Clean-up Drive To Begin Today; All Urged To Help

Eastland's annual clean-up campaign, sponsored this year again by the Civic League and Garden Club, will begin Friday.

Eastland citizens were asked to gather up rubbish, dead tree limbs, and any kind of unsightly trash in the vicinity of their premises and place it in the alleyways or at the curb to be hauled away.

City Manager Earl O'Brien said the city will cooperate as usual in the campaign.

Beginning Monday, April 8, he said, city trucks will pick up the trash in the part of town north of Commerce Street. The following week, beginning Monday, April 11, they will work the part of town south of Commerce Street.

Mrs. H. L. King, chairman of the Civic League and Garden Club clean-up committee, said that some owners in the two sections of town should have the rubbish picked up as soon as possible so it can be picked up by the city's trucks on their first rounds, as it is doubtful that they will make a second trip.

Mrs. King's committee will meet at 3 p. m. Monday at the Farmers Club to complete plans for the clean-up drive.

Other members are Mesdames James Horton, Victor Cornelius, Henry Pullman, C. W. Hoffmann, Gerald Wingate, Homer Smith, Frank Day, Earl Conner, Jr., J. C. Don Hill, R. C. Ferguson, Grady Pipkin and Frank Castleberry.

Bob Emfinger Loses Arm In Accident

Bob Emfinger of Morton Valley had his right arm mangled in an accident in Eastland Thursday morning which necessitated being removed just above the elbow.

Members of the family said later he was doing as well as could be expected in Ranger General Hospital in Ranger, where the operation was performed.

The accident occurred while Emfinger and his father-in-law, O. Williamson of Morton Valley, were drilling a water well for the Massengale at the Massengale home on South Bassett street. Emfinger's arm became caught in a belt on the drilling machine.

Williamson rushed him to a doctor here, where he was given first aid, and then he was taken to the hospital.

Emfinger, veteran of World War I, was married to Miss Darrell Williamson of Morton Valley a year ago.

B. Norton Dies; Burial Set For Friday

Funeral services for S. B. Norton, 61, resident of Eastland for 41 years, will be held today at 2:30 p. m. in the Hammett funeral chapel.

Mr. Norton died unexpectedly about 9 p. m. Wednesday in his home just east of Eastland on the Power Plant road, following a heart attack.

Survivors include his widow, daughter, Mrs. Howard Justice Bishop, and two sons, W. B. Oiden and Wilbert E. Norton of Odessa, and two brothers, A. Norton of New London and Zack Norton of Mexico.

Mr. Norton was a brother also of the late "Uncle John" Norton, who served for some 35 or 40 years as custodian of the Eastland County Courthouse.

Rev. L. M. Chapman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, and Dr. F. Vermillion, retired Baptist minister, will officiate. Burial will be in the Eastland Cemetery.

For many years Mr. Norton lived in Olden, where he engaged in truck farming and as a trucking contractor. Only a short time ago he sold his interests in Olden and bought what is known as the "New" place, where he had lived since. He was born in Lime Grove, Eastland County and came to Eastland County in 1908.

Sidel Issues

By HENRY G. VERMILLION

Last week in this space I advertised for a society editor, and the results were rather astonishing, even to one who believes in the power of advertising as I do.

I selected one of the applicants, and we'll announce later who it is. To the rest of the applicants, I wish to say thank you, and I'm sorry I didn't have that many jobs open.

In the meantime, Mrs. Bill Walters, Jr., is filling in on the social news, and doing a right good job, too, we believe.

Charlie Lucas of Eastland and Lucas's store is ready to admit now that The Eastland County Record does get around.

He got a letter from one Alzamon Ira Lucas, Ph. D., Psy. D., D.D., National High Priest of the League of Nations, Pan-American Indians, of Richmond, Va., saying that the Virginia Lucas, also an Indian chief, had read a copy of The Eastland County Record and seen the large advertisement for Lucas's carried therein.

The Indian Lucas, who also told of having Spanish, Dutch, and possibly other strains of ancestry, chided the Eastland Lucas about the plural form used in his store name, and advised him to change it forthwith to Lucas' instead of Lucas's. In fact, he almost ordered him to do it.

But there is scant chance of that happening soon. For one thing, Charlie Lucas of Eastland is convinced he's right, having consulted local English teachers and other authorities before he made up his mind. And for another thing, he's got several hundred dollars tied up in Lucas' and other advertisements that give the name as Lucas's. So it would cost him a pretty penny to change his mind now.

The time is rapidly nearing when all danger of a frost will be over, unless this is one of those abnormal years when none of the rules are obeyed, and it looks now as if the fruit trees of the county will bear all they can after two years of drought.

The peach and other blossoms were not as profuse this year as they have been in the past, but that may not indicate much of anything. However, it seems a fair bet that the trees will bear fairly lightly this year to permit them to regain strength after the long dry spell had drained them so.

Old Mother Nature is wise in ways of keeping her children in good health for a normal life span, and despite all the efforts man puts out to circumvent her, the old dame goes right on with the programs that were worked out milleniums before man ever had enough sense to try to intervene.

The Red Cross, which had been having rough going in its funds campaign in Eastland County, possibly shamed some of the donors by the speed with which it went into action after the tornado hit Desdemona Friday of last week.

Within the hour, the Red Cross disaster chairman was on the job, and only a little while after that, relief work had started at the scene.

Nurses came in, supplies were

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins Buy Still Jewelry

Mr. and Mrs. Percy Wilkins this week announced purchase of Still's Jewelry in Eastland from J. D. Still of El Paso.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilkins will operate the store themselves, and will employ J. C. Still as watchmaker, they said.

The new owners have been living recently in San Francisco, but for 20 or more years before that had operated a jewelry store in Superior, Ariz.

They said they plan to install complete lines of nationally known lines of diamonds, sterling and plate silver, watches, and other jewelry items.

In addition, they will maintain a complete and up-to-date watch repair department with all the newest equipment, they said.

Mrs. Wilkins for long has had a number of hobbies, including hand painting china and searching for lost mines and buried treasure in the Southwest.

Tornadoes Damage Desdemona, Leon Plant; 18 Injured

Two tornadoes that ripped through Eastland County less than 12 hours apart Friday of last week caused damage in the hundreds of thousands of dollars and injure to 18 persons, but almost miraculously, there was no loss of life.

The first twister hit near Gorman about 1 p. m., tore up a farm home and barn, and apparently rose above the ground to dip again at Desdemona, where the 18 people were injured and 14 houses demolished and others damaged.

Then at 11:55 p. m. Friday a smaller but just as vicious twister hit a switching yard of the Leon Power Plant near Eastland and did a great deal of damage, but no one was injured.

Still in the Blackwell Hospital in Desdemona Thursday with serious injuries received in the Desdemona storm were Mrs. J. R. McKain and Jeff and Jim Carter.

Most of the others injured received only minor wounds as the storm tore up homes and barns and swept big trees around like matchsticks.

Rehabilitation work, some of it with assistance of the Red Cross, was in full swing at Desdemona this week, but many of the storm sufferers, who were living in rented homes, still were at a loss as to the future.

Fortunately, the tornado swept across the edge of the town, and the business district and school were not affected.

Severe damage was done to the Magnolia gasoline plant north of town.

Many weird and freakish happenings were reported after the storm. A large horse was carried across a road and into a field with no injury except a gash on its withers; a hog was decapitated cleanly by a flying piece of sheet iron; one home was demolished except for one room, the contents of which were not disturbed.

The surrounding countryside was littered with the rain-soaked belongings of the families whose homes were demolished.

School Election Set For Saturday

Pat Miller and Earl Conner, Jr., filed Tuesday just before the deadline for places on the ballot for Eastland school trustees. Only two places are to be filled and Miller and Conner are the only applicants.

The election will be held Saturday in the office of Justice of the Peace E. E. Wood in the basement of the County Courthouse. The polls will be opened at 8 a. m. and will be open until 7 p. m. Walter Gray has been appointed as election judge.

Those vacating places on the board are veteran members, Earnest Halkias and Frank Sparks. Sparks has been president of the board for several terms, and is one of the oldest school officials in Eastland in point of service.

Holdover board members are R. N. Wilson, I. C. Inzer, Mrs. James Horton, Jack Muirhead and Robert Vaughan.

Grisham Improves; To Help Grand Jury

District Attorney N. E. Grisham, who suffered an angina pectoris attack Thursday of last week, and was ordered by his doctor to go to bed and rest for a week or two, said late Thursday that he would be in his office Friday to meet with the Eastland County Grand Jury, which will reassemble after a recess to wind up its work for the term.

Grisham said there are two or three persons being held to wait action of the grand jury, that he already hand drawn indictments against them, and that the indictments would be presented to the jurors for possible action.

Grisham said his physician had consented to his meeting with the grand jury, but insisted that he must then go back to bed for more rest.

"I've already lost 15 pounds, and the doctors say I'll have to lose 60 more," he said.

Cast Of Eastland High School Senior Play

The Seniors of Eastland High School will present a sparkling comedy "Love Is Too Much Trouble," Thursday and Friday, April 7 and 8, in the high school auditorium.

The cast of characters consisting of nine girls and five boys presents a fast moving panorama of typical college life. The characters are effectively portrayed by the following: Patsy Ruth Young as "Toasty," J. C. Burke as Joe Burke, Colohel Don Brashier as Pinky Hamilton, Johnny Collins as Ogden McClosky, Veda Sneed as Connie Ashton, Pat Rushing as Ebb Dunham, Jimmie Black as Flo Dunham, Prudie Hardeman as Shirley Bradford, Betty Gay Allen as Sugar Lou Jackson, Barbara Shero as Monica Bates, Joyce Tucker as Mrs. Bates, Margil Wadley as Dr. Pillsy, Betty Bumpass as Miss Ross, and Dan Amis as Cliff Hayward.

The action of the play takes place in a college eating place affectionately known as the "Poison Pot." It is located just off the campus of Ivy College. Difficulties arising over the influence of the "Poison Pot", and from the arrangements of the Junior Prom make interesting entertainment.

The play is being directed by Mrs. E. F. Willman. Others helping with the play are Dick Turner as prop man, Don Butler as stage manager, and Miss Verna Johnson, the senior sponsor.

The performance will begin promptly at 7:45, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Gaines Lands New Re-building Account

A contract to supply rebuilt automobile engines to Western Auto Stores in half of Texas was signed Monday in Kansas City by Milton J. Gaines, owner of Eastland Auto Parts in Eastland.

Gaines' concern previously had held a contract to supply a large number of rebuilt engines to Texas stores of Montgomery Ward, and said he will continue the work for the mail order house.

The Western Auto contract will require the addition to his force of three or four men, Gaines said, but will require no expansion in plant or equipment.

The auto parts firm will supply rebuilt engines for sale in Western Auto stores and associate stores in 153 towns, including an area in Texas from Waco to the Oklahoma line and from El Paso to Marshall.

3 To Be Elected In City Balloting

A new majority will be elected to the Eastland City Commission Tuesday in the election to be held in the City Hall.

Five candidates are in the field, divided three and two. Candidates Jack Muirhead, Pearson Grimes and Dave Fiensy issued a joint statement indicating their hope of being elected together, and Candidates J. H. Johnson and C. H. McBee issued a similar joint statement.

Whichever candidates are elected, will be faced with some vexing problems, including how to provide enough water for Eastland, whether to extend the city limits, and the always present puzzle of how to operate the city government and provide demanded services with the small amount of money left after bond debts are met.

Going out of office will be Mayor Dan Childress and Commissioners A. J. Blevins, Jr., and Spike Uffelmann.

Holdover commissioners are Herman Rushing and W. W. Linkenhager.

The polls will open at 8 a. m. and close at 7 p. m.

4-H Club Awards To Be Given During Program April 19

A great many of the 4-H Club boys and girls of the county are expected to attend the programs during the day, which will get under way with movies of club work at the Lyric Theatre at 10 a. m.

Judge Crossley will make the awards following the films.

After a picnic lunch at the City Park at noon, the group will hear a safety talk by State Highway Patrolman Oscar Avera. Travis Wheat, farm representative for the Texas Electric Service Company, will conclude the program with demonstrations of labor saving electrical devices, and a discussion of the "Better Methods Electric Contest" sponsored by the electric companies of Texas.

The contest will supplement one sponsored by the Westinghouse Electric Company, won in 1948 by Don Webb of Eastland.

Guy Warden also will receive the meat animal award for his work with beef cattle, while Joe Ed Reynolds of Kokomo, member of the Carbon 4-H Club, will receive the soil conservation medal and gold star pin.

Dairy production awards will go to Gerald Williamson of Morton Valley and Landon Jordan of Eastland.

Buster Herring of Carbon will receive the winning crops contest medal and one of the safety contest awards. Other safety winners are Carson Woodall, Franklin Ayers, Ronald Jackson and George Warren, all of the Gorman 4-H Club.

Dr. Kilgore, a graduate of Baylor University and of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, will show motion pictures of the Baptist missionary work in Argentina after preaching at the 8 p. m. service. The morning service will begin at 11 a. m.

Band Boosters To Give Awards Before Show

Members of the Band Boosters Club will give away a calf, a hog, a turkey, a rooster and a duck Friday night just before a benefit midnight show for the Eastland High School Band at the Majestic Theatre.

All proceeds from the show are to go to the band fund for buying new uniforms.

Band members, in the uniforms which have been bought but not altogether paid for, were out over Eastland Thursday selling tickets to the show.

City Water Outlook Better After Rains Totalling Two Inches

Rains last week brought over two inches of moisture to Eastland and further improved the already bright agricultural picture in Eastland County.

The rains put nearly a foot of water in Lake Eastland, said city officials, which helped a great deal but still left much to be desired.

The water was the most caught by the lake in many months, and indicated that further rains may give Eastland the water supply margin of safety that residents have been hoping for.

Weatherman J. A. Beard said the rains Friday and Saturday totalled slightly over an inch.

Improved Dairy Show Promised Here April 15

Plans for a more elaborate and better arranged Eastland County Dairy Show than last year's beginning show were made by members of the Eastland County Dairy Association, show sponsors, at a meeting in Eastland Monday night.

The show will be held at the Eastland Softball Field Friday, April 15.

At the meeting, Randall Reeves of Rising Star was named to take entries in the show. Johnny Kilgore of Eastland was appointed to head the entertainment and arrangements committee. L. R. Higginbottom of Carbon will be in charge of the judging contests.

A. Z. Myrick of Cisco, president of the dairy group, was elected to do the broadcasting over a loud speaker system at the show.

The show will be open to all dairy cows of the county. The animals will be classified against an ideal, instead of competing against each other. About $200 in prizes will be given.

The judging contests to begin at 10 a. m. will match adults in one division and club boys in the other, with prizes to be given in both divisions.

About 75 entries are expected, said County Agent J. M. Cooper, who will be in general charge of the show.

All animals must be in place by 10 a. m. and will be released by 4 p. m., Cooper said.

At the meeting Monday, Dr. J. H. Denton, Cisco veterinarian, talked on brucellosis.

The group elected as directors of the dairy association O. D. Cunningham of Ranger, C. D. Simmons of Gorman, L. O. Swindle of Cisco, Lee Williamson of Olden, Marshall Berry of Pleasant Hill, Bernard Campbell of Carbon, J. B. Eberhardt of Rising Star, D. F. Williamson of Morton Valley and Mack McCleskey of Eastland.

... visitors from other states sometime marvel at the bigness of our way of doing things. And, too, it is a constant source of pride to our own people when they look about them and witness, among other things, the magnitude of some of our business institutions and their capacity to render service. Here in Eastland County we are proud of our title plant and along with a host of others we think it's the best in the Southwest.

After Rev. Thompson had spoken, Earl Fonville of Ranger, and Donald Hazard of Eastland; the two small grandsons of Mr. Hazard, entered the building carrying a large basket of lovely gifts which they presented Mr. Hazard.

Powell Gives Talk To Rotary Club

In furtherance of its avowed plans for promoting the agricultural and livestock interests of this area, the Eastland Rotary Club Monday listened to a talk by Emmett Powell, county administrator for the Production and Marketing Administration, which he explained at length the workings of the federal agency. His department is known popularly as the AAA.

The main phases of his work Powell said, have to do with the price support and soil conservation programs, with the latter the more pressing of the two.

The 12 inches of topsoil originally available for use in the country, he said, has been depleted by half, and on some farms in this area is completely gone.

The speaker outlined the program being sponsored by his department for arresting soil erosion, re-building the soil and preventing erosion in the future. The federal government, he said, will pay half the cost of such programs if the farmer will carry out his part of the program under requirements of the plan.

Under the program, about $33,000 is available for use in Eastland County during 1949, Powell said.

Rotarian T. L. Fagg was in charge of the program and introduced Powell.

Mrs. E. L. Wittrop received information Thursday afternoon from Poteau, Okla., that her brother, Norvell Campbell, had just died there. She left immediately for Poteau.

MISS CORNELIUS, MR. GERMANY TO WED APRIL 16

MISS CORNELIUS

The approaching marriage of Miss Catherine Cornelius, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Cornelius, to Jack Germany was announced Saturday night at a dinner given by her mother in their home, 308 East Main Street. Mr. Germany is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Germany, 609 South Mulberry.

The wedding will be April 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church and will be followed immediately by a reception on the roof garden of the Connellee Hotel. Invitations will not be mailed to either the wedding or the reception, but all friends of both families are invited to both.

At the dinner the announcement, "Catherine and Jack, April 16," was written in gold on tiny parchment scrolls which were at each guest's place. The scrolls were attached by narrow pink satin ribbons to a centerpiece of pink carnations, white stock, and white candytuft.

The table for the 12 guests was laid with white linen and was lighted by white candles in crystal candelabra. White place cards embossed in gold with double wedding rings marked the places.

She was employed last spring by the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Germany is employed by the Civil Aeronautic Administration in Wichita Falls. He attended Texas Tech College and the University of Texas, and during the war served three years in the Army Air Corps.

Other officers elected are Miss June McKee, treasurer; Mrs. N. E. Griham, recording secretary, and Mrs. Milton Fullen, corresponding secretary.

SPECIAL ASSEMBLY PROGRAM
E. H. S. enjoyed an unusual assembly program last week. The speaker was a police instructor and ex-convict who gave us a very interesting talk. We are sure that if anyone had any ideas of trying to get the better of other people, his mind was changed. We wish to thank Mr. A. W. Dittmore for visiting our school.

LETTER FROM DENMARK
When the Homemaking girls sent some packages to a foreign country, it went to Denmark. Some of the girls put letters in their packages, thinking maybe they would get an answer. Nelda Byrd received an answer from a 14 year old girl who received her present. This Denmark girl said she was able to read and write English as she was studying English in school. She also studies German. She sent some interesting pictures of places in Denmark.

THINGS WE NOTICE
Spring! Beautiful spring. The nice paper Jr. High is writing, the High School staff will have to get busy. Everybody loves chewing gum. Gabby at a certain assembly and how were those talking girls? Not Juniors— or so we've been told by the juniors. Comes the Spring and also comes permanents! (girls—and boys??) Who is it you can always hear laughing at the show? Stanley is going stag these days. Tom parking his car in back of E. H. S. What is the matter, Tom? Afraid you'll blind someone by the sight of it? There is a certain girl who won't wear a certain senior's ring. Oh gee, why? The pretty spring clothes the girls are wearing. There have been lots of compliments about them flying around. People, (Juniors) simply cannot seem to memorize that "Gettysburg Address." Duck! Look at the grades on those grammar tests. How the girls are working in homemaking.

DOUBLE SEVEN CLUB
On Tuesday, the Double Seven Club met in the home of Margie June Poe. They discussed plans for the dance in April. Refreshments of cokes, cookies, candy, fritos, and sandwiches were served to Bettye, Guyrene, Monetta, Shirley, Pat, Neta, Catherine, Barbara, Billie, Mozelle, Mary Crowell, and Ann Atwood by hostess Margie. Absent were Wanda Richardson and Charlotte Van Hoy. The next meeting will be in the home of Mozelle Pullman.

JUNIOR SPOTLIGHT
Into the flashlight this week tumbles—yes, you've guessed it—none other than Gren Crews who insists his favorite food is jello topped with ice cream. He is five feet tall and full of cute "cracks." Among the shows his favorite stars are James Stewart and Joan Fontaine. His hobby is eating and sleeping and he'd rather be at the swimming pool than most anywhere—with (we might add) Joan Liles.

ASSEMBLY PROGRAM
All Jr. High enjoyed the talk given by A. W. Dittmore, a reformed ex-convict, who gave a talk based on the idea of juvenile delinquency.

HAVE YOU NOTICED?
All the school pictures (good and bad)? The TWO picture shows? All the RED HAIR—and we don't mean natural? The tables at Davis—Maxey? All the diamonds (woolworth's) flashing? Mr. Rboinson's "Talking Book"? Our new volley ball court? Wanda falling for Richard? Everyone seeing green (shoes that is)? I think spring is here.

BRIGHT SAYINGS
O corn!! I've been rickey doed. Well, good for you. Put something in the pot, boy. Down Boy, down!! Oh, go powder your face with sunshine.

started on their way, and provisions were being made to care for the families who had lost their homes in the storm.

All of this happened, mind you, the same afternoon of the storm, which hit about 1 p. m.

The next time you hear someone fussing about the Red Cross—and you will, we all do—think of this one incident, and how much worse off those storm sufferers would have been had there been no Red Cross.

Farmers are busy these days, in fields not too wet to plow, getting ready for the spring plantings, and things are looking better than in many years at this season.

But despite all the moisture, some of the ranchers are not so cheerful. The moisture has failed so far to bring up much grass or anything else on their pastures, they are saying.

This seems proof to me of what I was thinking last summer, and that is that most of the ranch pastures of this area were seriously over-grazed during the recent summers of drouth. A lot of the grasses were killed out, and too few seeds were produced before the roots died.

This may be a dismal picture, but there is a bright one. Those ranchers who have learned to put fewer cattle and other livestock on their pastures are reaping the benefits of more grass and are making more money. Maybe the others will learn from them.

Mrs. Mary B. Evans Is Buried Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary B. Evans, 86, Eastland County pioneer, who died at her home in Flatwoods where she had been ill for some time, were held Sunday at 2 p. m. in the Hamner Funeral Home with W. E. More of the Church of Christ officiating. Burial was in the Eastland Cemetery. Mary Bell Evans, known to her friends as Mollie, was born in Lincoln County, Missouri, Aug. 10, 1863, and came with her parents to Rusk County, Texas, at the age of 12 years. Tornadoes . . .

Wayne Caton, dispatcher, was in the dispatcher's office when the blow came Friday night. He said he heard a roar, and the storm had lifted the roof off the building he was in before he knew what had happened—and then it was all over.

The storm toppled the big water tower at the plant, tore the roof off the building housing the dispatcher's office and a parts depot, tore the roof off of an automobile shed, twisted and wrecked a number of steel transmission towers, and twisted and ruined a number of complicated and expensive high voltage switches, in addition to other damage of various kinds.

Repair work was going on at full steam this week. Texas Electric dispatched all possible crews to help with the repair work, and as many as 170 men were working on the job at one time.

By Thursday, most of the damaged material had been removed, and work of installing new equipment in its place was ready to begin, company officials said.

The twister at the plant swept within a few feet of the houses in the company's camp, and tore a porch off one of them, but spent most of its fury on the electrical installations.

The storm apparently had dipped briefly in Brandy Humphries' pasture, a mile west of the power plant. Humphries found one of his lambs the next day dead in a tree, with evidences that a wind had blown it there.

And five or so miles east of the plant, the tornado apparently dipped briefly again and tore up by the roots some large trees on the old Greene Wright place, reportedly farmed now by H. F. Trotter.

The storms were accompanied by hailstorms in some parts of the county, notably in the Gorman-Carbon area, and by rains of varying intensity in other sections.

Mrs. Perryman came to Eastland with her parents in 1920 from Iowa. She graduated from Eastland High School before the family moved to Fort Worth in 1927.
