McGraw Presides Over Board Meet Of C. Of C.

Members of the Board of Directors of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce met in regular session at the offices of the local Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening. Most of the membership was in attendance. L. E. McGraw, president of the Chamber of Commerce, presided over the meeting. A notable fact about the meeting was that no time was wasted, those present, being business and professional men, got down to business and every moment of the two hours consumed, was spent in discussion and presentation of matters pertaining to the betterment of the town and community and its people.

One of the matters brought up and passed upon was that of markers for at least a portion of the street intersections in the City of Eastland. The proposition heretofore submitted to the Eastland City Commission, was agreed upon and order passed to purchase enough suitable signs for the intersections of Eastland streets transversed by state highways. It is hoped that this program of street marking can be carried on until each and every street intersection in the town is suitably marked. Also that each and every block and lot is properly numbered.

Finger Of Suspicion

Flanked by Lt. M. J. Mandernach, left and Detective Frank Lyons, right, of the Chicago police department, Edward Brestanski, 31, was allegedly identified by three children as the kidnaper and molester of a six-year-old Chicago girl. Brestanski, a parolee from Washington State prison, is accused of seizing the girl as she was on her way to a neighborhood store and holding her captive in his car for more than an hour before releasing her. Former Resident Is Eastland Visitor

J. W. Greathouse of Ferriday, La., and a former resident of Eastland, was a business visitor in Eastland Tuesday. He is an employee of the Standard Oil Corporation in Louisiana. Greathouse was employed by the Texas Electric Service Company while in Eastland. He entered the United States Navy during World War II and served two years in the Naval Air Transport Service overseas. While overseas he said he met up with a number of Eastland boys, also in the service of their country.

Greathouse's wife is the former Miss Nina Mae Williams of Louisiana. The couple met while they were attending Warner Memorial University in Eastland and later married in Eastland. They have one child, a son, Dannie, who is fourteen years of age.

Upon his return from the service in 1945, Greathouse entered the employ of Standard Oil of California. He later transferred to Louisiana nearer the home of his wife's parents.

Believe Life Discovered On Planet Mars

McDONALD OBSERVATORY, Mt. Locke, Tex. Astronomers said today that their latest study of the planet Mars had provided tentative evidence that life in a primitive form existed there.

Astronomers from the Universities of Chicago and Texas got what scientists called a "practical closeup" of Mars early today as it whirled to within 63,000,000 miles of the earth.

Using a war-developed infra-red spectrograph focused through an 82-inch telescope, the astronomers made an exacting study of the planet and came to the conclusion that probably lichen, the hard, moss-like growth found on rocks in the United States, existed there.

Scientists said they observed green areas on the planet that advanced and retreated from the polar ice caps, indicating that the lichen-like plants might be spreading as they grew during the summer months.

Gray's Committee To Make Report At New Jersey Meet

Revision of the two principal books on the history of institutional teacher placement has been delegated to Dr. Hob Gray, University of Texas professor and director of the University's Teacher Placement Service.

He will serve on a committee with other placement personnel to revise "Current Institutional Teacher Placement Practices" and "Institutional Teacher Placement". His committee will make a preliminary report at the National Institutional Teacher Placement Association meeting in Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 21-22.

Dr. Gray has also been asked to serve on a committee to study a plan for the Association's reorganization.

Dr. Gray was born in the Pleasant Valley community in Eastland county and as a child attended Eastland County schools. Later he taught in the Eastland public schools. He is a brother of Mrs. May Harrison, Mrs. Maud Braly and Mrs. E. C. Satterwhite of Eastland and of Mrs. Mack Gibson of Rising Star. Associate Justice of the Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals, Eastland, is a cousin.

Food Prices Down NEW YORK (UP)—Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., today reported another decline in the wholesale price of food, which is now 7 per cent below the all-time high reached on Jan. 13. The Dun and Bradstreet wholesale food index, for the week-ended Feb. 17, declined 7 cents to $6.76 and compared with the all-time peak of $7.28, reached five weeks ago.

BEASLEY TALKS TO ROTARIANS ABOUT CRIME

Walter Beasley, instructor in the Police School being conducted in Eastland for the benefit of peace officers, was guest speaker at the Eastland Rotary club meeting and luncheon Monday at noon. He discussed the work being done in Texas on crime prevention programs, stating that the first Police Conference in Texas was held in 1933. There had, of course, been conferences before between special officers, but this was the first for the rank and file of police officers. Since that time Texas A&M College, in co-operation with the State Board of Vocational Education, has been gradually extending its work in this line.

Beasley gave many statistics and figures showing the enormous number of criminals of record in the State and Nation, average number of various kinds of crimes committed daily in Texas and in the Nation and the costs of such crimes to the State and Nation.

Beasley expressed disapproval of many of the radio programs and motion pictures in which the criminal was played up as a hero and shown as outwitting the police, on the theory that they had the wrong influence upon the boys and girls of the country.

Boy and Girl Scout organizations, Beasley said, were among the organizations doing good work toward crime prevention. He urged those listening to him to assist those in these lines of work in every way they could.

The speaker complimented Eastland on its few burglaries and other kinds of crimes.

SAFETY MANAGER POINTS TO HIGHWAY ETIQUETTE

AUSTIN, Feb. 17—There are Emily Post rules of etiquette for the highway, just as there are for the drawing-room, according to George Clark, managing director of the Texas Safety Association.

"And traffic rules not only make for gracious living, they make for living—period!" he said. "No driver is a good driver unless he knows and obeys the traffic laws, to insure his own safety as well as the safety of other drivers and pedestrians."

Clark pointed out that nearly half of all city accidents involve two vehicles at an intersection, and half of these are the result of two vehicles entering at right angles intent on going straight through.

He said that statistics of the National Safety Council show 15 per cent of all drivers in fatal city accidents failed to yield the right-of-way, the most frequent violation.

The Texas Safety Association is cooperating in a nationwide "Know and Obey Traffic Laws" program during February, and Clark listed the following facts to remember about right-of-way at intersections:

New Program For 4-H Members Has Been Announced

"How can we best apply our leisure time?" That query from farm youth throughout Texas has brought an answer in the form of a 4-H recreation and rural arts program. Designed to promote group action, the program promises to be a decided influence in developing community spirit.

Activities encouraged include 4-H members forming outdoor or indoor sports teams, quartettes or orchestras, bands, presenting one-act plays or pageants and hiking, camping or picnicking. In rural arts and crafts, members' handiwork in drawing, painting, carving, collecting leaves or some other hobby, may receive recognition of state exhibits.

A blue ribbon will be presented to each local 4-H Club determined by the county extension office as having conducted a recreational program worthy of an outstanding rating. A $25.00 cash award will be provided to each county naming a blue award group of 4-H Clubs for the purchase of recreational equipment.

Individual efforts to get club members together in carrying the recreational activities will also receive recognition. Two 4-Hers excelling in recreational leadership in each of the four extension sections will both receive an educational trip to the 1948 National 4-H Club Congress in Chicago.

All awards, in addition to funds for training clinics at which specialists will instruct local 4-H leaders in recreation and rural arts, are provided by U. S. Rubber Co. The leaders in turn pass the instruction on to their club members.

County extension agents will furnish full information regarding this new program.

PRICES OF THREE GRAINS DROP TODAY

CHICAGO—The price of corn, wheat and oats dropped today at the nation's big grain exchanges. The price decline was a continuation of yesterday's downward trend at the close of trading. But traders said there was no evidence that another big price break is in prospect.

Wheat for future delivery was off 3-4 of a cent to 4 3-4 cents a bushel on the Chicago Board of Trade. At Kansas City, wheat opened 2 1-2 to 5 1-2 cents lower.

Corn at Chicago was off 1-4 to 1 1-2 cents a bushel and 1 1-2 cents at Kansas City. Oats at Chicago were down 3-4 to 1 1-2 cents.

The Chicago hog market opened slowly, with a few sales at yesterday's prices. Stocks were steady at the opening of the New York stock exchange.

Grain traders said that the time has come when new crop prospects will be the big factor in setting grain prices. There was no indication that the government intends any immediate resumption of its wheat and flour purchases for export.

Wheat skidded as much as 5 1-2 cents a bushel in a late slump on the Chicago Board of Trade, and all other commodities but butter dropped off somewhat.

Wholesale butter rose 3 to 4 cents a pound at New York, adding to a previous gain of two cents.

Truman Cited By Christians, Jews

WASHINGTON—President Truman was honored today by the National Conference of Christians and Jews for his "consistent maintenance in all international councils of the primacy of spiritual values."

The President was presented with a citation by former Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson, who is general chairman of the 1948 observance of American Brotherhood Week.

"We have taken pride," said Patterson, "in the fact that the first citizen of our nation... has held moral principle to be above all other considerations."

Russia sold Alaska to the U. S. for $7,200,000.

Says Supplies Of Beef Will Keep Shrinking

WASHINGTON—An agricultural department report on livestock today will show that beef supplies will keep shrinking for at least four more years, possibly longer.

The report is expected to reveal that the total number of cattle on farms declined nearly 4,000,000 head, or about five per cent, during the past year. It is expected to show that the number of milk cows declined about two per cent below a year ago. That will mean less milk this year.

That would reduce total on-farm cattle numbers 10 per cent below the record Jan. 1, 1945, figure of 85,573,000. Cattle numbers have been dropping steadily for three years. Government agricultural experts believe the decline will continue for at least two more years. There's nothing in sight to check it.

Result—supplies of beef, milk and dairy products will gradually shrink.

Howard Parvin Has Operation On Injured Hip

Howard Parvin, who fractured a hip in a fall at Kermit where he lives and where he was working for Richardson & Ross, underwent an operation at a Dallas hospital Monday morning and reports are that he is doing well. The break, it is reported, was not a bad one. It will require some ten days or two weeks, however, without unfavorable complications, for him to be able to leave the hospital.

The injury was received last Thursday. He was flown to Dallas. Parvin's wife and mother, Mrs. R. L. Watson, 609 West Plummer, Eastland, are in Dallas with him, and his father and sister, have been there and will visit him often. Parvin's room at the Baylor Hospital in Dallas is 211.

TO BE USED FOR ECONOMIC RECOVERY, NOT FOR MILITARY

WASHINGTON—President Truman today asked Congress for $570,000,000 for China to halt the "continued deterioration" of the Chinese economy.

The money will be used largely to finance imports into China of essential items which the Chinese now are virtually unable to buy. The President in a message to the Congress recommended that $510,000,000 be made available through loans or grants to finance such relief imports. He also asked $60,000,000 for "a few selected reconstruction projects—in areas sheltered from military operations."

Mr. Truman proposed that the program provide aid for China until June 30, 1949.

The construction projects envisioned by the President included work on railroads and fuel and power operations. The new China aid program did not include any funds for direct military help for the Nationalist government in Nanking.

The President expressed "deep concern" over the deterioration of the Chinese economy. He blamed the civil war waged between Communists and Nationalist forces for much of the delay in post war recovery.

Mr. Truman made it plain that this country would do what it could to assist the rebuilding of the Chinese economy, but that the principal burden of recovery would still remain with the Chinese government.

The President said this country had hoped for conditions in China would be more effective in the application of American aid, but that this situation had not developed as he and Secretary of State George C. Marshall had hoped.

"We can only do what is feasible under circumstances as they exist," he said.

The proposal for new China aid was seen in some Congressional quarters as a bid for Republican support of the European recovery program.

The European program goes to the Senate floor March 1. Many Republican senators repeatedly have urged that Chiang Kai Shek's government also receive help.

American Woman Finds Happiness As Buddhist Nun

By Austin De Silva
United Press Staff Correspondent
COLOMBO, Ceylon (UP)—An American woman, whose interest in Buddhism was awakened in her undergraduate days at Oregon State University, has found happiness in her ordination as a Buddhist nun at Vajirarama Temple here.

She was Mrs. Beatrice Hunt Winans, who took the name of Bhikkhunda Soma when she was ordained by Bhikku Kassapa, who was Dr. Cassius A. Pereira. Dr. Pereira was a widely-known authority on Buddhism even before he became a Buddhist monk.

Sister Soma made her act of renunciation when she left her husband and two sons to come to Ceylon and become a Buddhist nun. Her interest in Buddhism began when she first encountered Buddhist texts published by the Jain University Press.

Some years ago, she attended lectures in the United States delivered by Bhikku Silavansa an American-Portuguese Buddhist monk. Mrs. Williams accompanied Bhikku Silavansa to Ceylon from the United States last November and decided to take the vows.

Her head now is shorn and she wears a yellow robe.

"I am very happy in these robes," she said. She parried reporters' questions with a smiling remark:

"I did not work on a newspaper for nothing."

An American Buddhist monk, Seelavansa Thero, who was John Silva of California in his lay life, recently was re-ordained at a solemn ceremony at a historic Buddhist temple at Kandy.

Bhikku Seelavansa first was ordained about 29 years ago at Poggasluwa, where he spent some years. Later he went to Thailand and received higher ordination.

For the past 10 years, Bhikku Seelavansa has been teaching on the Pacific Coast of the United States. When he embarked recently from the United States for

Seeds For Peace Plan Inaugurated By Garden Clubs

AMARILLO, Tex. (UP)—The national council of state garden clubs has inaugurated a "seeds of peace" plan to distribute garden seeds to needy families in Europe, it was announced in Amarillo today by Mrs. P. D. Berthelot, publicity chairman for Texas.

Packets containing 13 kinds of vegetable seeds—enough to plant 600 square feet of ground and to sustain a family of five—will be distributed to needy families in Great Britain, France, Holland, Italy, Greece, Luxembourg, Austria, Germany and other nations.

Church World Service, Inc., an affiliate of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, is to be the distributing and supervising agency for the project.

Cultural directions in the language spoken in the country for which the seeds are destined will be contained in each package.

Mrs. Berthelot said the national council was asking all local garden clubs and individuals to assist in the project by making donations.

She said contributions of any amount may be mailed to her at 1021 Sunset Terrace, Amarillo or to Mrs. Nicholas J. Mertens, Treasurer of National Council of State Garden Clubs, Inc., 599 Fifth Ave., New York 18, N. Y.

Long Underwear Making Last Stand In Indiana

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (UP)—Long underwear is staging a flickering last stand on the threshold of the atomic era.

John Strouse, whose family has operated a men's clothing store here for 80 years, said "longies" or union suits are now classed with spats as a novelty item.

"We used to sell them by the case," he said. "But now only a few outdoor workers, hunters and old people buy them."

Longies began fading from the washday scene with the development of central heating in buildings and efficient car heaters, Strouse said.

Pennsylvania Sportsman Plan Not To Be Fenced In

BROOKVILLE, Pa. (UP)—Two Pennsylvania sportsmen spaces have exclusive hunting and fishing rights to a 13,000-acre tract in Canada.

The Canadian government has approved the lease of the tract, in Quebec Province about 300 miles north of Montreal to Dr. F. G. Rhea and Sam Fike, both of Brookville.

The territory includes two camps for sportsmen and marine equipment.

NEW ENGINEERING LABORATORY

carries on work vital to Lone Star Natural Gas Customers

Scenes in the new Engineering Development Laboratory where field samples and data are analyzed.

LONE STAR FOLKS ARE Busy... Another Example

Lone Star's production, research and transmission engineers together with chemists, laboratory technicians and geologists are making a long range study of natural gas production, transmission and distribution facilities serving you.

Five specialized "labs" and a large technical library aid them in their work. Laboratory technicians in five smaller field laboratories also work with the Engineering Development Laboratory staff.

A major portion of the staff's time is spent in natural gas processing plants, compressor stations, gas fields and along cross-country pipelines obtaining data which is later analyzed at the laboratory.

Valuable information necessary for exacting decisions on projects in Lone Star's current five-year, $40,000,000 expansion program is being obtained from reports made by the Engineering Development Laboratory staff.

Thus, this Laboratory and Staff are playing a vital, behind-the-scenes role in a $40,000,000 expansion program designed to keep Lone Star Natural Gas Service ahead of increasing needs of 333 communities we serve.

Traffic Violators Sent To Church For Their Sins

SEATTLE (UP) — Seattle motorists, if they aren't careful about traffic laws, may find themselves writing a 300-word essay or be under orders to go to church every Sunday for six months.

It has happened to several drivers, convicted of major traffic violations in traffic court here. Judge Roy DeGrief ordered a motorist convicted of reckless and hit-run driving either to write a 300-word thesis on "Reasons for stopping and identifying yourself after hitting another car" or serve a five-day jail sentence.

The driver wrote the thesis. Another driver, convicted of drunken and reckless driving, escaped serving a 30-day jail sentence by promising to attend church every Sunday for six months. He was required to present an affidavit attesting to his attendance.

But Judge DeGrief believes the penalties are valuable. "Writing an essay or going to church makes a driver think more about the seriousness of his violations than if he pays a fine or receives a suspended jail sentence," the judge said.

Your Insurance and Your Future—

... are all bound up together. The person who keeps adequately insured is not only wise but thrifty since insurance provides protection for the thrifty dollar. If loss occurs in the household of the uninsured his life's saving are wiped out, but not so with the insured man. To be both thrifty and wise, be insured. And the less we have the more it is a part of wisdom to guard against financial destruction.

"Heartsease"

By Elsie Glenn

LOVE SHALL CRUCIFY ALL

It is human nature to believe that love transcends all and that love is perfection; a state of being where all things are right and the days and the nights of our lives shall be nothing but beauty.

Everyone who loves sooner or later comes to the rude awakening that while love is the most sublime emotion to be experienced, it also crucifies.

Deep is the longing within each human heart for surcease from his sorrows; for one person out of all the world who will understand him, who will love him, who will be blind to his faults.

But life doesn't work that way. We pay and pay for everything we get out of life and perhaps that is as it should be. We pay dearly for love.

There is only one kind of real love and that is the unselfish kind. Possession, strange word that it is, is not love. True love ascends to the heights of human nature, but love also descends to the roots of human nature and shakes the foundation of one's life. Thus, one learns the secrets of one's heart; its capabilities.

But there is another side of love; the side that crucifies. To watch love die and even the most deathless love can die; to sit by the side-lines and watch love fly as a bird from one's heart, to grow beyond the beloved and to be unable to turn and whisper, "Come with me," . . . love dies and it crucifies. Sometimes it stays.

Love is the most important emotion in the world.

If you love, watch it, keep it, if you can. Don't let it die, if you can help it. Expect to be crucified for it is the only way in which we can ever reach immortality.

It costs a great deal to love, but not too much.

Whatever its cost to you . . . love.

Love something.

Unless you love, and be crucified, perhaps, in the loving . . . the you in you will die.

"A Bite"

Frankly, the Teen Canteen needs a juke box. We are keeping your youngsters busy Saturday nights, and intend to continue the Teen Canteen as a year-round community service. But a little phonograph doesn't make enough music in that Big Legion Hall. We need a Juke Box. We can get one for Three Hundred Dollars. Are there community-minded men in Eastland willing to provide this needed cash?

Next Monday this space will carry the names of those who have contributed to the purchase of a Juke Box for the two-hundred Teen Agers who will be our citizens of tomorrow.

We are trying to do our part to help the Community and her young people.

Please DON'T MAKE CHAIN CALLS on Party Lines

Did you have trouble reading that headline?

There's a reason. There are no spaces between the words "Don't Make Chain Calls."

"Chain" calls cause trouble on party lines. Other folks on the line can't make calls, and no one can call in while the "chain caller" goes down his list. If you have a party line and have a number of calls to make, the friendly, neighborly thing to do is allow . . . a . . . little . . . time between calls. That gives others on the line a chance to call or be called.
