Young Farmers Take Over; Do Splendid Job

Peanut harvesting at this season has its fascination for young and old around Long Branch.

Linnie Grace, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Almus Hastings, was too young by 12 days to enter school this year. But dolls and picture books and the like could not hold her interest. Not when the older people, with the aid of the humming thresher, were busy converting the peanut fields into bare land, after the sacks of goobers and bales of hay had been hauled away.

So Linnie brought pressure to bear on mother and daddy until she was permitted one day to drive the Farmall. It was carrying the trailer into which the peanut vines and fruitage were being hauled to the machine to be threshed.

Young Jimmy, a partner of his dad, Fred Wilson, sharecropper on the Jennings farm, philophizes that one does not need to outweigh a sack of flour, or outreach in height the length of a ward stick, to handle a tractor. And shifting gears or even machines is just a matter of fun for the little man. He had had an urge ever since he became five years of age (which incidentally was September 3, last) to run a tractor. And that dream came true a few days ago, when he prevailed on his parents to be allowed to accomplish that feat.

Soviet delegate Andrei Vishinsky ostentatiously reads a newspaper as US delegate Philip Jessup presents a detailed review of the Berlin crisis to the United Nations Security Council in Paris. At other times Vishinsky took notes, listened closely. Britain's Sir Alexander Cadogan is at right. — (NEA Radio-Telephoto).

Two New Wells Starting In The Kleiner Area

Two new wells are starting in the Kleiner area, where a new pool was opened recently from the Mississippi line, with a saturated section of as much as 160 feet.

An extension will be attempted by Texas Petroleum Trading Company's No. 1 F. W. Wright while the Lone Star Producing Company which discovered the pool will drill the No. 5-A J. E. Kincaid.

E. H. R. Sabens who recently struck new Ellenburger production in southern Stephens county will drill the No. 2 Ross Elliott, northwest of the discovery well.

A gasser has been completed in southern Stephens by Heinz and Sorrells, the No. 1 N. A. Brooks, making 5,890,000 cubic feet a day from the Ranger at 3,726-59 with 1,469 pounds pressure.

Seven Girls From This County Now At T. S. C. W.

Seven girls from Eastland County including three from Eastland are among the 2015 students enrolled at Texas State College for Women for the fall term.

Sipe Springs Area Gets 3,400 Foot Wildcat Oil Test

Sipe Springs, which recently attracted attention when T. A. Kirk drilled a gasser four miles to the north, is to have a wildcat three and a half miles to the southwest of the village, which is in Comanche County.

Newton & Hughes of Conroe have made location for the No. 1 C. W. and Guy Houser which is to be drilled to a depth of 3,400 feet by rotary.

The boom of Sipe Springs, over 25 years ago, was the result of several hundred shallow wells.

The Houser test is 1,650 feet from the south and 550 from the west line of Lot 22, League 1, Lampasas CSL.

Mixed Quartet Sings Sunday At Methodist Church

The Men's Class (9:49) of the Methodist Church is to be favored next Sunday morning at 9:45 with the singing of a quartet composed of Judge Rust, Clyde Fisher, and Mr. and Mrs. Webb of Cisco. These friends will be on their way to Rancier to attend the singing convention and will visit this class to give them a brief program of song at the above mentioned hour.

EASTLAND SEEKS THIRD IN ROW AGAINST PANTHERS TOMORROW

By MARVIN GROSS

Rolling on the crest of an infant winning streak—two straight—the Mavericks will rule heavy favorites tomorrow evening to up the count one against the Gorman Panthers at Maverick Field.

Jack Deavenport's Panthers haven't had much to smile about thus far this year listing a 13-13 deadlock with Strawn as their major accomplishment. Last Friday Gorman were torn to little bits by Ranger who galloped to a 51-0 victory.

"It's just games like this where confidence is usually the highest and the quality of play is the lowest," wailed Coach Seibert.

"I've seen too many games where one club reads how much better they are than their opponent and then go out and discover the other team doesn't read the papers."

"We should take this ball game for my gang has improved 100% in the last two weeks. But I'm not looking for a tea party. If Gorman gets few early breaks they might surprise," added Seibert.

The common yet unexplained cold has caught up with some of the Mavericks, possibly causing changes in the starting line-up. Captain Jack Kelly, the punishing 192-pound power runner was confined to his home yesterday and might be kept out of the Gorman tussle.

The Mavericks haven't been scrimmaging with same fire which characterized their play before the Winters and DeLeon battles but neither have they been listless or slipshod. They realize they have the upper hand in this one and don't expect too much trouble.

Seibert will again entrust his ground gaining duties to his top three runners—little fiery Margil Wadley, Jim Smith and Jack Kelly, if he sees action. Smith has run wild in the past two games with Wadley just a shade behind in efficiency.

With his ground attack clicking like a Deisel engine Seibert will probably steer clear of too many aerials. Quarterback Colonel Brashier has shown up well in practice drills but he'll be called upon to fling only when the running game hits a snag.

That line which made the DeLeon passer resemble raw hamburger after the game will see about spending some time in the Panther backfield tomorrow evening. Back at ends will be Mack Harris and Jimmy Spalding, two aggressive terminals.

Flanking Murray Herring at center will be J. C. Burke and Leonard Quarles at the guard spots. Starting tackles will be Dan Amis, a potential all-district selection and Bill Sikes, an 185-pound stalwart.

Those reserves who surprised all in the DeLeon rout will probably be called upon again if the Mavericks can run up an early lead. Which means little Tommy Velasco, a tricky passer and Roy Mitchell who scored twice last Friday will lead the second string offense. And Seibert is praying silently he'll get to run in these frisky junior Mavericks.

Local Group To Attend B'ridge Meeting Friday

A meeting of the district Workers' Council of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce will be held at Breckenridge at 2:00 o'clock Friday afternoon, October 8, at the Breckenridge Y. M. C. A. building.

Among those from Eastland expecting to attend the Breckenridge meeting are Fred Brown, W. R. Pickens, Grady Pipkin, T. E. Richardson and H. J. Tanner.

NO NEW HATS FOR A WHILE

NEW YORK, (UP) — Frank R. Chusiano 23, was sentenced to six months in prison for accepting bribes to find people apartments. He reneged on the promises. His attorney pleaded for leniency on the grounds that Chusiano had a wife "who liked $20 hats."

Donald Joiner Wins 2nd Place In Swine Show

Donald Lee Joiner, 4-H Club, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Joiner of Gorman took first place in the county and second place in the District Swine show at Abilene last Saturday according to the Eastland County Agent's office.

Donald Lee, with eight other 4-H Club boys in the county, received registered Duro-Jersey pigs last spring from the Sears foundation. Pigs from Eastland, Callahan, Taylor, Jones and Haskell counties were entered in the show it was said.

Gerald Williamson, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Williamson, Morton Valley won third place in the district show for boar pigs.

Clyde Douglas Herring, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sam W. Herring with his gilt won second place in the county showing. His pig, unfortunately, died from injuries received when the trailer became unhitched and bounced off in a ditch this side of Clyde Saturday afternoon on the way home. He will receive another pig next spring reported J. M. Cooper, County Agent.

Other boys who showed their pigs were Joe Ed Reynolds, son of Mrs. W. E. Reynolds, Kokomo; Danny Donaldson, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Donaldson, Kokomo; and James Butler, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Butler of Gorman.

Boys who failed to show their pigs were Fred Rogers, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Rogers, Alameda; James Riggs, son of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Riggs, Desdemona and Bob Freeman, son of Mrs. C. B. Freeman of Pioneer.

Each of the boys with gilt pigs will return a pig to Cooper, next spring to perpetuate the program.

Concert Season Tickets To Be Mailed Out Soon

Officials of the Eastland County Community Concert Association announced today that membership cards for the concert season will be mailed out soon and pointed out that memberships are available for newcomers to the county who were not here when the membership drive was staged in the spring.

Local Chairman from whom the memberships may be secured are for Ranger, Mrs. David D. Pickrell; for Eastland, Mrs. Clyde Grissom and for Cisco, Mrs. E. L. Graham. The membership cards have arrived and will be mailed out well in advance of the first concert which is on December 6 and at which time the Bary Ensemble, an all girl organization which will present instrumental music, will be heard.

Three concerts will be given this year and the other two besides the Bary Ensemble are on March 15, the Teletchniks, a duo-piano team and on March 28th, John Sebastian, harmonica virtuoso.

All three concerts come to the association with the highest recommendations from the bookers as well as from audiences which have heard them.

Admission to all concerts is by membership card only. No tickets are sold at the door, nor for any single concert in advance.

Eastland Meeting Discusses Hi-way 80 Advertising

Representatives from the Ranger, Eastland and Cisco Chambers of Commerce met Monday night at the Eastland Chamber of Commerce offices for the purpose of discussing advertising plans for United States Highway 80.

The erection of a large illuminated sign located somewhere along the route between Weatherford and Fort Worth, was considered.

The purpose of the sign of course would be to sell tourists on the advantages of driving Highway 80 from Fort Worth to El Paso.

IN THIRD ATTACK ACCUSES U. S. AGAIN OF PREPARING FOR WAR

Bill Brashier Showing Well In NTSTC Football

The slender right arm of Quarterback Bill Brashier may give North Texas State's Lone Star Conference opponents plenty to worry about in a year or so, sideline quarterbacks at North Texas are commenting.

A two-year letterman at Eastland High School in football, basketball and track before entering North Texas this fall, Brashier is fast gaining acclaim as a fine sophomore passer. He is a member of the squad which left Tuesday for Reno, Nev., to play the University of Nevada Saturday afternoon on the latter's home field.

Since he is understudying North Texas' ace tosser Zeke Martin, Brashier's duty this year will probably be limited to B team games. Also ahead of him is speedy Bibby Furrh, a North Texas veteran who employs speed and finesse from the up-man spot in the T-formation used by Coach Odus Mitchell.

Brashier was the whole show against the NTAC club when the Eagles' B club played Arlington club recently. He ran the T-formation like a veteran, Mitchell said, and his choice of plays was excellent. Not merely a passer but a fine kicker, Brashier has continued to amaze spectators with booming 70-yard kicks in daily practice sessions. He got off an 80-yard kick—in the air not counting the bounce—last week. It was one of the longest ever booted on the Eagle field.

Brashier, a sophomore, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Brashier Eastland.

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP) — The man missed $41 from his purse, saw a shadowy figure on the roof next door and called police. A 17-year-old youth was jailed. Parents of the embarrassed youth got him out with an explanation: he was not a burglar; he was on the roof playing hide-and-seek with his bride.

Commissioners' Court May Call County Beer Election Monday

Eastland County Clerk, W. V. Love, whose duty is to check the names appearing on a petition recently filed calling for a beer election in Eastland County, states that his investigation will be completed this afternoon but that he has progressed far enough with his checking to determine that the names of the required number of legally qualified voters appear on the petition.

PARIS, Oct. 7 (UP) — The United States is preparing for atomic war, Russian delegate Andrei A. Vishinsky charged again today in an arm-waving, vitriolic speech before the political committee of the United Nations.

Denouncing the world's "mad armaments race," Vishinsky referred to the headquarters of the U. S. Department of the Army in the Pentagon Building in Washington in these terms:

"In the Pentagon there are people who are men of action of military trade who are preparing a new war, working out plans for 50 years ahead."

Insisting that the atomic bomb is an "aggressive weapon" only, the Soviet deputy foreign minister cried:

"Those who don't want to spread mastery over foreign territory don't need to clutch this weapon for attack."

It was Vishinsky's first UN speech since Tuesday, when he announced that Russia would boycott Security debate on the Berlin crisis, in which the Western Powers charged Russia with threatening the peace by the blockade of the German capital.

He opened debate in the political committee on the Russian proposal for one-third disarmament within one year by the big five powers.

Taking the floor after Vishinsky, British Delegate Hector McNeill challenged the Soviet Union to prove its disarmament proposal sincere, and warned the UN to "look this particular Russian gift horse very carefully in the mouth."

He called Vishinsky's proposal "not realistic not even a method calculated to create the confidence without which disarmament cannot proceed," and branded the Soviet move as "propaganda."

The speeches of the two men more even hitherto events made even before this third UN General Assembly session opened less than two weeks ago — that the UN cannot do anything about disarmament with the temper of the world as it is.

As he spoke, the United States and its Western Allies were seeking new deals with the Soviet Union on two of the most explosive issues before the UN — The Berlin cold war and control of atomic energy.

In the Berlin case, the west seemed likely to support a Security Council resolution asking Russia to accept an American offer of a big four foreign ministers conference on German problems "the moment" the Soviet blockade is lifted.

In the atomic question, the west had agreed reluctantly to spend another year seeking an international control agreement satisfactory to Russia.

Sports Note of 1948
BOSTON, (UP) — A copy of the Boston Almanac for 1948, dug up by William Harrington, contained the following sports note: "Horn Pond House at Woburn, having got a bad reputation, it being the resort of 150 people, Mr. Sheriff Choate pounced upon them and arrested 8000 gamblers, who had 23 figurine cocks, valued at $1,500."

This will be one of a series of 13 district meetings being held throughout Texas during the month of October, for the purpose of bringing farmers and ranchmen first-hand information on the immediate agricultural situation, and the economic conditions of the Nation as a whole, and get the thinking from the grass-roots with reference to agricultural matters.

Here may be your opportunity to do your "Daily Good Deed."

A mother, whose home is not in Eastland but who is here to have her baby treated by a local doctor, must carry the baby in her arms several blocks daily to and from the doctor's office. Friends think it would be nice and helpful if she had a baby buggy to transport the baby in and without her knowledge have undertaken to find one for her and asked the Telegram to help. If you have any suggestions please call the Telegram office. This is by no means a charity case but a case in which a person wanted to do their "Daily Good Deed."

Love stated that in all probability he would turn the petition over to the Commissioners' court this afternoon for their consideration at their meeting next Monday.

Texas Alloted $55 Million For Flood Control

AUSTIN, Tex. Oct. 7 (UP)—Almost $55,000,000 has been earmarked for navigation and flood control work in Texas this fiscal year, Col. Henry Hutchings, Jr., southwest division engineer of the U. S. Corps of Engineers, said today.

Addressing a meeting of the Texas Water Conservation Association, Hutchings said the figure represented an increase of $22,000,000 over the previous fiscal year. And the amount available for Texas accounts for nearly half of the total for the southwestern division, composed of Texas, Arkansas, Oklahoma and New Mexico. The total is more than $121,000,000.

"It places Texas in the front ranks of navigation and flood control construction throughout the nation," Hutchings said.

He told the water conservation group that "our construction program is on schedule," with completion of Hord's Creek dam and Addicks dam, Benbrook.

Completion of present projects,

HAIR-BREADTH HARRY

In "the worst droughts of record" he pointed out, had existing reservoirs and Benbrook dam been completed, their conservation storage would have provided water for a Fort Worth population of 825,000.

And the existing Dallas reservoirs, with completion of Grapevine and Garza-Little Elm, could have cared for a population of 1,000,000, he said.

Bogart reported. The actor trampled the snake to death, lanced the dog's nose and hustled it to a vet.

A few minutes later a wildcat attacked the other boxer in the backyard, then headed for the hills when Bogart fired four shots with his .22 rifle.

Bogart's wife, actress Lauren Bacall, slept through it all.

Guy E. Warden, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Warden, of Eastland and Carol Sue Tidwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Tidwell of Desdemona, will represent the Eastland County 4-H Clubs at the state fair at Dallas which opens Saturday with exhibits.

Guy will exhibit his 1,200 pound steer, "Bulldog" which was shown at both Ranger and Cisco shows last spring while Miss Tidwell will exhibit a total of twenty bronze baby beef type turkeys. Ten of the turkeys will be toms.

Young Warden had three calves entered in the two stock shows in the County last spring but sold two of them at the auction at the conclusion of the Cisco show keeping one back with the intention of showing at the State Fair. So far as is known his animal is the only one to be entered from Eastland County at the Fair. Jim Tom Warden, elder brother of Guy's, will help him take the 18 months old calf to Dallas.

Both the calf as well as the turkeys will be sold at the conclusion of the show.

THE STORY: Hilary Shenstone, British secret agent, lies wounded in the Indian desert, beside a crashed plane, after completing a dangerous mission. He thinks of Nuns Farthing, his home in the English countryside, and feels a desperate need to get back there. He doesn't know that the house has been let and that dreams, 17-year-old Sabrina, whom he has never met, has adopted his old room and eagerly awaits his return. "Things have been to slip Hilary..." He tells the pilot with him, as they await rescue.

VIII
 PERHAPS it was a dream and he would wake up soon in his narrow bed in Peshawar. . . .
 Mist was creeping in over the Embankment from the River. Not an old-fashioned fog, for it was June in London. This was just a white blur, hanging still and muggy—a come-by-chance summer-mist.
 Big Ben had just struck 10 p. m. when he passed Cleopatra's Needle and glanced up into the calm, beauteous face of one of the attendant sphinxes.
 "Do you think, if I'm very careful, I can get as far as the club and have a drink there before I wake up?" Hilary inquired of it, and there was naturally no reply. "I'm going to try, anyway. I'd like to see London again, even if it's only a dream," he told the sphinx, and moved away westward, into the mist.
 As he turned into Northumberland Avenue, Hilary caught sight of Nelson on his column. No mist in Trafalgar Square. That was queer. London was suddenly in sharper focus as he reached Cockspur Street and heard taxi horns and passed a policeman with a short rolled mackintosh hooked to his belt in a normal sort of way, and noticed that the pavement was up to the Haymarket as usual.
 But it was still rather like a dream, to sight the Carlton again, with F. J. Mall just ahead. . . .

"Sh!" said George. "Not so loud, Hilary moves in a cloud these days. One of those hush-hush expeditions up north."
 "Oh, I say, have they given him another one of those nasty Border jobs?"
 "Don't feel sorry for him, he loves it," objected Hilary's brother. "Keep the flag flyin'—that sort of thing! Hilary's exactly like father, and father might have been something that Kipling wrote."

"If you live long enough," Calthorpe told him with studied kindness, "you'll be able to see that men like your father and Hilary are an important part of England's survival."
 "I suppose so," George agreed heavily. "I suppose one should give thanks fasting even for death and taxes!"
 "Oh, taxes!" murmured Totleigh. "You've got a tenant for Nuns Farthing, what are you grouting about?"
 "You've let Nuns Farthing, George?"
 "Yes, and that's a piece of luck if you like! Wish he'd buy instead of letting. Rum old blighter out of the British Museum. With a couple of unfortunate female belongings, sister and a kid. Must be nice for them!"
 "I used to go down there quite a lot before the War," mused Calthorpe. "You and Hilary and Alice were children. Used to have tea under a big tree on the lawn."
 He pulled himself out of reverie with a long sigh. "Ah, well, something like those days will come again, please God! Don't you sell the place, George. You hang on to it for your old age!"
 "Yes, and pay taxes on it meanwhile!" growled George. "But try and get mother to live there! Or Alice either, for that matter!"
 He rose, with an ill-smothered yawn. "Hilary can have it," he said, "for his old age! Good-night sir."
 They waited in noncommittal silence till he was quite gone. Then they looked at each other, and old Lord Totleigh's quizzical brows went still higher.
 "He's right about Alice, anyway," he admitted. "She doesn't like living in the country."

Benedictines At Work Preparing Revised Version Of Catholic Bible

By JOSEPH J. BAICICH
United Press Staff Correspondent
ROME (UP)—Twenty Benedictine monks are toiling on one of the most monumental scholastic tasks of all time, the production of a true version of the official Roman Catholic Bible. For nearly 50 years now, the specially-trained philologists of the French St. Jerome Monastery in Rome have been at their job. The first seven books of the Old Testament have been revised and published in a new edition for scholars only.

The monks expect to be at the work 20 years from now. But time is of no importance to them in their modern book-lined library, where their laborious study of ancient biblical manuscripts is so exacting that they can work only three hours a day.

The great work began about the turn of the century. Pope Pius XI decided that the official Roman Catholic Bible—the Latin Vulgate edition, as it is called—needed revision. The objective was stated simply: to produce the best possible critical edition, one that would come as close as possible to St. Jerome's translation of the Bible from Hebrew.

St. Jerome's work of the 4th century has never been found, but present-day editions of the Bible stem from translations or reproductions of his work that were passed down through the ages. The scholars of the Catholic Church believed that it left room for various translation errors, which the monks of St. Jerome hope to correct.

The abbot of the monastery, Father Pierre Salmon, directs the great project. He said the nature of the work makes it almost exclusively for scholars but, "It is expected to be the cornerstone of any future scholarly critical editions of the Bible, whether Catholic or Protestant."

The work began with a worldwide search for all ancient manuscripts which formed the basis for present Bibles, including the Clementine edition of 1505, which is the currently-accepted

Latin Vulgate Bible of the Catholic Church. Not even the scholarly edition had access to all the information the St. Jerome monastery gathered.

Old parchment manuscripts, documents written on leather hides, all handwritten and scrawled in a variety of script, faded with time, marred by the foraging trail of worms, all in Latin and all dated from the seventh to the 14th centuries, were carefully gathered by the advance guard of experts. The best documents were found in Italy, but other important ones came from France, Britain, Ireland and southern Germany and one from Russia.

Crews of experts looked over the documents on the spot. The best were photographed and the photostat copies sent on to the St. Jerome Monastery.

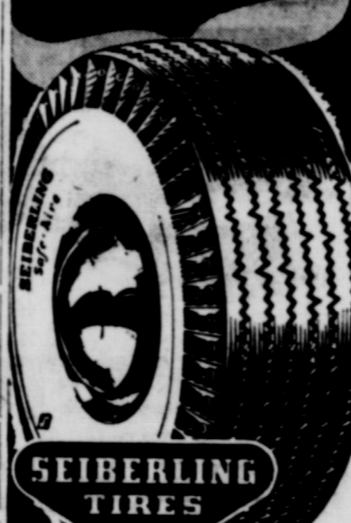

The scholars were trained in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, French, German and English—and the Semitic languages of Aramaic and Chaldean—before they set to work. Over the years, some of the monks have grown old on the job, others have had to give up the exacting work and have been replaced by carefully-trained substitutes.

When the work was in its early stages, the monks used to use magnifying glasses to help them read the ancient manuscripts. But the smallness of the scripts in many cases and the photostatic inversion of white handwriting on black background, made the eye-strain terrific. That is why a three-hour work day is all one man can stand.

"We prefer to read with the Father Salmon said. "We have naked eye, whenever possible," learned that a magnifying glass destroys our eyesight after a few years."

INJURED COWS GIVE CLUE TO TREATMENT OF HUMAN PATIENTS

ANN ARBOR (UP)—A chance discovery of profuse bleeding in cows which had been scratched led to the development of a drug which prevents serious complications from blood clots in humans, University of Michigan Hospital doctors report.

The drug, dicumarol, was detected in 1941 at the University of Wisconsin. Cows which had eaten spoiled sweet clover bled abnormally after being caught on barbed wire.

The drug has been useful in major operations, after childbirth in heart disease and with patients who have been bedridden for a long time, according to Dr. Ivan F. Duff, assistant professor in internal medicine.

Specifically, dicumarol lessens the body's capacity to manufacture prothrombin, one of the components of the clotting mechanism.

The damage from clot formation arises from the tendency of the clot and circulate to the lungs, where it may cut off the activity of a large part of the lung and cause death, Dr. Duff said. He added:

"Since dicumarol does not take effect until 36 to 48 hours after it has been given, we sometimes use another drug, heparin, with it. Heparin, obtained from beef liver, immediately increases the time it takes blood to clot. The heparin is discontinued after a day or two when the dicumarol has become effective."

The majority of the patients treated with the drugs were suffering from venous thrombosis, which is primarily the development of soft, easily dislodged clots in the large blood vessels of the legs.

Dr. Duff reported that complications in patients with that affliction treated at the university hospital were reduced to six per cent by use of the drugs.

Generally good results were reported by other university doctors in 275 cases.

But Dr. Duff warned that the drugs "are not a cure, but a preventive."

ONE MAN HAS JOB PUTTING HIROSHIMA TOGETHER AGAIN

By Earnest Hoberecht
United Press Staff Correspondent

HIROSHIMA (UP)—Major S. A. Jarvie has the task of putting this atom-bombed city back together—and his job is to see that it gets built right.

Hiroshima, like all other oriental cities, grew from a village to a city with no planning. The streets were narrow, there was no sanitation system.

Since the slum clearance work of the atomic bomb, which also cleared the better section of town too, the opportunity has arisen to do a little scientific planning. That is what Major Jarvie is doing now.

The major, an Australian army engineer, works closely with Mayor Shinzo Hamai and Yutaka Terada, chairman of the city council.

The major draws up the plans.

Hamai and Terada, who are real go-getters, pound the ideas into the heads of other city officials and the residents of the city.

They make up a three-man team that is determined to make Hiroshima the most modern city in the Far East.

"It may take 20 years," says Jarvie.

"About 50," says Hamai. "It is rather hard at times to get all the money we need."

"Never mind," puts in Terada, "well do it—sooner or later."

The plans being worked out by Jarvie call for broad highways, modern sewage facilities, parks and all the other latest western civic developments.

Here are some of the things the new city will have:

- 1. A modern civic center.
- 2. A first class water system.
- 3. Modern transportation facilities.

4. Western style house numbering and street names.
5. Zoning to keep the factory section confined to one area.
6. An atomic bomb memorial park.

The major is eager to have trees in the new Hiroshima. He wants the Japanese to learn to paint the outside of their houses, instead of leaving the natural wood exposed to the elements.

"Not only will paint make their houses last longer," he pointed out, "but a little color will go a long way toward giving these people a better outlook on life."

Tulane Boys Create Own Video Station

NEW ORLEANS (UP)—White commercial operators argued about the high cost of television, four students at Tulane University put a transmitter on the air for $200.

With their $200, they are operating an amateur station, W5VU. It uses a wavelength outside the commercial television band and must be picked up on a special receiver.

The students are Cameron Byrne, Fred Schmidt and John Tallant of New Orleans, and Hal Becker of Lakeshore, Miss. Their station would have cost them $1,050, but a "friend of the university" contributed an $850 camera tube.

So their actual cash outlay was $200, all spent for tubes and parts in radio shops in New Orleans. It took them 1,500 man-hours of work to get their transmitter going.

Now that it is working, they and commercial engineers estimate it to be worth $100,000. More than 100 radio and television men,

Olden Hornets Defeat Albany, Score 26 To 6

The Olden Hornets won their second victory of the present football season Thursday night when they defeated the Albany "B" team by a score of 26 to 6. The game was played at Albany.

Features of the game were scoring of Holt on a punt returned early in the first quarter and that of J. Tyrone on a center plunge in the second quarter, a pass by A. Edwards to Holt for three yards, touchdown in the third quarter and a long run by Holt in the third quarter for the fourth score. Albany scored in the fourth quarter late in the game.

Langston, Renfro and Adams were Olden "standouts" on defense. They were in on most of the tackles.

Robert Clinton, Eastland musician, at the piano played E-Flat Prelude by Mach, Cromatic Etude, by Chopin, Revolutionary Etude by Chopin and for an encore E Minor Waltz.

Mrs. F. L. Dragoo gave the invocation at the dinner which was served at tables decorated with marigolds as a centerpiece. The honoree guests, Mrs. Richardson, Mrs. Dragoo and Mr. and Mrs. Clinton, were seated at the long table which was laid in white linen.

Texas Gets First Freezing Weather

By United Press
The mercury dropped to 27 degrees at Dalhart early today, the lowest reading reported this fall, with Clarendon reporting 32. Light frost in exposed places in the Panhandle has forecast for tonight.

Temperatures today and tonight will be somewhat cooler than yesterday when many points reported readings in the 80s and 90s. Laredo had a maximum of 95 degrees and Dallas 91.

This morning's 32 at Clarendon did not represent a cross-section of the state as the cool front had hit only parts of Texas.

The weather bureau's forecast yesterday, of rain for parts of east Texas did not pan out. Skies today generally were fair with nearly all the state experiencing some fall weather.

BRITISH IN 'SILENT WAR' ON MALAYAN INSURGENTS

By ARNOLD C. BRACKMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
KUALA LUMPUR, Malaya (UP)—The British are fighting a vest-pocket, shadow war in Malaya.

They call it a war; they call their opponents the enemy. But it is a war without fronts, mass battle, aerial opposition.

The war is fought on rubber estates, around tin mines and along modern highways running through jungle terrain. It takes on the form of short-lived engagements between pockets of insurgents and combined British army and civil police forces.

It is the war of the ambush, the sneak attack, the night raid. The "enemy," has no capital, no government, no manifesto or established program no internationally known leader.

It consists of some 6,000-odd men, mainly Chinese, who fought in the anti-Japanese underground during the war as members of the Malayan People's Anti-Japanese Army (MPAJA). Its leadership is drawn mainly from the Malayan Communist Party.

Most informed opinion describes the insurgent revolt as springing from a combination of post-war social unrest, Communist inspiration and general gangsterism.

The British are adamant in their contention that the insurgent goal is the creation of a "Malayan Soviet Republic" or Communist police state.

Authoritative quarters in Kuala Lumpur, capital of the Malay Federation, expects the present "Bandit suppression" campaign to last about 16 months.

The biggest obstacle the British face in stamping out the current reign of terror in Malaya is tracking down the guerrilla in the jungle.

The jungles are back-firing. In 1941 the British pinned their hopes upon the jungle in an effort to stop the Japanese advance down the scimitar-shaped peninsula, but now Britain's enemy is pinning its hopes for victory upon the jungle.

Insurgents, after an attack disappear as swiftly as they appear — thanks to the jungle terrain.

Against the insurgent bands, the English have an estimated force of 15,000 men.

They conduct daily clearing sweeps and raids. They make daily arrests. Thousands of persons have been screened hundreds detained. Now national registration is being undertaken.

The British announced plan is to keep the insurgents moving, to deprive them of food and recruits to break up their concentrations, to bring them to battle unprepared, to drive them into the jungle and there track them down.

And against this background is the cocky British attitude:

You'd Like Pinon Nuts, New Mexico Thinks

LAS CRUCES, N. M. (UP)—Two New Mexico A. & M. scientists believe there is a great future ahead for the pinon nut.

Pinon nuts grow wild and are as common in New Mexico as acorns in other parts of the nation. But the pinon never has been regarded as a crop.

C. W. Botkin and L. B. Shires of the New Mexico agricultural experiment station believe New Mexico could raise its income by selling the nuts.

The nuts could be stored for as long as three years in the New Mexico climate. They contain more food value than many of the better-known commercial nuts popular around the world, the scientists said.

Spahn and Lemon Mound Choices

BOSTON, Oct. 7 (UP)—The brilliant pitching which marked the first game figured to continue in the World Series today as Warren Spahn of the Boston Braves faced Bob Lemon of the Cleveland Indians.

It didn't figure to be a thriller like yesterday when Johnny Sain bested Bobby Feller to give the Braves a 1 to 0 victory in one of the best hurling duels in series history. But Spahn and Lemon are pretty close to being as good as they come, and if they are in form this afternoon it could be another battle that will go down to the wire.

Lemon, who was the strong man on the Cleveland mound corps in mid-season when Feller faulted, won 20 games this season—the first man in the majors to attain that mark in 1948—while Spahn won 15 for the Braves. Many of them in the street drive in which Boston overhauled the Dodgers to win the National League pennant. Spahn lost 11, Lemon 14. It had been an off-season for Spahn, who won 21 in 1947. He had trouble regaining his effectiveness after a bad start, but he came along fast toward's season end, and in his own words, "is ready."

When right, he is tough to beat. He has a deceptive delivery, snapping his throws, giving the batter no chance to get set. He has a fast ball a tough screw ball, and, usually good control.

BARONS STOP CATS, 5-3, NEED ONE MORE VICTORY

FORT WORTH, Tex. Oct. 7 (UP)—The Birmingham Barons of the Southern Association after La Grave Field in Fort Worth tonight needing only one more victory over the Fort Worth Cats for the 1948 Dixie Series title.

The Barons made it three straight over the Cats last night, 5 to 3, behind the five-hit pitching of Harry Dorish, to forge ahead in the series, 3 games to one. Fort

Bob Crues of Amarillo Gold Sox in Class C West Texas-New Mexico League tied the organized baseball record of 69 home runs in the season just ended. The 29-year-old outfielder equaled the round-trip mark established in 1933 by Joe Hauser with Minneapolis of the American Association.

Worth won the first game of the round-robin seven series when they won in Birmingham.

It was sweet revenge last night for the Barons, for the pitcher who licked the min their home town, Eddie Lyons, started for the Cats and was knocked out of the box in the first frame. George Brown came in as relief hurler and kept the Birmingham batters under control until he left the game in the eighth inning for a pinch-hitter, Van Cuyk pitched the final inning for the Cats.

The Barons scored three runs in the first inning, one in the second and one in the eighth. Fort Worth scored single runs in the second, third and sixth frames.

The victory was twice-sweet for the Birmingham pitcher. Dorish was the victim of the Cat's 5 to 1 triumph in the first game. A double by Eddie Lyons in the second inning gave Dorish two of the three runs scored in that frame and the right-hander never got behind.

Fort Worth scored in the second on a hit by Gino Marionetti, tallied again in the third on a four-play blow by George Schmees, and got their final run—in the sixth—when Dee Fondy tripled and came home on a long fly.

If more games are needed after tonight's battle, play will be resumed in Birmingham Saturday. Friday will be an off-day.

To Reorganize Tamale Circuit

SAN LUIS POTOSI, Mexico, Oct. 7 (UP)—It looked today as if Jorge Pasquel's Mexican Baseball League, which folded up last month, might be revived under a new direction next season.

A group of wealthy baseball men, headed by industrialist Anuar Canavati, were trying to reorganize the league as a corporation with club owners sharing jointly in the profits or losses of the league.

The group would attempt to limit the power held by Pasquel as president of the league. It was proposed that a directive council be set up whose decisions would have more power than those of the president. In the past, Pasquel, whose pesos lured many big league players from the United States during the war has been accused of running the league in dictator fashion.

Golfer Fires Ace In Tourney Play

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Oct. 7 (UP)—The Championship flight in the state senior golf tournament at San Antonio Country Club was narrowed to eight players today, but the spectators were talking about another event instead.

J. T. Carrell of Dallas, playing in the last round flight—lowest bracket in the tourney—teed off yesterday on the first hole and made a hole in one at 181 yards. He was the man in the spotlight, outshining even the top-bracket eight.

In the top flight, Willie Hunt of Houston, defending champion, stayed in the running by defeating J. P. Razor of Houston, 6 and 4.

M. P. Wilson of San Antonio who dropped medalist Tom Ahearn of Houston Tuesday, defeated R. D. Humphries of Houston, 5 and 3.

Remaining in the top division were Hunt, Wilson, Ed Anderson of Houston, Ed Tyre of Houston

Texas Stock Rises As Injuries Lessen

AUSTIN, Tex., Oct. 7 (UP)—The University of Texas Longhorns boosted their hopes today for Saturday's game in Dallas with the University of Oklahoma. The Longhorn injury roster was cut from four to two.

Center Dick Harris and end Ben Procter were being counted on for at least partial service Saturday. However, fullback Tommy Landry and tackle Ed Kelley still were on the sidelines and not expected to play.

Coach Blair Cherry said Texas still would depend on several sophomores, particularly on defense.

Little Toes Shrinking

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo. (UP)—Future Americans may have no little toes if the present trend continues, in the opinion of E. Frederick A. Pelletier, a local chiropodist. Pelletier says many little toes "gradually have last one of three bones because of the shoe styles and disease."

Cub Scout at 106

WATERLOO, Ore. (UP)—The Waterloo Club Scout pack claims to have the oldest "cub" in the world on its membership roster. He is James W. Smith, Civil War veteran who will be '96 this month. He has been formally inducted into the organization.

Cole D. Ions of Fort Worth, Wilson Frank Stacy of Austin, The Handy of Houston, and A. C. January of Dallas.

Frogs Make Changes For Indiana Game

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 7 (UP)—Only one injury was reported from the Texas Christian University grid camp today as the club entrained for Bloomington, Ind., and Saturday's game with Indiana.

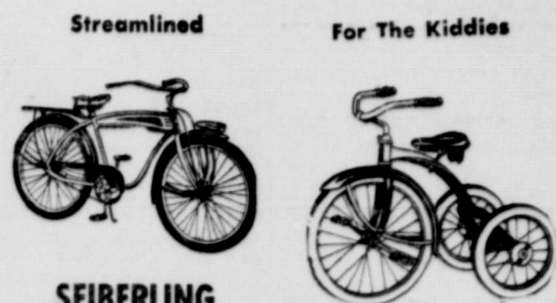

Bob Moorman starting end, showed up at yesterday's final practice with a bruised leg but probably will see some action in Coach Dutch Meyer's revised lineup Saturday.

In the week's closing workout, Meyer shifted co-capt. George

Brown to left tackle on defense with Billy Willingham taking over on offense, and Orin Broppig was inserted into the starting backfield in place of Dave Blagdon, who will go in as defensive line backer.
