Tanner was saying Thursday that Eastland ought to have the rainiest month is May, and who will inspect Eastland places on that day, and that he couldn't have because it was going raining.

Protests Asked By Farm Bureau Group On Rural Road Bill

A. Z. Myrick, president of the Eastland County Farm Bureau, this week called on members of the local organization to contact Representatives L. R. Pearson or T. M. Collie in Austin and register their views on action of the state legislature in referring the Graham Bill, H. B. 226, From the Committee on Highways and Roads to the State Affairs Committee.

Last week, Myrick said, Farm Bureau representatives and County Judges and Commissioners from all over Texas appeared in Austin before the Committee on Highways and Roads in opposition to the Graham Bill, which would take thousands of dollars out of the counties, heretofore used for rural road building purposes. The bill was killed in Committee by a vote of 15 to 3, Myrick said. Unknown to the opponents of the bill, a member of the legislature appeared before the committee in opposition to H. B. 226 and attacked Mr. Graham's integrity and made caustic remarks against his character.

In retaliation for the attack by one member of the House against another the House as a whole the following morning suspended all rules and reported Graham's Bill out of the Highways and Roads Committee to the State Affairs Committee of which Graham is chairman. This means that another hearing will be necessary Myrick said, unless the House re-commits the bill back to the Highways and Roads Committee, which may be done by a simple majority vote.

The Graham Bill was considered on its merits and reported out of the Highways and Roads Committee unfavorably Myrick declared. Now in retaliation against one member of the House for attacking another, The House takes action which could not in any way be considered as punishment to the guilty party, but would result only in penalizing all of the people in Texas who are interested in a rural road program. The Bill as reported by the Committee should not be altered because of personal remarks between members of the legislature, Myrick said, and he is requesting that all members of the Eastland County Farm Bureau contact their representative requesting that he use his vote and influence to have H. B. 226 referred back to the Committee on Highways and Roads.

School Board Voting To Be Held April 7

In an Eastland Independent School Board election Saturday, April 7, two places will be filled, School Board Secretary J. Ross Rucker said Thursday.

The places are those held now by R. N. Wilson, president of the board, and I. C. Inzer. Rucker said anyone may file now with him for a place on the ballot, and that the filing deadline will be two weeks before the election.

So far, no one has filed, he said.

Fire Hazard Check Scheduled May 3

A thorough fire hazard inspection of all Eastland business places and public buildings will be made on Thursday, May 3, it was decided at a meeting Wednesday in the Eastland Chamber of Commerce.

The inspection will be made by about 30 members of the North Texas Field Club, an insurance men's organization in Dallas.

Helping them will be Eastland Boy Scouts and members of the Eastland Volunteer Fire Department.

Details brought out at the meeting Wednesday included the fact that the inspection will be entirely voluntary and the entire program is for educational purposes only. A tag will be left up at each building inspected listing fire hazards found, if any, and later a local group is expected to check up to see if the hazards have been corrected.

But everyone concerned pointed out that there is nothing official about the program, and its whole purpose is to lessen the danger of fire in Eastland.

To that end, the program is being sponsored by the fire prevention committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The field club's 15 teams of two men each will inspect only business houses and public places such as schools and churches, but each home owner in Eastland will receive literature through which he can check his own property, it was reported.

Attending the meeting as representatives of the field club were Julian Speed and Frank Long of Dallas.

Headquarters for the program the day of the drive will be the meeting room of the Texas Electric Service Company, and a report meeting will be held there in the late afternoon.

E. E. Freyschlag is chairman of the local fire prevention committee.

Golf Tournament Here To Be Held May 11, 12 And 13

Eastland's Lakeside Country Club will stage its first invitational golf tournament May 11-12-13, and a large number of amateur golfers are expected to take part, Manager Jimmy Harkrider said Thursday.

Harkrider said that golfers from as far away as Fort Sill, Okla, had expressed a desire to play in the event.

The tournament here will be staged the week before the big annual Abilene invitational.

Sunday at the club there will be a Scotch foursome event for club players, with a man and woman team making up each half of the foursome, and playing the same ball, the woman first stroking it and then the man.

Friday afternoon, the Eastland High School golf team composed of Jimmy Harris, Charles Collins, Herman Hassell, Jim Ed Willman, Topper Conner and Bobby Isbell is to meet the Breckenridge High team in Breckenridge.

In the Eastland-Ranger-Cisco round robin golf tournament now being played out, Ranger will go to Cisco Sunday, and Eastland is to go to Cisco the following Sunday.

Mrs. Hubert Westfall has been named president of a Ladies' Auxiliary at the club, and a ladies' ladder has been started to establish handicaps.

Mrs. Veon Howard is vice-president of the auxiliary.

Harkrider said he expects to have from 35 to 50 women playing regularly at the club this summer.

County To Shift Status On Solons

Eastland County would lose its present favored representative setup under a bill passed this week by the House in Austin.

Under the bill, which is expected to go on to final passage, Eastland County would be grouped in a district with Callahan and Shackelford Counties to elect one representative.

Under the present grouping, the county elects one representative by itself, who at present is T. M. Collie, and elects another with Callahan County, who is L. R. Pearson.

The altered setup will reflect population shifts since 1920 when present districts were set up.

Eastland County's state senate district setup likewise will be altered drastically under a bill that passed the Senate.

The county now is the easternmost in its district, that run generally east and west past Colorado City.

In the new district, Eastland would be the southernmost of a group of counties including Callahan, Stephens, Palo Pinto, Parker, Montague, Jack, Wise and Denton Counties.

The new district would extend as far north as the Oklahoma line, and East to a point north of Dallas.

Meetings On Peas Set For This Week

Meetings on the growing of blackeye, purple hull, cream or stock peas will be held over the county beginning Friday, County Agent J. M. Cooper said this week.

The meetings will be held to discuss seed, planting dates, varieties, inoculation and other topics concerning this new cash crop for this area. A representative of L. R. Barron, Athens, pea buyer, will be on hand for the meetings.

Meetings will be held at Rising Star in the Vocational Agriculture room at 7:30 p. m. Friday, Feb. 23; at the King Theatre in Gorman Saturday at 10 a. m.; at Carbon High School Saturday at 2 p. m.

McKee Suffers Stroke While In Hospital

Jesse McKee, Eastland oil man who is in Ranger General Hospital following a heart attack, suffered a stroke late Tuesday in the hospital and is partially paralyzed as a result.

His condition was reported as fair Thursday.

Doctors Say They Must Have Hospital Or Won't Come Here

No. 2 Holcomb Gets Perforations For Third Time

Whether the A. B. Bradley and others No. 2 Holcomb just east of Eastland will ever make a commercial oil well was worrying Bradley Thursday after the well had "frozen up" following a Hydrac treatment, and had to be perforated for a third time.

This time the casing was jet gun perforated, "with the biggest jet gun they had," Bradley said.

Then swabbing was started, and some free oil was showing.

After the second perforating job the well had showed for a lot of gas and some oil, but the Hydrac apparently shut off the gas and brought no oil, Bradley said.

Just south of the Bradley well, Neil Moore of Eastland spudded in his No. 1 Downtain, across Highway 80. Moore was seeking Lake Sand pay, it was reported, the same pay that Bradley found production in in his No. 1 Holcomb and was trying for in his No. 2.

To the west, in the Bankline-Owens field, Kupp & Dickson completed their No. 2 Otto Chance for 67 barrels a day, natural flow, and had their No. 3 Chance drilled seven feet into the pay sand, and were preparing to test.

On the Bloomquist No. 1 S. G. Hart, perforations had been made and tubing was being run in preparation for a test Friday.

Pipe was being run on the Hickory No. 1 Taylor, a north offset to the No. 2 Chance.

Store Merchandise Damaged By Water

Water from an upstairs plumbing facility which hung up and ran all night caused extensive damage Tuesday night to merchandise in Martin's Department Store in Eastland.

The water damage was confined largely to an area in the center of the store, operators said.

The store was closed Wednesday and Thursday.

March Of Dimes Is Falling Short

The March of Dimes drive officially ended in Eastland County this week, and although the official reports were not all in as yet, County Chairman Stanley Webb estimated Thursday that the county would be about $1000 short of its goal of $6500.

The Eastland Lions club reported collections of $190.01 from the house-to-house campaign Tuesday night. So far, Eastland collections have only totaled $500, although there are still some more collections to come in. The share for Eastland was around $2000.

Cisco took high honors in the drive, reporting collections of $1,112 toward the polio fund. Carbon reports unofficially about $127 collected, and Desdemona came through with $90. No report has been received as yet from Ranger.

Official reports will soon be in, Webb states, and the official total will be announced at that time.

Interns To Visit City To Look Over Potential Practice

"Eastland is our choice, WITH a hospital."

Thus wrote two young doctors, now interning at the Jefferson Davis Hospital in Houston, about coming to Eastland to practice.

The two, Dr. Walter H. Patton of Dallas and Dr. Mangold of Meridian, will be in Eastland Sunday and Monday to talk to local business and professional men, and to members of the hospital committee of the Civic League and Garden Club, said Dr. J. H. Caton.

It was Dr. Caton who interested the young men in locating in Eastland, and who has offered them a place in his clinic if they come.

Mrs. John Turner, chairman of the hospital committee, said it seemed unlikely to her that the doctors could be told anything the general public of Eastland has not already been told through news stories.

Dr. Caton said Thursday that he would much rather have a hospital built on another site, and keep his clinic, than to sell his clinic to be used as a unit of the hospital, as has been proposed.

He said he will sell the clinic, however, if he must to get the hospital.

He also disclosed that he had been approached on selling the clinic equipment to be moved out of town.

Dr. Caton, who has been practicing medicine 50 years has not been in perfect health.

Mrs. Turner said that plans for a hospital here being drawn up by Ted Howard at Texas A. & M. College should be here in a week or so.

Father-Son Banquet To Be Held March 6

Annual Father and Son Banquet of the 9:49 Bible Class will be held at 7 p. m. Tuesday, March 6 in the First Methodist Church basement, with Rev. P. W. Walker, pastor of the church from 1936 to 1940, as the speaker.

He will speak on "Hounds and Men," a subject with which he is thoroughly familiar, since he is the author of a book by the same title.

The annual banquet was begun some years ago at the suggestion of Chief Justice J. E. Hickman of the Texas Supreme Court, who then was teacher of the class and chief justice of the Eleventh Court of Civil Appeals in Eastland.

The class name was suggested by the late N. N. Rosenquest, an Eastland attorney.

W. E. Cooper is chairman of ticket sales for the banquet. The tickets, at $1.25 each, are on sale at all Eastland drug stores.

A musical program and other interesting features are being arranged for the banquet, sponsors said.

The food will be prepared by members of the Martha Dorcas Bible Class of the church.

Gravelling Eastland Streets Progressing

The program of gravelling the un-paved streets of Eastland is going forward at a somewhat faster pace since the recent rain, sleet and snow softened the ground, City Manager H. C. Heck said this week.

However, the repair crews are running out of gravel at the site south of town, where they have been getting it, and likely will have to go a farther distance north of the city in the future, Heck said.

He expressed doubt that the old city trucks that have been doing the hauling job could be used on the longer haul in hillier country, and said the city might have to hire a truck for the job.

Miss June McKee is ill at her home this week with the flu.

Costumes Are Gay As Civic League's Mid-Winter Carnival Huge Success

The annual costume ball and Mid-Winter Festival of the Civic League and Garden Club held last Friday night at the American Legion Hall proved to be both a financial and social success.

Theme of the party this year was "I-Wish-I-Were" and many of the guests came costumed in that vein. Prizes for the best costumes of Valentine candy went to Mrs. Neil Day and Red Graham.

The hit of the evening was the shooting, feuding and fighting entrance of the Hatfields and the McCoy's from Virginia, who arrived amid gunfire to separate the young McCoy daughter (Mrs. Red Graham) who had run off to the dance with the young Hatfield son (Red Graham). Grandpa McCoy (Joe Stephen) in red undershirt and bare feet, Grandma McCoy (Mrs. Joe Stephen) with cane and shawl, Pa McCoy (Charles Moore) in dirty undershirt, patched pants and a fourfoot rifle, and Ma McCoy (Mrs. Charles Moore) in bonnet and apron complete with infant child, arrived to snatch their daughter away. Beulah McCoy wore a short plaid skirt with underpants showing, black cotton stockings and a long red wig.

Likewise the two Hatfield couples, arrived to snatch their son and younger brother from the clutches of the McCoy girl. Neil Day was attired in undershirt and long black beard, and Mrs. Day wore bright green stockings, her hair in a pile atop her head, and had most of her teeth blacked out. Bill Collings arrived in overalls and peaked hat, and Mrs. Collings wore a mother-hubbard and a tiny feathered hat atop her piled hair. The Hatfields finally cornered Grandpa McCoy in the one-hole job is he read the Sears-Roebuck catalogue and shot him down.

A melodrama entitled "There's a Burr in Grandpa's Stocking" or "Virtue Is Its Own Reward" directed by Mrs. Theo Lamb and Mrs. Earl Conner, Jr., convulsed the audience, who responded with cat-calls for the villain (H. B. McCoy) and applause for the hero (Wendell Siebert) and the heroine (Mrs. Ed Witttrup). Larry McGraw was the heroine's father, while Bill Stanley served as narrator for the play. The heroine's yellow rope wig and the villain's black cape lined with scarlet were

Robertson To Speak At C Of C Banquet

French Robertson of Abilene, president of the West Central Texas Oil & Gas Association and member of the Texas State Prison Board, will be principal speaker at the annual Eastland Chamber of Commerce banquet March 8, H. J. Tanner, manager, said Thursday.

Theme of the banquet will be "The Oil Man," and special invitations will go out to oil operators of the area to attend, Tanner said. He said also that a meeting of the banquet committee of the Chamber of Commerce will be held within a few days to complete final arrangements for the banquet, which is to be held in the roof garden of the Connelley Hotel.

Cold Weather Flu Go Hand In Hand

AUSTIN—Cold weather and influenza go hand in hand, so the proverbial "ounce of prevention" is especially timely. Influenza has many of the signs and symptoms of a common cold, and may develop from a cold. The popular nickname for the disease is "flu," according to Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer.

The common symptoms of "flu" are well known. Fewer at the onset, cough, and pains in the head, back and limbs have been experienced by many. This disease, which spreads rapidly, has a cripling effect on the community.
Much time is lost from school and work; therefore, its control is of economic and social as well as medical importance.

Since permanent immunity is not developed as the result of an attack of the disease, these basic epidemics continue to appear.
Everyone is susceptible. The fact that this disease is highly contagious makes isolation and personal cleanliness of utmost importance in its prevention and control.

These suggestions should help:
Keep up bodily resistance by eating well balanced meals and getting regular and adequate sleep; practice cleanliness; avoid using caps, glasses, dishes, or towels that have been used by anyone else, including family members.

A physician should be called when "flu" symptoms appear. The sick persons should be isolated from others with the exception of the person acting as nurse. The "flu" victim should go to bed and stay there until his physician says he can return to usual activity.

Prevent influenza if you can,
but if you do get it, take care of yourself and protect others from your germ.

Texas Polio Drive Success, Chairman Says

AUSTIN—Benefits even beyond the money raised to fight polio were gained from the 1951 March of Dimes, according to National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis officials.

They pointed out that the hard facts of the polio problem have been driven home to most of the state's 8,000,000 citizens.

"We don't know yet whether we reached our $2,500,000 goal," said Ed S. Stewart of Abilene, state March of Dimes chairman.

"We do know that the day-by-day problems in combating polio have been carried to the most remote areas."
While campaign results in Texas are incomplete, Stewart said "A sizeable amount of money has been raised." "We had hoped to wipe out the deficit from the three record polio years," he went on. "Furthermore, we need to establish a surplus for future emergencies. Above all, we have got to tend in our share for research, something which we have not been able to do."

Stewart said the campaign was hurt by unprecedented drought and by recurring bad weather. He praised the "uphill fight" made by the regular Chapter staffs and the countless volunteer workers.

Meanwhile, the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, through Basil O'Connor of New York City, president, reported "an increased spirit of cooperation throughout the land" and added:
"The third successive year of high polio incidence in the United States has made everyone aware of the need for redoubled efforts."

Some Texas communities over-subscribed quotas. In others, some with deficits from high polio incidence, the struggle for funds was not over.

Chairman Stewart expressed hope that the aroused citizenry would not limit its polio support to campaign dimes but would follow through with its dollars "especially since the welfare of its own folks might be at stake."

"HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE"

Show Interest in Others

DURING THE WINTER of 1937-38, Donald A. Dahlberg, Nebraska, was working as a room clerk at the St. Regis Hotel, Miami Beach, Florida.

This could have been a monotonous job, even a boring one to some people, but not to Donald Dahlberg. He believed that whether a job was interesting was entirely the responsibility of the one who held it down. So he became interested in the guests of the hotel. What a lot of nice people there were in the world! And how many of them came right there to his hotel.

When they came to the desk to inquire for their mail or to get their room keys, he often exchanged conversation with them. Frequently he was able to give bits of information that were very welcome to those guests. If the guest displayed a desire to converse, he let him do the talking. And he got a lot of information he welcomed.

They had a good season that winter; made a lot of money. But since everything comes to an end, so did the good season.

Now Don must look around for another post. He had some attempts at getting located but so far nothing had materialized. He wasn't worried — exactly — but he did want settled in his mind.

Then just two days before the season ended, the owner, Fred Abel, called him into his office. "Don," he began, are your plans for the spring and summer season?
made a connection with a northern hotel?"

When Don told him that nothing had turned up Abel continued, "I've just had a call from a Mrs. W. H.
Pirates Cove, Florida. She was a guest here earlier in the winter. Remember her?"

Don said he did recall her. "She liked your service," said Mr. Abel, "and she noticed that you genuine interest in all the guests, and that you overdo it. She'd like to have you down at Pirates to manage her fishing camp."

Well, Don lost no time in making contact with Mrs. W. H. and he says that he never spent a more delightful winter. He not only got in a lot of fishing but he met interesting people, among them Gene Tunney, Ernest way and the painter Lynn Boge Hunt.

He continues to show genuine interest in others and he wouldn't?

OLDEN HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By PAULINE COLTHARP

We were all greatly disappointed over the high school boys basketball team losing to Desdemona. However, we are very proud of the boys for going all the way to the district play-off. It seems no matter what material the boys start with, they always come out on top. The credit for this goes to the boys and their coach, Mr. Weaver.

The high school girls basketball team play Lingleville at Gorman in the District tournament, Wednesday night, February 21.

The juniors and seniors gave their much delayed chapel program Monday afternoon. Numbers on the program were as follows: The Turner Family—a hill-billy play by all the Juniors and Seniors. Two popular songs—by all of the two classes.

Hot-rod race-acted out with toy cars by the boys.

The Thing—by an original band of juniors and seniors.

Bubble-gum race—by the school teachers.

A Talk—by Mr. Hilliard.

We have the Donkey basketball game to look forward to. It will probably be held about March 1. The boys' basketball jackets will probably also be presented that night.

Art Exhibit Here To Be Continued

The Texas art exhibit sponsored by the Eastland Civic League and Garden Club in the Woman's Club opened Tuesday with only a sprinkling of attendance.

Interest was expected to increase, however, with one group from Breckenridge writing in to say they will be here Sunday.

Mrs. Bill Jessop, chairman of the exhibit, said also that the bibliography and list of paintings had disappeared. She asked that it be returned, as it is the only one available, and must be included when the paintings are shipped back to the Texas Fine Arts Association.

The exhibit includes 30 paintings by Texas artists, picked by the Texas Fine Arts Association to be included in the circuit this year. Oils, water colors, prints and one wash drawing are included in the exhibit.

The exhibit will continue through Tuesday, except that it will not be open Friday. Saturday and Sunday hours will be 2 to 3 p. m., and Monday and Tuesday hours 5:30 to 8:30 p. m.

Dairy Show In City To Be Held April 1

Plans for the annual Eastland County Dairy Association animal show to be held April 1 were to be discussed at a meeting in the Eastland Chamber of Commerce office Thursday evening. The show is held annually in Eastland, sponsored by the group.

Thus far, each year has had a great increase in the quality of the animals entered, but this will probably see the greatest increase yet because of the Youth Improvement program of the association, and the increase of maturing animals bred the artificial insemination program of the association. M. Cooper, county agent.

J. S. Armstrong, employe of Kilgore's and an uncle of Kilgore, was in a critical condition this week at Ranger General Hospital following a heart attack last week end.

Oil Tax Changes Asked Of Congress Termed Harmful

Treasury Department tax recommendations to Congress singled out the oil industry "to carry an undue portion" of the total tax burden, Russell B. Brown, general counsel of the Independent Petroleum Association of America, said in a report to members of that organization.

The oil industry is being asked to account for $1 billion in revenue "over and above the proposed increased rates applicable to all other corporations and individuals," he said.

His report to IPAA members was released by C. W. Hoffman, of Eastland, local vice chairman and information committeeman for the association.

Brown said the need for essential mobilization financing is obvious, but added that "the limit of burden that the American people and American industry can carry without diminishing return and incurable injury poses a most serious problem to Congress."

"The assaults on depletion provisions from different sources," he said, "Some are well intentioned who do not understand these provisions and actually believe them to be wrong because someone else has said they were."

"Some seek to impair or destroy the oil industry. They may not understand the merits of depletion provisions as applied to natural resource industries, but are determined to use every possible means of destroying the structural foundation of these industries."

He charged that those who would reduce or eliminate statutory depletion "employ emotional appeals based on untruths and misrepresentation."

"With those who desire the truth we must exercise great care and patience," he said. "Under every test the depletion provisions of the law have proven proper."

CIVIL DEFENSE

Volunteer Army of Civilians Will Guard Us From Disaster

By Walter A. Shead

(This is the first of five articles on civil defense.)

MILL, LEAN, SQUARE-JAWED, broad-shouldered man sits in a temporary office in one of the many converted government buildings, a short two blocks from the White House. His name is Millard F. Caldwell, former governor of Florida, who has been handed the tremendous responsibility of the nation's civil defense and who will head up the volunteer army of civilians which will total some 100 million men and women in every part of the nation.

His immediate job is to weld together a small force of approximately 3,000 paid employees, approximately 1,000 of whom will be administrative workers here in Washington, the rest field officers in every state and strategic area.

At the same time, he must start training to train these people. He will turn train his 20-million-man army in an entirely new field of defense warfare—a type of warfare which is new to civilization in which the defense is largely untried and untried paths, and in which men, women and children, and without knowledge of the defense—may be helpless.

Mr. Caldwell must come up with answers to these questions: How do I protect myself and my neighbors if an atomic bomb is dropped in or near my home? What about a hydrogen bomb? What protection do I have in a biological or chemical attack? What is there against racial warfare? Or the dropping of atomic bombs or plant disease to crops and animals?

Mr. Caldwell believes that the American people are not aware of the realm of modern warfare if the nation should get into a full-scale war with Russia. The extent would be upon the enemy's ability to strike our air defenses, our land forces and just how far the atomic bombs at Nagasaki and Hiroshima. They have worked out patterns and effects and defenses.

The public health service and the American Red Cross have worked out detailed plans for health protection. The bureau of animal husbandry and the bureau of plant industry of the department of agriculture have a plan of action for defense against release of gases, pests and plant disease aimed at animal and crop destruction.

and crops and animals. But every citizen must be as well educated in these defenses, as acutely aware of the danger, and as alertly conscious of just what action to take as he is of any chore of his daily life; for it is possible we shall be living with these dangers for many years to come if we live at all.

So the job of the civilian defense administration is to educate the people, to organize defenses, to set up this volunteer army, to see that state legislatures pass such enabling legislation and appropriations as are necessary, and to train men and women in scores of facets incidental to a catastrophe such as certainly will happen if a bomb is dropped in their midst.

These include, not only protection against the bomb itself to minimize loss of life and injury, but efficient first aid, fire fighting, evacuation, health facilities, water supply, medical attention, food supplies, social services, warning signals, and an efficient organization for any contingency, which spreads from the cities into the small towns and rural sections of every area in the nation.

The help of every organization in the nation and of every individual will be enlisted not only to join in the civil defense, but to help make the masses of the people bomb-conscious, to prevent fear and hysteria so that a major catastrophe may be averted.

The government has been for months making detailed studies of the bombing of European cities in World War II, of the effects of the atomic bombs at Nagasaki and Hiroshima. They have worked out patterns and effects and defenses.

The public health service and the American Red Cross have worked out detailed plans for health protection. The bureau of animal husbandry and the bureau of plant industry of the department of agriculture have a plan of action for defense against release of gases, pests and plant disease aimed at animal and crop destruction.

now! clothes dried faster than you can wash 'em!

by Gas of course, because Gas is fast!

FASTER than any other clothes dryer. Lightweight fabrics are ready to iron in 15 minutes... dry in 20. Compared with old haul-hang-and-pin way... a Gas dryer is 15 times faster.

LESS & EASIER IRONING. Gas clothes dryer damp-dries; no sprinkling. Also, towels, sheets and knits come out so unwrinkled you do not have to iron them at all!

SAFER, MORE SANITARY. Gas dryer does not over-dry and weaken fibres. It sweetens, purifies better than sunshine... without danger of sun fading and clothes pin rips.

NO WEATHER WORRIES. Ice fingers, mud splattered sheets, laundry mildewing... you'll never have these. With a Gas dryer you can wash any day... even at night if you want to!

COSTS LESS per load than any other dryer. What's more, you don't have to keep up with hot water demands of any children's clothes. A Gas dryer makes it easy to wash more often.

FASTER FOR WATER-HEATING, TOO. Gas is only fuel fast enough to keep up with hot water demands of any washer... yet flexible enough to give right temperature water for any job.

Big Crowd Hears Concert By Band

A capacity audience crowded the high school auditorium Wednesday evening to hear a concert of varied modern band music presented by the Carswell Air Force Band, under the direction of CWO Harry A. Gowers. Preceding the concert, a student band made up of representative players from the schools attending played two numbers.

About 350 high school band students from Eastland, Ranger, Cisco, Breckenridge, Gorman and Dublin flooded the town Wednesday to attend the concert Wednesday evening, and the clinic held at the high school Wednesday afternoon. Representative members from each school were picked to form a 60-piece concert band which played Wednesday night. The students played, "Them Bases," a march by Huffine, and the overture, "Treasure of the Incas."

Eastland band students who were picked to play Wednesday night included Mozelle Pullman, Don Smith, Jeanette Chapman, Patsy Atwood, Nelda Britt, Pauline Lassiter, Sammy Miller, Bobby Latham, Jeanette Caton, Margie June Poe, Mike Cushman, Sarita Seale, Joe Ernst, Billie Farr, Ann Day, Jimmy Chambers, Charles Lane, Ben Green, Jim Ed William, Jimmy Harris, David Marshall, Mary Ann Henderson, and Gwynene Robinson.

The Carswell band gave a wonderful concert, said T. R. Atwood, band director, and played several encores. He said the cooperation of the town and the school officials, as well as the participation of other schools of the area, was deeply appreciated.

Costumes . . .

An oil cloth drop curtain which failed to unroll as expected was placed in front of the bandstand for the melodrama, and it was a number of wacky advertisements for Eastland merchants.

The "Tennessee Waltz" skit presented James Wright playing his guitar and singing, with Mrs. Andy Taylor playing the piano. Mr. and Mrs. Pat Miller waltzed, with Grampa McCoy (Joe Stephen) doing the interrupting.

The Boy Scouts of Bill Jessop's troop gave a clever skit in pantomime behind a white curtain entitled "Eastland Needs a Hospital."

Dr. James Whittington, dressed as a hear chef complete with apron, tall cap and a barbecue fork for a baton, served as master of ceremonies throughout the evening and introduced various costumed couples for the Grand March. Mr. and Mrs. James Horton led off. Lyons Studio took pictures during the evening of some of the costumed guests. Travis Parmer's orchestra from Cisco furnished music for dancing, both round and square. Howard MacDonald of Cisco, Joe Tow, Curley Maynard and Aubrey Van Hoy served as callers for the square dancing.

Guests from Breckenridge, Cisco and Abilene attended the affair. Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Sherman of Morton Valley, won the waltz contest. Mrs. Earl Connor Jr. and Mrs. Jack Frost served as co-chairman for the festival. They were assisted in various ways by the following: Mrs. Theo Lamb, Mrs. Ed Wittup, Mrs. Larry McGraw, Mrs. Freytag, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Cecil Hollifield, Mrs. Frank Hightower, Mrs. Johnnie Aaron, Mrs. D. L. Houle, Mrs. Oscar Avera, Mrs. E. K. Henderson, Mrs. Sam Gamble, Mrs. John Ernst, Mrs. Ben Hamner, Mrs. Joe Stephen, Mrs. Charles Moore and Mrs. Eugene Hickman.

Some of the interesting and outstanding costumes for the evening included: Mrs. James Horton who appeared as Diamond Lil in black velvet and plumes; Mr. Horton as her escort in white tie and tails; Mrs. Eugene Hickman as a hula girl; Mrs. Sam Butler (president-elect of the Civic League) as the Statue of Liberty; Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Seaberry as Winston and Mrs. Churchill; Mr. and Mrs. Horace Horton as a 6-star general and his lady; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Connor, Sr. as judge Roy Bean and Lilly Langtry; Mrs. Virgil Seaberry, Jr., and Mrs. Cyrus Frost, Jr., as the Siamese Twins; Virgil Seaberry Jr. as Dr. Jekyll; Charles Spears of Cisco in pajamas as "I Wish I Were Home in Bed"; Mr. and Mrs. Billy Frost as Mickey and Minnie Mouse; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vaughn as a football hero and a cheer leader; Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hamner as a farm boy and Maude Muller; Dr. Whittington as head chef; Mrs. Earl Connor, Jr., as a lady doctor; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Huckaby as Dr. Kildare and his nurse; Mrs. Hubert Jones as Paderewski; Jack Carothers as a bum and Mrs. Carothers as a Spanish dancer; Mr. and Mrs. Theo Lamb as a fur trapper and a gypsy; Mrs. H. Parker Attends Soil Saving Meet Guy Parker of the Eastland National Bank was among a group that attended a meeting at De Leon Thursday afternoon and evening at which bankers of this section made plans to promote soil conservation work.

At the meetings, the accomplishments of soil conservation in the Upper Leon Soil Conservation District were told, and bankers were advised on how they can help promote the soil saving work.

A committee headed by T. C. Granberry of Dublin reported that banks can have lobby displays on soil conservation work; use ads in local papers; sponsor a short news reel in the local theatre; talk at civic clubs, sponsor field tours, and most important, sponsor giving of plaques to the most distinguished local farmers of the year.

Promotion of soil conservation by local bankers was urged in a program adopted by the Texas Bankers' Association at its latest convention.
