

WHITTLIN'

By DOLPH MOTEN

The state legislature could, we're guessing, have put another one per cent on the sales tax and not created as much conversation hereabouts as the new laws concerning trailers.

The now-required brake and light system for trailers, which went into effect the first of the new year, is nigh onto enough to make a lawbreaker out of almost all farmers.

In the first place, many of them don't understand the new trailer laws and in the second place they probably wouldn't be interested in complying with them if they did.

The long range benefit of the new laws in regard to trailers will probably be good and in making the highways safer, in the meantime, though, the aggravation and misunderstanding is almost enough to make a fellow want to call State Representative Bill Clayton, a farmer himself, or Governor Preston Smith and ask them how come they let their people be done this way.

After serious consideration about the matter, we've decided it's safer to be sharing the road with a farmer in a good humor pulling an illegal trailer than one with a legal trailer and an extreme case of aggravation because of the time and money involved in getting his trailer equipped to comply with the state law.

The latter might just as soon run over you as not so he'd be in a position to explain to somebody that his rig was fixed up just as he understood the new state law to be.

But, we're sure time will heal the current sore spots brought about by the new legislation and besides, it's a good deal for the people who are in the trailer brake and light business.

The same state legislature has imposed another hardship on the people of Texas in rural areas with rules and regulations in regard to ambulance service. The r & r of ambulance business is so strict that there may not be any ambulance service a'fall in sparsely populated areas. We wonder if this was the intent of the legislation.

Let me hear here that we'd a heap rather, if we needed ambulance service, have one get to us quickly even if it didn't correspond to the code set down by the state legislature than not come period because it couldn't meet the standards set down by a group of lawmakers who didn't need an ambulance when they were tending to the people's business.

And not only has the legislature tightened the rules to the point of impracticability outside the metropolitan areas, but has refused, according to information we've heard, to allow a tax of $1 per motor vehicle to pay for the kind of ambulance service that is specified.

Because of the state legislature, we think, the ambulance situation is in a sad state of affairs and will continue to get worse.

If we're right about that, we might as well start figuring out how to get by without ambulance service.

Don't tell Darrel Read, who is in charge of such things for the city, but we noticed an outstanding community Christmas decoration at a downtown town. The town's water tower was adorned with Christmas lights, complete with a lighted star on top.

Surely was pretty. We could probably do the same thing here if we had a daredevil light stringer.

The idea is a good one, in our opinion. Putting it into effect is something else.

We're guessing, and maybe hoping, that the recent ruling of a three-judge federal court that the state's system of financing public schools is unconstitutional will blow over and amount to nothing.

The ruling would throw the state's school system so out of whack that ridiculous would be a mild way to explain the situation.

Anyway, the court gave the state legislature, which has already been mentioned enough in this space this week, two years to work out a new system for providing funds for schools. Those two years could stretch into several before a new system is worked out.

In spite of the court's absurd ruling, we don't expect any changes in the near future.

Rites Held For Mother Of Mrs. Isaac

Services for Mrs. Mary Boyajian, 77, mother of Mrs. Edward Isaac of Bovina, were held Thursday afternoon in the Resthaven - Singleton - Wilson Funeral Home Chapel in Lubbock with Rev. Jack Washington, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church, officiating.

Burial was in Resthaven Memorial Park at Lubbock. Mrs. Boyajian died Monday night following a brief illness. She had visited in Bovina on numerous occasions.

Born in Latakia, Syria, Mrs. Boyajian came to the United States 52 years ago. She moved to Lubbock six years ago from Corpus Christi and resided with a daughter.

Survivors include Mrs. Alfred Genaway of Corpus Christi, Mrs. Sadallah Moses of Lubbock and Mrs. Isaac of Bovina and six grandchildren.

SPECTACULAR COLLISION --- No injuries were reported in this collision Tuesday morning between a late model Oldsmobile, driven by J. A. Son of Amarillo, and a cattle truck loaded with fat cattle, driven by Charles Tate of Friona. The collision occurred when Son was attempting to make a U-turn in the intersection of Highway 60 and Third Street and was struck by the east-bound trailer which was killed in the incident.

Cattle Truck Strikes Auto

There were no injuries in a spectacular car-truck crash about 9:30 Tuesday morning at the intersection of Highway 60 and Third Street.

The late-model automobile of J. A. Son of Amarillo was struck on the right side by a loaded cattle trailer truck owned by Missouri Beef Packers and driven by Charles Tate of Friona.

Son, who was the only occupant of his car, was making a U-turn in the intersection. The truck was going to the northeast when the collision occurred.

The truck overturned after the impact about half a block past the intersection. Fat steers which were being hauled in the truck scattered as the truck overturned, but none of the cattle were killed.

The 54-foot trailer had loaded at Parmer County Cattle Co. and was on the way to the Missouri Beef packing plant between Bovina and Friona. The steers were corralled by personnel from the feedlot at the old Santa Fe pens on the east side of town.

Son's car was demolished by the impact, but he was apparently unhurt. Tate, likewise, was not injured. Damage to the truck was extensive.

Son said he didn't see the truck until it struck his car. Tate explained that he swerved the truck to avoid hitting the car "broad-side" and this probably caused it to overturn.

The truck came to a stop on its right side in the right hand lane of the divided highway and remained facing the direction it was travelling when the impact occurred. The truck evidently narrowly missed the awning of Bovina Dairy Freeze as it overturned.

A near-witness to the accident said the noise sounded like "an airplane crashing."

Calaway, Guthrie --

There was no immediate estimate made to the monetary damage to the cattle because of bruising.

Extend Jacob's Contract

The contract of Superintendent L. F. Jacobs was extended for an additional year at a regular monthly meeting of the board of trustees of Bovina Independent School District Monday night.

The extension makes Jacobs' contract run through June of '75, making for a three-year contract, which has been customary here.

The board approved the employment of Ches Woltman to assist the school tax office to ascertain the number of livestock in the school district for tax purposes.

In other action, board members agreed for the school to assist the FFA chapter in financing the installation of brakes and lights on its livestock trailer.

Jacobs reported to the board on a state meeting of school administrators which he attended in Austin last week.

Name Inspectors For Quarantine

James Lee Calaway and Linwood Guthrie cattle inspectors with the Texas Animal Health Commission at Bovina, have completed a training course in cattle scabies identification.

Calaway and Guthrie will be working in Parmer County assisting cattlemen in moving their livestock to market during the current cattle scabies quarantine.

The quarantine is aimed at halting the worst cattle scabies outbreak to hit the nation since 1959, according to an official of the commission. The eradication effort needs specially trained men like Calaway and Guthrie because the mites that cause cattle scab are hard to spot. The mites are often masked by pesticides used to kill ticks and lice, the official stated.

Other inspectors in the quarantine area are helping cattlemen identify infected animals and clean them of mites. If every head of infected and exposed cattle in the quarantine area is inspected and the affected animal is properly dipped for scabies, the quarantine can be lifted, according to the official.

Council Okays Hose Purchase

Bovina's city council approved the purchase of 400 feet of 2.5 inch fire hose at a regular meeting Thursday night at City Hall.

This was the city's portion of 1000 feet of hose recently purchased by Bovina Volunteer Fire Department. The department paid for 600 feet of the hose and, in addition, has plans to install a $2000 fire siren in the southwest part of town.

Total cost of the hose was $1840---$1.84 per foot---with the department paying $1104 and the city $736.

The additional siren is needed, it was explained at the meeting, because people in the southwest part of town can't hear the regular siren.

Council members agreed to continue the subsidy of $100 monthly to Claborn Ambulance of Friona. This payment had been in effect for the past several months and the council agreed to continue the payments through 1972.

Mayor Chas. W. Flynn, who presided at the meeting, reported that the community's new park-swim pool-community center complex is still in line for a government grant for 75 per cent of the $190,000 cost. Some $12,000 has been pledged locally to pay the community's portion of the overall amount. *****

In attendance at the meeting were Flynn and Councilmen Vernon Willard, B. L. Marshall, Dolph Moten, Vernon Estes and Johnie Horn. Also present were Mrs. Mary Ruth Martin, city secretary; Darrel Read, water superintendent; and Ronald Mitchell, city marshal.

Damage Extensive --

Enser House Hit By Fire

Burning trash, spread by high winds, resulted in a $20,000 to $25,000 blaze late Saturday afternoon at the brick farm home of Mr. and Mrs. James Enser, about two miles south of the Oklahoma Lane crossroads.

The high winds spread the fire from the trash barrels to the grass where it melted a gas line in the back yard of the home, according to Enser, turning the gas line into a "blow torch" at the base of the home. The fire spread to the roof where fire extinguisher bombs in the attic exploded, probably preventing the fire from spreading more rapidly.

Fire departments from Muleshoe and Farwell were called to the scene of the blaze, but couldn't prevent the middle part of the roof from collapsing. According to one report, the house suffered extensive smoke and water damage to the interior and family members saved little of their possessions.

Lee Hutchins and Milton Lee Walling, members of the Farwell fire department, sustained injuries during firemen's attempt to quench the blaze. Walling suffered minor burns and Hutchins suffered a broken hand.

Burglars Hit Six Monday

Six Bovina businesses in Bovina were burglarized Monday night, according to Parmer County Sheriff Chas. Lovelace.

Most of the businesses broken into were located along Highway 60. Burglars were evidently interested in only money as cigarette, candy and soft drink machines were broken into at the businesses and little else was bothered, the sheriff said following a preliminary investigation Tuesday morning.

Businesses broken into were Custom Farm Services, Three-Way Chemical Co., Northside 66 Service, Lester Rhinehart's Station, Charles Oil Co. and Bonds Oil Co.

Entrance to the buildings was made by prying doors open.

TEN YEARS AGO
 January 17, 1962

Another first class recreational facility is about to become a reality for Bovina sportsmen.

An automatic trap shooting range is expected to be ready for use in "about 10 days or two weeks," Jim Russell, president of Bovina Gun Club, says.

In search of their second consecutive district crown, Bovina Mustangs picked up their second league win here Friday night. Nazareth was the victim by a 54-44 count. Ponies had earned their first conference win earlier in the week from Lazbuddie. Fillies' game was a squeaker with the outcome of the game in doubt until final few minutes of play with the Fillies losing, 36-40.

Along with the rest of the area and state, Bovina is thawing out this week following one of the worst cold spells in history last week.

A reported low temperature of 12 degrees below zero during the worst of the spell caused water pipes to freeze in town as well as on most area farms leaving residents without convenience of running water.

Mr. and Mrs. Bedford Caldwell of Bovina Implement Co., Massey-Ferguson dealership here, were in Palm Springs last week to view a new array of farm and industrial equipment. They were guests of the company at a banquet featuring the Lawrence Welk troupe.

The Earl Richards home was the scene of a party for members of Class of '61 Thursday evening. Attending were Patsy Richards, Patsy Hart, Judy Roach, Penny Lloyd, Cynthia Patterson, Marilyn Turner, Roger Ezell, Don Caldwell, Larry Webb, O. W. Adams, Patricia Patton, Lavonia Newbrough, Brenda Jones, Jerry Wright, James Clayton and Ronny Minyen.

SIX YEARS AGO
 January 12, 1966

Bovina voters will decide Saturday on a $100,000 bond election which, if it carries, will provide water system improvements, more paved streets, and long-term financing for major city facilities and equipment.

Annual census of school-age children in Bovina Independent School District begins Monday and will continue throughout this month, Superintendent Otis Spears announces.

Parmer County friends of Sheriff Spas, Lovelace will honor the veteran law enforcement official with an Appreciation Night Thursday, January 27.

A good farming year in the area was reflected in bank deposits here as of December 31 as deposits surged over the $2 million mark.

Bovina High German Club met in the home of Lane Cober Thursday night. The group discussed plans for the Texas Association of German Students convention in Lubbock April 1 and 2. They will have an exhibit of culture and life in Germany.

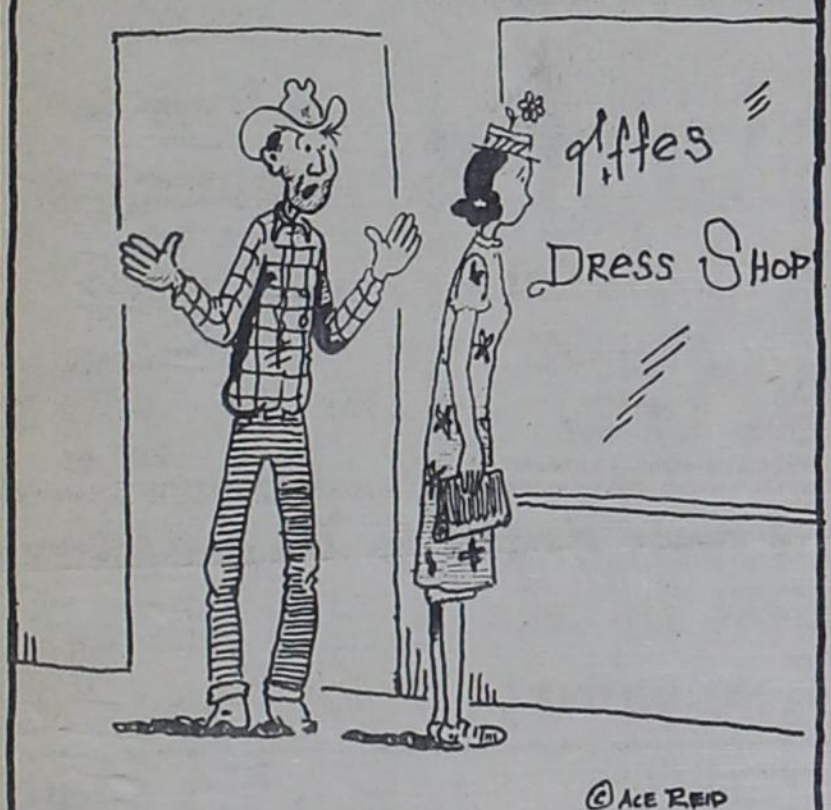

Dates for two horse shows here during 1966 were set at a re-organizational meeting of Bovina Roping Club Monday night in Bovina Restaurant.

Ronell Barron was re-elected president of the group. This will be Barron's third term to head the organization.

Both Bovina teams were "cold" in non-district games here Tuesday night of last week with Vega. The Mustangs were gored by the Longhorns, 51-29, and the Fillies lost, 43-29. Going into district action, the Mustangs had a season record of 5-5. The Fillies were 2-9 for the season prior to the Tuesday night district tilt at Lazbuddie.

 Dear Dolph:

The closing weeks of the recent session of Congress were incredibly rugged for me. I am now spending a week in the office trying to clear my desk preparatory to returning to Texas.

I must tell you that I was overwhelmed by the generous coverage which you gave my November visit to Bovina. You were most generous and kind -- and it was good to have a chance to get better acquainted with you and the people there. You must let me hear from you from time to time,

Cordially,

SCD Seeks Nominees For Homemaker Award

A nominee from Parmer County for the Texas Conservation Homemaker Award is being sought by the Soil Conservation Service and Extension Department of Agriculture.

Jana Pronger, Parmer County Home Demonstration agent, and Herb Evans, Work Unit Conservationist for Soil Conservation Service, are in charge of finding a county nominee.

Any woman who lives in the county and she or her husband operate a farm or ranch under a basic soil and water conservation plan developed in cooperation with the local Soil and Water Conservation District may submit her name and record.

County participants must submit their records to the Home Demonstration agent's office at Parmer County Courthouse in Farwell by Feb. 1 in order to be considered as a nominee from Parmer County. Guidelines for putting together a record book and other information pertaining to the local county may be obtained at the Home Demonstration agent's office or by calling 481-3691.

A three-member county committee will be in charge of selecting a nominee from those entering record books. Any organization wishing to sponsor a woman in the contest must have her record book in the extension office by Feb. 1.

Former regional winners of the Homemaker Award may enter the county contest providing they update their record books and submit it to the HD agent by Feb. 1.

Women will be judged on farm and ranch conservation practices followed, 50 per cent; conservation practices followed in the home, 25 per cent; and leadership and community life, 25 per cent.

County nominations will be sent to a regional judging committee, in the case of Parmer County, it will be Region I. The regional committee will pick one nominee who will be given a silver award at the regional awards banquet held in May.

The regional nominee from each of Texas' five regions will have her records sent to a state judging committee who will be in charge of picking a Texas Conservation Homemaker. The top award will be a silver service presented to the honoree during State Conservation Awards Program held May 13 in the Student Center Ballroom on the Texas Christian University campus in Fort Worth.

The Texas Conservation Homemaker Award -- "Walter R. Humphrey Award" -- is one of many awards sponsored by Fort Worth Chamber of Commerce in the 1972 Awards Program. It is given to recognize achievements of Texas homemakers in the area of conservation of human and natural resources and to inspire others to cooperate in good conservation practices.

Pep Buffaloes defeated the Mustangs in the tourney finals, 70-60. Trophies were presented first, second and consolation winners after the concluding game Saturday night in the 34th Annual Amherst Invitational Tournament.

Host Kress --

Fillies Win; Ponies Lose

Fillies brought their district record to three victories against one defeat and Mustangs dropped their third district tilt in four outings in games played against Kress in Willford Gymnasium Tuesday night of last week. Mustang's B team took the measure of Kress' B team to give the Bovina teams two out of three games.

Bovina had three men in the double figures in the B game as the Mustangs defeated Kress, 47-34.

Mike Ware with 18, Jeff McCormick with 12 and Eddie Pesch with 10 were high scorers for Bovina. Garza had 17 for Kress.

Fillies stayed on the winning side of the ledger with a 57-31 win over the Kress girls.

Twyla Hutto swished the nets for 26 points, and her little sister, Nancy, hit 18 to lead the Fillies scoring parade. Evren Williams of Kress had 20 points.

The Fillies sank 19 of 30 charity shots for a .633 percentage. Kress hit seven of 17 from the line.

Although the Mustangs enjoyed a slim lead throughout most of the game, the Kangaroos came back in the fourth quarter with a scoring burst that put the game on ice for the visitors, 61-55.

Ronald Steele with 17 and Shannon Davis with 11 points led the Mustangs in scoring. Weaver McClure had 21 for the visitors.

Both teams were evenly matched at the free throw line with the Mustangs sinking only seven of 18 shots and Kress counting on five of 16.

She lists her hobbies as sewing, recovering furniture, reading and cooking. She helps her mother in the summer with yard work and garden chores. Vi expressed an interest in making candles and plans to learn how in the near future.

Late in the last century the volcano Krakatoa erupted and put an estimated one cubic mile of sea water and other material into the stratosphere. For a year a lot of the world had green sunsets, but there was no measurable health, climatic or ecological ill effects.

I'm including this week two casserole recipes shared with us by members of the Oklahoma Lane Home Demonstration Club which might come in handy for a quick hot lunch or supper that needs to be prepared ahead of time.

CHICKEN DISH -

Mrs. Truman (Mary) McKillip
1 chicken, cooked
1 onion, chopped
1/2 c. celery, chopped
1 can mushroom soup
1 cup noodles, cooked
1/2 c. cheese
1 can ripe olives

Mix all ingredients, grate cheese on top. Put in 350 degree oven until onion has cooked and cheese melted.

GREEN BEAN CASSEROLE -

Mrs. Edmund (Louetta) Kitten
2 pkgs. frozen green beans
1 can mushroom soup
French fried onion rings
Cook green beans until done, drain. Place in casserole dish, dot with butter and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Spread mushroom soup on top. Bake 20 minutes. Add onion rings and bake 10 minutes more.

Guadalupe Plan Trip

The annual trip to the Panhandle Orphan's Home and dedication of the new sanctuary were the main items on the agenda of the meeting Monday night of Guadalupe Society of St. Ann's Catholic Church.

The society agreed to send a donation to the home and to make inquiries as to the needs of the school instead of making the trip. Members agreed to bring cookies for refreshments that will be served following the dedication of the new sanctuary of St. Ann's. Other refreshments were planned.

The group presented Rev. Norman Boyd, pastor, with a belated Christmas gift.

Mrs. Hope DeLeon and Mrs. Anita Alonzo will be in charge of cleaning the rectory for the following month, according to Mrs. Pauline Duran, secretary of the society.

The meeting was closed with a prayer and refreshments were served by Mrs. Duran and Mrs. Alonzo to 11 members and Rev. Boyd. One new member, Mrs. Raymond Rocha, was welcomed into the society.

Bovina Area Churches Welcome You!

Church Chuckles by CARTWRIGHT

"Despite his acute bronchitis, I noticed the preacher was still able to croak, 'money, money, money' . . .!"

HAPPY NEW YEAR

These words flowed freely from the lips of millions during the past week. It is the tradition, it is expected. But what do they mean?

Many voiced these words with tongues that were thick from brains that are idled in intoxication. Their wishes will embrace no more than the crude, riotous pleasure of the moment; wishes that will be so empty and meaningless the morning after.

Others joyously expressed the same words to friends and loved ones in honorable, wholesome settings. But the focus of thought will be on greater material prosperity in the coming year; an increase in salary, promotion in profession, greater social prestige, etc.

Then there are some whose voices with "Happy New Year!" who were not concerned as to material increase. They rather desired the prosperity of the souls of those who are recipients of their wishes. In these words they were saying, "May you be closer to God and His Son in this coming year." They prayerfully uttered, "God bless your family with harmony and love and unity with God. May you look more than ever to Him as the Giver of every good and perfect gift. May your life be enriched by what you can do for others and by less thought of what others can do for you."

The most important thing in the New Year are not the sensual pleasures and material things, but the Spiritual, they are eternal.

ALVIE KNOWS A LOT OF ANSWERS

How long does it take to hatch an ostrich egg? . . . How many bachelors in Bolivia? . . . How much blubber in a male whale? Alvie knows these answers and a jillion others. Folks smile and agree that Alvie is a regular encyclopedia of "useless information" but they never question the accuracy of his peculiar knowledge. That's because everybody knows Alvie gets his "answers" by memorizing the little space-fillers we all see in our newspapers. And to all of us, what we see in our home-town newspaper is immediately acceptable and believable!

The same is particularly true of advertising. To put your advertising message before all the people . . . put it in your HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER!

The Bovina Blade "In The Agricultural Center Of Parmer County"

On The Farm In Parmer County By R. MACK HEALD County Agent

Land leveling can be used to improve water conservation and allow efficient furrow irrigation, but it also presents a whole new set of soil fertilization problems. During the leveling process, the soil that is highest in organic matter and plant nutrients is often moved into the low areas, leaving poor soil on the graded land. While most High Plains soils are naturally low in organic matter, the amount present is usually an adequate source of most micronutrients and may contribute small amounts of the major plant nutrients. If the topsoil is removed in land leveling, the remaining layer may be severely deficient in plant nutrients; in addition to being alkaline and having poor structure. Studies to correct this problem were begun at the Center in 1963 on land that had been bench-leveled in 1962. The research team has spent the past several years trying to increase the production on the graded portion through application of materials such as cotton burs, nitrogen, phosphorus, potassium, iron, zinc and sulfur. After eight years, yields from the cut area are still well below those from the fill area, but the yield differential is decreasing. In 1963, yield on cotton lint between the cut and fill areas differed as much as 440 pounds per acre. But in 1970, the greatest spread was only 290 pounds. This points out the importance of proper fertilization of cut areas when land is leveled. Land owners should plan specific fertility programs around soil tests. The results of research conducted at the Center are incorporated into the fertilizer recommendations made by the Soil Testing Laboratory, Forms and directions for taking soil samples can be obtained from the County Agricultural Agent's office. Growers and businessmen in Parmer County will be interested in the agricultural information contained in the 1971 High Plains Irrigation Survey now available at the County Extension Office. The survey contains 1971 crop acreages and irrigation trends in Parmer County and 41 other High Plains counties. The survey gives the current irrigated acreage, number of irrigation wells and the irrigated and dryland acreages for individual crops during the 1971 crop year. Data on the kind of fuels used by the irrigation well power units are also a part of the survey. The survey should be valuable to growers, agronomists, bankers and others who keenly observe current conditions, changes and trends in irrigation. The survey is prepared annually by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service to provide up-to-date facts on irrigation in the area.

Through Cost-Share -- Five Complete Improvements Five producers in Parmer and Deaf Smith counties completed improving their farms and ranches in 1971 with cost-share from the Great Plains Conservation Program, according to information received here from the Parmer County Soil Conservation Service at Friona. These include Otho Whitefield of Friona, J. L. Ivy of Lazbuddie, Owen Seamond of Hereford, R. T. Harbour of Bovina and Joe Jones and Lillian Aldridge of Farwell. These producers drew up to 80 per cent cost share for improvements such as seeding grass, installing vegetated waterways, installing irrigation pipeline, leveling land for irrigation and building parallel terraces, said Herb Evans, district conservationist. Nearly 100 producers have been assisted through this program since 1958, Evans said. The treatment applied through the program serves a multiple purpose, added Evans. It promotes the conservation of soil and water while at the same time it enhances the habitat for wildlife, it helps control air pollution by preventing the land from blowing, and saves tax money by reducing siltation in road ditches and lakes. More information about the Great Plains Conservation Program may be obtained from Soil Conservation Service in Friona.

Over $100 Million --

Land Bank Sets High In Loans

Ernest Kerr, manager of the Federal Land Bank Association of Muleshoe, announced today that The Federal Land Bank of Houston closed more than 100 million dollars in loans during 1971.

The previous record for loans closed in a single year was set in 1965 when the Bank closed more than 94 million dollars in loans.

"Farmers generally have been a little more optimistic this year, a little more confident of the agricultural economy," Kerr stated. "Then too, the number of land sales are up somewhat this year over last year."

Next year will also be a big year, Kerr predicts. "By mid-year we will have the new Farm Credit Act implemented. This will permit us to lend more money in some instances and will also broaden the scope of our loan service to agriculture in other respects," he stated.

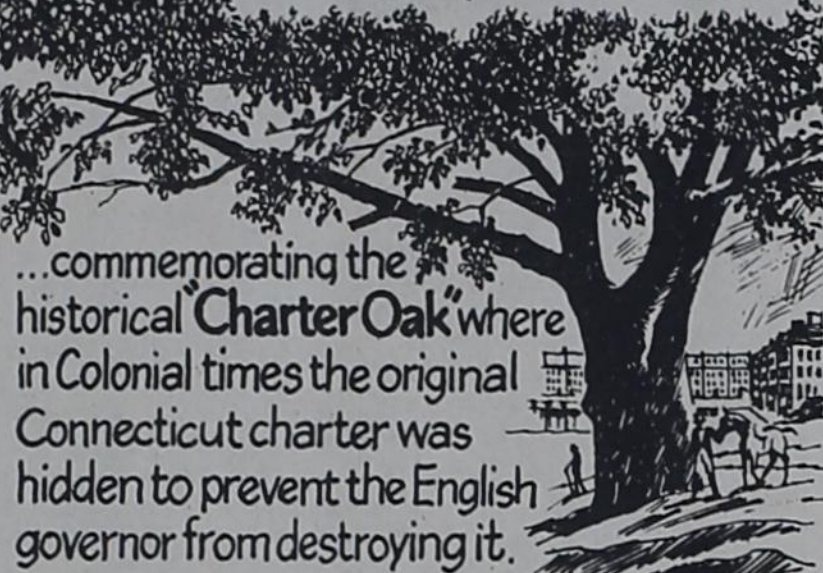

The Federal Land Bank of Houston makes farm and ranch real estate loans throughout Texas and on December 30 had more than 575 million dollars in loans outstanding to over 35,000 farmers and ranchers. The local association makes and services loans in Bailey and Parmer counties.

"Take Five" to millions of military veterans means to take time off to rest. To us, "take five" means detailed work and planning for the next five years.

We'll be investing more than $144 million in power plant capacity and the lines and equipment needed to get an adequate supply of electricity to you. Electricity that will be needed for sewage and water treatment, disposal of wastes and for other environmental "clean-ups". Electricity, the cleanest of all energies at the point of consumption, is being depended upon as the means for effectively and efficiently cleaning up our environment.

And, adequate electricity will be needed just for the normal growth of people, their industries, their jobs, their resources — nothing frivolous, mind you — just normal, everyday solid growth.

Yes, through 1976, we'll be taking five — doing the worrying — so you won't have to... so when you want electric power it'll be there at the flick of a switch.

Sunday Afternoon --

Bovina Firemen Assist SIB Gin

Lint and cotton residue, apparently ignited from a spark near the burr pile, blew around the yard of the S.I.B. Gin, Inc., setting ablaze cotton trailers, un-ginned and ginned cotton, tractors and cottonswept about mid-afternoon Sunday. The gin is located between Hub and Clay's Corner.

Brisk winds hampered five fire-fighting units from Bovina, Friona, Muleshoe, Texico and Farwell in their efforts to control the blaze.

An estimated $4,000 damage was done to four cotton trailers, approximately 12 bales of un-ginned cotton, three ginned bales, two towing tractors and several truckloads of cottonseed before the fire was brought under control. No injuries were reported among gin employees.

Only minor damage was sustained by the gin itself, mostly to the suction tube and its rigging apparatus.

The first fire unit from Muleshoe arrived some 20 to 25 minutes after the blaze was discovered and the other units arrived shortly afterwards.

About 15 trailers with un-ginned cotton were on the yard at the time of the fire.

The gin was expected to resume normal operations this week.

At Post Office --

Tax Booklet On Sale Here

A booklet of information on how to fill out Federal tax returns will be sold at the Bovina post office, Postmaster Gene Ezell announces.

"Your Federal Income Tax" was written by the Internal Revenue Service and contains many examples to illustrate how the tax law applies to actual situations, says Ezell. A special feature of the booklet is the sample, filled-in return, Form 1040, keyed to pages where explanations can be found for each entry on the return. The 160-page booklet is on sale now and costs 75 cents a copy.

"By selling this booklet in the Bovina area, we are offering a convenient service to our customers," Ezell said. "We are participating in a nationwide program to make the tax booklet available to the public in 15,000 postal facilities."

Another popular IRS publication, "Tax Guide for Small Business" will also be sold for 75 cents a copy at the Amarillo post office.

This publication answers many questions businessmen have about Federal income, excise and employment taxes and also contains a 1972 tax calendar with due dates for various taxes and information on returns and payments, concluded Ezell.

Mustangs Win 2nd In Amherst Event

Bovina's Mustangs brought home the second place trophy from the 34th Annual Amherst Invitational Tournament last weekend, bettering their mark of a year ago when they took third place in the event. Fillies won their first game, but lost in the second round and were eliminated from the play-offs.

Lazbuddie Longhorns were the first victims of the Mustangs, falling by a 46-43 count. Shannon Davis with 11 and Kim Rundell with 10 points led the scoring for the Ponies in that tilt. T. Kirven of Lazbuddie sank 13 points.

Mustangs were cold at the charity line, hitting only eight of 23 shots. Lazbuddie didn't improve on that much, hitting only five of 18.

Following a narrow win over the Sudan Hornets in a district tilt Friday night, the Mustangs came back to the tournament Saturday morning to defeat Bula for the third time this year, 69-60, in the second round of tournament play.

Leading Mustang scorers were Davis with 18, McCain with 14 and Ronald Steele with 10 points in the tilt. Randy Kuhler with 26 points topped Pep scorers.

Both teams were evenly matched at the free throw line, with each team hitting 12 of 21 charity tosses. However, in the second half of play, the heavy schedule started taking its toll on the Ponies and Pep pulled into a lead which they never relinquished.

Fillies scored a comparatively easy win over the Lazbuddie fens with a 67-35 decision over their Farmer County neighbor.

Twyla Hutto scored 25 points, followed by Nancy Hutto with 18 and Darlene Murphy with 12 for the Fillies. Debbie Engleking scored 26 points for Lazbuddie.

Advancing to the second round of play Saturday morning, Fillies lost to Bula for the third time this year in a close-fought game, 58-64.

The two Hutto sisters again scored 25 and 18 points, respectively, for the Fillies. Three Bula forwards scored in double figures with Sheila Medlin scoring 29 points for high point honors.

The Bula fens went on to win the tournament by defeating the host team, Amherst.

Other teams participating in the tourney were Three Way, Whiteface, Littlefield and Causey, N.M.

CHAMPIONSHIP GAME --- Ronald Steele takes an outside shot and Mustangs Ben McCain and Shannon Davis, No. 45, prepare to go to the boards in the championship tilt of the Amherst Tournament Saturday night. The Mustangs lost their bid for the first place trophy to the Pep Bufaloes, 70-60, but bettered their mark of a year ago in that tournament when they placed third.

3-A Tilt --

Bovina teams swept three of four games played at Sudan Friday night, with the Fillies building their district record to 4-1 and the Mustangs picking up another victory for a 2-3 standing in district play.

In the first game of the evening, B girls defeated Sudan's B team 41-28.

Scoring in double figures for Bovina were Daria Hawkins with 17 points and Christi Trimble with 12 points. Phyllis Ray of Sudan had 18 for her team.

The B team boys came home with the only loss of the evening with a 38-45 defeat at the hands of Sudan's B team.

Jeff McCormick scored 20 points for Bovina with Tamplin of Sudan sinking 20.

Twyla Hutto sank 32 points and Nancy Hutto 10 to lead the Fillies in their 60-49 victory over Sudan. Darlene Murphy and Barbara Griffith added nine points each to Bovina's scoring. Georgia Ray had 18 points for Sudan.

Mustangs edged by the Hornets, 68-61, with Ben McCain scoring 22 points for the Mustangs. Others in double figures were Shannon Davis with 12 and Ronald Steele with 16. Bo Lance of Sudan had 29 points.

The victories for the varsity teams brought their records to 11-6 for the Mustangs and 9-6 for the Fillies.

Three games were slated to be played at Vega last (Tuesday) night. Both varsity teams and B girls were slated for action.

Next home games for the teams will be Friday night with Bovina hosting Hart. Varsity teams and B boys are on the card for that night.
