High School Choir Sings At Lions Meet

The Eastland High School A Capella Choir sang a group of numbers at a meeting of the Eastland Lions club in the fellowship room of the First Methodist Church, Tuesday.

J. P. Kilgore introduced the group as the outstanding high school A Capella choir in the state.

Directed by William Stanley, high school principal and organizer of the group, the choir sang five numbers which were very well received.

Numbers presented on the program were "We Adore Thee Christ Our Lord," "Madame Jeanette," "Charming Bells," "Get Along Home Cindy," and "The Lord Bless You and Keep You."

The choir is rehearsing daily and nightly this week in preparation to a public concert to be given Tuesday night, May 15, at the high school auditorium.

Judge M. S. Long, president of the club, expressed the appreciation of the club for the program and praised the work of Stanley and the group in their accomplishments.

Neil Day gave a report on the Lions district convention held recently. He reported that Orville Shore of Mineral Wells had been elected new district governor and that the convention will be held next year in Brownwood.

The program committee for ladies night and the installation of officers was instructed to contact the incoming district governor and find at what date he can be present at a meeting here.

George I. Lane reported that C. A. Spenser, a soil conservation specialist, would be present May 22 for a program at the noon hour. The club voted to invite the Rotary Club members to meet with them in a joint meeting on that date.

Murder Trial Is Delayed

ANSON, May 9 (UP)—A 300 man special venire reported to 104th District Court here today for the murder trial of William K. Jones, 58-year-old railroad section foreman accused of the Feb. 27 hammer slaying of his wife, Mamie, and 12-year-old daughter, Lela Maude.

Jones pleaded innocent. Attorneys predicted the jury would not be completed until tomorrow.

The State alleges Jones set fire to a room of the family home, then beat his wife and daughter to death with a hammer as they tried to escape. An insanity plea was expected from the defense, which contends Jones went berserk over the expected loss of his railroad job.

Olden Woman To National Convention

Mrs. J. B. Gray of Olden was elected state delegate to the National Federated Press Association Convention to be held in Seattle, Wash., May 30, at a recent meeting in San Antonio.

While at the National Convention Mrs. Gray will write a daily column for a Corpus Christi paper. The convention will last three days and will be at the Benjamin Franklin Hotel in Seattle.

Mrs. Gray has recently returned from San Antonio where she attended Author's Day with such writers as Boyce House, Fred Gipson and Dr. Van Chandler.

While in Seattle, the representatives from the various press associations will be guests in the home of Betty McDonald, author of The Egg and I.

Mrs. Gray's book, "Old Indianola" will compete in the finals June 1 with books of authors from 47 other states. "Old Indianola" won the highest honors that the Texas Women's Press group had to offer for 1950.

Acker was married to Bobbie Jean Grigg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Grigg of Eastland, August 2, 1947. He was a member of the First Baptist Church of Eastland and was an employee of the Texas Electric Service Co. for the past four years.

He and Mrs. Acker made their home in Eastland until he was transferred to Colorado City about a year ago.

Survivors include his wife and small son, Jimmy; and his parents.

Interment was in the Eastland Cemetery with Higginbotham Funeral directors in charge. Pallbearers were: Gene Parker, Joe Boyd and Elton Smith, Colorado City; Walter Payne and Ross Larrymore, Eastland and Sam Taylor, Wink. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Webb furnished special music.

Navy Student Pilot Killed

CORPUS CHRISTI, May 9 (UP)—A Navy student pilot was killed today in the crash of his skyraider fighter plane during take-off from Cabiness Navy Auxiliary Air Base near here.

Name of the pilot was withheld by Navy authorities pending notification of next of kin.

Witnesses said the plane's engine conked out at 7:15 a.m. shortly after the craft had cleared the ground. The pilot attempted to put down but already was past end of the runway.

The plane crashed through a fence bordering the airfield and piled up on open ground. It did not burn.

The pilot was dead when removed from the cockpit.

Bombs May Be Outlawed Here

AUSTIN, May 9 (UP)—Along with slot machines and marble boards, bombs also faced the prospect today of being outlawed in Texas.

A measure making illegal the manufacture, possession or transportation of bombs in the Lone Star state got final passage yesterday in the House of Representatives.

Rep. Edward T. Dicker of Dallas, a city familiar with the underworld's bombs, sponsored the bill.

Dallas Underworld Explosive Hood Gets One-Year Prison Sentence

DALLAS, May 9 (UP)—Dapper Jack Todd, Dallas underworld explosive expert, got a one-year prison sentence and a $1,000 fine yesterday for boarding an airliner with nitroglycerine in his pocket.

Todd's lawyers attempted to show the arrest resulted from a "trap" planned by Dallas racket squad officers.

Todd frequently was questioned about safe-cracking activities, but had only one previous conviction on his record—a five-year suspended sentence for burglary in 1943 in Dallas.

Davidson also denied appeal bond because Todd's defense "warranted no appeal."

Todd, a member of the late Louis Green's "Band of 40 Thieves," was arrested Jan. 19 as he boarded a New York-bound American Airlines plane.

In his overcoat pocket police found an eight-inch stick of jellied nitroglycerine, enough to "blow the plane to bits."

And in his luggage, which already has been placed about the mite caps and 18 inches of fuse. plane, officers found three dynamite sticks, Todd said he was taking the

O'Dwyer's Recall Is Expected

WASHINGTON, May 9 (UP)—Recall of Ambassador William O'Dwyer from Mexico City is expected shortly.

O'Dwyer used to be mayor of New York. His fitness for the No. 1 American diplomatic post in this hemisphere has been questioned since he starred before the Kefauver Crime Committee's television camera last month.

The ex-mayor's reputation was sizzled by exposure of the New York City political tie-in with the underworld. Yesterday the fire came closer to O'Dwyer's feet.

A federal court juror in New York found James J. Moran guilty of perjury. Moran was O'Dwyer's henchman, almost his top favorite. The juror found Moran lied when he denied to Kefauver frequent contacts as O'Dwyer's first deputy fire commissioner with Louis Weber, Brooklyn boss of the policy racket.

POLICE ACTION

WASHINGTON, May 9 (UP)—Action in Korea has claimed the lives of five more Texans and wounded 19, the Department of Defense reported in a casualty list issued today.

The five killed were army men: Pfc. Daniel Casillas, 314 Sherman St., San Antonio, previously reported missing in action; Pfc. Joe W. Harvey, 316 South Main, Bonham, previously reported missing; Pvt. Alva R. Master, 4090 Chenault St., Fort Worth; Pvt. Jack Swift, Jr., Huntsville; and Pvt. Fred Williams, 626 Bowers St., Waco.

Marshall Asked For Hard Facts

WASHINGTON, May 9 (UP)—Defense Secretary George C. Marshall was asked for the "hard facts" today to back his assertion that Russia has the means, and perhaps the intent, to strike in Korea.

This, essentially, is the heart of the Truman Administration's case against former Mayor William O'Dwyer, today awaited sentence on a perjury conviction that resulted from his testimony before Senate Crime Investigators here last March.

A federal jury of seven men and five women deliberated an hour and 53 minutes yesterday to find Moran, former deputy mayor commissioner, guilty of lying under oath when he said a Brooklyn racketeer had visited his office only a few times.

Federal Judge Charles A. Dwey told Moran he would pass sentence at 10 a. m. EDT Friday. Moran faces a maximum sentence of five years' imprisonment and a $2,000 fine.

Mexico Lifts Restrictions

MEXICO CITY, May 9 (UP)—Mexico lifted the last restrictions on cotton exports today.

The Economy Ministry said the embargo was removed because the Foreign Trade Bank has acquired enough fiber to supply Mexican Textile Mills with all the raw material they need.

The ministry also said that recent decrease in cotton prices on the international market placed price levels abroad almost on a par with those with Mexican Quotations.

Mae Plowman is Ladies Day Victor

Mae Plowman was awarded a golf ball for winning the weekly contest at Ladies Day at the Eastland Country Club, Tuesday.

Johnnie Haynes was second. The program for the day was a putting contest. A large group was reported to be present. More ladies are urged to attend the regular Tuesday programs.

Test Is Due On Bankline Well Today

A test is expected today on Bankline Oil Company's No. 12 A. V. Clark which was given hydraulic treatment Monday in the Briggs-Owen pool about five miles northwest of Eastland.

Oil men believed that the well would make a good test run.

Bankline is drilling at about 3,500 feet on the No. 1 Evans Estate, a southern outpost location in the pool. The well was cored and tested to eight feet of Lake Sand and drilling was resumed to test the Ranger lime. The well will be produced from the Lake if nothing shows up with more promise.

Hickok Producing and Development Company is drilling the Silas Hill No. 2, near Cisco, an offset to a recently completed gas well.

Cooper and Hemphill of Cisco have announced the purchase of interests in a lease in the Briggs-Owens field. The operators purchased the interests of J. P. Lohna in a 119 acre oil and gas lease five miles northwest of Eastland in consideration of $150,000.

HB & G Drilling company of Wichita Falls retained one-quarter interest in the lease. Cooper and Hemphill announced that they will proceed immediately to drill up the lease. They are making application for five drilling permits for the tract.

The Lohan et al No. 1 J. S. Hart, a well on the lease, has a reported potential of 800 barrels per day.

Price stabilizer Michael V. DiSalle, hte cattlemen's primary target, claims the cutback will slash beef prices by 9 to 10 cents a pound by Oct. 1, saving housewives $700,000,000 a year.

DiSalle recently ordered, effective today, a 10 per cent cut—about three cents a pound—in the price permitted to be paid for live cattle in stockyards, and fixed dollars-and-cents ceilings on wholesale and retail beef prices.

Glen McCarthy Lashes Out At Administration

PASADENA, May 9 (UP)—Oil millionaire and hotel owner Glenn H. McCarthy lashed out at the present federal administration last night in an address at the 10th anniversary dinner of the Pasadena Lions Club.

McCarthy blamed the government's "vacillating" foreign policy for many ills and referred to his own criticism of the Anglo-American oil treaty, saying "it now appears that Arabian oil will some day be used by Russia against the United States."

McCarthy praised Gen. Douglas MacArthur as a "courageous patriot."

"Gen. Douglas MacArthur has restored the faith of the nation in good old-fashioned patriotism and courage."

Fred Nahas, director of radio station KXYZ, was master of ceremonies.

Search Is Centered Around San Antonio For Bank Robbers

SAN ANTONIO, May 9 (UP)—The search for three bank robbers who yesterday held up the First State Bank of Poteet and escaped with about $1,500 centered in San Antonio today where two of the trio outdistanced a police officer yesterday.

Officers particularly were on the lookout for a light green, 1950 model Ford in which two men, believed to have been the thieves, rode from the home of M. R. Puckett after asking to use his telephone.

Puckett said the two men called a man named "Lawrence" then rode away shortly when the Ford appeared.

Earlier, Patrolman Joe Newman spotted the two suspects at the edge of San Antonio but they outdistanced him after an 85-mile-per-hour chase.

ALL AVAILABLE PLANES ARE THROWN INTO AMERICAN JAB

TOKYO, May 9 (UP)—The greatest U. S. air armada of the Korean war blasted a secret Communist air base just South of the Manchurian border into a flaming inferno today, probably destroying at least half of the 100 enemy jets hidden there.

The 5th Air Force threw 312 planes—every available fighter and fighter-bomber in Japan and Korea—against a camouflaged, coolie-built airfield at Sinuiju in the Northwest corner of Korea.

The 30-minute attack left the whole airfield covered with fires. Red-tinged smoke billowed up three miles or more into the sunny sky. It was the biggest single air strike of the war, and was designed to smash the most dangerous potential enemy challenge yet to American air supremacy over Korea.

Hundreds of Communist troops died under the deluge of bombs, rockets, bullets and flaming jellied gasoline.

"It's a massacre up there," one returning airman said.

The Air Force struck at North Korea while Communist troops fell back to or across the 38th Parallel all along the 100-mile fighting front to the South. The Reds gave up hard-won gains of two weeks ago without a fight.

The 8th Army thrust ahead to points 18 to 20 miles North of Seoul and within 10 miles of the 38th Parallel at the Western end of the line. It already had lifted the siege of Seoul.

An 8th Army communique reported advances of up to three miles Northwest of the former capital during the day. It said a battalion of Red rear guards broke contact and retreated North after a brief skirmish.

Longshoremen Refuse To Load Russian Goods

New York, May 9 (UP)—Fifteen Russian Diplomats who went on a last minute capitalistic shopping spree sailed homeward today, leaving behind on the pier 17 crates of U. S.-made television sets, washing machines, and refrigerators.

Stubborn longshoremen refused to load the Russian purchases aboard the ship when the Russians, all minor officials of the Soviet Embassy, boarded yesterday.

The stevedores spotted the Russian labels on the crates of the choice capitalistic gadgets—all said to be scarce in the Soviet Union—and imposed their emphatic "embargo."

The American workmen, members of the AFL International Longshoremen's Association, spotted the crates near the Liner America on which the Russians were due to sail.

The longshoremen not only refused to load the crates, destined for the Custom House at Moscow, but declined to handle the personal luggage of two Russian officials.

However, they politely offered the use of a hand truck.

Family Buggy Must Pass Exam

AUSTIN, May 9 (UP)—Texas had a new law today requiring the family buggy to pass a state physical examination before being licensed each year.

Gov. Allan Shivers yesterday signed a bill requiring state inspection of brakes, lights, horns, mirrors, windshields and wipers, steering gear and other parts of the automobile.

The measure goes into effect 90 days following adjournment of the 52nd Legislature. The inspection, at a cost to the motorist of $1, would be necessary prior to application for automobile licenses.

NEW YORK, May 9 (UP)—Eddie Cantor, the nation's foremost free-style panhandler, said today that many a local charity drive fails because its chairman doesn't know when to shut up.

Cantor, who has just passed the $400,000,000 mark in fund-raising campaign for every race, color and creed, revealed his personal recipe for extracting money from American pocketbooks painlessly, beginning with a "bottom-your-lip" edict.

THUGS ROB BANK IN PROTEST AND ESCAPE IN HOT AUTO

POTEET, May 9 (UP)—Three bandits robbed the First State Bank of Poteet of approximately $1,500 yesterday at 11 a.m. after being scared away earlier in the day, a bank employee said.

The bank escaped a possible heavier loss because of precautions taken after the early morning "scare," Miss Helen Franklin, the assistant cashier said.

Miss Franklin said the three young men got only the money in her cash till and missed "several thousand dollars" which had been placed in a safe.

Miss Franklin said one of the bank's employees, M. C. Hurley, spotted three men sitting in a blue Buick sedan in front of the bank shortly after the bank opened at 9 a.m. and commented: "That looks funny—those men out there with handkerchiefs around their necks."

She said a customer walked in about that time and that the three men drove away.

Cashier E. O. Mangum then took "most of the money" and placed it in the safe, Miss Franklin said "as a precautionary move."

About 11 a.m., the men returned and one of them walked to Miss Franklin's window and covered her and two other girls at gunpoint, while a second man held a gun on Mangum.

After taking the money from the cash drawer, the three men fled to their car and drove away.

They abandoned the "getaway" car a short distance north of this small Atascosa County town of 2,487 population, and were believed to have driven on toward San Antonio, 29 miles away, in a "light blue 1949 or 1950 Ford sedan."

The getaway car was identified as one stolen in San Antonio May 1.

Negro Rapist Dies In Chair

LAUREL, MISS., May 9 (UP)

Negro Rapist Willie McGee in his bedroom slippers in the state's portable electric chair early yesterday with calm, quiet contrast to the frantic final hours of his six-year fight for life.

The furore which the case created continued even after his death. As the body of the 38-year-old truck driver was being carried from the two-story courtroom, the crowd of some 500 white persons on the lawn cut loose with a series of rebel yells.

McGee, whose case attracted world-wide protests from leftist groups, was convicted three times for raping a white housewife. He was sentenced to death seven times, reprieved six times, but lost his last hour plea for a seventh reprieve to the U. S. Supreme Court.

Among the 100 witnesses to the execution was the husband of the white woman the Negro was thrice convicted of raping here in 1945 in the presence of two of her children.

The "last minute" stays of execution that twice spared McGee's life could not be obtained this

Glass Beads Promote Highway Safety

MANHATTAN, Kan. (UP)—Glass on Kansas highways is saving lives.

The glass isn't in chunks or slivers. It is dropped into white and yellow paint in the shape of beads 1-32 of an inch in diameter.

William Gibson, engineer in the state highway laboratory, said the time although a battery of attorneys in Jackson, New Orleans and Washington worked feverishly to secure it.

All hope was lost last night when Chief Justice Fred M. Vinson of the U. S. Supreme Court refused to grant a reprieve. Earlier in the day, Justices Hugo L. Black and William O. Douglas had refused to intervene.

state is using thousands of gallons of glass annually on the highway markings.

Gibson began experimenting with glass in 1932. The beads worked so well in reflecting the light of automobiles that their use has spread across the nation.

Murder Trial Gets Venire

SAN ANGELO, May 9 (UP)—Murder trial of Jack Rogers, Lamesa fiddle player accused of slaying a policeman, was delayed today by the absence of four defense witnesses.

Defense Attorneys Craig Porter, Glenn Lewis and Howard Barr filed a motion in Judge O. L. Parish's 119th District Court asking a continuance. Examination of prospective jurors was postponed pending the court's ruling.

Rogers, who led a string band in Lamesa, is alleged to have fatally beaten policeman Claude Johnson with a tire tool and Johnson's pistol early March 29, 1950. In Rogers' first trial at Lamesa a jury ordered the death penalty. The decision was reversed when the court of criminal appeals ruled a change of venue should have been allowed.

About 110 members of the special venire reported this morning. Their examination would require about a day, District Attorney Karl Cayton of Lamesa said. Assisting Cayton are Special Prosecutor Calloway Huffaker of Tahoka and San Angelo District Attorney's office.

Women Like To Picture Themselves Warm-Hearted

By Elizabeth Toomey
 United Press Staff Correspondent
 NEW YORK, May 9 (UP)—Fifteen years of producing soap operas have convinced Herb Wolf that women like to think of themselves as warm-hearted, while men they admire are deep-voiced men of decision.

Wolf, who manages to look a youthful 35, in spite of his years of five-day-a-week national problems, cheerfully summed up the feminine psychology he'd been absorbing since he produced his first radio serial, "Hilltop House," in 1936.

"In the first place I'd say that women today are interested in the same kind of plot they were 15 years ago," Wolf said, "although you'll notice more character plots and less action melodrama than there used to be."

Most daily radio program have a woman as the main character, Wolf pointed out, "because women would prefer to identify themselves with the main character. If you have a male lead, you have to have many women in the plot, and the women listeners can't associate themselves with any one of the women."

The ideal soap opera heroine is a warm-hearted woman with a career, according to Wolf, who still produces "Hilltop House" daily over CBS. He admitted he used to puzzle over the fact that women liked for the serial heroines to be working at some kind of career outside their marriage.

"I finally decided it must be because women in our society have been educated to the belief that a woman must do something else besides just run a home," the producer said. "I guess the women listeners take some solace in the fact that the women in the radio dramas who do have a career plus a home don't have a very happy home life as a result."

housewife listeners were described by the producer as "men of decision who at least sound sure of themselves. And they must evidence a sincere interest in the girl. You don't find many like the Clark Gable type who treats a girl rough."

Wolf, a happily-married father with a four-year-old boy, defended the soap opera plots that seem to keep these favorite characters in a constant state of emotional upheaval.

"The troubles don't happen in sequence in real life as they do in the radio serials," he said, "but I think most of the problems do come up in real life sooner or later."

mythical orphanage, so there's plenty of chance to demonstrate child psychology.

"People may laugh at soap operas, especially men," he said defensively. "But the writers of most of them today have a good background in psychology. I'll compare their plots any day with the average magazine fiction."

"EASTLAND TELEGRAM ADVERTISING PAYS! IT SELLS HADACOL IN EASTLAND and EASTLAND COUNTY"
—Sen. Dudley J. LeBlanc

Senator LeBlanc goes on to say: "Without the help of the Eastland Telegram advertising, I could never have achieved and kept up the volume of sales I have in Eastland and Eastland County. With it's help, HADACOL sales have been booming and zooming. I certainly do want to thank the Publisher of the Eastland Telegram of Eastland."

HADACOL KNOWS HOW TO ADVERTISE!

HADACOL, the famous dietary supplement, has, in a very short time, through the advertising genius of Senator LeBlanc, jumped from scratch into a twenty million dollar business in 1950, and will probably sell seventy five million this year. Newspaper advertising, especially in the 'grass roots' sections of the country, has been the backbone of the HADACOL campaign. The Senator has learned that Weekly readers READ their Weeklies, and BUY what they read about! From two column readers to full pages, HADACOL has sold thousands of cases through the powerful, resultful advertising columns of the Weeklies of America!

Almost everyone in this section of the County reads the Eastland Telegram. County correspondents cover news from all over the trade area, which assures a wide reader interest. By advertising through pages of the Telegram, an advertiser is assured that the name of his product is before the people. This paper is helping to sell Hadacol. Therefore we can sell feed, farm implements, building material, paint, clothing, shoes, or a bale of hay. If you haven't advertised in this paper then you aren't doing all you can to sell your product. Try us and see.

Mr. ADVERTISER! Profit by HADACOL'S experience. We sell HADACOL for Senator LeBlanc— WE'LL SELL FOR YOU TOO!
REMEMBER—HADACOL HAS PROVED
Eastland Telegram Advertising Pays!
