Tank Supported Troops Hit Heartbreak Ridge

Around The Square

By Mack

Well, they are breaking us in a hurry. We are already in the toils of the law, and have paid our first fine. We are happy that the judge saw fit to skip the jail sentence, an other unpleasantness at sometime accompany fines. However, we were not very guilty—just a Dollar's worth. The wife herded the family bus into town before she could convert some of her pennies into a pickle she got one of the prettiest pink traffic tickets we have ever seen. As she is not an old offender, an has no police record behind her, we came forward very boldly and shouldered the blame. Just another ticket or two doesn't bother us—we have had them before. In fact we are use to them. If we went thirty days without one we would figure the cops were either sick or falling down on the job. Needless to say, however, we are going to have our old jitney vaccinated. You can do this for a dollar a month and it is much less painful than fines—maybe cheaper in the long run.

We notice painters are busy over at the court house this week. We don't know just how much work they plan to do at this time but we do know that all outside wood work is being given a coat of light canary paint at this time. The building looks a lot better, too.

Word comes to us that the local Coca Cola bottling plant is being enlarged at this time. We think this is a wise move, for if next summer happens to be anything like the past season, it will take a lot of cold liquid to keep us cool. When the plant is complete the capacity will be sufficiently large to guarantee just a little more than a case a day for every man, woman and child in Eastland. And we mean a case of 24 bottles—not a 6-bottle carton.

Economic conditions in this country are probably on par with most Texas counties. Most of us do not have sufficient financial background to enable us to do very much splurging, yet if we keep working and watching it is not very difficult task to keep the wolf from the door. Later in the season it may be found we have a few who do not fare so well. And if and when this is discovered we will be given an opportunity to prove just what kind of Americans we are.

We try to believe politicians when they began buzzing around seeking public office. Apparently they are sincere, an really think they are telling the truth. They want to go to Washington and clean the place up. They make all kinds of promises, an in all probability intend to carry them out, if elected. The sad part is that only a very few are lucky enough to be elected to public office, and they learn upon arrival in Washington that the one great job before them is to keep on being elected. Promises are forgotten, and a new crop of politicians are sprouted for the purpose of bouncing them off the job.

Why right now Harry has a dozen kind of Democrats who are seeking his job, to say nothing of Republicans and others. The entire 57 varieties are out and going like wild fire. No less than 56 of these varieties will be eliminated before they get to first base, and the few who remain, regardless of who is finally chosen, will probably do nothing about it. All we have to do, as voters, is to see that conditions don't get very much worse, and that all known Reds are fired. In fact we think the pinks should go also—we have too many of them on the pay roll right now. And who knows but what Uncle Joe slips them a little spending money of the side?

Science knows more than 1,500 species of fireflies, says the National Geographic Society.

Egyptian Students Rampage; Supporting British Removal

CAIRO, EGYPT, Oct. 10 (UP)—

Two thousand rampaging students wrecked a shop and pillaged vehicles in downtown Cairo today during mass demonstrations for the removal of British troops from the Suez Canal Zone. It was the second and most costly day of demonstrations in support of the government's decision to scrap its 1936 treaty with Britain which permits the British to station troops in the Canal Zone.

Shouting students smashed into the French shop "Air Liquide," set fire to its furniture and hurled office files into the street. Two trucks loaded with bottles of Coca Cola and Pepsi-Cola, American-made soft-drinks, were wrecked and bottles smashed on the pavement before police restored order.

The Nationalist demonstration generally was directed at foreign concerns in Cairo, but the crowd shouted mainly anti-British slogans.

Yesterday, demonstrators smashed windows in Shepherd's Hotel and the offices of Trans World Airlines, an American concern. Ironically, high government sources said that only strong United States initiative could produce an acceptable solution to the dispute with Britain.

They said no proposal will work unless it calls first for the withdrawal of the British troops from Egyptian territory.

The sources maintained that Egypt had sufficient military strength to defend the canal from any attack if the western powers, especially the U.S., provided the arms.

They argued that the U.S. already is providing similar military aid to the Egyptian government.

Bail-Jumping Red Returned To U. S.

LAREDO, Oct. 10 (UP)—

Bail-jumping Communist leader Gus Hall was escorted back into the United States today under heavy guard after his international flight to escape jail ended with his capture in Mexico City. Four plainclothes agents of the U. S. and Mexican governments accompanied the 41-year-old secretary of the U. S. Communist Party.

They took Hall and his luggage from an ancient sedan and led him into the Immigration Office. He was not handcuffed, and he said nothing.

Hall stopped just before entering the Immigration Office and looked back at the International Bridge. Then he entered where Immigration officials waited to interview him.

He was captured in Mexico City Monday night. Hall was wearing a neat brown suit, gray hat and carried an overcoat over his arm.

He crossed the bridge at 3:07 a.m. (CST) after a 750-mile drive along the Pan-American Highway.

Highly placed sources said Egypt will probably accept a defense pact with the west if given arms and permitted to use Egyptian troops for defense of their own land.

New Directors Named By Local Chamber, Tues.

Ballots were sent out several days ago from the chamber of commerce. New directors were to be chosen. All ballots have been returned and were counted yesterday.

Following is the list of new directors who were chosen for three year terms:

H. L. King, Grady Pipkin, Parks Poe, Dr. J. C. Whittington, Bernard Hanna and Henry Pullman. Retiring directors include A. J. Blevins, Jr., E. E. Freyschlag, Carl Johnson, Jack Muirhead, W. E. Payne and K. B. Tanner.

Under this set-up the chamber will always have six directors who have had one or more years experience on the board.

Scrap Tin Press Installed Here By H. Pullman

A new 29,000 pound press has just been installed by the Eastland Iron and Metal Company, of which Henry Pullman is owner. The press will be used in making bales of scrap tin and other scrap metals, purchased by the company. Six men are required to operate the press.

At this time the market is especially high for scrap tin, and Mr. Pullman is urging people to gather up their scrap and bring it in. Old pots, pans and cooking utensils, as well as scrap of the heavier type are wanted. Tin cans are not wanted at this time but will be accepted at a later date.

Not only will this drive aid in cleaning up the city, but will mean some ready cash for workers who salvage it.

Oil Allowable May Be Cut By Commission

BEAUMONT, Oct. 10 (UP)—

The Texas oil allowable for November will be set next week, according to Commission Chairman Olin Culberson. There were indications of a 95,000-barrels-per-day reduction.

A preliminary hearing on the allowable here Tuesday disclosed a difference of opinion between members of the commission and Bruce K. Brown, of the Production Administration for Defense, on the November needs.

In a letter to the commission, Brown said production probably should be increased because of the lost production in Iran. Culberson said, however, that the 3,000,000-barrel increase last week in stocks of crude now above the ground might indicate a cut.

General sentiment among oilmen attending Tuesday's hearing favored a production cut. If the 95,000-barrel reduction is ordered, it would mean a 23-day production period for November, rather than the current 25-day allowable and 24-day average.

Brown told the commission that the U. S. is in a period of peak consumption and "although we approach this period with adequate stocks, it is possible that we may require from this country more than we have anticipated to meet our own demands and for those formerly supplied with Iranian crude from the Abadan refinery."

He said distribution of oil from Abadan is unlikely during the first quarter of 1952. Culberson said the allowable will be set for November next week, and hearings on the December allowable will be held Nov. 15 or 16.

Flood Control Be Discussed At Gatesville

Grady Pipkin, John Osborne, Mrs. W. B. Pickets and H. J. Tanner will represent Eastland at a Soil Conservation and Flood Control meeting in Gatesville, to be held in the high school gymnasium at 1 p.m., Friday.

The purpose of this public hearing is to determine the necessity of flood control in this area and in areas below us. No specific data has been filed or asked for. The necessity for the construction of small dams on the upper watershed will be discussed.

Local Pastor States He Has Not Resigned

Erroneously, a story is being circulated in Eastland that Rev. Truman Walker has resigned and left the city. The story is not true he says.

Rev. Walker is still pastor of the church, though he does do some work each week in Fort Worth, but is always on hand for regular services.

Oklahoma Boy Gets Highest Farmer Award

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 10 (UP)—

The nation's highest award for achievement by a farm boy—that of Star Farmer of America—was held today by a 20-year-old Hereford cattle breeder from Freedom, Okla.

Harold Dewayne Hodgson received a check for $1,000 from the Future Farmers of America Foundation in ceremonies at the 24th Annual FFA Convention here last night.

At the same time, awards of $500 each as Star Farmers of their respective regions were presented. The winners included:

George Williams, 19, Route 1, Nicholasville, Ky., Star Farmer of the central region; Joe Harris, 20, of the Surprise Valley chapter, Eagleville, Calif., Star Farmer of the Pacific Region; and Ralph G. Sanner, 21, Route 2, Kutztown, Pa., Star Farmer of the North Atlantic region.

Hodgson, married and the father of a year old son, defeated 295 candidates for the American Farmer Degree. His net worth was fixed at $30,495.40. He owns a 320-acre farm and in addition operates an additional 255 acres of land in his cattle-breeding project.

Williams works with tobacco, corn, hay, small grain, beef and dairy cattle, sheep and hogs. His net worth was listed at $10,657.50. Harris with a labor income as a Future Farmer, fixed at $18,000, owns a one-third interest in 3,800 acres of land and 719 head of beef cattle. His holdings are valued at just under $60,000.

Sanner, a partner with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Sanner, operates a Fertile, Bucks County, Pa., diversified farm of 225 acres. His net worth is about $9,000.

Legion Gives Financial Aid To Local Band

At a regular meeting of the American Legion, Henry Pullman took the floor and told of the financial circumstances of Eastland's band. The band has been invited to take part in a ceremony at the state fair in Dallas, which is a coveted honor. Mr. Atwood had told Mr. Pullman of the band's plight. It doesn't have enough money for the trip and unless friends contribute approximately one hundred dollars the band will not be able to make the trip.

Upon hearing this the American Legion immediately voted to make a $25.00 donation, and a committee comprised of B. P. Lee, Pat Murphy and Gene Lane was appointed to contact other various organizations in the city in an effort to obtain other donations.

Eastland feels signally honored, by having their band invited, and Mr. Atwood is to be congratulated for his untiring efforts, it is said.

Looks at this time like the band will make the trip.

Mavericks Are Ready For The Ft. Worth Game

The Mavericks uncovered some real fire as they stomped Gorman in a scrimmage here Monday night. Mavericks made 10 or 12 touchdowns and one safety, while Gorman never crossed the line.

The Mavericks will be in high hopes when they meet Diamond Hill in Fort Worth, Thursday night, in their non-district game. The boys feel that their numerous mistakes are being ironed out and that they will soon be rolling in full strength. Some of the injured players are nearly ready for action again, but they will likely be saved until district games start.

Horton Service Station Robbed Monday Night

Burglars entered the Henry Horton service station on East Main Monday night and removed quite a little merchandise, as well as a small amount of cash. Total losses, so far as Mr. Horton could ascertain, was something like $100.

Entrance was made through a rear window, after the burglars broke the lock on the front door only to discover that a night latch there could not be forced. After forcing the window they smashed a middle door and entered the office.

No arrests have been made, as yet.

Ex-Con Wants Back In Jail

OAKLAND, Calif., Oct. 10 (UP)—

A 40-year-old ex-convict "confessed" to the robbery of an Oakland bar, with the explanation that he wanted to return to San Quentin prison "to escape the high cost of living."

Police said the robbery actually took place, but they viewed Harry Gibbs' story with suspicion—seems he made a false confession once before in an effort to escape the inflationary trend.

Operation "Killer" Designed To Stop Fighting On Key Hilltop

By Jack James

United Press Staff Correspondent
8TH ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Korea, Oct. 10 (UP)—

Fifty U. S. tanks and nearly 3,000 infantrymen routed terrorized, Chinese troops in a daring stab eight miles into Communist territory today.

The powerful U. S. 2nd Division task force made its hit-run "killer" raid in an attempt to end the Communists' month-long stand on bloody "Heartbreak Ridge" on the east-central front.

The tanks rolled up the valley west of the ridge with guns blazing, thundered through the tiny village of Mundung, 23 miles north of the 38th Parallel, and pushed on two miles beyond the embattled northernmost peak of "Heartbreak."

The task force returned safely at dusk, leaving death and chaos in its wake. It had struck just as elements of a Chinese army corps 30,000 strong were replacing battered North Korean troops on the west side of the Mundung valley.

Told of the success of the mission during a visit to 2nd Division headquarters, 8th Army commander Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet said:

"I am delighted to hear about it. I hope it will be the end of the 'Heartbreak Ridge' fighting. This is very good medicine to welcome them to the front with intense fire."

In the air, 32 American Thunder jets damaged and probably destroyed two of 25 Communist MIG-15 jet fighters which jumped them over "MIG Alley" in northwest Korea. No American losses were reported.

It was too early to assess the result of the armored raid in the Mundung valley on the fighting on "Heartbreak Ridge."

Latest reports said Communist grenades and small arms fire had stopped cold an assault by the 2nd Division's 23rd Regiment on a small ridge line west of the peak.

However, other 2nd Division infantrymen won two hills west of Mundung valley against only moderate opposition.

A tank-infantry force also struck up Satae valley east of "Heartbreak Ridge" and blasted Communist bunkers and fortified positions before returning to its lines.

The main armored raid jumped off under cover of an early morning fog.

A tank officer said the Reds broke and fled "in every direction" under withering fire from the tanks and supporting infantry. The 76-millimeter guns of the tanks also blasted mountain positions on either side of the valley.

A division briefing officer said Chinese troops also were observed fleeing one mountaintop position, but did not make it clear whether this was on "Heartbreak Ridge."

In an adjacent sector north northwest of Yangju, however, a battalion-sized Communist counter-attack forced United Nations troops to make a slight withdrawal.

An 8th Army communique also reported a battalion-sized enemy counter-attack northwest of Yonchon on the western front, but said it was repulsed without loss of ground.

North northwest of Yonchon, the communique said, attacking UN forces made limited gains during the morning and counted 200 enemy killed in the vicinity of one hill.

On the central front, it said, a UN task force raided the area southeast of Pyongyang, at the apex of the old Communist "Iron Triangle."

The UN command also carried the war to the enemy in the air. B-29 Superfortresses blasted two airfields at Pyongyang, the North Korean capital, with 130,000 of high explosives. They ran into light enemy anti-aircraft fire.

Girl Asks For $450,000 In Damage Suit

STILLWATER, Okla., Oct. 10 (UP)—

An 18-year-old Stillwater girl asked damages of $450,000 from a Tennessee airline president and his son today on charges that the son broke into her apartment and beat her brutally with a pistol butt.

Named in the damage suits were William Stone Stewart, Oklahoma A & M college freshman, and his father, Sidney Stewart, president of the Chicago and Southern Airlines, Memphis, Tenn.

The suits were filed by Eula Mae Leach, secretary in the County Farm Agent's office here, who was severely beaten by a man she described as "tall and terrible looking."

Young Stewart, who is 24 and six feet, eight inches tall, has been charged with assault with a deadly weapon and breaking and entering. He was sent to Central State Hospital, Norman, last night for a 60-day mental examination before trial.

The suits ask $150,000 from young Stewart for personal injuries and another $150,000 for compensatory damages. A third suit asks $150,000 in compensatory damages from the boy's father.

Miss Leach was found in her bloodstained apartment by officers last Friday night after her screams and those of a roommate brought police.

A piece of the handle grip on the pistol used by the assailant was found in Miss Leach's room. Police said it matched the broken grip on one of a number of pistols found in Stewart's room, and that Stewart's fingerprints were found on the girl's window.

Payne County Attorney Max Sater said that young Stewart had been a patient several times in mental institutions.

Arrested And Freed Twice In One Night

Members of the sheriff's department was quite busy Sunday night, but most of their attention was given one man.

It seems that officers raided an Eastland county home, and found entirely too much liquor—approximately seven cases. The alleged owner was arrested and brought into town, only to be released on bond a short time later. Given his freedom the man decided to celebrate, and a few hours later he was arrested a second time on a charge of driving while intoxicated. He was assessed a $76 fine, and again released.

Raft Riders Delay Trip

VICKSBURG, Miss., Oct. 10 (UP)—

The two collegiate couples journeying down the Mississippi River in the raft Lethargia decided to extend their stopover here today until warmer weather.

They said they also decided on the postponement in order to make additional theatre appearances here. They had first scheduled a departure yesterday, but today said they will not leave until tomorrow.

The crew members making the 1860-mile voyage from New Kensington, Pa., to New Orleans are skipper Mary Ellen McCrady, Geraldine Garcia, Don Brown and Milton Borden.

Bail—

(In Washington, the Justice Department announced that Hall would be placed immediately in a federal correctional institution.)

However, deputy sheriff A. C. Canales said he had prepared a third-floor cell in the Webb County jail for Hall.

"As I understand it, he will spend the night there," Canales said. "Of course, the FBI hasn't definitely said that. They aren't talking to nobody."

He was right. Newsmen were not permitted near the Red leader.

"Get it from Washington," one FBI agent snapped in reply to a reporter's question. "They have all the details."

Extra precautions were taken to make sure there was no slipup while Hall was brought across the border.

Officers in cars and on foot patrolled the entire area of the bridge spanning the Rio Grande.

Hall, the fugitive secretary of the U. S. Communist Party who jumped bail with three other convicted Red leaders to escape prison terms, was in custody of two FBI men and Mexican Secret Service agents when he left Mexico City in a special car early yesterday.

The FBI gave curt "no comments" to all queries on Hall's movements. They refused to confirm he would arrive here.

All FBI offices in the state refused to discuss the case. U. S. Commissioner Frank Y. Hill said he was not notified of the impending arrival. Ordinarily, a fugitive must appear before the U. S. Commissioner at the point of entry.

"Nobody has told me anything about it," Hill said. "But in this case, I'm not sure they have to."

The Moscow-trained, 41-year-old Red, who once said he would take up arms against the U. S. if the time were ripe, was seized after he entered Mexico City late Monday night. In the car with him were two men and two women.

Hall was held in Immigration jail briefly, then shuttled into the official car for the run to the international border.

To forestall legal complications on Hall's return, Mexican officials ordered the husky Communist deported to the U.S. for being in a foreign country without immigration papers.

Hall was spotted by Mexican undercover agents stationed on the outskirts of the city as his car entered the capital Monday. He was trailed to an auto court where he was arrested at 11 p.m. on his 41st birthday.

The three other fugitive Communist leaders still are missing. Hall jumped $80,000 bail last July along with Gilbert Green, Henry Winston and Robert Thompson, following their conviction with seven other members of the U. S. Communist Party's Politburo.

U. S. Agents had been watching Mexico City as a possible hiding place for the fugitive party leaders, but until Hall's arrest no positive lead on the missing four had turned up.

There was a report that Thompson had been sighted in Minneapolis late last summer, but he had vanished before authorities could close in.

Hall, born Arvo Mike Halbert Oct. 8, 1910 at Virginia, Minn., went to Russia in 1931 and took a two-year course in Marxist dialectics and Communist tactics.

He was made district organizer of the young Communist League for Minnesota, Wisconsin and Northern Michigan after his return in 1933.

From there he moved to Ohio to do organizational work around Youngstown and later rose to state chairman of the Ohio Communist Party.

In November, 1950, he took over the job of trying to build up the circulation of the faltering Daily Worker—a job he held until he fled.

Hall had a police record of several arrests during his Communist career.
