Country Club Boasts It's Good Golf Course; Outsiders Invited To Visit Club And Enjoy Golf

Lakeside Country club in Eastland is attracting considerable attention in this area, and so far as we know the reason for this is that the club has one of the best whole golf courses in West Texas.

The club has been in existence for some years, though it was not until March, 1950, that it was incorporated and began taking its place with other clubs over the area. The club was incorporated for $7,500, representing 150 shares at $50.00 each. Don Hill was the club's first president, while Hubert Westfall served as vice-president, J. Ross Rucker, secretary and J. T. Cooper, treasurer.

Officers at the present time include Gordon Smith, president, Jack Chamberlain vice-president, Joe Sparks, secretary and Hubert Westfall, treasurer.

Holdings of the club at this time are far superior to those of a few years ago. At that time there was only one small building and a little space of land. Today the club has control of 68 acres of land, leased from the city, the original building, now used as a multiple-purpose building, and a new 24 by 40 club building donated by Jack Chamberlain last year. Locker rooms are now provided for both men and women.

The Quarterback club is to be given due credit for the Country club, as it was sponsored by them. Labor for all building, including greens, was donated by public spirited citizens of Eastland. Ringland Lake is now club property, and it is of sufficient size to care for all their water needs.

Eastland is known far and wide for its bent grass greens, and steps are underway at this time to make other improvements. The planting of bermuda grass around and in front of the greens for a hundred yards or more, as well as all fairways, is the next project. This will not only add to its attractiveness, but will enhance its value as a golf course.

It might be hard to arrive at a correct figure so far as the physical value of the club is concerned, though in all probability it would take considerably more than $15,000 to replace it.

Not only is the club enjoyed by the men, but women are now taking a very active part. No less than 41 ladies of the city hold membership in the Woman's Golf Auxiliary, and some of them are more enthusiastic golf fans than the men.

Eastland has been fortunate in having John Lively as their pro. Mr. Lively is a real golfer and has been instrumental in teaching local players the game. He is from Mineral Wells, but spent more than 2 years in Weatherford as assistant before coming to Eastland to fill the post he now holds. He is married and he and his wife have three boys.

In conversation with president Gordon Smith, we learned that this is Eastland's club. Whether

Grimes Bros. To Stage Big Show; Free Admission

Grimes Bros., local International Harvester dealers in connection with the International Harvester Co., are sponsoring a big stage show at the Eastland high school auditorium, Monday night, February 4th, at 7:30 in the evening.

Mr. Grimes insists that this is not to be compared with the ordinary 1-reel commercial that is usually shown by various companies and individuals. This is a real show, and one that will entertain both young and old. It is a big stage show, plus new color movies featuring education, travel and comedy pictures. "Everybody likes a good party, and we are having one for our friends and customers. And there won't be any selling," he says.

It will be worth miles coming to see. Bring the whole family and enjoy the evening. It's all free, and nothing but entertainment.

Mystery Car Puzzle May Be Explained

LANCASTER, Calif., Feb. 2 (UP)—The mysterious disappearance of George Emerson Houser, 29, of nearby Rosamond, whose blood-spattered car was found abandoned in Ft. Worth, was explained today.

Houser's brother, Alfred, told police he received a letter from his brother yesterday which stated the missing man was in the Marine Corps at Parris Island, S. C.

In the letter Houser said he picked up two hitch-hikers who offered him a drink.

"The next thing I knew," he wrote, "I was in Needles, Calif., without my car and money."

He added that he enlisted in the Marine Corps under the name of Larry Rhodes, but did not explain the assumed name.

Los Angeles sheriff's deputies reported FBI agents were on their way to Parris Island to question the letter sender. The deputies said there still were "many questions surrounding the case."

Communist Paper Reprints Hoover Speech On Arms

MOSCOW, Feb. 2 (UP)—Pravda, official Soviet Communist Party newspaper, said today a recent speech by former U. S. President Herbert Hoover indicated a growing disaffection among the American people "with the present aggressive policy of the United States."

The newspaper published today the full text of Mr. Hoover's Sunday night address calling for the withdrawal of American combat troops from Europe and establishment of strong air bases there instead.

In a two-column front page editorial, Pravda said:

"If even politicians like Hoover are compelled again and again to make such warnings then it is clear that in the American people there ripens a profound dissatisfaction with the present aggressive policy of the United States characterized by unbridled imperialistic aspirations for world domination."

Good Investment

There are 120 members of the band, and each individual is considered as "cream" of the state. They have passed from one contest to another until the final goal was reached—the All-State Band.

Three members of T. R. Atwood's High School Band in Eastland have been chosen for this high honor and will appear on the various programs. They include Don Smith, Oboe; Richard Jones, clarinet and Patsy Atwood, flute.

These young musicians will work under such nationally famous musicians as Charles B. Richter of the University of Iowa, and Raymond Dvorak of the University of Wisconsin.

Band, orchestra and choral music will be heard Friday night at convention hall in Mineral Wells. Program will begin at 8:15 p.m. Those in this area who enjoy good music are invited to attend, and according to Mr. Atwood there will likely be no charge.

During the 4-day meeting there will be many vocalists and instrumental players on the program.

Arab Shops Close To Protect Trial Of Nationalists

TUNIS, Tunisia, Feb. 8 (UP)—Arab shops closed today in protest against the trial of six women Nationalists and against alleged looting by French forces in mopping up terrorists in the Cape Bon Peninsula area.

The shop closing followed a 24-hour general strike yesterday. The French charged that the six women threw stones through shop windows during demonstrations last week.

Tunisian Premier Mahomed Chenik sent a special envoy to the Cape Bon Peninsula to investigate allegations that French forces looted an Arab village during their clean-up.

Senator's Say Appointment Was Too Little And Also Was Too Late

By Warren Duffee
United Press Staff Correspondent
WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (UP)—Two Republican Senators today criticized appointment of Newbold Morris to head the government cleanup campaign because he is involved in a Senate investigation of surplus tanker deals.

Sen. Karl F. Mundt said "it would be much better if a man were selected who could devote his full time to investigating corruption and not have to spend part of it being investigated in another case."

"It is a big unfortunate," the South Dakota Republican said, "that the president selected to head his corruption cleanup squad a man whose name has been linked with the elements now under investigation."

The Senate's Permanent Investigating Committee is looking into reports that a firm headed by former Rep. Joseph E. Casey (D-Mass.) made a quick $2,800,000 profit by buying surplus tankers from the government and reselling them under favorable tax conditions.

There have been no charges that Morris profited on the tanker deals. However, chairman Clyde R. Hoey (D-N.C.) said Morris figures in the inquiry by the investigating group.

The committee plans to begin public hearings on the tanker deals soon. Hoey said he did not know whether Morris would be called to testify.

Morris, New York Republican attorney, is president and a trustee of the China International Foundation, Inc., owner of all common stock of the United Tanker Corp.

The latter firm acquired three surplus tankers from Casey's company and transferred them to the non-profit Chinese educational organization as a gift.

Attorney General J. Howard McGrath, himself under Republican fire, announced Morris' appointment yesterday. Morris said his first move will be to investigate the Justice Department, and McGrath pledged his "complete, enthusiastic and unlimited cooperation."

However, Sen. Richard M. Nixon (R-Cal.), like Mundt a member of the Hoey committee, said the appointment of Morris was "too little and too late."

"His too little and McGrath is too late," Nixon said. "I don't see how the Justice Department can investigate itself."

Olden Wins Two Games Strawn; Meet Porkers

Olden Hornets went to Strawn Friday night and took a couple of fast games from the greyhounds.

Coach Hillard's girls found the basket the easy way, rolling up 44 points. Edward dropped in 18 points for scoring honors for the Hornets, followed closely by Harrell for 17 points, while Cagle playing a neat game and turned in sufficient points for a win. Final score, Olden 44 and Strawn 13.

Coach Weaver's boys after feeling out the court got underway to take a win of 41 to 21. Capt. (Dutchman) Rowch made 18 points for scoring honors, followed by Lindsey with 11. James (Rusty) Horn played a very neat floor game for the Hornets.

Hornet fans, notice and mark this date on your calendar—Tuesday, February 5th, when Desdemona Porkers will move in on the Hornets for a couple of games. The Porkers will bring a strong Club, with a desire to win over the Hornets, as both Porkers and Hornets are heavy contenders for the district honors in the finals.

Four Are Known Dead In Coal Mine Explosion

MT. PLEASANT, Pa., Feb. 2 (UP)—An explosion deep within the Carpentertown Coal and Coke Co. mine near here today killed at least five men and injured four others.

One man was missing.

Officials said the blast, believed to have been "fairly deep in the mine," occurred in a "three-room" section where 10 men were working. They said other miners working nearby told them it was apparently confined to a small space because they "didn't even hear it." Residents nearby said they heard nothing.

Mt. Pleasant Police Chief Geo. W. Snyder said he knew of "at least four dead and possibly more." The names of the dead were not immediately available.

The injured were all taken to Frick Memorial Hospital here.

Christmas Came Late For This Detroit Family

DETROIT, Feb. 2 (UP)—It was time to take down the Christmas tree today at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Gravelle today—Christmas had finally come and gone.

Their 14-year-old son, Army Pfc. George Gravelle, was due home on rotation in December. But on Christmas day he still was driving a tank in Korea. His parents decided they would just postpone Christmas until he got home.

When George walked in yesterday he found the tree ablaze with lights. Under it were his presents—a pair of slippers and a leather traveling kit. A Christmas turkey was in the oven.

"At first I didn't know what was coming off," George said. "It sure made me feel good."

POTPOURRI AND WORSE

By Major Hoopie McCorkle Telegram Philosopher

Now that we have a new weather prophet in Eastland, it is likely we will have a good rain. The man is new on the job, and as a rule a new broom sweeps clean. J. O. Ernest is the new prophet, and he has been in West Texas long enough to avoid such things as weather forecasting. But as he made a rather pleasing prophecy we are willing to forgive him. He predicted rain before Monday night. Ben Hammer called his bluff and asked for an explanation. Fact is Ben bet him a dollar it didn't rain and J. O. called it.

Seems Mr. Ernest has just made a visit to South Texas or some other foreign sea port, and while returning home he saw a dry land terrapin climbing a tall tree. Ben asked why a terrapin would climb a tree, and Ernest explained that there was a water faucet at the top of the tree and that the terrapin had gone up to open it. As we have gone out of the weather business we shall offer no comment, but let you be your own judge. We do hope it is a good sign and that it works.

A question is now being asked all over the country, and will soon be hotly debated in various state legislatures, as to whether names of people on relief should be published in local newspapers. In a straw poll 62 per cent said no, 26 per cent, yes and 10 per cent did not know.

A doctor in Philadelphia: "No. Don't publicize misery. Use closer screening to avoid fraud."

Bradford Jones of Boston: "Yes, stop the racket. We've enough rackets under Truman and his gang."

A Pasadena woman: "No. Relief should be in the spirit of gift."

Missouri minister: "No. We stopped it in church because it offended people."

Minneapolis citizen: "Certainly. Too much chiseling going on."

From Cleveland, Ohio: "No. Some people have to go on relief even though they do not want to. It's very cruel to publicize it."

So far as we are concerned both are right. We do have chiselers who prefer "relief" to work. This group should be weeded out and even punished. Then we have unfortunates, who, through no choice of their own, find themselves wards of the state. This group should not be publicized.

If we might have honest public officials most of these grafters would be scratched off the list, but so long as we have politicians mixed up with relief and old age pensions we are going to have trouble.

DOLLARS and SENSE in FARMING

Feeds Pulletts for Fast Growth

ROBARDO, KY.—Charles Bronson is another Southern poultry keeper who has found it pays to feed his pullets for fast, full growth. He started 1,000 in the spring.

After feeding 2 pounds Startena for about 5 weeks, he separated the cockerels and pullets. Cockerels were fed out on Broiler Chow, made especially to grow pump meat birds at low cost. He advertised and sold them right at the farm for 46¢ a pound.

"I fed the pullets on Growena Checker-Etts," said this money-making farmer. "Man, you should have seen 'em grow. I only lost 21 out of the whole 1,000 chicks started!"

There were 575 pullets, and production began to zoom early in the fall. By the time they hit peak production, Bronson had culled down to 525 birds. For 60 days, hard running, they laid over 450 eggs a day.

At the end of the year, he figured what he took in from eggs, broilers, and cull hens. Then he subtracted his cost for Starting Growena and Laying Chows (plus grain for the hens). He found he had made a profit of more than $4 per hen for the year.

Is he growing his pullets on same program again this year? "You bet I am," says Bronson. "Give me full development every time."

Famous Singer Gives Her Last Show In N. Y.

NEW YORK, Feb. 2 (UP)—Acclaimed by many as the greatest Wagnerian soprano of this generation, Kirsten Flagstad ended her Carnegie Hall concert last night with the announcement that it was her last recital in New York.

The 56-year-old Norwegian star of the Metropolitan Opera made the announcement with tears in her eyes as the audience shouted "no, no!"

Miss Flagstad previously had announced that she was through with opera as well as concert singing, but Rudolf Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan, persuaded her to reconsider.

OUR DEMOCRACY — by Mat

As a very important source of strength and security, cherish public credit... Use it as sparingly as possible, avoiding occasions of expense by cultivating peace, but remembering also that timely disbursements to prepare for danger frequently prevent much greater disbursements to repel it—avoiding likewise the accumulation of debt... not ungenerously throwing upon posterity the burden which we ourselves ought to bear. —GEORGE WASHINGTON (FAREWELL ADDRESS)

Fanatics Throw Eggs, Tomatoes At UN Meeting

PARIS, Feb. 2 (UP)—Demonstrators calling themselves "The Association of Anarchists" showed the United Nations General Assembly with raw eggs and tomatoes just as it adjourned this afternoon.

Half a dozen "Anarchists" stationed in the broad gallery overlooking the underground theatre in the Palais de Chaillot, the U. N. meeting place, started throwing pamphlets, eggs and tomatoes at the delegates as they adjourned.

The meeting broke up in confusion. French police rushed into the gallery to seize the demonstrators.

The bombardment of eggs was the first incident of the sort at a UN Assembly meeting.

The pamphlets, printed on small slips of cheap white paper, said: "Politicians who talk too much: while you make speeches, men are dying in Korea, Burma, Indo-China and Tunisia. Enough of speeches. The people want peace. The colonies must be freed. And we say with them that we do not want to die, either for Stalin or for Truman."

"The peoples won't go along. The oppressed of all countries, united in a real third front, cry out: 'With your hypocrisy, your weakness, your cynicism, you are all war criminals.'"

Congressman Asks That Tom Clark Be Questioned

WASHINGTON, Feb. 2 (UP)—Rep. Patrick J. Hillings recommended today that a House subcommittee question Supreme Court Justice Tom C. Clark in its "non-political" investigation of the Justice Department.

The California Republican pointed out that Clark, former U. S. Attorney General, sponsored the government career of T. Lamar Caudle, whose cut-rate mink coats and cars and deals in planes and oils cost him his job as the government's chief tax fraud prosecutor.

Hillings is in line for membership on a special House judiciary subcommittee being set up to check into J. Howard McGrath's management of the Justice Department. McGrath succeeded Clark as Attorney General when Clark went on the high bench.

Ancient Cold Frame Still Best Home Garden Helper

Working Drawing for Building Cold Frame.

The most valuable 18 square feet in any garden area is that which is covered with a cold frame. And the smaller the garden, the more rewarding will be this ancient device.

It began as a pit, some thousands of years ago. Today it is an enclosure, partly below ground, with a protective covering which admits daylight. Glass is rapidly being supplanted by various substitutes, which are lighter, and unbreakable.

A cold frame is useful the year around. There is no way you can use the few square feet of garden space required for it, to better advantage.

Anyone who can drive a nail, and operate a saw, can build a cold frame. The boards can be cut this winter in the basement or garage, and put together in a short time as soon as possible to work outdoors. Since inexpensive electric heat will turn a cold frame into a hotbed, the older manure-heated hotbed is seldom seen. Heat is not needed for most of the uses to which a cold frame can be put; and being without objectionable dirt or odor it can be placed near the house, where steps will be saved.

A location in the full sun all day is required for best results and shelter from cold winds is beneficial. The sash should incline toward the south. Heavy boards of cypress, white pine, or redwood are preferable, since the frame will often get wet and must resist decay.

The illustration is a practical working-drawing of a standard cold frame. Standard glazed sash is 3 by 6 feet; but a frame can be made of any convenient dimensions, if sash of a suitable size is available. Sash covered with transparent plastic materials will be much lighter than glazed-sash, and also will allow ultra-violet rays to pass through to the plants.

The usual practice is to sink the frame into the ground about six inches, and to pile earth around it outside, for insulation. Inside it may be filled to ground level with the best top soil available, or the floor may be covered with two or three inches of cinders or gravel, on which shallow seed boxes (flats) are placed. Many prefer sowing the seeds in flats, which can be carried to the garden at transplanting time.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICE

The knowledge that God loves all that He creates assures mankind of His care and protection, stresses the Lesson-Sermon to be read in Christian Science churches on Sunday. The Golden Text illustrates this theme: "We have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and God in him" (1 John 4:16).

This Bible verse is included in the Lesson-Sermon: "How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings" (Psalms 36:7).

That there is no place for evil in God's creation is made evident in these statements by Mary Baker Eddy in her textbook: "Divine Love is infinite. Therefore all that really exists is in and of God, and manifests His love" (Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures, p. 340).

TOAST BASKET YOUR LEFTOVERS

Leftovers go farther and taste better when dressed in toast baskets. To serve four, slice across 1 whole loaf enriched bread to form 4 equal parts. Remove crusts from each part. Cut out center of each with scissors leaving a rim and bottom of about 3/4". Brush each basket inside and out with lemon butter, made by melting 1/4 c. butter or margarine and adding 2 tbsp. lemon juice. Place baskets on cookie sheet and bake at 350°f. (moderate oven) until baskets are brown and crisp, turning frequently. Meanwhile prepare creamed leftovers: Melt 2 tbsp. butter or margarine. Add 1 1/2 cups leftover meat cut into bite-size cubes, 1/4 c. minced onion, 1/4 c. chopped green pepper. Cook until onion is clear. Sprinkle in 2 tbsp. flour and gradually stir in 1 c. milk. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until thick. Fill toast baskets with this mixture and serve at once.

It Costs Little To Find What Your Soil Needs

If any one of the essential food plants is lacking in your soil, yields are down, quality is low and you lose money.

Unless the soil in any or all of your fields has been tested within the past year or two, no crop should be planted in any of these fields until a test has been made.

The cost of having soil tested in the Texas A&M Laboratories is trifling.

For the simple instructions on taking soil samples, see your County Agent.

Remember that any cultivated crops or pasture to be fed to dairy cattle, beef cattle or other livestock will not produce good feeding results if essential nutrients are lacking in the feed, because they were lacking in the soil.

Soil tests are the first step to more profitable farming.
