No Merger Yet

BUT AFL AND CIO SHOW SIGNS OF WORKING POLITICAL UNITY

HOUSTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—AFL leaders conceded privately today that there is no chance for merger with the CIO this year—despite better-than-ever political teamwork.

Chiefs of important unions, here for the 69th annual AFL convention, said they expect little out of new unity talks scheduled for late October.

The first such talks in three years were held in Washington in July. They produced optimistic predictions from both sides of the nation's divided house of labor, but a follow-up meeting was cancelled without explanation.

Union officials noted, too, that AFL President William Green avoided mention of labor unity in his keynote address.

However, most AFL leaders have high hopes that an unprecedented political alliance operating in many states will bring good results in the Congressional elections in November. A firm commitment to stand together in politics was one of the new real products of the July conference.

The two big labor federations have joint political committees in nearly 40 states and in several hundred communities, according to reports.

THE TEAMWORK IS ILLUSTRATED best in Ohio, where the AFL and CIO are spearheading a free-swinging campaign to unseat Republican Sen. Robert A. Taft, co-author of the Taft-Hartley Act. AFL political strategists say they have a 50-50 chance of electing the Democratic candidate for Taft's seat, state auditor Joseph Ferguson. Taft's vigorous campaigning in the state indicates he knows he is fighting for his political life.

W. AVERELL HARRIMAN, President Truman's special aide for foreign affairs, told the 700 delegates yesterday that Taft must go because his activity on Capitol Hill gives comfort to the Kremlin. It was an unprecedented speech from such a high official.

In Ohio, Taft dismissed Harriman's comments as "just talk," but Sen. Eugene E. Millikin, R., Colo., called the attack on Taft "amazingly stupid," and Sen. Alexander Wiley, R., Wis., said the remarks were "unfortunate" for bi-partisanship.

Eastland Rain Toll 1.65 Inches

Heavy showers drenched Eastland with 1.65 inches of rainfall late Tuesday, according to J. A. Beard.

The heaviest rain came at about 6:30 p. m. Tuesday. Flatwoods received a total of .52 inches of rain Monday, Oscar Lyeria reported. No report on Flatwoods rainfall Tuesday was available.

Tuesday's rains were highly scattered with the Leon Power Plant reporting a total of only .32 inches.

Unwed Mother Doesn't Show

Waitress Wins Back Blue-Eyed Baby Girl After Nurse Reports She Remembers Red Birthmark

HOUSTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—A blue-eyed baby girl, subject of a bizarre parentage suit, was returned to a tearful waitress yesterday after a nurse identified the child by a red splotch on her bottom.

District Judge Wilmer B. Hunt ruled the baby belonged to Mrs. Farrie Lee Bell, who had told the court she left the child with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hartman "because I was separated from my husband and couldn't find work."

The Hartmans had spun a strange but unsubstantiated tale to support their claim that 11-month-old Caroline Sue—dubbed "little Miss X"—was their daughter.

They said Hartman was the father, but that the mother was a "nice," unmarried girl who agreed to bear a baby by Hartman because Mrs. Hartman could not have children of her own.

However, the "mystery woman" failed to show up in court as promised by the Hartmans and Hunt ruled "all the evidence indicates the child belong to Mrs. Bell."

The "evidence" included a red splotch on the child's bottom, bared to the courtroom for judicial inspection.

Mrs. Ellen Durgin, nurse at Jefferson Davis Hospital where Mrs. Bell testified Caroline Sue was born last Oct. 12, told the court she took care of the child and noticed particularly a "birthmark—a red splotch on the buttocks."

When the judge announced his decision, Mrs. Bell clutched the baby and left the courtroom weeping tears of joy.

Lawrence Arnim, attorney for the Hartmans, said he didn't know whether there would be any further action in the case.

AUSTIN EXAMINES RUSSIAN GUN—At Lake Success during his reading of General MacArthur's report on Korean situation, American delegate Warren Austin displayed this Russian-made sub-machine gun, captured from North Koreans, to members of the United Nations Security Council. The gun was dated 1950, and MacArthur said Russians have been, and still are, supplying Red aggressors with the most modern Soviet weapons. (NEA Telephoto).

French Slash At Commies

By Robert Branson
United Press Staff Correspondent
SAIGON, Indo-China, Sept. 20 (UP)—French troops battling what may be a large-scale Communist attempt to seize control of Indo-China cut down a battalion of Communist troops today in a "slaughterhouse" attack and sent enemy units fleeing toward the nearby Communist border.

The fighting took place near Communist-held Dongkhe, on the border between Indo-China and Communist China. French sources said the fortress town probably

Eastland-Cisco Junior Football Game Postponed; Set Thursday

The football game scheduled between the Eastland and Cisco Junior High School teams for Tuesday night was postponed because of rain, Joe Williams, Eastland Junior High coach, announced.

Williams said the game will be played Thursday night, and urged that a large crowd be present to watch the future Eastland High gridgers in action. Kickoff is set for 7:30 p. m.

Reports from Cisco indicate that the Cisco Juniors are in top condition for the contest.

will be recaptured tonight or tomorrow.

Officials said the French column, of undisclosed strength, caught the Communist Viet Minh battalion by surprise between Langson and Dongkhe riddling it with artillery fire and inflicting "severe losses."

French reconnaissance pilots who flew over Dongkhe said the fortress appeared to have been abandoned by the rebels in the face of the French counterattack. Their reports said the Communist had fled with arms which they had captured.

The fighting near Dongkhe was reported in a French army communique. It said the Chinese frontier was "absolutely calm" when French high Commissioner Leon Pognon and French Commander-in-Chief Gen. Marcel Carpentier visited Laokay, 167 miles west of Dongkhe, yesterday.

French officials were confident contingents of the 150,000-man force in Indo-China could retake Dongkhe. The troops were advancing along jungle trails and past barricades erected by the rebels on Colonial Route No. 4, where at least one bridge had been blown up.

Indications pointing to a major French counter-attack with columns converging under a protective umbrella of straffing King Cobra fighter planes.

Nearly all neutral and French sources here believed the Dongkhe assault was a local affair rather than the start of a general Communist offensive, even though the French have charged that troops trained in Communist China and guns supplied by the Communist army there were used in the operation.

Publisher Wins Award

NEW YORK, Sept. 20 (UP)—Amon Carter, publisher of the Fort Worth Star Telegram was named winner of the 11th annual Frank M. Hawks Memorial award today for his contributions to the development of aviation in America.

Greater London, with its population of about 9,700,000 carries twelve and three-quarter million passengers a day on its railroads, buses, trolleys and subways, whose trains operate 3,940 cars, running over a network of 248 miles, according to British railways.

Ward Addresses Lions At Tuesday Noon Meeting

Ward was introduced to the group by Rev. J. Morris Bailey, pastor of the First Methodist Church. Ward is leading the singing and music services during a revival being held at the church.

Ward told those present that historians point to the decay of the Roman home and the lowering of morals of the Roman empire as a result of the decay of the home as the chief reasons for the resulting fall of that once great empire.

"Just for your consideration," Ward said, "I ask you to compare the Roman empire to that of the Americans of today. I do not say they are the same, but merely ask you to consider the facts."

Following Ward's talk, H. J. Tanner told club members that a meeting would be held Thursday night at the chamber of commerce building to discuss the forming of a bowling league for Eastland. It was moved that a committee representing the club be at the meeting.

The motion passed and President M. Long appointed a committee to represent the club at the meeting.

It was announced that the club would meet with members of the Rotary Club next Monday, when Oscar Avera would be in charge of the program.

Cold War Flares In Berlin

BERLIN, Sept. 20 (UP)—The Cold War flared in Berlin today with a flurry of East-West arrests and a Soviet threat to Western Berlin's power supply.

House Passes Control Bill

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20 (UP)—The House today passed one of the most stringent measures it ever considered to control Communists and subversives. The vote was 312 to 20.

Reds Flee Vengeance

TOKYO, Sept. 20 (UP)—United Nations troops drove ahead on all fronts today and some officers were optimistic enough to believe we would capture Seoul in a matter of hours.

The U. S. Marines, led by tanks, were across the Han river in force and had driven to within four miles of Seoul. The South Korean capital which fell to the Communists in the early days of the war. Enemy resistance was light, but more conservative observers said the Reds might make a stand somewhere in front of Seoul and that it would take us until the week-end to hoist the blue and white U. N. flag in the city.

To the southeast, in the Pusan beach-head, troops of the U. S. second and 24th divisions had forced six crossings of the Nakdong river. Our troops were through the town of Waegwan and were pushing ahead in the general direction of Seoul.

The U. S. Air Force went north of the 38th parallel to go to work on rail centers and highway bridges in North Korea. Five B-29s reported excellent results from their attacks. Our troops attacking Seoul already had cut the main supply route that runs from that city to the North Korean capital of Pyongyang.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur, in personal command of the battle for Seoul, reported enemy casualties already amounted to 2,500. Some 2,000 prisoners have been taken.

The Marines cut the main railway running between Seoul and Pyongyang, capital of Communist North Korea, only a half-hour after crossing the Han at 6:50 A. M. today (5:30 p. m. Tuesday EDT).

They also seized several commanding heights, then swung southeast toward Seoul itself. At mid-day, they still were advancing steadily, delayed only by the necessity of testing the roads ahead for mines.

Carrier planes strafed and bombed enemy columns fleeing north and east out of the capital. But reconnaissance pilots reported other Red troops moving into Seoul from the south along a secondary road.

Men of the U. S. 7th division were striking southeast along the Incheon side of the Han in an attempt to cut off Seoul from the south.

As the Marines closed in on Seoul, reconnaissance pilots reported the Communists retreating all around the 130-mile perimeter of the Allied beachhead based on Pusan in the southeast corner of Korea.

The U. S. 2nd division irrevocably shattered the enemy's Nakdong river line in the southeast beachhead by seizing the sixth American bridgehead on the west bank within two days. Men of the 2nd now were across the river three places along a nine-mile front southwest of Taegu.

Advance 2nd division units, including tanks, had driven five miles west of the river.

"We've broken their backs," said Maj. Gen. Hobart R. Gay, commander of the 1st cavalry. "From now on, it's a tank battle and I don't think the North Koreans have any tanks."

At the northeast corner of the Pusan beachhead, the South Korean 3rd division re-captured the port of Pohang at 10:15 a. m. today (9:15 p. m. Tuesday EDT), then pushed on another mile to the north. The 3rd division originally liberated the port yesterday, but was driven out by a Communist counter-attack last night.

Other 3rd division troops trying re-capture Kigye, eight miles northwest of Pohang, were meeting stiff resistance. A Communist counter-attack at one point drove them back nearly 2,000 yards.

But elsewhere along the northern rim of the beachhead, South Korean forces were advancing almost at will against light rear-guard resistance as the Reds fall back farther north.

THE WEATHER

By United Press
More scattered showers were predicted today for most of Texas but shouldn't be as heavy as those which yesterday caused minor flooding in Fort Worth.

Rainfall in the Fort Worth area reached near cloudburst proportions with the Meadowbrook section reporting 5.05 inches although the city's airport had only 1.60 inches. Poolville in Parker county had 4.45 inches.

Burnett Will Not Sell Dallas Club Franchise

DALLAS, Sept. 20 (UP)—The Dallas Texas League franchise no longer had the "for sale" sign hung on it today and owner Dick Burnett hoped his latest decision would quiet a "malicious and hurtful rumor" he had been ordered to dispose of the club. Burnett revealed his change of heart yesterday in a prepared statement released through his attorney, Prentice Wilson, less than a week after the portly oil millionaire had confirmed negotiations were under way to sell the club. He set a $1,000,000 asking price.

It was a week ago today that Burnett said he had decided to sell the club "because he realized after three years he couldn't field a winner without major league affiliation." The same day minor league President George Trautman slapped a $500 fine on Burnett for "unrestrained oral abuse of umpires" at an Aug. 31 game. Yesterday's statement said that since that time "unwarranted statements flowing from the tongues of ill-informed persons have scattered among the Dallas baseball fans the malicious rumor that Trautman has suggested to me that I dispose of my baseball holdings."

In repudiation of "this malicious and hurtful rumor," Burnett said he had a photostatic copy of a letter Trautman had written league President J. Alvin Gardner in which Trautman referred to the rumors as "malicious and far from factual."

Burnett said that the New York Giants had been negotiating for the club, that the Boston Braves and two individuals, later identified as Allen Russell of the Houston club and Grayle Howlett of the Tulsa club, has expressed interest in the club.

Burnett stated yesterday that his $30,000-a-year manager, Charlie Grimm, would be retained under his three-year-contract "if Grimm wants to come back." He added, "we'll be glad to have him."

TEXAS NEWS BRIEFS
By United Press

AUSTIN, Sept. 20 (UP)—Fifteen Negroes, all graduate students, were enrolled today for the fall term of the University of Texas starting tomorrow.

They included Heman Marion Sweatt, a Houston mailman who waged a legal battle all the way to the U. S. Supreme court to gain admittance to the University's law school.

Sweatt, who enrolled yesterday, will take a full, first-year course.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 20 (UP)—Tarrant county had 5,400 persons "added" to its population today because of a census bureau correction.

Figures release in Washington Monday trimmed the county's population to 353,846, but area census supervisor James M. Hamilton announced yesterday it was all a mistake.

He said he had been authorized to announce revised figures giving the Tarrant county population figure as 359,246.

FORT WORTH, Sept. 20 (UP)—Mrs. Alma Hoffman was free on $10,000 bond today on charges of murdering O. B. Hoffman, 35 her husband. Hoffman was shot twice in the back and once in the arm with a rifle as he sat writing a letter yesterday at his home.

Mrs. Hoffman was arrested and charged a short time later.

TYLER, Sept. 20 (UP)—A one-month-old baby was alive today because his big brother noticed smoke pouring from windows of his parents' home in time to save the child from his crib.

As it was, the badly-burned infant, Kenneth was reported in serious condition.

The brother, 10-year-old James Butcher, was playing outside when he noticed smoke coming from the window. He asked a crew of workers to notify the fire department, while he zipped into the house to carry his little brother to safety.

Totsy Threatt, G. D. Peace Exchange Double Wedding Ring Vows

White cut flowers and greenery decorated the Second Baptist Church of Houston, scene of the formal wedding, September 16th, 1950, when Miss Totsy Glen Threatt and Mr. Gordon Durham Peace exchanged vows at 4 p. m.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Threatt, 1115 West Main Street, and Mr. Peace is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. D.

Peace of Hamilton, Bermuda. The wedding music was presented by Mr. Josef Evans, organist, who also accompanied Mr. Richard Blatchley, soloist.

Dr. Kyle Yates was officiant of the double ring service. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white satin gown, fashioned with a yoke of Chantilly lace, long sleeves, with pointed tips of Chantilly lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a tiara of lace and pearls. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Gordon Durham Peace

Miss Grace Peace of Hamilton Bermuda, was maid of honor and wore a formal gown of pastel blue nylon net. Miss Juanita White and Mrs. Delda Skinner, both of Houston wearing matching gowns of pale blue nylon net, were bridesmaids. Mr. T. D. Peace served his son as best man. Ushers were Richard Hearne, Pasadena; Robert Hileman, of Pittsburg, Pa.; and E. M. Threatt, Jr., of Eastland, brother of the bride.

Immediately following the ceremony a formal reception was held at 4209 Montrose, in Houston.

When the couple left on their wedding trip, which will include visits to Mexico City and Acapulco, Mrs. Peace was wearing a tomato red gaberdine suit, with black velvet accessories, and a white orchid corsage.

Upon their return they will make their home at 5424 Gen. Diaz, New Orleans, La., where Mr. Peace is an executive of the Shell Petroleum Co.

Mrs. Peace is a graduate of Eastland High School, Cisco Junior College, and Baylor University, Waco. She is a member of the Baptist Church and the Order of Eastern Star in Pasadena, where she has been employed by the Shell Petroleum Company. Mr. Peace is a graduate of St. Andrews Academy, Canada, and served five years with the British Army in India during World War II as a captain in the tank command.

Tea In Perkins' Home Reveals Mary Crowell's Wedding Plans

Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins and Mrs. Harold Durham hosted a tea, Monday evening in the home of the former, 1021 South Seaman St., honoring and announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Mary Crowell, and Mr. W. L. White.

Miss Crowell is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Crowell and Mr. White's parents are Mr. and Mrs. L. P. White of Houston.

Mrs. Ed Willman greeted the guests and presented each to Mrs. Frank Crowell, mother of the bride elect, Miss Crowell, the honoree, and Mrs. Perkins, Mrs. Durham and Mrs. Robert G. Perkins, who directed guests to the bride's register, presided over by Mrs. M. H. Perry.

Miss Emily Jean Grissom presided over the tea table, which was laid with a blue brocade cloth, at the setting for a miniature bridal party complete with the officiating minister at the altar, decorated with miniature white roses. The bridegroom awaited his approaching bride, daintily dressed in white, complete with fingertip illusion veil and bridal bouquet of sweetheart roses, made by Mrs. Marlene Johnson. She was preceded on the aisle, outlined with greenery interspersed with tiny white tapers in miniature silver holders, by the maid of honor in a gown blue nylon net. A concealed music box played softly, "Let Me Call You Sweetheart."

Dainty white napkins were imprinted with "Mary" and "Bill". Miss Grissom was assisted in serving the frosted lime punch and white cake squares by Misses Merlene Griffin, Mary Jane Wilson and Mmes. Don Doyle and Bill Eddleman.

Other decorations included a huge basket of gladiolas, a gift to the honoree, and added to the white and blue motif.

About 100 guests called during the hours five till seven. The wedding will be October 11 in the evening, at the First Methodist Church. The Rev. James Morris Bailey, pastor, will officiate and members of the wedding party will be announced later.
