To be a good musician one must of necessity be an optimist. We discoverd this fact Saturday as we watched high school band players usher old Santa Claus into town. We felt sorry for those kids for they were puting on a double fight. One fight was to put out the music, the other was to try and keep from freezing. Many of them won both battles, though some of them are still wrapped in blankets and wondering if they are ever to thaw out.

Old Santa was pretty active, despite his age, and during the course of an hour managed to get rid of several hundred sticks of
