EASTLAND CITIZENS WILL COOPERATE WITH FIRE DEPARTMENT

I am sure Eastland citizens, the majority of them anyway, will gladly co-operate with City officials in keeping streets free of traffic that might interfere with the fire department getting its engines and other equipment to fires as quickly as possible. Also I think Mayor Lucas meant what he said when he stated that after today, October 27, anyone violating the laws and regulations governing such matters would be fined.

Lucas pointed out that citizens, whether walking or riding, were required to get to the nearest street curb or on the sidewalks when the fire alarm is sounded and remain there until the fire trucks have passed or it is determined that they are going some other direction. Also if one goes to the scene of a fire they should not get closer than 500 feet to the fire equipment. And about driving cars and trucks over fire hoses. Anyone should, and we believe does, know better than this. Such an act is certain to do more or less damage to the hose, depending on the weight of the vehicle and the position and condition of the hose. Firemen must have room in which to work at bringing fires under control and extinguishing them. If people get in the way or the hose gives away because of someone has driven a car or truck over it and broke it, it might be the cause of the firemen being unable to successfully handle the fire and the loss of property and possibly human lives might be lost.

Another thing about damaged fire hose. If a break shows up that section of the hose in which the break is must be taken out and replaced by a new section as the broken section can not be depended upon. This costs money—tax payers money—and as Mayor Lucas says it is the duty of the city officials to save this money.

Maybe it would be too expensive and impractical but we would like to see a large clock, placed atop the County courthouse facing to the four points of the compass and lighted so that people could see the time of day from a distance. It would not do to have anything but a good clock, properly arranged and properly lighted.

The gates of Heaven are wide and high to admit the huge throng that daily appears before it for admission, but they are not wide enough and high enough to admit the man who carries on his back even a small sack of grudges and unforgiveness he has accumulated and treasured while on earth.

The boy who observes the training table rules of his football coach gets more out of the season than the one who thinks he is good enough and doesn't need to follow the rules. A coach once said: "If every member of an average team obeyed explicitly and to the letter training table rules laid down by the coach the team would not remain average long. It would become a winning team."

I have lived a long time without knowing a miser, but know almost no one who is not foolishly extravagant.—E. W. Howe.

This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; and their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.—Hebrews 10:16-17.

This Question Interests Our Scientists

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 24—Texas travelers of five or 10 centuries ago no doubt had their own problems, but they also left some for today's archaeologists.

T. N. Campbell, University of Texas Anthropology Department chairman and faculty member, J. Charles Kelley and Alex D. Krieger are among 50 U. S. scientists working on one big question:

Research has established that cultures of prehistoric Mexican and Mississippi Valley peoples are similar. The similarities indicate contact was made across Texas, but who transported the culture and when?

Campbell is utilizing the 20,000-specimen collection of the late A. E. Anderson of Brownsville, a collection representing 35 years of work along the lower Rio Grande River. It was loaned to the University by his heirs.

By grouping specimens according to discovery site, Campbell hopes to determine cultures represented and their relation to surrounding cultures, thus presenting another link toward solving the larger problem.

Kelly is studying Central Texas prehistoric cultures, seeking traces of early travelers from Mexico, and Krieger is preparing a report on the Alto Mound of Cherokee County, a temple or platform mound which is the nearest of the Mississippi Valley Mounds to those of Mexico.

Krieger's research has already shown the Alto Mound contains traces of early contact with cultures of Mexico and Central America.

Memorial Services For Students And ExStudents

LONDON (UP)—The Moscow radio said today that Nikolai V. Novikov, Russian ambassador to the United States, had been removed from his post and succeeded by Alexander S. Panyushkin.

American Legion Engaged In 1948 Membership Drive

The American Legion, largest of all veterans' organizations, is now engaged in its 1948 membership campaign.

Every eligible veteran of World War I and II should join this great organization because of its magnificent work on behalf of all veterans and of America itself, many leaders in the Legion declare.

Through the American Legion the collective experience and realistic wisdom of millions of veterans of the nation's two greatest wars is made available to America in such vital fields as national defense, Americanism, rehabilitation, child welfare, employment and other activities. There is not a community in the United States which is not perhaps better off for having an active American Legion post in its midst. Everywhere it is the local American Legion Post that is always the rallying point for most all patriotic and community-bettering movements.

Many persons not eligible would like to belong to the American Legion. But membership cannot be secured in this most exclusive group except by veterans of the wartime armed forces. The wealthiest man cannot buy a membership. Political influence or prestige or social position cannot secure an American Legion button. The doors of The American Legion open only upon presentation of an honorable discharge from wartime service in the Army, Navy, Marine Corps, or Coast Guard. It is an honor to wear the American Legion button. It is the badge of the tried and tested American citizen.

Jaycee Sponsor Ball Game Between Fat-Lean Players

Plans for the coming softball game between Fats and Leans were discussed Thursday by the Jaycees at their regular weekly meeting and luncheon in the roof garden of the Connellee Hotel.

It was decided to have the game at Fireman's Field Monday night, November 3. Proceeds from the game will go to a Jaycees fund for use in promoting improvement programs for Eastland and vicinity.

The committee working on plans for a men's chorus which the Jaycees propose to sponsor, reported little progress to date but stated that the matter was far from being dropped.

Members were again reminded that it was time to pay quarterly dues and that some had not paid. The next meeting and luncheon will be at noon Thursday, October 30, at the same time and place.

Witness Hints Foul Play In Disappearance Of Ex-Red

SAYS FUMBLING IN WORLD WAR EXPENSIVE

By United Press

WASHINGTON—Elder Statesman Bernard M. Baruch declared today that "foot-dragging and fumbling" in World War II cost the United States thousands of lives and billions of dollars.

Testifying before the Senate war investigating committee, the 77-year-old adviser of presidents proposed a 17-point "minimum program" for preparedness which he said should be placed on the statute books immediately, ready to function in the event of another emergency. The program urged adoption of universal military training, and wartime mobilization of all citizens on a work-or-fight basis.

"Although the shooting war is over," he said, "we are in the midst of a cold war which is getting warmer."

However, Baruch said that despite the critical international situation he did not believe that "we are going to use guns or that we are going to war."

The Senate investigating committee is trying to find out why the industrial mobilization plan, which Baruch helped to prepare before the war, was apparently discarded after Pearl Harbor.

Attorneys For Ross File Motion For New Trial

By United Press

LA GRANGE.—Attorneys for Dr. Lloyd I. Ross filed a motion for a new trial today, after losing the major first round last night in the fight to keep their client out of the electric chair.

After deliberating only one hour and 25 minutes, a Fayette district court jury in three ballots found the well-known, 42 year old San Antonio surgeon "guilty of murder with malice," a sentence which in Texas carries the death penalty.

District Judge J. R. Fuchs did not immediately set a date for hearing on the motion for new trial.

Thus ended the 10-day trial, moved here on a change of venue from New Braunfels, Comal county. It was there, on a dusty country lane last May 25, that the defendant allegedly ended the lives of four members of the Willard York family.

The trial here was only for the murder of Mrs. Gertrude York.

Taft Announces Candidacy For Party Nomination

By United Press

WASHINGTON—Sen. Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, today announced his candidacy for next year's Republican presidential nomination. He is 58 years old and the son of a former president, William Howard Taft, 1909-13.

Taft, keyed his announcement to a cautious campaign of avoiding pre-convention primary contests with other Republican aspirants.

His announcements came in the face of determined insistence by many influential Republicans that Taft would be a weak candidate.

His supporters responded sharply that Taft already is the most influential man in his party. They insist the 1948 GOP platform must be largely a Taft platform because he was so effective in shaping the party's legislation during the past session of Congress.

Also called to appear after Mrs. Rogers in the fifth day of the Communism-in-Hollywood investigation were film cartoon producer Walt Disney, Hollywood union officer, Roy E. Brewer, and Oliver Carlson a labor relations counsel.

29 Killed In London Crash

INVESTIGATION OF COMMUNISTS CONTINUES

MAN MISSING AFTER BREAK WITH PARTY

By United Press

WASHINGTON—Oliver Carlson, propaganda analyst, testified today that a Communist party member sent to Hollywood to "run" the film colony broke with the Reds and later "disappeared." Carlson told the House Un-American Activities Committee that "I don't know to this day whether he is dead or alive."

Carlson, second witness at the fifth session of the committee Communism-in-Hollywood investigation, identified the missing Red as Ely Jacobson, former director of "The Workers School in New York."

Earlier, film star Ginger Rogers' mother today asked Congress to outlaw the Communist party and "preserve the Bill of Rights for those for whom it was designed."

Mrs. Lela Rogers, a trim, blue-suited figure with a swept back blond coiffure, told the House Un-American Activities committee that Communists in Hollywood—she named playwright Clifford Odets among them—tried to infiltrate "our unions, our scripts and our productions."

Under questioning by committee counsel Robert E. Stripling, she said the Communist party sought to be outlawed as "an agency of a foreign government." She said the Bill of Rights out to be preserved for those "for whom it was designed." She did not identify these persons, but said the Bill of Rights should not apply to the saboteurs and enemies of our country.

Asked how Communists in Hollywood worked, Mrs. Rogers said—

"When a Communist secures a firm footing in a picture, he surrounds himself only with other communists."

Then they write in subversive lines, she said.

Also called to appear after Mrs. Rogers in the fifth day of the Communism-in-Hollywood investigation were film cartoon producer Walt Disney, Hollywood union officer, Roy E. Brewer, and Oliver Carlson a labor relations counsel.

Boy, you ought to see his new cowboy outfit. Swoon!! Oh yes, girls, he doesn't go with anyone in particular, so beware!

"Blue Skies" played by Tex Peneke is tops on Pat's list of records. Of course, his favorite sport is football. He plays on the first team and is a letterman. In the other fields of athletics, he plays center on the basketball team, and is pitcher on our baseball team.

His indoorsport is shooting pool at which he is a whiz. William Bendix and Joan Caulfield are among the top ones on his list of movie favorites.

Pat's mom can make the most delicious Italian spaghetti that we have ever tasted that is by far his favorite food. He was our candidate for King in 1945, and he will always be remembered to us as a good king.

Doctors On Trail Of Oxygen Intake To Prolong Life

ST. LOUIS (UP) — Better health and longer life for middle-aged people may be achieved by maintaining the proper level of oxygen consumption in the body.

Physicians, working at St. Louis City Infirmary in co-operation with Washington University, believe old people may be able to ward off the so-called "old age"

On the basis of their study of 1,000 persons, the investigators think the ideal oxygen consuming rate occurs during the first ten years of life. The rate then falls until the age of 24 and remains stable until age 45.

Then, according to their findings, is when the trouble begins. They speculate that a dropping rate of oxygen consumption indicates threat of a degenerative disease.

When the rate begins to climb again after age 45, the doctors believe, it may be due to the body's fight against a degenerative ailment such as cancer or heart disease.

The gerontologist — physicians who study aging processes of the body — therefore try to maintain oxygen consumption at the 24-year age level. With special diets and medical care they already have reported "some progress."

19 Years Ago Today

From Files Of The Telegram For October 24, 1928:

Andrew Grant, age rising 60 years, was killed in a run away catastrophe near his farm home between Rising Star and Okra, about 18 miles from Eastland, Tuesday morning. A message received by Virge Foster telling of the accident but giving no details. Foster left immediately for the Grant Farm.

Contending that the indictment on which Thomas Davis was tried for murder in connection with the slaying of Lucian Shook on September 7, was not a grand jury indictment, motion for the arrest of judgment was filed in the 8th district court Tuesday by Grisham Bros., attorneys for the defense. Davis had been found guilty as charged and sentenced to death.

In their motion, defense attorneys declare there is no such organization as "grand jurors" known to the law. Defense counsel also filed a motion for a new trial, subject to the motion in arrest of judgment, urging 18 reasons for a new trial.

Heartsease by Elsie Glenn

COINS. One dirty, copper penny. Ruin and happiness for many people start with copper. One small amount of ore formed in the shape of one penny. Five copper pennies go to make one nickel and then it is that the ore changes to silver. . . . increases in value. Ten nickels go to form a larger more valuable coin . . . fifty cents. Two fifty cent pieces make one dollar . . . a beautiful silver dollar. Dollars then roll into many dollars and the the loveliest ore of all . . . gold. Copper and silver and gold. Frankly, I love copper, silver, and gold in the form of coins. I've heard many people criticized for loving money, and I think the criticism is justified when the love of money results in harm to oneself and others. But I also believe, and strongly, that the love of money, when used wisely and justly and with intelligence . . . is a worth while love indeed. There is no use pretending that the possession of money does not make life easier. Surely anyone prefers comfort, freedom from financial worry; yet few of us are rich in this world's goods.

There are many compensations for the lack of money, but to my mind . . . life is more comfortable and pleasant if one has it. Certainly, I am one of the many who gets only occasional glimpses of the lovely gold, silver, and copper. But the more I see of it the prettier I think it is. The moral to the little story is, of course: gold seems to result from the careful use of the copper. But it takes so darn much of the copper to turn into gold!

Making Nature Help SILVER CITY, N. M. (UP)—In early days in New Mexico, Silver City was 700 miles from the source of civilization's supplies in Colorado. All provisions had to be freighted by ox team. As the story goes, the teamsters would plant crops along the road on the way down to Silver City, and gather and eat the food on the return trip.

NEWS FROM LONGBRANCH CARBON ROUTE 1

Mrs. G. W. Stowe, Cor.

Peanut threshing is coming along at a thrilling speed. Among those at the immediate vicinity who are sitting back and smiling over the whole affair are: Arthur Wright, Britt Dudley, John Walker, Prady Poe, Clifford Howard, Ace Howard, Carl Bohannon, John Reed, Charley Walker and Boss Martin. And why shouldn't Boss grin with all the hauling he will get to do with that big truck.

Seems that the peanut harvest around here will be over in October this season instead of January as per usual. God, with his mighty rains or dry winds; hot sun or frost, knows best for man.

Mrs. Lillian Howard drove over from Branton Friday bringing her mother-in-law, Mrs. Eliza Howard, for a few days visit with the latter's sister, Mrs. Ed Sherrill and Mr. Sherrill, and Walthadus Cooper, their brother from Eastland, who is having a fine time in the harvest fields.

Miss Lela Finn from Dennison is visiting relatives around Long Branch.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

By Boyce House

Upon what little things, great achievements sometimes depend. Many years ago, there came to the mining rush town of Virginia City, the most famous humorist of the day—Artemus Ward. After the lecture that night, Ward and several newspapermen did a little celebrating which climaxed with Ward and a young and obscure reporter walking over the roof-tops in the business district. They were almost fired upon as burglars. The reporter was Mark Twain.

Did you ever hear the "rebel yell"? L. Hardin, secretary of the Kentucky Historical Society, wrote your columnist, asking for assistance in preserving the battle-cry of the Confederacy for posterity. . . . The distinction of being the youngest member of a Chamber of Commerce goes to Vanessa Sharyl Bryan, one day old. Her father, Vance Bryan, a former Texan, is owner of the luxurious Jack Tar Courts in Hot Springs, Ark. . . . Neal Estes, Carathage editor, stops his car at all railroad crossings. He said that he once drove across soon after a train had passed and his brother, an attorney remarked, "It's true that one train went by just a little bit ago but the railroad owns the line and it reserves the right to run a train every minute."

And that reminds me of the story of the young ranchman who was strolling along with a pretty girl when they saw a calf on one side of a fence thrust its head through the fence and rub its nose against its mother's face, in the adjoining pasture. The rancher sighed romantically and said, "I wish I could do that." The girl said, "Well, why don't you? It's your cow, isn't it?"

Man has conquered the sea and the air; he has harnessed the lightning and compelled it to work for him. Who shall say that he can not evolve a means of bringing lasting peace to a world whose people want peace.

Policewoman Satches Own Erring Spouse

CLEVELAND (UP) Policewoman Betty Anthony got her man, both as an officer of the law, and a wife.

With perhaps something more than the usual satisfaction of doing her job, she arrested her alimony-indebted ex-husband for failure to support their four minor children.

The 28 year old policewoman has been on the husband-hunt for more than a year, when the alimony checks stopped coming.

Raps Divorce Laws

Justice Robert H. Jackson, above, proposed that the Supreme Court ignore previous rulings on divorce cases and standardize divorce laws by a clear-cut decision on "quickie divorces" that "simple people can understand and live by." Regarding various state divorce laws, he declared, "We are in a terrible state of confusion."

Blind Faith

Topper, a six-year-old wire-haired terrier, whose owners flew him from Detroit to Washington for an operation to restore his sight, sits unflinchingly at the Abbey Hospital for Animals in Washington after a cataract was removed from his right eye. Similar surgery will be performed on his other eye. He's owned by John C. Bronning, of Detroit.

We're disappointed, too...

Most of us have been on various waiting lists for one thing or another longer than we like to remember.

Railroads are no exception. The Texas and Pacific has been on a waiting list since May, 1945, when orders were placed for the new lightweight passenger trains.

These fine, new trains... the TEXAS EAGLE and the LOUISIANA EAGLE... were scheduled to be put in service in 1946. Here it is October, 1947, and we do not have a single chair car, diner, lounge or sleeping car!

To say that we're disappointed is putting it mildly. We had every reason to believe that long before now these modern EAGLE trains would be in service. You're probably disappointed, too, as you have a right to be, for we've told you a number of times that we expected to place these trains in service many months ago.

The equipment manufacturers are keenly disappointed, too. Their promises were made in good faith, but shortages of materials, work stoppages and other conditions have retarded production schedules. Time and again they've had to revise their delivery dates.

But now the manufacturers are confident they're over the production hump, and they say it won't be long before some of the cars will begin to roll. We now have their assurances that deliveries will start in November, 1947, and be completed in April, 1948... and the new cars will be placed in service as fast as they arrive.

To refresh your memory, there are 48 cars on order—sleepers, lounge and club cars, diners, chair cars and the usual complement of express, baggage and mail equipment.

We're extremely sorry that you've had to wait for these fine, new trains, but when you see and ride them, you'll agree they were worth waiting for.
