Hospital Committee Announces Withdrawal

Americans Withdraw Orderly With Minimum Losses to UN

TOKYO, April 27. (UP)—Chinese Communist forces smashed into the Uijongbu area only 11 miles north of Seoul today and rolled back the Allied line all across the front to the east.

Retreating Allied Forces jammed the highways south from Uijongbu through Seoul. The fall of the South Korean capital appeared near.

An 8th Army spokesman said United Nations forces were "disengaging" from the onrushing Chinese Communist offensive all along the western, west-central and central front.

The Red drive roared down on Seoul in two columns. One was ripping straight down from the north through Uijongbu. A second drive was flooding along the highway from Munsan to the northwest.

The Reds also renewed their six-day-old offensive on the central front. Allied units withdrew in the face of the attack. Front dispatches said one enemy unit was spotted "northwest of Churcheon."

On the eastern front east of Yanggu the Reds hurled new North Korean forces into battle. Heavy fighting was reported going on east of Inje.

Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, commander of the 8th Army, said his forces neither had ended their withdrawal nor established a permanent defense line against the Communist spring offensive.

He vowed to stop the six-day-old assault north of the Han River—30 to 35 miles south of the 38th Parallel—but it was doubted he would fight to save bombed-out Seoul on the north bank. Civilians already were fleeing the former South Korean capital and it has no strategic value.

"We are withdrawing in order," Van Fleet told newsmen at a front-line press conference. "We are taking a tremendous toll of the enemy while ensuring only minimum losses to ourselves."

Parker plans to leave Tuesday for Biloxi, Miss., and the convention of the Association of Railway Claim Agents. He is scheduled to receive a first-place award for an article he wrote on railroad claim work and published in the association's monthly magazine.

Two years ago he was all set to attend a convention to receive another first-place award. But the Fort Worth flood that year wiped out his convention plans.

No Football At Georgetown

GEORGETOWN, April 27 (UP)—Southwestern University's Board of Trustees today announced discontinuance of football for the duration "because of the present emergency."

President W. C. Finch said the action was occasioned by the decrease in enrollment and the draft of male students.

He added that the present intramural program will be expanded and enlarged. Intercollegiate competition will continue in basketball, baseball, track, golf and tennis, Finch said.

Olden Seniors On Annual Trip

Members of the Olden School are on the annual Senior trip, which this year includes Galveston, Houston, San Antonio and Austin. Sponsors accompanying them are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Weaver and Mrs. Wince Graham.

The group left by automobile Thursday and are expected back Saturday.

Going Broke on Ten Cent Fares

BAYTOWN, April 27 (UP)—bus fares in Baytown were cut today.

The city council last night approved a five-cent increase for the bus but kept the student fare at a nickel.

C. Q. Alexander, President of the Tunnel Transit Company, operator of the Baytown Buses, told the council he was going broke on a 10-cent fare.

CHICAGO SURRENDERS TO MacARTHUR—General Douglas MacArthur and his party are shown at the top of the ramp of his plane, The Bataan, a moment after it landed in Chicago. Chicago, the nation's second largest city, surrendered itself completely to give the General one of the lustiest reception in its history. Most business houses, factories and schools were closed so that some 6,000,000 people might welcome MacArthur. (NEA Telephoto)

Illegal Entry Is Threat to United States

WASHINGTON, April 27 (UP)—The Justice Department warned today that hundreds of thousands of Mexicans now entering this country illegally constitute a virtual "invasion."

Commissioner A. R. Mackey of the Department's Immigration and Naturalization service said "the tide of illegal entry from Mexico must be stopped."

"It makes a farce of the immigration laws," he said. "It constitutes a ready avenue for European alien smuggling."

Mackey made the statement in testimony before the House Appropriations Committee made public today. He urged the committee to approve $6,589,400 for the department's border patrol operations next year.

He said the patrol is "our first line of defense against the illegal entry of aliens into the United States."

Assistant commissioner Willard Kelly estimated that the so-called "wet-backs"—wet from swimming or wading the Rio Grande—are now pouring into the United States at the rate of from 500,000 to 600,000 a year.

"They just swarm across," Kelly said. "They do not really need the underground."

He warned that Communists could use the method to "sneak" into this country from Mexico.

Flyer Tells How to Win

AT AN ADVANCED AIRBASE Korea, April 27 (UP)—The aerial battles in "MIG alley" in Korea between our 5th Air Force F-86 Sabrejets and the enemy's Russian-built MIG-15s reaffirm my theory.

A fighter pilot must live by the three A's of aerial combat—aggressiveness, aerial gunnery and air discipline.

By applying these principles and waiting for the enemy to make a mistake, I have destroyed four MIGs, probably destroyed one and damaged four, giving me the lead in my outfit, the fourth Fighter - Interceptor Wing, as well as all other fighter units participating in the war.

The main thing is to see the enemy first and get the initial jump on him. This means altitude on the enemy, greater speed and the maneuverability to get on his tail.

Cisco Singing Slated Sunday

The Fifth Sunday singing Convention of Cisco will meet Sunday, April 29, at the East Baptist Church in Cisco.

Singers and the public are invited to attend.

No New Leads In Murder Case

AMARILLO, April 26 (UP)—Police reported no new lead in the meat cleaver murder of comely Mrs. R. J. Hulen today but were holding her estranged husband in restrictive custody for further questioning.

Police Sgt. Henry Aycock said early today that Hulen was expected to agree to a lie detector test at Austin sometime today.

Mrs. Hulen, about 45, was found murdered in the bedroom of her home at about 10 p.m. Wednesday. Much of her scalp had been torn away and her head severely beaten by a heavy instrument, probably a meat cleaver, police said.

Her nude body was found lying near a bed where she had been taking a "sun bath" under a sunlamp.

Hulen, who reportedly had been separated from his wife for about six weeks, was arrested by officers who found him sitting in a pickup truck outside the bungalow where the murder occurred.

He denied any knowledge of the slaying. Sgt. Aycock said the husband was held after he had been unable to account for about 30 minutes at about the same time Mrs. Hulen was killed.

Episcopal Bishop Here On Sunday

Rev. C. Avery Mason, Episcopal Bishop of Dallas, will make his semi-annual visit to Trinity Episcopal Church in Eastland Sunday, April 29, and will preach the sermon at the service beginning at 11 a.m.

Rev. William Albert, rector of Trinity Church will present a class for confirmation to the Bishop at this service. Also there will be a baptismal service for the children of the parish.

The public is cordially invited to attend the service at Trinity Church and to hear Bishop Mason speak.

Out of Action For the Season

HOUSTON, April 27 (UP)—Outfielder Mel McGaha, who injured his shoulder diving for a fly ball in the 14th inning Wednesday night, will be out for the rest of the season, Club Physician Carl Young said today.

Young said X-ray examinations showed a separation in the left shoulder and that a correction would require an operation.

McGaha was scheduled to leave sometime today for St. Louis where the operation will be performed.

The young outfielder was hurt in the 14th inning of a game between Houston and Shreveport. At first it was thought he was not hurt seriously.

WLL QUIT ARMY AND JOIN MAC

TOKYO, April 27 (UP)—Maj. Gen. Charles Willoughby, for 10 years Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Controversial Intelligence Chief, announced today that he has quit the Army and intends to offer his services to his old boss.

Asked if he had any particular "services" in mind, Willoughby said:

"You bet I have. But I'm not going to tell you now. I have a lot of unfinished business with the Pentagon."

Willoughby announced that he had applied for retirement from the Army after Washington sources reported that he had been "re-called." He submitted his request the day after MacArthur was fired as U. S. and United Nations Supreme Commander, he said.

"I thought I was entitled to retirement after 40 years service in the Army, including the last 13 of them in the Far East without a vacation," Willoughby said. He will reach the compulsory retirement age of 60 next March.

Hearing Today For Sea Captain

MOBILE, Ala., April 27 (UP)—A veteran sea captain was called for a hearing today to answer charges that his negligence led to the explosive collision of two oil tankers in which 39 seamen lost their lives.

The Coast Guard accused both Capt. Edwin G. Geick of Bayonne, N. J., and third mate Jesse A. McLean of Eldorado, Ark., of negligence in the handling of the Esso Suez, which rammed into the Esso Greensboro in the Gulf of Mexico last Friday.

McLean will appear before the board after the hearing on whether Geick's license should be revoked.

Government Control of Colleges Leads to Absolute Dictatorship

DALLAS, April 27 (UP)—Denominational and independent colleges are threatened with extinction because of governmental control, Dr. M. E. Sadler, President of Texas Christian University, said last night.

"Only the most favored non-government colleges and universities have much chance of survival," Sadler told delegates to the 64th Texas State Convention of Christian Churches.

The Fort Worth educator singled out government influence as the major threat to independent institutions. He also cited a decrease in veteran enrollment and the number of high school graduates, the drafting of youths and current high employment.

MacArthur Calls For A Stand

CHICAGO, April 27 (UP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur said in a fighting speech last night that the United Nations and the United States need a "realistic" policy in Korea to achieve a clear-cut victory over Communism.

The General addressed 50,000 persons who assembled in Soldier Field, climaxing a day of celebrations in honor of the ousted Pacific Commander.

"I have believed a realistic policy should fill the long existing vacuum left in the wake of Red China's commitment to war against US—a policy designed to affect the early restoration of peace, through victory, with a consequent saving of countless American lives," he said.

"It is difficult to ask men to fight and die unless we give them a realistic mission and the means to accomplish it."

MacArthur took a slap at "those nations with but token forces in ratio to our own" in Korea who, he said, have failed to help form a "positive" military and political policy for the Far East.

He had been expected to deliver only an innocuous greeting. Instead he made a ringing declaration of the need for a definite stand in the Korean War.

Churchill Calls Off Speech Plans

LONDON, April 27 (UP)—Winston Churchill today canceled his plans to speak at the University of Pennsylvania May 8 because of the British Political crisis.

He said, however, that he looked forward "keenly" to a visit to Philadelphia later.

Churchill's cancellation was disclosed in a letter to Harold Stassen, president of the University of Pennsylvania, which was made public today.

Churchill said he was postponing his trip because "events have happened" since the plans were made.

It was obvious that Churchill referred to recent defections in the cabinet, which have increased Churchill's prospects of toppling the labor government and returning to the post of Prime Minister.

Recalled Airmen Change Positions

ELLINGTON AFB, April 26—"Never mind polling up the area, corporal. Let me do it," the grizzled 20-year-old topkick said.

Fantastic? Maybe, not if the recall of airmen to commissioned status continues to follow this inverted pattern set at Ellington Air Force Base.

Master Sergeant Doy Baxter—recalled as Second Lieutenant. Technical Sergeant Harry T. Hedges—recalled as First Lieutenant.

Staff Sergeant Tor Holtz Grubbe—recalled as Captain. Hedges, the only Texan, is from Olden. The others called Ellington home.

That's as far as it went, but those who would play it safe might do well to lay off the junior non-commissioned officers. The chirping "yardbird" may suddenly let fly with an eagle's scream.

'Task Impossible' With Present Attitude of People Group Says

Members of the Eastland Hospital Committee announced their withdrawal from the task of raising funds for a hospital in Eastland, Thursday.

C. W. Hoffman was chairman of the group with W. B. Pickens and Jack W. Frost as his assistants.

The group in a letter to the citizens of Eastland described the task of raising the necessary funds as "impossible" with the present attitude of the people that "the other fellow" should pay for and build the hospital.

A drive was started on April 9 at which time Hoffman announced that the success or failure of the drive would be determined by May 1.

Sixty percent of the money, the committee reported, was to be raised from contributors who would give $5000 each. A portion of this group agreed to contribute on that basis but several did not feel that they could come on that basis.

The committee also reported that a good cross-section of those in a group which were to be solicited for a smaller amount were contacted and the response indicated less than one-fourth of the amount of money needed (thirty percent) from this group would be given.

The statement of the committee is as follows:

Straw Hat Day In City Saturday

Saturday has been designated as straw hat day in Eastland. Eastland dry goods stores are featuring straw hats on that day, signifying the approaching summertime weather.

Everyone is urged to wear his straw hat Saturday in observance of straw hat day.

Mentally Ill Say Jurors

FORT WORTH, April 27 (UP)—Grand Jurors agreed today that Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Taylor, 30, was mentally ill when she drowned her 3-year-old daughter in a dishpan at home Feb. 12.

Mrs. Taylor who has been under $5,000 bond on a murder charge, was no-billed yesterday by the jury. She was discharged Sunday from a hospital in Galveston, where she had been receiving psychiatric treatment. Doctors there reported she was "no without psychosis."

Mrs. K. C. Bunts Dies In Burleson

Mrs. K. C. Bunts, Burleson, passed away at her home there this morning at 6 a.m. She was the mother of Mrs. O. W. Carville, Ranger. The bakery will close tomorrow because of the death.

Latin Nations Hold Congress

MEXICO CITY, April 27 (UP)—Five Latin American Nations attending the First Tourist Congress of Mexico, Central America and Panama favor establishment of an international tourist visa.

A plenary assembly of the Congress was scheduled to consider a joint resolution recommending the visa by Ecuador, Guatemala, Mexico, Panama and El Salvador.

ROCKET AHEAD With Oldsmobile

Osborne Motor Company, Eastland

TO THE CITIZENS OF EASTLAND:

Your committee on the hospital has been working regularly and diligently upon the matter for more than a month. It has had numerous meetings with citizens of Eastland.

At the outset it was estimated that sixty percent, as a minimum, of the funds for the project must be raised out of a group of contributors who would give $5000.00 each. A portion of this group indicated its willingness to contribute on that basis. However, a sufficient number of the group did not feel that they could come in on the basis indicated.

Aside from this, the committee estimated that a minimum of an additional thirty percent would have to come from contributors below $5000.00 in amount and in excess of $200.00. Of the ones in this group contacted—and there has been a good cross-section—the response was less than one-fourth of the amount of money needed.

We are convinced that, taking the town as a whole, the citizens want a hospital, but they want "the other fellow" to pay for it and to do the job.

A substantial number of people in all groups have indicated willingness to do what they feel they can do. With the exception to make the contributions which they must make in order to make the plan possible. With so many taking the attitude that they should give less and others should give more, it becomes apparent that we are faced with an impossible task, which conceivably might go on for months and months, still with no hope of success. The arithmetic of the matter indicates that it is not possible to pull it over.

Under the circumstances, considering the frame of mind of a large part of the people, we can see no reason for allowing this campaign to drag on and on into the distant future.

Feeling that we have worked consistently and at a great sacrifice of time and effort and that we do not have the cooperation of enough of the citizens to make the campaign further worthwhile, and feeling further that we have done all that we can do in the matter, we hereby withdraw.

Your hospital committee,
C. W. Hoffman
W. B. Pickens
Jack W. Frost

★ THE SCOREBOARD ★ Indians Might Be at Their Best With First All-Negro Outfield

NEW YORK—(NEA)—Al Lopez starts as manager of the Indians with one of those nice baseball problems. What to do with Orestes Minofo? Those closest to the situation say the Cleveland club would be most formidable with the organized game's first all-Negro outfield, Harry Simpson, Larry Doby and Minofo.

The principal dissenters are, of course, holdovers Dale Mitchell, who last trip played 130 games in left field, and Bob Kennedy, who got in 146 in right.

Suitcase Simpson is considered a fixture. Doby is a stickout in center. So, soon Senor Lopez may have to choose between Mitchell's bat and Kennedy's glove and arm.

And Minofo, the Havana Something Special, easily could beat out both. Minofo—27, five 10, 175—was the talk of the Cleveland camp a year ago, before being shipped to San Diego of the Pacific Coast League, where he manufactured 20 home runs and drove in 115 runs batting .339 as a third baseman in 169 games.

Minofo for a time might be a little rough in the outfield or at third base, but he has as much ability as any player of the game, says one close to the Cleveland command.

He has exceptional speed, a remarkable arm, hit .380 on the training trip, led the squad with nine home runs. What does a bloke have to do?

MINOSO is a right-hand batter, which is what the club requires when the other two outfielders hit left-handed. He was Simpson's teammate with the Triple A Padres last season, when the 25-year-old, well-knit Dalton, Ga., lad belted 33 balls out of the park and poked in 156 runs batting .323 in 178 games.

While Simpson had the advantage of the long coast season, he batted in more runs than four Cleveland outfielders combined—Kennedy, Mitchell, Allie Clark and Thurman Tucker, who among them worked in 392 games.

Mitchell has a lifetime batting average of .322, but Kennedy's drops to .258, and neither hits the long ball consistently or bats in enough runs. In the case of Mitchell, not even for a lead-off man.

Simpson, Doby, Minofo, Mitchell or Kennedy, Luke Easter will continue to be the big man of the Cleveland party, however, hitting the ball as far as it is being hit.

A highly-acceptable first baseman now, the gigantic Easter is expected to take his place as one of the great stars of the game.

More Money For Armed Forces

The House of Representatives gave final approval today to a bill on-the-spot unloading of overweight trucks.

The lower chamber voted 97-34 to adopt a conference committee report on the measure by Rep. Jim Lindsey of Texarkana.

The Senate was scheduled to take up the report tomorrow. The House voted to transfer from the appropriations committee a measure re-appropriating money for soil conservation purposes which has not been spent.

A $5,000,000 soil conservation appropriation originally was passed two years ago.

The House approved 63-54 the motion of Rep. Jim Norton of Nacogdoches to transfer the bill considered more favorable to the proposal.

Rep. John A. Warden of McKinney, a member of the appropriations committee, opposed Norton's motion on the ground that the measure should not be considered until after the state's major appropriations have been adopted.

AUSTIN, April 26 (UP)—North Dakota's Attorney General, E. T. Christianson, pledged his support today to Texas Attorney General Price Daniel for holding of the Tidelands.

Christianson said he was "so impressed" by Daniel's reply to a recent federal report of submerged lands he had sent a copy of the reply to Congressmen and Senators from North Dakota.

Christianson said he viewed the controversy as a "battle to deplete the state and local governments of their rights and duties."

He said about six weeks ago an oil boom had started in his state, and he is here to study Texas Oil Laws and Legislation.

WITH WAR COMES ALL MATTER OF THINGS A SILENT CITY, SOFT MUSIC, AND...

By WILLIAM CHAPMAN
United Press Staff Correspondent
SEOUL, KOREA, April 27 (UP)—I found only one light in this entire ghost city last night.

It came from a tiny bonfire built by a British tank crew to brew tea.

Like a magnet, the fire attracted the broken pieces of war—lost soldiers of many nations, silent Korean refugees. They wanted warmth, information or an explanation.

Beyond the firelight, the once-proud South Korean Capital, pre-war home of more than 1,000,000 (M) persons lay in darkness. Thousands shuffled wearily

Wanted Bed For His Kid

HOUSTON, April 27 (UP)—A 20-year-old father, whose six-month-old daughter has had to sleep in a dresser drawer because she didn't have a bed, was caught today, dragging a baby bed from a warehouse where he worked.

Special Agent A. W. Lewis arrested the young father when he saw him lift the bed from a warehouse window and head to his parked automobile nearby. In the car were items as a high chair, bassinet, baby bath table, baby carriage and a kiddy car.

"I took them so I could have my baby with me again," the blond stocky father told newsmen at police headquarters. "My baby—her name is Beverly Mae—is in Lawton, Okla., with my wife's sister," he said. "She's sick and we got a letter from my sister-in-law that she's getting married and can't keep the baby any longer."

"I finally got a job and got my first paycheck yesterday. My wife and I decided she would take the money and go to Oklahoma and get the baby."

"When our baby was here six weeks ago we were broke and living in one room with another couple. They let us live with them and we paid part of the rent. During that time our baby had to sleep in a dresser drawer."

"We were happy because we could go get the baby, but I couldn't bear to think of bringing her here to sleep in a dresser drawer. I couldn't get that off my mind."

Yesterday, he said, he planned to take the things his baby needed from the warehouse. Before he went home last night, he said, he left a window open on the second floor.

Early today, the young father said, he returned to the warehouse after telling his wife that he was taking their 1941 model car downtown to get it greased.

"I went to the warehouse, drove under the window I left open, and climbed in from the top of my car."

Lewis said he was making the rounds when he saw the father dragging the baby bed to the car. No charges have been filed, but police said they expected some would be filed this afternoon.

through the rubble streets, their dark forms illuminated faintly by the glow of battle beyond the mountains to the North.

For the fifth time in 10 months war was knocking on the city gates. But this time—if it came—it could not do much damage. There was virtually nothing left to destroy.

The fire, small as it was, helped me to get my bearings. I had wandered through the maze of ruins with the thousands of others. Most of them just kept moving in a mute, dazed manner. It was to dark to recognize surviving landmarks. Even life-long residents of the city could hardly find their way through the ruins.

There was no electricity. I saw no policemen, not even an M.P. The refugees didn't talk. They padded silently toward the Han River through the darkness.

Somewhere in the blackened ruins, a rifle cracked at intervals. Twice scarlet tracers arched between us and the stars.

Finally, I found the fire. Three Tommies sat beside their worn-out tank named "George" sipping their tea. They pointed to a pontoon bridge across the Han River leading South but invited me first to have "a spot of tea."

The Tommies said poor "George", a Churchill Tank, just tried to do too many miles and "blew her top all at once."

From no apparent direction, a white-garbed Korean grandfather with a wispy white goatee on his time-wrinkled face moved silently to the fire. He bent down beside the tank and held two gnarled hands out to the warmth of the flame.

Two grimy Korean orphans, too timid to approach, stood with towering bundles on their backs. Piteful rags protected their tiny bodies from the night's chill. The Tommies called them over to the fire and gave them each a can of Crations.

Pfc. Frank Huffman of Glade Spring, Va., came over to ask directions. He was driving a truck load of ammunition.

Huffman saw a guitar tied to the tank and could not resist plucking the strings for a moment. Suddenly, on this strange night, the strains of a soft western melody floated over war-wracked Seoul.

Flatter American Women And They Will Come To You

By Elizabeth Toomey
United Press Staff Correspondent
NEW YORK, April 26 (UP)—Stitch up clothes that are more flattering to American women, and the ladies will beat a path to your salon.

That's the theory, and the hope of the young American designers who are struggling to get a foot in the fashion door.

Lawrence Gaines, a 30-year-old former army sergeant who just opened a thickly-carpeted rose and grey penthouse salon, announced optimistically "I don't make clothes, I build them. I planned to be an architect once and that background has helped me tremendously."

Another equally-new name among the style setters, Elliot-Charles, Inc., is headed by youthful Charles Wetmore, whose big hope is to find a way to bring custom designing down to medium income families.

Both of these young men, with luxurious settings several blocks apart in midtown Manhattan, think that styles will not change drastically, but that women will become more insistent on well-cut, comfortable clothes that flatter their figures.

"I'm in favor of a long line that gives a willowy look," Wetmore explained, while his model paraded around the salon wearing a simple oriental printed silk shantung dress with a short sleeved, wide-flaring coat of imported beige silk tweed.

To encourage women unable to afford the usual custom-designed dress, Wetmore announced he'd make some of his original summer designs in simple cotton fabrics, custom fitted, for as low as $60.

Neither young designer has a trace of French accent, though they both admitted they took an important part of their training in salons of famous French designers.

"My first wholesale line will be ready for fall, besides the summer things now in my custom salon," Gaines explained. "A wholesale line is the only practical thing to do when a designer wants to make money. Besides," he added, "why shouldn't more American women have a chance to benefit from the ideas of new designers?"

Gaines accents details of construction, like linen skirts lined with muslin, or Italian silk taffeta lined with nylon net.

His soft tweed skirts are lined with silk chiffon. Linings keep soft fabrics from "sitting out,"
