Los Angeles Has Gasoline Price War

As a gasoline price war spread slowly across the nation, operators in the Los Angeles area advertised a "price war" and cut prices up to five cents per gallon on both regular and premium grade of gas. At the above Los Angeles intersection, station owner Jesse Furrow, left has cut the price one cent below his competitor across the street. (NEA Telephoto.)

SEIZURE OF SOFT COAL MINES IS PREDICTED

By United Press
A high government official today predicted federal seizure of the soft coal mines within a few days unless 372,000 striking miners return to the pits or negotiators speed up talks to end the walk-out.

John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers, who have stood firm on their declaration that they would return to work only when they have a contract, said government seizure "might" end the strike.

Rank-and-file expressed interest in the government's officials' statement because they believed seizure would lead to the signing of a contract.

New violence was reported in the coal fields today. One thousand pickets raided a Pennsylvania mine and set a tangle of fire, and mines and miners were attacked in West Virginia.

Wholesale arrests were made in West Virginia.

With frigid weather across much of the northern half of the nation eating heavily into dwindling stock piles of coal, local authorities in many states intensified fuel conservation measures.

The trickle of coal from mines to bins was scheduled to be reduced even more at midnight tonight. About 10,000 members of the Progressive Mine Workers, a rival of the UMW, were scheduled to walk out to enforce their demands for contract improvements. An 11th hour negotiation session was scheduled for today.

Meanwhile mediation director Cyrus S. Ching opened a new drive today to forestall a nationwide telephone strike Friday.

Ching scheduled a meeting with representatives of the CIO Communications workers and the Western Electric Company's sales and installation divisions.

An estimated 100,000 CWU members were ready to walk out at 6 A. M. local time Friday at Western Electric and Bell System facilities across the country. At least 150,000 others were expected to respect the picket lines.

Negotiations dragged on in the Chrysler strike, which was in its 28th day. President Walker Reuther of the CIO Automobile Auto Workers entered the talks at Detroit yesterday.

The strike has idled about 135,000 workers, including 89,000 Chrysler employes.

Negotiations in the coal dispute resumed in Washington this morning, with some government officials predicting the talks would bog down even more as a result of the government's contempt of court action against the miner's union.

Yesterday federal judge Richmond B. Keech directed the UMW to show cause Friday why it should not be cited for contempt because its members ignored a "no strike" order issued by the court.

GOVERNMENT MINE SEIZURE ALMOST SURE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (UP)—A high government official said today that federal seizure of the soft coal mines is "almost inevitable" within a few days.

He told newsmen the crack-down could be averted only by an unexpected speed-up in negotiations between John L. Lewis and the soft coal operators or by an equally unexpected back-to-work move on the part of the 372,000 striking United Mine Workers.

The official did not disclose details of how President Truman would seize the mines. Mr. Truman has said he does not have seizure power now and there have been no indications that he plans to ask Congress for the authority.

As Lewis and the operators resumed negotiations (at 10:30 A. M., EST), some government officials said they believed the parleys would bog down even more as a result of the government's contempt of court action against the union.

Federal Judge Richard B. Keech directed the union to show cause next Friday why it should not be cited in contempt because its members ignore the 10-day "no strike" order he issued on Feb. 11.

Keech's action was not directed against Lewis personally. The mine workers chief twice has pleaded with his miners to return to the pits in accordance with the court's order.

In the past, Lewis and the union has been fined $2,130,000 for ignoring two federal no-strike court orders.

The first suffragette rally in America, called the petticoat rebellion, was staged in Alabama in 1714. Yet women still do not serve on juries in Alabama.

NO ACTION TAKEN IN NASH CASE

The case of Mrs. Margaret Wilma Nash who is being held for Texas authorities in Los Angeles was turned over to the grand jury Monday and according to District Attorney Elzo Been, no action has been taken by the grand jury on the case.

The district attorney stated that he did not expect any action to be taken by the grand jury unless more supporting testimony is found.

Mrs. Nash is being held on her own confession that she killed Jimmie Daniels, Ranger policeman, on February 8, 1925 in Ranger. Los Angeles police have stated that they will hold Mrs. Nash pending instructions from Texas authorities.

Chief W. G. Pounds stated today that if no action is taken by the grand jury when it reconvenes he will call the chief of police at Los Angeles and tell him that the authorities here will not press the case, but that if Mrs. Nash wants to come back to Texas on "her own" to clear up the case officers will go into the case with her.

Chief Pounds stated he felt that the woman should be brought back and her story heard, but that no conviction could result on her testimony alone. He said that the district attorney has stated that more corroborating testimony would have to be found before the woman could be tried.

BULGARIAN MISSION ASKED TO LEAVE WASHINGTON IMMEDIATELY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 21 (UP)—The State Department announced today that it has broken diplomatic relations with Bulgaria.

State Department press spokesman Michael J. McDermott said the United States informed the Bulgarian Foreign office of the break in a note delivered in Sofia yesterday.

The Bulgarian Charge D'Affaire in Washington, Peter Voutov, was informed today and was asked to make immediate preparations to withdraw the Bulgarian diplomatic mission from Washington.

The United States broke off relations because Bulgaria had accused Donald R. Heath, the U. S. minister in Sofia, of conspiring against the Bulgarian government. Bulgaria declared him persona non grata and asked his recall.

The United States warned Bulgaria at the time that this country would break relations unless Bulgaria withdrew the charges. Bulgaria ignored the U. S. warning.

Voutov was at the State Department only five hours. As he emerged from Thompson's office the stock blond diplomat smiled nervously at reporters.

"It is just that the State Department wants to break relations with Bulgaria," he said.

"Soon we are all going home—maybe at the beginning of March."

Voutov said there are 12 Bulgarians attached to his staff. Only two of them—Voutov and his attache, Constantin Grigorov—have diplomatic status.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Feb. 21 (UP)—The government announced today that five Bulgarians, including two former United States legation employes, have been indicted on charges of spying for the western powers.

The announcement was carried by all Sofia papers under the headline: "Legation of the United States in Sofia center of plots and espionage against peoples Republic of Bulgaria."

The indictments were announced while U. S. legation was awaiting a reply to a month-old note demanding that Bulgaria withdraw its request for the recall of American minister Donald Read Heath.

The press charged that the five indicted Bulgarians transmitted political, economic and military information to American intelligence agents.

The two former employes of the U. S. legation were Mihail Shikov, 39, former legation interpreter and son of a wealthy exporter of attar of roses, and Jivka Rindkova, 23; Nikola Tzanlov, 23, described as a former member of the Fascist youth; and Vassi Maltchev, 19, a student.

Barry, 1st. Lt. Paul Gerhart, 26, Germantown, Pa., and T-Sgt. Martin B. Stephens, 30, San Francisco, were flown from their base at Fort Worth, Tex., to search headquarters here to retrace their steps in reaching safety on maps made by aerial reconnaissance planes.

Barry's confidence that his missing buddies were on the island was relayed to the dog-tired searchers. But hope decreased that the missing airmen could stay alive during miserable weather without food.

Fine-tooting the island was a major job. It is 50 miles long and about 20 miles across at the widest point.

Perkins Attends Ford Tractors Dealer Session

Bob Perkins of Perkins Implement Co., has returned from Dallas, where he attended a statewide meeting of Ford Tractor and Dearborn Farm Equipment dealers.

The meeting, sponsored by Dearborn Motors Corporation, Detroit, and The Stewart Company, Texas distributor for the Ford Tractor and Dearborn Farm Equipment, was held at the Adolphus Hotel, Dallas.

He reports that emphasis was placed on improved methods of advertising, merchandising and public relations to enable farm equipment dealers to improve service to their farmer customers, and to strengthen their own position as individual businessmen.

Dearborn officials at the meeting revealed that more than 105,000 Ford Tractors were produced in 1949, the highest number ever made in one year. A large percentage of this record production went on farms in this state.

Attending the meeting with Perkins were, L. A. Bennett and Verner Chambliss.

Damp And Cooler Weather Due

By United Press
Showers will dampen Texas today and bring cooler weather to the north and western sections tonight.

In an early morning forecast, the U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas said showers could be expected in East Texas today and tonight and in the Del Rio-Eagle Pass area for two days.

Between midnight and dawn, rain was reported at Fort Worth, Marfa and Dallas. Skies were clear in the Panhandle and South Plains but clouds hung over the rest of the state during the early morning hours.

The top of a cool front touched Dalhart before sunup, dropping the mercury to 34 degrees. It had not reached Amarillo where the temperature was 47 degrees.

At the other end of the thermometer, Brownsville had a warmish 70.

Other pre-dawn readings were Lufkin 53, Dallas 58, San Antonio 62, Houston 59, Childress 54, Abilene 56, El Paso 55.

AUTOPSY MAY BE BIG FACTOR IN SANDER TRIAL

BY PAUL F. ELLIS
United Press Science Editor
MANCHESTER, N. H., Feb. 21 (UP)—Men accused of murder have been convicted or freed on an autopsy report. So it may be in the case of Dr. Hermann Sander.

He has admitted that he injected 40 cubic centimeters of air into the veins of a dying cancer patient, and the state charges that he thereby committed murder.

The autopsy may show that the dosage of air was not sufficient to cause death. Medical science is not sure just how much air into the heart will kill a person.

Sander's patient, Mrs. Abbie C. Borroto, died December 4 and it was not until some seven weeks later than her body was exhumed and an autopsy performed. The report is a guarded secret.

The states had not ordered an autopsy as is usually the case. This autopsy was made on request of Sander's defense attorneys. It was an unusual autopsy.

In the first place, the dissecting of the body and the minute examination of the vital organs required 10 hours. Many photographs were taken. The comments of the doctors as they worked over the body were recorded on tape.

The whole procedure is expected to be re-played in the courtroom and unless Sander himself goes on the stand it may be the highlight of the trial.

There will be expert testimony from the doctors who were present at the autopsy. Dr. Richard Ford, Harvard University pathologist, will testify for the defense. Dr. Ralph Miller for the State. Miller is the New Hampshire State of Dartmouth College. Dr. Albert Halprin, chief medical examiner for the city of New York, was called in as an outside expert.

The report of the experts probably will not be in agreement. The fact that 10 hours were required for the autopsy may be an indication that the doctors made a thorough search for all centers where cancer had spread in Mrs. Borroto's body. On the death certificate it was stated that she had cancer of the large bowel that had spread to the liver. In such advanced stage of cancer it is quite common to find in an autopsy that cancer had spread to many other parts of the body. The defense is expected to emphasize that the cancer was not advanced, regardless of the number of cubic centimeters of air.

Grand Jury Recesses

The Eastland Grand Jury, after meeting all day Monday and returning nine indictments, recessed until March 2, District Clerk Roy Lane stated.

FINGERPRINTS Don't Lie

By Rupert Hughes Copyright 1950 by Rupert Hughes Dist. by NEA SERVICE, INC.

THE STORY: Police are investigating the murder of the wealthy Wendell Palmer, whose skull was battered with the base of a telephone at his home. The body was discovered by Nadine Palmer, the murdered man's daughter, who had been driven home by Nadine Fennell, a friend. Among the police officers investigating the crime is James Stivers, of the Scientific Investigation Division, who reveals his suspicion there may be fingerprints on the phone by warning detective Pete Kelso to stay away from it.

In her excitement, Azalea flung out many references to her fiance Paul Moody, and her father's interference with their plans.

IV
THE dark library was fitfully dazzled by the lightnings of the photographer's flash bulbs as he made records of the body, the furniture, the room. One of the police detectives took and recorded measurements and distances and made a detailed floor map with a notation of every article of furniture. Before long, newspaper photographers and reporters would be moving about, making notes and taking pictures of their own. By the shattered form that had gathered all this throng, the Medical Examiner knelt and busied himself about his grisly chores, unrestrained by any of the warnings not to touch or move anything. With delicate caution the Scientific Investigation Division man, James Stivers, groped and peered and photographed with his self-lighting camera the surfaces where fingerprints could be seen. Some of these would undoubtedly be those of the dead man. Others would probably be those of Azalea Palmer or Nadine Fennell or some of the servants now off duty. By eliminating these, Stivers hoped to find tattletale records left by the murderer. It occurred to him that it would be well, while he was there, to take the prints of the dead man's daughter Azalea and her friend Nadine for reference, while he was studying the

"Damn it, Kelso, I told you to keep away from that telephone!" The girls did not hear the colloquy that followed in the other room, and they forgot the incident for the time being as they began to answer the questions asked them by Police Detective Fleming. Nadine tried to defend Azalea from the inquisition as best she could, until Azalea's benumbed soul came back to itself, and she grew fiery with a demand for revenge upon the murderer. In her excitement Azalea flung out many references to her fiance Paul Moody, and her father's interference with their plans. "Wittily she put ideas into Fleming's head that made him think of Paul as the nearest and most likely suspect."

other prints in the Crime Laboratory. One of the two detectives from Headquarters, Dick Fleming, was merciful enough to remove the two girls from the ghastly scene of commotion. Stivers decided to take their prints at once. He followed the girls into the adjoining living room, and set up shop. They listlessly obeyed his instructions as he spread a smear of special ink over the glass slide on the outside of his kit case. Then he ran an inkroller over this, then lightly brushed the fingertips of the girls with the roller, and pressed them successively on little compartments of fingerprint cards. At the bottom of the cards he pressed all their fingers at once. And on each card, of course, he wrote name and date.

IN the meanwhile, Stivers had gone straight to Pete Kelso and shoved him back from the telephone, as he growled: "I was saving this for special attention. If you've touched it, I'll murder you!" He did not note that Kelso was pushing back into his pocket the handkerchief he had cautiously drawn out. He did not note how anxiously Kelso watched as Stivers, with exquisite caution, pushed his camera close against the curved sides of the telephone and its base, then pressed the little lever that made the bulbs inside the camera flare and illuminate the surface where Stivers' keen eyes could see the patterns of fingerprints. He gave each about eight seconds' exposure. To his glowering Kelso he said: "This is the way it was, I guess. The old man tried to telephone for help. He had the handset off the cradle when the killer lifted the big heavy base in both hands and smashed the edges down on the

KISSING INCIDENT SETS UP FACTIONS IN TOWN

BY CARTER BRADLEY
United Press Staff Correspondent
BETHANY, Okla., Feb. 21 (UP) — A simple little kiss divided this "blue law" town into warring factions today.

Sixteen-year-old Riddell Riggs planted the kiss on the lips of Charlotte McClain, also 16, when he crowned her basketball queen at Bethany High School last Thursday night.

The peck in public touched off a strike of about 25 apprehensive students and culminated yesterday in expulsion of six of the strikers after they returned to classes.

At a mass meeting last night, about 200 irate parents formed a citizens committee to demand reinstatement of the expelled youths and dismissal of Mrs. Alonzo Norwood, the school principal.

The group also planned to press for relaxation of the rules which cover their children's conduct in school.

The students left their classes Friday afternoon after the two principals in the bussing incident were called into Mrs. Norwood's office. She asked them why they didn't carry out the coronation ceremony as it had been rehearsed—without the kisses.

The students said they walked out because they expected repercussions. Bethany, about 10 miles northwest of Oklahoma City, has long been a stronghold for believers in the Nazarene faith. They frown upon kissing in public, smoking, drinking beer, dancing and wearing such "unorthodox" clothing as shorts and slacks.

About half of the population of Bethany is now non-Nazarene, however, because many Oklahoma City workers have moved into housing projects here.

The parents group hired Attorney Fred L. Sikes to file a petition with the State Board of Education seeking the discharge of Mrs. Norwood.

Sikes told the mass meeting that the Nazarene Church engaged in religious oppression in controlling the Bethany public schools. The church operates Bethany Penial college, for Nazarenes.

"The thing to do is go over head of the (Bethany) school board and superintendent," Sikes said. "We can get the whole lot of them knocked out. When religion gets into schools like this, something is badly wrong."

Sikes advised the expelled students to return to school "as if nothing had happened."

"Make them expel you every day, because each separate act will be unconstitutional," he advised.

FALLS CITY, Neb. (UP) — A thief stole four 32-gallon barrels of cylinder oil, five gallon cans of gear oil, and 75 pounds of grease from a bulk oil station here. In terms of money, the loot was valued at $150.

Eight Burn To Death As Fire Destroys Home

ADDISON, Mich., Feb. 21 (UP) — Farmer Gerald Beagle and seven of his nine children burned to death early today when fire destroyed their rickety frame home.

The victims' scorched bodies were found in the smoldering ruins by firemen who said they "didn't have a chance against the flames."

Victims were Beagle, 44, Geraldine, 14; Barbara, 12; Elois, 10; Norma, 9; Paul, 6; William, 5, and Linda, 23 months.

"They're all dead," she sobbed. "I saw all of them there before I got out."

She said the fire was caused by a defective coal furnace, but authorities were unable to verify her statement immediately.

Advantages of HYDRO-FLATION

MORE TRACTION—Added weight enables the traction bars to get a better grip... increases drawbar pull.

INCREASED TREAD LIFE—A better grip reduces slippage, thus Hydro-Flated tires last longer because they get a more positive grip.

RETAINS PNEUMATIC PRINCIPLE—An air chamber is left in a Hydro-Flated tire to absorb shocks, lengthen life of cord body.

IMPROVED RIDING QUALITIES—Tires partially filled with liquid soften the jolts and jars.

LOWEST POSSIBLE COST—With the Firestone Electric Hydro-Flator we can do the job faster and cheaper than by any other method.

CONFESSED BANDIT WAITS RETURN TO LOUISIANA

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 21 (UP)—A mild-mannered robbery victim who told police that he had made off with $28,000 in a stick-up at the swank old Southport Club outside New Orleans relaxed today as he awaited the arrival of Louisiana authorities.

The man, about 55, identified himself as F. G. Maloney. He nonchalantly told police Capt. Fritz of Dallas that all he wanted to do is go back to Jefferson Parish, La., and "get this thing straightened out."

Fritz amplified "this thing" as the $28,000 hijacking of the old Southport Club last Jan. 10. "I only got what was coming to me," Maloney told Fritz.

Fritz said he had been told that Maloney formerly worked at the gambling club, and that he was once Jefferson Parish sheriff Frank Clancy's brother-in-law.

Dallas police became acquainted with Maloney last Sunday when he reported that two masked men, armed with revolvers, had broken into his tourist cabin and stole $888 in cash and a diamond ring. With him was a staturesque, 30-year-old redhead who had registered as his wife.

Fritz called Maloney in for an interview yesterday to talk about the tourist court robbery.

Shortly after Maloney had gone New Orleans police called Fritz and recommended that the man be questioned in the old Southport robbery.

Maloney and the redhead later were picked up in downtown Dallas. Fritz said Maloney had $10,000 in his pockets when arrested and $5,000 was found in the hotel room where the couple had registered following the tourist court holdup.

"I think he knows who robbed him and I also think they took him for several thousand dollars," Fritz said. "They knew what they were after."

Louisiana police said they did not want the red-head but offered to give her a "free ride" back to Jefferson Parish when they return Maloney.

FT. WORTH BOXERS KEEP TEAM CHAMPIONSHIP

FORT WORTH, Tex., Feb. 21 (UP)—Fort Worth boxers today retained their team championship after easing out Amarillo in the 14th Annual State Golden Gloves Tournament last night.

About 7,800 fans were on hand last night to witness the semi-finals and finals of the tournament in Will Rogers Coliseum.

Pat McCarthy, a 107-pounder from Amarillo took the flyweight championship by piling up points in the first two rounds and standing off a third-round attack by southpaw Ferrell Snider, 112, of Fort Worth.

Another left hander, Felix Baker of Houston, won the bantamweight title by defeating Freddy Morales, 116, of Abilene, flyweight champion for two years. Baker, 118, pounds, used his longer arms to advantage, although Morales had the edge on in-fighting.

Alfred Flores, a hard-hitting Allen Academy student, decisioned veteran Lloyd Densman, 126-pounder from Waco, in the featherweight title scrap. Flores straightened up Densman several times in the second round with a looping right.

Johnny O'Glee of Dallas kept his lightweight championship by jabbing his way to a decision over Jim McFadden, a Waco soldier. O'Glee took the lead early in the first round with sharp rights and hurt McFadden with uppercuts in the second heat when the soldier went into a crouch.

Adolfo Martinez, a 19-year-old El Paso puncher, took the welterweight title by springing a technical knockout in the second round over Johnny Pannell of Corpus Christi. Martinez, arm was raised when Pannell, who had been belted with left hooks and a haymaker right, couldn't answer the bell for the second round.

Chunky Wallace Willard of Houston finally caught up with Jim Wortham, Amarillo 157-pounder and floored him with a right hook in the third round to win the middleweight championship on a decision.

Michael Woolsey, a fighter mad 172-pounder of Fort Worth, soothed his pride by scoring a technical knockout over J. Roy Henry of Amarillo for the light heavyweight championship.

His semi-final decision over Campbell Woodman of Bryan brought boos and catcalls from the spectators. His second-round victory clinched the team title for Fort Worth.

In the final fight, Tom Adams of Hardin Simmons, who has never lost a golden gloves fight in Texas in four years, pounded James Hoff of Rice Institute to win the heavyweight championship. Adams floored Hoff in the first round for a nine-count with a left hook and right cross, but the Houston boxer was still on his feet at the final bell.

His sentence—12 years in the penitentiary.

DALLAS, Tex., Feb. 21 (UP)

—A lack of "money sense" by some Texas legislators was criticized yesterday by Prof. George C. Hester of Southwestern University.

Hester, a former member of the legislature, told the Texas Retail Jewelers Association at a luncheon that the state needs to reduce its expenditures.

The expenditures, the professor of government said, have nearly quadrupled in the past decade and although tax revenue has greatly increased, "we still haven't got enough money."

HUBBARD, Tex., Feb. 21 (UP)—Injuries received last night when his automobile left the road and overturned on the outskirts of Hubbard were fatal to Hoyt Odom Fondren, 53, of Dawson.

"He just got mad at me over the deal," Walkup said.

A big promise? Yes—and one the 1950 Nash Ambassador stands ready to prove the first time you ride in it.

Here is something absolutely new in the design; construction and balance of a fine car.

For here is Airflyte Construction of double rigidity. Note how much steeper it rides rough roads . . . how much smoother it is, with super-soft coil springs cushioning all four wheels.

And never was a moving car so quiet . . . so free of wind roar, thanks to Airflyte design . . . so free from body-bolt squeaks and rattles.

No, nothing on earth rides like the 1950 Nash Ambassador—nor gives you so much fine-car value! Even a Custom model, equipped with Hydra-Matic Drive, costs as much as a thousand dollars less than other fine cars. See your Nash dealer.
