Marshall Plan To Forestall Tax Cuts

That Reminds Me
By FRANK A. JONES

THE SOFT ANSWER
Not long ago, said a friend of mine, I was in a home where there are several children. On this occasion one of the neighbor's children was present and the whole group was playing together on the floor. Suddenly one of the children became angry at the guest because she had taken one of the toys and was playing with it. The angered child seized the toy and said: "You can't play with that. It is mine." I watched and listened to see how the difficulty, which threatened to break up the little party, would turn out. The little guest did nothing, but a look of disappointment came over her face. "Mary," she said, "That isn't nice of you. When you come to my house I won't treat you like that. I will let you play with my toys if you want to." Mary, small as she was, was ashamed. Handing the toy back she said, "here, Geraldine, take it, take any of my toys, I'm sorry I was rude." I thought as I considered the acts of these children, what if grown ups could settle differences in that way. It was a practical example of a soft answer turning away wrath.

A. J. Blevins, manager of a local automobile agency, has announced that if the Eastland Mavericks win their ball game next Friday night with Comanche, his firm will give the Mavericks a steak dinner. Which is something to work for especially when steaks are selling at the price they are today.

Two Eastland firms, we are informed, were "Taken in" Monday afternoon by a check swindler, who apparently got away with $80.46 in cash and some twelve dollars in merchandise. This should be a lesson to everyone to watch out for such crooks. There are plenty of them abroad and they will be here again sometime.

We have often wondered who wins out when an auctioneer gets into an argument with his wife.

The movies are made to sell. For this reason the directors put into them the things they think the people want. If there are objectionable features in the movies the people can quickly bring about a change by letting their complaints be known. I dare say movie producers would not put an objectionable feature in a film if as one per cent of those who attended picture theatres should stop going. Correction wouldn't require a majority of this type of disapproval—less than one per cent would do it.

Let your conversation be without covetousness; and be content with such things as you have; for he has said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee—Hebrews 13:5.

We have it from a reader who claims to know, that unless one doesn't mind getting the worst of it he had better be sure he is an expert before he attempts to have anything to do with a skunk—either animal or human.

Hysteria Over Communists Is Freedom Threat

WASHINGTON — A presidential committee said today that "a state of near hysteria" over so-called Communists in this country threatens the freedom of other citizens.
But it called for zealous, "legitimate" exposure of "real Communists and real Fascists."
The recommendations were presented to President Truman by a committee on civil rights which he created last December to survey the condition of human freedom and equality in the United States. Charles E. Wilson, president of General Electric Co., headed the committee.

Eastland Firm Seek To Extend Its Bus Lines

The West Texas Transportation Company, with headquarters in Eastland, has filed application with the Texas Railroad Commission for a permit to extend its bus lines from Post to Lubbock. A hearing on this application will possibly be held by the Railroad commission in Eastland sometime in December, states Johnny Aaron of the Eastland transportation firm.
Recently a meeting was held with the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce in Lubbock which was attended by H. J. Tanner of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce; B. A. Butler of the Cisco Chamber of Commerce and representatives of other towns served by West Texas Transportation company between Eastland and Post, for the purpose of getting the facts regarding the service people of the intervening towns are getting at this time.
The Lubbock Morning Avalanche of Oct. 24 gave the following account of the above meeting as follows:
"A general discussion on the proposed addition of bus service from Post to Lubbock via Wilson by means of the West Texas Transportation Company bus lines was carried on at a meeting last night at the Hilton hotel.
Chamber of Commerce members and interested business men were present from Eastland, Stamford, Hamlin, Rotan, Post, Wilson, Cisco and Lubbock.
Johnny Aaron of Eastland, owner of the bus lines which now run from Eastland to Brownfield by way of Albany, Stamford, Hamlin, Claremont, Post, Tahoka, and Cisco, has filed application with the Texas Railroad Commission for the proposed extension of service.
The assembled representatives from the various towns in the area now served by the line gave various reasons why the proposed service would benefit those towns as well as Lubbock.
The principal reasons stated were that added service would be available to the towns from Lubbock business houses and that a corresponding volume of business would be received by Lubbock merchants if more direct and faster bus service were to become available. Transportation to and from Texas Tech college was said to be inadequate for students coming from the towns now served by the West Texas Transportation Company lines.
Jack Frost, Eastland attorney, who represents Aaron in his petition to the Railroad Commission, and Durwood Mahon, local attorney who is assisting Frost, advised the assembled representatives from the interested towns to contact the Railroad commission and make known their wishes and the wishes of their townspeople."

PRESIDENT TO TALK TAXES AT SPECIAL SESSION

WASHINGTON — Secretary of the Treasury John W. Snyder said today that the Marshall Plan for European economic recovery must be taken care of before tax cuts can be made. He said that financing of the plan should be on a pay as you go basis.
He also told a news conference that President Truman would discuss taxes in his message to the special session of Congress which convenes Nov. 17.
Snyder indicated that this is not the proper time yet for cutting taxes. Tax reduction cannot be considered until the government knows what its revenue need will be. He said it would be impossible to set a scale of tax reductions when government needs for fiscal 1949 are not known yet.
Snyder's attitude on taxes, which presumably reflects that of the administration, clashed head-on with that of the Republican congressional leadership which has served notice it will renew its fight for income tax cuts.
The GOP position, set forth by Sen. Robert A. Taft, R. O., and others, was challenged by one Republican Senate member—Sen. Charles W. Tobey of New Hampshire. Tobey said in Boston that a desire "to make the headlines" is responsible for the tax reduction demands of some of his GOP colleagues in Congress.

19 Years Ago Today

(Cisco Apert, January 1894: Warner Wilson, Editor)
 The City Council was on another rampage Friday night and handled all kinds of ordinances without gloves. If good will, considerable talk and no money will accomplish anything, the present council will surely be re-elected. They refused to allow any more bills paid for carrying off dead property. They say the hogs must and will go from the City limits soon; that the town cow and horse must be controlled, and also that parties leaving their teams hitched to wagons without a guard will be fined.

The First National Bank of Cisco elected J. H. Holcomb, president; C. H. Fee, Vice-president; F. C. LeVeaux, cashier. Directors are J. H. Holcomb, C. H. Fee, John J. Winston, F. C. LeVeaux and Earnest Patterson.

The prohibition election last week resulted in 18 majority for prohibition. Votes cast totaled 306.

A party from Colorado was here recently with the view of purchasing Dr. Bettis' gold mine.

One of the most charming affairs of the season was the "Twelfth Night" reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. LeVeaux last Friday night. The decoration of the entire house with pot plants and evergreens added much to the occasion, when we think of it being mid-winter. Miss Lucille assisted her mother in making the guests feel at ease.

Captain Judia is in the City from Monohans.

Married: E. P. Kilborn and Miss Pezzie Estell Cooper, at Abilene, December 28, 1893. Their home will be in Cisco.

Miss Georgia Puckett, enroute from Midland, and Miss Mary Shrock, on her way to Sherman, were guests of Mrs. Norma Eppler

CONSERVATIVES IN BRITAIN SEE NO CHANCE TO RULE

By Tomer Jenks
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 LONDON (UP) — The Conservative Party was committed to a demand for an early general election by its Brighton conference. Party leaders privately see little hope of returning to power for another five to seven years unless the economic crisis gets a lot worse.

Only a Labor government can call a general election before the present parliament is scheduled to expire in 1950. High government spokesmen repeatedly have said they have no intention of going to the people for a new mandate before then.

Top Conservative leaders believe they stand a good chance for recovering in 1950—or before then if the government calls a general election—perhaps half the 170 seats they lost in 1945.

But they conceded privately they probably could not overcome the present Labor plurality of 206 until the following general election, presumably in 1955, if then.

Nevertheless, the Conservatives showed more signs of life and recovery at their Brighton conference than at any time since their 1945 disaster.

The progressive and younger elements of the party showed for the first time decisively that they were in control. Overwhelming approval of the "industrial charter" drawn up by the party's in-

The grace, calm majesty of them.
 The silent benediction which they give.

From the smallest, brave sapling to the most powerful tree that grows . . . I love them.

For trees and I, I am sure, worship the same God.

The same God who made us both.

But the tree is stronger than I. For, in all kinds of weather, it stands forth in its greatness . . . its faith undaunted . . . although it is sometimes bowed to the earth.

The tree possesses the fundamental roots that sustain. While mine, because I am but human, sometimes cannot weather the storm.

And then it is that I stumble to the trees . . .

And I have only to listen . . . to hear of their wisdom.

For trees are eternal, as God is eternal.

And I rest in the shade of the trees.
