City Adopts Long-Range Safety Campaign Plans

Junior-Senior Banquet Held Friday Night

One of the most important annual social highlights of the Eastland High School, the Junior-Senior banquet was held Friday night on the roof garden of the Connellee Hotel.

With the Juniors honoring the Seniors, Glenn Garrett of the Junior Class, served as toastmaster. The invocation was given by W. G. Womack, superintendent of Eastland Public Schools. Garrett gave the welcoming address, with John C. Burke responding on behalf of the Senior class.

Musical portion of the program included the following numbers: "Let the Rest of the World Go By" by Shirley Hightower; "I'm Always Chasing Rainbows" by Janelle Patterson with Nancy Freyschlag accompanying; "Somewhere Over the Rainbow" by Douglas King with Stanley Stephens accompanying; and the "Alma Mater" by the entire group assembled.

Other features of the program included the Senior class speech by Paula Harvey and Glenn Hogan, and the Senior Class will by Neil Frost and Ted Howard. The roof garden, under direction of Mrs. J. C. Whitley, Junior class sponsor, was attractively decorated with pastel and coir gold in the form of a rainbow.

The menu consisted of fried chicken, gravy, baked potatoes, creamed peas, hot rolls, iced tea and strawberry shortcake. Invited were the members of the Senior and Junior classes, Eastland School Board and the Eastland High School faculty.

Tax Experts Say Truman 2 Billion Off On Estimate

WASHINGTON, May 14 (UP)—Congressional tax experts estimated today the treasury will take in $2,100,000,000 (B) less than President Truman forecast it would for the next fiscal year. If the estimate should prove accurate, a still deeper cut in government spending would be needed to avert a deficit without a tax increase.

The new estimates were released by a House-Senate committee on international revenue. They were prepared by a committee staff headed by Colin F. Stam.

Teen-Age Jail Break Stalled

AMARILLO, May 14 (UP)—Two teen-agers unlocked their jail cells here today with a key fashioned from a coat hanger but trustees forced them back into captivity after a mob fight.

The escape was thwarted after Bobby Craig, 17 year old inmate facing retrial on burglary charges, and Jack Smith, charged with stealing a beef roast, attacked a jailer with mop handles. Potter county officials said Craig opened his and Smith's solitary cells with a key shaped from a metal coat-hanger.

The commotion attracted trustees who armed themselves with mops. After a chase through the cell block, they drove the two youths back into cells. The victim of the attack, jailer Pat Ellenberg, suffered painful head and hand injuries. Craig recently escaped Amarillo officers and was recaptured in Corpus Christi. He was given an eight-year sentence at his trial for burglarizing an Amarillo jewelry store. Recently, he was granted a new trial.

POLICE TO ISSUE TICKETS STARTING SATURDAY, MAY 21

If Eastland's new City Manager I. Charles Heck has his way, the city will soon become known as the safest one in its population bracket in the United States.

City Manager Heck has mapped a safety campaign for Eastland that is not just a brief affair, but a long range program designed to make every citizen "safety-conscious."

Following a week of warning, the city will start "cracking down" on all traffic violators.

Special attention will be given to youthful violators of traffic rules by the City Corporation and Police force, City Manager Heck stated.

"Reckless, fast driving and the game of 'Ditch-em' being carried on by some of Eastland's teen-agers has got to stop before a serious and tragic accident occurs."

Parents of the teen-agers will be required to attend Corporation Court and be warned of their child's traffic violations.

On and after Saturday, May 21, City Police will issue tickets for violation of the "no parking zone" and double parking.

Under the policy set down by the City Manager, a light fine will be given for a first offense, a stiffer fine for a second offense, and a much heavier fine for a third offense.

The city manager plans to make talks at various civic clubs stressing the need for safety on the city streets and highway.

Starting next September, a safety program will be instituted in Eastland Public Schools with thoroughfare and speed limits to be marked. A policeman will be on duty to see that the regulations are enforced.

Cooperation of all citizens in making Eastland a safe, as well as a good place to live, has been requested.

summer are to attend a workshop in Gunnison, Colo. Mrs. Herring has developed a program of music for West Ward, with regular programs and sing songs, intended solely to teach children to sing by the rote method. This, Mrs. Herring says, stimulates interest in music, increases ability to sing and brings about a desire to sing for the real joy of singing in a group.

The financial needs of an elementary school are many, with the income from ice cream, and help from the P. T. A. under the leadership of Mrs. L. E. Corbell, many needed supplies and much equipment has been managed for.

IMPATIENT ZEPHYR HALTS BUT BRIEFLY AT ELECTRA

BY ROY CALVIN
United Press Staff Correspondent
ELECTRA, Tex. May 14 (UP)—Electra threw a whopping party for a hurrying passenger train yesterday and cheered on its vociferous Mayor, fighting to keep this domain from becoming a "whistle stop."

The westbound Fort Worth & Denver Zephyr, a sleek streamliner, pulled into the station exactly on time—at 5:51 P. M. Electra's Mayor T. Leo Moore, one of the passengers, stepped off. The 5,000 persons jammed along the tracks cheered.

A band played. A model train made of cake, complete to locomotive, was handed up out of the crowd to conductor's helpers and two soldiers courtesy of the Chamber of Commerce. The train had doughnut wheels. Photographers had a field day.

A few passengers, trying to get out of town, fought their way aboard. The conductor, who made the mistake of stepping off the train briefly, had trouble getting back.

He finally made it, and at 5:57 P. M. on the dot the Zephyr moved out.

This was "S" day in Electra—the "S" being for "stop" the Zephyr.

Moore made a speech, predicting that Electra would whip the mighty F. W. & D., which has set up schedules to skip this north Texas town and several small ones—except for flag stops to pick up long-haul passengers.

Electra's cause, said the mayor, biting hard on his cigar, is the cause of all small towns.

"This thing is happening all over Texas," he said. He thought it over and amended it—"all over the United States."

The townsfolk hooted and holed and whistled and called for more. They shared the sentiments of a cowboy crooner, "Country Boy" McGrew who played his own accompaniment on his guitar and sang a ballad calypso style.

Country boy opined that Electra is a fine place, Moore is a fine mayor, and whistle stop shouldn't happen here.

"Don't you worry," shouted his honor the mayor. "We're gonna win, and we're gonna give 'em a run for their money."

The city's official food and plumbing inspectors were conspicuously absent from the ceremonies. To assure that the Zephyrs

ROSS RUCKER NAMED AS SCHOOL BOARD SEC'Y.

Ross Rucker, Eastland public accountant, was named to the office of secretary and tax assessor-collector for the Eastland School Board at a special meeting of the Board Friday night, Mrs. James Horton, member of the Board, stated.

Rucker, who will assume office Monday, May 16, replaces Curtis Hertz, long-time secretary of the Board, who died while in office April 17. Kenneth Tanner had been substituting in the position during the past several weeks.

The appointment is effective for one year. Present office is located in the Exchange Building. Starting June 1, the office will be on the north side of the lower floor of the Eastland City Hall, Mrs. Horton stated.

Rucker has been a resident of Eastland for the past three years, coming here as an instructor for the Eastland County Vocational School. In February, 1949, he entered a partnership with James King of Ranger, in the public accounting business with an office maintained here. He is president of the Young Adult Class of the First Methodist Church, member of the Eastland Lions Club, and president of the Eastland County A. & M. Club.

Prior to moving to Eastland, Rucker served about three years in the communications branch of the U. S. Navy and saw overseas service in the Central Theatre and North Pacific. Before entering service, he was graduated from Texas A. & M. College in 1943 with a Bachelor of Science degree in business administration. He is a native of Santo, where he attended public schools and graduated from the Santo High School in 1939. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Rucker, reside in Santo.

Rucker is single and resides at 400 South Hillcrest Street, with the Homer Smith family.

Going Forward With Eastland

Did you know that Eastland has an oxygen tank available at the City Hall in event of an emergency? This scribe didn't know it until Friday afternoon, when Mrs. Marene Johnson-Johnson called and advised that the Beta Sigma Phi Sorority owns one. It is kept at the City Hall and is available, day or night, by contacting the Eastland City Police. Since our town has no hospital, use of the oxygen tank sometimes spells the difference between life or death. There is no charge, with exception of the patient paying for the oxygen used.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Pentecost (he's the real estate man) have returned from a four weeks visit in Greenwood and Carrollton, Miss., visiting relatives and friends. While in Mississippi, the Pentecost's made a visit to his old homeplace at Coila, where the Post Office and general mercantile store has been in the family over 100 years. He attended church where he went as a boy. It is interesting to note that a tree in the churchyard measures 24 feet in diameter. The church was built in 1823. On the return trip, the Pentecosts visited in Houston.

Our Sheriff's Department is badly in need of a two-way radio system for its automobiles. While Sheriff J. B. Williams and his deputies are doing a very fine job as it is, a two-way radio hook-up would greatly facilitate their efforts to maintain law and order in a county so large and heavily populated as Eastland County is.

In the event of an emergency, an office deputy would be able to contact immediately all of the Sheriff's cars, regardless of where they might be in the county, and have them on the scene in a few minutes time. If the County is not able to afford the equipment, how about one of the civic clubs taking this as a project?

Several Eastland business firms had interesting and colorful displays in their show windows Saturday, for the Ranch Week observance. Burr's Department Store featured a collection of Jim Horton's guns. The Men's Store had just a little of everything in its window in western regalia—including boots, spurs, saddle, guns, lariats, etc. Carl Johnson's Dry Goods also had an attractive display of ranch attire and equipment.

Today, Sunday, May 15, is I Am An American Day, and it might be well to consider the sentiment.

Following is a list of things acquired sand paper and varnish for finishing pupils and teachers desks throughout the building; 3 subscriptions to professional magazines; art materials which are received monthly; achievement tests for all grades; hectograph supplies; supplies for medicine kit; a substantial donation toward the installation of kitchen windows in the cafeteria; help for needy children and entertainment for the entire school at Christmas time. The P.T.A. raised its funds through Halloween Carnival and sale of greeting cards, throughout the year. And this P. T. A. completed concrete side walks to the curb in front of the building; repaired playground equipment; bought a volley ball; added shrubs in front flower bed; had rock and gravel hauled to the north side of building to prevent erosion and save shade trees. Mrs. Frank Castleberry and Mrs. Hubert Toombs with solicited funds, secured a combination radio and phonograph for the school, with approximately $35 left over for records. Mrs. Claud Smith of the Church of Christ repaired a machine for the project of educational pictures; and converted this machine for the use of modern film strips. Art work in the fifth and sixth grades is supervised mainly by Mrs. Eugene Green and has consisted of figure painting, letter cutting, free hand cutting, drawing, designing, coloring, poster making and weaving. Mrs. Green has a B. A. degree from Daniel Baker College in Brownwood. For the past few summers Mrs. Green has traveled through the Southern states especially Georgia. She plans a like trip for this summer, also intends attending the Reading Clinic to be held in Abilene.

Mr. T. L. Amis, teacher of the third grade, has a B. A. degree from Hardin-Simmons University. During this year, Mrs. Amis has had as her chief project the study of the life of Indians, their music, art, modes of life and costumes. Many books were read, scrap books made, a collection of Indian relics for exhibition, and finally an assembly program in costume, with many guests present.

Much progress has been made in recent years, in methods used in the teaching of reading for little tots and West Ward is especially proud of the work done by Miss Lillie Moon in her reading techniques. Parents have been most cooperative with these new procedures and a definite progress is seen in the children's work. Miss Moon, teacher of second grade has her B. A. degree from North Texas Teachers' College. She traveled to New Jersey for four successive summers, where she has observed special methods in the teaching of reading. She has tentative plans for attending the University of New York this summer.

First grade children start to school, already grown enough to have a project, and what could be a better study of project for the entire year, than the health. Miss Nettie Thornton, teacher of first grade uses many picture illustrations, stories, health rules, habits, build; health house, has health parades and finally a health play during the year. Miss Thornton has a B.A. degree from Sam Houston State Teachers' College and has done some graduate work also. She is a member of Delta Kappa Gamma and she considers this organization has added much to her professional growth. Her plans for the summer includes workshop courses for first year children when she will devote her time to the fundamental teaching of reading.

Although not a part of the Eastland school system, the preschool of West Ward deserves mention. It was started in September by a group of interested mothers of children who were just under school age — which is fixed by the Texas School Law. Mrs. J. F. Collins was selected for the teacher of this group and her salary is paid by the patrons. Mrs. Collins studied in Austin College, Sherman. She has earned credit college credits through correspondence courses. In order to gain ideas of some of the more up-to-date methods of teaching, Mrs. Collins observed work of the primary level in the Wichita Falls schools for some time before beginning her work here.

During the past year, the teachers of West Ward went to Fort Worth and observed the work of one of the elementary schools there. Every teacher is a member of Texas Teachers Association as well as Oil Belt Teachers Ass'n. They read professional materials regularly and subscribe to a number of magazines which are invaluable aides to teaching. Mrs. Herring expresses her appreciation and thanks to the faculty, patrons P. T. A. members, especially the

Waltz into Darkness

BY WILLIAM IRISH

THE STORY: Durdan's money finally gives out. When he refuses to replenish it through crooked gambling, Honey's outspoken contempt for him soon becomes active dislike.

XXXIV

ABOUT four or five days later, he was returning toward the house from one of his walks—walks which had become habitual by now—when suddenly her figure came into view far ahead of him, some two or three road crossings in advance, but going the same way he was.

It was useless to have halted her; she would not have heard, she was too far ahead. The separation was too great even for him to have hoped to overtake her within a worthwhile time by breaking into a run; she would have been almost back at their own door by the time he had done so. Moreover, there was no reason for undue haste, no emergency, he would see her soon enough.

She had not been in sight only a moment before, and the point at which she had suddenly appeared was midway between two of the intervening road crossings, so he surmised she must have emerged from some doorway or establishment at approximately that location just as he caught sight of her.

When he had gained the same general vicinity himself, in due course, he was turned to look sideward, out of what was at first merely superficial curiosity, as he went past, to see where it was she had come from.

Superficial curiosity became outright surprise at a glance, and halted him in his tracks. The building flanking him was the postoffice.

He inhaled twice in rapid succession, in quite involuntary confirmation of the foreign odor. "Was that you I saw on the street just now?" She took a moment to answer; though how could she be uncertain, if she had just returned? She took out one more flower. She turned it about by its stem, studying it for faults. She put it down. Then she turned about and faced him, readily enough. She saw his eyes rest for a moment on her plum-serve costume. It was only then she answered.

"Where were you, to the post office?" "I had an errand," she said, steadily enough. "There was something I needed to buy." "You didn't go to the post office?" "I did step into the post office," she said negligently. "To buy stamps. They are in my purse now. Do you wish to see them?" "No," he said unhappily. "If you say you bought stamps, that ends it."

On her way out of the room, she let her hand trail, almost fondly, across the breadth of his back. "You don't trust me, do you, Lou?" she said quite neutrally. "I want to."

She shrugged, in the doorway, as she went out. "Then do so, that is all you have to do. It's simple enough." When he heard her light footsteps going up the stairs, he flung himself down at a couch before the fireplace, made rapid circling motions with his hands over the brick flooring. There was some brittle paper-ash lying on its otherwise scoured, blackened surface, very little, not enough to make a good-sized fistful. He turned up a piece that had not been consumed, perhaps because it had been held by the burner's fingers to the last.

It bore a single word, in conclusion, "Billy." And even that was not wholly intact. The upper closure of the "B" had been opened, eaten into by the brown stain of flame.

On her way out of the room, she let her hand trail, almost fondly, across the breadth of his back. "You don't trust me, do you, Lou?" she said quite neutrally. "I want to."

She shrugged, in the doorway, as she went out. "Then do so, that is all you have to do. It's simple enough." When he heard her light footsteps going up the stairs, he flung himself down at a couch before the fireplace, made rapid circling motions with his hands over the brick flooring. There was some brittle paper-ash lying on its otherwise scoured, blackened surface, very little, not enough to make a good-sized fistful. He turned up a piece that had not been consumed, perhaps because it had been held by the burner's fingers to the last.

It bore a single word, in conclusion, "Billy." And even that was not wholly intact. The upper closure of the "B" had been opened, eaten into by the brown stain of flame.

Russian Works Longer for His Food and Clothes

Diagram above compares the length of time the average Russian industrial worker must stay on the job to earn enough money to buy basic food and clothing items. Purchasing powers like these were revealed in a Bureau of Labor Statistics study undertaken after Moscow ordered retail price reductions ranging from 10 to 30 per cent for Soviet consumers. While the American works about 160 hours a month, the Russian must put in the legal 204-hour work month.

Attorneys For Dr. Rutledge Fight For Directed Verdict For Acquittal

CEDAR RAPIDS, Ia. May 14 (UP)—Dr. Robert C. Rutledge's attorneys fought today for a directed verdict to acquit the St. Louis baby specialist of charges that he killed his wife's alleged seducer.

The prosecution rested its case yesterday after deputy coroner Regis Weland testified that Rutledge's alleged victim, Byron C. Hattman, apparently was standing still when he was stabbed to death in his hotel room here Dec. 14.

"The width of the incision was the same in all cases," Weland said.

The state apparently was trying to prove that there was no violent struggle in the hotel room when Hattman was killed. The defense contends that he met his death in a fight.

The trial was in recess today but the jury was housed in the courthouse for the week-end.

The jury was excused after the state rested yesterday and District Judge J. E. Heiserman called the opposing attorneys into his chambers to discuss a defense motion for a directed acquittal.

Heiserman will rule on the motion when court reconvenes Monday.

If he turns it down, the defense may call Rutledge's pretty blonde wife, Sydney, 23, to testify immediately about her torrid affair with Hattman.

Weland said Hattman's fatal wound was six inches deep and almost an inch wide. He said it was struck with "considerable force" with a "narrow, sharp instrument, probably at least five inches long."

He said Hattman apparently was not struggling at the time because "if there had been any appreciable body movement there would be a tear or cutting at one end or the other" of the wound.

During Weland's detailed testimony of the autopsy, Mrs. Rutledge paled and left the courtroom. It was the first time she had left her husband's side while court was in session since the trial started.

Plane Misses Ball Park, Lands In School Yard

KANSAS CITY, Mo., May 14 (UP)—A pilot who tried to crash land his small airplane in the crowded Kansas City Blue Baseball Park said today he would have made it "but they turned the lights out on me."

He missed the ball park and hit a school yard.

Ed Lobdell, 29, Fargo, N. Dak., ran out of gas just as several thousand fans began leaving the park last night. He tried to glide into left field.

Then groundkeepers pulled the switches that put out the big floodlights that illuminated it. So Lobdell picked the school-yard.

"I couldn't think of anything but that tall concrete wall around the ball park after they turned the lights out on me," Lobdell said.

The plane tore into trolley-bus wire instead of the wall and nosed over as it plowed into the Lincoln High School yard across the street from the park.

Lobdell escaped with minor scratches and bruises.

Fans were just trooping from the field after watching the Minneapolis Millers beat the Blues 6 to 2 in an American Association game.

Police kept them away from the wrecked plane.

They let Lobdell go after routine questioning. He said he was enroute from Fargo to Kansas City. He had stopped at Omaha.

The outlook was for more scattered thundershowers with little change in temperatures, except warmer in the Panhandle and South Plains this afternoon.

Once, during a nine-year period, six different Presidents occupied the White House. That was between 1841 and 1850 when Van Buren, Harrison, Tyler, Polk, Taylor and Fillmore served successively.

Possible Sites for New Test Range

These maps show closeups of the Point Mugu, Calif., and Banana River Naval Air Station, Fla., areas, which Defense officials are considering as sites for the proposed $200,000,000 guided missile test center. Both sites are now used as test ranges but are inadequate for longer range missiles. Point Mugu uses Begg's Rock for its present target area, as shown. The proposed, extreme long range test center eventually would have a community of 13,000 persons.

Rev. and Mrs. H. E. Darnell of Vivian, La., will begin a series of revival services at the Church of The Nazarene beginning June 1 and closing June 12. Rev. William C. Emberton, pastor, announces:
"Evangelist Darnell comes to us highly recommended as a Bible preacher who preaches without fear or favor. We plan to have plenty of good singing and music as a special feature of this meeting. We urge our friends to make their plans now to attend these services." Rev. Emberton stated.

"Mortals and Immortals" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 15.
The Golden Text is: "This corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality" (1 Corinthians 15:53).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away" (1 Corinthians 13:10).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Let unselfishness, goodness, mercy, justice, health, holiness, love—the kingdom of heaven—reign within us, and sin, disease, and death will diminish un-

Two Million Dollar Smuggling Case Closed

MUNICH May 14 (CP)—The Army closed its books today on a $2,000,000 smuggling case with one soldier fined $420 and the other dozen or so American officers and civilians cleared of allegations that they were involved in it.

The only formal charges filed in the case were against the enlisted man who was convicted Thursday by a special court martial and fined.

The others have gone free, most of them back to the U. S. at government expense. Three civilians were allowed to remain here long enough to marry German girl friends.

Automobiles used by the gang to smuggle contraband to Italy have been returned to their owners, complete with secret compartments.

The gang was apprehended by American agents early this year but charges were preferred only against Cpl. James D'Alba, of the Bronx, New York, N. Y.

D'Alba was convicted Thursday by a special court martial and fined $420.

Horse Not Fast Enough

WELCH, W. Va. (UP)—It was the battle of the machine and the horse and once again the horse lost. This time it cost an alleged Army deserter his freedom. The serviceman was on horseback when police spotted him. They flagged a passing switch engine and chased the horse for a mile up the tracks. The horseman was nabbed at his home.

Gorman Oil News

By Buena Van Winkle

Commercial Production Company with Skeeter and Curry contractors on the job No. 3 R. S. Sanders are just topping the pay at 2,838. The signs are good for as good a well as the No. 2 which is really a good one. In fact the depth, the formation, and everything about this well almost parallels the findings in the other operations on this lease.

Crader Oil Co. out of Fort Worth are drilling at 2000 feet on their No. 2 Sheldon out 3-4 mile southwest of Sipe Springs with Skeeter and Curry drilling on the operation. They moved their rig from the No. 1 L. M. Wolfe which they have just completed out near Duster to the Carder location.

Skeeter and Curry No. 1 L. M. Wolfe about 1 1/2 miles southwest of Duster has a potential of 40 BBls. on the official report. This was a Marble Falls test and is about as good a one as we have had in that vicinity so far in the present drilling.

R. H. Patterson No. 1 James out of Rucker drilling at 300 feet.

McClung No. 1 Rube Christian have had some minor trouble with equipment or motors or some such matter, any way there was a slight delay in which they lost about a day's time, but they are back drilling now at 250 feet and we hope they can keep going without any further mishap. R. H. Patterson's rig is down there on that operation. His third rig is still up near Hannibal.

McClung No. 1 Miller Estate near Hannibal with Patterson in charge of drilling operations drilling at approximately 3275. They are in very stubborn lime formation and are maintaining one tower — the daylight crew, so the going is slow.

The Jay and Parker Company No. 2 T. N. Watt drilling at 2500 feet.

97-TON ATOM SMASHER

THIS ATOM-SMASHING coil may also have its place in trucking history, too. After many months of controversy because of its weight—97 tons—the coil was delivered to Carnegie Institute of Technology's Nuclear Research center at Saxonburg, Pa. The coil was wound in Brooklyn Navy Yard as the Bureau of Naval Research's contribution to the atomic research program. But highway commissioners blocked overland delivery, forcing a 3600-mile water voyage via the Gulf of Mexico, the Mississippi, Ohio and Allegheny rivers. Despite claims of highway experts that such heavy loads would crush the Pennsylvania roads, Pittsburgh papers reported: "the coil, carried on I-beams equipped with heavy-duty 1400x24 General tires, was trucked 33 miles from the Kittanning, Pa., locks to Saxonburg, Pa., without damage to the highways. Most of the highways traveled were secondary roads, at that." Navy officials, claiming this one of the largest hauling jobs ever undertaken by them, attributed the successful hauling to "proper sized tires and mechanically perfect equipment."

waiting to see what Roy Gaines—Commercial Production Co. — No. 3 R. S. Sanders and the Jay and Parker Co. No. 2 Watt wells will do before he begins operations on his No. 2 B. A. Hirst. From all indications he might as well begin to complete his rigging up, for the Sanders looks good and we can't tell yet about the No. 2 T. N. Watt, but if it is as good as the No. 1 on this same lease they will have to put on all the chokes available to hold it down to the 45 BBls. allowable.

W. C. Curry No. 1 Harvey Parker which Mr. Curry bought off of Commercial Production in the swap out on the trading which he and Roy Gaines did a couple of weeks ago, has a potential of well over the allowable, we are to have the actual figures in tomorrow's column.

Oil Man Charged In Theft Case

TYLER, May 14 (UP) — Chris S. Amos, well-known oil lease dealer, was charged with felony by theft yesterday after he was arrested by police for taking $5,000 from millionaire P. G. Lake's safe deposit box.

Amos was caught with the money as he left the Tyler Bank, but denied repeatedly that he had robbed the East Texas millionaire oilman, whom he called "a friend," of money and keys earlier this week.

Lake had reported Tuesday that some $500 was taken from him while he rested in his Tyler hotel residence, and the robber had also asked for and taken his keys, among which was the one opening his bank box.

However, Amos told police yesterday that he acquired the keys to the deposit box from "a man" while he stood on the corner of Commerce and Akard Streets in Dallas.

Officers (curious about the keys after Lake's report, kept a vigilant watch on the bank all week, hoping the robber would attempt to open the safety box.

When arrested on his way out of the bank Amos was carrying an envelope containing notations indicating a total of some $99,000. But officers said they contained only $5,000, which was recovered.

Golf Finalists Matched Sat.

FORT WORTH, May 13 (UP) — Betty MacKinnon and Betsy Rawls tee off at 9:30 A. M. today in the 36-hole match of the Texas Women's Golf Association amateur tournament here.

The final 18-hole round will begin at 2 P. M.

Miss Rawls became the tournament favorite after scoring an upset victory over Polly Riley of Ft. Worth. Miss Rawls, a University of Texas student, defeated Mrs. L. M. Keating of Houston, 4 and 2 in yesterday's semifinal. Mrs. Keating twice had held the tournament title.

Miss MacKinnon took one-up match over Betty Dodd of S. A. n Antonio in the other semifinal. Miss MacKinnon had birdies of 4, 3, and 4 on the last three holes to

Stormy Weather Due In Panhandle After Series Of Tornadoes Friday

By United Press
The Texas Panhandle was threatened with unsettled, stormy conditions again today after a hop skip tornado last night centering about the town of Panhandle demolished power lines and stripped trees.

One woman, Mrs. Lloyd H. Rowe of Panhandle, received three broken ribs and leg injuries as she fled toward Conway. Another car struck hers in a long line of stalled highway traffic.

Hail and rain accompanying the twisters smashed neon signs in the Panhandle business district and dented automobile tops.

The first tornado wrecked the six room house of Earl Williams on a ranch north of Panhandle. Williams was away from home when the twister hit. Friends said he returned immediately and rescued his wife and daughter.

Some wheat farmers reported 50 per cent losses to their crops following the hailstorm. One chunk of ice near Panhandle weighed four pounds one hour after the storm.

The series of twisters jumped from a Panhandle schoolhouse where windows were shattered to Amarillo Radio Station KGNC's Transmitter, where no damage was reported. Berger received hail, rain and wind as the tornadoes moved northeast of Skellytown toward Canadian.

The weather bureau said today that a continued outbreak of cool air pushing into warm air could result in further tornadoes this weekend. But the prediction was tempered by the belief that the cool front is not very strong. However, unsettled conditions were expected to prevail throughout the match.

Miss Rawls held a one-up advantage through the eleventh in her match with Mrs. Keating.

Championship consolation pairings: Mrs. Bill Tracy vs. Mrs. Lee Christopher, San Antonio. First flight pairings: Mrs. H. C. Reidel vs. Mrs. Ike Handy, Houston.

out the Panhandle for the next 36 hours.

Thundershowers were generally forecast for the state today and tomorrow. The only rainfall recorded this morning was in northwest Texas. During the 24-hour period ending at 6:30 A. M., Lubbock reported .29 inch, Childress .82, and Wichita Falls .84.

Slightly warmer temperatures were anticipated today following early morning readings higher than yesterday's.

Yesterday's peak reading in the state was 97 at Presidio. Amarillo enjoyed the low maximum of 75, while Dalhart started with today's low, 51.

Forecasters Fooled, Too

BELLEVILLE, Ill. (UP)—Southern Illinoisans who were caught flabfooted by an unexpected late winter snowstorm had at least one consolation. Some 25 Air Force weather experts also were unable to predict the storm. All were marooned at Scott Field and forced to stay in temporary quarters there overnight.
