OLDEN SCHOOL NEWS

The Olden Invitation tournament was a success. The Olden boys won the first place trophy and the Olden girls won the consolation trophy. Both teams were very proud as this seemed to show improvement in their playing.

The crowds at the tournament showed us that the Olden people were behind us to win. Individual basketballs were awarded to Peggy Matlock and Kenneth Holt.

The teams play Ranger Monday night, December 13 at Ranger and Cisco Tuesday night, December 14 at Cisco.

The community Christmas tree will be held in the gymnasium on Friday, December 17. The program will be as follows:

Scripture reading; Rev. Clifford Nelson.

The coming of His Feet; Carmen Alvarado.

Many Christmases; third grade.

Uu On the Houst Top; second grade.

Piano Duet; Alice Joyce Cushman, Jimmy Everett.

A White Christmas and Winter Wonderland; high school.

Play; The Three Wise Men, Here Comes Santa Claus.

HIGH SCHOOL 4 H. CLUB

The high school 4H. Club girls met last Thursday morning, December 9. There were ten members present and our sponsor, Mrs. C. W. Thompson and County Agent, Miss Mansfield. We had a short recreation period in which we said our club motto, pledge and prayer. Then we sang Christmas carols.

On the business line, there was a discussion on giving a Christmas party for December 20. Then a discussion on making dressing tables and other ways of improving our bedrooms. Joy Yates and Marjorie Hendrick were elected to go to a training school the first of January.

The meeting was very interesting and everyone enjoyed it. Everyone is planning to get all their goals in and to have a very good 4H year.

A perennial plant blooms from year to year.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Creager, 412 North Dixie Street, have returned from a visit with their daughter in Austin and their son in Corpus Christi.

THANK YOU

On the eve of our first anniversary in Eastland we wish to take this means of saying thank you. Yes, it soon will be a year that we have been here—and we are mighty proud of the way we have been accepted. Your hospitality and courtesy will always be remembered.

We hope to continue to be of service to humanity and it is our sincere desire to fulfill the wishes of our patients in restoring health with Chiropractic. During the year we have accomplished much to help our patients toward better health. With your cooperation and continuing hospitality we need little - - -

EXCERPTS FROM CASE HISTORIES

CASE No. 11,601—WOMAN, AGE 40, complained of low back pain, pain in both legs, nervousness, headaches and neck ache. Being unacquainted with Chiropractic methods, she was agreeably surprised when a spinal adjustment cleared up all her trouble.

CASE No. 1186—LADY, history of sinus trouble for 6 years, also hay fever, pains in right side of neck and shoulder, rheumatic pains in knees, tired back, dizziness and nervousness. After trying all remedies mentioned and visiting many doctors, she came to our office for a spinal examination. After the Neurocalometer and X-rays located the cause of her trouble, we began corrective spinal adjustments to realign and remove interference to the nerve wave frequencies which restored normal function to the entire ill-functioned body. When discharged, this lady reported no symptoms remained.

The body contains everything necessary for health if its forces are free to work efficiently.

CLASS HAS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. Pat Crawford was hostess Monday night to members of the Home Makers Class of the First Baptist Church for their annual Christmas party and covered dish supper. Thirty-six members and guests attended.

"The Plague and I" by Betty McDonald was reviewed by Mrs. Jack Muirhead. Betty Walker acted as Santa Claus in distributing gifts. She was aided by Sandra Taylor.

Music Study Club Entertains Guests

Husbands and guests of the Music Study Club members were entertained with a Christmas dinner in the Woman's Club Wednesday night.

Garlands of cedar and cranberries, interspersed with poinsettias and red carnations, were in the centers of the tables, which were laid in white linen. Giant red and white tapers also decorated the tables.

Mrs. J. M. Perkins, chairman of the program committee, presented a book, "The Story of the Madonnas," to the library in memoriam to the late Miss Wilda Dragoo and W. K. Jackson.

A story of Santa Claus which she told was followed by impromptu stories and lively repartee by the men present. Robert Clinton closed the program with two piano solos.

The Christmas dinner was served by Mrs. Prentiss Jones' senior class of Morton Valley High School.

BEETHOVEN CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Beethoven Junior Music Club was held Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. A. F. Taylor.

Audrey Crews sang a solo, and Colonel Don Brashier played a piano solo. A two-piano number was played by Jana Weaver, Colonel Don Brashier, Milton Her-ring and Marjorie June Poe.

News From . . . OLDEN

By Special Correspondent

The Cisco Associational Workers Conference met Tuesday, December 14, at the Olden Baptist Church for a nice long program.

Lunch was served in the school gym by the ladies of the local Church. The tables, in a U shape, were decorated with red and white candles. Plate favors were autumn leaves, inscribed, "The Olden Baptist Church welcomes U."

Rev. and Mrs. M. P. Elder of Strawn, were Olden visitors last week. He is the pastor of Eastland and Strawn Presbyterian Churches.

The W. M. U. met Monday afternoon at the Baptist Church for Royal Service. In charge was Mrs. Marvin Hutto, president with 12 present.

The Methodist Church Christmas program and tree will be Sunday night, December 19, instead of the 24th. It has been moved up earlier to the 3rd. Sunday which is regular preaching day. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Thomas and children of Morton Valley moved to Olden last Saturday to make their home. They bought Mrs. Press' home so as to be near his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thoman.

Mrs. Viola Jones has returned home from Wills Point, where she has been visiting her daughter, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Rowch and daughter, Sue, spent last week end in Brownwood, visiting her sisters and father.

NEW COMERS CLUB HAS YULE LUNCHEON

Members of the New Comers Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. C. M. Ledbetter for their Christmas luncheon and gift exchange.

Officers of the club who were elected recently are Mrs. D. J. Churchman, president, Mrs. Bee Rhea, vice-president, Mrs. R. O. Monk, treasurer, and Mrs. W. D. Beggs, secretary and reporter.

SCALE RUNNERS HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Helen Taylor and Janet Chapman were hostesses Wednesday afternoon for the Christmas party of the Scale Runners Club in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Chapman.

Piano solos were played by Christine Overton, Lou Ann Corbell, Janet Chapman, Jo Ann Hicks, Genevieve Tolliver, and Dickie Corbell. Duets were played by Glenna and Gayle Kilgore, Alice Joyce Cushman and Jimmie Everett.

The hostesses distributed the gifts which the 20 guests exchanged. Mrs. Lucille Taylor assisted with the refreshments.

Class Has Party
In Watson Home

Mrs. R. L. Watson entertained members of the Susan Steele Class of the First Methodist Church with a Christmas party in her home Thursday of last week. Readings were given by Mrs. R. F. Jones and Mrs. M. B. Titsworth. Alternating Bible verses on the birth of Christ were read by Mesdames Tonsie Johnson, R. F. Jones, Annie Day, May Harrison, Ida B. Foster, and Susie Hearn. Mrs. Ina Bean led the Christmas prayer. After a short business session, gifts were exchanged from a Christmas tree, and refreshments were served. The Christmas motif was used in decorations.

MRS. BUMPASS WED TO IRA HANNA

Mrs. Anna Grace Bumpass was married to Mr. Ira L. Hanna Wednesday evening in an informal ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moore, who live near Cisco. Mr. Moore, minister of the Church of Christ at Carbon, read the ceremony.

Mrs. Hanna wore a dark green crepe dress with a gold trim and gold accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds.

Her daughter, Miss Betty Bumpass, was her only attendant. She wore a navy crepe dress with a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds.

The bride's son, Richard Bumpass, served the couple as best man.

Mr. Hanna's mother, Mrs. Irene Hanna, also attended the ceremony.

A reception which followed immediately after the wedding was given by Mrs. Moore.

Mrs. Hanna has been employed by the Eastland National Bank for the past two and a half years. Mr. Hanna ranches in Eastland County and also is employed by the Texas & Pacific Railway.

Miss Copeland Wed
To W. R. Clark

Miss Sally Copeland of Mexia and Mr. William Raymond Clark of Cresson were married recently in an informal ceremony in the home of the bride's sister in Mexia. Mr. Clark, who is a nephew of Mrs. Gerald Wingate of Eastland, has visited in Eastland frequently in the past.

Mrs. Wingate, accompanied by Mrs. Clara Wingate, attended a gift tea complimenting Mrs. Clark, held in Cresson last Friday. The party was given by Mrs. George Glascock with Mrs. Guy Harrell and Mrs. Ray Boles as co-hostesses.

Mr. Clark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrell of Cresson. He and his bride will make their home in Mexia.

Choir Entertained
By Music Club

Beethoven Music Club members entertained members of the John Tarleton A Cappella Choir Wednesday morning with a coffee in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brashier.

An arrangement of red carnations on a reflector and white candles in crystal candelabra centered the lace covered table, where Mrs. H. T. Weaver and Mrs. T. E. Richardson poured for the 88 guests.

Assisting with the serving were Mesdames T. L. Morgan, Curtis Koen, M. H. Perry and A. F. Taylor.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Watson will leave Friday for Gladewater, where they will spend the Christmas holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Weldon Stansell, and family.

To me what makes Christmas is a stomach full of eats.
FATHER: I have always to go shopping, and to enjoy the continual shoving of the Christmas trees.
MOTHER: Christmas means more and more to me as the years go by. It is the year that everyone gets together, and often I catch myself wondering just what it is that makes it so special.
PATTERSON: My "Memory" is of a beautiful preparation for Christmas—flash-bulb pictures, and family circle.
GANN: I like to think of Christmas as a day when everyone is having a good time.
HARBIN: I remember Christmas seven—I was so thrilled to open my other presents a while. I kept that for many years, and that was one of the happiest I can remember.
HARVEY: I love to remember my trees on Christmas and my grandmother's, and how Sylvia and I always had.
GARRETT: When one is at Christmas time he is intelligent. He should be that he also has to live with it.
DAY: I remember with two Christmases with my mothers on the same day.
PARSONS: To me Christmas is a time when we are all together and there were twelve of us at the table. We certainly had a larger and more exciting Christmas than we expected.
CHARLES MACKAY: Christmas at my Grandmother's is something to see. Golden brown turkey, delicious dressing, and smoking hot pie appeal to this hungry boy.
BOB VAUGHT: The most beautiful Christmas I have ever spent was in Butte, Montana. The snow covered mountains and landscape were very beautiful.
TOM GRISSOM: When I think of Christmas I think of snow, turkey, a large tree, beautiful presents, shopping in the city, lighted windows, songs. I would like to think that everyone is happy and all's right with the world.
JEANIE HOWARD: Carols, candy, mistletoe, and excitement are parts of Christmas cheer, but none can take the place of the good will and love we all should feel on Christmas time.
G. W. McBEE: Christmas! a word whose meanings are as varied as the personalities of people. It ranges from the joy of giving shared by today's good Samaritans to hatred clutched by the old Scrooges of the present.
BETTY ALLISON: Christmas is a happy, happy time, a time of united families, of exchange of gifts, of parties, of carols, of eats. I enjoy Christmas more than any other holiday because it is the happiest.
J. B. JESSE: Last Christmas night was the best hunting night I ever saw. I was cold, but six hounds in the back of the truck kept me warm.

CLASS HAS ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. Pat Crawford was hostess Monday night to members of the Home Makers Class of the First Baptist Church for their annual Christmas party and covered dish supper. Thirty-six members and guests attended. "The Plague and I" by Betty McDonald was reviewed by Mrs. Jack Muirhead. Betty Walker acted as Santa Claus in distributing gifts. She was aided by Sandra Taylor.

Music Study Club Entertains Guests

Husbands and guests of the Music Study Club members were entertained with a Christmas dinner in the Woman's Club Wednesday night. Garlands of cedar and cranberries, interspersed with poinsettias and red carnations, were in the centers of the tables, which were laid in white linen. Giant red and white tapers also decorated the tables.

Mrs. J. M. Perkins, chairman of the program committee, presented a book, "The Story of the Madonnas," to the library in memoriam to the late Miss Wilda Drago and W. K. Jackson.

A story of Santa Claus which she told was followed by impromptu stories and lively repartee by the men present. Robert Clinton closed the program with two piano solos.

The Christmas diner was served by Mrs. Prentiss Jones' senior class of Morton Valley High School.

BEETHOVEN CLUB HAS CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Beethoven Junior Music Club was held Tuesday night in the home of Mrs. A. F. Taylor. Audrey Crews sang a solo, and Colonel Don Brashier played a piano solo. A two-piano number was played by Jana Weaver, Colonel Don Brashier, Milton Her-ring and Marjorie June Poe.

News From . . . OLDEN

By Special Correspondent

The Cisco Associational Workers Conference met Tuesday, December 14, at the Olden Baptist Church for a nice long program. Lunch was served in the school gym by the ladies of the local church. The tables, in a U shape, were decorated with red and white candles. Plate favors were autumn leaves, inscribed, "The Olden Baptist Church welcomes U."

Rev. and Mrs. M. P. Elder of Strawn, were Olden visitors last week. He is the pastor of Eastland and Strawn Presbyterian Churches.

The W. M. U. met Monday afternoon at the Baptist Church for Royal Service. In charge was Mrs. Marvin Hutto, president with 12 present.

The Methodist Church Christmas program and tree will be Sunday night, December 19, instead of the 24th. It has been moved up earlier to the 3rd. Sunday which is regular preaching day. The public is invited.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Thomas and children of Morton Valley moved to Olden last Saturday to make their home. They bought Mrs. Press' home so as to be near their parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Thoman.

Mrs. Viola Jones has returned home from Wills Point, where she has been visiting her daughter, who has been ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodrow Rowch and daughter, Sue, spent last week end in Brownwood, visiting her sisters and father.

NEW COMERS CLUB HAS YULE LUNCHEON

Members of the New Comers Club met Wednesday in the home of Mrs. C. M. Ledbetter for their Christmas luncheon and gift exchange.

Officers of the club who were elected recently are Mrs. D. J. Churchman, president, Mrs. Bee Rhea, vice-president, Mrs. R. O. Monk, treasurer, and Mrs. W. D. Beggs, secretary and reporter.

SCALE RUNNERS HAVE CHRISTMAS PARTY

Helen Taylor and Janet Chapman were hostesses Wednesday afternoon for the Christmas party of the Scale Runners Club in the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Chapman.

Piano solos were played by Christine Overton, Lou Ann Corbell, Janet Chapman, Jo Ann Hicks, Genevieve Tolliver, and Dickie Corbell. Duets were played by Glenna and Gayle Kilgore, Alice Joyce Cushman and Jimmie Everett.

The hostesses distributed the gifts which the 20 guests exchanged. Mrs. Lucille Taylor assisted with the refreshments.

Mrs. S. E. Price is visiting this week in the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Sorenson, and family, at College Station.

Class Has Party In Watson Home

Mrs. R. L. Watson entertained members of the Susan Steele Class of the First Methodist Church with a Christmas party in her home Thursday of last week. Readings were given by Mrs. R. F. Jones and Mrs. M. B. Titsworth. Alternating Bible verses on the birth of Christ were read by Mesdames Tonsie Johnson, R. F. Jones, Annie Day, May Harrison, Ida B. Foster, and Susie Hearn. Mrs. Ina Bean led the Christmas prayer. After a short business session, gifts were exchanged from a Christmas tree, and refreshments were served. The Christmas motif was used in decorations.

MRS. BUMPASS WED TO IRA HANNA

Mrs. Anna Grace Bumpass was married to Mr. Ira L. Hanna Wednesday evening in an informal ceremony in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Moore, who live near Cisco. Mr. Moore, minister of the Church of Christ at Carbon, read the ceremony. Mrs. Hanna wore a dark green crepe dress with a gold trim and gold accessories. Her corsage was of pink rosebuds. Her daughter, Miss Betty Bumpass, was her only attendant. She wore a navy crepe dress with a shoulder corsage of pink rosebuds. The bride's son, Richard Bumpass, served the couple as best man. Mr. Hanna's mother, Mrs. Irene Hanna, also attended the ceremony. A reception which followed immediately after the wedding was given by Mrs. Moore. Mrs. Hanna has been employed by the Eastland National Bank for the past two and a half years. Mr. Hanna ranches in Eastland County and also is employed by the Texas & Pacific Railway.

Miss Copeland Wed To W. R. Clark

Miss Sally Copeland of Mexia and Mr. William Raymond Clark of Cresson were married recently in an informal ceremony in the home of the bride's sister in Mexia. Mr. Clark, who is a nephew of Mrs. Gerald Wingate of Eastland, has visited in Eastland frequently in the past. Mrs. Wingate, accompanied by Mrs. Clara Wingate, attended a gift tea complimenting Mrs. Clark, held in Cresson last Friday. The party was given by Mrs. George Glascock with Mrs. Guy Harrell and Mrs. Ray Boles as co-hostesses. Mr. Clark is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Harrell of Cresson. He and his bride will make their home in Mexia.

Choir Entertained By Music Club

Beethoven Music Club members entertained members of the John Tarleton A Cappella Choir Wednesday morning with a coffee in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Brashier. An arrangement of red carnations on a reflector and white candles in crystal candelabra centered the lace covered table, where Mrs. H. T. Weaver and Mrs. T. E. Richardson poured for the 88 guests. Assisting with the serving were Mesdames T. L. Morgan, Curtis Koen, M. H. Perry and A. F. Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Watson will leave Friday for Gladewater, where they will spend the Christmas holidays with their daughter, Mrs. Weldon Stansell, and family.

BETH HURT: I watched for this particular Christmas—and sure enough it came—watches for my sister and me, a watch for Mother, and a watch for my brother. That was a very happy Christmas. MARION THOMPSON: You make out your shopping list after many erasures and start off on what you think is going to be a glorious day. Instead, you may be pushed, run over, knocked down, and stepped on. What's this about good will? JOANN HARDIN: I remember Christmas at Grandmother's—a family reunion, the Christmas party, playing games and singing carols. RICHARD BUMPASS: A fragrant aroma drifts from the big kitchen stove. Mother bustles about and we stand at the door and watch longingly. GEORGE LANE: I plan my Christmas shopping early—I make lists, I consult catalogues, I look at shop windows and change my list, I postpone the actual purchases—time flies, Christmas is almost here; my mother finally selects most of the presents. RICHARD BOURLAND: I remember with pleasure the year Santa Claus brought me an electric train. STANLEY STEPHEN: I remember a Christmas we expected three guests and there were twelve of us at the table. We certainly had a larger and more exciting Christmas than we expected. CHARLES MACKEY: Christmas at my Grandmother's is something to see. Golden brown turkey, delicious dressing, and smoking hot pie appeal to this hungry boy. BOB VAUGHT: The most beautiful Christmas I have ever spent was in Butte, Montana. The snow covered mountains and landscape were very beautiful. TOM GRISSON: When I think of Christmas I think of snow, turkey, a large tree, beautiful presents, shopping in the city, lighted windows, songs. I would like to think that everyone is happy and all's right with the world. JEANIE HOWARD: Carols, candy, mistletoe, and excitement are parts of Christmas cheer, but none can take the place of the good will and love we all should feel Christmas time. G. W. McBEE: Christmas! a word whose meanings are as varied as the personalities of people. It ranges from the joy of giving shared by today's good Samaritans to hatred clutched by the old Scrooges of the present. BETTY ALLISON: Christmas is a happy, happy time, a time of united families, of exchange of gifts, of parties, of carols, of eats. I enjoy Christmas more than any other holiday because it is the happiest. J. B. JESSE: Last Christmas night was the best hunting night I ever saw. I was cold, but six hounds in the back of the truck kept me warm. JANE HART: To me the most beautiful Christmas scene is my own family around our own Christmas tree. Others may have bigger and more elaborate celebrations than ours, but no one could have a happier or more heat-warming time than we do. TOMMY PATTERSON: Shop early and avoid the rush. ED HARRIS: We should regard Christmas with reverence and respect as well as with gaiety. GARY WINGATE: At Christmas it is not the value of the gift but the spirit which prompted its giving. CYRUS MILLER: On Christmas Eve look about you and enjoy the beauty that you see. MERRY CHRISTMAS!

HOMEMAKING NEWS

The second year homemaking class cooked and served a buffet luncheon this week. The menu served was baked ham, stuffed potatoes, pineapple and celery salad, iced tea, biscuits, lemon sherbet, and brownies. Everyone enjoyed it.

THE CO-ED MEETING

The Co-eds met in the home of Prudie Hardeman at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon. The president called the meeting to order and the progressive dinner was discussed. More Christmas activities were planned. Delicious refreshments of cheese sandwiches, cake, chee-wees, and cokes were served to Betty Ferguson, Patsy Young, Betty Allen, Audrey Brown, Wanda Williams, Bobbie Shero, Pat Rushing, Veda Sneed, Jimmie Black, Nancy Harkrider, Gay Nell Whitely, Ferne Justice, Jeanne Greene, Barbara Martin, Norma Noble, and the hostess, Prudie Hardeman.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?

Many old couples are hitting it off again? How hard the a cappella choir works and what a good job Mr. Clinton is doing? The Junior High operetta? How short boys are when they are freshmen and how tall when seniors? The fun civics class has? That everyone has colds from the dust? That Veda and Dan have gone together for almost four years? How much the Seniors enjoy being SENIORS? The boy with "29" (broken hearts)? All the Senior parties? The industrious English 4A class? That some Round-Up reporters never report? That Barkis is willing?

THE COMMERCIAL CLUB

The Commercial Club had its Christmas party in Room 37 Friday. The president called the meeting to order, and then turned it over to the program chairman. We listened to Christmas carols played on "Emertrude." Each member brought his own refreshments.

REMEMBER WHEN?

Seniors didn't get along. Seniors were Sophs. It snowed. Catherine Cornelius was queen of high school. There was asafetida in the fountain. It rained. Betty and Prudie were inseparable. Audrey had her car all the time. Bourland wasn't called "Bourls." Shero didn't wear a wig. "Red" Whitley wasn't called "Red." Prasher made no mistakes. That must have been a long time ago. Velasco didn't go to school here. Bubbles BAT the train. There were 11 Co-Eds. Jeanne Greene had lots of parties. Barker was in high school. There were a lot of dances. Carolyn Enas and Jack Turner were lovers. All "Remember Whens" were happening.

KNOW YOUR MANNERS, BOYS

Here's a quick quiz on good manners for boys. What's your score?

- 1. Should you rise when introduced? Yes. Rise when you are meeting an older man or woman or a boy or girl your own age. 2. Who offers his hand first? Men always shake hands when introduced. When you are introduced to a girl or a woman, wait for her to extend her hand. If she doesn't, omit the hand shake, merely saying "How do you do?" to acknowledge the introduction. How far ahead of time should you ask a girl for a date? Several days ahead, if possible, for movie dates and basketball or record dances; two weeks or more in advance for a big dance, then

- phone her (or write, if you go to school away from home) to remind her of the dance, so she'll know you haven't forgotten your invitation and are still planning to go. 4. Who leaves the bus, street car or train first—a boy or the girl he escorts? The boy descends first, so he can help the girl alight. This is also the correct thing to do when escorting your mother, sister, or friend of the family. 5. When a girl invites a boy to a dance, who pays the expenses? The girl pays for the tickets; the boy provides a corsage if necessary and makes arrangements for transportation unless the girl knows someone who has room in their car for another couple. 6. How do you refuse a second offer of food at the table? Simply by saying "No thank you." "No thanks; it's delicious, but I've had enough." Anything else is bad manners. 7. What's the correct attire for informal social doings in the evening—dates, school affairs, etc.? A suit, shirt and tie. Or sometimes, a sport jacket, harmonizing slacks, shirt and tie.

ORCHIDS AND ONIONS

Orchids to Seniors. Onions to sandstorms. Orchids "to a Little Bird" (Doola.) Onions to catty remarks. Orchids to the parties the seniors have been giving. Onions to no parties. Orchids to baby-sitters. Onions to babies that cry.

Orchids to new coronation court. Onions to fussy people. Orchids to the E.H.S. King and Queen. Onions to lessons. Orchids to Prudie's party. Onions to on dates. Orchids to Ferguson's party. Onions to lessons over the holidays. Orchids to senior class unity.

SENIOR PARTY

The Seniors will have a party in the gym Friday night after the Coronation. There will be dancing and games for everyone. The senior mothers are planning the party so everyone will have a good time. This is the first school dance sponsored in the gym. It is going to be formal.
