The claim was advanced by the official Soviet news Bureau and published in Taegliche Rundchau, official organ of the Soviet occupation forces in Germany. It coincided with the visit to eastern Berlin of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Y. Vishinsky. He left by plane for Moscow today atfer a two-day visit.

The announcement said the new device, called a syncotron, combined the principles of the cyclotron and the betatron, two types used in the United States.

"This new device gives electrons much more energy than those created in betatrons," the announcement said.

It said the idea for the syncotron came from Soviet Scientist I. I. Weksler, who "also had the idea of a new apparatus which speeds up the development of heavy particles to energy as is done in the common cyclotron."

Weksler's device was called a

THE STORY: Three people want, and two people claim to own, a valuable cameo which has just turned up in a California art colony. Both Nell O'Nell and Martin Falter claim ownership. Andrey Yakov, a Russian artist; flagar Blair, a gift shop proprietor, and her assistant. Stephanie Smith, want it. The cameo is in the possession of Arnold Pfieffer, a weaver, who says Martin commissioned him to sell it in San Francisco. Stephanie has just told Hagar that the cameo is more precious to her than anything in the world.

VIII STEPHANIE twisted her slender Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Walden visited in the Noble Squires homes last Saturday.

"I'd be a perdition liar if I didn't admit I'm enjoying the whole thing. Stolen jewels, a chase, everything but a murder. Well, if we can get away with it, I think I have a plan that will out-fox everybody and put that Giovanni delle Corniole cameo right smack in the middle of my collection. Until you can buy it, of course. Are you through mopping up?" Hagar went to the back room.

of is, what will happen if Yakov gets the cameo before we do?"
Hagar mashed out her cigaret and stood up. "I'll tell you what I'm going to do right now: I'm going to put on my coat, hop in going to put on my coat, hop in my car and hunt up Falter. He offered me the cameo for $12,000, and I'm going to see what will happen if I tell him 'yes' on the deal. Maybe I'm a senile old turkey to think of spending that (To Be Continued)
