Army Calls Up Non-Organized Reserve Forces

WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (UP)—The Army today called on 62,000 non-organized reserves to report during September and October for 21 months of active duty. The plans call for 32,000 to be in camp by Sept. 11. The remaining 30,000 are to report by Oct. 15. The Reserves will be called "with or without their consent" from both the volunteer and inactive reserves. First calls go to those between 19 and 25 years old. Priority will be determined by the number of dependents. Those with no dependents will be called up first, those with one dependent second, and those with more, last. The Army said the reserves will be used primarily to bring to full strength the National Guard and organized Reserve units ordered to active duty and "to perform other duties essential to the current Army expansion."

THE ENLISTED RESERVES being ordered to duty will come from throughout the nation. Quotas for Army areas: Fourth—including Texas, Louisiana, Arkansas, Oklahoma, and New Mexico—6,230. Reserves first will be selected tentatively and ordered to their nearest medical facilities for physical examinations. They then will return home and await orders to active duty if they pass physical examinations. They will be given 21 days from the receipt of their orders to report to training divisions or reception centers.

Reservists:

HERE'S LIST OF WHAT LOUIS JOHNSON SAYS ARE CRITICAL JOBS, ESSENTIAL INDUSTRIES

By Dayton Moore
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4 (UP)—The armed forces had a new yardstick today for granting deferments to reservists and National Guardsmen—a master list of 48 critical jobs and 72 essential industries. The defense department, which forwarded the list to officers of the Army, Navy and Air Force, declined to speculate on how many men would be affected. It appeared that this would depend upon the judgment of individual military officers. In issuing the list last night, Defense Secretary Louis Johnson said he wanted to set up some standards for excusing from active duty—at least temporarily—those men in civilian jobs "essential to activities critically necessary to the maintenance of the national health, safety or interest." Army, Navy and Air Force officers would have the final say on individual cases. The master list was to serve only as a guide to help them reach their decisions. The master list, compiled for Johnson by the Labor and Commerce departments, was composed of two sections—one a list of 48 essential occupations and the other a list of 72 "essential activities"

THE JOB LIST COMPILED BY the Labor department ranged from agronomists to tool and die makers and included engineers, doctors, dentists, nurses, physicists, airplane and engine mechanics, boiler makers, machinists, and iron and steel rollers. The Commerce department's essential activities list appeared to cover the majority of the nation's industry and commerce. An official said it was made broad enough to include any industrial or business activity that might be "remotely" related to a war effort. But it was so comprehensive that it appeared doubtful it would be very useful even as a guide.

Non-manufacturing "essential" activities included farming, fisheries, mining, oil production, construction, railroads, trucking, all types of transportation, radio and wire communications, utilities, most wholesale and retail trade, banking garages and service stations, automobile dealers, personal services, radio broadcasting and motion pictures. NEWSPAPERS AND NEWS syndicates were covered under publishing. The list even included the operations of hotels, non-profit organizations, museums, botanical gardens, zoos—and art galleries. To get a deferment, each reserve and Guardsman, or his employer must apply for it after the call to active duty is received. The policy does not affect draftees. Local draft boards may defer induction for essential occupations but they do not now have any lists of such jobs. Such lists were provided during World War II, however.

SHIRLEY IN LAST STAGES OF TRAINING—Shirley May France is in the final stages of her training for a second attempt at swimming the English Channel. Here, at Dover, England, coach Harry Boudakian applies lotion to the back of the 17-year-old Somerset, Mass., schoolgirl, who is sponsored by NEA Service, Inc. (NEA Telephoto).

Local Group At 4-H Dairy Clinic

County agent J. M. Cooper, and three Eastland county 4-H boys are attending a 4-H Dairy Clinic at the Evans Reese Jersey farm at Waco today.

Making the trip with Cooper are Jerry Sims, Richard Lane, and Roy Dan Harris.

The program will include getting dairy heifers ready for show, feeding and care of heifers; using score cards; practice in giving oral reasons; and practice in judging dairy cattle.

The group is to return home late today.

Lady Golfers Meet

Ladies of the Lakeside Golf course will meet Tuesday at 3 p. m. at the club.

All ladies interested in playing golf and helping with decorations are asked to be present at the meeting.

Edgar Bergan Enters Toad In Rip Derby

Edgar Bergan has joined those entering a toad, called Mortimer Snord, in Eastland's Old Rip Horned Toad Derby to be held Aug. 12. "Please see that my entry wins as I need the money to pay Charlie's tuition to reform school," Bergan wrote on his entry form. Parks Poe solicited Bergan's entry. Poe earlier solicited an entry from James Farley, former postmaster general. In addition to his entry fee, Bergan sent an extra Charley McCarthy Mazuma, signed by John Dough, secretary of pleasure. On the bill was printed "One simple simoleon, illegal and very tender. Money talks, but this doesn't even whisper. If you try to pass this bill, allow yourself plenty of time—at least 20 years." Bergan's address given on the entry form as 6536 Sunset Blvd., Hollywood, Calif. The entry total now stands at 340. H. J. Tanner, manager of the chamber of commerce has announced. More entries from the city are needed, he added. Out of town entries total over 270.

Pearson Wins Run-Off; Odom Pulls Hat Out

L. R. Pearson was today assured of election to the legislature in district 107, comprising Eastland and Callahan counties, when O. O. Odom, jr., the runner up candidate, in the July 22nd primary, withdrew from the run-off election on August 26th. In withdrawing, Odom stated that in view of the international situation and his Air Force reserve status, that he might be called into the service and could not serve in the legislature if nominated. In the July primary Pearson received almost 49 per cent of the total votes, Odom 32 per cent, and Chas. H. Dawson of Cross Plains approximately 19 per cent.

Vapor Lights Ready Soon

Silver painted steel poles are being erected along the streets leading from the courthouse square which will carry Eastland's mercury-vapor lights. City manager I. C. Heck stated that he believed that the installation of lights would be completed within ten days. Similar lighting is growing to be very popular in many cities over the country. The lights give a brilliant blue-white light which is usually referred to in cities as a "white way." The Texas Electric Service Co. is installing the fixtures at no charge to the city, but the city will pay for increased current consumption. The new lights give a much brighter light than old types, and fewer of them are necessary to adequately light the city.

Texas Guard Meeting Set In Eastland

Officers of the Texas State guard will meet at 7:30 p. m. Tuesday in the Commissioner's court room, Eastland, to form an Eastland company of the guard. Companies have already been formed at Dublin, Cisco, Mineral Wells and Ranger. Major Calvin Brown and Captain John Ussury of Ranger will be present at the meeting to explain the work of the guard. The commander of the unit, Colonel Bob Hansford, in this area is in a hospital and will not be able to attend. All interested are being urged to attend.

American Reinforcements Counter-Attack Viciously

UN Wrangling Russia Will Probably Use Veto Today To Block US Resolution

By Bruce W. Munn
United Press Staff Correspondent
LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Aug. 4 (UP)—Russia appeared certain today to use its 44th veto to block an American resolution condemning North Korea's continued defiance of the United Nations. After three days' wrangling in which the Russians lost diplomatic battles on four counts, the UN Security Council's sole business was consideration of the American resolution which also calls on all members to refrain from "assisting or encouraging" the Red Korean invasion. Ambassador Warren R. Austin, chief of the American delegation, was slated to open debate on the American resolution with a plain-speaking denunciation of the Communist activities in the Far East. Sources close to the U. S. delegation said Austin would not cite Russia by name as an aggressor or an encourager of aggression. But the 72-year-old former Vermont Senator was expected to leave no doubt here or along the world's propaganda lanes that he was talking about the Russians. There was a feeling here that Russia, smothered under diplomatic defeats in the UN, might turn them into propaganda victories. Some delegates believed Russia's chief delegate Jacob A. Malik submitted proposals on his return to the Security Council last Tuesday solely to force the Western powers to vote against them. ON THE RECORD, HOWEVER there was nothing but defeat for Malik. The burly Russian swallowed the votes against him with a minimum show of bad grace and indicated that he had no intention of walking out of the UN again, at least until his month of presiding over the Security Council expires.

Big Producers Pay

COUNTY DAIRY ASSOCIATION FARMERS TALK BREEDING COST OF CALVES, DHIA
Ranger, (Special).—An estimated 150 calves have been sired in the county by the County Dairy Association's artificial insemination program. But heifers, sired by the artificial breeding are not for sale, a spokesman at the dairy association's meeting Thursday said. One dairyman told of turning down a $60 offer for a one-day-old heifer calf. Another farmer told of offering $100 for a six-weeks-old heifer—and being turned down. The farmer who owned the calf, said it couldn't be bought for $200. The association is worried about where to get high butter-fat producers essentially because a farmer will make about $400 more profit a year from a 600 pound producer than from a 100 pound butterfat producer. The association had a called meeting in the Ranger chamber of commerce office to discuss the advantages of a DHIA testing program. The test is made to determine the amount of butter-fat a cow produces, the amount of feed the cow eats and the profit that the cow makes the farmer. Forrest Boone of Rising Star has recently completed training in supervising the testing program. Three herds in the county are now being tested. A herd is tested once a month. The daily butter-fat production is computed from the one day's per month testing, the computation shows an error of only 2 per cent. The official test serves as proof of a cow's production in when selling the cow or its offspring is for sale. But the primary purpose the test is to help the farmer cull his herd, get rid of the cows that are showing little profit or losing him money. MORE The following attended the meeting: Forrest Boone, Rising Star; A.

By Earnest Hoberecht
United Press Staff Correspondent
TOKYO, Saturday, Aug. 5 (UP)—American counter-attacks on the Western approaches of Pusan have killed 600 Communists and temporarily stalled the big push on the U. S. supply port. Gen. Douglas MacArthur announced today. Three Communist divisions hammered at the southern end of the new Nakdong river line while dozens of other North Korean units massed along the sluggish stream for an expected renewal of the full scale offensive.

The Communists already had made one small scale patrol stab across the Nakdong. The American forces manning the line of no retreat were alerted for trouble during the hours of darkness. MacArthur's midget communists reported that the Communists kept on the pressure some 40 miles West of Pusan, where U. S. 25th division troops, freshly thrown into that sector, were battling the three North Korean divisions trying to break through to Pusan.

RANGER OIL FIELD SHOWS MORE LIFE

Ranger, (Special).—Three wells, 12 miles north of Ranger, show promise of opening a substantial oil pool here. The Fair-Choate Gray No. 1, hydrofractured at 1,764 feet was producing 200 barrels of oil today. The well is an offset of the Jackson, earlier reported by the Ranger Times. The Jackson is an offset of the Glasscock. All three wells are doing good. THE ENEMY IS STILL UN-able to advance in this area due to counter attacking American forces," it said. Fighting still raged along a front running through points 20 miles southeast, 11 miles east and 15 miles northeast of Chinju, which is 53 miles west of Pusan, MacArthur said.

ACCORDING TO REPORTS reaching the Daily Times news office, the Jackson has steadied down to producing 150 barrels of oil per day. The location of the Gray follows: Two hundred feet from the north and 200 feet from the east lines of the south 200 acres of section 79, block 6, TP railway company survey. BUT THE ENEMY WAS MOVING in, field dispatches reported. U. S. air scouts saw dozens of units moving up to positions across the Nakdong from the allied front, a field dispatch reported. A spokesman at MacArthur's headquarters reported yesterday that 45 Communist tanks were seen moving southeast from Taejon toward the Nakdong front. Today's communique explained: "The column of 45 tanks reported earlier as moving southward from Suwon and Taejon have been found to be wrecks of tanks previously destroyed." The U. S. Marines got their first taste of action in the air and on the ground although the latter was only a token brush. They chased away North Korean patrols from their front line area yesterday without firing a shot.

THE WEATHERFORD, HURD and McCotter Graham No. 1, 13 miles north of town, was brought in at 1,652 feet by hydrofracture. The well is producing 25 barrels per day. Location of the Graham follows: Thirty feet from the south and 330 feet from the east lines of the north one half of section 81, block 4 of the TP railroad company survey. Commander Cooper Back Into Service Commander W. E. Cooper, jr., has been called to the west coast for service with the U. S. Navy. Cooper was at the signing of the peace conference which ended World War II. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Cooper.

EXCEPT FOR BOTH FRIENDLY and enemy patrols, the remainder of the front is still disengaged," he added. The communique made it clear that the North Koreans still had not completed the move into the strip abandoned by the Americans and South Koreans when they fell back several miles to the new positions along the Nakdong.

How To Tell Refugees From North Korean Guerillas; It Stumps Yanks

By Peter Kalischer United Press Staff Correspondent WITH THE U. S. 1ST CAVALRY DIVISION IN KOREA, Aug 3 (UP)—Young and old men weighted down with heavy loads of rice. Women with babies on their backs and shoulders. Whole families driving oxen before them. These are the refugees—and the deadly North Korean guerrillas—of the Korean war.

Thousands of them pour through the American lines daily, bringing death to the American soldiers by guerrilla activities at unexpected places behind the lines. "They are the North Koreans' most potent weapon," says Maj. Gen. Hobart R. Gay, 1st Cavalry commander.

The overwhelming majority of the travelers are those who have left their homes to escape from the booming sound of the guns to the North.

They climb aboard trains, tramp over roads or plod through rice paddies and over hills, some eating refuse en route.

The hordes are cursed by American soldiers who know they harbor enemies. But the G. I.'s can not distinguish the enemy from the mass of innocent South Koreans.

range and then within pistol range. But the G. I. does not shoot. The refugees walk silently by and the Yanks put down their guns, look sheepishly at each other and light cigarettes.

Two miles behind the front I encountered a thin, dirty old man dressed in soiled white trousers rolled to the knees who was knee-

"M and E" Club Have All Day Meeting, Thurs.

Members of the "M and E" club met Thursday morning for an 8:30 breakfast in the home of Mrs. Bernard Hanna.

The breakfast table was laid with white linen and crystal and the meal was served in two courses.

The group visited and worked on their individual handiwork, later going to the home of Mrs. Winnie Wynne, who had prepared luncheon for the group in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Hanna, whose birthday it was.

Mrs. Wynne's luncheon table was centered with purple petunias, matching the color in china, used in places marked for Mmes. Aubrey Van Hoy, Cleo Cross, J. F. McWilliams, Gerald Wingate, Cyrus Miller, Clara Wingate, and Mrs. Hanna, and the hostess Mrs. Wynne.

Mrs. Hanna was presented a piece of hand painted china.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Garrett and son, Lyndie, are on a vacation trip and are in Big Spring visiting with relatives this week and will go to Casa Grande, Arizona where they will visit for a week.

LET'S GO FISHIN'

By Onous Dick

LICENSE RENEWALS DUE SEPTEMBER 1

The Chief Clerk of the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission said today all but eight of the thirty-nine licenses issued by the Commission, including those for hunting and fishing, will be renewable September 1.

The license revenue provides a substantial part of the funds for Commission activities. The Game Department staff now is busy readying the licenses for distribution. The actual sales are made generally by game wardens, county clerks and licensed deputies mainly in retail stores throughout the state. Only nine of the thirty-nine kinds of licenses are sold at the Austin headquarters.

Considerable Commission revenue comes from the $1.65 individual fishing license and from the $2.15 so-called big game hunting license. The $2.00 resident hunting license represents only a small part of the collections. This is because the comparatively new big game license covers all kinds of hunting, except antelope which calls for a special $5.00 fee.

The Chief Clerk explained that processing the license supplies represents a sizeable assignment because they have to be distributed
