Progress Made In Phone, Chrysler Negotiations

FOR FISHERMEN ONLY

The story of Cantron F and Fire Lacquer begins about 16 year ago when Robert C. Switzer, then 78 year old and a student of chemistry at the University of California and his brother, Joseph L., one year younger, were experimenting with color illusions for their amateur magician acts. They eventually developed a chemical compound that glowed weirdly under ultraviolet light. They used this in their magic illusions and attracted so much notice that they were invited to produce an act for a magicians convention in Oakland in 1938. Their act of ballet dancers with costumes that glowed with an eerie light was the hit of the show.

Following this, night club and show producers swamped them with orders. They became so busy filling orders that they quit school and opened a factory to manufacture this fluorescent like material which they called "Cold-fire." They eventually worked out other uses for their new chemical such as detecting flaws in metal. They later moved to Cleveland, Ohio and soon several large automotive and farm machinery companies were using their process.

Soon, they were experimenting with their new product to utilize the ultraviolet rays of the sun to activate their weird chemical. Instead of impregnating ordinary material, they undertook to make it a base of glowing new material. They finally succeeded, producing a synthetic fabric in several colors that were many times brighter than fabrics containing ordinary dyes.

Before the war the Navy Department was looking for new ideas in signaling devices. In 1941 at Fort Knox, Kentucky, they accepted the Switzer Brothers Daylight Fluorescent Signaling Device and when we entered the war it was one of our important military tools.

Early in the war, two aviators, forced down at sea were trying to catch fish to keep them alive but were having no luck. About dusk one of the fishermen suggested that they try a piece of that bright stuff their signal flag was made of as a lure. With these brightly wrapped hooks the fish began to bite hungrily. They reported the incident after their rescue but it was soon forgotten.

After the war John O. Gantner, Jr., a California bathing suit manufacturer adopted this bright material for bathing suits and beach wear.

The important development for fishermen came in 1947. Eugene O. Burns, a former college professor and war correspondent, called on Mr. Gantner. Burns being an enthusiastic fisherman, used some of this bright thread to make up a few trout flies. These he tried in the California Streams and the results were sensational. As Mr. Burns described it. These flies, however, were short of perfection as they were not waterproof and when treated, lost their radiant glow. But Burns and Gantner stayed with their problem and soon the Switzer Bros. were making waterproof thread for fly tying which they called Gantner F.

With this, Gantner and Burns and a few associates formed the Firelure Corporation in San Francisco. Flies were tied with this Gantner F. and turned over for test to experienced anglers in several parts of the country. The results were glowing reports of these glowing lures. At high altitudes and early morning and late afternoon fishing, they surpassed anything they had ever used. Forty-five commercial tackle manufacturers are now using it. Hollifield's Firestone Store has this lure on hand.

Waterproofing still dulls the color of this Fire Lacquer but research is still working on this problem. Hackle, hair and wings

Television Show

PULLMAN HOME, POPULAR PLACE ON WED. EVENING

Wednesdays, the hours between 6:00 and 7:00 p. m., is a noisy, crowded one in the Henry Pullman home. Gangs of little boys, Friends of Sol Arno, Pullman's son, rush in and spread themselves all over the furniture, floors, and other essentials to watch the "Lone Ranger," champion justice, via the television air-waves. And on all the other days, and nights, friends, neighbors, and "just people" invade the pullman living room to watch the mystery of programs taking place in near-by Fort Worth and Dallas. Pullman hasn't any idea just how many people have viewed programs on his set but he says there are many.

Pullman installed television in his home December 10, 1949, for experimental purposes. Lately, he has added an 85 foot aluminum tower, and will begin using the antenna atop that soon. At the present, he is using a small antenna erected on the roof of his house and gets exceptionally clear pictures. However, he can only pick up Fort Worth and Dallas but when he connects to the tower, he expects to bring in all of the stations in the six Texas cities now broadcasting television.

Pullman uses a Motorola set with a 12 and one-half inch screen. Channels four and five are all that he is equipped to receive. He uses a booster to pick up the programs but the atmosphere sometimes causes the image on the screen to blur and fade. This is a rare occurrence, though.

Carbon's F. F. A. Teams Place In Judging Contest

Six members of the Carbon F. F. A. Club have placed in the dairy and poultry judging contest held at John Tarleton College recently, C. T. Spence, adviser and coach has announced. The three members comprising the dairy team placed third in the contest and the three man poultry team placed fourth.

The dairy team, composed of Carroll Hogan, Charles McDaniel and Cyrus Justice, competed against 44 other teams. Billy Tucker, Kenneth Snider, and Bobby Tucker, comprise the poultry team. Kenneth Snider was second high individual in the Area IV., judging.

On May 5, the two teams will participate in the State F. F. A. judging contest to be held at Texas A & M College in College Station. This year marks the final season the entire dairy judging can compete but the poultry team will have two more years eligibility left.

Sponsors Named One More Needed For Ball Teams

Eastland is scheduled to have four softball league teams, a district team, and five boys teams, this season, according to information received here. The district team has not been selected but will be announced soon.

The league teams are to be sponsored by Hood King's Motors, the First Baptist Church, and Killgore's Creamery. A sponsor for the other league team has not been announced.

The boys teams will be sponsored by the Boy Scouts and the Quarterback Club.

Opening dates for this season has not been announced but the field is being prepared and lights are being installed now. It is hoped that league play can begin before the last week in May.

Approximately eight near-by towns are expected to enter a team in the district and they are tentatively scheduled to play one game away from home and one at home each week.

MAN THROWS SELF UNDER WHEEL TO SAVE WIFE

SEVIRVILLE, Tenn., April 28 (UP)—The wife of a retired Detroit printer told today how her 75-year-old husband threw his body under the wheel of their automobile and kept her from being carried over a 2,000-foot mountain cliff.

Mrs. Alonzo Fasset, who spent an anxious night at her husband's bedside in a hospital here said the rear wheel passed over his body but the car stopped one foot short of the precipice when the front wheel lodged against him and held.

Doctors assured Mrs. Fasset that her husband apparently suffered only bruises and scratches in saving her from certain death.

The incident occurred yesterday as the couple was sightseeing in the Great Smoky Mountain National Park on the way back from Detroit from a five-month vacation in Florida.

"We were on the highest part of the mountain when Mr. Fasset decided to get out of the car to look at the lovely view," Mrs. Fasset said.

Details Of Rumored Agreements Not Revealed By Negotiators

CHICAGO, April 28 (UP)—The nation's labor outlook cleared today as negotiators neared settlements in the telephone dispute and in the Chrysler strike.

No progress was reported, however, in an attempt by the National Railways mediation board to ward off a strike scheduled by the Brotherhood of Firemen and Enginemen against four rail networks for May 10.

And a strike by 12,000 AFL building service employes in New York went into its second day. Residents of 754 apartment buildings began migrating to hotels to avoid walking up and down stairs and collecting their own garbage during the strike by elevator men and janitors for higher wages.

At Washington, the CIO Communications Workers Union reported that it had dropped its demands for higher pay and shorter hours in favor of other benefits. The union called off a strike, scheduled for last Tuesday, while new bargaining sessions were in progress with American Telephone and Telegraph Corp.

However, the union said it was still asking for pay boosts for workers in Bell Laboratories and for employes of Western Electric Company.

About 11,000 of the Western Electric workers have been on strike since Monday. Indiana strikers had threatened to "jam" long distance lines today with excessive calls but decided against the move after learning that progress was being made toward settlement of the phone dispute.

At Detroit, Federal and State mediators reported that "a lot of progress" had been made toward settlement of the 94-day-old Chrysler strike which has idled 89,000 CIO United Auto Workers. About 25,000 other non-striking workers have been thrown out of employment by the strike.

At Chicago, members of the Railway mediation board met again in closed session with officials of the firemen's union and representatives of the nation's railroads.

The union has demanded that an additional fireman be placed on board big diesel engines but the companies have refused to do so, saying the second man is unnecessary. The Brotherhood threatened to strike last Wednesday but postponed the walkout for two weeks to give the board one last attempt at settlement. The strike, had it come off, would have affected the New York Central, Pennsylvania, Southern and Santa Fe Railroads.

A new CIO union, the International Union of Electrical Workers, took a slight lead over the left-wing United Electrical Workers, recently ousted from the CIO, in voting yesterday among employes of Westinghouse Electric Corporation. But the results still were not decisive since the voting was by bargaining units. Both unions won bargaining rights for 20 groups each. Run-off elections, expected to be held for four units, probably will determine whether the UE or the CIO-IUE will dominate the electrical field.

At Denver the Oil Workers International (CIO) announced that it planned to sue the Texas Company for $2,000,000 on grounds that the firm locked out members attempting to return to work at the Fort Neches, Texas refinery after a strike.

Texas Promised More Showers

By United Press
Virtually all of Texas was promised scattered thundershowers by tonight, and the weatherman warned the Gulf Coast area to expect more squalls like yesterday's blow. Thundershowers yesterday brought hail and wind along the coast that was strong enough to knock down some 40 telephone poles on the La Port Road, break windows and damage a few roofs.

The U. S. Weather Bureau said most of Texas would receive some thundershowers today or tonight. Only the El Paso area reported clear skies this morning.

Most of the central portion of the state had some drizzle during the last 24 hours, the weatherman said.

The cool front that pushed in to the state yesterday has become weakened and practically stopped in the extreme northern part of Texas, and is rapidly breaking up in the face of strong south winds.

Temperatures yesterday ranged from a high of 97 at Presidio to a low maximum of 65 at Dalhart. Dalhart was also the coldest spot in Texas last night with 40 degrees, while Brownsville had the highest minimum with 76.

Escapee Admits Houston Burglary

HOUSTON, Tex., April 28 (UP)—A 27-year-old escapee from an Illinois jail admitted today he robbed a San Antonio home of $30,000 in jewelry last March 15.

Donald Peck of Danville, Ill., was brought here yesterday from Dallas for questioning in the bluejean murder 10 days ago of Willard Rhodes at Hockley.

In a written statement early today, he said he took the jewelry from the home of Lewis Cayton in San Antonio. The loot included a $17,000 bracelet and other expensive jewelry, Peck stated. Yifsch, V. (Buster) Kern said most of the gems had been recovered here and in Conroe.

DOUBTS RED RECONCILIATION BUT EXPECTS NO WAR SOON

By Edward M. Korry—United Press Staff Correspondent
BELGRADE, Yugoslavia, April 28 (UP)—Premier Marshal Tito today dismissed the possibility of an early reconciliation with Russia but predicted there was no likelihood of war in the foreseeable future.

Tito made his statement at a press conference for the entire foreign press corps at the Belvi Dvor (White Palace), the official residence. It was the first time he has received the entire foreign press corps in more than two years.

The conference was called one day after Tito, in a speech before the Yugoslav Parliament, proposed creation of a "good neighbor" policy with Yugoslavia's non-communist neighbors—Greece, Italy and Austria.

In an interview lasting one hour and 40 minutes, Tito made these major points:

1. Communist China should be admitted to the United Nations immediately because it would lessen the threat of war and would strengthen the UN, on which Yugoslavia bases its foreign policy.
2. Tito believes there is widespread dissatisfaction in the communist countries such as Bulgaria, but he sees no possibility of a mass uprising or civil war.

3. United States policy toward Yugoslavia is of long term interest to Yugoslavia because Tito believes that the United States is sincere in its offers of economic help to Yugoslavia.
4. There is no possibility of reconciliation with the Soviet Union "for at least a certain period of time" but one day relations "must become normal or at least bearable."

5. Yugoslavia has not sought to purchase arms from any western country because there is no urgent need for them. Tito is of the opinion that there is no likelihood of war at this time.

6. Yugoslavia is anxious to begin direct negotiations with Italy to settle the Trieste question but not on the basis of the proposals of Italian Foreign Minister Count Sforza.

Tito cited the September 1947 agreement with Palmiro Togliatti calling for the return of Gorizia to Yugoslavia and the return of the city of Trieste to Italy as still being Yugoslav policy and the basis for any talks.

When you pick a Tractor... be sure you can always get parts

Any tractor is a big investment. You have every right to expect years of profitable performance from such an investment. In this connection one of the first things to think about is—"Will I always be able to get parts?"

The Ford Motor Company manufactures the Ford Tractor. What greater assurance could you have of being able to get parts—anytime, anywhere.

Not only is this important to you as long as you have the tractor, but it is also something the buyer thinks about seriously when you go to sell or trade in your used Ford Tractor. This is only one of the many reasons why a used Ford Tractor commands a high resale price.

THE SIGN FOR SERVICE ...that can't be beat!

We are pretty proud of this service sign. We do our best to live up to those seven letters S-E-R-V-I-C-E.

We spend time and money training our mechanics. But we feel this is worthwhile to us because it's worthwhile to our customers.

We try to keep an adequate stock of genuine parts on hand at all times... and to stock up on parts ahead of the busy seasons so we have what you need in emergencies.

We cordially invite you to look over our service setup.

The jury began its weekend recess last night without making a report, but it heard more evidence in the case of the will.

Jewelry Thief Leaves For Term At Huntsville

PERRYTON, Tex., April 28 (UP)—Former private detective Lloyd Edwin Roberts goes to Huntsville State Penitentiary today to begin serving a four-to-seven year sentence for the largest jewel burglary ever staged in the Texas Panhandle.

Roberts pleaded guilty yesterday to the theft of $200,000 worth of jewels and watches from the Burk Drug Store on the night of Dec. 7. He entered a plea of guilty last Monday to another charge—forcible entry of the drug store.

The jewel robbery was fantastic.

Roberts broke into the store to crack the safe, but failed. Then he "stumbled" onto the gems, which had been left in sample cases in the drug store for overnight safekeeping by two traveling salesmen.

Police found a torn shirt behind a Perryton store and trailed Roberts to Dallas. He led authorities to a spot where he had buried $50,000 worth of valuables. Two days later he excavated another $150,000 worth of jewels in an abandoned hog wallow outside Perryton.

Roberts blamed his wrong doing on a sympathetic nature.

"Christmas was coming on, and I was feeling sorry for poor people," he said.

Attorney H. M. Hood said there would be no appeal for Roberts, and sheriff Ray Phagan left with him for Huntsville today.
