After the proposal for an all-Belt benefit drive for the Texas disaster victims fell through, the next logical thing seemed to be the matter of holding benefit minstrel show performances in Eastland, Ranger, and possibly also by the Eastland Quarterback Club.

This was in the discussion stage Thursday, but seemed likely to go through.

As proposed, the performance, Eastland at least, would be put for $2 a ticket, and five fundraising drives would be involved. They are for Texas City and the handle tornado area relief (two separate things), China Relief, week relief, and the cancer drive. It was thought there would be performance here, two at Cisco possibly one or two at Ranger.

The minstrels went over very smoothly in Eastland this year in performances that packed the school auditorium. People paid for tickets to the show and got not only the knowledge of their money was going to a worthy cause, but that they would have a good show too.

I've been asked by several persons to write editorials on various phases of the city government which has perturbed large numbers of people here.

I'm not going to write any editorials. But I am going to report honestly as I know how what's going on, and if possible why, let the people draw their own conclusions.

O'Brien Making Investigation Of City Personnel

Eastland's city government, running through troubled waters, sailed through a storm Saturday night when Mayor C. T. Lucas called a special City Commission meeting to get from Commissioners Dan Childress, A. J. Blevins, Jr., and C. J. Uffelman an explanation of why the three had held a meeting without notifying him or Commissioner John Jackson.

It was reported that at the meeting of the three it had been decided to dispense with the services of Police Chief Ed Sparr and Police Officer Bill Harris.

However, at the Saturday night meeting, Childress became angered at Lucas' questions about the meeting of the three and said that it was in no sense an "official meeting" of the commission.

The five commissioners later agreed to instruct City Manager Earl O'Brien to make an investigation of all city personnel, presumably including the police force, and report back to the commission.

This apparently would cancel any earlier decision on the police force. O'Brien Thursday said he had no statements to make on the situation, especially since he felt he had no authority from the commission to make any statements.

At the Saturday meeting, Henry Pullman and W. B. Harris, Eastland businessmen, expressed themselves as strongly opposed to any reduction in the police force.

Childress, Blevins and Uffelman asked questions of Lucas and Jackson, holdover commission members, on the workings of the police force, and Childress expressed himself of the opinion that the city could get along without a day-time policeman since the city's financial condition made it seem imperative to him that expenditures be cut somewhere.

This led on to the discussion that resulted in the motion to have O'Brien investigate the city personnel with a view to making economies wherever possible.

Childress said he had been shocked a few days before on inquiring at the Eastland National Bank what the city's general fund balance was, to discover that it was only slightly more than $200.

Lucas replied that this was nothing unusual; that since he had taken office 12 years ago, the City of Eastland annually had gone into the red, borrowed from the bank until taxes start coming in, paid off the bank debt, and soon gone into the red again.

Attorney Frank Sparks, who has handled the city's bond affairs for some years, spoke to the commission on a bond situation that could get the city some extra working money. The city has $5700 in bonds that can be either retired and the debt reduced that much, or sold and the money used, he said.

The commission took no action, but seemed of the opinion that the bonds should be sold and the money spent at the water station, and instructed O'Brien to investigate the bond market.

Sparks also acted as peacemaker after the temper flareup between Childress and Lucas. He spoke of the commissioners' responsibilities to the public, said there would be differences of opinion, but that the five men elected certainly could work out solutions amicably if they made up their minds to.

C. A. RANNEY NEW MANAGER OF SHOP

C. A. Ranney has been appointed manager of the Men's Shop in Eastland by Saul Perlestein, owner, to replace Conard Reaves, who resigned.

Ranney, a New York man who has served in the Army in Texas, married a Cisco girl and liked it so well he stayed here. He and his wife and daughter live in Eastland.

Reaves said his plans are not certain.

Dr. J. H. Caton and Dr. W. K. Cowan attended the meeting in Abilene Tuesday of the Northwest Texas District Medical Society. Physicians from 28 towns attended.

Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Parker spent the week end in Comanche visiting with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Durham and her family to the Ice-Durham and her family to the Ice-capades in Fort Worth Sunday.

Too Many Use Phones, Service Curtailed Again

The telephone situation eased up and then tightened again in Eastland this week as a skelton crew attempted to resume service despite the strike, and found they couldn't.

For two or three days, before many of the general public became aware of it, the two non-union chief operators and other assorted hands were giving near-normal service.

Then everyone heard that calls could be completed, and everyone tried to complete them. It was too much of a load, and Wednesday afternoon the operators went back to an "emergency calls only" basis.

However, they said they still were attempting to complete all essential business calls.

Working long hours to put through the calls that are completed have been Mrs. Donna Mae Cook, chief operator, Mrs. Laura Lou Trammell, night chief operator, S. R. Beaman, staff assistant in charge of rates for North Texas, who came here from Fort Worth during the emergency, Fred Chapman, district plant superintendent and Jimmy Echols, who usually has the board by himself from 10 p. m. to 6 a. m.

Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Trammell work the day shift, Beaman and Chapman the evening shift.

Long distance calls are being put through almost on a normal basis where they can be completed at once.

Community Concert Membership Drive Set

The third annual membership drive for the Eastland County Community Concert Association will begin May 13, Mrs. Clyde Grissom, county chairman, said this week.

Efforts are being made to get in touch with all old members before the drive, so they may have first opportunity to obtain tickets, she said.

Residents of Eastland County, after two years experience with these concerts, have a good idea of the type of splendid entertainment in store for next season, although the actual selection of performers will not take place until after the drive," Mrs. Grissom said.

Memberships are sold in Eastland, Cisco, Ranger and other towns of the county. The concerts are held in Eastland High School auditorium, and membership is limited to the number of seats available. Only season tickets are sold.

Both of the Schurmans are graduates of Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa. They have held pastorates in Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri and Texas, but have given most of their time to evangelistic work.

Here is what Mr. Schurman has to say about their work. "There is

Parade, Contests To Feature Safety Conference Here

Plans for a morning parade, afternoon declamation contest with a safety subject, and night meeting with a prominent safety speaker were made Monday night at a meeting of the planning committee for the Oil Belt Safety Conference, to be held in Eastland Friday, May 9.

The morning parade will feature floats from Eastland, Cisco, Ranger and Breckenridge, the four cities in the conference. Prizes will be awarded for the best floats.

Bands from Cisco, Ranger and Breckenridge are expected to march in the parade.

After lunch, winners of declamation contests in the high schools of the four cities will meet in the finals of a safety declamation contest, with prizes to be awarded. At the same session, winning essays in grade and junior high school safety contests will be read. The meeting will be in the Lyric Theatre.

The speaker for the evening session in the Connellee Hotel Roof Garden has not been named yet. At this session, there will be music, and the names of the essay and declamation contest winners will be announced.

Visitors from all nearby points were expected to throng Eastland for the day of safety events. Although final arrangements have not been made, it is expected that there will be many safety displays and exhibits.

Softball Season Plans To Be Made Tuesday

Plans for the coming softball season in Eastland will be made at a meeting of team sponsors and team managers in the City Hall fire rooms next Tuesday night, it was announced this week.

Considerable interest has been shown in an Eastland all-star team this year, similar to ones fielded by neighboring towns last year. Fire Chief Arlie Hennessie said, and a decision will be made on whether to have one representing Eastland.

RANGER SINGING SET FOR SUNDAY

The regular monthly meeting of the Ranger Community Singing will be held at the Christian Church in Ranger Sunday afternoon, L. N. Bryant, director, said this week. Out of town singers and friends were invited to attend.

2 Jailed, 2 Fined After Fracas With City Policeman

Four Eastland men who were involved in a fracas with City Policeman Bill Harris at an all-night cafe early Tuesday were fined the next day by County Judge Louis Crossley, and two of them were given 30-day jail sentences.

The jail sentences were given J. R. Thomas, who also was fined $25 and costs for attacking an officer, $50 and costs for driving while intoxicated, and his driver's license suspended for six months, and Clarence King, who was fined $25 and costs for assault.

Fined $25 and costs apiece were Buster Taylor and C. F. Swindell.

Harris, who said the four rushed him when he attempted to arrest them emerged from the fray with cuts and bruises on his face, a badly dislocated knuckle on one hand and a bruised knuckle on the other hand.

The officer was saved from worse injuries when Deputies Sheriff Blake Forehand and Jack White happened along and stopped the affair. King received a serious head cut when he was struck by Forehand's gun. The deputy sheriff said King would not stop fighting when told to.

The four men also were fined $10 each in city court on charges of disturbing the peace.

All four pleaded guilty to charges and told Judge Crossley they had been in the wrong and were sorry.

Two Men Arrested After Store Swindled

Peter F. King, who allegedly pulled a slick trick on the Eastland Western Auto Associate Store Wednesday, was in jail two hours later under penalty of a $50 fine and 90 days in jail.

It was charged that King and an associate, R. O. Neighbors, saw that one clerk was on duty at the store. While Neighbors drew the clerk's attention, King allegedly put some articles from a shelf in the store in a sack, and a little later asked to return them, saying he had bought them and found he did not need them.

He was given $8.90 for the articles. A little later, with the help of Milton Day, who had witnessed the affair, King was found eating in a cafe here, and $8.51 was recovered. A short while later he was sentenced by County Judge P. L. Crossley on a guilty plea.

Thursday, Neighbors was picked up in a hotel here and charged with being King's associate in the theft.

Lions To Hear Region Head Of V.A. Speak

ROBERT C. RICE

Robert C. Rice, manager of the Dallas regional office of the Veterans Administration, will speak before the Eastland Lions Club Tuesday, it was announced this week by James M. Brown, V. A. contact representative in Eastland.

His talk will be on "The Magnitude of the Task," the story of VA at work in providing benefits for North Texas veterans.

Brown suggested that all Lions Club members take a veteran as a guest to the luncheon Tuesday.

Rice is a veteran of both world wars. In the recent war, he was commanding officer of the Adjutant General's Officer Candidate School, adjutant general of the Tenth Army Air Force in the China Burma-India area, deputy adjutant general of the Army Air Force Training Command Headquarters at Fort Worth, and command adjutant general of the Army Air Force Eastern Technical Training Command, St. Louis.

Boyce House Talks At Lions' Dinner

Boyce House, famed Texas humorist and politician who says he is from Eastland and Fort Worth, at least when he is in Eastland, told and retold a lot of Texas tales Tuesday night at the annual Eastland Lions Club ladies night dinner, and had the large crowd roaring from beginning to the end.

House injected one serious note in his talk when he made a plea for keeping up America's armed forces as a damper on aggression by any foreign nation.

He said — perhaps facetiously — that his next and fifth book will be titled "Texas Under Five Flags and a Flour Sack."

House's talk followed a talk on the battle of San Jacinto, listed as one of the most important battles in the history of the world, by Harry Kelsey, who illustrated his talk with a sketch of the battleground.

This was followed by a quartet composed of Mrs. Curtis Koen, Mrs. Hollis Bennett, W. G. Womack and Homer Smith, singing "Come to the Bower," the song played by fire players as the Texans charged the Mexicans at San Jacinto.

Dr. C. L. Brown, program chairman who arranged a Texas program in honor of San Jacinto Day which fell the day before, was called to the hospital during the first part of the program, and his place was taken by Theo Lamb, the club's standing program chairman.

Following the program, House was shown the new Majestic Theatre in Eastland by Manager Aubrey Van Hoy. House knew the show house well when he was editor here and the show was known as the Connellee Theatre, finest between Fort Worth and El Paso.

Charles Van Geem Opens Eastland Office

Charles C. Van Geem, who recently returned to Eastland to make his home, has opened an office as tax consultant and bookkeeper at 311 Exchange Building.

For three years Van Geem has been deputy collector of internal revenue for the U. S. at Portland, Ore. He was reared and educated in Eastland, attended Howard Payne College at Brownwood, and served four years in the Army, emerging as a commissioned officer in the Infantry.

Figures Show City's Residents Increase 2000 Over 1940

The new Eastland-Ranger city directory, out this week, shows Eastland with a population of 5792 nearly 2000 more than the 3849 shown as living here in the 1940 census.

Ranger is shown to have a population of 5744.

Some of the population shown as living in Eastland actually lives at the Leon Power Plant and at the Consolidated gasoline plant, indicating that Eastland and Ranger actually are practically the same in population, for the first time since before the boom days after the first World War.

The directory, issued by C. L. Moorehead, is a clothbound book with 68 pages in the Eastland section and 66 in the Ranger section.

Extra copies of the directory may be obtained at the Eastland County Record.

The directory, first issued since 1941, was originally to have included Cisco also, but another firm had made arrangements to print a city directory there. Later the deal fell through, an Moorehead now has contracted to issue a separate directory for Cisco.

The new book lists the people who live in Eastland and Ranger by alphabetical order, and also by addresses, and also lists all business firms. Accompanying it is a smaller reversible telephone directory that lists all telephones in the two towns in numerical sequence, with names of telephone subscribers.

There is no Texan about whom more stories are told than David Crockett, tho' most of them relate to his days in Tennessee before he came to Texas. Incidentally, while your radio columnist was in Crockett recently, citizens pointed out the tree under which the famous hunter camped while on his way to San Antonio where he died gloriously in the Alamo.

Davy moved into a new country in Tennessee when he was a young man. All he had to do on moving day was pour water on the fire and whistle up the dogs. He was made justice of the peace and as he said, "I got along pretty well. My judgments were never appealed from but if they had been they would have stuck like wax, as I gave my decisions on the principles of common justice and honesty between man and man, and relied on natural born sense and not law-learning to guide me for I had never read a page in a law book in my life."

After serving in the legislature, Crockett decided to run for Congress. His opponents were two dignified and solemn individuals who took themselves quite seriously and ignored the back-woodsman in his hunting costume who told jokes and discussed matters in a common-sense kind of way. When the votes were counted, he had beaten both of them put together. He had to borrow money to make make the trip to Washington. On his way, he stopped at an inn and in trying to get to the fire he accidentally posted a self-important chap who demanded, "Who do you think you are?" Davy shouted, "I'm Davy Crockett, half horse and half alligator, a little touched with the snapping turtle. I can wade the Mississippi, jump the Ohio, ride a streak o' lightning and slide down a honey-locust without a scratch. I can whip my weight in wildcats and, if any gentleman please, for a $10-bill, he can throw in a panther. I can bug a bear too close for comfort and I can lick any man that's against Andrew Jackson."

WAGES AND THE TELEPHONE STRIKE

Because wages are at issue in the telephone strike, let's take a look at what operators and plant craftsmen here are now getting. Almost all telephone people are in these groups.

Periodic increases raise this basic rate to a top of $56 a week. Exchange repairmen—the men who take care of repairing the equipment in your office or home—reach a top rate of $53. Overtime and other extra pay during the past year increased the wages of most linemen, installers, and exchange repairmen by about 10 per cent.

The basic work period is a five-day, 40-hour week. Scheduled employees are paid overtime for time worked over eight hours a day, premium time for Sunday and holiday work, and added money for evening and night work.

The union asks that the beginning wage rates of these Plant workers be raised from $28 to $43—up $15 a week. The union would also increase the $56 top wage to $78, and the $58 top to $78. Those would be increases of $20 and $22 a week.

OPERATORS

A girl just out of high school, with no previous experience, starts at the beginner's rate of $26 a week. But if she works after 9 p.m., she gets $27.50 a week, and if that week includes Sunday work, she gets $30.10.

We believe most people will agree that present wages are good. The company believes that no increases are justified at this time.

The beginning operator gets a raise in pay every six months for the first year. An operator with 12 month's experience, for example, gets $28 for a normal 40-hour week. If it includes evenings and Sunday, she earns $32.30.

The way to resolve these differences of opinion and settle the strike is to arbitrate the wage issue. That would be fair to our employees, to telephone users, and to the company.

Periodic increases bring the operator to the top rate of $34 a week. If she works evenings and Sundays, her weekly earnings are $38.90.

Nearly three weeks ago the company proposed that Governor Jester and the governors of the other four states in which we operate appoint a panel of five impartial citizens—men with a knowledge of conditions in this area—to arbitrate the wage issue. The company enlarged its offer to include not only basic wages but such other demands as length of time for employees to reach top wage rates and wage differentials between different communities.

But the union wants to increase the beginner's rate of pay from $26 to $41—up $15 a week. Also, they would increase the top wages from $34 to $51. That is an increase of $17 a week.

PLANT CRAFTSMEN

Linemen and installers, starting in right out of school with no experience, begin at $28 for a basic five-day week. In two years they are earning $35.50 a week.

The company urges union officials to reconsider the offer of arbitration. It is the fair way to settle the strike, restore full telephone service to the public, and get the telephone wage issue decided equitably.

Health Roundup Set For West Ward School Students

The West Ward Parents-Teachers Association, in conjunction with the physicians of Eastland will sponsor a Health Roundup to be held at the school during the next two weeks.

This type of examination is recommended by the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, and also by the Texas State Health Department, and is held each spring in many schools. Such an examination has not been held in Eastland for a number of years, but it is hoped that it will become an annual affair, sponsors said.

Object of the Health Roundup is to discover ailments, defects and diseases among the children. To be examined will be the children's eyes, ears, noses, throats, chests, lungs, skin, body and a tuberculin patch test will be given.

Five physicians will give their time free and mothers and members of the Parent-Teachers Association will be present to help the doctors, and to keep records. The Parent-Teachers Association is buying the necessary medical supplies, including the tuberculin patch test.

Previous to the examination, blanks will be sent home to the parents asking their permission for the examination. The blanks have a part for the parents to fill out telling of the child's inoculation for diphtheria, typhoid and small-pox, and also asking other questions concerning the child's previous health. The blanks are to be returned to the school and the rest of the blank will be filled out during the examination by the doctors. These blanks will be kept as a permanent health record in the school. One part of the blank will be torn off and returned to the parents giving the general and specific findings by the doctors. It is hoped that all ailments and defects noted by the doctors will be corrected by the parents during the summer vacation.

It was requested that all children who will enter West Ward School for the first time next fall, also came for the examination. Since there is no roll of the children who will enter school for the first time next fall, parents of these children are requested to contact Mrs. J. E. Little and make arrangements.

It was understood that the girls and boys will be examined at different times, and that P. T. A. members will be present at all times. The examination will take place on the third floor of the school. Children were requested to bring a small sheet or a large towel to wear during the examination.

The Eastland doctors who will take part in the examination will be: Dr. F. T. Isbell; Dr. Ken Cowan, Dr. H. P. Watkins, Dr. L. C. Brown, and Dr. E. R. Townsend.

Miss Dorothy Day of Houston visited last week end in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Day.

Post-War Vacuum Cleaner Actually Picks Up Water

"It's unbelievable!" That was the reaction of Mrs. Dorothy Hicks, typical Chicago housewife, when she saw the new post-war McAllister Bagless Vacuum Cleaner launder the carpet on the floor, and pick up suds and water just like dry dirt. This feature was explained to her by Charles H. Ross (right) vice-president of the corporation, while H. J. McAllister, president looked on. Mrs. Hicks also liked the bagless feature of the new cleaner, which actually has no bag to empty. Instead the dirt is deposited in a metal reservoir.

BLOW BY BLOW

Friday night, April 11, in the Eastland High School gym the best fight night of the year was held. These were really good fights and everybody was standing up and moving their fists just like they were fighting. Blood flowed freely over the canvas many times because all of these boys had fought many times before and were really good. These weren't the same bunch of boys that first started boxing in Eastland they were veterans at it now and every punch carried a KO behind it. There were several good fights and I will try to tell you about some of them.

One good fight was that one between Don Johnson of Cisco and Jack Turner of Abilene. At first it looked like Turner was going to get the best of Johnson. Turner was a very fast and tricky boxer. It took Johnson a good while to get used to his style of boxing but when he did it was a very good match with Turner winning the first round and Johnson winning the last so they called it a draw.

The next good fight was between Country Poor of Abilene and Don Whillingham of Stephenville. The best fight of the night was the last fight it was between Dickerson of Stephenville and McCrain of Abilene. In the first round McCrain gave Dickerson a right upper cut that sent him falling to the canvas. He got up at the count of nine. McCrain knocked him down two more times in the first round. This was a good fight all the way out because the Eastland fans had never seen either one of these boys whipped before. All of these fights were good from the start to the finish.

We had two or three golden gloves champs put on exhibition matches for us and they were really good. I would say that these were the best fights that we have ever had in Eastland and I think all of the fans think so too. We are all looking forward to next year when we will have more of these fights. I want to take this opportunity to wish all the fighters of next year the best of luck and that I hope every thing good comes their way and I don't mean a sock to the jaw.

SENIOR SPOTLIGHT

This week the senior spotlight shines on a happily married young woman. She is Mrs. Bill Pryor. To us she is Nancy or "Gruesome." She is five feet ten inches tall, olive complexion, light brown hair, dark brown eyes, and her weight is not known. Her hobbies are eating fried chicken and rattling. Bill is "Tip Top" man on her list and "A Thousand Dreams" is her favorite song. Her plans for the future are to be a perfect housewife, and two children are seen in her crystal ball.

Here's luck to a swell Senior girl!!!!!!
 YEA SENIORS!

FRESHMAN SPOTLIGHT

The Freshman spotlight this week shines upon a brilliant, courteous, and well-liked girl. She is five feet tall, weighs about 90 pounds, has brown hair, and has pretty blue eyes. Everyone likes Neva Dell Ward, for she is well-natured.

Her favorite pastime is one that many like, reading. Here's to luck, happiness, and success to a nice girl.

YEA FRESHMAN!!!!!!

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHT

The Junior spotlight this week picked out a very pretty brown-eyed girl with reddish brown hair and olive complexion. She is none other than Pauline Manzano. Pauline has a very nice voice and she has sung on our assembly programs. Pauline is 17, 5' 3" tall, and weighs 105 pounds. Among her favorites are "Linda" dancing to "Texas and Pacific," football, Southern fried chicken, green and white, typing, English. Pauline likes to spend her leisure drawing and she really is quite an artist. Here's wishing a swell Junior lots of luck.

CAN YOU TELL SENIORS FROM FRESHMAN? IF NOT BY THEIR BRAINS, THEIR BOOKS!

It's really easy! One can detect a senior, junior, sophomore, or freshman by an entirely new method. By observing the mode of carrying books, members of each class can be quickly denoted.

Here's how:
 Freshmen: Generally carries his books stawn along the sidewalk. When books are in arms (very seldom) the most common method is hooking the pile of texts under the left wing, which assumes a Napoleonic position.

Sophomors: Has by now assumed austere method of transporting books. Carries them as he thinks a typical high school student should carry books. Dropping of books occasionally, but cannot complete with freshmen.

Junior: Most junior texts are carried in the locker or at home on the dresser. Point is made not to drop books, but rarely is witnessed such a junior catastrophe.

Senior: Never drops books because hardly ever carries more than one at a time. Another method of spotting a senior is by the bulging muscles of his carrying arm from transporting books in less happy years.

Agitation to discontinue the carrying of books has been developed by the student body, but mild opposition is expected from the administration.

CHUCKLES

Mr. Womack upon opening his icebox one morning found to his amazement a live rabbit.

"What are you doing here?" asked Mr. Womack.

"Isn't this a Westinghouse?" answered the rabbit.

"Yes."

"Well, I'm 'westing."

Mrs. Woloszyn: "Dear, may I have $10 for a poor cripple?"

Pete: "Sure," replied her husband, impressed by her earnest tone. "Who is it and where is he crippled?"

Mrs. W.: "It's me, and I'm crippled in my finances."

"I'm a self-made man," said Mr. Little.

"You're lucky, I'm the revised work of a wife and two daughters," said Mr. Harvey.

Mr. Watson: "Is there anything worse than to be old and bent?"

Jimmie: "Yes, to be young and broke."

And then there was the bride who thought, as she walked into the church, "Aisle, altar, hymn."

Hotel Clerk: "Shall I have the porter call you?"

R. J. Peel: "No, I awaken at 7 a. m. automatically."

Hotel Clerk: "Would you mind calling the porter?"

"Who was the lady, I saw you out with last night?"

"Maybe she was out but I was OK."

Typhoid Vaccination Necessary For Summer Vacationist

AUSTIN — If you have not been vaccinated against typhoid fever within the last two or three years, Dr. George W. Cox, state health officer, advises you to go to your doctor or to the nearest health officer and have him give you the three "shots" that will protect you against the disease.

"The three shots that will protect against typhoid are given at intervals of one week apart," Dr. Cox stated. "As it takes some time for the protective treatment to be established throughout the system, it is wise not to delay in having it done. My advice is, have it done now so that immunization may be complete before summer arrives and vacation trips are taken."

This advice was addressed particularly to Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, and other youngsters who are looking forward to spring and summer hikes and trips. It is, however, meant also for others, young and old, whose business or pleasure during the summer will take them to places where there may be doubt as to the purity or safety of the water supply, or as to the care with

HOW MANY TIMES $10 WILL THIS PHOTOGRAPH BE WORTH?

"How many times $10.00 will this photograph be worth when he's a tow-headed boy in blue jeans starting to school? How much more when he's graduating from College? How utterly priceless when he, too, has a youngster who looks exactly like his Daddy did at that age! You wouldn't sell your baby's photograph for any amount of money. Mrs. R. M. (Aunt Uinie) Redwine, 77, passed away in a Fort Worth hospital at 3 a. m. Sunday morning. She had undergone surgical treatment and suffered a paralytic stroke on Wednesday, from which she never recovered. She has been a resident of the Salem community for many years. Her body was brought back home Sunday afternoon, and Higgin-Sunday Funeral Home were in charge of funeral arrangements. The services were directed by Rev. Tate and Rev. Martin from Carbon. They were held Monday afternoon at 2 p. m. with interment in the Howard Cemetery by the side of her husband who preceded her in death a number of years. She is survived by her two sons, Earl Redwine of Salem community and Ila Redwine of Fort Worth, and both of whom were present.

One sister and two brothers also survive. Mrs. Jane Sparger of Salem and Leander and Hute Moore, both of Goriee, and numerous grandchildren.

The Salem H. D. Club met Friday afternoon, April 18, in the home of Mrs. Electra Hattox with 10 members and 3 visitors present. Roll call was answered by attractive serving hints.

Report was given of the Council meeting and the lesson for the afternoon was "Krafts for all the Family with Leather, Kraft as an example."

Cocoa and cake were served to Mesdames Loran, Rodgers, Florence Yancey, Watson Weekes, Eunice Love, Irby Tucker, Case, Swaim Melton, Wilson, J. L. Yancey and the hostess.

The next meeting will be May 2, with Mrs. Lee Swaim, as hostess.

An unusual event, a reunion of brothers occurred over the week end in Odessa, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bob Love.

The idea was prompted by Mrs. Love. She suggested that all the brothers meet there with Herbert Love, minister of the El Paso Church of Christ, who incidentally, was filling the pulpit in the absence of the regular minister, Wesley Mickey, away conducting a series of revival services for the Ranger Church.

Six of the seven brothers were present for the occasion: Dave and John Love of the Cheaney community, Lum and Jack Love, both of Ranger, Robert of Odessa and Herbert of El Paso. The seventh, Melva Love, near Alameda at the last moment could not attend because of sickness in his family.

Bro. Willie Skaggs filled his regular appointment with the Baptist congregation at both morning and evening services Sunday.

Bro. Payne of Abilene spoke at the morning service at the church of Christ. Night services were not held so that members who wished could attend the closing service of the Ranger revival, being conducted by Wesley Mickey, former minister of the Ranger church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Love, Betty and Junior were callers in the Bill Tucker home Sunday afternoon.

Oscar Warren, father of Mrs. Jessie Lemley, is very ill at this writing.

May Duvall is suffering an eye infection, caused by a flying piece of stick some few weeks ago. Later taking cold from exposure during a rain. The cold settling in his eye.

Mrs. Eva Underwood was a recent visitor in the Arthur Love home. Mrs. Charles Mahaffey of Morton Valley visited in the Hart home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tucker and Billy visited Mr. and Mrs. Bill Logan Sunday night.

Elmer Blackwell is having a water well drilled on his place.

The frost which came so unexpectedly left some gardens a partial loss, some just nipped a little, while other reports say that the fruit is all killed. Others say not much damage was done — anyway we probably would not have sugar to take care of a large amount of fruit in any case.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Butler visited recently in Winchell. A brother, Frank Butler returned home with them and is here for an extended visit.

A quiet wedding took place in Eastland Monday when Miss Irma Lee Shook, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Shook was united in marriage with Lamar Perrin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perrin.

Both young people are from the Cheaney community and are well known. They will make their home on the farm where he has been engaged in farming after serving with the armed forces in the Philippines and in Japan for 18 months. He is a graduate of the Alameda High School.

Mrs. Perrin is a graduate from the Ranger High School.

Will Howard, Cheaney farmer, sustained a broken leg early Monday morning when kicked by a horse, while feeding the livestock. He was carried to Ranger for medical treatment.

Mike Love, of El Paso, young nephew of John Love, is visiting with him until Thursday.

Mrs. John Love from the Alameda Club, also vice president of the 7th District Texas Home Demonstration Association, and Mrs. Bill Tucker, vice president of the Salem Club, were numbered among the women from Eastland County attending the THDA meeting at Anson Wednesday, April 23.

Eastland Residents Commended For Care Of Post Office

Eastland people are to be commended for the care they have taken of the Post Office Building here, although there has been some carelessness in handling ink around the writing desks. Postmaster E. E. Layton said this week.

Layton cited an excerpt of a report in the House of Representatives on the Treasury and Post Office Departments appropriation bill that said:

"At the same time, a drive should be instituted to prevent defacing and other acts of vandalism in federal buildings. The tendency to damage post offices in this way is not only costing the country large sums of money each year, but is also an unfortunate indication of the respect with which many citizens consider their Government's property."

Layton pointed out that "For the most part, the average citizen's only contact with his Government is through the Federal Building and in order to make this contact pleasant and respectable it is the aim of the Post Office Department to keep the property under its administration in a clean, sanitary and presentable condition at all times."

"The citizenship of Eastland is to be commended for having committed only minor acts of defacing in the local post office," he went on. "These few consist of ink spots around the desks in the lobby and could have been eliminated entirely by people being more thoughtful. "The regulations provide that when the public persists in defacing the desks and walls, after due warning, writing materials may be removed and should not be replaced until the postmaster can assure himself that the public will appreciate their use and desist from defacing the property of the Government."
