Going Forward With Eastland

By Bob Moore

A man was tried for murdering his father and mother. When he came into court to receive his sentence, he begged the judge to have pity upon him because he was an orphan.—John Dorsett.

As the story goes, the Texas and Pacific once had a safety-minded general manager who made a special point of insisting that stationmasters send in a full report of every accident, however small. One day he received the following urgent message from the agent of a small Louisiana community.

"Man fell from platform in front of moving train. Will send further details later."

Hours went by without additional word. The general manager, visions of a heavy damage suit running through his head, was in a frenzy. He was at the point of boarding the next train for Louisiana to investigate personally when the second message arrived:

"Everything o. k. Nobody injured. Engine was going backwards."

There's nothing that can compare with the changeability of Texas weather. Tuesday afternoon, it seemed just like spring. Bass Oonus Dick said "If it looks like this Saturday afternoon I'm gonna take off fishing." But knowing Texas weather like we do, by Saturday he might have to dig a hole through the ice to get down to the fish. Well, variety is the spice of life they say.

The Telegram is in need of several route boys. If you have a boy that would like to pick up some spending money, have him get in contact with our circulation manager, Mrs. O. H. Dick.

Eastland has many things of which it can be justly proud and included is the West Texas Transportation Company. The transportation system, owned by Johnny Aaron, especially comes in handy to local citizens during the football season in chartering buses to take them to out-of-town games. Last Friday this scribe was a guest on the adult chartered bus Johnny drove to the Winters-Eastland game. One of the Transportation Company employees drove another bus for the students. This is really a convenient and comfortable way to go to the games. Don't have to bother with driving, just get back in the soft seats and before you know it, you're there.

Course since the Aaron's boy, twin, is on the team, they get just as big a kick or more than the rest in going to the games, which makes it all the better.

In the mail comes a handsomely engraved invitation bearing the official state seal of Texas inviting this scribe to "The Party of the Year" to be held at Mineral Wells Friday, Oct. 28, when top-dog officials will be honored. Quite a stunt the boys have promoted down Crazy Crystals way and one of the planners is a former local boy, Fred Brown. An informal stag affair, barbecue and all that goes with it is planned. Sounds like it would be fun, but Eastland plays Comanche here that night in an important District 8-A game, so will have to decline the invite to rub shoulders with the elite. Anyhow, this old country boy is like a fish out of water around folks who have more than keys to rattle in their pockets and enough brains to float a battleship.

"Analysis Of Another Anonymous Attack On Air Force"

This was the title given to an imposing document which Air Secretary Stuart Symington read to the House Armed Services Committee in Washington, during his testimony on the Air Force-Navy feud. As the secretary reads from his analysis, Mrs. F. M. Gregg, of Upper Sandusky, Ohio, a spectator, looks over his shoulder for a better glimpse of the contents. (NEA ELEPHOTO)

COLDEST WEATHER OF FALL DUE BY THURSDAY

The weatherman said today that Texas living in the northern and western portions of the state should begin preparing for the bitter cold snap so far this fall.

He forecasts much colder weather in the panhandle tonight, with lowest temperatures near freezing. By tomorrow, the cold air mass is expected to be felt throughout West Texas and in the Northwest portion of East Texas.

The mercury has fallen to 32 degrees in Texas only once this season—last Saturday at Dalhart in the upper panhandle. But the weatherman warned that the honeymoon was about over.

The cold air was building up in the mountain areas of Colorado and New Mexico, and is expected to send an icy finger deep into Texas. However, no snow was forecast.

Morning temperature throughout the state were generally above normal, with most lows in west Texas in the 60's. East Texas, sheltered by a patchy blanket of warm clouds, reported dawn readings generally in the 70's.

Thunder shower activity was reported during the night and morning in extreme west Texas, particularly in the Midland and lower Panhandle areas.

East Texas had local fog in the coastal area, but the sun soon began burning it off.

NATIONAL

A severe cold snap whistled over the Western states today, blocking highways under snowdrifts and endangering crops in California.

Financial Condition Of Schools Appear Better Than In Years

The financial condition of the Eastland Independent School District appears better than in many years on the basis of tax valuations for 1947 released by officials.

The old Eastland School District has a valuation of $3,374,365 and with its $1.50 rate on the $100, this will amount to $50,613.99 revenue. In addition, $3,000 delinquent taxes are due from 1948 and an additional $10,000 delinquent taxes for all years prior to 1948.

Four rural districts consolidated during the summer months, under provisions of the Gilmer-Aikin School Bill have amounted to $435,319 additional valuations. The breakdown of valuations by districts follows: Reagan, $174,121; Grapevine, $74,821; Bedford, $147,229; and Leary, $39,148. Tax rate is $1.50 on the $100

The cold front was spreading Eastward into Nebraska and the Dakotas today after bringing snow, hail, rain, and high winds to portions of Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Oregon, Washington and California.

The massive body of cold air earlier set off blizzards in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, plunging temperatures to below

Eastland Cagers Lose Thriller To Ranger Girls Team

The Eastland girls basketball team dropped a thriller to the Ranger girls last night in the Eastland gymnasium.

The score was tied up 19-19 at the end of regular play. In a 3-minute overtime period, the Ranger girls forged ahead two points to win the game.

Coch Charles Harris' cagers played a spirited game and battled every minute, in losing the heart-breaker to Ranger.

In the B game, Ranger ran rough shod over Eastland, trouncing the locals 28-8, with every local girl reporting out for basketball seeing action.

In the A game, which was nip and tuck all the way, Eastland guards outplayed the Ranger girls all over the court. It appeared the local forwards needs to become more accurate in dropping the ball through the loop.

The first horse to run five furlongs in less than a minute was Turnstick in 1910.

The Cowboy Club will use all proceeds of the show to promote the athletic program at H-SU. Members of the Cowboy varsity football squad will be ushers.

Advance crews with the vast ice-making machinery will arrive in Abilene next Sunday to get things in readiness. It will take six hours to freeze the three inch slab of ice on which the show will perform.

Man Indicted On Extortion Charge

HOUSTON, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Raymond Chambers, 42-year old janitor accused of sending a $50,000 extortion note to Glenn McCarthy, was indicted by a federal grand jury in Corpus-Christi yesterday.

The action automatically cancelled an examining trial for Chambers set for Friday.

The indictment charged that Chambers mailed a letter to McCarthy "within the intent to extort $50,000 from McCarthy by threat of injury."

The wealthy oilman received the crudely typed note Sept. 30. He turned the case over to the FBI and Chambers was arrested while working McCarthy's Shamrock hotel as a janitor.

Chambers was held in a hospital psychopathic ward after a lunacy charge was filed against him, but was released in the custody of his attorney when examinations proved him sane.

Someone to Love

THE STORY: When Tod Dunson's fiancée, Liz Conover, elopes with another man, Tod turns to his old friend Jenny Poleska for comfort. Jenny has always had a crush on Tod but when Tod proposes she is afraid it is "on the rebound." Tod says it is not and Jenny accepts. What Jenny does not know is that Tod has seen a picture of Liz on her return from her honeymoon. Tod plans to get married quick, and forget Liz, but he finds that Liz's father is calling his home, trying to get Tod to accept a job in his firm. Tod tells his mother he has "other plans," but he does not tell her that he intends to marry Jenny.

VI THE three days passed in an exciting whirl for Jenny. The girls at the shop gave her a shower; wonderful accessories to go with the cloud pink suit in which she would be married. Max gave her a hat, a dream, cloud pink to match the suit. She had protested, knowing the exclusive label and the price. But Max insisted. "Just promise me one thing, Jenny darling," he said. "Don't quit the shop. You're the best model I've got." "I'm not quitting. You needn't worry about that," Jenny said, tucking the hat into its crisp tissue paper nest in the new hatbox. "Tod's planning to finish college next winter, and he won't have a scholarship this time. I'll have to keep working."

TEXAS News Briefs

AUSTIN, Oct. 19 (UP)—Members of the Texas Legislative Council, granted sweeping powers of investigation by the 51st Legislature, will hold their first meeting today.

The 17-member agency was given authorization to investigate virtually every state agency. Today's meeting was called by Council Chairman Sen. G. C. Morris of Greenville, acting Lieutenant Governor.

AUSTIN, Oct. 19 (UP)—State Sen. Rogers Kelley of Edinburg today assumed chairmanship of the water code committee, created by the 51st Legislature to study and clarify Texas' water laws.

Kelley was elected to the post at an organizational meeting of the 21-member between-session committee yesterday.

Other new officers chosen yesterday were Rep. Bryon R. Tinsley, Greenville, Vice-Chairman, and John D. McCall, Dallas, secretary.

His mouth on hers, she had pressed against her throat. Suddenly all her doubts were dissolved.

THE ceremony in the shabby garish parlor had neither dignity nor reality. Jenny remembered the threshold red carpet, the framed mottoes on the walls, the bouquet of dusty paper roses on the battered upright piano, the limp soiled lace curtains at the windows.

Taylor, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Arthur Meiske died yesterday after being run over by his own driveway truck.

Meiske, 36, had gone to the farm home of his father to aid in starting a car.

He ran his pickup truck slowly against the rear of the automobile, left the truck in low gear and then leaped from the truck to race ahead and enter the rolling automobile. He started the car.

Then he jumped from the automobile, intending to enter his truck and stop it. However, he slipped and fell. The truck ran over his chest. Meiske died shortly after being admitted to a hospital.

Army Band Has Pipers FORT LEWIS, Wash. (UP)—The Second Division band here claims the only bagpipe section of an Army band in the country. Under supervision of John P. Ironside, 16 members have learned to play well enough to appear regularly as part of the band.

Cat Can Figure LAKE VIEW, Miss. (UP)—Ed Fritz thinks his alley cat has it all over most felines. Tom, the cat, can count money. All you have to do is spread out a handful of dollar bills and Tom will paw each of them until he comes to ten. Then he goes back to sleep.

Comets got their name from their long wispy, or hairy-appearing tails. In the Latin the word "coma" means "hair."

Cold Weather--

freezing and piling snow into huge drifts. One Canadian was listed as dead due to the storm and two were injured. Roads were blocked and telephone lines knocked down.

Weather forecasters at Los Angeles said it was the earliest cold snap to hit Southern California in 30 seasons. Farmers were advised to run water through irrigation ditches throughout the night to offset expected low temperatures of 28 degrees in some localities. Fear was felt for some vegetable crops.

The first snow of the season fell along the ridge route from Los Angeles to San Francisco which had its coldest Oct. 18th in 25 years when the mercury fell to 47 degrees yesterday.

Ranchers in the western plains feared today's storm might be an omen that they faced another winter such as last when the worst snows in history killed hundreds of thousands of livestock and scores of humans.

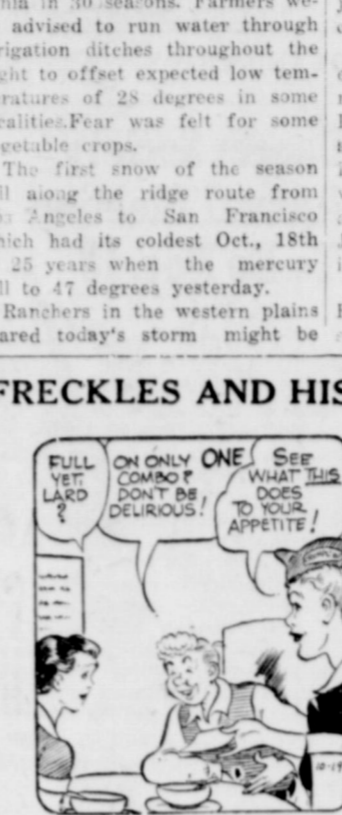

While the West was getting its forecast of winter, the remainder of the nation enjoyed relatively mild weather. The mercury lingered around 65 degrees at New York. The Midwest enjoyed a calm Indian summer except for intermittent showers.

On the north Atlantic, however, wild gales delayed the Cunard liner Queen Elizabeth, the Dutch liner Nieuw Amsterdam, and five Army transports. A French freighter, the Caen, was wallowing in heavy seas with a broken propeller off the New Jersey coast, but appeared in no immediate danger.

The storm was heaviest in the Eastern Atlantic where several ship disasters were reported.

Economic Adviser To Truman May Resign Post

WASHINGTON, Oct. 19 (UP)—President Truman's chief economic adviser is scheduled to quit soon, after a public warning that the government's big time spending spree may ruin the nation.

Dr. Edwin G. Nourse rocked the capital to its heels yesterday with a speech before the National Retail Farm Equipment Association here. Nourse is chairman of the President's council of economic advisers.

His disagreements with fellow councilmen have been revealed and reported hereabouts for many months. His colleagues are Dr. Leon Keyserling and Dr. John D. Clark. The United Press was authoritatively informed that Nourse has resigned effective Nov. 1.

Nourse did not single Mr. Truman out especially for criticism. In fact, he told newsmen later that he did not intend his speech as an "attack" on the administration and was surprised that it had been widely interpreted as such.

In his talk, he admonished farm, labor and other pressure groups for squeezing the national economy in their own special interests. He cited industrial management for failure to make a robust effort to cut prices in the national interest. But Nourse's prime target was government and what he regards as dangerous financial practices.

Rene Mayer Due To Organize New French Cabinet

PARIS, Oct. 19 (UP)—Rene Mayer, radical socialist former finance minister, was named premier-designate today, accepting a presidential assignment to try to form a coalition cabinet.

Mayer will be before the national assembly tomorrow to seek a vote of confidence as premier. The 54-year old financial expert accepted president Vincent Auriol's request to try to resolve the government crisis now nearing the end of its second week.

He conferred with Auriol at the Elysee Palace at mid-afternoon, and afterward his acceptance of the nomination was announced. The former finance minister's "Mayer plan" was credited with saving the inflation-threatened franc in the spring of 1948.

He was called in by the president after the failure of Jules Moch to get an agreement by the Centrist Parties on a new coalition government.

Mayer accepted the bid after getting go-ahead signals from the three main middle-of-the-road parties, the Socialists, Radical Socialists and Popular Republicans.

Political experts said Mayer might get 330 to 335 assembly votes. His confirmation would require a minimum of 311.

Says Dwarf Cattle Raised By Rancher

BILLINGS, Mont. Oct. 19 (UP)—The dwarf Hereford cattle which Gene Holter, 27, of Jamestown, N. D., claimed he found in lost canyon were raised by a Montana rancher, it appeared today.

A Billings meatpacker, who refused to be quoted by name, said the cattle were raised by Kendall Shaules, of Ballantyne, Mont. The packer said the cattle could be identified by tattooed brands in their ears.

The packer said he sold five dwarf Herefords to Holter when the latter was here Sept. 26 with the touring donkey baseball team. Shaules confirmed he had sold the packer the five animals, which he had raised. The Herefords averaged 200 pounds in weight and measured 24 to 28 inches in height, he said.

Shaules said dwarf cattle were becoming "more common all the time" among Hereford and Angus breeds.

Vandenberg Says Navy Repudiates U. S. War Plan

(UP)—Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg said today the Navy seeks to repudiate the national war plan which "is in fact" now preventing Russia from aggression.

The Air Force Chief of Staff said that strategic bombardment, with atomic and other explosives, "is the current national plan" in event of war. He said it bears the stamp of approval of every responsible quarter including the Navy's highest officer, Adm. Louis E. Denfield.

The joint Chiefs of Staff, of which Denfield, as Chief of Naval operations, is a member, informed the committee in August that he able to recover in time to play Saturday. An injection of penicillin was given the star back.

SOUTHWEST COACHES MOSTLY GLUM OVER SATURDAY GAMES

By JACK WINEMILLER
United Press Sports Writer
Tears fell like wine today as Southwest Conference coaches prepared their teams for Saturday encounters with other strong-armed young seekers of education.

At Fort Worth, Dutch Meyer never known for carefree cheerfulness was particularly doleful about Texas Christian's chances in their home game with Mississippi.

The Dutchman predicted a bad beating for his Horned Frogs, who put on an extraordinarily docile practice exhibition yesterday. The injury-riddled Frogs, Meyer said, apparently were content to rest on their laurels after thrashing impotent Texas A&M last week. Texas Aggie Mentor Harry Stiteler, who probably had more reason to shed tears than anyone, struck a brighter note. He was hopeful that his win-free sophomores may conquer their pass defense weakness when they meet undefeated Baylor at College Station.

Stiteler even went so far as to say that the Aggies may do sufficient passing on their own part to overcome Baylor's famed aerial game.

The University of Texas publicized that their Longhorns are strictly "Greenhorns" compared with the Rice Owls whom they play in Austin.

Longhorn mentors were more than quick to point out the every member of the Rice offensive first string has seen prior varsity service, and six of them are Owl squadmen for the fourth straight season.

But the undernourished Longhorns—they average only some 200 pounds in the line—haven't a single man who's lettered more than twice. However, the Stars admittedly were nearing top physical condition, and though the coaches didn't point it out—they lost by only one touchdown to the powerhouse Oklahoma team, one of the finest in the nation.

In Dallas, coach Madison Bell, better known to the trade as "Mossin" Matty, bemoaned the Mustangs lack of pass defense.

He lamented the departure of last week by Rice aeries, is expected to be tormented again in Dallas when it meets Kentucky, the "surprise" team from Bourbonland.

Meyer Evasive On Rumor Of Resignation

FORT WORTH, Tex., Oct. 19 (UP)—Head Coach I. R. (Dutch) Meyer of Texas Christian University said today there was "nothing definite as yet" to published reports that he plans to resign after this season.

Meyer made his statement after a Dallas sports columnist reported that "all plans have been made for the voluntary retirement" of Meyer, with Abe Martin TCU assistant coach, slated to succeed him.

Meyer, who has been on the TCU coaching staff 26 years and served 16 of those as head coach, said he didn't know if he'll be coaching the Frogs next year or not.

He also expressed displeasure and resentment at the matter "being kicked around in the public prints," particularly at mid-season.

nearly as heavy as five-year-old Pears, continued to rock the Ozark Hills in preparation for their invasion of Nashville. The Razorbacks, not enjoying one of their better seasons, hope to get back on the winning track against Vanderbilt.

Strikers Ready To Talk Over Last Grievances

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 19 (UP)—Four striking unions were expected to present plans today for settling the "handful" of grievances holding up settlement of the Missouri Pacific railroad dispute.

Of the 282 original grievances which caused the walkout here Sept. 9, all but about 12 had been settled.

Union negotiators for the 5,000 striking engineers, firemen, conductors and trainmen were expected to hand the company a list of agencies they would consider acceptable to arbitrate the remaining issues.

Guy A. Thompson, trustee for the Mo-Pac, said the railroad would be ready to operate as soon as the final settlement was reached. He said all trains would resume operations within three days. He said the company would "go along with any proposal from the brotherhoods that we think is fair" in disposing of the remaining grievances.

The railroad's operations have been at a standstill throughout its 11-state system. About 20,000 other employees have been idled as a result of the strike.
