HENRY G. VERMILLION

The relative water deficiencies in Eastland, Ranger and Cisco were being discussed recently by Haganam and Ranger and back P.ckens of Eastland.

Haganam said the Ranger city has gone 22 months without rain, the longest on record, and the longest dry spell in 18 months. The Ranger lake has enough water, he estimated, to get Ranger by for another 10 months at the present consumption rate, and then another 10 days after that on the basis of drastically curtailed use.

Haganam said the water level in Eastland is only about three feet above the level of the old spillway before the lake was raised seven or eight feet ago, and that Eastland has enough water to last another six months or so, if use is not increased.

The situation at Lake Cisco is bad, both of the men said, as the lake level lower by far at any time since the lake started filling some 25 years ago.

At the top one of three intakes at the lake had always been used to supply water for the City. Recently, when the level got too low, then it was discovered that the middle intake was stuck, and water was not getting into the city's distribution system through the lower valve.

It turned out, was a mis-accumulated algae case at the bottom of the intake, and a bad odor and a diver was found who went down and freed the middle valve, and now is being used, but city officials have been advised by water experts that the algae may remain in some of the lower years.

Meanwhile the lake level is going down toward the middle valve, and if the lake gets low, will they again have to open the middle valve again?

While, what everyone agrees on is that this year needs a good washing and rain to get water into the lake and into lakes and tanks.

Wendell Siebert of the Eastland Mavericks has become a polished after-dinner talker wasn't before, because of practice he has had at the club this fall.

Since the club has been in a program, and that has been often this fall, Siebert, a member, has been called to discuss the football team, his mistakes and successes in previous week, and cast an eye to what the future may be.

He's done an excellent job, too, which might be expected of a man who brought a lot of green kids into a spot they have been top contenders for the district title.

Week, Siebert analyzed the game to Hamilton, and came to the conclusion that he believes the Eastland team particularly over-confident, and a better team for the season was unable to solve the single-wing offense. The boys have played almost all that employed the T, and different defensive are required.

At the meeting, Siebert gave credit for being the bunch of boys he has seen around, morally and on the field. Dan Amis and Kelley, the co-captains, have a splendid leadership job, he said, and have done to inspire the younger and experienced boys on the

Also paid high tribute to Alexander, the assistant manager. Alexander has done all the line this season and called all defensive strategy. Siebert has done all the work on the backfield and has called all offensive strategy.

Most profound tribute to the team, to my own way (Continued On Page Four)

Eastland-Ranger Game To Begin At 2:30 Thursday

Stunned by their first district loss of the year to Hamilton last week, and fighting to retain a chance at the conference title, the Eastland Mavericks will go to Ranger Thursday afternoon for their final district game of the season.

The game will begin at 2:30 p. m. On the basis of recent comparative scores, Ranger will be ranked as the favorites, since the Bulldogs beat Hamilton 27 to 0 one Friday and the Mavericks lost to Hamilton 33 to 20 the next.

However, the game will rate as a virtually a toss-up, since a short time before Ranger had lost to Dublin 19 to 0, and the next week Eastland took Dublin into camp 25 to 20.

The Eastland loss to Hamilton threw the championship race into a mad scramble, with three of the contenders, Eastland, Hamilton and Dublin, tied for the lead. A fourth team, Ranger, has suffered only one loss also and would be tied for the top except that the Bulldogs are not in conference competition this year because of an interscholastic League penalty for subsidizing.

Eastland can retain a cinch tie for the district title by beating Ranger, and will be out of the running if it loses to Ranger.

However, apparently the only way the Mavericks can keep any hope alive for the title is to beat Ranger and then to have Dublin win from Hamilton in the Dublin-Hamilton game to be played Friday, Nov. 19.

Since Eastland has beaten Dublin, the district title ordinarily would be expected to favor the Mavericks for the title in such a combination of circumstances.

But there are a lot of ifs in that setup, and right now the Mavericks are getting set for Ranger, a team that has been up and down this season.

The Bulldogs feature a ground attack with flashy running by two brothers, Raymond and Jimmy Camacho. When the Camachos can go, Ranger wins, and when the Camachos can be contained, Ranger loses.

So far, Dublin and Albany have been the only teams to solve the Ranger offensive, and Albany squeaked through with a one-touchdown victory.

The Mavericks were sore in body and mind after their bruising game with Hamilton, a game they had figured to win but lost by a substantial margin.

The Mavericks just never were able to stop Hamilton's offensive. In fact, the Bulldogs scored every time they had possession of the ball except twice—once when the Mavericks had been held on the Hamilton one-yard line and Hamilton kicked out on first down, and once when the Eastland team showed a desperate defensive spirit, and held Hamilton for downs on the Eastland one-yard line.

Eastland scored most of the times it got the ball, too, as Jim Smith and Jack Kelley showed a blazing offensive spirit, but three costly fumbles cost Eastland possession of the ball at key spots in the game, and Hamilton scored each time after recovering the fumbles.

It was big Rusty McCollom, listed on the Hamilton program at 190 pounds but who looked to be at least 210, who was the downfall of the Mavericks. He personally scored three of the Hamilton touchdowns, and with a series of devastating blocks cleared the way for another. He had the Mavericks defense drawn in to contain his smashes at the center of the line that Tommy Leeth, a fleet halfback, had little trouble gaining long distances on off-tackle slants.

The Mavericks got the first kickoff, ran it out to the 31, fumbled, Hamilton recovered, and a couple of plays later D. Rost, an end, took a pass that sailed over Margil Wadley's head, and loped on over for the score.

Kelley got the next kickoff on the Eastland 10 and raced it back to the 40. The Mavericks drove across the mid-field strips, but Smith fumbled on the Hamilton (Continued On Page Four)

Rock Job To Have $3500-$5000 Weekly Payroll

25-Cent Garbage Fee To Be Imposed Beginning Jan. 1

Eastland residents will pay a 25-cent garbage disposal fee with their water bills after Jan. 1, it was decided by the City Commission at a meeting Thursday night of last week.

The fee is needed, members of the commission said, to bring in revenue to pay the cost of collecting garbage in Eastland.

The commission heard from a number of persons on its proposals to raise the height of the spillways at Lake Eastland, and to extend the city limits.

Former Mayor C. T. Lucas, a commission member for 12 years before his retirement at the time of the last election, told the commissioners that he doubted the possibility of their being able to raise the lake spillway levels unless they raise the height of the earthen dam also.

When the spillway levels were raised to their present height, he said, the State Board of Water Engineers required the city to increase the height of the earthen dam by eight feet. The spillways were raised about two and a half feet at that time.

Raising the spillways and the dam would cost at least $150,000, Lucas estimated.

The commission authorized T. H. Landon, county surveyor, to check on the spillway situation and to get a true and full picture of the problems involved.

On the matter of extending the city limits, C. W. Hoffmann, who owns what is known as the old race track property off of South Daugherty Street, which it is proposed to bring into the city limits, said the city could obtain more revenue with justice by imposing higher taxes on some of the property already in the city's boundaries than it could by going out and taking a lot of unimproved property into the city.

No final action was taken on either the spillway proposal or the extension of the city limits.

Mayor Dan Childress promised that before either matter is taken up for final disposition, hearings will be held at which everyone with any kind of objection will be given a chance to be heard.

Suspect Sentenced Before Officers Learn Of Theft

This is one case where the suspect was in jail before the theft was reported.

Wash Woods, who ranches east of Ranger, called the sheriff's office at 11:30 a. m. Tuesday to report that on Oct. 28 a pair of cowboy boots and chaps were taken from his ranch home. He said a young fellow on a motor scooter might have taken them.

At 11:30 a. m. the office called Detective Cobb in Fort Worth to inquire about such a character, and at 12:45 Cobb called back and said a youth answering the description had been sent to the Gatesville reformatory last week for a number of offenses, including taking a motor scooter that belonged to someone else.

At 1:15 a call was made to the reformatory to check with the boy on the stolen articles, and at 1:25 Gatesville officials called back and told the local officers where the boots and chaps could be found in Fort Worth.

At 1:45, two hours and 15 minutes after Woods first called in, the officers called him back and told him where to go to get his boots and chaps.

Then they wrote the case off as closed.

DOUBLE SEVEN CLUB TO HAVE BAKE SALE

A bake sale Saturday in the annex of the First Christian Church will be sponsored by the Double Seven Club of Eastland High School.

Home made cakes, cookies, candy, muffins, and coffee will be sold from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m.

Donations Made To Eastland Family After Home Burns

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kirby in Chastain Addition was almost completely destroyed by fire Friday morning of last week.

The house, located in Chastain Addition, was of frame construction, and flames quickly enveloped the structure.

Friends and other Eastland people this week made up donations of money, clothing and food for the Kirbys, who have several young children.

Mrs. Bessie Kirby, mother of Floyd Kirby, said Wednesday that she wished to thank those who gave help to her son and his family in their time of need.

Living Blood Bank Typing Is Ended

Blood typing for the Civic League and Garden Club's "Living Blood Bank" has been completed, with 219 names now in the files, it was announced after a final blood typing session Monday.

Eighty-nine more persons were typed Monday to add to the 130 typed at a previous session.

More names likely will be added to the file, said Mrs. H. G. Vermillion, general chairman of the committee in charge of the project, but only through the activities of veterans' organizations.

Veterans were typed while in the services, and the organizations have been asked to gather the necessary data on their members and turn it over to the Civic League for inclusion in the file.

The blood typing project here is unique in Texas, as far as is known, and was the first one that was known of anywhere until local members of the American Legion spotted an article in a recent issue of the Legion Monthly about a "walking blood bank" in Colorado, organized on similar lines to the local project.

Lists of all potential blood donors on file with the Civic League group will be made and given to all Eastland doctors to use when blood donors are needed.

4-H Club Calves To Be Inspected

The 14 beef calves being fed out by 4-H Club boys and girls in Eastland County will be inspected on tours on two successive Saturdays, Nov. 20 and Nov. 27, County Agent J. M. Cooper said this week.

Club members, their parents, and other interested persons were invited by Cooper to go on the tours. The first will begin at the Morton Valley School at 9 a. m. Nov. 20, and calves to be inspected that day are being fed by Gerald Williamson of Morton Valley, Guy Warden of Eastland, Joe Ben Koonce and Jerry and Joe Don Buckley of Desdemona, and Bob and Bryan Gailey of Tudor.

The second tour will begin in Cisco, five blocks west of the traffic signal on U. S. 80, and calves to be inspected are being fed by Sonny and Frank Dittmore and Don and Dan Jobe of Scranton, and Glen and Jovita Fleming of Pioneer.

Jovita is the only girl 4-H Club member in Eastland County feeding out a calf this year, Cooper said.

Those going should take a noon lunch along, since the tour will be stopped for lunch wherever it happens to be, Cooper said. The tours will be completed by around 3 p. m., he said.

J. W. Osborne attended a Cadillac dealers' meeting in Fort Worth Tuesday.

Verner Chambliss of Eastland, who went to Sierra Blanca Thursday of last week with a party of 10 Hamilton men, returned Tuesday with a deer shot in the rugged mountains there.

Prize Money In For Dairy Contest; Signing Up Begins

The $600 prize money for the Eastland County Dairy Association's artificial insemination membership contest has been raised, and the contest was being started this week, officers said.

Participating in the contest are vocational agriculture classes of all the schools in the county, and the contest is unique in that every class taking part will get a prize.

The members and officers of the association have been attempting to get an artificial insemination program going in the county for several months, but have been unable to get enough dairy cow owners to sign on the dotted line. The prize contest was hit upon as a method to get the membership campaign down to the grassroots, and at the same time to get the agriculture students lined up on the advantages of the program.

About 400 cows had been signed up for the program, while it was felt at least 1,000 would be needed before the association could get under way with it.

Classes taking part are those in the high schools of the county and those in the Eastland County Vocational School for veterans.

Instructors of the veterans' classes met Monday night with Coordinator M. H. Perry to discuss the contest and the program.

Prizes will be $75 for the class that signs up owners of the most cows, $70 for the next class, $65 for the next, and so on down to the smallest prize of $5.

Chambers of Commerce and other civic groups of the county donated the prize money, with the Gorman Chamber of Commerce donating the first $100, followed by the Cisco Chamber of Commerce, $150; Eastland Chamber of Commerce, $100; Rising Star Chamber of Commerce, $100; Ranger Junior Chamber of Commerce $150, and a group of Carbon citizens, $35.

Owners of cows are being asked to pay $1 per cow when signing up for the program. The $1 will be used as part of the first breeding fee, which will be $6 per cow in all. Bulls to be used are among the best registered animals in the Southwest.

A full-time technician will be hired to do the artificial insemination when the 1000-cow total is reached.

Placing of Wreath To Be Feature Of Nov. 11 Program

As part of the annual brief Armistice Day program in Eastland, Mrs. R. E. Sikes will place a wreath on the monument on the southwest corner of the Courthouse lawn. She will be acting on behalf of the Civic League and Garden Club.

The Eastland High School Band will march from the City Hall to the Courthouse at about 9:40 a. m. and will play several numbers preceding the wreath ceremony. The playing of taps will conclude the service.

The program is sponsored annually by the Civic League and Garden Club.

Mrs. Hale Named Delegate By Club

Mrs. L. Hale was elected Council delegate last Tuesday at the meeting of the Morton Valley Home Demonstration Club in the home of Mrs. O. H. Williamson. She will succeed Mrs. W. E. Tankersley, who resigned at the meeting.

Miss Rosie McCoy, county home demonstration agent, in a talk gave advice on bedroom color schemes.

Otis Knox spent the week end in Houston on business. While there he visited his son, Otis Knox Jr., who is attending the University of Houston.

New Street Markers Installed By City; Bought By C of C

Eastland's new street markers were all in place this week as city workmen completed the job of erecting them.

The markers were erected on two-inch steel posts set in concrete.

The markers were bought by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce after city officials had said they would have them erected. The signs arrived last spring, but were delayed in erection because the city's work crew was busy on other projects, including work of erecting a building for the new water chemical treatment machinery.

The markers, made of aluminum, were purchased only for Main, Commerce, Seaman and Daugherty Streets, on the theory that strangers and others desiring directions could find any street in the city by looking at the signs on the four main north-south and east-west streets.

Civic League Has Gardening Talks

"Some Do's and Don'ts of Fall Gardening" was the subject of three talks at the regular meeting of the Civic League and Garden Club in the Womens Club Wednesday afternoon.

The speakers were introduced by the hostess, Mrs. Frank Castleberry.

Mrs. E. F. Layton described "Care of Our Bulbs," Mrs. T. E. Richardson "Wintering our Roses," and Mrs. W. G. Marquardt "Shrubs for Eastland."

Mrs. J. E. French, accompanied by Mrs. Donald Kinnard, sang "None but the Lonely Heart," and "American Lullaby."

During the business session presided over by Mrs. Frank Hightower, Mrs. Earl Conner, Sr., was elected to serve on the Club House Board.

A report by Mrs. H. G. Vermillion on the club's blood typing program informed members that all except the clerical work of the project has been completed.

Club members agreed to continue their payment on the band master's salary for the present school year on the same basis as last year.

They also agreed to sponsor a book review in Eastland by Mrs. Herbert Emory of Sanger Brothers in Dallas.

'Teen Togs' Show To Be Given Friday

"Teen Togs," co-ed style show to be presented by the Junior Class of Eastland High School, will begin at 8 p. m. Friday in the high school auditorium.

Mrs. P. J. Cullen will be commentator at the show, which is under the direction of Mrs. J. C. Whately, class sponsor. Music will be by Mrs. Harry Walter, pianist, and by the Eastland High School Band. Robert Clinton has instructed the vocalists.

Clothes for the show are being furnished by Altman's, Burr's, the Eastland Shoe Store, Harkrider's Mens Furnishings, D. L. Houle Shop, Carl Johnson's, the Men's Store, Mode O' Day Shop, and J. C. Penney store.

Costumes for the show were fitted by Mesdames Neil Day, E. E. Freyschlag, John D. Harvey, George Lane, R. E. Sikes, Clyde Grissom and Joe Stephen.

MORTON VALLEY HAS MUSICAL PROGRAMS
The next in a series of musical programs being presented by the Morton Valley Parent-Teachers Association will be presented in the school auditorium at 7 p. m. Thursday, Nov. 18.

Mixed music by instrumentalists from near and far is offered on the programs, which are offered the first and third Thursdays of each month. Players from Eastland, Ranger, Olden, and other towns have been taking part.

Carbon Project To Employ Many, Last For Two Years

Eastland County's newest industry, a rock crushing operation near Carbon to provide rock, gravel and sand for the building of a multi-million dollar dam near Whitney, will get into full swing about Dec. 1, LeRoy Ramer said in Eastland this week.

Ramer is superintendent for the Eastland County job for the Concrete Materials and Construction Company of Cedar Rapids, Ia., which has the general concrete work contract for the Whitney dam.

Ramer and quite a few of the 25 to 30 men now working to get the project started are living in Eastland.

Others, he said, are living in Carbon, Gorman and DeLeon. The quarry is being put on land owned by C. S. Eldridge, former Desdemona school superintendent who made the race for county judge this year.

Ramer said the limestone rock will be crushed in eight crushers to six sizes, from rock with a diameter of six inches down to sand-sized pieces. The sand-sized limestone will be used in place of regular sand in the construction of the big dam, he said.

Rock will be taken from a tract about 900 by 1200 feet in area.

Ramer said the project will take about two years to complete, and during that time it is proposed to ship 80 carloads, or 4,000 tons, of rock per day from the Carbon quarry. The rock will go directly to Whitney via the Katy Railroad.

Over the two-year span, working six days per week and one shift, the quarry will ship over 2,500,000 tons of rock.

Ramer said the payroll for the operation now is about $2,000 per week, but that when the quarry and crushers go into full operation, 35 to 50 men will be employed and the payroll will climb to $3,500 to $5,000 per week.

A skilled company crew was brought here to form a nucleus and to install equipment, but the rest of the men to be hired will be employed locally, he said.

If one shift cannot do the work of producing enough materials, a second shift of 25 to 30 men will be added, Ramer said, boosting the employment and payroll figures still higher.

An interesting by-product of the operation will be lime dust in large quantities, which will be sold for agricultural purposes.

The material will be very similar to a commercial agricultural lime now being processed in a plant near Denton, the only one of its kind in Texas.

In the Mid-West, lime is being used widely to restore soil fertility and balance chemical conditions in certain types of soils.

The rock and gravel to be produced at the Carbon plant will be washed at the dam site, Ramer said, where there will be ample water for the purpose.

Mrs. Wheat Talks For Morton Valley P.-T.A.

"The Home, a Pattern for Building Sound Character," was the subject of a talk given by Mrs. T. L. Wheat at a meeting of the Morton Valley P.-T.A. Tuesday.

Mrs. W. E. Tankersley presided over the program, for which Mrs. Herman Dempsey gave the P.-T.A. prayer.

Mrs. Frances Cooper presented her first and second grade students in a playlet. Songs were sung by Mrs. P. L. Crossley's third and fourth grade students, and by girls in Miss Opal Hearn's seventh and eighth grades.

PRESBYTERIANS TO HAVE SERVICE
Preaching services will be held at 11 a. m. Sunday in the First Presbyterian Church, corner of Walnut and Valley Streets. Rev. M. P. Elder will deliver the sermon. Sunday School will begin at 9:30 a. m.

PUBLISHED BY THE EASTLAND COUNTY RECORD ON BEHALF OF THE STUDENTS OF EASTLAND HIGH SCHOOL, WITH NEWS SUPPLIED BY A STUDENT STAFF.

JUNIOR STYLE SHOW

The Junior style show "Teen Togs", will be presented Friday November 12 at eight p. m. in the high school auditorium. This promises to be very entertaining, and the Juniors are working very hard to make it different and attractive.

The Junior Class met and discussed the students to be paired together and the music for the show. All Juniors will participate.

PEP RALLY AT THE MAJESTIC

Aubrey Van Hoy, manager of the Majestic Theater, permitted the high school students to have their pep rally in the theater before the show. The pep rally was carried out in the usual way, but having it in the theater gave it a new twist.

PERSONALS

Betty Ferguson, Bobbie Shero, Audrey Brown and Jeanne Greene went to Tech for last weekend. They said they had a wonderful time.

Some of the high school girls have been wishing the weather would turn cold so they could wear their new winter clothes. You can't blame them can you?

Lewis Crossley, now a student at Tech, made the freshman football team. Good luck Lewis.

Mrs. Guy Patterson, Barbara's mother, said Barbara was really enjoying this year at school. She is at North Texas Teachers College.

SOCIALITE CLUB

The Junior Socialite Club met last Tuesday in the home of Cuva Williams. The business meeting was held and then refreshments of sandwiches, potato chips, cheese and crackers, pickles and cokes were served to Nancy Freyschlag, Janeil Day, Paula Harvey, Maxine Lambert, Jane Hart, Christina Arther, Beth Hurt, Jesse Whaley and Janelle Parrerson. Mrs. Hester Koen, sponsor and Betty Bennett were not able to attend. The club will meet next week in the home of Mrs. Koen.

SUB DEBS MEET

The Sub Debs met Tuesday November 2 in the home of Ann Day. A short business meeting was held and members discussed the coming Christmas dance. Refreshments of cokes, sandwiches, fritos, and cake were served to Gene Griffin, Frances Van Geem, Zena Grissom, Sarita Seale, Gayle Parrack, Heidi Throne, Claudine Lasater, and sponsor, Mrs. Jeanne Boyd.

BAND NEWS

The band presented an unusual stunt Friday night at Hamilton. Members marched out on the field where they formed a large "E" for Eastland and an "H" for Hamilton. The "E" and "H" marched together coming out a very large "E" and a small "H" which limped off the field.

This stunt was done excellently, but of course Eastland's observers enjoyed it much more than Hamilton's.

The school is proud of the band and its good work.

NATIONAL F.H.A. WEEK

Last week was proclaimed National F. H. A. Week by Governor Jester. The Eastland Chapter celebrated in a number of ways. Sunday night they visited the Methodist Church where they were recognized. Rev. James M. Bond had prepared a special message for youth and Future Homemakers of America.

It was a week of good deeds, too. Some of the girls took flowers to the sick, to teachers, and one sent gifts to a pen pal in England.

All of the girls wore their red ribbons with F.H.A. written on them. They were made by Norma Lee Harbin and Ann Terrell.

A tea was given in the homemaking department on Thursday afternoon for the mothers of all the girls taking homemaking. The tea table was laid with a white cloth and was centered with a beautiful arrangement of yellow and white mums. At each end and at the back of the table were white candles in gold holders.

Hot fruit punch, sandwiches, cookies and salted pecans were served to the sixty people attending. All the preparation and serving was done by the girls.

The guests were shown the department. They were pleased to see the nice stoves, the new mixer, and also the floor and tables which the girls refinished during the past two summers.

"THE LIGHT ETERNAL"

The play, "The Light Eternal", which the Quarterback Club sponsored to raise money for new tennis courts was a story of the Bible.

The production began in a modern home. The mother and father were at a party, and the grandfather told his grandchildren the age old story of the Bible. The Biblical scenes were made more beautiful by the aid of the background music.

At the end of the play the children were surprised that they had liked the story, because they had always thought of the Bible as very dry and hard to understand.

The message of this play was that more modern fathers and mothers should stay home from a few parties, banquets, and meetings to show their children some of the finer things in life.

INNER-SANCTUM OF A SENIOR GIRL'S HEART

The Senior 4A English Class of Eastland High School has been studying essays by Addison and Steele. In imitation of the essay, "The Coquette's Heart", Janie Fanbuckle decided to try her hand at such literary works. With the help of her freshman slave, Pegs Loverlost, the following narrative was produced:

I shall not tell you of the dull morning I have experienced here in dear old EHS. Instead I will take you with me into the realm of impossibility, a place of utmost privacy, of deepest secrecy, the heart of a mighty senior girl.

In order to view the heart from a most practical standpoint we have dissected it. My slave and assistant in this experiment was a lowly freshman, Pegs Loverlost. We have chosen to allow the name of the senior whose heart was studied to remain veiled.

The outer coat of the heart was a reddish liquor-like substance. Pegs suggested we use the liquid in a tube in order to test the emotions of a supposedly mature senior girl, such as mercury is used in a thermometer to show changes in temperature. This we did.

The liquid rose surprisingly when a date to the Junior-Senior Banquet was mentioned or a trip to Lubbock, Texas. Victory of our dear Maverick Boys would send the liquid zooming to the top. (We thought the tube would burst when "wagon wheels" came into the room.)

The liquid dropped to the depths of the tube whenever anyone stated that high school exes were improper company for mere high school seniors. The liquid also hit some very low points when an empty post office box was brought into the room.

After the case was removed, we came to the heart itself. It was very warm, and, although many people will marvel at this fact, it seemed very friendly.

When we attempted to probe into the deeper parts of the heart the fibers turned and twisted into a very complex mass. This is understandable because in the middle of the heart one shelters his deepest, darkest secrets.

Then we manage to penetrate the barrier. The center of a senior girl's heart lay, as an open book, before us. Instead of finding the pictures of only one or perhaps two boys, we found numerous snapshots of almost every boy in high school. In her heart, the football boys held an honor place very near the center. In the very center of her heart was a picture not of Texas Tech, West Texas, the University of Hardin-Simmons, but instead occupying this very special spot was a picture of our dear old Eastland High School.

As a final experiment we decided to isolate the heart from all telephones, detention halls, football games, class meetings, music lessons, drug stores, and post offices. In a vigorous rebellion all sorts of bells began ringing, jingling, clinking and clanging.

After that bell I was fully awake, and I gathered up my books. English 4A was over and

I must hurry not to be late to sixth period shorthand.

DOUBLE SEVEN CLUB

Monette Scott was hostess Tuesday to the weekly meeting of the Double Seven Club. Further plans for a progressive dinner to be held on Saturday night, Nov. 20, were discussed.

A new member was voted in by the club. The club now has a membership of thirteen persons.

Refreshments of sandwiches, olives, potato chips, cookies, and punch were served to the members, Shirley Hightower, June Poe, Barbara Branton, Pat Brown, Wanda Richardson, Betty Grimes, Neta Massengale, Mozelle Pullman, Charlotte Van Hoy, and the sponsor, Miss Crowell.

EHS STUDENTS IN PLAY

Eight EHS students participated in the play, "The Light Eternal", given by the Quarterback

Club for the purpose of raising funds for the school. These students—Betty Ferguson, Veda Sneed, Wanda Williams, Bobbie Shero, Gary Wingate, G. W. Mc-Bee, Ted Howard, and Pete McFarland—did well in their parts Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Six junior students were ushers. They were Paula Harvey, Nancy Freyschlag, Bob Vaught, Stanley Stephen, Beth Hurt, and Betty Williams. The Roundup Staff congratulated everyone in the production for their performance.

What a wonderful ghillie oxford! For all girls and their mothers who would rather walk and be comfortable — than pinch their toes and be miserable! (Be surprised what a good, sturdy, comfortable shoe does for folks! They're happier, more-at-ease, look better, and feel tip-top!)

This shoe, typical of Penney's fine values, is specially constructed for longer wear. Oil treated soles — flexible as elastic hands! Very broad, low leather heels — to waltz you through your busy days in down-right comfort. Smooth elk-finish. Brown.

49, and nine plays later McCollum drove over. The kick was good.

The Mavericks trailed by two touchdowns, but they were not beaten yet. They promptly drove to the Hamilton 1, and were held for downs there. But on the first play after Hamilton kicked out, Smith took a pitchout from Colonel Don Brashier and raced 51 yards to make the touchdown the easy way, and Wadley converted on a run play.

Hamilton received the next kick-off, and drove for another score, with a McCollom pouncing across from the 17. That point was missed.

But again the Mavericks came back, early after the halftime intermission, with Smith snaking through center from the Eastland 2, breaking into the open, getting a key block from Wadley at mid-field, and going all the way in a brilliant piece of running. Wadley converted again, leaving the score 19 to 14.

But McCollum almost broke the Mavericks' hearts on the kickoff by gathering in the ball on his 20 and racing 80 yards for the score, with a whole flock of Eastland tacklers trying but not able to run him down from behind. The kick was good.

The Eastland fans' hopes rose once more, however, as Kellel almost duplicated McCollum's feat by taking the next kickoff on the Eastland 20 and returning it to the Hamilton 34, where the last tackler in his path got him. The Mavericks drove on to score, and the score was 26 to 20 and the game was still anybody's.

A few minutes later, Hamilton had pounded down to the Eastland goal line again, but this time the Mavericks held, and promptly drove nearly the length of the field to put wild hopes into the breasts of their followers. But it was not to be. Kelley, who almost never fumbles, came loose from the ball away down on the Hamilton 8, and Hamilton recovered and from that point tore down the field almost at will to score in nine plays, with Leeth going over from the Eastland 30.

Health Hints

SKEPTICAL

MANY PEOPLE are skeptical as to the health benefits that may be obtained through Chiropractic. As one patient recently said, "I was very skeptical about Chiropractic until I became a patient and received more results and relief in one week than I had had in six weeks." Many Chiropractors of today were in the same position as you, before they or some member of their family received health benefits through the hands of Chiropractors. Chiropractic IS NOT a "cure all", but it successfully gives RELIEF OR CORRECTION to MORE disorders than any other known health science, WITHOUT the use of any drugs.

CASE REPORT

CASE NO. 101:

NEURITIS

PATIENT STATES THAT for months he had been taking pills and using a light for his aching shoulders, neck, and left leg. Patient also had a skin disease that had been diagnosed as psoriasis. Patient grew worse each day. The pain became so intense until he couldn't sleep.

This man consulted a Chiropractor, who made an examination to determine the cause of his condition, also to determine if Chiropractic might aid this man.

The man was accepted as a patient and great improvement was made in a very short time. At the time of this writing the patient stated he was well and happy.

This man writes, "I have made the above statements with a deep feeling of appreciation to Chiropractic for the remarkable recovery I have made and trust that this testimonial will encourage those sick and discouraged to give Chiropractic a trial."

If "Number please?" is sometimes delayed...

When you lift your telephone receiver, a light appears on the switchboard in front of several operators. Normally at least one of them can respond quickly. She picks up one of the cords in front of her and plugs it into the switchboard. This connects her with your telephone and she says, "Number, please?"

But nowadays the switchboard is temporarily crowded, serving many people who otherwise would not have service. Many more telephones are in use than ever before, and calling is at an all-time high. The switchboard at times is literally ablaze with lights—and if you should call during one of these busy times, it is possible that every one of the operators who could answer your call is busy. When that happens, a few extra seconds may elapse until you hear the familiar "Number, please?"

As soon as much-needed equipment can be obtained and installed, we'll be ready to handle your calls quicker and better than ever before. Meanwhile, if at times your call is not answered at once, you'll know that nimble fingers will reach it as soon as they possibly can. We appreciate your patience and understanding.

NURSES KNOW THE BENEFITS OF Electric HEATING PADS

The chances are good that some time within the next few months—when the cold weather of late fall and winter sets in—some member of your family will need the benefits of the controlled soothing warmth that only an electric heating pad can provide.

For example, the common cold often brings on a variety of aches and pains. In many instances, these discomforts can be lessened by the controlled heat of an electric heating pad. Be ready this year if the cold or "flu" bug bites—your electric heating pad will usually provide substantial relief.

In order that we shellers may supply you desirable seed peanuts next spring, we must have peanuts that are thoroughly cured before placing in storage, as green peanuts will heat when bulked. You farmers are not gaining anything when you sell your peanuts green, to some sheller, and permit him to dock you for excess moisture. There would be no dock if your peanuts were dry. This is your opportunity to provide desirable seed, next spring, to plant.
