Old Inflicts Severe Hardships In County; Most Schools Are Closed

Side Issues

HENRY G. VERMILLION

Reservists are being called at an increasingly rapid rate. Fred Bennett of Gordon got his summons for duty and he doesn't see why. At all those guys who are overflowing the Air Force at Lackland, he said. He has a new wife, which is a little tougher, too.

Coach Wednell Siebert is a reserve also, but could be easily called, since he wasn't a man-gunner, as I believe is no doubt at all that he has the best girls' basketball team in the county.

Isn't the physique of a basketball player, and does not appear to be gifted at basketball. For example, Forward Beard, but Betty makes up for her handicaps by a fierce determination that often lands her on the floor in various kinds of ways. She's a good player, and she just about anything she can do if she can carry that determination into other fields.

Afternoon, Charlie Luttrell, merchant, told the time he was on oil near Wink, and from the floor saw a man in a suit and spectators turn and hit the man with such force that he knocked him to the ground.

Who was knocked down took the hand of his assailant and put his arm around the man's shoulder in a friendly well was making a lot of investigation by one of the members of the drill team. He disclosed that the man who was knocked down was being struck a match to light a cigarette, not thinking of the danger, when the other man struck him at once to the match being struck.

Knocked down one, when he was struck, the man who had done so, as well he might have, could be known of the danger, and striking the match out of his hand and with no conviction.

I've been grown, I've already been snowed, but I was wanting some during the cold weather this week. I need that moisture.

Cotton Meeting To Be Held For County Farmers

With planting of peanuts restricted by quotas next season and the government urging all farmers to plant all the cotton they can, more cotton likely will be planted in Eastland County than in many a year, farmers have told County Agent J. M. Cooper. In most recent years, the maximum cotton planting in the county has been a few hundred acres. But less than a half-century ago, the county was one of Texas' leading cotton-producing areas, and as late as 1906 led the entire state in staple production. Then every hamlet supported a gin or two, and the rural population of the county soared as the need was always present in crop season for hands to work or pick the cotton.

Cooper said Thursday a meeting will be held Monday Feb. 19 at 2 p. m. in the Carbon High School gym on cotton. The meeting was called for Carbon because it is near the center of the county, Cooper said.

At the meeting, experts will tell farmers of the county the latest developments in planting, cultivating and harvesting cotton, the county agent said. He pointed out that many of the farmers who will grow cotton this year have not planted any for many years, and some never. Such men should welcome a chance to learn the latest developments in the field of cotton culture.

Speakers will include experts from the Texas & A. M. College Extension Service, and a pink boll worm expert. With modern methods of planting, fertilization, and harvesting, it is believed that a good crop of cotton can be harvested in much of Eastland County.

Those who watched the decline of the cotton empire in the county in the early years of the century say cotton was killed by two big factors, the decline of the productivity of the soil, which could not stand the continued strain of cotton culture as it then was practiced, and the boll weevil, which was particularly bad in this area. Boll weevil control now can be almost sure with proper dusting or spraying, it was pointed out, and much of the less sandy land of the county has been built back up with cover crops and proper farming practices.

LEON HALE TO SPEAK ON NBC NETWORK SUNDAY

Leon Hale, former Eastland resident and brother of Mrs. Andy Taylor, will speak over the National Broadcasting Company's National Farm and Home Hour program at 12:30 p. m. Saturday. Hale is farm and ranch editor of the Houston Post.

New Pastor Of Eastland Church Once Worked In Circus, But Wanted To Preach

Rev. Otto Marshall, new pastor of the Eastland First Christian Church, started life, as he put it, "A foreigner who couldn't speak a word of English." With a twinkle in his eye, he explained that he was born in the Oklahoma Territory in 1907, two years before Oklahoma became a state.

One of a family of eight children, Mr. Marshall has had an interesting life. His family is one that is musically inclined, and his grandfather and father at one time ran a concession called the "Ocean Waves" in a circus, and had other shows. The Ocean Waves was a ride similar to our modern merry-go-round. At one time or another, nearly every member of the family played in a band. Among other instruments, Mr. Marshall plays a clarinet, an instrument his father also excelled in. He was a member of the Oklahoma National Guard for nine years, and played with the 15th Field Artillery Band at Fort Sill, Okla., in 1928, and also played with the 189nd Field Artillery band at Enid, Okla. He attended high school in Oklahoma, and attended Phillips

Pritchard Reports $100,000 To Go For County Rural Roads

Resident Texas Highway Engineer E. M. Pritchard Tuesday told members of the Eastland Lions Club that about $100,000 is to be spent during the next two years on the farm to market road program in Eastland County. One section of the work will be the completion of the three-mile unpaved gap in the Carbon-Rising Star road, Pritchard said, and the other will be a five-mile stretch of farm to market road northeast from Desdemona.

Pritchard said of the proposed four-lane highway to Ranger that there is nothing definite on it yet, except that the four-lane section is to start at about the Point Service Station east of Eastland, and that the new route will swing south of Olden.

Work on the new Cisco highway is progressing faster than the schedule calls for, Pritchard said. The highway engineer also outlined the structure and workings of the Texas Highway Department.

C Of C Petroleum Committee Named

Petroleum Committee members were named here this week by John Osborne, president of the Eastland Chamber of Commerce, to work in cooperation with oil men of the Eastland area. Serving on the petroleum committee are H. L. King, Jesse McKee, W. B. Pickens, Frank Day, L. E. McGraw, and Guy Parker. The committee was formed to foster better understanding and relations between the citizens of the community and the oil men.

March Of Dimes Drive Is Extended Because Of Cold

Eastland County's March of Dimes drive will be extended to Feb. 15 because of the severe cold weather, County Chairman Stanley Webb said Thursday. A telegram received Thursday morning from state headquarters suggested such a move.

Webb said also that Glen Boyd, local chairman of the drive for Eastland, had moved to Austin, and since word to that effect was received only Thursday, no new chairman had been named yet.

Boyd, an insurance agent, moved with his wife to take a position there, Webb reported. Webb said a new chairman to finish out the drive nearly to a standstill, however.

So far, no report of receipts of the county drive had been made, but Boyd reported last week that the total for Eastland at that time was about $400. Sub-freezing weather this week had slowed the drive nearly to a standstill, however.

Webb commented that no special event would be staged to raise the funds, and that the drive is being based on the voluntary cooperation of the citizens.

County quota this year is about $6500, with Eastland's share set at about $2000.

Rotary Club To See Power Plant Monday

Members of the Eastland Rotary Club Monday will make a brief tour of the Leon Plant of the Texas Electric Service Company, it was announced at the meeting Monday. The tour will be made during the club's noon luncheon hour. At the meeting Monday, the club was treated to a film on the life and career of Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Poll Tax Payments Estimated At 2700, Lowest In Years

Eastland County Tax Assessor-Collector Stanley Webb was busy counting poll taxes Thursday, but took time off to estimate that possibly 2700 poll taxes were paid in the county, about 3000 less than the 1950 total of 5905. The official number of receipts issued will be available later, he said.

Even compared to 1949, also not a general election year, poll tax receipts showed a considerable drop. In that year, 4153 receipts were issued, while in 1948, a general election year, a record number of 6886 poll taxes were paid.

Inclement weather might have slowed down the line of potential voters. The blue norther which spread over Texas this week, virtually made stay-at-homes of anyone who did not have to get out in the cold. This fact was believed to have "frozen out" the last minute rush which generally accompanies the nearing of the deadline.

Whatever the reason, a small number of potential voters will be on hand to vote on school board and city commission elections this year.

Sergeant Brannon, Who Made Himself At Home In Eastland, Ordered Away

Sgt. Charles Brannon, who has been Army and Air Force recruiter and a fixture in the life of Eastland for two years, has been transferred to duty at Great Falls, Mont., and will report there Feb. 9, he said this week.

Sergeant Brannon has taken an active part in the life of the community. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, active in the First Baptist Church, where he taught a Sunday School class a year, has been sponsor of another class and of the Royal Ambassadors; has been Cub Scoutmaster of Cub Pack No. 1 here, a member of the Eastland Volunteer Fire Department, and an active sports official. It was to a great degree his interest in sports that gave him the contacts that enabled his one-county district, smallest in the Abilene Recruiting Office district, to lead all other stations consistently in recruiting totals during his two years in Eastland. He sent 96 recruits to Abilene

LOW OF 4 DEGREES REGISTERED; SLOW WARM-UP BEING PREDICTED

Only some fruit growers and school children apparently were happy Thursday about Eastland County's cold weather that was damaging to livestock, hurting business, doing most crop prospects no good, since it was accompanied by little moisture, and had closed most of the schools in the county.

An official low of four degrees above zero Thursday was the coldest yet of a streak of weather that had held the temperature below 20 degrees since Sunday, and below freezing since the first norther took effect Saturday evening.

Even lower temperatures were forecast for Friday before a slow warm-up is due to begin that has held hope of generally thawing weather by Sunday.

Eastland Cagers To Meet Cisco In Last District Tilt

Eastland High School's Maverick basketball team, after a stirring 31-29 victory over Ranger in district play Tuesday night, will go to Cisco Friday night to wind up their round of district games.

Eastland girls will play at Cisco also, the game to begin at 6:30 p. m. It was hoped to have the boys' game begin by 7:30, said Eastland Coach Ed Hooker.

Hooker said that weather permitting, the Eastland teams will play Baird in Eastland Tuesday night. The district tournament is to be played in Cisco Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.

Winner of the district meet is to play the winner of the round robin play, if they are different teams, for the right to go on into regional play.

Eastland's victory over Ranger Tuesday night marked the end of a sad era in Eastland basketball history, because it was the first such district win for the local roundballers in a long while.

The Eastland lads led almost all the way until the final minutes, when the Mavericks faded, and Ranger pulled into a four-point lead. It looked like curtains for the Mavericks, who had missed a chance to build up a commanding lead early in the game when Ranger's defenses faltered.

But Rodney Stephen pumped in a long shot for Eastland, and James Freeman connected with a crisp. That left it for Eddie Haines, the elongated Eastland center who was off his usual shooting form, to win it with a push-up, and when he did, the Eastland crowd went wild.

Eastland and Ranger students at the game were separated by the length of the gym by school authorities, who wanted no recurrence of earlier troubles.

In the girls' game, Eastland led most of the game, but lost several of its best players by foul shots, and lost 31 to 26. It was the third loss by the Eastland girls to Ranger this year, while the Eastland boys took two out of three.

Pearson Grimes, Eastland tractor and implement dealer, this week was in Harris Memorial Hospital in Fort Worth for treatment for a painful back condition.

No Hospital, No Doctors, Says Caton

It is looking more and more as if Eastland is going to have to have a hospital before it will be able to get any young doctor or doctors to settle here, Dr. J. H. Caton said Thursday.

Dr. Caton said that in reply to a letter he had written to numerous young doctors about coming to Eastland to practice, "None would or could come before July 1, and that is not definite. It depends on whether or not we get a hospital." Dr. J. E. White, who has been associated with Dr. Caton for several months and has announced that he would join the staff of the Ranger Clinic in Ranger Feb. 1, was at the office in Eastland again Thursday with "an office full" of patients. Dr. White and his wife had moved their things to Ranger earlier in the week, but still were sleeping in Eastland.

Meanwhile, Earl Bender, chairman of a committee to investigate costs of a proposed hospital for Eastland, said all the figures were not in yet, and that now it appeared likely that it will be next week before the committee will be ready to report.

Visiting this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. LeRoy Arnold are Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Tweed from Fentwater, Mich. Mr. Tweed is the brother of Mrs. Arnold.

Bush Rites Held Here Monday

Funeral services for Monroe M. Bush, 77, resident of Eastland for five years who died Sunday morning at 407 S. Connell St., were held Monday morning in the First Baptist Church with Rev. J. E. White officiating. Burial was in the Eastland Cemetery. Mr. Bush, born in Cecil, Ark., came to Eastland from Abilene five years ago. He had been a member of the church since he survived by his wife, two daughters, Mrs. J. Bush of Kermit and Mrs. J. D. Hanks of Odessa, and three granddaughters, Mrs. J. D. Hanks of Odessa, Mrs. J. D. Hanks of San Antonio, and Mrs. J. D. Hanks of Temple.

The boys and girls basketball teams overpowered the Scranton

January 23, the girls winning by a one point margin and the boys, by about a twenty point lead.

The teams came out third place winners in the Gorman Tournament. The girls lost to Desdemgave them the Girl's Consolation trophy. The boys lost to Ranger and won over Rising Star; winning themselves the boys consolation trophy.

Both basketball teams also won over Carbon, Friday night, in district games at Carbon.

They are to meet the Desdem-

RJC Head Asks For U. S. Training In Smaller Colleges

Recently, in answer to letters written by Dr. G. C. Boswell, president of Ranger Junior College, Dr. Boswell received letters bearing on the national emergency from Texas Senators Tom Connally and Lyndon Johnson, and Dr. Boswell had proposed to the legislators the possibility of a military training program of some kind that would fit into the schedules of the smaller colleges of the country, such as Ranger Junior College, which face the loss of most of their male students as manpower is pulled into the armed forces.

Here are the answers of the legislators:
Dr. G. C. Boswell, President
Ranger Junior College
Ranger, Texas

Dear Dr. Boswell:
This refers to your concern at the proposal to draft young men 18 years of age.

Legislation has been introduced in both Houses of the Congress and referred to the respective Armed Services Committees, proposing a revision of the draft law, including the lowering of the draft age to 18. Both Committees have scheduled hearings on this legislation.

I am not a member of the Armed Services Committee and consequently will not have the opportunity to participate in these hearings. Nevertheless, I shall endeavor to follow their progress and you may be assured that when the matter finally comes to the Senate for action, I shall go into it thoroughly, keeping in mind the views and recommendations you made.

It is always helpful to me to have the benefit of the views of citizens on public issues pending here and I think you for giving me yours.

Sincerely,
Tom Connally

Dr. G. C. Boswell, President
Ranger Junior College
Ranger, Texas

Dear Dr. Boswell:
Think you very much for your recent letter, your very welcome words of encouragement, and the patriotic interest you demonstrate in the problems confronting us in the best utilization of our manpower.
As you so aptly put it, we are up against quite a "proposition" in working out plans for the best utilization of our manpower, but I want to assure you that, in my opinion, we do not underestimate the importance of keeping a supply of young men flowing into the educational institutions of the country. I feel confident that provisions will be made for the continued education of a certain part of our young men, so that we will not unduly handicap the men who will become our future leaders.

Again, I appreciate the willingness of you and your college to help at this time, and your advice is very helpful to me.

Sincerely,
Lyndon B. Johnson, Chairman
Preparedness Subcommittee

Dr. G. C. Boswell, President

Ranger Junior College
Ranger, Texas

Dear Dr. Boswell:

With further reference to the possibility of some training program fitting into Ranger Junior College, the United States Commissioner of Education, Mr. Earl Mc-Grath, has advised me that the Federal Security Agency is sending instructions to colleges and universities with an outline for a report of available facilities.

In case you have not received this information, let me know, and I shall see that it is furnished you.
Assuring you of my fullest cooperation in these matters which may become of interest, and with kindest regards, I remain, Sincerely yours,
Omar Burleson

WHO'S Crippled? SUCCESS STORY OF THE MONTH

Although he is only 22 years old, Paul Mitchell of Dallas, Tex., born with cerebral palsy, has successfully overcome his handicap, and is today entirely self-supporting and on his way towards a promising business career.

Paul Mitchell

In recognition of his indomitable courage and outstanding achievement, the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults and its state affiliate, the Texas Society for Crippled Children, recently awarded Paul the "Who's Crippled?" citation. Gov. Allen Shivers of Texas presented the citation at ceremonies held at the Adolphus Hotel in Dallas.

This monthly award is conferred by the National Society, the Easter Seal Agency, through its state affiliates to courageous persons like Paul Mitchell who, in a determination to live a happy, useful life, outwit a severe physical handicap.

With the encouragement and help of his devoted mother, Mrs. John P.
Mitchell, who started her son on a rigid schedule of treatment and training at an early age, Paul was learning to walk at eleven years of age, although he could not stand alone at seven. Mrs. Mitchell bought books and taught Paul at home during his grammar school years.

On his ninth birthday, Paul's parents gave him a typewriter.
Since he couldn't hold a pencil, they hoped his writing problems would now be solved. But when he tried to type, they discovered he lacked the strength in his fingers to press down the keys. Mrs. Mitchell worked with him day after day, guiding his fingers again and again over the typewriter keyboard until finally he could make a dim impression on paper. After more practice, he mastered the typewriter, using one finger on each hand, and began publishing a neighborhood newspaper which he distributed from door to door.

When Paul became of high school age, he took a board of education test and Dallas school authorities were amazed at his ability to learn.
They suggested that he enter North Dallas High School, but since he still couldn't use a pencil, he continued the home training with his mother as teacher and his typewriter substituting for a pencil.

When he was only 12, Paul opened a magazine subscription agency, and before long he built up a profitable business. Today he has 3,500 annual subscriptions.

Since people didn't seem to read as much in the summer as in winter, Paul decided to supplement his magazine business with an ice cream route. Early in his business career, he bought a motor scooter for $500 and paid for it out of his $5.00 a day profits. His business increased to such an extent that he purchased a Jeep station wagon and a freezing unit large enough to keep a day's supply of ice cream at home. He recently purchased a 1950 automobile from his earnings and now travels throughout Dallas.

During the 1947 Easter Seal campaign, Paul heard about the Sheltered Workshop sponsored by the Texas Society for Crippled Children. Feeling that occupational therapy could improve his muscle coordination and perhaps teach him a craft that could be useful in earning a living, he enrolled and remained for a year.

Paul's association with other handicapped persons facing problems similar to his own renewed his courage and will to live a happy, useful life. His story inspired the 30 members of the workshop for it has given them the determination that they, too, can become self-supporting and take their rightful place in society.

Nothing Better Than Good Food, Says Ohio Man

If a man isn't able to eat the foods he likes he's in mighty sorry shape - imagine going through life without being able to enjoy a fine big platter of bacon and eggs. That is the way

Joseph N. Damillot, 3414 E. 5th Street, Dayton, Ohio, used to be, but since he has been taking HADACOL, he says he feels just fine and is able to enjoy lots and lots of fine foods. Mr. Damillot found that taking HADACOL helped his system overcome a deficiency of Vitamins B1, B2, Niacin and Iron.

Here is Mr. Damillot's statement: "My first bottle of HADACOL convinced me that HADACOL was what I needed for the gas on my stomach at nights. I could not keep food on my stomach, but after the first bottle I was going great. Now I eat bacon and eggs, and other foods that never would stay with me. I also can sleep well at nights. Thanks to HADACOL I will never be without it, and can recommend it to all who suffer with the above ailments that I had. I know because I have suffered for quite some time."

$5000 And Medal To Go To Worker In Agriculture Field

Renner, Texas, February 3 (Special)—Organization of committees is being perfected throughout the state by the Texas Research Foundation, which will result in the award next spring of a $5,000 cash prize and gold medal to some Texan who has distinguished himself in the agricultural field.

The presentation will consist of the Hoblitzelle Achievement Award for the advancement of Texas Rural Life, which will go to the citizen of Texas who has done the most to improve rural life during the past two years.

A state-wide Committee and five Regional Committees are being set up to begin, in the near future, the intensive canvass of agricultural achievements of this type throughout every county and community of Texas, Dr. C. L. Lundell, Director of the Texas Research Foundation at Renner, near Dallas, announced Saturday.

Terms of the Award specify that the contribution considered for this award and medal must be in fields other than scientific, and they must have been achieved during the two-year period from January 1, 1949, to December 31, 1950.

The award will be made each two years, commencing with the public announcement of the first winner, through the Karl Hoblitzelle Agricultural Laboratory of the Texas Research Foundation, at the annual Open House at Renner in May.

Purpose of the Award as stated by Karl Hoblitzelle, its creator, a leading businessman, capitalist and philanthropist of Dallas, is to recognize personal accomplishments in the field of rural life improvement, in all parts of Texas.

Utilizing the Staff and facilities of the Texas Research Foundation, the Advisory Committee will select the leading candidates, for recommendation to the Awards Committee of the Hoblitzelle Foundation, which will name the winner.

Trustees of the Hoblitzelle Foundation will appoint the Awards Committee from a list of recognized agricultural leaders and laymen. In like manner, the Regional Committee will be headed by men outstanding in the field of agriculture, with their memberships drawn from representatives of institutions, organizations, and agricultural enterprises.

The Achievement Award is one of three, all carrying a cash sum of $5,000 and gold medals to the winners, created by Mr. Hoblitzelle.

The Hoblitzelle National Award in Agricultural Sciences will go to the person making the greatest scientific agricultural contribution in the U. S. during the past two years.

The fields listed as eligible, are: Farm men and women, ranch men and women, tree farmers, livestock breeders and other specialty groups; Soil Conservation Service field men; county agricultural agents; home demonstration agents; vocational agriculture teachers; home economics teachers; farm organization workers such as the Farm Bureau or Farm Grange; agricultural field representatives of industrial or commercial firms, including banks, railroads, etc.; farm publication editors or agricultural writers; field men at experiment stations not assigned to formal research; radio farm directors; chamber of commerce agricultural workers; forestry workers; farm service organization representatives, and others.

Nominations are not confined to geographical limits, but may be received by each Regional Committee from its own or farm Regions. After screening all nominations, these committees will each forward to the Texas Research Foundation the five most meritorious nominations, listed in order of merit and with supporting evidence, on a date not later than next March 1.

These 25 regional nominations will be referred by the Foundation to the State-Wide Committee, which will choose the best five and submit them to the Texas Research Foundation's Advisory Committee on Hoblitzelle Awards, at Renner, by April 1.

Two years. This announcement and presentation will also be made at the forthcoming Renner Open House in May.

The Hoblitzelle State Award in Agricultural Sciences, which rewards the most outstanding scientific agricultural contribution made by a Texan within Texas during the preceding two years, will be effective first in 1952.
