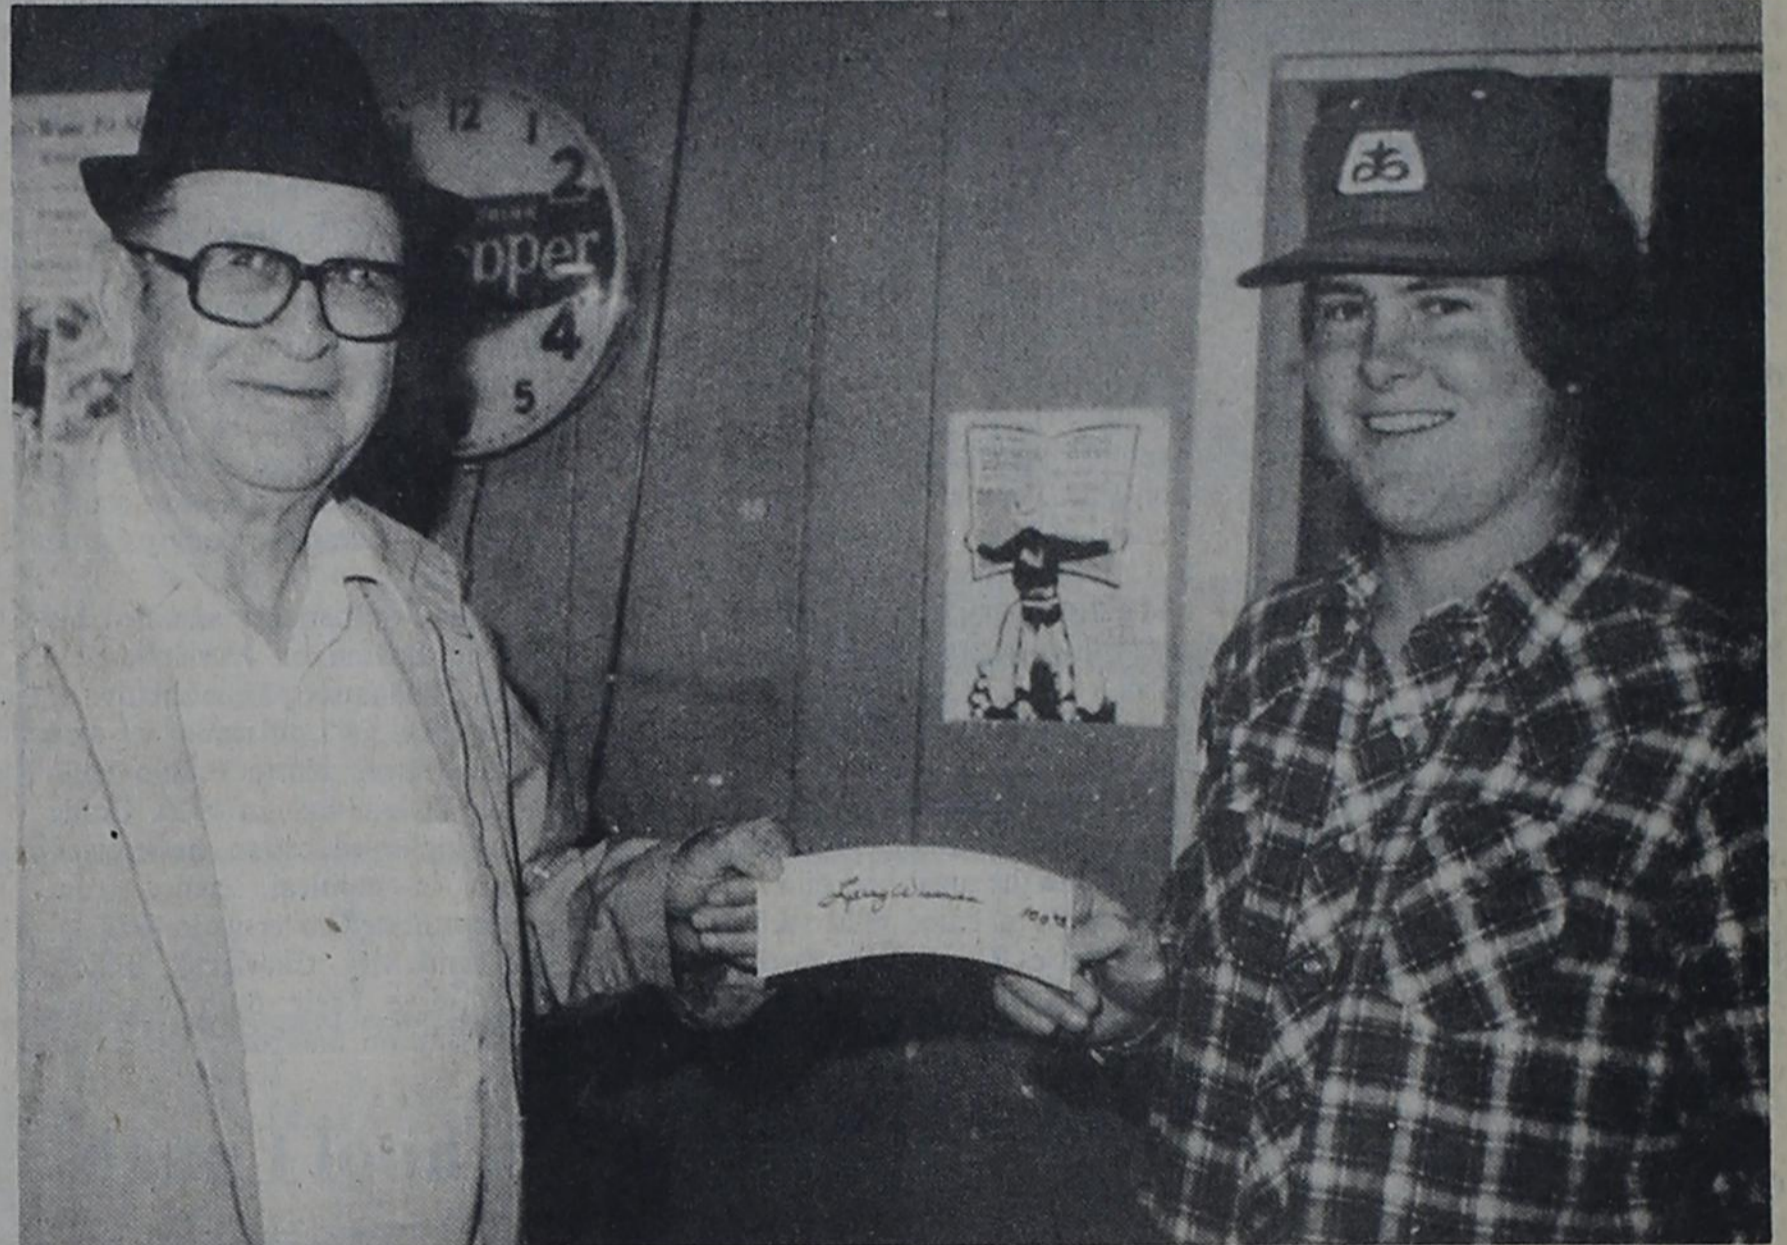

On the defensive eleven, Joe Pat Wright made first team defensive end, Dale Gilbreath first team defensive back; Richard Shepherd and Joe Black second team defensive backs.

Gilbreath was also cited as first team punter on the team, averaging better than 40 yards per kick.

On offense, four players made the second team. Henderson Griggs made it at tight end; Jay Judd at tackle; Richard Shepherd at running back and Jon Riddle at receiver.

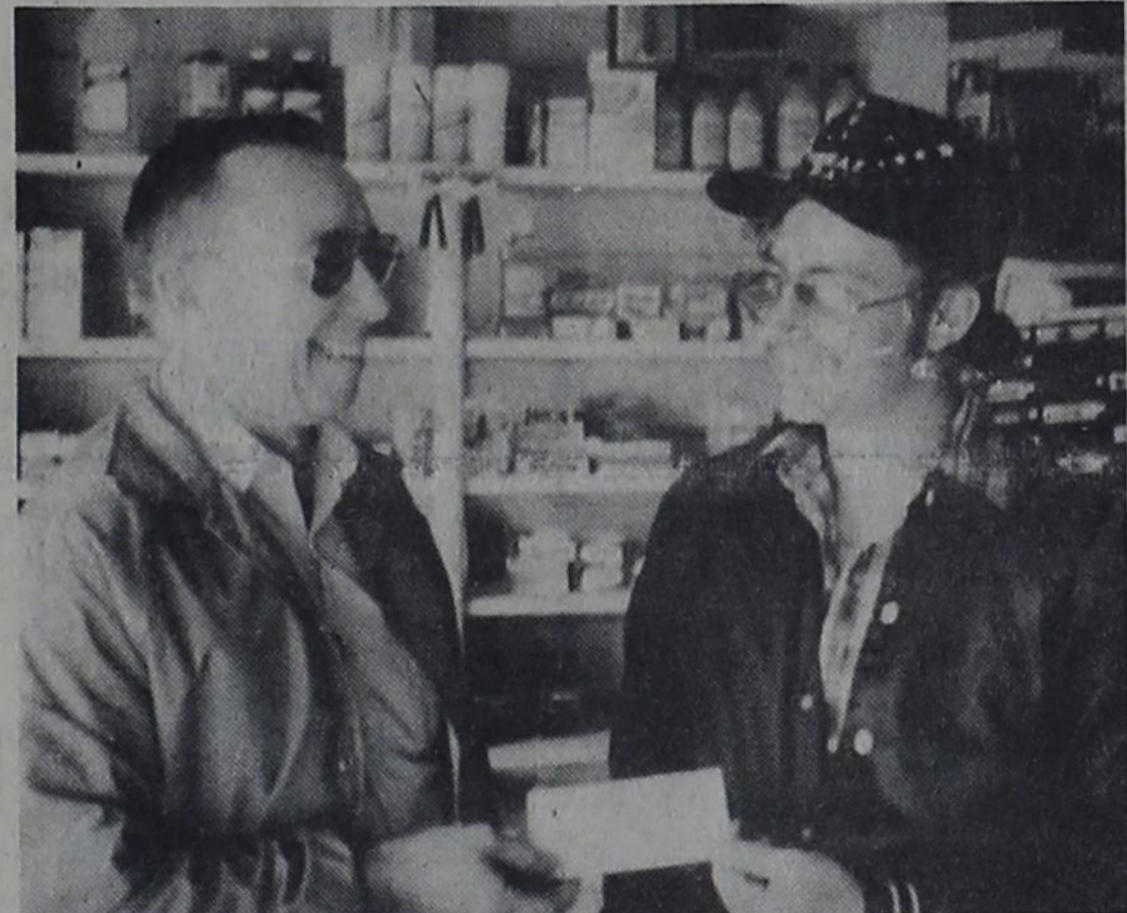

District champion Farwell dominated the squad with 12 offensive and eight defensive spots on the 60-man team.

Farwell's quarterback, Alan Eubank, was named "Most Valuable Player," and Coach Bruce Dollar of the Steers was named "Coach of the Year."

Wiseman Is Winner Of 1982 Contest

Larry Wiseman, who either led or was tied for the lead for twelve weeks during the contest period, held on to claim the championship in the Bovina Businesses' Football Contest for 1982.

Wiseman scored nine correct during the final week of the contest to capture top honors. Wayne Thatcher managed only eight correct, and fell back a point. Wiseman had a score of 131 for the 13 weeks, to Thatcher's 128.

Billy Shepherd, who finished third, had to shoot for upsets, and saw his score dwindle to a six, and finished with a score of 125.

Wiseman was awarded a check for $100 for winning, along with the title of "Champion Predictor for 1982."

Winning the final week's contest was Bobby J. Johnson, who was the only contestant to score an "11" for the final week.

(The Army-Navy game which was on the contest slate, was counted correct--in both places--so contestants had a two-point head start. And in most cases, they needed it.)

Rhonda London won second place in the weekly contest, picking ten games correct, and hitting the Littlefield-Breckenridge tie-breaker score on the nose at 21-14, favoring the Wildcats. Aubrey L. Parson won third place, missing the tie-breaker by only a point, picking Littlefield, 21-13.

Johnson missed Follet-Motley County; Shallowater-Wellington and San Francisco-New Orleans.

Also getting ten games right were Hattie Burnett and R.S. Keys. Picking nine games were Valente Bazaldua, Corky Brito, Jim Cockerham, Kathy Harris, Doug Johnson, Ola Lee Jones, Brad Lance, Mike Lance, Claude Ratcliff, Todd Schilling, Jay Sherrill, Wendy Stanberry, Dean Stanberry, Randy Thomas, Todd Ware, Tom Ware, Mary Jane Wilson and Larry Wiseman.

Previous champions in the annual contest have been:

1960, Neil Smith; 1961, Erith Hawkins; 1962, Emmett Tabor; 1963, Paul Jones; 1964, Jeanne Kerby; 1965, Allen Cumpton; 1966, Truck Lusk; 1967, Leroy Lance; 1968, Bill Roberts; 1969, Larry Wardlaw; 1970, Donna Criswell; 1971, Ted Graham; 1972, Gary McCormick; 1973, Harry J. Charles; 1974, Emmett Tabor;

Bovina Schools will be showing Dr. James Dobson's film series, "Focus On The Family" to students in grades 6-12 beginning on December 8.

The series includes seven films, which will be shown on consecutive days. Parents are invited to come to view the film.

If you have children in grades 6-12 a letter will be forthcoming giving the exact schedule, and also an opportunity to say "yes" or "no" concerning your child's viewing the series, according to a school official.

"This series is educational and speaks to an issue which is critical to the American way of life--the family unit. We hope that you will take the opportunity to come and hear one of America's foremost authorities on this subject. Please feel free to contact the school if you have any questions concerning the series," a school spokesman said.

Applications Now Accepted For Windbreak Seedlings

Applications are now being accepted for windbreak seedlings from the Texas Forest Service.

These seedlings, grown from seed collected in West Texas and eastern New Mexico, are produced in the Service's greenhouse in Lubbock and in a field nursery near Halfway.

Conifer species available this season include Austrian pine, ponderosa pine, Arizona cypress, redcedar and Scotch pine. These containerized seedlings cost $1 each but are sold only in multiples of 30 seedlings.

Hardwood species include bur oak, green ash, honeylocust, mulberry, native plum and Russian olive. These bare root seedlings are priced at $25 per hundred. Minimum orders of 100 seedlings will be accepted, but applicants may order 50 of one species and 50 of another. Applicants must also add a four per cent states sales tax to the purchase price.

Seedlings ordered now will be ready for pickup and planting in March 1983. Tree seedlings sold by the Texas Forest Service may not be used for landscaping or ornamental purposes.

For applications and information on windbreaks, contact the Texas Forest Service, Route 3, Box 216, Lubbock, Texas 79401, (806) 746-5801. Applications are also available from county offices of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, Soil Conservation Service, and Agricultural Extension Agents.

CRAWLING IS IMPORTANT TO YOUR BABY'S EYES
Parents who encourage a child to walk too soon are making a mistake, because crawling is important in helping the child learn to coordinate the use of legs, arms, and their EYES!

There's an old saying that a child must creep before it crawls, crawl before it walks and walk before it runs. There is much truth in this saying and it is most important in the development of good eye coordination that a baby be allowed to crawl for a sufficient length of time. So, don't hurry your child to walk...let him or her crawl and develop the proper use of their eyes.

Don't get impatient if baby repeatedly throws things down from the high chair. That's how the child learns to distinguish "up" from "down" and begins to learn depth perception with the eyes.

Watch for any crossing or turning of the eyes after the age of one year. If the eyes turn in or out, especially when tired or sleepy or when emotionally upset see your Optometrists right away.

This message is brought to you in the interest of better vision by Drs. Armistead & Smith, Optometrists, Littlefield, Texas.

Scooter's Scoops

By Scooter Russell

Bovina residents enjoyed about eight inches of beautiful snow over the Thanksgiving holidays...At our house, we celebrated Thanksgiving, Christmas and brother Fred's birthday...Members of our family who came were: my mother, Meca West of Hereford; daughter Tami and Arty Kunselman and their daughters, Gina and Jamie, of Lazbuddie; sister and brother-in-law, Jane and Jeff McBeth of Colorado Springs; and brother Fred West of Moriarity, New Mexico, and his grandson Freddie...We enjoyed a dinner of turkey and all the trimmings as most of you and your families...We want to urge the kiddos and, mommies to remind them, that Christmas is not far away and we do need to have their letters to Santa in as soon as possible so we can print them in our Christmas issue and forward them on to the North Pole so Santa can begin his work of making and delivering the toys and gifts...Congratulations to Larry Wiseman, who is the final winner of our football contest!!

NEWS AROUND TOWN

We talked Tuesday to Arlin's daughter-in-law and she says his condition is still about the same. He remains in intensive care in the Lubbock Methodist Hospital.

Earl Richards came home from the Friona hospital about a week ago last Saturday after spending two weeks there. His wife Mary said he is getting along just fine.

George Turner was a patient for ten days in the West Plains Hospital in Muleshoe. He came home a week ago Sunday and his wife, Montie, says he is getting along real well.

Lonnie and Sue Fowler are having a great time with their granddaughter, Ashley and her parents, Nancy and Bert Hardin of San Diego, California. They came on Thursday and Bert returned last Saturday but Nancy and the baby will be spending a few more days. We understand Uncle Robert is also enjoying a good visit with his niece!

Bethal Wilcox spent several weeks in the Lubbock Hospital but is now recuperating at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Ruby and Junior McCormick of Clovis.

Alton and Terry McCormick and children of Lubbock were in Bovina visiting with family and friends over the Thanksgiving holidays. Terry is the daughter of Vernon and Frances Willard.

Anita Guest was in the office Tuesday morning and said her husband Jim is getting along fine after having emergency surgery in the Muleshoe Hospital a week ago. Both Anita and Jim entered the hospital a week ago Sunday. Anita was released Monday of this week and getting along fine. Jim is in room 120 at the West Plains Hospital and Anita said at first the doctor thought he would be hospitalized until Christmas but he has made so much improvement that he would be getting out much sooner.

During this time, the Guest's children came to be with them for a few days: twin sons, Keith and Kenneth of Amarillo and daughter Ginger of Denver, Colorado.

John and Eloise Dixon enjoyed company over the holidays: their son and family, David, his wife Bobbi and their sons, Michael and Brandon, of Canyon. Also with David and family were Bobbi's parents and other relatives, Lloyd and Zonell Dickerson and Lloyd's sister Velma Dickerson. The Dickers are from Camponauro, Brazil, and manage the mission school at Agape Institute. Eloise said they have a Bible School, Summer Church Camp and besides preaching and teaching, they also teach and help with the building, agriculture and repairs around the area. They also house several young orphan boys. The work sounded very involved and much needed.

Hattie and Lawrence Gray drove to Clovis and visited with daughter and son-in-law, Janice and Henry Davis and their children, Kimberly, Chad and Clayton.

Visiting in the Gray's home recently and spending two nights were son Tommy and Glenna McCormick and twin sons, Erick and Derrick, of Lefors, Texas.

Pearl Murry returned home recently from a trip to the Bahamas to visit her brother. Her daughter, Roberta Vandeventer of Showlow, Arizona, joined her at Dallas and they made the trip together.

Pearl's brother, Embert Purdy of Enid, Oklahoma is an out patient at the Immunology Research Centre in Freeport, Grand Bahama Island, for Cancer and Control. Pearl said since her brother is taking treatments there, he is looking so much better and walks several miles a day. He has shown great improvement in the one month that he has been there. The patients are given blood tests every morning, then pick up their shots for the day, which they can give to themselves. Then they are allowed to return to their motel rooms or enjoy the pretty sunny weather and sandy beaches. Pearl said in February there will be a clinic like this in Oklahoma City which will offer the same type of treatments.

While in the Bahamas the family enjoyed sightseeing and one day visiting Nassau, which is the capital of the Bahamas.

Visiting with Henry and Nelline Spicer during the Thanksgiving holidays were members of their family: son Marty and Audrey of Mesquite, daughter Nena and Mike Veazey of Hereford, and daughter Kay and Joe Stanton and their daughter Kristi of Farwell. Also visiting and spending the night was Nelline's brother Jim Bob Gordon of Chattanooga, Tennessee.

Flossie and Lester made a trip to Arizona and California and visited several relatives. They visited in Yuma, Arizona with a sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jones; Dick Martin and the Rhinehart's granddaughter Kenda and her three little ones.

Kenda and Dick took them to Oji, California where they visited Lester's niece, Juanita Stone.

They were away from home ten days and had a wonderful time.

George and Bessie Trimble visited in Albuquerque with their son and family, Willie and Lonetta Denney and grandchildren Tim and Janet Henry of Roswell and Jerry and Kathy Denney and their children of Albuquerque, New Mexico, during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Bessie said they enjoyed watching the beautiful snow in the mountains around Albuquerque.

Julia Moody of Farwell and her mother and uncle, Sid Lloyd and Elbert Kelley, made a trip to College Station over the Thanksgiving holidays and visited with Sid's son and family, Don and Myrna Lloyd and their children, Mike and Pam. They went Tuesday before Thanksgiving and returned home the following Sunday.

On their way home they visited in Childress with Sid's brother Bill and Lois Kelley and her niece and her husband, Marilyn and Allen Neighbors.

Wendol and Louise Christian of Oklahoma Lane enjoyed family members present for Thanksgiving dinner: their children, Gwen and Ed Corn of Farwell and their children, Clay, Christie, Charla and Clint; their daughter Loy and Joe McLellan of Friona and their children, Judy and Johnny.

Minnie and Howard Kelso returned from a trip to Buffalo, Texas, which is near Waco and stayed with their grandsons, Tony, Troy and Kevin, while the Kelso's son and daughter-in-law, Tally and Brenda, enjoyed a Caribbean cruise.

On their way home they spent time visiting with their granddaughter Jacquelyn Black in Brownwood.

A couple of weeks ago, Fern Bell and her sister, Betty Owens of Tullia went to Gruver, Texas, and helped their mother, Ann Cooper, celebrate her birthday.

During the Thanksgiving holidays the Durward Bells went to Montrose, Colorado and spent several days visiting with their daughter and family, Karen and Royce Grissom and children, Capi and Cody.

Greg and Pam Bell and children, Casey and Willie, drove to Gruver and spent a couple of nights with Pam's grandmother, Ann Cooper.

Producing more energy from less ... makes the difference.

Their discovery would shake the worlds of communication, medicine and defense, but Charles Townes and Arthur Schawlow knew only that they had discovered an entirely new source of light. They called it an "optical maser." Today we know it as the "laser."

Their discovery was a light beam so concentrated it could produce power densities millions of times as intense as those on the surface of the sun — a light source so dense, the energy produced was greater than the energy required to produce it.

Arthur Schawlow and Charles Townes

This principle of more energy from less applies to the High-Efficiency Add-On Heat Pump — more units of heat than units of electricity needed to produce that heat. And while the Add-On Heat Pump works with your existing furnace to heat your home during the winter, the Add-On Heat Pump functions with the same efficiency to cool your home during warm weather.

As partners, Townes and Schawlow made a significant difference in our world with their work on the laser. As partners you, Southwestern Public Service Company and the Add-On Heat Pump can make the difference managing electricity in your home. Call SPS to see what your savings could be.

Gulf of Mexico sites studied for sanctuary program
 COLLEGE STATION — Seven sites in the Gulf of Mexico are currently being evaluated for possible designation as National Marine Sanctuaries, says Dr. Thomas Bright, a Texas A&M University oceanographer who leads the selection team. The Marine Sanctuary Program is intended to establish a system of national marine sanctuaries for the long-term benefit and enjoyment of the public. Bright said he expects about two sanctuaries to eventually be established in the Gulf region. He said the "sanctuary" designation would not preclude uses of the sanctuary and its resources by the public as long as the basic ecological integrity of the area is maintained.

Bovina Cagers Jump Off To Great Start

The Bovina Mustangs and Fillies varsity basketball teams are off to a good start, having won between them three of their first four games of the 1982-83 season.

The teams opened the season last Monday by hosting Amherst teams. The Fillies scored a 62-30 win, and the Mustangs took an equally as easy 91-54 victory.

At Friona the following night, the Fillies led the Squaws most of the way before dropping a 47-45 decision, and the Mustangs ran their record to 2-0 with an impressive 81-58 win.

In the Amherst game, the Fillies rode the hot shooting of Lisa Tubbs, who scored 22 points, 20 on field goals. The Bovina girls pulled away from a 14-6 first quarter lead to a 38-23 advantage entering the final quarter, and won going away.

The Mustangs also had an easy time of it against the inexperienced Bulldogs. Bovina held a 53-19 halftime lead, and won by as big a margin as they have held in quite some time. Richard Shepherd's 21 points paced the Ponies.

At Friona on Tuesday, the Fillies played the host Squaws on even terms throughout the game, but just couldn't get their shots to fall like they had the previous night.

Friona held quarter leads of 11-8 and 24-20, before Bovina rallied in the third quarter to outscore the hosts 15-8 and take a 35-32 lead. But Friona answered with a 15-point fourth quarter to edge in front and take the two-point win.

Bovina had two or three shots at the end of the game with a chance to at least tie the game, but couldn't get a shot to fall.

Marie Pesch led the Fillies with 10 points. Stacey Whitecotton and Lisa Tubbs each scored eight. Friona's big post forward, Sherry O'Brian, was the big weapon for the Squaws, scoring 26 points.

The Mustangs, running and gunning, got off to another good start against the Chieftains, taking a 21-11 lead after one quarter and stretching that to 45-29 at the half.

Friona rallied in the third quarter to outscore Bovina early-on, but the Mustangs came back for a 58-41 advantage, and continued their rally in the fourth quarter, scoring 23 points in the final eight minutes, their most productive quarter of the game, for the win.

Greg McClaran rang the bell for Bovina with 31 points and Shepherd chipped in with 20. Robert Escalante led the Chieftains with 19.

The Fillies' JVs have won their first two games, 49-28 over Amherst and 32-20 against Friona. The Mustang junior varsity beat Amherst and Friona in their first two outings.

Several producers attended a meeting at the First State Bank, Bovina, on November 1, concerning Prairie Dog Control. Mike Yeary, area predator control officer with the U.S. Wildlife Service, presented the program. Those in attendance agreed to form a county wide control program and to encourage their neighbors to participate in the program. Bob Wilson, Bovina, was elected as chairman of the control program.

It was recommended to have a two-step control program. The first step would be to treat with the zinc phosphide oats this winter and then to use
