MISS FAGUY-COTE MR. SEABERRY WED IN FORT WORTH

Wednesday evening in Trinity Episcopal Church in Fort Worth, Miss Elizabeth Faguy-Cote, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Faguy-Cote of Fort Worth, became the bride of Virgil T. Seaberry, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil T. Seaberry of Eastland.

Dr. M. E. Sadler, president of T.C.U., read the service before the altar, which was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and gladioluses and lighted by yellow candles in candelabra and on the altar.

Mrs. Q'Zella Oliver Jeffus played pre-nuptial organ music and accompanied Walter Holmes, who sang "Still As The Night" and "The Lord's Prayer." She also played the traditional wedding marches.

Mrs. Wallis M. McCormick of New Orleans was matron of honor and bridesmaids were Misses Caroline McGown and Dorothy Kraft. Mrs. McCormick wore a hyacinth blue satin and marquisette gown, designed with bertha and wide sash and full skirt, with alternating panels of satin and marquisette. She wore matching satin mitts and a halo cap. The bridesmaids' gowns were identically designed, except they were in lemon yellow. All carried yellow chrysanthemums.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory slipper satin gown with tight fitting bodice embroidered with crystal beads, sweetheart neckline and long tight sleeves. The full skirt was caught in a bustle at the back and flowed into a court train. Her heirloom point d'esprit veil, which was edged with rosepoint lace, was worn over her face and extended in the back the length of her train. Her bouquet was of Roman hyacinths centered by a single white orchid. Her "something old" was an heirloom pearl brooch which belonged to her great-grandmother, for whom she is named.

Cyrus B. Frost, Jr., of Eastland attended his brother-in-law as best man, and groomsmen were William R. Courtney of Temple and Bayard H. Freidman of Fort Worth. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Brooks Morris. Chrysanthemums shading from yellow to bronze in a copper bowl centered the bride's table, which was lighted by yellow candles in brass candelabra. The wedding party, the parents of the bride and groom, and Mrs. Cyrus B. Frost, Jr., of Eastland were included in the house party.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Mexico City and Acapulco, Mrs. Seaberry wore a light weight blue wool sharkskin suit with navy topcoat and accessories. Her shoulder corsage was a white orchid. On their return from the trip they will live in Eastland, where Mr. Seaberry is associated in law practice with the firm of Turner and Seaberry.

The bride attended TCU and the Frances Robinson-Duff School of Drama in New York, and the bridegroom is a graduate of the University of Texas and its law school. He is a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

Christmas Is Theme For Club Meeting

Christmas was the theme when members of the Las Leales Club met Monday evening at the Woman's Club.

Miss Eunice Nall was program chairman, and presented Mrs. Johnny Kilgore, president of the club, who told the Christmas story of "Uncle Edgar and the Reluctant Saint."

Mrs. H. L. Hassell told the origin and history of Christmas cards, illustrating her talk with pictures of Christmas cards, some dating back to 1846.

During the meeting Mrs. Kilgore presided at a business session and heard officers' reports. Members answered roll call with Christmas memories.

After the program and business meeting a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served. For the occasion, the clubhouse was decorated in the Christmas theme, with decorations centering around a Christmas tree.

Those attending the meeting included those named and Mesdames W. E. Steele, Jr., W. Q. Verner, H. C. Westfall, J. C. Whatley, J. O. Earnest, James Horton, Wendell Siebert, Rudolph Little, W. E. Brashier, Wayne Caton, D. E. Frazer, B. F. Hanna, L. E. Huckaby, Don Parker, Homer Smith and G. A. Plummer.

Five Are Hostesses For Bible Class Party

Mesdames Mae Edna Smith, A. G. Crosby, Bill Starkey, Wanda Lea Kelly and Elbert Scott were hostesses Nov. 14 when the Winsome Class of the First Baptist Church held its annual Christmas party in the Fellowship Room of the church.

Mrs. J. D. Stevens of Dublin gave the devotional, and Mrs. J. A. French sang "White Christmas" and accompanied those present in Christmas carols. Mrs. Clifford Nelson read a poem, "Christmas Shoppers," written by Mr. Nelson.

Santa Claus visited the party and distributed gifts.

Refreshments were served to those named and to Mesdames L. M. Chapman, Gene Rhodes, Wanda Huddleston, George Ford, J. C. Butler, Bert Maxwell, Jimmie Young, Fern Love, Roland Koch, John F. Williams, Bill Kendricks, and Dean Chapman.

Local Women Attend Party In Ranger

Mesdames George Davenport, Sam Butler, Allen D. Dabney, Milton Long, John D. McRae, Joseph M. Perkins and A. H. Gleason were in Ranger Thursday to attend the annual Christmas party for the 1920 Club and guests.

The party was held in the home of Mrs. John M. Gholson, a charter member of the club. Co-hostess was Mrs. M. H. Hagaman, also a charter member of the club and its first president.

During the afternoon, Mrs. G. C. Boswell told a Christmas story, and Christmas carols were sung by the Ranger Junior College Chorus under the direction of Fred D. Baumgardner. Mrs. C. E. Ma' told the Christmas story "Why the Chimes Rang."

Tea was served from a table covered with a Venetian lace cloth and lighted by red candles in silver candelabra, surrounded by rose and silver tinted mistletoe. White gladioluses, poinsettias, silver fern and red and pink carnations decorated the room.

Gift Tea Is Honor For Mrs. Bill Day

Mesdames Travis Hilliard, Marvin Hutto, J. T. Weaver, O. P. Dick, Christine Patterson and W. P. Edwards entertained Saturday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Edwards in Olden with a gift tea complimenting Mrs. Bill Day, the former Miss Helen Jean Alford and a recent bride.

Mrs. Edwards, Mrs. T. M. Alford, mother of the bride, Mrs. Day and Mrs. R. C. Day of Gorman, mother of the bridegroom, received the guests, who were registered in a white leather bound bride's book. Mrs. Oslene Hogan and Mrs. Weaver presided at the guest book.

Mrs. Kenneth Williamson presided at the tea table, which was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a poinsettia. Red candles in crystal holders lighted the table. Miss Thelma Edwards assisted in the dining room.

Music was furnished by Miss Betty Vaughn, and Mrs. Dick presided over the gifts.

Dear Santa: I want a doll and books for Christmas. Melinda wants a doll and books too.

I like you, Santa. I have been good. I am going to have a big Christmas. Are you going to have a big Christmas, Santa? I hope so. Tena Carol Urban.

Susan Steele Class Yule Party Held

The annual Christmas party for members of the Susan Steele Class of the First Methodist Church was held Friday afternoon in the home of Mrs. R. L. Watson.

Decorations for the party were in the motif of the season, and centered around a Christmas tree from which gifts were exchanged during the afternoon.

Mrs. Mae Harrison gave the devotional, and those present joined in singing Christmas carols.

At the close of the afternoon, refreshments were served to Mesdames Annie Day, J. H. Taylor, J. P. Hearne, Harrison, Maud Bralley, Josie Jones, T. M. Johnson, Welch, Ina Bean, O. O. Mickle, A. H. Gleason, Ida Foster and the hostess.

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS . . .

Dear Santa:
I want a doll for Christmas. I want a nurse's kit, too.

Santa, I would like for you to bring my brother a toy gun and a scabbard.

I love you very much.
I have one more wish—be good to every boy and girl in the world.
Jo Beth Payne.

Dear Santa Claus:
I am a little girl 6 years old. I go to school at South Ward School. I would like for you to bring me an electric train, walking doll, doll buggy, set of dishes, mirror to match my comb and brush set.

If you can't bring me these things, just bring me anything, I will be all right with me.

I love you, Santa Claus.
Your little friend,
Jo Ann Dorsey.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a doll, bicycle, and a ball. Merry Christmas to you.

Your friend,
Glenda Johnson.

Dear Santa:
I love you. Bring me a bicycle basket and a light for a bicycle and an Ejector set and a flashlight and a stocking full of candy.

Your friend,
Mike Anderson.

Dear Santa:
I love you very much.
Please bring me a bicycle and a red dress.

Your friend,

Dear Santa:
I love you, and I have been good. Please bring me a doll that cries.

Your friend,
Edith Flournoy.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a doll buggy and a doll house. Merry Christmas to you.

Your friend,
Suzanne Butler.

Dear Santa:
I know you have been busy. I hope you make your trip this year. I would like a football this year.

Your friend,
Victor Latham.

Dear Santa:
When I saw you last Saturday I thought you were a jolly fellow. I hope that your reindeer are all right. Please bring me a pair of roller skates and please bring me a pair of new shoes. Please don't forget the other little boys and girls.

Merry Christmas and Happy New Year.
Your friend,
Corina Rangel.

Dear Santa:
You were good to me last Christmas.

Dear Santa, will you bring me a doll for Christmas, and a bicycle too?
Love to you,
Mary Smith.

Dear Santa:
It is nearly Christmas again. I hope that Rudolph can come with you again this year. He is jolly, too. Please bring me a toy filling station and a toy farm. I hope you don't forget the other boys and girls. And please don't forget the orphans' home.

Sincerely,
Oran Wayne Rhodes.

Dear Santa:
Please bring me a bicycle. I have been good. Merry Christmas.

a nice rain after he goes home, because although we'd really appreciate a good rain, we'd hate to see the children have a soggy Christmas.

We're really proud of Eastland High School Coach Charles Harris and his girls basketball team for winning the Cisco tournament, and offer our congratulations. Edith Hazard won a medal for sportsmanship, and we congratulate her, too.

One of the funniest things we've heard of in some time happened to Billy Guess, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Graham. It seems he was drilling oil wells at Midland for Buddy Fogelson. While at work one day, he was changing clothes when who walks in but Greer Garson of the movies (in real life, Mrs. Buddy Fogelson.) She literally caught him in his "long handles," but put him at ease by saying she was used to such things on the camera to work ever since, but his camera to work ever since, but his wife, the former Wanda Myrtle Sturm, reports that so far he hasn't gotten a picture of Miss Garson at one of "his" wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Calhoun of Tulsa, Okla., are parents of a new boy born Dec. 12. He has been named Timmy Eugene. Mrs. Calhoun is the former Eula Fay Harbin. They have one daughter, Donna Fay.

Mrs. Johnnie Jarrett and J. C. of Corsicana have been visiting Tobe Morton and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Beck. Saturday, Mr. and Mrs. Beck, Tommy and Nancy and Mrs. Jarrett went to Fort Worth.

Another new car owner is Tobe Morton, who has a black Ford. Gene Trout failed in his examination for the Air Force because of a burst knee cap, and has taken a job with Humble Oil in Glade-water.

Well, Merry Christmas to all, we've got some last-minute shopping to do.

Wise Old Santa's Advice Is—

Buy What You Need— And No More!

But If You Really Need It, Buy It For Christmas AT PULLMAN'S!

Certainly, the international picture is dark, and certainly this is no time for scare buying, and no time for hoarding. It IS a time, though, for wise and considered purchases of articles you really need.

Our store is full of household helps and appliances every household needs. IF YOU NEED TO BUY IT—BUY IT AT PULLMAN'S!

TO OUR MANY FRIENDS AND CUSTOMERS

So many times we've tried to say,
The things we feel from day to day,
The way you've helped us carry on,
And understood when things go wrong.

Perhaps we haven't made it clear,
So may we take this time of year
To try again in words not new,
And extend these wishes just for you:

The words are simple, yet the meaning's clear,
MERRY CHRISTMAS TO YOU, AND A YEAR OF GOOD CHEER!

LETTERS TO SANTA CLAUS . . .

Dear Santa: We enjoy your visit to us each year. Do you think your reindeer can make the trip this year? I want a basketball and electric train for Christmas. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Yours truly, Wilbur Bobbitt.

Dear Santa: We are looking forward to your visit. We always like to see a jolly fellow like you. I guess Mrs. Santa Claus is busy making lots of candy for Christmas. I would like a doll. I would like a girls' bicycle and a new dress. Do you think your reindeer will make the trip? Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. Your friend, Martha Freese.

Dear Santa: I hope you can visit me. I hope your reindeer are able to make it to my house this Christmas time. I hope your wife is all right. Will you please bring me a b-b gun? Merry Christmas, Ronnie Glenn Bufkin.

Dear Santa: I am always glad to have you visit me. I hope your reindeer can make the trip. I know you have been busy. I would like the bride doll I saw at Grissom's. She is dressed in pink. I would like a toy doctor set. I would like some clothes for the bride doll. She is a 16-inch doll. Thank you for the baby doll you gave me last Christmas. Please bring her some clothes, too. I would like a doll trunk, too. I would like some books and records. Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. With love, Charlotte Vaught.

Dear Santa: Every year we have enjoyed your visit. I hope you can get to
