House Group Cuts Foreign Spending Appropriations

WASHINGTON, June 2 (UP)—The House Appropriations Committee today hacked $553,000,000 from the administrations overall foreign spending program.

It allowed $5,980,710,288 for seven key foreign programs, including the critical European Recovery Program, but warned that the money will have to do for 15 months instead of 12 because —

"The gradual but steady depletion of this country's resources makes it mandatory that Congress take every reasonable precaution to safeguard the dwindling assets and domestic economy of this nation."

In effect, the reduction amounts to about 25 per cent—consisting of the actual cut and the fact that the money will have to stretch three months longer.

Announcement has just been received by Mrs. Cora Hazard, and family of Ranger, of the coming graduation of her grandson, Thomas W. Hazard, Jr., at the United States Military Academy at West Point on June 8th.

Cadet Hazard is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Hazard, who reside in California, where he received his education prior to his entrance at the academy.

He did preparatory work at the Drew School in San Francisco, where he received his appointment to West Point and the Coast Guard Academy, having obtained the latter by placing 20th in a nation-wide competitive examination. LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. June 3, (UP)—United Nations diplomats estimated today it would take a week or 10 days to put a temporary truce in the Holy Land war into effect.

The Security Council authorized its UN mediator last night to announce the day and hour for the start of the four-week cessation of hostilities.

The mediator, Count Folke Bernadotte of Sweden, indicated he would need a few days to pick the time and that he would allow "some days" notice of the armistice deadline.

A Precarious Perch

Lilienthal Fails To Persuade AFL Not To Strike

WASHINGTON, June 3, (UP)—Chairman David Lilienthal of the Atomic Energy Commission said today he had failed to persuade AFL unions not to strike next week at the Atomic Research Laboratory at Oak Ridge, Tenn.

"But I still can't believe the men will strike, in spite of the fact that they feel they are in the right," he said. "We will have to keep the plant going."

Lilienthal talked to reporters as he emerged from a two-hour conference with AFL president William Green and president of the 14 international unions representing the 875 workers in the laboratory.

Atomic bombs are not made at the laboratory, operated for the government by the Carbide and Carbon Chemical Corp., nor does the plant make fissionable material from which atomic bombs are made. But the Oak Ridge laboratory is the only place where radioactive isotopes are produced for research.

Prohibition Of Nationwide Strikes Urged

WASHINGTON, June 3, (UP)—A spokesman for the soft coal industry today urged Congress to prohibit nationwide strikes in vital industries.

The spokesman also asked that strikes to enforce adoption of union health and welfare funds be outlawed.

The request was made by L. Ebersol Gaines, President of the National Coal Association which represents about 70 per cent of the industry. He appeared before the joint Senate-House Labor-Management Relations Committee.

Polite Policemen Learn Their Art At FBI School

By James F. Donovan
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON (UP)—There are 54 everyday policemen around the Justice Department building these days but they're nothing like the tough-talking cop who gave you that traffic ticket.

They say "yes sir" and "no sir" and stand respectfully aside when an ordinary citizen walks down the corridor.

The 54 policemen are students of the 38th session of the FBI's national academy. And the FBI insists on discipline from its policemen.

The FBI founded the school in 1935 to give police agencies throughout the country the benefit of the latest FBI methods of law enforcement. The course lasts about 2 1/2 months and it covers everything from scientific fingerprinting to how to make an arrest.

There are classes in courtesy. FBI instructors tell the policemen that they can do more good for law enforcement with a kind word than with a snarl, especially in traffic cases.

The policemen listen carefully. They have to type up their notes every night. They never know when the teacher is going to swoop down and demand a look at their work.

If a student—even a chief of police—shows what the FBI considers a lack of interest in the course, he's warned. If he still fools around, he goes home, with a note to his superior explaining his expulsion.

The FBI assigns two special agents to take the course along with the policemen. The agents mingle with their classmates, chat with them in their rooms and occasionally help with their notes.

The present class will graduate at the end of June. Its members come from all parts of the country.

For instance, there are representatives from Renton, Wash.; Jasper, Ala.; Coos Bay, Ore.; Swanquarter, Tex.; and Redwood City, Cal. One student came from San Juan, Puerto Rico.

Understudies Do Click It Seems

NEW YORK (UP)—The scene is familiar in Hollywood epics—the star falls ill or disappears or overacts. Loud screams for the understudy. There is the tense moment when the understudy goes on stage and then mighty cheers and rave notices in the press.

Phony? But it happens and happens and will keep happening as long as there is show business. Here are some current exhibits to prove it:

Item one is handsome Donald Richards, one of the stars of the hit musical, "Finian's Rainbow." Fifteen months ago an agent told him the singer at Chicago's Mayfair Room had fallen ill and why didn't he substitute? Donald did. Sitting in the room was a talent scout for Burton Lane, composer of "Finian's Rainbow." Donald got the role. But lightning struck twice for him. Recently he doubled at the swank Waldorf-Astoria's Serf Room—got the engagement because the star, Jean Sablon, became ill!

Item two is Harvey Stone, one of the best of the new comedians. Harvey was a shoe salesman invited to attend a company party by his boss. The comedian hired for the occasion failed to show up so Harvey was persuaded to do little bit he had written called "How Not To Sell a Shoe."

A man at the party offered him a night club engagement and since then Harvey has gone a long way (from $500 to $5,000 a week, he says). President Truman invited him to entertain at the White House twice, and in the Army once.

Item three is Jerry Wayne who is riding to fame and what goes with it on the success of his recording of "You Can't Be True, Dear." Wayne was a guitarist. One night the singer failed to show and he sang a short chorus to break up the monotony of too much music in a program over a small New Jersey station.

He promptly got demands for more singing. Then came an even bigger break. A firm which had bought "You Can't Be True, Dear" wanted a test record and Jerry who just happened to be around, was asked to do it as a favor. His record was so good they kept it as the one to sell.

UN Tuberculosis Agency Seeking To Safeguard 50,000,000 Children

By DUDLEY HARMON United Press Staff Correspondent PARIS (UP)—The biggest public health project of its kind in history will be started shortly. United Nations officials have disclosed.

It will involve the testing of 50,000,000 European children for tuberculosis and the inoculation of some 15,000,000 of them.

The project is sponsored by the UN's International Children's Emergency Fund, which has European headquarters here.

Although east and west continue at loggerheads on most subjects, they co-operate in the ICEF. Both the Soviet Union and the United States are on its executive board, which has spent more than half of the $40,000,000 allotted it for war-stricken children.

Much of the aid has gone to Rumania, Poland, and other "iron curtain" countries, although the Soviet neither has applied for relief nor contributed funds.

The tuberculosis project will begin in about two months. ICEF officials told the United Press. A fund for $40,000,000 has been assigned to the program. Half of the money will be used immediately in Europe. The other half will be reserved for "countries other than Europe."

The program will test 50,000,000 children for positive or negative reactions to the disease. An estimated 15,000,000 expected to show susceptibility then will be inoculated with a serum called the BCG. Inoculation already is compulsory in Denmark, Hungary and other countries.

The Danish Red Cross has been carrying out such a program in Denmark. The Danish government has offered 2,000,000 crowns to the children's fund for continuation and extension of the program in collaboration with Sweden and Norway. The ICEF said arrangements will be made between the Danish Red Cross, the countries applying for the program and the ICEF itself.

The ICEF hopes soon to line up teams of doctors and organize equipment. It estimates that between 200 and 300 teams, each consisting of a doctor, two nurses and two secretaries, could do the job in about 18 months.

Tuberculosis in Europe increased severely as the result of World War II. According to the ICEF, Poland's death rate went up from 17.5 per 1,000, to 50. In Finland the death rate from tuberculosis

Japanese Trade Slowed By Lack Of Typewriters

By Earnest Hoberecht
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO. (UP)—"Black market typists" are getting rich in poverty-stricken Japan because of the shortage of English language typewriters.

The lack of typewriters actually is a big bottleneck in Japan's foreign trade picture.

The demand for typists and American typewriters to handle the unprecedented amount of English language business transactions is far greater than the supply.

Japan never has had facilities for making western style typewriters and there never has been such a demand for English language paper work as there is today.

Thousands upon thousands of reports must be made by Japanese government officials to allied headquarters. Thousands of pages of English-language typing are required daily in Japan's struggling post-war export business. U.S. officials are trying to help that important business along because it brings in foreign credits that Japan needs and tends to lessen the burden on the American taxpayer who currently is footing the bill here.

Japanese men and women who know how to write—and who have typewriters—can just about write their own tickets. For mere straight copying of documents, a typist can get 300 yen per page. Three hundred yen is about $1.25 at the current open market yen exchange rate.

Typists don't have to look for work. They can sit at home and type as long as they can lift their hands. Big export firms, Japanese government officials and private individuals stand in line to beg these "blackmarket typists" to take their work.

They are known as "blackmarket typists" because their income runs far higher than the government-approved scale for office workers.

Because of the shortage of typewriters, the backlog of typing stacks up and foreign trade lags. Japanese officials are anxious to import a large number of American typewriters and applications to bring in English language machines have been filed with allied headquarters. Their efforts have been balked, the Japanese said, because of the allied belief that Japan should not import finished products at this time but should use her foreign credits for raw materials.

The Japanese, however, feel that a few thousand typewriters would speed up their economic recovery. Undoubtedly they will point that out to allied headquarters—when they can find a typist and a typewriter who currently is footing the bill here.

WESTERN EUROPE POWERS UNEASY ON AIR DEFENSES

By K. C. THALER United Press Staff Correspondent LONDON (U.P.) — Experts of the Western Union powers are studying the air defense of western Europe, it was revealed here co-incidentally with disclosure that Britain cannot at present provide enough planes of the transport type.

Britist experts estimated that Britain had less than 300 transport aircraft available for military emergencies and could not raise beyond 500 even by taking over the obsolescent fleets of the charter companies.

The Western Union powers naturally are leaning heavily in their plans on Britain's crack R.A.F. and Britist experts are urging the government to take up decisions on new types of planes "with all possible speed."

It was pointed out that against Britain's 300 planes the United States keeps a total of 1,000 available and would seek to expand it to 5,000 in event of war. That expansion, it was stressed, might make the United States unable to supply Britain as in the last war.

Appropriations Cut Government appropriations for the British air force in the current year have been reduced to a little under $600,000,000, against $850,000,000, last year. The number of personnel in the air services will be reduced this year to 226,000 against 274,000 hitherto.

According to official statements, all fighter command, interceptor squadrons have been re-equipped with the latest jet types, but the re-equipping of the bomber force with jet bombers has been deferred until the new jet engines have been fully proved. The re-equipping of the bomber squadrons with Lincolns is to be completed this year.

The Times aeronautical correspondent blamed existing shortcomings and difficulties on the indecision of government authorities.

In the field of civil aviation, he predicted that until they get completely satisfactory new types of aircraft, none of the three state-owned air line operating corporations will make any profit or even pay its way. The three companies are expected to have a deficit for the year which ended in March amounting to some $40,000,000.

Baby Joe Jackson of Odessa visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Jackson and family and also Dwayne of Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Robertson and children spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Parker of Westover. The children remained for a longer visit.

19,000 TUBE DEVICE WORKS FOR THE ARMY

WASHINGTON (UP)—ENIAC sometimes gets upset, and so does Dr. L. S. Dederick. ENIAC is a 19,000-tube "electronic numerical integrator and calculator." It solves tough problems in nuclear physics, rocket trajectory, and supersonic airflow at the Army's Aberdeen (Md.) proving ground. It is a mathematical wizard, but "it can be a headache, too," according to Dederick, its boss. "Any one of those 19,000 tubes can go wrong any time, and finding it is quite a problem," Dederick said.

Short Shift

Here's the latest in fashions for dreaming. This shorty nightgown, recently displayed in Chicago, is reportedly based on reports of such creations in Lana Turner's trousseau.

rick said. ENIAC is fast. It can multiply a couple of numbers and flash the answer in 1.350th of a second. That is 5,000 times as fast as the best desk calculator can do it. It also is smart. It can solve ordinary differential equations without blowing a single tube.

"But partial differential equations are too much to ask of ENIAC, although it can solve them in a pinch," Dederick said. Press it too hard, however, and ENIAC gets an electronic version of nervous indigestion. It becomes, in a word, "upset."

ENIAC's specialty is working with big numbers. It can do intricate computations in hours that would take a mathematician at his desk weeks to finish. As Dederick put it: "ENIAC is pushing back the frontiers of computational ability which have heretofore obstructed the advance of science."

The problems it is solving now "would be wholly impractical without ENIAC," Dederick said. So great is the demand on ENIAC's services that it is 2 years behind in its work. For that reason, Dederick takes great pains not to ask it relatively simple questions which lesser calculators might answer. "I once spent a month putting a problem to ENIAC," Dederick said. "It ran off the answer in half an hour. It was a waste of ENIAC's time."

Hearing Aid Too Good FITTSFIELD, Mass. (UP)—Robert C. DeSoto, a World War II veteran studying at a business college here, says his hearing aid works so well it keeps picking up programs of radio station WBEC, located in the same building as the school. He said radio engineers told him the only thing they could suggest was to "turn the volume down."

Are you planning to head for your favorite picnic spot this week-end? Then now's the time to head for the big round-up of picnic foods at your thrifty A&P. When you feast your eyes on these wonderful buys, I'm sure you'll agree that it's a picnic to shop at A&P.

"PICK-UP" PICNIC SALAD

If you like potato salad, but don't like being burdened with plates and forks when you go picnicking, here's how to turn it into finger fare: Place each portion on a slice of bologna, and roll to form a cornucopia. And if you want to add that "chef's touch" to your salad, be sure to make it with plenty of delicately spicy ANN PAGE FRENCH DRESSING from the A&P. It's simply delicious and a fine value, too.

THERMOS THREESOME

To fill picnickers with delight, fill your thermos with one of the 3 grand-tasting blends of A&P COFFEE . . . EIGHT O'CLOCK (mild), RED CIRCLE (medium) or BOKAR (strong)! They're all as fresh as all outdoors because A&P COFFEE is sold in the whole fresh bean. . . then Custom Ground before your eyes, just right for best results in your coffeemaker.

BREADS FOR SPREADS

Picnics call for good sandwiches, so I call for MARVEL breads at my A&P whenever there's an outing in the offing. For hearty sandwiches I choose crunchy-crust MARVEL RYE BREAD . . . for daintier ones, thin-sliced MARVEL SANDWICH BREAD and MARVEL RAISIN BREAD.

"OUTSIDE IN" CUP CAKES

Since frosting on the outside of picnic cup cakes usually ends up on the outside of picnic-goers, I cut off the tops of my cakes, put the frosting inside and replace the tops. For this "inside job" I melt 2 tbsps. shortening, remove from heat, and add 1/2 cup A&P's flavor-rich IONA COCOA, a dash of salt and 1/4 cup milk, stirring till thickened. Then I add 2 cups confectioners' sugar gradually and 1/2 tsp. vanilla, and beat well. This makes enough for a dozen medium-sized cup cakes.

Right now, while all this thinking and planning is going on, is the time to make sure that the house you build, or the one you remodel, will be wired to provide for FULL USE of your summer-comfort appliances.

Without adequate wiring—enough circuits to provide plenty of outlets and switches for your summer-comfort appliances without overloading and electric wires large enough to carry the increased load—your whole plan may be upset. ## Upset People Can Solve Problems By Talking It Out Experts Claim

By SHELDON GARBER
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 CHICAGO (UP) — The pass word among these personal problems experts is "mum's the word."

The counsellors are forbidden to give advice or make decisions for anyone who comes in with a problem.

Carl Rogers heads the clinic. It is run on the old-fashioned idea that people can solve their own problems. Rogers says it works, too. Even youngsters two or three years old can do it.

Listeners Can Tell
 The important thing is to have someone to talk to. The listener can't suggest an answer. But the counsellor is trained as a well-rounded psychologist. In listening, he can detect the attitudes the person with the problem is showing.

That's where the skill comes in. The counsellor must let the patient know what attitudes are being shown, without taking sides in the problem being struggled with.

"Once the clients learn to face their problems openly, whether they be marital, financial or one of a dozen others, and express these problems as they come up, none seem too big to handle," one of the staff observes.

Training the psychologist to keep out of the life of the person being helped is difficult. The clinic does it by wire recordings of the sessions. The transcriptions are played back and criticized and the methodology improved.

The fancy name for the idea is "non-directive technique." For the person with troubles, this is what it means:

You come to the clinic whenever you please or you can.

You talk about whatever you want to discuss.

You keep coming back until you want to stop.

If you're a child, there are simple games and toys to play with while you chatter to the counsellor.

Sounds easy, but one counsellor says it is really a painful process for a person to struggle with his own attitudes until he sees for himself the best way out.

Different Approach
 "But research shows that most people get better faster by selecting their own subject and talking about things as they see them," the counsellor said. "After all, they come here for a reason."

Staff members admit that the policy is a reaction to psychoanalysis and medical approach to personal difficulties.

"Those methods tried to do something to the person, like putting a bandage on a wound," a staff member says. "We try to work from the inside and get a person to work directly on his attitudes as he sees them."

"The other methods tend to strangle the initiative of an emotionally upset person."

Huge Expenditures Foreseen In State For Home Building

That yen for a cottage small will result in huge outlays for housing this year in Texas.

The state's urban residents will spend a whopping $281,750,000 for new homes during 1948 and will construct a total of more than 58,150 dwelling units, according to estimates released by the Tile Council of America. In 1947, 52,866 units were built in Texas cities, at a cost of $225,403, Government reports reveal.

"Home builders can expect an increase not only in the quantity of new houses this year, but also in quality," declared Malcolm Schweiker, chairman of the Council's residential construction committee.

Easing of the construction situation has resulted both from acceleration of apprentice training and increased building material output, according to Mr. Schweiker. For example, 2,000 men are training as tile setters and tile production is at record highs. This promises enough tile and tile setters to satisfy the nation's mounting demand for bathroom, kitchen and other home installations of tile, he said.

assure the construction field a good labor supply for 1948 and the years ahead," Mr. Schweiker declared.

About 550,000 of the 950,000 dwelling units to be constructed in the United States this year will go into urban area, the Tile Council estimates. Expenditures for new homes are expected to top $6,000,000,000, according to the Department of Commerce.

17-Year-Old Now Rates First Lady Of Philippines

By ROBERT BRONSON
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 MANILA (UP) — Vicky Quirino, the darling of Manila's bobby-soxer set, is the first lady of the Philippines.

The pretty, 17-year-old daughter of President Elpidio Quirino says she would rather roller skate than go to state banquets.

Nevertheless, she will be official hostess at Malacanan Palace, luxurious residence of Philippine presidents. She will approve palace menus, preside at formal dinners, dance the first dance and see the last diplomat through the door. She will sleep in a gilded chamber and ride in a black limousine with license plate "1-A."

She is the first lady because she is the only surviving female in the president's family. Her

THE RIGHT COMBINATION FOR FASTER FARMING

Ford + Dearborn
TRACTOR + FARM EQUIPMENT

● Faster 4-speed transmission means more acres per day.
 ● Dearborn implements, specially designed for the Ford Tractor, save time through Triple-Quick Attaching and Hydraulic Touch Control from the tractor seat.

Automotive type steering and Duo-servo brakes mean shorter turning, quicker stopping. Tractor and implements are designed for easier servicing. It all adds up to faster farming and more profit for you.

FORD FARMING Means less work... more income per acre

ASK US FOR A DEMONSTRATION
 We'll gladly bring a Ford Tractor out and let it speak for itself... without obligation. Parts and service for all Ford Tractors.
