Those engaged in a hospital for Eastland are hoping that a well will be drilled on the hospital hill back of the Caton Clinic in an effort to find oil.

There seems to be a good chance that such a well will be drilled, but meanwhile, other action is taking place on the hospital front. Ted Howard of Texas A&M brought home some plans and a model of a hospital last weekend. Mrs. John Turner of the hospital committee said that the plan was changed around quite a bit, mainly because Ted did not know in which direction the building would be facing on the lot.

According to present plans, the building would face Plummer Street. Mrs. Turner said that the plans Ted presented called for an H shaped building which could be added onto as needed. The original size would be for 15 beds.

Ted took the plans back with him to college to be re-worked and they are expected to be finished by Easter.

Encouraging also to the group working on a hospital for Eastland are the various ideas which are being offered and the help being given in getting money for the project, despite the fact that there has been no attempt to raise funds as yet.

The latest offer comes from Lucas's Service Station which is offering to give 1c per gallon on each gallon of gas sold at the station during the next 90 days to the hospital fund. C. T. Lucas is the owner.

Other similar offers lead one to believe that the funds for a hospital will come after other arrangements are completed, but not without similar help from all citizens.

The final date on which candidates could announce for city council positions passed last Saturday and only three candidates are on the announcement list for three positions. I. C. Heck, city manager, has announced.

Announcing were Pearson Grimes, Dave Finney and Jack Mulhead, all for re-election.

Heck commented that people of the city must be pleased with their present councilmen since no opposition is being offered them this year.

The annual Father-Son banquet was a big success Tuesday night. More than 200 persons attended the affair which was held in the basement of the First Methodist Church.

Just about everyone who saw was rather happy that the cold spell, the worst part at least, missed this section.

People seemed to be enjoying the spring weather of Wednesday, even though it was warm enough to almost qualify as semi-summer.

The biggest need in the way of weather for the section is still a good rain of about three inches or so.

High school athletes are concentrating on track right now. They will turn to spring football practice about the middle of next month.

Reds Lose 11,000 Men In 24 Hrs.

EIGHT UN DIVISIONS RIP INTO FIVE CHINESE ARMIES

By Earnest Hoberecht
TOKYO, March 8 (UP)—The 8th Army plunged ahead up to 2½ miles on a 70-mile front in Korea today against Red forces already reeling from the loss of a record 11,600 men in the first 24 hours of the mammoth assault.

A front dispatch reported signs of a general Communist withdrawal behind a screen of rear guards. Resistance ranged from non-existent to fairly heavy on this second day of the new "killer" offensive.

Eight UN divisions were ripping into the defenses of five Chinese armies and three North Korean corps—perhaps 150,000 men.

The U. S., Canadian, Australian, Greek and South Korean troops killed 11,400 Reds in ground action alone yesterday—a new record for the Korean war. At least 260 prisoners were taken.

The air forces accounted for another 200 dead and wounded yesterday and claimed an additional 500 enemy casualties today.

Advancing UN forces already have driven more than four miles beyond the Han River east of Seoul, captured a mountain dominating 50 miles of the west-central front and pushed within seven miles of the big Chinese base of Hongchon.

Allied air forces blasted and burned South Korean troops and defenses all the way from the front back to the Manchurian border in support of the 8th Army. They flew more than 1,000 sorties yesterday and were expected to equal or surpass that total today.

B-29 Superfortresses led today's aerial offensive with a 220-ton raid on the warehouse and storage area at Chunchon, only 20-odd miles behind the fighting front in central Korea. It was one of the heaviest bombing raids in recent weeks.

In the first 500 sorties of the day, 5th Air Force fighters and fighter-bombers claimed to have killed or wounded 500 enemy troops, and to have destroyed or damaged 84 enemy vehicles loaded with troops and supplies, nearly 500 occupied buildings, one locomotive and 35 railway cars.

Fourteen P-86 Sabrejets patrolling northwest Korea spotted 17 Russian-built jet fighters near a night bombers concentrated on enemy vehicles rushing Communist supplies and reinforcements south. They spotted nearly 900 of them and destroyed or damaged 42.

Draft Dodger Sentenced To Year In Jail
HOUSTON, TEX., March 8 (UP)—Rudolph Cruz, Jr., a 20-year-old grocery employe, was under a federal sentence of a year and a day today for failure to report for induction in the Army.

Cruz refused to report, claiming he was conscientious objector.

Federal District Judge Allen B. Hannay imposed the sentence yesterday after listening while Cruz's grandfather cited numerous biblical passages to support the teachings of the Jehovah's witnesses sect to which all members of the family belong.

Cruz was ordered to report Feb. 20, Assistant U. S. Attorney John C. Snodgrass told the court that Cruz made no claim to being a conscientious objector until after his induction process had been started. He was then told it was too late to be reclassified.

BBB Asks Halt To 'Scare' Advertising
FORT WORTH, Tex., March 8 (UP)—American business should take the initiative at once in a move to halt "scare" advertising, a Chicago official of the Better Business Bureau advocated here yesterday.

Kenneth Barnard, national chairman of the War Activities Committee of the Association of Better Business Bureaus, said this "scare advertising is epidemic throughout the country."

"It leads inevitably to a rationing which otherwise might be indefinitely postponed or avoided altogether," Barnard said.

Austin School Children Get Food Poisoning

AUSTIN, Tex., March 8 (UP)—City health authorities were examining scraps today from left-over ham served in a school cafeteria which was believed to have caused food poisoning to "about 15 children."

W. L. Darnell, principal of Baker School, where the sudden illness struck after lunch yesterday, said he has checked with some parents and thinks "some of the students will be back in school today." He said he was making a full check on attendance to see which children had been made ill—and if they had eaten in the cafeteria.

The main dish was meat pie, but some 27 children ate ham left over from Tuesday's lunch menu, he said. They started becoming ill in school, and nine had started vomiting before classes were out. Others became ill after they went home, he said.

At least two were given emergency treatment at Brackenridge Hospital.

Laboratory samples of the ham will be examined, and "a full report is expected in 24 hours," Darnell said.

Ladies Golf Results Told
Mae Plowman's 46 was the lowest score turned in by Eastland ladies at their golf day at the Lake Side Country Club, Tuesday.

Mary Elizabeth Poe won the ball for the least number of putts on the secret hole. The secret hole was No. 9, and was made in one putt.

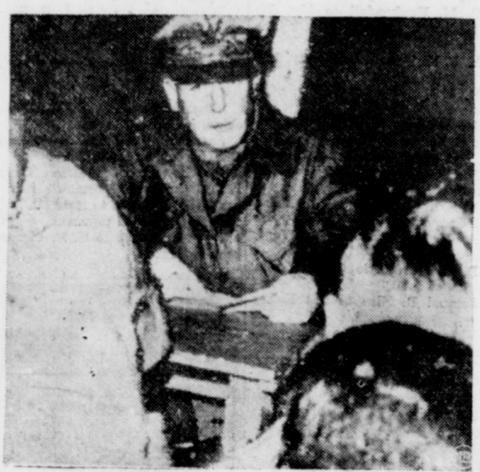

Mary Elizabeth Poe also won the putting contest last week with the least number of putts on nine holes. Ethel Sparks was runner-up.

The next ladies day will be held next Tuesday. The least number of putts on 9 holes will win a golf ball.

Tuesday, March 13, will be the last day for ladies to post their score and get their name on the ladder.

Ft. Worth Woman Commits Suicide
FORT WORTH, Tex., March 8 (UP)—A verdict of suicide was returned yesterday in the gunshot death of Mrs. James H. Hubbard, 41, wife of a division traffic superintendent for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in Fort Worth. Her husband said she had been in ill health.

MACARTHUR PREDICTS STALEMATE IN KOREA—At a press conference at Suwon, Korea, held during one of General MacArthur's visits to the fighting front, he predicted "an inevitable stalemate of the Korean war." (NEA Radio-Telephoto by Walter Lea).

General Not Likely To Get Answer From UN On How Far To Go In Korea

By Harry Ferguson
United Press Foreign News Editor
Gen. Douglas MacArthur has asked the big question again, but there is no indication that he will get an answer from the United Nations.

He said on a battle-field visit to Korea yesterday that the Korean war was likely to settle down into a stalemate unless some "high level" decisions were made. He meant he wanted the UN to decide whether he should go all-out in an attempt to drive the Chinese Communists out of Korea or let things go along the way they are.

He needs two things to win the war: More troops and permission from the UN to bomb the Chinese any place he chooses, including across the boundary in their own country where they outfit their troops. It is unlikely he will get either one any time soon.

The reason for that is that no nation is as heavily committed in Korea as the United States. Our casualties are now more than 52,000. No big American city and few small towns are untouched by the Korean war. That is not the case of our two principal allies in the anti-Communist coalition, Britain and France. Both have troops in Korea and they have suffered casualties. But neither Paris nor London dares take its eye off the main threat—the danger that Russia may start

London—Britain would like to settle the Korean war through a compromise with Red China. She doesn't think MacArthur ever should have crossed the 38th Parallel in the first place and she is going to try to prevent him from doing it again. Britain recognizes the Communists as the legal government of China and finds herself in the strange position of making war against a regime which she officially approves.

Washington—Would like to win a quick victory in Korea and probably would be willing to go all out to do it. But the official position is that this is a United Nations, not an American problem, and no step will be taken unless it is approved first at Lake Success. The matter that engages the attention of Congress at the moment is not whether to reinforce MacArthur but whether to send 100,000 American troops to Europe.

Selim Sarper, UN delegate from Turkey, summed up the attitude of many nations last night when he said: "On the question of doing more, we ought to, but whether we could is another question. Korea is not the only interesting spot in the world for many countries."

Dr. Petter Named To Hosp.
AUSTIN, Tex., March 8 (UP)—Dr. H. W. Petter was named last night as superintendent of the McKnight state tubercular sanatorium near San Angelo to succeed Dr. Roger E. Smyth who will enter private clinical practice in the tubercular field.

Game Warden M. S. Dry said the statement should be corrected to read, a license must be obtained before fishing in fresh waters of the state with artificial lure.

Sen. Chapman Dies Of Auto Crash Injuries

WASHINGTON, March 8 (UP)—Sen. Virgil Chapman, D. Ky., died today of injuries suffered when his automobile collided with a trailer truck.

Chapman died at the Naval hospital in nearby Bethesda, Md., he was 55.

The Kentuckian was injured at 3:20 a.m. EST when his automobile collided with a Safeway grocery chain tractor-trailer as he attempted to make a left turn.

He died about seven hours later. In addition to fractures, severe lacerations, and loss of several teeth, Chapman apparently suffered from internal injuries.

His car was smashed so severely that police had to pry open a door to get him out.

Chapman, a native of Bourbon County, Ky., served 11 terms in the House before he was elected to the Senate in 1948. He was a member of the Senate Armed Services and Public Works Committees.

He also served on the Armed Services Preparedness Subcommittee which maintains a check on the national defense program.

Chapman was graduated from the University of Kentucky in 1918 and in the same year became the city attorney for Irvine, Ky. Later, he practiced law in Lexington, but maintained his residence in Paris, Ky.

He served continuously in Congress from 1924 on except for two years following his defeat in 1928 when Herbert Hoover's landslide put a Republican temporarily in Chapman's seat.

Drilling Slated On No. 1 Adams Four Miles SE Of Eastland

Prospects were for a large new oil exploration area near Eastland today with the announcement of the beginning of operations on the Edgar H. Stapper No. 1 Adams about four and one-half miles southeast of the city.

Location is 660 feet south of the north line and 440 feet west of the east line of the west 53 acres of lot No. 53, leagues 3 and 4, McClennan county school land.

Stapper is president of the American Northland Oil Co., Los Angeles, Calif.

E. M. Shirley, who took the leases on the well, said that there are several pays which have been proven in the area by earlier production. Dan Kralis of Abilene did the subsurface geology work on the well.

Puerto Rican Assassin Appeals Death Sentence

WASHINGTON, March 8 (UP)—Oscar Collazo, Puerto Rican assassin whose dreams of island independence are due to be snuffed out in the electric chair, pinned hopes for his life on an appeal to higher courts.

The 37-year-old Puerto Rican revolutionary was convicted late yesterday of the first degree murder of a White House guard in the attempted assassination of President Truman on Nov. 1.

The verdict by the federal court jury of nine women and three men made the death sentence mandatory. The jury deliberated one hour and 42 minutes.

Collazo's court-appointed attorney Leo A. Rover said he would file a motion for a new trial within five days. There was little hope it would be granted. Rover said, however, he intended to take the case to the Supreme Court if necessary.

Collazo was found guilty of slaying Pvt. Leslie Coffelt in the gun battle in front of Blair House last Nov. 1.

Actually, Griselo Torresola, Collazo's accomplice, fired the shot which killed Coffelt. Under the law, Collazo could be judged equally guilty. Torresola died in the gun battle.

Federal Judge T. Allan Goldsborough will pronounce the mandatory death sentence in about a week after ruling on Rover's expected motion for a new trial.

If appeals to the higher courts fail, Collazo's only hope would be clemency from Mr. Truman. There has been no indication from the White House that commutation of the death penalty is being considered.

After hearing the jury rule "guilty, as charged," Collazo was returned to the District of Columbia jail cell he has occupied since recovering from a chest wound suffered in the shooting.

He and his wife, Rosa, who was present throughout the trial, were calm as the verdict was returned.

Lions Hear School Talk

L. E. McGraw discussed the Public School System in Texas at a meeting of the Lions Club this week in keeping with the observance of Public Schools Week in the state and city.

McGraw explained that the Public Schools system of the state is as old as the state itself.

He pointed out that one of the serious objections the people of Texas had to the Mexican government was that they had no provision for the education for their children.

In conclusion, McGraw urged that all citizens visit their schools during the week and show a greater interest in their teachers and schools throughout the year.

The committee on furnishing glasses for children who need them but cannot afford them, reported that two children had been referred to Dr. Lund for glasses during the past week.

Correction

In listing the Junior High School citizens of the month in Wednesday's Telegram, the 8-B citizen was listed as Larry Tankersley. It should have been Joel Tankersley.

South Texas Families Want Corn With Beans

EDINBURG, TEX., March 8 (UP)—Freeze-stricken South Texas families were assured of a half-million pounds of pinto beans today, but they still wanted corn with which to make tortillas.

Sen. Lyndon Johnson and Rep. Lloyd M. Bensten announced that the beans, a staple in the diet of Latin-American families, had been secured by the surplus commodities corporation and would be shipped from Dallas and Fort Worth warehouses.

Free Booklet At Post Office Gives Facts On New Social Security Law

Glenn McNatt, representative of the Abilene office of the Social Security Administration, was in Ranger Wednesday assisting people of this vicinity in filing claims for retirement payments and death payments. He also was here to contact various individuals and groups regarding provisions of the new social security law.

Among the important changes in this law, said McNatt, are those bringing into the social security system domestic workers in private homes, farm-hands, ranch-hands, and owners of businesses. Employees of non-profit organizations like churches also can obtain credits where the organization and two-thirds of the employees decide on a voluntary basis to participate in the plan.

Every post office has a free booklet giving details as to the length of time a domestic worker must be employed in a household in order to receive credit on her social security account. Household employees should get one of these booklets now. Each county agent and PMA office has material for distribution, explaining which farm-hands and ranch-hands are covered by the plan. Farmers and ranchers can also obtain this information from the Social Security Administration or the Bureau of Internal Revenue.

McNatt emphasized that everybody who is at least 65 years old and has worked as much as one and one-half years in social security employment would do well to inquire immediately about his status. Payments can be made to such a person for any month in which he does not earn more than $50 in social security employment, except that payments cannot begin more than six months before a claim is submitted.

Also, any such person who is at least 75 years old can receive payments even while continuing regular, full-time employment. In some situations the new law allows credit to be given on a worker's social security for the period of his military service in World War II. If the deceased served in World War II, regardless of whether his death occurred in service or after discharge, survivors should contact the Social Security Administration immediately. This should be done even though the deceased did not ever work in social security employment.

If there is a survivor still living who can qualify for monthly payments such as a minor child, widows who have these children in their care, and dependent parents past 65 years of age, it is probable that these military service credits can be allowed. To avoid the possible loss of benefits, the survivors should inquire not later than March 31.

... has long been a custom of the American public, and it's a good custom. Your losses may be hours or years away but meanwhile insurance will give you mental peace that is worth far more than it costs. Loss or no loss, you win either way—with insurance.

Catfish Go For Limburger Cheese In Big Way, Zoology Prof Claims

MINNEAPOLIS, MARCH 8 (UP)—Cheese fanciers aren't the only ones who like limburger—catfish go for it in a big way, too, a University of Minnesota professor said today.

Samuel Eddy, zoology professor, said a freshwater angler who studies the sport scientifically when the forthcoming fishing season gets under way will be able to see that fish have fairly regular habits.

Their actions even can be predicted to some degree—though not usually to the degree most fishermen would hope for, Eddy said.

Catfish have a good sense of smell and are attracted by the order of limburger, he said.

Other fish have different preferences, but most of them fall into some sort of pattern, he said—even including the northern pike, known as a fish that will bite at almost anything that moves.

A shiny piece of hardware zig-zagging through the water often will make a northern pike sit up and take notice. If it's a contrasting color, it's better, because he can see it more clearly, Eddy said.

Both the northern and the muskellunge feed by sight. In murky lakes the bait has to be within a few feet of them. In clearer, northern lakes they can catch sight of it 10 feet away.

Catfish and bullheads are in a different class. If they can taste or smell the bait they'll bite, even on sourdough, worms and liver. Their taste organs are located outside of the mouth, Eddy explained.

Especially intriguing artificial baits—those that move like insects, small fish or crawfish—appeal to wall-eyes, sunfish and crappies, or live bait of any kind.

The wily bass grabs his food "Dagwood style"—on the run. He'll snap up the bait and then swim away before stopping to swallow it.

"Many fishermen lose a good catch because they try to set the hook too soon. They should let the fish run a little," Eddy advised.

Most finicky among fresh water fish are trout. Eddy said they're extremely suspicious of any lures which don't resemble their natural food, but sometimes will bite on "tasty" bait like worms.

Eddy said crappies and sunfish don't start their "working" day until after sun-up. They hunt around for breakfast, until about 10 a.m., then knock-off for an afternoon siesta, rousing themselves just before dark to pick up some more food. Northern pike follow approximately the same schedule.

Wall-eyes, catfish and bullheads are on the "swing shift." They cruise the waters at night looking for their food, coming in to shallow areas. During the day-time, they retreat to deeper waters outside the weeds.

Fight Fans Boo Charles Win Over Walcott

DETROIT, March 8. (UP)—Erzard Charles still had his heavyweight crown today after his decision victory over heroic old Jersey Joe Walcott, but he also had such a badly swollen left ear he will be unable to go through with a planned defense against Joe Louis next month.

The heavyweight champion suffered his ear injury while winning a unanimous 15-round decision over 37-year-old Walcott before 13,852 at Olympia Stadium last night.

Although Erzzard deserves the decision, it was so unpopular with the customers who had paid $75,502 that they booed it for six minutes. And in the dressing room, Jersey Joe complained he had been "robbed."

It was Walcott's fourth unsuccessful bid for the heavyweight crown, but it was an unexpected by magnificent try that Jersey Joe

Oil Tax Hearing

The most complete, point-by-point analysis of the oil and gas operators' share of the state tax burden presented the Legislature in recent years was laid before the House Revenue and Taxation Committee Wednesday night.

As sole spokesman appearing on behalf of the state's oil and gas producers, Andrew M. Howsley, Association General Counsel, gave the Committee statistics which showed that the operators' taxes now provide more than 30 per cent of the revenue raised by state government, contrasted to 11.6 per cent in 1940. He pointed out that if the 1940 ratio between the amount supplied by the oil operators and that furnished by other taxpayers had been maintained through the past decade, the state would today have annual revenue totaling almost one billion dollars.

He pointed out that the cost of government has more than doubled in the 1940-49 period, but the petroleum industry's share in the cost has tripled during that period.

"We do recognize, as do you, that the oil and gas industry is an important segment in the economy of Texas," he said, "but we feel certain that it is not so large as to justify the large share of the financial burden that we have on us for governmental costs."

He called attention to indications that "some rather large economic forces are in play in Texas other than that provided by oil and gas."

In addition to paying roughly one-third of the county ad valorem taxes on state-wide basis and heavy payments in school districts, the industry's state tax bill totaled $108,765,000 last year from these sources:

Policeman Back In The Pink Again - Says He's The "Kilroy of Old"

HADACOL Relieves Lack of Energy When Due to a Lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron

It takes a good man, a man that's really up and at 'em, to help keep an eye on one of the world's largest office buildings. So when Jimmy Kilroy, 1153 Beiden Ave., Chicago, Ill. found himself below par... in a sluggish rundown condition... he turned to today's great HADACOL. He'd heard how this wonderful formula corrected the real cause of such troubles when due to a lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. As a result, he's back in shape again, loaded with energy and enthusiasm.

There's just no doubting an honest, sincere statement like that. Surely there is no need to be a burden to yourself, to your friends, or to your family, if you are suffering from such troubles due to a lack of Vitamins B₁, B₂, Niacin and Iron. HADACOL supplies more than the minimum daily requirements of these elements plus helpful quantities of Phosphorus and Calcium. It really goes to work to build good red blood, better hemoglobin, (when Iron is needed) to make sure that the precious Vitamins and Minerals are speed to every part of the body, to every body organ. HADACOL is quickly absorbed in your system because its important elements are already dissolved in a special liquid form that's easy to take.

Hutton Divorce Turns Into 3 Ring Circus

CUERNAVACA, MEXICO, March 8 (UP)—Attorneys for Wheelworth heiress Barbara Hutton go into court today in an effort to lift a legal protest whereby Barbara's fourth husband Prince Igor Troubetzkoy blocked her attempt to obtain a quickie Mexican divorce.

At the same time the 38-year-old poor little rich girl was reported to be planning a trip to Los Angeles or New York because of the legal maneuvering that was converted her attempt to discard her husband into a three-ring circus.

She has vowed to go to the ends of the earth if necessary to get rid of her man whom she described as the meanest in the world.

Her attorneys, meantime, planned to attack the protest against her divorce suit on grounds that it was not filed properly because the lawyer who presented it did not have the proper power of attorney.

One of the attorneys said Barbara was disgusted with the slow progress in the suit.

'Bom' Arrives in Korea Mar. 5

BY H. D. QUIGG SOMEWHERE IN KOREA, March 8 (UP)—Items stacked like cordwood:

"Bom" has come to Korea. That's the Korean word for spring. According to the Chinese lunar calendar, which most people in this part of the world use, spring is here. It arrived March 5.

"She will continue her efforts to get a divorce, whether in Mexico or any other part of the world until she gets it," one of them said.

The prince, angered by reports that he had set a $3,000,000 price tag on Barbara's freedom, got into the dispute from Paris again with a statement that life would be peaches and cream for him if Barbara only would come home.

"I don't want a divorce and I don't want any money," he said. "I want my wife back. I can't imagine life without her. . . You can tell the world my only interest in life is keeping my wife and having her come back to me willingly."

One of his attorneys said the prince would demand that the divorce action be transferred to London or Paris so he can defend himself.

Miss Hutton filed suit for divorce 10 days ago. Just when Barbara thought she was on the verge of getting her degree, San Francisco attorney Melvin Belli stalled the suit with a telephone legal protest. This and subsequent maneuvering sent Barbara rushing 40 miles from her $800-a-month home here to Mexico City yesterday for a conference with her lawyers.

The magpies are feathering their nests. And the farmers are getting ready for the gambling period. The time which is known in Korea as the gambling period is the monsoon, rainy season.

It usually starts sometime in June and ends in August. The weather during that season usually is so wet that almost everything stops. Farmers can't work. They sit around indoors and spend their time gambling. Mostly with cards, I'm told.

Some wag among the fighting outfits has suggested a campaign to be designed as follows: A white field, similar in shape to the Korean peninsula, on which is superimposed a series of alternating blue arrows—one pointing down, the next up, the next down, the next up.

No matter whether the lunar calendar says it's spring, ice still clings to the banks of streams and floats in chunks in the current.

When you note the temperature of the water, you wonder how Korean pedestrians manage to cross where bridges have been blown. If you watch at such a spot, you soon find out.

The Koreans walk as far as possible on the low bridges. Then they sit down, take off their shoes and roll up their pants. They find a shallow spot at wade, breaking through the slush and ice if necessary.
