YOU NAME IT

By Everett Taylor

Today is Sunday. Why not attend the church of your choice? Too tired you say? Well, a report by psychologists says that it is more relaxing to attend a religious service than to do anything else you might think of. Figure it out for yourself.

Over in the courthouse the other day, we dropped by the Sheriff's Office where we found Sheriff J. B. Williams just leaving for Ranger, and Deputy Sheriff Cotton Graham just sitting around, waiting to answer the phone, which didn't ring a time during our visit. Just as we were leaving, Ben Ramsey, candidate for lieutenant governor, came in to give us a handshake and a book of matches. Ramsey and Graham began talking and it turned out that Graham knew some of Ramsey's relatives who live in the country. Seems Ramsey had a grandmother who used to live in Eastland County.

Walked over to County Clerk W. V. Love's office and found him rummaging through a drawer full of official looking papers. They must have not been too important, because he took time out to come over and talk with us for a while.

Love told us that he was in Gorman Thursday for the old Gorman College reunion. He said that he saw a lot of his old buddies that he hadn't seen for several years.

Mr. W. D. Owen dropped in, and he and Love told us quite a few interesting stories about this part of the country in the early part of the century.

Owen told us about a fishing trip on which he got all the fish he cared for.

When he was about 17 years old, he and a group of men loaded up a wagon or two and started out for the river. It took them about three days to get there, and by that time they had eaten about all the meat they had taken with them.

The first day it rained, so that put the river on a rise, and also put a damper on the fishing for a while. All of which left them searching for food.

It was decided that everyone would go hunting, except Owen, who was left with a canoe to paddle up and down the river and give people who were stranded on the other side a lift over. The hunters had luck, and the group dined on squirrel for a while.

In a day or two the river went down and the fishing began. The first catch was a huge soft-backed turtle. For the next few days it was a steady diet of fish and Owen said that he got plenty tired of it.

Eventually, so did the camp leader, and they packed up and returned home, much to the delight of, if not all the group, Owen.

Henry Pullman was sitting in the cafe the other morning, trying to keep a pair of sleepy eyes from closing with a couple of cups of coffee. At last, he gave up and said that he was going back to bed.

A slumber party at Pullman's house the night before, with his daughter inviting some 17 girls over, was the cause of the trouble.

If anybody did any slumbering, it wasn't Pullman.

"I never heard so much racket," he said. "Never again."

Ben Ramsey Visits In Eastland Friday

Ben Ramsey, candidate for lieutenant governor, visited in Eastland Friday.

Ramsey, 46, was born at San Augustine. He is a graduate of the University of Texas.

Ramsey was elected to the House in 1931, served two terms, and was elected to the Senate in 1941 where he also served two terms. He was appointed Secretary of State in January 1949 by Governor Beauford Jester. He continued to serve under Governor Shivers until this spring when he resigned in anticipation of running for lieutenant governor.

Spokesman Still Claims 1,500 Will Attend Singing Festival

A spokesman for the TP Sunshine Singing Association still sticks to his estimate that 1,500 people or more will attend the convention in Ranger.

The meeting is slated to open at 8 p. m. Saturday night at the high school auditorium.

It will continue from about 10 a. m. Sunday through the day. Quartets from Stephenville, Fort Worth, Caddo and perhaps Dallas are expected to attend the song festival. In addition many singers from the surrounding territory are expected to participate.

Charles P. Ashcraft, a Ranger member of the association, took issue with this reporter's calling the festival a show, in one news story.

He pointed out that sponsors of these gatherings have tried for at least fifty years to keep these meetings on a religious basis and that recognition to the Deity is made throughout the meeting.

This reporter did use the word "show" innocently without any innuendo or slight intended. Ashcraft stated,

"If you enjoy solos, duets, quartets and group singing in four part harmony, attend the meeting and see how happy this Christian group can be."

Lift Up Your Heart

By Rev. C. Nelson

I come today to write a word for our young boys and teachers. They are unused because they choose to be. But quietly behind the scenes, in what some people think is a humdrum life, they give of themselves while their distinguished pupils take the bows. And no one is more proud than the earnest teacher. Unless it be the parent.

I write this out of experience both as a teacher and one who has had some of the best teachers a boy and later a man could have. So I dare to try to pay a tribute to this great loyal group of often misunderstood and often overlooked public servants.

Many of these worked for the boys and girls and the youth when they could have made more as a filling station attendant or a yard man. But their calling was the class room. Their life was the boys and girls. They stayed. Many of our Christian schools would have had to close their doors had it not been for the loyal teachers who stayed by the staff in those hard days. They, as much as any one else saved our Christian schools.

When we see a great man's picture on the pages of our papers today remember he had good teachers. Good teachers of the secular training, perhaps good teachers of the rich mysteries of God's word. Paul, that great Christian missionary who blazed a trail of evangelical zeal across Asia Minor and that like of the world had never seen, was prepared at the feet of Gamaliel the great teacher. It has always been that way. So, dear reader, when you see where a great man is receiving recognition look behind the scenes. There in the shadows you see the influence of a great or great teachers. Look closely for they are always there.

Rally Fails As Rockettes Lose Friday

A last inning rally failed to develop Friday night and Willy Willys Rockettes were defeated by Pulliam's Girl's team of Fort Worth, 3 to 1, at Fireman's Park. The Rockettes had runners on second and third when the final out was made.

Scoring one run in the first inning on a hit, a stolen base, and an error, the Rockettes held on to their slim lead until the fifth frame.

Great fielding held the Fort Worth team scoreless in the first four innings. Pulliam's loaded the bases in the third inning and they attempted a sacrifice. The play backfired when the bunt rolled short in front of the plate, and the catcher quickly picked it up, tagged the plate and threw to third in time for a double play.

Another twin-killing in the third with a two on and no outs, cut short a Pulliam rally.

The fifth was the disaster inning for the Rockettes. The Fort Worth team suddenly began slugging the ball and when it was over, they had scored two runs on five hits and two errors.

The Rockettes could not catch up, and Pulliam's added a clincher in the seventh.

A mild rally in the bottom of the seventh which put two runners on, kept the partisan crowd in the bleachers until the finish.

The City League was scheduled to open Saturday night with a game between Olden and Lamb Motor Co.

City Loop games this week will be Kilgore vs. King Ford, Thursday, and Carbon vs. Olden Friday.

200 Four-H Boys Slated To Attend

At least 200 boys are expected for the annual six county 4-H Club camp at Lake Cisco, July 18 and 19, according to Eastland County Agent J. M. Cooper, who with several others recently met and planned the camp.

One new county having a group at camp for the first time will be Jones County. W. H. Lemberg, county agent, will bring a delegation to the camp.

Other counties who will have 4-H Club boys and the respective agents are Cooper and Ed Steele, Jr., assistant agent, Eastland; Ralph Lindsey, Palo Pinto; W. R. Lacey, Stephens county; W. C. Vines, Albany, Shackelford county; and W. R. West, Baird, Callahan county.

The boys bring most of the food from home and the nominal fee charged is for swims, ice, cookeys and a few food items the boys do not bring.

W. R. Lacey, Stephens county agent, was named camp chairman at the recent meeting.

R. C. Burwell, Stephenville, district agent, was present at the planning meeting and indicated he would return for the camp.

Russia May Lay Claim To Antarctic

WASHINGTON, June 10 (UP)—Diplomats speculated today that the Soviet Union is preparing to lay formal claim to a large part of the Antarctic continent.

This speculation came as U. S. officials frankly conceded they were "mystified" at a new Soviet diplomatic move, in which Moscow warned the world that it would recognize no international settlement of Antarctic claims to which it is not a party.

On the surface, the Russian note yesterday appeared to be a belated reference to an unsuccessful American diplomatic venture into the Antarctic picture two years ago.

At the time, the United States suggested to the seven nations with claims in Antarctica that some form of internationalization of the south polar continent be worked out.

Colored Movie To Be Feature Of Electric Show

A colored movie, "West Texas at Work", will be one of the entertainment features of the Texas Electric Show of '50 that opens Tuesday evening at 6 p. m. on the grounds of Breckenridge High School. The motion picture will be shown out of doors. It tells the story of the prosperity of cities and towns served by Texas Electric Service Company, and how electric power is aiding their growth.

Many other entertainment features are provided in this year's Electric Show, according to J. E. Lewis, Texas Electric Service Company manager. Music animated displays, clowns, an elephant, a talking electric range and many other attractions will be presented during the three-day show. It is free.

One unusual attraction will be an animated display presenting a modern version of the story of "Ten Little Indians" and how they disappeared one by one. The Indians are replaced by typical American workers who lose their freedom under socialism. The six-minute presentation tells the story of "Ten Free Workers".

The entire show will be housed in large tents, all treated with flameproofing material. The "big top" will contain the exhibits of modern electric appliances, the life-size pigmy elephant and the farm and ranch electrical equipment displays. A separate bandstand on the grounds will be used by Red (Asa) Woodward and His Home Town Dandies for a program of musical numbers each evening. The talking Reddy Kilgore will sit in a circus wagon of his own to talk to the children.

The City League was scheduled to open Saturday night with a game between Olden and Lamb Motor Co.

City Loop games this week will be Kilgore vs. King Ford, Thursday, and Carbon vs. Olden Friday.

BU Offers New Graduate Degrees

WACO, Texas, June 10—Baylor University officials have announced the inauguration of two new graduate degrees—marking enlargement of the Baylor Graduate school and strengthening the general university program.

The new degrees are Master of Science in the basic sciences, and the Master of Science in special fields such as education and physical education.

The Master of Science in special fields may be secured by the student presenting a bachelor's degree in the field and earning 55 quarter hours of graduate credit. No thesis or oral examination is required.

A thesis, oral examination, and 45 hours will be required in addition to a standard Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science degree for the student taking either the Master of Arts or the Master of Science in the basic sciences.

The degree of Master of Music was not affected by the change.

Truman Attacks Soviet Leaders Vigorously In St. Louis Speech, Isolationists Get Strong Dig Too

By Merriman Smith—United Press White House Reporter
ST. LOUIS, June 10 (UP)—President Truman today denounced leaders of the Soviet Union for threatening the world with another war.

In his most detailed indictment of Russian leaders to date, Truman accused the USSR of booby-trapping the road to world peace with increasingly heavy armaments. "Infiltration, subversion, propaganda" and "ominous tactics" in general.

He said that however grim the picture of Russian obstruction and war-like preparations, the "ominous activities" of the Soviets were being "offset by the growing strength of the free world."

This was Truman's second lengthy exposition of foreign policy in two days. Yesterday, speaking at the University of Missouri at Columbia, he warned the nation to expect continued heavy expenditures for defense and foreign economic aid. His bill of complaint against Russia today was longer and more detailed than any of his speeches since entering the White house in 1945. After accusing Russia of preparing for war he criticized the Soviet Union and its Communist subdivisions of:

1. Attempting to "extend the boundaries of their totalitarian control."
2. Establishing "dictatorships" by proclaiming national independence but actually imposing "national slavery."
3. "Not contributing to peace" and "refusing to participate in the work of the United Nations."
4. "Turning the school children of Eastern Germany into the same kind of pitiful robots that marched into hopeless for Hitler."

5. "Maintaining the largest peacetime armed force in history, far greater than it needs for the defense of its own boundaries."
6. Trying to take over Southeast Asia.

Carefully distinguishing leaders from the Russian people, Truman struck at top officials for using natural resources to build military strength instead of the welfare of their population.

"We have tried to dissuade the Soviet leaders from this militaristic course, so unnecessary, so costly to their people and to ours, so antagonistic to the pursuit of peace," he said.

He pointed out that this country has demobilized the bulk of its armed forces and, in addition, offered through the UN to prevent use of the Atom bomb and share the development of Atomic energy with all nations.

"But despite all those peaceful efforts, Soviet armament has continued to increase," he added.

To counter Russian expansion and militarism, the President advocated two approaches: Maintenance of strong democracies, and "the creation of a just international order applicable to all nations."

In addition to the Marshall Plan program, the President said, "measures of even closer cooperation are now being planned and set up." He did not go into detail on this point, but he added that "we have made good progress so far."

"Because of this progress, we are confident that we can establish the conditions necessary to a genuine peace," he said.

At Truman's last news conference in Washington, he said the world was nearer peace than it had been at any time in the past five years. By illustration, he praised the recent proposal by Robert Schuman, French Foreign Minister, to pool the coal and steel resources of Western Europe.

He said that this "statesmanlike move" would "help to end the age-old rivalry between France and Germany and result in a far more peaceful and productive Europe."

He was pleased, too, by the "growing community of purpose of the North Atlantic treaty countries."

He said that "a balanced collective defense will be stronger and less costly than the old system of completely separate defense establishments." His criticism was not reserved for the Soviet Union alone. He took a stout punch at the isolationists in this country.

"Isolationism is the road to war," he said. "Worse than that, isolationism is the road to defeat in war. The people who are striving to destroy our foreign aid programs and—programs for common defense—are striking at our own national security. They may not mean to do us harm, but they are as dangerous to our future as those who deliberately plot against our freedom."

The President was scheduled to fly back to Washington immediately after his speech here.

Justice Office Makes Charges

ANCHORAGE, Alaska, June 10 (UP)—Justice department agents were believed seeking evidence to add more indictments to a series charging that 23 corporations and 138 individuals had formed monopolies which hurt Alaskan defenses.

A federal grand jury returned the indictments yesterday, the first criminal anti-trust actions in Alaska since 1912.

In announcing the indictments yesterday at Washington, attorney General J. Howard McGrath, said he expected more indictments to be issued in the next two or three months.

He said the indictments filed yesterday were "only the first visible results of the department's drive to free the Alaskan economy of crippling trade restraints and monopolistic practices."

NEWS VIEWS BY MACK WARREN

News story reports that American men are losing the battle of the bulge. The national waistline is on a rising curve. 74 per cent of all belts sold in 1946 were size 34 or smaller—but in 1949 less than 50 per cent were 34 or smaller. That's as revealing as a broken window shade. That good home cooking is bringing out what the drill sergeant tried to make the boys pull in. A simpler survey could have been conducted by peering into the nation's rag bags. They're probably filled with uniforms of ex-soldiers, sailors and marines who couldn't get into them now—even with a Presidential order.

An Albuquerque prisoner who was recaptured after skipping jail explained, "The warden hurt my feelings." Guess that'll teach the warden to be polite to his guests. Courtesy is just a small part of our outstanding auto service. Right now we have a top selection of Used Cars—and you're sure to find what you've been looking for on our lot. and defense are inseparable, it is essential that barriers to the expansion of trade be speedily removed," he said.

The justice department said the "most significant" case was filed against the Alaska Steamship Co. of Seattle, its President, Gilbert W. Skinner, and four other officers because the firm controls "90 per cent" of the water transportation between the U. S. and Alaska.

Insurance is a Life-Time Affair—and is so considered by those who figure safety as a business and protection as an investment. The fact that a person has carried insurance many years and never had a claim does not mean that he lost his money premiums. Rather has he gained them because he invested in safety, got protection and lost none of his property. If we buy insurance for what it really is a large part of our financial problems will solve themselves.

PLUG 'N TRIGGER

By J. Fred Eder—United Press
Outdoors Consultant

Few anglers realize or appreciate the efforts of Mother Nature to provide us with great gifts. For instance, did you know that some species of bamboo blossom only about every 32 years? And that some bamboo plants have been known to grow as much as 16 inches in a single day?

The next time you pick up that bamboo rod remember the role of Mother Nature in making your fishing pleasant.

High in California's Sierra Nevada Mountains, Mother Nature went out of her way to make sure that the golden yellow trout got along in the world.

About the turn of the century when these brightly-colored species of trout were discovered, it wasn't long until two more discoveries of the same golden trout were found in other remote and completely separate localities of the Sierras.

This beautiful game fish is found nowhere else on the globe. But, to this day there has been no satisfactory explanation of how it originated two miles high in the snow-capped Sierras.

In recent years the golden trout has been transplanted to a number of high-altitude lakes near their original water. They have thrived. It no longer is a scarce beauty, but still remains one of Mother Nature's unexplained mysteries.

Lake Texoma in the past few weeks has produced some exciting sport fishing.

Sand bass are striking savagely after a layoff and black bass are cooperating well for the angler with the "know how".

Remarkable catches are being reported on sand bass in the vicinity of the Famous Islands, Island View Camp, Highport Resort, Millcreek, Big Mineral and Platter Flats.

Crappie still are biting good and have been taking well to small, midget lures.

Top water lures are now in first place in producing good strings and fishing is picking up throughout the state.

A skillfully-worked top water lure can result in a mighty-thrilling explosion these days.

Now for the mail bag:
Q. Is the name "Bronzeback" correct for largemouth black bass?
A. The name "Bronzeback" usually is applied to the smallmouth bass, but we've heard it used for largemouth many times. It originates from the fact that in some waters the smallmouth has a bronze look.

Q. Why is a leader between plug and line?
A. A transparent or light grey colored nylon leaders has a tendency to camouflage the line from the bait, creating the effect that the lure is a separate object. In case of a snag down deep, a leader of lighter test than the line will break first, preventing loss of a lot of good casting line.

Ag Department Predicts Low Wheat Yield

WASHINGTON, June 10 (UP)—The government figures to get rid of some wheat in its price support board during the next 12 months.

The Agriculture Department reported yesterday that farmers—for the first time in seven years—will harvest less than 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat this year.

The prospective crop—944,514,000 bushels—would fall short by about 50,000,000 bushels of meeting probable domestic and export demand. It would fall short of last year's output by 202,000,000 bushels.

The cutback stems from bad weather and reduced plantings under the government acreage allotment program. It means a possible reduction from last year of about $400,000,000 in farm income from wheat sales.

But officials said Secretary of Agriculture Charles F. Brannan is almost certain to decide now that rigid production controls won't be necessary on the 1951 crop.

Brannan must announce by July 1 whether marketing quotas will be needed to hold down burdensome surpluses. Instead of quotas, the government probably will depend on the voluntary acreage allotment program in 1951.

The 1951 planting allotment may call for a cutback of 10,000,000 acres, compared with this year's total.

Violence Erupts In Strikebound Textile Plant

MORRISTOWN, Tenn., June 10 (UP)—Violence erupted anew at the strife-torn American Enka Corp. textile plant today, and authorities called for National Guardsmen to return.

Only about seven hours after the remaining guardsmen evacuated Morrystown, police said one automobile carrying homeward-bound non-striking workers was overturned and more than 10 others were stoned. Two workers were cut by flying glass.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Dorris spent a ten-day vacation with his parents and Mr. and Mrs. L. Gibson of Gordon spent Sunday with the Dorrises.

Mrs. Neoma Scott of Wichita Kansas is visiting her mother, Mrs. Joe Norton.

A band of about 50 men armed with stones, lengths of pipe, lumber and brickbats lined the highway in front of a roadblock of two cars and a truck at an underpass about one-fourth of a mile from the plant and intercepted the non-striking workers, deputies said.

Sheriff Robert Medlin, under the care of a physician because of a strain imposed by around-the-clock duty, appealed to Brig. Gen. Dwight McReynolds of the 278th infantry to rush his troops back to Morrystown.

McReynolds was expected to advise Medlin whether the request would be granted, as soon as he conferred with Gov. Gordon Browning and State Adjutant Gen. Sam T. Wallace.

Yesterday the 100 guardsmen remaining here were directed by Browning to leave Morrystown, despite a renewal of minor violence and vandalism, including the stoning of a car, paint-smearing and window breaking. Two workers were cut slightly.

Guardsmen were rushed in 18 days ago when state highway patrolmen and local authorities were unable to cope with car overturnings, dynamiting of the homes of non-striking workers and other violence.

CIO textile workers went on strike 11 weeks ago to back up demands for wage increases, differentials and insurance benefits that would amount to pay raises of 23 cents per hour.

THIS CHURCH PAGE IS PUBLISHED WEEKLY WITH THE HOPE THAT MORE PEOPLE WILL GO TO CHURCH. IT IS SPONSORED BY LOCAL BUSINESS FIRMS WHO BELIEVE WE SHOULD ATTEND RELIGIOUS SERVICES REGULARLY.

A world is trying to find its way. Not only dark Africa and the islands of the sea, but also our own Americas must soon find the better way, if the whole globe is to be happy. Better living means not only the good of the individual, but the fellowship of all men of all races and creeds. How can we have peace and plenty and joyous living in the Western Hemisphere? Here are black people and white people, here are red people and brown people and yellow people on the same continent. How can we get on, when we are so different? How can different races live together in mutual helpfulness? How can separate nations assist each other to prosperity and to happiness? How can rival religions tolerate each other? How can we bring peace in the cold warfare of labor and capital? How can nearby communities learn friendliness and mutual respect? How may we have better living in our homes and neighborhoods? Good living anywhere and everywhere? Who can give us help here?

Eager and learning minds go to school and sit under capable teachers. Is there a great Teacher in the art of better living? Look to the Book! Here is direction toward the life of goodness and of wisdom. Give the children the lovely stories, as of Joseph and his brethren, of the birth of Jesus, the never-to-be-forgotten parables. Let the girls and boys reflect on the Proverbs of Solomon, and let them sing the songs of David. If youth could sit at the feet of the Master and learn the Sermon on the Mount, they would have a moral and spiritual constitution for living. Isaiah and Jeremiah and Paul are good and strong meat for all mature women and men. Not one teacher, but many, await the reader of the Book of Books. And, somehow, as we read the Book, it becomes for us The Word of God, in which He would lead and bless all His children. Our God speaks to men; they will here tell us what He has said to them; as you read with ears to hear, He may speak to you. Be a regular attendant at your church. Your pastor expects you.

Jim Tom Warden Takes Bride In Home Wedding Ceremony June 3

Miss Lois Ruth Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Hawkins of Morton, became the bride of Jim Tom Warden, Saturday, June 3, 1950.

The ceremony was read in the home of the bride's parents in Morton, with the Rev. Bergin Watkins, pastor of the Forrest Heights Methodist Church of Lubbock, officiating.

Mrs. Warden chose for her wedding a white tailored crepe dress and white accessories. She carried an orchid bouquet on a white Bible.

Miss Grace Ann Hawkins was her sister's maid of honor and Guy Warden served his brother as best man.

A reception follows the wedding which relatives and only a few close friends attended. The bride and groom cut the three-tiered white wedding cake that decorated the bride's table, which was laid with a lace cloth. An arrangement of roses formed the background for the cake.

Mrs. Watkins presided over the table and with the assistance of the maid of honor, served the guests.

LET'S GO FISHIN'

By Onous Dick

Today's Fishing story comes from Morris Reagan and Jim Mitchell, besides being "good foot ball players" these two youngsters are good at Fishing. The past four days they have caught 14 Channell Cat at the Eastland Lake. These fish weighed from one pound up to three pounds, using minnows for bait.

Mrs. J.C. Stevenson reports from Buckhorn Camp, Possum Kingdom Lake that Paul Allen and a party from Arlington, Texas spent several days there and had 54 catfish, weighing up to eight pounds.

Bob Walker and party from Dallas, caught 40 cats in two days at Buckhorn Camp. Ray Strode, Dallas, caught 12 bass on minnows. Ben Clark, Joy, caught 2 nice bass, one a five and one fourth pounder. Ed Waite, Joy and Mr. Stevenson caught 60 cat fish in five days of fishing.

Mr. Stevenson reports that E.B. Rainey, of Lake Route, Grafrod, Texas had a party of friends from Weatherford which included Raymond Glenn; Joe McGill; Freddie Potter; Otis Wilson; Clip Towes and their families, and some others spent a week-end at Buckhorn and caught 80 catfish. They used minnows and shrimp bait.

Other catches there included: Loftis, Aphel Sanders and J.T. Crawford that C.I. Anderson, Jim Gibson, Dallas, caught 18 bass recently.

Mr. Ed Laney reports from W. Collins, George Striegel, Fritz Foster, Dallas, 4 Bass, one weighing five pounds; Bob Minton, Fort Worth, 4 and one half pound bass; Curtis Burke, Amarillo, 4 bass; H.H. Blake, Fort Worth, one 5 and one half pound bass.

Several other nice catches were made. Austin, June 8—The current trend among woman folks to help catch what goes into the frying pan is reflected sternly in the May arrest report announced today by the Game, Fish and Oyster Comm.

Two touring women—one from Dallas, the other from Abilene—paid $21 including cost for trying to do their bit without the new $1.65 state fishing license.

All persons over 17 years of age need licenses when fishing in fresh waters beyond their own home area. If they use artificial baits, they need a license everywhere except of course, for fishing in salt water.

The wardens were not vindictive. Both made the routine notation that the woman's fishing rights should be restored.

The indiscretions of the woman folks were greatly in the minor according to the Commission's report. May violations totaled 182. They ranged from poaching deer, ducks, turkey and white winged doves to pollution of state waters. Ten pollution cases brought standard $100 fines plus costs.

Wardens seized 14 persons for hunting or possessing deer. Most of the cases involved night time activity. Fines in these incidents ranged up to $200. Ninety-three charges resulted from fishing law violations. More than one half were because proper licenses were lacking. Two men were charged with having undersized bass.

Two Austin men and one Fort Worth resident paid $23 fines and costs for exceeding the 20-hook trot line limit on Lake Travis. The pair had a 55-hook line. The other had a line with 48 hook.

Big game poachers included: A Menard man who paid $119.70 for possessing venison; an Ozona man who paid $226 on the same charge; a Fort Worth resident who paid $60 for hunting at night; a San Angelo man who was assessed $34 for hunting from a car; a Pledge man, on his third game law violation in -17 months, paid $112 for killing deer after his license had been revoked; a Henderson man who paid $41 for hunting deer at night; an Eagle Lake man who paid $61 for refusing to permit search of his car and for assaulting a warden with his car; and a Tom Ball man who paid $61 after his car was found to contain blood and deer hair.

Fines and court costs for May totaled $4,004.55 as compared to $4,316.68 levied for April. municipal airport.
