Raising Lake Eastland Spillway Planned; Water Level Drops

$15,000 To $20,000 Cost Estimated For Enlarging Lake

Street Gravel Program Ends Until October

With about $5,000 spent and about 5,000 yard of gravel laid down, work on the city street graveling program has been stopped because current funds are exhausted, City Manager I. C. Heck said Thursday.

Heck said he estimates that the project is about half completed. It is hoped the work can be resumed after Oct. 1, when the new fiscal year begins for the city, he said.

Part of the cost of the project to date was purchase of a used truck for hauling the gravel, at a cost of $1100.

EHS Honor Grads Are Miss Farr And Miss Fox

Billie Irene Farr, with a four-year Eastland High School grade average of 95.76, has been announced as valedictorian of the 1951 graduating class.

Salutatorian, with a grade average for four years of 94.76 is Marjorie Lou Fox.

Miss Farr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Farr of Hawley, has made her home here with her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. McCain.

She has been on the annual staff four years, and this year is editor-in-chief of the Maverick, EHS yearbook. She was a member of the library staff two years, has played in the band two years and won all-state and all-district band honors, is a member of the Journalism Club, was president of the Library Club and the Spanish Club for a year each, was secretary of her sophomore class, is a member of the Double Seven Club, and was salutatorian in Eastland Junior High School.

She had the highest average in her class in her freshman and sophomore years.

Miss Fox is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harley E. Fox of 106 East Plummer Street. She had the highest average in her class in her junior year.

Miss Fox was a member of the Choral Club and the Commercial Club one year each, and was assistant art editor of the school annual one year.

City Officers Hold Ranger Meeting

Joint problems of the five incorporated towns of Eastland County, Eastland, Ranger, Cisco, Rising Star and Gorman, were up for discussion Thursday night at a meeting of the Eastland County Municipal Officers Organization in Ranger.

Meetings of the group are held quarterly. The sessions, attended by elected and appointed city officers, are designed to thresh out mutual problems.

MINGUS LEGION POST TO HAVE BARBECUE

The Mingo American Legion Post No. 670 will have a barbecue and spaghetti dinner and dance at 7 p. m. May 27 in the Mingo Legion hall, it was announced this week. Admission will be $1.50 per person. The public was invited to attend.

Water in Lake Eastland is 53 inches below the spillway level and is receding at the rate of over an inch a week despite the light showers of recent weeks, City Manager I. C. Heck said Thursday.

Heck said the City Commission hopes to raise the spillway level about three feet during the city's next fiscal year, which will begin Oct. 1.

"We just haven't got the money to do it now," he said.

It has been estimated by engineers that raising the spillway level three feet would about double the capacity of the lake, since it would extend the shorelines considerably.

Heck said a rough estimate of the project's cost is $15,000 to $20,000. Probably, he said, the project will require widening the main or south spillway as a safety factor.

The spillway can be raised three feet and still leave the railway tracks at the west end of the lake about three and a half feet above the spillway level, Heck said he had been told by engineers.

All the factors involved are being checked now by County Surveyor T. H. Landon, he said.

While the present water level of the lake is nowhere near the danger stage, several droughts in the past, plus increased use of water by Eastland, have shown the need for greater storage in the city lake, Heck pointed out.

He also pointed out that during last spring and summer the spillway at the lake ran over six or seven times, several times for days at a time.

"We'd surely like to have some of those millions of gallons of water in storage now," he said.

Heck said that he knows of no appreciable runoff into the lake from any of the showers this spring.

Methodists To Vote On New Parsonage

Plans for a new parsonage for the First Methodist Church of Eastland will be laid before the members of the church for a decision at a meeting of the Eastland Methodist Conference in the church next Wednesday, May 16, it was announced Thursday.

All qualified voters in the conference, those 21 or older, were urged to attend by the pastor, Rev. J. Morris Bailey.

It is planned to build a modern six-room residence on the site of the present parsonage at Plummer and Daugherty Streets if the plan is accepted by the conference.

The plan previously has been recommended by the board of stewards, approved by the finance committee, and authorized Wednesday night by members of the quarterly conference.

A building committee headed by Neil Moore is made up also of Grady Pipkin, Robert Vaughan, Frank Crowell and Dr. R. C. Ferguson. Moore will lay before the conference the committee's proposed plans and a cost estimate, and any other information desired by those present.

Dick Harris Wins Honor At North Texas

Dick Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Harris, a senior at North Texas State College, has been elected vice-president of the college student body. He was a senior senator before being awarded the new office.

Young Harris is one of 16 young men at the school to be named a member of the Blue Key national honor recognition fraternity. The members are chosen primarily for scholarship, but also for individual personality, achievement in individual fields of study and extra-curricular activities.

During his college career young Harris also has been president of the Wesley Players, a group producing plays of a religious nature, and president of the Wesley Foundation, made up of Methodist students in Denton colleges.

Huge Hail Stones Batter County In Wednesday Storm

House roofs, automobiles, garden crops, windows, young fruit and other things breakable suffered Wednesday night when Eastland County's most severe hail storm in nearly a decade showered hail stones up to tennis ball size on towns and communities of the county.

Insurance men said Thursday that some claims were coming in, but that it appeared the larger hail stones fell in too scattered a fashion to make for nearly the damage wreaked by two similar storms in the early 1940's.

In both of those storms, nearly every roof in Eastland was ruined by baseball-sized hailstones.

Wednesday's brief storm covered a wider area, apparently, extending from the county line on the north to Gorman at the southern edge of the county.

Individual hail stones as large as three and a quarter inches in diameter were measured, and a lot of smaller stones fell. However, as hail storms go, the fall was comparatively light in most places.

Damage included breaking of a plate glass window at the Eastland Auto Parts, breaking of over 100 of the window lights in the hot house of Poe Floral, and countless smaller punctures and breaks in roofs, car windshields and other objects.

The hail, accompanied by a rain that measured only .22 of an inch in Eastland but ran up to a half inch at a gauge at the Consolidated plant just south of town, came in comparative calm, and that helped hold down damage. Before the hail started, the wind had blown strongly and gustily.

The storm in the county was part of a series of such disturbances that left hundreds of thousands of dollars in damages across North and West Central Texas.

Rainfall at Gorman and in the southern part of the county was reported considerably heavier than in the Eastland neighborhood.

Red Cross Chapter Honored For Success

A certificate of honor from the American Red Cross has been awarded the Eastland County Red Cross Chapter for its success in surpassing the 1951 fund drive goal, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, the county chairman, has been informed.

Mrs. John Love of Alameda, the drive chairman, has been given a citation for her achievement.

These facts were conveyed to Mrs. Perkins in a letter from Walker L. Millner of St. Louis, Midwestern Area manager, who added, "I congratulate you, your chapter, your Fund Chairman, and your community on this splendid achievement."

LOWELL HERRING TO HAVE FURTHER OBSERVATION

Lowell Herring, Eastland High School student and son of Mrs. M. P. Herring of Eastland, spent three days this week in the Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene for observation. His mother and brother, Brooks Herring of Abilene, brought him home Wednesday and will take him back to Abilene Friday for further observation in the hospital.

Annual Eastland Band Concert To Be In High School Auditorium Sunday

Annual Spring concert of the Eastland High School Band and associated musical groups will be held at 2 p. m. Sunday, Mothers Day, in the high school auditorium, T. R. Atwood, director, announced this week.

The concert, free to the public, will climax observance of National Music Week.

The Tonette Band, made up of boys and girls of the fourth and fifth grades of both South Ward and West Ward Schools, will play for the first time.

The Junior Band, made up of beginning band students of Eastland Junior High School and some ward school students, will be presented in several numbers.

However, the main body of the concert will be by the Senior High School Concert Band, fresh from winning a Division 1 rating in Class A competition in the regional contest in Brownwood.

A number of solos by members of the band will be included. The concert will last about an hour and 15 minutes.

Members of the band have been devoting a great deal of time to practice, and Bandmaster Atwood and members of the Band Boosters Club said they hope the public will take advantage of this opportunity to hear the music students at this time when they are in their best form.

Methodists Request Return Of Bailey

Return of Rev. J. Morris Bailey as pastor of the First Methodist Church of Eastland for another year will be requested by the board of stewards of the church, members of the board decided in a meeting Monday night.

Mr. Bailey, subject to approval of the annual conference which is to meet June 10, will begin his third year with the Eastland church June 1. Mr. Bailey came to Eastland from Corsicana two years ago. He and Mrs. Bailey have two children, Evelyn and Robert.

Henry Van Geem was elected chairman of the board of stewards to replace N. P. McCarney, and J. P. Kilgore was named vice-chairman to replace Van Geem. Earl Bender and E. C. Satterwhite were re-elected treasurer and secretary, respectively.

Unconscious Lad Sole Survivor Of Family; Five Killed

Unconscious and unaware that all five members of his immediate family were dead in a tragic car-truck smashup, 6-year-old David Jack Stephenson lay in the Graham Hospital in Cisco Thursday.

Watching over the unconscious lad nearly a week after the crash just east of Cisco were nurses and relatives, feeling a deep compassion for the boy whose torn body was the remaining evidence of the awful scene on Highway 80.

It was close to midnight Thursday night of last week when Jack Stephenson, 30, his wife, Clara Huber Stephenson and their four sons were leaving Cisco for their home near Staff after attending a rodeo at Baird and visiting relatives in Cisco.

Just outside Cisco where Highway 80 is under construction, the oil field worker apparently became confused, and drove head on into a big truck-trailer driven by Leon Hayes of Dallas.

Hayes was injured only slightly, but Stephenson, his wife and two of their sons, Archie Dale, 5, and Donald Lee, 3, died at the spot, in their horribly smashed car or on or beside the highway. Another son, Kenneth Joe, 11 months old, died later in the Cisco hospital.

Stephenson was employed by the Gilchrist Drilling Company of Abilene.

A throng attended joint funeral services for the five victims, held Sunday at the Merriman Baptist Church near Ranger. Officiating was Rev. Harold Williams, pastor of the church. Burial was in the Merriman Cemetery.

The crash was one of the worst in the history of the county.

Survivors include Stephenson's mother, Mrs. Annie Stephenson of Eastland, three brothers, Louis of Eastland, Charles of Carbon and Orville of Handley, and three sisters, Mrs. M. J. Hoper of Eastland, Mrs. Jack Ellison of Fort Worth and Mrs. Letha Sellers of Azle; Mrs. Stephenson's mother, Mrs. Clara Huber of Cisco, a brother, William R. Huber of Cisco, and four sisters, Mrs. Claude Baker of Palm City, Calif., and Mrs. Harvey Johnson and Misses Ella and Emma Lou Huber, all of Cisco.

CHILDREN VISIT IN HARLOW HOME

Miss Verda Harlow of Bakersfield, Calif., and J. G. Harlow of Dallas spent the week end visiting their father, L. C. Harlow, who is ill at his home at 205 South Walnut Street.

Another daughter, Mrs. Henry James of Longview, and her husband and son Eddie visited her father and mother the preceding week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Parks Poe and small daughter Kay visited in Pampa over the week end with the Poes' son Joe and his wife. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Altom, who visited their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Garner Altom, and their children, Prince and Doug, also of Pampa.

A. J. McLendon of Blackwell visited his sister, Mrs. Nevada S. Weems, in Olden last week end.

New Hospital Fund Started With Bank Account of $2582.83

A brand new hospital fund for Eastland was started Wednesday when officers of the Civic League and Garden Club deposited in the Eastland National Bank $2582.83 to serve as the nucleus for the fund.

Members of the organization voted at its meeting Wednesday to set aside $1000 of the club's funds for the hospital fund.

Another $1108.86 was deposited into the new fund as the total proceeds from ticket sales to the recent benefit horse show in Eastland; $140.17 came in from the little ceramic hospital banks that have been in stores and public buildings; $137 was donated by various clubs of Eastland; $100 came from two private donors, and $96.10 from the nickels gathered by saving margarine box tops.

Money in the new fund may be added to by any one at any time, it was stressed. Guy Parker at the bank is trustee for the fund, and will accept donations for it and deposit the money in the fund.

Several clubs, Sunday School classes and other organizations that voted money to the fund can deposit the funds in the bank to the credit of the hospital fund, it was pointed out.

The bank account will be under the name of the Civic League Hospital Fund.

Club officers said they have a number of hospital projects in mind, but nothing specific at this time.

The club's hospital committee still is functioning, and it was felt that the $2500-plus will be a fresh start toward an ultimate hospital for Eastland.

Mrs. Samuel Butler, new club president, pledged that her two years in office will be devoted in good part toward the hospital project.

Eastland Group Goes To Funeral Of Kin

Mrs. A. F. Taylor and her daughters and their husbands, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Kilgore and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Perry, attended the funeral services in Fort Worth Monday for Thomas W. Fete, the husband of Mrs. Taylor's cousin.

Mr. Fete, 65, died Friday night of a heart attack following a long illness. He was a retired rancher. Mr. and Mrs. Fete visited in Eastland many times.

Agriculture Workers Of County Meet

Agricultural workers of Eastland County met in the Carbon School Wednesday evening for one of a periodical series of meetings to discuss developments and problems of agriculture.

International and American, as well as local, problems in agriculture were discussed.

President of the group is George I. Lane, Farmers Home Administration supervisor in the county.

Mrs. John Matthews, who suffered a stroke about a month ago, is convalescing in a nursing home in Mingo. She is reported recovering satisfactorily.

New Fire Truck Arrives In Eastland

Eastland's first new fire truck since about 1930 arrived last Wednesday, and was due to be commissioned for use Friday.

Abilene Fire Chief Musick was to inspect the truck for the state, a formality required before it can be put into service.

The American LaFrance truck cost the city $9500, and was ordered about nine months ago. Its delivery was delayed for over six months.

Members of the Eastland Fire Department were enthused over arrival of the truck. Some of them had just about given up on its ever arriving.

Golf Tournament Medalist Play Will Be Held Friday

First annual invitational golf tournament of the Eastland Lakeside Country Club will begin Friday with medalist play, a long driving contest, a Calcutta pool and a barbecue at the course.

Tournament play will begin Saturday morning and continue until flight finals are played Sunday afternoon.

Tournament Chairman Gayland Poe has worked out a schedule for six flights, and there will be a prize for every player in the tournament under plans worked out.

John Lively, course pro, said the recent rains have left the course in wonderful shape for the tournament. The nine-hole layout is one of the sportiest in this section of the state, relying on elevated and sloping greens and other factors for its hazards rather than a profusion of bunkers and traps.

Breckenridge Golf Pro J. T. Hammett will be the starter in the event, and Club President H. T. Weaver warned this week that players must show up for scheduled matches on time or forfeit.

There will be too many matches to wait on any of them, he explained.

Close to 100 golfers are expected to enter.

Weaver said a $2.50 ticket will entitle anyone, tourney entrant or not, to enjoy the barbecue and other privileges of the tournament.

Prizes in the tournament now are on display in a show window at Carl Johnson's Dry Goods, and include a Bag Boy carrier for a golf bag, handsome luggage, silverware, wrist watch, air cooler, radio, bridge tables and chairs, golf balls, and so forth.

Committees have gone all out to make the club's first annual tournament an outstanding one, and a number of outstanding amateur golfers of this section are expected to participate.

Eastland High A Cappella Choir To Give First Big Concert Tuesday Evening

First annual spring concert of the Eastland High School A Cappella Choir will be held at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the High School auditorium, it was announced this week by Director W. H. Stanley.

Stanley, also principal of Eastland High School, has brought the choir in one school year from nothing to a position as one of the more accomplished music organizations of this section.

There will be a charge of 25 cents per person for the concert. Stanley explained this charge is made in an effort to recover the cost of the risers, the bleacher-like stands on which the choir members stand while singing.

The choir will sing two groups

MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS

Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

LINKING GOOD DRIVING with good citizenship in high school driving courses has already developed a generation of young drivers who are impressed from the start with the fact that an automobile is not a toy. Moreover, their knowledge of what a car will do and how to keep it going at top form is far beyond that which their parents possessed when they first secured their driver's licenses. But although this early training has made instinctive much of their adeptness at handling a car, how our young people live up to their highest driving standards is greatly influenced by their parents' teachings.

This is because good driving depends on the driver's emotional balance as well as his knowledge and skill. This fact is borne out by statistics, for young motorists still have three times as many accidents as middle-aged ones. Now emotional control is not something you can get out of a book or from the temporary instruction of a professional driver. It is something you learn from the cradle up and for which parents are largely responsible. Being a careful pedestrian from nursery school days; learning to handle safely every type of wheel toy from kiddie car to the first proud entry in a soap box derby; early lessons in good sportsmanship and in making decisions—all these and hundreds of other influences go to make up one's driving background. Then, almost before you realize that your child is able to cross streets alone, he is the proud possessor of his first driver's license. Now your attitude is of paramount importance. Suppose we illustrate this with a few wrong ones. For instance, fathers are frequently envious of a boy's smooth performance at the wheel and without realizing the source of their irritation constantly criticize small faults of driving, acts which may not be faults at all but merely different methods from those our generation learned. Nothing will waken an antagonism to parental supervision like being unjustly criticized.

We still have nervous mothers who will not acknowledge a young person's competence no matter how good his record for safe driving. Do you wonder that on the rare occasions when he has the car out alone he is tempted to go beyond the limits of safety in order to taste freedom at the wheel? On the other hand, as parents you should take no one's word, certainly not mine, for the proficiency of these clever young drivers. Before putting the parental stamp on your child's school driving diploma you should make yourself thoroughly familiar with his driving judgment, and his command, or lack of it, of this powerful machine you are about to turn over to him. Unfortunately, there are some human beings who lack the perfect coordination of mind, eye and muscle which driving demands. If your boy or girl is one of these, it is your responsibility to discover this deficiency and give him or her the proper training to correct it.

Who said You can't Afford a Fine Car?

WHEN you look at all a ROADMASTER has to offer, it's only natural to conclude that it's priced with the rest of the fine-car field.

Sweeping proudly past you, it has a distinction that few cars can equal.

Stepping nimbly away from a stop light, it has the willing surge of power that the very exclusive combination of a 152-horsepower Fireball engine and Dynaflo Drive* delivers.

It rides the road with majestic smoothness, and comes to a smooth and gentle halt, in response to the finest brakes Buick ever developed.

Inside, it has spacious room, from side to side and front to back and seat to roof—plus a softness of cushions and a richness of fabrics which bespeak the custom standards to which it is painstakingly built.

*Yours at no extra cost on ROADMASTERS.

All you could want in a fine car is here in abundance.

But don't let that fool you into deciding "it's too rich for me."

If you've looked into 1951 car prices generally, you'll discover this:

You can own a ROADMASTER for just a shade more than an ordinary car will cost—and for several hundred dollars less than the price tags usually found in "the fine-car field."

Why not look into this today?

What price good news? Often it's the price of a telephone call . . . and that means just a few pennies to spread the glad tidings.

Worth more? Of course. Many telephone calls are practically priceless to their value to you.

And yet the average cost, including the cost of each local telephone call—the important calls and the usual everyday variety—is about 2½¢.

weeks helps. Teaspoon of castor oil at the roots every three months is helpful, or two tablespoons of olive oil, at the roots once a month, are good.

Cold tea makes a good fertilizer for house plants. Another mixture can be made by adding a teaspoon of ammonia to two quarts of lukewarm water and using it on the plants once every two weeks.

To keep flowers fresh, use one of the following in the water: a piece of sugar, a drop of spirits of camphor, common table salt, a few slices of soap, one half teaspoon of baking soda or a tablespoon of powdered charcoal.

Wilted cut flowers can sometimes

League And Garden Club Has Interesting Session Business Discussed, Officers Installed, Speaker Heard

Meeting of the season for the League and Garden Club was held Wednesday afternoon at the club. The meeting was most interesting ever held by the club, with annual reports and committees, and an interesting speaker, beautiful refreshments, a brand new table to use, an extra place, and a tea party.

Mrs. Horton presided for the session which began with the minutes and final report.

Mrs. Gamble, treasurer, reported showing the year's balance of $1019.81 after all bills had been paid. She reviewed the various activities of the year, which have been successful.

Carothers reported for the year that the lit-banks which have been set up at other public places netted $140.17 for the fund.

Mrs. Horton as retiring president made her report of the club's activities. She asked Mrs. Dave Fiensy, second vice-president, to take the chair during her report.

Mrs. W. H. Mullings announced that the county federation will meet in Cisco May 26 at 1 p. m. for a picnic. If the weather is good the affair will be in the City Park; if not, in the Woman's Club. All club members were invited to attend.

Mrs. Fred Davenport then installed officers for the next two years. They are Mrs. Sam Butler, president; Mrs. Jack Frost, first vice-president; Mrs. Veon Howard, second vice-president; Mrs. Earl Conner, Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. Hubert Toombs, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Sam Gamble, treasurer and Mrs. Jim Whittington, clubhouse director.

After an appropriate speech, Mrs. Davenport presented Mrs. Butler with the keys to the clubhouse. Mrs. Butler in a short acceptance speech promised to do the best he could in the two years coming to make the club worthwhile, if the membership will help her. With the hospital campaign in mind, she used this quotation from Isaiah 46:11: "I have purposed it, I will do it."

Mrs. Butler then announced the following standing committees, to begin functioning at once:

Hospital committee, Mrs. John Turner, Mrs. Gamble, Mrs. L. E. Huckaby, Mrs. Earl Conner, Sr., Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann, Mrs. Horton, Mrs. L. E. McGraw and Mrs. Theo Lamb.

Welcome new citizens committee, Mrs. I. C. Heck, Mrs. R. E. Sikes, Mrs. A. D. Dabney, Mrs. Jack Williamson, Mrs. T. L. Fagg and Mrs. Cyrus Frost, Sr.

Yearbook committee, Mrs. A. H. Johnson, Mrs. W. B. Pickens and Mrs. Walter Chaney.

Publicity committee, Mrs. Don Parker and Mrs. H. G. Vermillion.

Mrs. Butler also appointed Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins parliamentary.

Mrs. Arthur Murrell as program chairman presented Mrs. Carl Hill of Dallas, formerly of Eastland, who discussed flower arrangements.

Mrs. Hill, who is active in club circles in Dallas, brought the club many interesting ideas concerning the arrangement of line, mass and period pieces done with flowers. She had made up before the meeting six gorgeous arrangements, which were placed strategically about the clubhouse, and she used these to illustrate her talk.

Mrs. H. B. MacMoy presented the club with an unusual and beautiful scrapbook which she made as historian for the year. The cover was made by Mrs. MacMoy of

MISS LAVINIA LOVEWORN's column for the lovelorn in The Dawdle Dell County Chronicle this week had some mighty fine advice for plain-featured gals—those who can't get a whistle from even a teakettle.

A debutanty with a dirt-road face writes in for some ideas how to work up enough charm to get a little sparking from her old flame whose embers are getting low.

You might know the gal if you get up to the county seat much. She's Miss Frowzy MacFlirt, one of Filthy MacFlirt's 17 daughters—the one he won't let feed the hogs 'cause she such an eyesore her presence clutters up the pen.

Lavinia cautions Frowzy about trifling: "The proper young gal won't tantalize her beau with coy capers like dangling her upper plate or popping her glass eye out and in. These little defects must be de-emphasized. Keep them in your purse if you can't keep from using them coquettishly."

"Men don't sidle up to slovenly creatures. Pep and tidiness distract the eye from blemishes. When a man enters the room, the neat, vivacious gal leaps off the lounge, twists her lumps into position fore and aft, ties corset laces, hoists hosiery, and begins hiding warts and crevices with rouge. With her free hand, she seizes the man. Enthusiasm pays. He will come to the point at once, whether he is a book salesman or wants to read the meter."

"One last warning: There's many a falter between the proposal and the altar."

4-H Girls To Have Revue Saturday

Approximately 40 4-H Club girls from 12 Eastland County clubs will enter dresses, skirts and blouses they have made in the annual Dress Revue to be held in the West Ward School in Eastland Saturday.

Each of the girls has received training in clothing construction and grooming from Miss Evelyn Bigby, assistant county home demonstration agent.

The girls will be grouped in three classes according to their ages and the number of years they have been in 4-H Club work. Three prizes will be awarded in each group. First and second place winners in the first group, for girls over 14 years of age, will be awarded a trip to College Station in June to attend the Texas 4-H Club Round-Up and Dress Revue.

Mrs. Ethel Sparks and Mrs. Tom Joyce Cunningham, home demonstration agents from Eastland and Stephens Counties, will judge the construction work on the garments Friday.

Saturday morning, Miss Loretta Morris, Eastland High School Homemaking teacher, and Mrs. Dixie Stafford, Comanche County home demonstration agent, will judge the general appearance of the garments.

At 1 p. m. Saturday the girls will model their handiwork in revue for the general public in the auditorium of West Ward School, and winners will be announced at that time.

Farmers To Try Out Fertilizers On Grain

Five Eastland County farmers in the sandy land areas of the county are to experiment this year with high analysis fertilizer on grain sorghum crops, County Agent J. M. Cooper said this week.

Sandy land yields of grain sorghums in the county have been low as a rule, Cooper said, with the yields many years running not over 500 pounds or so per acre. The high analysis, pelleted fertilizer will be used in various quantities under the grain seed at planting time to see if acre yields can be increased on a feasible cost basis.

The five cooperating farmers are receiving free from the Mathieson Chemical Corporation of Houston several hundred pounds of 10-30-10 and 16-20-0 fertilizer. The farmers agreed to furnish the usual 4-12-4 fertilizer, the type ordinarily used under sorghums, peanuts and cotton in the county. Grains to be planted include hegar and Plainsman maize, both popular varieties in the locality.

The farmers taking part in the experiments are Bill Caraway, L. R. Higginbottom and John Henderson of Kokomo, A. E. Guy of Carbon and Jim Sparks of Desdemona. All have soils of the Nimrod of Windthorst series.

R. V. Pinson, representative of the sponsoring concern, has been here several times recently to confer with the farmers and with Cooper.

Cooper said results of the tests will be made known after the sorghum crops are harvested and weighed this fall.

Mrs. Carl Butler and son Billy and her father, Jim Hammett, all of Eldorado, visited recently in Olden.

John Brown, an abolitionist, was hanged for seizing the state armory at Harpers Ferry, West Virginia.

Two Taylor Pupils Honored At Auditions

Linda Huckabay, pupil of the Taylor Studio, was awarded a superior rating for piano playing at the National Fraternity of Musicians contest in Fort Worth Saturday.

Linda won a gold pin and certificate with national honors for playing 10 memorized pieces. This is the second year she has won the honor. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Huckabay.

Another entrant from the Taylor Studios, Jimmy Everett, won a rating of excellent plus for the third time, for playing from memory 10 advance pieces. He received a gold pin and national certificate, and the further honor of having his name appear in the sponsoring group's yearbook, with others who have won the honor for three years.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Everett of Olden.

Mrs. Huckabay and Mrs. A. F. Taylor accompanied the students to Fort Worth.

In the ark with Noah there were four women—his wife and the wives of his three sons.
