Bomber Returns

Fireworks Due Tonight At Louis-Charles Title Bout

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (UP)—Bomber Joe Louis, battling age and Ezzard Charles, will return to the ring tonight and try to become the first man in history to recapture the heavyweight crown. Legendary Louis, once the most destructive puncher his division ever boasted, was favored at 2-1 by a Yankee Stadium triumph because betting men believed his 36 years had not dampened his explosives.

Charles is recognized as world champion by the National Boxing Association because of his decision victory over Jersey Joe Walcott after Louis retired officially in March, 1949. The New York State Athletic Commission does not recognize Charles as champion, but it will recognize tonight's winner as champ.

Without a real fight in more than two years, Louis comes out of retirement for tonight's 15-round bout with Charles of Cincinnati because he needs money to pay back-income taxes.

However, neither the British Board of Boxing Control nor the European Boxing Union has sanctioned the fight as a title affair. The British board's world champion is veteran Lee Savold of Englewood, N. J., who has agreed to fight tonight's winner at New York or London in June.

Officials of the International Boxing Club expected more than 30,000 fans to pay more than $250,000 for the privilege of again seeing the "Brown Lightning" that knocked out 52 of Louis' 61 professional opponents.

Louis was so impressive in the late stages of training at Pompton Lakes, N. J., that he was favored today not only in the betting but also by a majority of sports writers in a United Press poll. The writers, who will cover the fight, voted 30 to 18 in favor of Bomber Joe.

In addition $140,000 will be paid for the television and radio rights. And the movies may garner a rich harvest.

First FHA Home In Eastland Is Now Complete

The two big questions of the fight were these: (1) can Charles' reputedly weak midsection withstand Louis' smashes to the body, and (2) will Louis' ancient legs give way if he fails to knock out 29-year-old Charles within seven or eight rounds?

Jesse Coy Kimbrough, house building contractor in Eastland, has announced that the first F. H. A. house to be built here has been completed and approved.

Each principal predicted he would tag his opponent with the second knockout of his career. Louis was knocked out by Max Schmeling in 1936 for his only defeat. Charles was belted out by Lloyd Marshall in 1943. However, Ezzard lost four other bouts on decisions during his career of 73 fights; Ezzard has had 12 more fights than Joe, although he is seven years younger.

The house is located at 1213 West Commerce, and will be open for a few days so that the public may go through it. Richard May is buying the house. A two-bedroom house, it is F. H. A. approved and the final inspection of the house was made Tuesday by F. H. A. officials. Anyone interested in going through the house is welcome, Kimbrough said.

Airmen Turn Up Jap-American Pilot In Mex.

EL PASO, Tex., Sept. 27 (UP)—Search for a Japanese-American pilot missing on a flight from Tucson, Ariz., to El Paso ended yesterday when the airman turned up in Mexico where he had made a forced landing.

All members are urged to attend. The Eastland County A & M Club meets at 7 p.m. Thursday, September 28, at the court house, E. Paul Creech, president, has announced.

Robert N. Morrow of Chihuahua City, Mexico, called the civil aeronautics administration office here to report that pilot Henry Ohye had landed his light plane on a rural road some 60 miles west of Presidio, Tex., on the south side of the border.

Neither Ohye nor his wife was injured in the landing, Morrow said. The couple planned to fly to El Paso today by commercial plane. Two Air Force planes and 11 aircraft of the El Paso sheriff's skyway patrol had taken to the air yesterday in fruitless search for Ohye, after the pilot had failed to arrive here on schedule Monday afternoon.

Morrow said Ohye told him he landed on the Mexican road after he got off course. The California pilot was sponsor of a Nisei cross-country air race from Compton, Calif., to Chicago. Although not competing in the race, he was computing handicaps.

The U. S. Weather Bureau at Dallas said skies would clear in West Texas tonight and Thursday, with temperatures dropping in the Panhandle and South Plains.

Mobilization 15,000 NAVAL RESERVE OFFICERS ARE FACING RETURN TO ACTIVE DUTY; 100,000 ALREADY CALLED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27 (UP)—About 15,000 Naval reserve officers were facing a return to active duty today, but some will not get an actual call for some time.

Riggs, in charge of the naval reserve program, said the Navy already has called up about 100,000 reserves with petty officer ratings. He added that no further calls for enlisted men are anticipated under present conditions.

The Marine Corps announced that all of its 151 Organized Reserve ground units have been mobilized. Accomplished in 43 days, the mobilization involved 438 units of men reserves and 13 platoons of women reserves from 126 cities including Honolulu.

Navy spokesmen said reserve officers are required over a considerable period to staff the ships and bases which are being put into service. Only about 5,000 of them will be needed in the near future, they said.

Col. Daniel O. Omer, general counsel for the selective service system, said men 26 to 35 years old will not be drafted in the "foreseeable future" and men over 35 probably will not be called at all.

It was understood that most of the reserves to be called will be "line" officers qualified for general duty aboard ship. Substantial numbers of medical, electronics and other specialists also are expected to be called for active service.

Uplifts Cause Consternation At Phone Co.

Rear Adm. Ralph S. Riggs said in New Orleans last night that the Navy already has taken about 10,000 reserve officers up to the grade of commander from the reserves. He said more will be required.

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 27 (UP)—The girls with the silver-lined brassieres reported back for work at the telephone office today but officials said they wouldn't get away with taking home a bosomload of the company's money.

It was understood that most of the reserves to be called will be "line" officers qualified for general duty aboard ship. Substantial numbers of medical, electronics and other specialists also are expected to be called for active service.

Southern Bell has decided to be firm with female employees who admitted padding their brassieres with pay station collections.

UN Waits War's End PUSAN, Korea, Sept. 27 (UP)—The United Nations Commission on Korea is standing by for the end of the Korean war.

But the eight women and six men arrested in the "case of the jingling uplifts" had plans of their own.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (UP)—Twenty-one high police officials including retiring chief of detectives William T. Whalen, were ordered today to appear before the Brooklyn grand jury investigating a $5,000,000 a year police graft scandal.

Freed on court writs yesterday because no one was yet willing to charge them with a crime, the "confessed" brassiere-bandits announced plans to bring suit to recover the cash police seized when they were taken into custody. It amounted to $8,000 to $10,000.

Defense Attorney James Rainwater declared that the girls would "report for work as usual" today. He added that he would be along to "look after their rights."

The company, which has authority to dismiss them without cause, declined comment on their future employment but admitted that "more trustworthy" girls were working in the coin counting room.

Assistant county solicitor Mike Zarowny's statement in court yesterday that "our hands are tied" presently as far as legal action against the 14 was concerned touched off a round of horse laughs in bistros and restaurants.

Wisecrackers were asking bony bar maids if they were naturally endowed or worked for the telephone company. The Miami Herald printed a cartoon showing the Goddess of Justice with a brassiere, rather than the customary blindfold, over her eyes.

Russ Roulette Takes Life Of Houston Youth

HOUSTON, Tex., Sept. 27 (UP)—Henry Alpha, 15-year-old junior high school student, denying emphatically that he was peeping, played a game of Russian roulette yesterday to prove his courage and lost.

The youth died a few minutes after he was rushed to the Jefferson Davis hospital. The bullet from a nickel-plated revolver pierced his brain. The shooting occurred in the Katy Railroad yards.

Police said young Alpha and five other school mates were playing hookey from school yesterday and were in the railroad yards. One of his companions, John Mass, 15, told police that Alpha had the pistol and was spinning the cylinder and then looking into the barrel to see if the cartridge came up before pulling the trigger.

"We kidded him about peeping," Mass said, "and told him he was looking first. That's not the way to play Russian roulette. Then he spun the cylinder, put the gun to his head without looking and said:

"I don't cheat. And I have got the courage to do it." Then he pulled the trigger," young Mass said. "He fell to the ground and we all ran. One of the other boys threw the gun away. We were scared."

Police said they didn't know where young Alpha got the pistol. The gun was found in a bunch of weeds nearby.

Commander Morrow will be accompanied by C. W. Gold, Assistant Chief of Staff, V.F.W. of Texas.

Officers of the V.F.W. Posts at Comanche, Brownwood, Breckenridge, Cisco, Ranger and Rising Star have been invited to attend this meeting.

All members of the local Post are urged to be present and hear the messages of these high State officers.

The meeting will begin at the Post Home at 7:30 o'clock. Refreshments will be served after the meeting.

State Needs Many Workers

Defense preparations have created an even greater need for certain types of State workers according to a statement issued by Chas. S. Gardiner, Director of the Merit System Council.

There is a particular need for stenographers in every part of the state, Gardiner declared. There is a lesser need which is limited primarily to smaller towns for filed workers, interviewers, and clerk-typists. There are a few vacancies for child welfare workers, senior child welfare workers, and county child welfare supervisors.

Gardiner announced that examinations for these positions will be given on November 4, 1950, but warned that applications must be sent in before the closing date of October 14, 1950.

He pointed out that these positions with the state offer very good salaries, liberal vacation and sick leave, and under the merit system, permanency of job and promotion based upon ability. Qualifications for these positions range from high school graduation to college graduation plus appropriate experience. Appropriate experience may be substituted for a part of the education in most cases.

Application blanks for these examinations are available at the local offices of the Texas employment commission and the State Department of Public Welfare or may be obtained by writing the Merit System Council, 1000 San Antonio Street, Austin, Texas.

Marine Private Raises Flag Over Embassy

By Earnest Hoberecht United Press Staff Correspondent TOKYO, Sept. 27 (UP)—American flags fluttered in the streets of Seoul today as U. S. Marines moved forward against dwindling Communist resistance to complete the liberation of the city.

At 3:37 p.m. (12:37 a.m. CST) A Marine private raised the stars and stripes over the liberated U. S. embassy residence in a gesture symbolizing the American victory in the capital city.

The same flag had been raised and then lowered at 3:20 p.m. on a flagpole at the liberated Russian embassy, as a gesture of defiance to Korea's big neighbor on the north.

U. S. soldiers and Marines, united in a four-pronged drive, had blasted the Communists out of the two-thirds of Seoul, and late today the Marines were advancing on the remaining third as fast as they could walk.

Many Marines wore small American flags, found in a liberated building, thrust in their helmets or rifles. Except for an occasional flurry of street fighting, the city was quiet. The main Communist garrison was fleeing north, hotly pursued by U. S. forces, and diehard resistance appeared to be waning.

A staff officer at 10th corps headquarters said he thought the backbone of enemy resistance might be broken today, although Marine Col. Lewis B. Puller estimated cautiously that it might be a week before the last trace of Communist resistance is overcome.

Methodists Set Conference For 6:30 To-Night

A covered dish supper at 6:30 p.m. tonight at the First Methodist Church will be held for the First Quarterly Conference. Reports of the three months of the 1950-1951 church year will be heard.

The Rev. Leslie W. Seymour, superintendent of the Cisco District, will conduct the devotional and preside at the business meeting.

Each family was asked by the pastor, Rev. J. M. Bailey, to bring covered dishes in keeping with the number in their respective families.

A rehearsal of the Chancel Choir will follow the quarterly conference, which will adjourn about 8 p.m. Mr. Bailey said.

American pilots ranging over the battlefield complained that they could find little or nothing to shoot at. In 184 sorties, the tactical planes of the 5th Air Force could claim only five tanks, nine trucks, 16 other vehicles, one ammunition dump and five "troop buildings" destroyed and four tanks and four trucks damaged.

South Korean forces driving north along the east coast reached the 37th parallel, capturing Utehin, 40 miles north of Yongdok, and Chanyang, 27 miles west of Utehin.

Four U. S. regiments were battling for Seoul—the 1st and 5th Marines, the 32nd Infantry and the newly-arrived 7th Marines, which entered the battle today.

It was the 1st Marines, driving through the city from the west, that raised the flag over ambassador John Muccio's residence. Pfc. Luther B. Leguire, Tampa, Fla., ran old glory up the flagpole.

Much of the liberated portion of the city had been reduced to smoking rubble by the bitter attack. The main railroad station had been destroyed and principal government buildings had suffered fire damage.

MacArthur's headquarters reported today that American forces had liberated 400 prisoners of war from a Red prison on the eastern outskirts of Seoul.

United Press war correspondent Robert Vermillion reported, however, that army troops who reached the prison—a converted school—found that some 300 American prisoners previously held there had been moved north and east from Seoul three days ago.

SEOUL NOW LIBERATED—United Nations forces fought strong enemy rear guards inside liberated Seoul (inset map) while the bulk of Red Forces fled to the northeast (open arrows). The U. S. 1st Cavalry Division drove past Chonchwon (1) and may have reached Chonju, just 24 miles from 7th Division at Osan (2). This thrust isolates six Red Divisions in Southwest Korea. Elsewhere around the old Pusan beachhead, United Nations force pushed ahead. South Koreans met little resistance while advancing on a line (3) from Yonghae to Hamchang. U. S. 24th Division captured Yongdong (4), 2nd Division captured Kochang, (5) and 25th Division to the south swept 15 miles northwest of liberated Chinju. Only at Hyonpung (6) did the Reds still fight to hold an isolated bridgehead. (NEA Telephoto).

Foxhole Reporter Describes Area Around Seoul As Being Red, Wide, Fertile With Isolated Ridges

By H. D. Quigg
United Press Staff Correspondent

WITH THE MARINES IN KOREA, Sept. 27, (UP)—The valley of the Han is red, wide and fertile. If you sit in a foxhole on the top of a hill just northeast of Kimpo airport and look to the northwest, the river valley carpets off the the horizon, a green and gold patchwork.

Part of the valley, rich with maturing rice, tobacco, patches of ripe cotton and lettuce and other garden crops, lies directly in front between you and the river. Just across the river and stretching up-river east and southeast—but still within the valley—are isolated hills and ridges. The farthest of these hills lies before the city of Seoul.

When the Marines crossed the Han, a couple of us sat on the lip of such a foxhole, dangled our feet into the hole and watched. It was early morning, and chilly. The sun cast long shadows to the left of grain shocks and small trees in the valley before us.

Around the foot of our hills, tank-tracked amphibious LVT vehicles loaded with Marines chugged along a brown, snaky road, their tracks squealing like rusty wheelbarrows, their outlines softened by the mist that veiled the lowlands. They moved single file across the valley, and one by one, dipped their noses into the river, churned across, and crawled up the steep bank of the far shore.

The first assault element had gone across earlier. Fires bloomed in the tiny town of Haengju on the opposite bank. Automatic weapons hammered. Their beat rolled across the river with a fast bump, a sound like that produced by a jazz drummer pounding his snare with the big end of his sticks. Marine carrier planes strafed, rocketed and bombed targets along the hills. They started more fires which sent up slender white smoke columns.

There had been opposition during the initial crossing. But by 9 a. m. the sound of small arms fire had died away except for an occasional crackle. A Marine helicopter wheeled across the river and hovered near the hill fires. It drew several bursts of enemy rifle fire and wheeled out again.

Around 10 a. m. a line of LVT's miles long rattled along the road below. They were spaced about 25 yards apart. Some Marines stood inside them or sat on the sides. Others sat down inside the cargo wells, too tired to have an interest in their whereabouts. These were the men who had pushed forward day and night, fighting and marching ever since the Inchon landing five days before. Some of them had been so busy with the enemy that they found little time even to eat.

This big group of LVT's crossed the river six or seven at a time. They came back empty along the now-dusty road, their tracks pitching up reddish dirt and spilling it in front of them as they rotated.

These LVT's are invaluable tools of modern warfare. LVT stands for landing vehicle, tracked.

They are often called "am-tracks," because they are amphibious tractors. They are the so-called "alligators" and "buffalos" which crawled across coral reefs with assault troops in the Pacific in the second World War.

They're built like big, rectangular bathtubs with an engine in the back and a ramp in the front which lets down to let the troops out, the tank type treads which move them over the land have cupped tracks which serve to

V. A. Explains GI Bill Payment

The Veterans Administration has requested that veterans attending school under the G. I. bill not become alarmed if they do not receive their subsistence checks at the close of the month.

Veterans who receive form 1907c-1 from the V.A. prior to Oct. 12, and who enrolled in school prior to Sept. 25, should receive their check for September within 30 days after receipt of form 1907c-1, and their October check on October 31.

If form 1907c-1 is received after Oct. 12, but before Oct. 31, the student should receive his subsistence checks for Sept. and Oct., in a combined check, on Oct. 31, or 15 days after the receipt of form 1907c, whichever is later.

Casey Stengel Credits Yanks With 'Hustle' In Stretch Drive For Seventeenth Championship Title

By Carl Lundquist
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. (UP)—Bos Casey Stengel says it is "hustle with capital letters" that makes the defending world champion Yankees click and watching them define the word it was easy to see today why they're about to win their 17th American League pennant in 29 seasons.

The way Stengel figures it is that New York has 10 more games to play—six in the remaining days of the regular season and four in the world series because "we play 'em all to win and don't even think about what the other fellow is doing."

And as the New Yorkers swept their 12th double header of the year yesterday, 8 to 3 and 7 to 4 from the Washington Senators there was that Stengel hustle all the way. They went three and one-half games ahead of idle Detroit and with only six more to go they could clinch the pennant by any combination of four viceries and Tiger defeats.

They could even clinch a pennant tie today. If they won another double header from Washington and if Detroit dropped a double header to the St. Louis Browns, the Tigers would be mathematically knocked out of the race.

Nashville Beats San Antonio In Dixie Tilt, 11-5

NASHVILLE, Tenn. Sept. 27 (UP)—The Nashville Vols jumped to the front in the 1950 Dixie series last night by defeating the San Antonio Missions, 11 to 5, in the first clash of the best of seven series.

The clubs meet here again tonight. The Vols, Southern Association champions, grabbed a six-run lead over the Texas League entry with a second-inning rally that drove Mission hurler Lou Slesater to the showers.

San Antonio retaliated with a five-run barrage in the fifth, but never again threatened the mounting Vol supremacy as relief hurler Pete Modica held the Padres to three hits in the last four innings.

Joe Domato, who punched home five runs to lead the Nashville attack, lashed out a home run in the seventh frame with one man on.

Yankee-Philadelphia World Series May Be Unpopular; Odds Favor NY

By Carl Lundquist
United Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Sept. 27 (UP)—Just when they wondered if they were going to be victims of "anti-clinch" legislation, the Phillies and Yankees had a chance today to win their pennants and start concentrating on a world series that could be anti-climactic and unpopular.

You've got to be an old timer to remember when the Phillies last won a flag, because it was 35 years ago back in 1915, and since every other major league team has had at least one since then, it is fitting that they are getting their turn again.

But for the Yankees this is where you came in a year ago and two years ago before that and altogether you've been coming in on these things 17 times now in the last 29 years.

They're the champs and nobody denies them the record they have built up proudly and in the highest principles of good sportsmanship.

This time, though, they may be just too good. The Phillies with their youth and hustle have captivated a nation of fans and now as they approach the big show with a crippled and dejected pitching staff and a team that just doesn't compare with the Yankees on paper, a Yankee triumph won't be a popular one.

The experts say the Yankees will be the most lopsided series choice since their predecessor team of 1939 smacked off the Cincinnati Reds four in a row, and if that happens again they'll be ready to revive that old cry of "break up the Yankees."

There is nothing but respect for the way they overtook and out-distanced the tattered Tigers and battered Bo-Sox in the stretch and yet it is generally conceded a series matching the Phillies with either of the other American League clubs would have been more stirring.

To be sure, neither club is "in" yet and both could still blow it. But the Phillies, with six to go, could take two from the Giants today and clinch it if Brooklyn broke even in its double header with the Braves. The Phillies need only three more victories to knock out Brooklyn mathematically.

The Yankees could clinch today by winning if both Boston and Detroit lose. They could clinch a tie today by winning, no matter what the other two do.

The Yankees had to go all out yesterday to split with the Senators, winning 10 to 7 after losing 11 to 9.

Detroit kept kicking their all-but-gone chances around by losing 3 to 1 to the Browns, even though they bounced back to win the second game, 5 to 3.

In the National League stretch run the Phillies made seven runs in the seventh and eighth innings to beat the Braves, 8 to 7 at Boston and knock them out of the race mathematically.

The Dodgers wound up their year's activity against the Giants, staying mathematically alive in the race with an 8 to 4 victory.

In the only other games, the Cleveland Indians beat the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 0, behind Early Wynn's six-hit hurling and Al Rosen's 37th homer, and the Cincinnati Reds beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 7 to 2, in a game held to seven innings by rain.

No! Girls, Bob Isn't Really Married

A picture of Bob Collier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Turner Collier, kissing a pretty girl in a bride's costume shown in Tuesday evening's Star Telegram, didn't mean that Bob was married.

As is the tradition in welcoming new students the wedding united the old and the new students. Bob is president of the TWC student body and represented the students. The bride, Miss Judith Lee Edwards representing new students on the campus, only promised to "Love, Honor and Abide by the Laws and Regulations of Texas Wesleyan College and to Live and work together until graduation doth them part."

There were attendants and candlebearers, and president Law Sone officiated, but as for the honeymoon—that's Book Learning.

Better Buy Buick!

You've probably heard a lot of talk about comfort in 1950 cars. But we'd like to offer one suggestion, which is—let a Buick speak for itself.

We'd like to have you settle yourself (your family too, if you have one) on a Buick's soft, deep, comfort-angled cushions, and see how restful they are.

More than this, we'd like you to sample that comfort in motion. Slip your fingers around that slender steering wheel, touch toe to treadle and take off in the smooth, unbroken surge of power that Dynaflo Drive* delivers.

We'd like to have you hunt out some of the less-smooth streets or back roads that never seem to get fixed—and put Buick's soft coil springing and solid underpinning to tough and practical test.

*Standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on Super and Special models.

All the while, be thinking about what such riding and driving ease can mean on long, all-day trips, and compare it with what you've been used to.

This whole experience is bound to make you want a Buick—and when you ask "how much" you'll get a second pleasant surprise in the low delivered prices your dealer is quoting—prices that start at a level that is actually lower than you'd pay for some sixes.

Your Buick dealer is the man to see and this is the best of all times to see him. Drop in, won't you, to see about getting an order signed?

Tune In HENRY J. TAYLOR, ABC Network, every Monday evening.
