WASHINGTON - President Truman today asked Congress to authorize a 17 billion dollar recovery program to help 16 non-Communist European nations "totalitarian withstand Soviet aggression" and assure the security of the United States.

In a 9-thousand word message on the long-range Marshall plan, he told the House and Senate that the 51 month program was a vital step in United States efforts to prevent World War III. He requested an initial appropriation of

The President acknowledged that the program would mean some self sacrifice and possibly more inflationary pressure at home, but he warned that failure to approve it, or trimming it, would jeopardize world peace and "the maintenance of the civiliza-tion in which the American way of life is rooted."

While there is no guarantee he that the plan will succeed, said, its cost would be only five per cent of the war effort-'small indeed" as an investment

Mr. Truman did not mention in news, sports events, cartoons the Soviet Union by name.
