One of our customers has written in to tell us about America's three great catastrophes. In recognition of the information we quote him. "First the Chicago fire, second the San Francisco earthquake and third and most important and disastrous of all, was the failure of a small haberdashery shop in Independence, Mo." Thanks, sir, you are a most intelligent gentleman.

Kids around Eastland are writing letters to Santa Claus like nobody's business. They don't seem to realize that old Santa knows what a drough is. He can't deliver till the world makes it. His motto, somewhat like ours, does not grow on trees. At this time we have almost a hundred letters on our desk, and quite a few have been published during recent days. However, kiddos, we are not going to let you down. We will make an effort to publish every one of them, and if we fail we will take your letter to old Santa in person. If he is unable to read it, we will read it to him. We can read anything that can be written, whether we understand it or not. We speak a number of languages, but sometimes foreigners are unable to understand us. Our speaking is alright, and what they should do is brush up in their own language. We know the Santa language well, and speak it going and coming. The main word in the alphabet is "emmg" spelled backward. When you learn this you will have mastered one foreign language. Come on with your letters and we will try and publish them.

Wonder what kind of Christmas our boys in Korea will have? The poorest man in America is a capitalist as compared with those boys. All they have is just one life to give, and when that is given, we are afraid they are soon forgotten. Fact is we don't remember them too much as the matter now stands. We will celebrate Christmas in the old fashioned manner—turkey and dressing and most everything else. Maybe they will be able to dodge bullets long enough to gobble down a can of Ration K or some kind of dog food. Those boys are not over there for the fun of it. Most any of them would trade jobs with you and pay boot. They are fighting for you and me, so we might skip a little and see if we can't get some of our Christmas candy over there. They will enjoy those chocolate bars, even if they do have to eat them while they freeze in fox holes. We eat ours by a warm fire, seldom thinking of these boys.

We may pay high taxes, and like a bay steer every time we think about it, but we bet those boys would rather pay taxes than eat Korean bullets. Want to trade places with them? We thought so. And neither do we. However, we have a new resolution for the new year—we are going to work in an effort to see that some of their suffering is alleviated. We are not going to bask in sunshine while they freeze in fox holes, and try to make ourselves believe we are doing all we can, for we are not. Those boys suffer more in one day than some of us do in a life time.

If we have a bunch of warmongers who are responsible for this awful war, lets give them the rush act. Exile them to Korea, put them, and theirs, on front lines, and you will cure the whole group in twenty minutes. They wouldn't be able to take it—just promote it. And hell is going to be full of people a lot better than some of them are.

County Farm Bureau States Group's Aims

There has been quite a bit of activity in Eastland County of the Farm Bureau organization at their own district, state and other conventions.

Some people may wonder just what the Farm Bureau's purpose is as an organization. They advocate the following fifteen points as being their purpose of organization.

1. Fair prices for farm products
2. The right of an individual to work
3. Continued support of the National Farm Program to place farmers on a parity with other groups and conserve soil and other natural resources
4. Favors fair prices at the market place instead of direct government payments to farmers.
5. Reduction of unjustified spreads between producers and consumers.
6. Elimination of overlapping and duplication, and establishing economy, efficiency, and decentralization, in administration of farm programs.
7. Favors expanded foreign trade and continued market research.
8. Support of county agents, experiment stations, schools health work, Land-Grant Colleges, vocational agriculture, soil conservation, rural electrification, Veterans Farm Training Program, and other services to farm people.
9. More and better farm-to-market roads.
10. Support of 4-H Clubs and Future Farmers of America.
11. Adequate farm credit at fair interest rates.
12. Equitable freight rates for Texas and the South.
13. More widespread private ownership and less Government ownership of farm lands.
14. Adequate pay for rural teachers to provide equal educational opportunities for farm children.
15. And other policies and actions to make rural life more attractive.

Air Battles Continue For Eleventh Day Over MIG Alley

8th ARMY HEADQUARTERS, KOREA, Dec. 6 (UP)—Allied planes today destroyed or damaged three Communist jet fighters in "Mig Alley" and knocked out at least 35 enemy artillery positions which have been blasting allied troops.

American Sabrejets shot down one Soviet-built Mig-15 jet fighters, probably destroyed another and damaged a third in three dog-fights on the 11th straight day of jet combat over northwest Korea.

The victory boosted the 5th Air Force's 11-day bag of 22 Migs destroyed, two probably destroyed and 29 damaged.

All UN planes returned safely from the latest dogfights, but one Thunderjet was lost to enemy ground fire in another operation. The plane crashed and burned behind enemy lines with no chance that the pilot survived, the Air Force said.

UN planes attacked Communist artillery positions all along the western front in what the 6th Air Force said was "one of the most successful operations of its kind" of the war.

They destroyed at least 35 enemy field pieces which have been taking a steady toll of allied troops ever since the truce delegates' tentative agreement at Panmunjom on a cease-fire line. Many others were damaged.

"After today," said Air Force briefing officer Maj. C. F. Brown of Tampa, Fla., "There is every indication that our close support should substantially refute the mortar and artillery fire being received by the UN ground forces in this sector."

The planes rained rockets, napalm and 500 and 1,000 pound bombs on the Communist artillery and mortar positions. Brown said the attacks caused an "unaided number" of Communist casualties.

The Communist altogether put more than 100 Migs over Korea during the day, but most avoided combat. Five Red jets were shot down and five damaged in dog-fights yesterday.

On the ground, a small force of Red troops drove the allies from an advance hill position on the east-central front in a 70-minute fight. The allies recaptured the hill in a counter-attack, however.

Communist troops also drove UN forces from an outpost north of Koranppo on the western front Wednesday. Three other small-scale Communist attacks were repulsed Wednesday south of P'yongyang and southeast of Kumsong, both on the central front.

Only patrol skirmishes were reported from the rest of the 145-mile front. However, a briefing officer warned that the Communist jets were "capable of attack at short notice."

Senator Bridges May Be New Floor Leader Of GOP

DALLAS, Dec. 6 (UP)—Sen. Styles Bridges of New Hampshire said last night that he "might" take the post of Republican floor leader in the U. S. Senate if his GOP colleagues agreed he was the "logical choice" for the job.

"I am not a candidate," Bridges said, "but I would accept the post in the interest of party unanimity."

Bridges, whose backers said in Washington yesterday they had enough votes to elect him to the opposition leader's post, was in Dallas to speak to the Salesmanship Club.

The New Hampshire Senator said he already was carrying a "heavy load" and would not seek the position left vacant by the death of Sen. Kenneth Wherry of Nebraska.

He now is top ranking Republican on the Senate Appropriations Committee, Armed Services Committee, Foreign Economic Committee and war Investigating Committee.

He said he probably would keep those posts if named floor leader, but would resign several less important jobs he now holds.

Six Bombers Fly Non-stop From Africa

FORT WORTH, Dec. 6 (UP)—Six giant B-36 "atom" bombers landed at Carswell Air Force Base today at the end of a 5,000 mile non-stop flight from Sisi Silmame, French Morocco.

The sleepy-eyed crews of the big ships said the trip was "uneventful."

The first of the big ships completed the more than 30-hour trip just before midnight and the last was in by 1:45 a.m. They left Africa before midnight Tuesday.

Col. Lewis W. Rohr, deputy commander of the 11th Bombardment Wing, greeted the first pilot to step out of his plane. Crewmen were hustled off to briefing rooms by interrogation officers while still in their flying suits.

The flight bombers left Carswell last Saturday for the non-stop trip to Morocco commanded by Col. Thomas P. Gerrity of Chicago, 11th Bomb Wing commander. Gerrity's plane was one of the last to return today.

Capt. Clement Maloney of Jacksonville, Ill., brought down the first plane to come in. His coversalls were wrinkled and a dark stubble covered his chin.

"I got a little tired," Maloney said, "but I wasn't bad considering how long we were up there. We didn't have any trouble—you might call it an uneventful trip."

Maloney said two of the pilots in the crew stayed at the controls while the third rested. Other crewmen followed his same routine.

Lt. Leonard Andrews, Public Information Officer at the base, said the planes were new "crew-comfort" adaptations of the old style B-36's. Six bunks were available, and a galley.

"Maloney's crew ate four dozen eggs and bacon and french fries to go with them," Andrews said. "Some of them even ate steaks."

S-Sgt. Robert Pielinski of Milwaukee, a radar mechanic, said he had an easy trip.

"It was good," he said. "I had some time off—read a little and slept some." He added, however, that he was glad to get back to his wife and 16-month-old daughter in Fort Worth.

The flight engineer, Capt. David Newton of Napa, Calif., said he was the busiest man on the plane.

"All I have to do is keep up with everything on the ship," he said. "Fuel measurements, instruments and everything. I didn't have much time to sit around."

Planes commanders for the flight were Lt. Col. Paul R. Paskevich of McCook, Ill.; Maj. Alexander L. Mc Clung of Hinton, W. Va.; Capt. Edward C. Barrett of Woodland, N. C.; Maj. Grayson P. Bowers of Frederick, Md.; Capt. Marvin E. Carver of Durham, N. C.; and Maj. Russell M. McKinney of San Antonio.

Nationalist-Red Riots Break Out In Iran Today

TEHRAN, Iran, Dec. 6 (UP)—Three persons were believed killed and at least 200 injured as police and troops broke up riots today between Communists and Nationalist students.

More than 30 of the injured were reported in serious condition. Approximately 20 persons were arrested.

Mobs can riot through the center of Tehran at the height of the clash. Bystanders fled the streets in panic.

Shop windows were smashed and carts and news stands overturned in the center of the capital.

The riot started with a clash of Communist and anti-Communist students in Parliament Square. The Nationalist students waylaid Communists and the fight began and spread.

At Tehran University police swinging their rifle butts smashed a march of young Communists on the university injuring about 20 boys and girls.

Four Texans Die In Light Plane Crash Last Night

BINGER, OKLA., Dec. 6 (UP)—A team of Civil Aeronautics investigators today sought the cause of a light plane crash which killed four Texans near here last night.

The Oklahoma Highway Patrol identified the victims as Claude Bailey Cook, 27; R. G. Bolles, 26, and George Robert Despain, 26, the pilot, all of Plainview, and Guy Carpenter, 31, Lubbock.

The plane crashed and burned in a plowed field near this Caddo County town in Northwestern Oklahoma. One farmer witness said the plane "just seemed to explode in the air."

Weather was believed a possible factor in the crackup as visibility was fogged by a heavy dust storm blown by winds of up to 50 miles per hour.

The men were en route to Plainview from Memphis, Tenn., where they had attended a meeting of the National Cotton Council. They had stopped in Oklahoma City to refuel and taken off at 7:43 p.m. The plane crashed about 9 p.m.

The plane, a Beechcraft Bonanza, was owned by the Hutchinson Air Service of Plainview. At first five persons were believed aboard the plane, but it was later found that Harry Igo, Plainview, who had chartered the plane for the Memphis trip, had made the return flight by Commercial airlines Tuesday night.

The plane's wreckage was scattered over a quarter of a mile area in the blackjack-studded hills five miles east of Binger.

One member of the rescue party, Billie Bryan, Binger, said dismembered pieces of bodies were strewn as much as 400 yards from the ship. Identification was made from the men's billfolds and a letter found in the wreckage. The plane was demolished. Largest pieces found in the area were about the size of a chair.

The crash was reported by Larry McCollum, Binger, who discovered the blazing plane a half mile south of Binger—five miles east of Binger.

Cook was employed as a chemist and Bolles as a salesman for the Plainview Supply Co., Plainview. Carpenter was employed by the Wood Chemical Co., of Lubbock, Despain was a pilot for Hutchinson Air Service.

REDS REFUSE TO DISCUSS EXCHANGE OF PRISONERS

By ARNOLD DIBBLE
United Press Staff Correspondent
PANMUNJOM, KOREA, Dec. 6 (UP)—Communist truce negotiators are using allied war prisoners as hostages in an attempt to extort concessions by "blackmail," the United Nations command charged tonight.

The Reds angrily rejected an allied request to discuss the exchange of war prisoners under an armistice agreement, while the negotiators are still discussing means of enforcing a truce.

North Korean Maj. Gen. Lee Song Cho said that the Reds "will not give any answers about prisoners of war" while the stalemate continues on the truce-enforcement issue.

"Negotiation blackmail," allied spokesman Brig. Gen. William P. Nickols said.

"Those of us at the meeting felt something of the implication of blackmail," briefing officer Lt. Col. Howard Levie said.

It was obvious that the Reds knew the anxiety of Americans over the fate of 10,856 Americans listed as missing in action. The

Clayton Rand Says

MECHANICAL MANIAC
A reader of my pieces in the Beaumont (Texas) Enterprise, writes that blondes are best fortified to resist atomic heat, but accepts the college professor's authority for it, which I quoted, with a grain of salt.

This mother says, "Not only Columbia but Dartmouth, Yale, Harvard, Princeton and Michigan, et cetera, are all tinted pink. This I know because this June my daughter graduated in economics cum laude, at Radcliffe College—Harvard University. A more warped mind on economics I have yet to see. Everything belongs to the state in her idea—she is no daughter of mine with these ideas." It must be a great disappointment for a parent to find her daughter is intellectually illegitimate.

Roosevelt College in Chicago has imported an "economic brain" from England, called a "moniac." "A system of weights and balances regulates the flow (of water) into and out of its tanks," says a description of it, which bears such label as investment, government and consumption. According to Prof. Abba P. Lerner, formerly of London School of Economics, who brought the moniac machine to America, "The machine's great virtue is that it has no intelligence." Pink-tinted water circulates through its veins.

From what the mother writes about her dumb daughter, I reckon it takes no mechanical maniac to register that some ceekeed colleges turn the American economy pink.

First Christian Church Will Honor Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wood Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Wood, pioneer Eastland resident, will be honored by the First Christian Church with open house in celebration of their 60th wedding anniversary from 3 till 5 p.m. Sunday at the Church annex.

They were married December 6, 1891 in the First Christian Church, a rock building long since torn down to erect a modern business building.

Judge D. K. Scott of Cisco, old-time family friend, officiated. Their attendants were the late Miss Lavada Bedford and Judge E. A. Hill. Mr. Wood recalls that the license was a gift from W. C. Bedford, County Clerk, with whom he was employed.

Mrs. Wood recalled that her wedding dress was of a beige light woolen material, probably cashmere, and was beautiful.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood are the parents of two sons, the elder was the late Will Wood of Abilene, and Harry Wood of Eastland.

Their seven grandchildren are Billy Blake Wood, Mrs. Edith Grissom and Miss Janis Wood of Abilene, children of Mr. and Mrs. Will Wood, and Mrs. Vernon B. Roth of Breckenridge, Mrs. Cecil Mayfield, Vernon, Glen Wood of Fort Worth and Miss Naomi Wood of Eastland, student at NTSC at Denton.

Their seven great grandchildren are Jeanie Blake and Danny Wood, Dealma, Pam and Sue Grissom of Abilene, Jane Ann Mayfield of Vernon, and Ronnie Wood of Fort Worth.

Mrs. Wood the former Miss Carrie Day was born in Dallas and moved to Eastland with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Day at the age of four months. She attended the Eastland Schools and was a child of about five years old when the first train arrived in Eastland.

Mr. Wood was born March 10, 1871 at Pirtle. He graduated from the Pirtle Public Schools and attended the academy at Omen, Texas and later the Summer Hill Business College, where he majored in business administration. He came to Eastland March 10, 1890 and has been in the Eastland County Court house most of the time since.

He was elected District Clerk in 1896 and served three terms. He worked for various Abstract businesses and has served the past 16 years as Justice of Peace of precinct one. He has officiated at the marriage of 1600 couples and wishes each the same marriage happiness that he and Mrs. Wood has always had.

Their home is located on the land, and within a block of where she was reared, within a block of where she was married and also within a block of the new home where she went as a bride. She is lovingly known throughout Eastland County as Aunt Carrie and has spent a life time caring for the sick and needy of Eastland.

Mr. Wood suffered a heart attack last March and has been confined to his home since that time. Mrs. Wood's health is impaired and the two are at home most of the time now, but they have many visitors, who always come away from having visited them with a feeling that "life isn't so bad" as some people think it is.

Mr. Wood is still called on to officiate at weddings the latest one this week, he either sits on his bed or his wheel chair and gives much more than his J. P. fee calls for.

Mr. Wood originated the idea of placing "Old Rip" Eastland's famous horned toad in the corner stone of the Eastland County Courthouse built in 1897. "Old Rip's" body, embalmed, lies in state in the new courthouse.

All friends are invited to the reception, no invitations are being mailed the committee chairman said.

Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Carpenter made a business trip to Brownwood Wednesday.

Jimmy Bartholomy, young son of Mrs. Merle Bartholomy returned to school today after a seige of mumps for the past couple of weeks.

Tietelbaum and Mrs. Shyri Menkin on the one hand, and Frank Nathan on the other.
"It is quite obvious that in the past 24 hours one or more persons have perjured themselves before this subcommittee," chairman Cecil R. Knig (D-Cal.) said late yesterday.
Rep. John W. Brynes, a subcommittee member commented after Nathan's detailed contradiction of Tietelbaum's testimony that "somebody is lying." The Wisconsin Republican demanded that the testimony be turned over to the Justice Department, and King said this would be done.
Tietelbaum, Chicago attorney, who once represented the late

Al Capone, testified he was the victim of the shakedown attempt by Nathan and Bert K. Naster, Hollywood, Fla. He said the two men demanded $500,000 to settle his tax troubles.
Nathan, promoter, gambler and "influence peddler" who operates in Miami, Washington and New York, called Tietelbaum's story a "dirty, filthy lie." Naster, who claimed he knew nothing about the alleged shakedown, said he would fly here from Hollywood today or tomorrow to deny Tietelbaum's story under oath.
As the subcommittee resumed its investigation today (at 10:30 a.m. EST), there were these other developments:
1. Charles Olphant, who resigned yesterday from his $14,800-a-year post as chief counsel of the Internal Revenue Bureau, was assured an early hearing by the subcommittee, perhaps tomorrow. Olphant quit with a blast at the subcommittee for hearing what he called "fantastic and irresponsible" testimony by Tietelbaum linking him to the alleged shakedown plot.
(The White House announced in Key West, Fla., that President Truman has not received Olphant's resignation, but will accept it when it is delivered. A spokesman said Mr. Truman will make no public reply to Olphant's letter. The president has a policy of ignoring letters made public before he receives them.)
2. T. Lamar Caudle, ousted by President Truman as the government's chief tax prosecutor, also was assured a chance to describe his friendly relations with Nathan. Nathan and other witnesses have testified about the former assistant attorney general's warm personal regard for Nathan.

3. A man identified as Henry Grunewald was sought for questioning. Nathan said Grunewald had told him about "an FHA phant listed a $1,300 debt to an (Federal Housing Administration) 'H. Grunewald' in a statement of his net worth which he gave reporters."
The New Safety Responsibility Law—
... was enacted to protect the public from careless, irresponsible owners or operators of motor vehicles. The law is designed to restrict the operation of automobiles to those who are financially able to pay for bodily injuries, death or property damage which their automobiles may cause. To meet the financial requirements of this law we recommend automobile liability insurance. It's safe, convenient, sure. Call us today for full particulars. No obligation.

Honey Industry Grows In Texas

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 6 (Spl.)—The honey industry in Texas is a whopping business. "We are approaching the two million dollar mark gross income from honey in Texas," John F. Nelson of Corsicana, said today at a meeting of the American Bee Breeders Assn. meeting at Texas A&M College.

Mr. Nelson, a honey producer, pointed out that there are approximately 300,000 colonies of bees in Texas, representing 800 beekeepers. "The farmers are benefited many more millions by this industry by pollination of their various crops," he said.

"Texas bee men export approximately $100,000 worth of queen bees and a like amount of package bees to northern states yearly," he said. Minnesota is one of the biggest users of Texas bees, Nelson declared. Largest honey area in Texas is in the blackland belt, around Paris, Greenville, Waxahachie, Dallas, Temple, Corsicana and on down as far as Austin, according to Nelson.

The beekeepers attending the meeting at A&M were from the southern states and their principal business was to discuss ways and means of developing strains of bees to meet the conditions in their various areas.

The two-day meeting closed Tuesday evening with about 100 in attendance.

J. C. Penney Company Authorizes Special Payment For Associates

The board of directors of J. C. Penney Company have authorized a special year-end payment of an amount equal to two weeks' pay for all full-time associates who have been employed for the full year of 1951 and proportionate amounts for extra and part-time associates and those employed less than a year.

All Penney associates except management staff members, whose earnings are determined largely by the Company's long-standing profit-sharing plan, will share in the payment. It will be made on December 15 at each associate's December 15 pay rate.

Clyde Young, manager of the J. C. Penney Company store, said that more than 50,000 Penney associates throughout the United States would participate in the payment, including 8 of the Eastland store.

He said the Company president, A. W. Hughes in a letter to store associates, pointed out that the payment was "based upon the results attained for 1951. An extra payment of this sort for a Company of our size represents a very large amount. The possibility of similar payments in future years will continue to depend upon the results attained in those years." Mr. Hughes added:

"We are happy that the Company is able to recognize associates' efforts in this special, substantial manner in addition to the regular Company provisions for associates' benefit, which include the Sick Benefit Plan the Gratuities Death and Disbursement Benefit Plan the Thrift and Profit-Sharing Retirement Plan and others."

TODAY'S SPORTRAIT

By Ed Feinen
United Press Sports Writer

NIAGARA FALLS, N.Y., Dec. 7 (UP)—When it comes to basketball coaches, John J. (Taps) Gallagher is one of the busiest as well as one of the best.

This tall, curly-haired, soft-spoken ex-St. John's star is a human dynamo once the season starts. He's constantly on the move.

For most men, the dual role of athletic director and basketball coach would be all they could handle. But not Gallagher. He does his own scouting. When his own team is not playing, Gallagher is enroute to some distant auditorium where, tucked away in a remote corner, he will make pages of notes, diagrams and weaknesses that usually spell disaster for a future opponent.

"I average about three or four scouting trips a week," Gallagher acknowledged with a smile. "I worry more about making train connections now that I do about my team's chances to win."

Any fears the 47-year-old Gallagher might have about Niagara not winning a majority of its games are entirely unfounded. This happened only once in his 20-year reign at the western New York school—and that was 13 years ago.

Actually, Gallagher has led Niagara through only 17 seasons since he took over in 1931. For three years during World War II he served as a lieutenant commander in the U. S. Navy.

His record is enviable—259 victories against 125 defeats—eight times western New York's Little Three champion—and a long string of outstanding successes in Madison Square Garden.

Gallagher, who was a three-sports athlete at St. John's of Brooklyn for four years, takes particular delight in knocking off vaunted metropolitan rivals in his yearling invasion of the Garden. Last season's stunning 77-75 overtime victory over St. John's fine quintet was one of his greatest thrills.

Gallagher believes in giving the spectators a show for their money when his team plays, and he can become incensed when a riv-

Youngster Begins 50 Year Sentence

KNOXVILLE, Ia., Dec. 6 (UP)—A 15-year-old boy today began a penitentiary sentence of 50 years for killing a hunter, then rifling his pockets to buy a bracelet for a girl he had never dated.

Robert Weldon was sentenced yesterday after he pleaded guilty to the slaying of George Lister, 67, Des Moines, Ia., on Oct. 31 near Knoxville.

The youth was arrested in a high school classroom three days after the killing. He confessed shooting Lister then going through the dead man's pockets and taking $70. He spent the money for a jacket and he also bought a bracelet for a girl he admired but never dated.

al fails to cooperate. This was best shown in November, 1946, when Oswego State played Niagara on the latter's home court. Oswego went into a shell in the second quarter, refusing to abandon a tight three-two defense set up directly in front of their basket.

His blue eyes flashing, Gallagher ordered his players to just stand and hold the ball until Oswego decided to make a game of it. A deliberate stalemate resulted and for a full 25 minutes neither team moved. Two Niagara guards stood in backcourt holding the ball and chatted. Time ran out with the stalemate still in effect and Niagara ahead, 20-12.

Southwest Conference To Assemble

DALLAS, Dec. 6 (UP)—Preliminary sessions of the annual Southwest Conference winter meeting get underway here tonight when the loop's athletic directors gather to discuss problems peculiar to their positions.

The athletic directors have no vote on conference matters, but any recommendations they make usually carry a great deal of weight with the faculty representatives. That governing body opens its meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Conference coaches join in the parleys tomorrow morning and the meeting closes Saturday morning with final sessions by the faculty committee. No announcement of decisions by that group was expected until its meeting closes about noon Saturday.

High on the agenda is a discussion of the NCAA's 12-point de-emphasis program concerning college athletics, particularly those points relating to post-season games, out-of-season practice and the free substitution rule.

Schoolboy To Serve 90 Day Jail Sentence

RED WING, Minn., Dec. 6 (UP)—Eighteen-year-old James Webberg starts serving 90 nights, school holidays, and 13 weekends in the county jail today.

It all came about after he admitted punching 15-year-old Robert Shumway, Northfield, Minn., "just once" after a high school football game Oct. 26.

Webberg was sentenced to a 90-day term yesterday after pleading guilty to third degree assault.

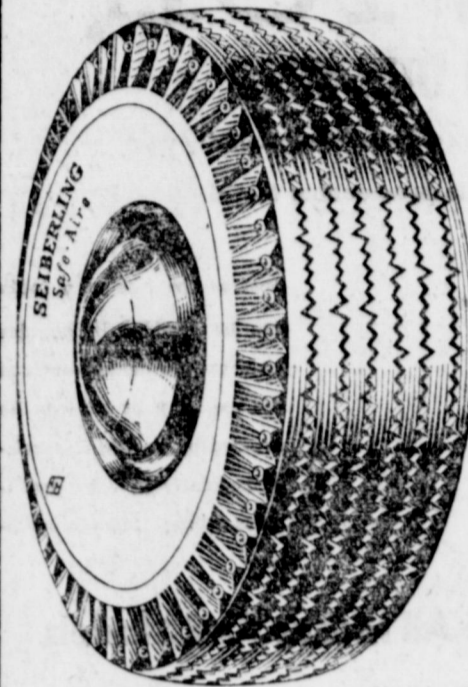

Municipal Judge Elmer Tomfohr told the youth he could leave the jail to go to school, but must come back as soon as the school day is over.

Island Volcano Erupts Again

MANILA, P. I., Dec. 6 (UP)—Mt. Hibok Hibok, which already has taken an unofficial toll of 500 lives with two eruptions of volcanic ash and flaming rocks, belched forth another mass of flame and ash today.

The volcano on Camiguin Island, 500 miles south of here, erupted for the third time this week, blasting out a new vent in the mountain side.
