"MY TURN" By Carol Ellis

YOU'LL BE GLAD to know that the old traditional fairy tale dream of a "happy ending for all" is alive and well and living in the hearts of our American youth.

The editors of "Seventeen" magazine were recently successful in getting a number of teen-agers across the country to take the stereo headphones out of their ears long enough to answer some survey questions about what they expect in their future lives. The biggest majority of them, boys and girls alike, expected to fall in love, get married and raise a family.

The family unit is still the single most important item in our society and I was happy to see that the dream has not faded in spite of the fact that it has taken quite a beating in the past few decades.

Just getting from childhood to adulthood is no simple task in today's world. In a single day's time, 2,269 illegitimate children are born, 2,753 teenagers get pregnant, five teenagers commit suicide, 609 teenagers get a veneral disease, 988 children are abused, birthday, 49,322 children are in public juvenile-correctional facilities, 2,989 kids see their parents get divorced, and 3,288 children run away from home. Fifty-one per cent of our population is currently involved in a divorce and by 1990 there will be more people living in second marriages than those who are living in first marriages. It is difficult, but still possible, to raise our children in an atmosphere of love in spite of awkward family situations created by divorce. It requires a great deal more dedication on the part of the parents.

1. My hands are small; please don't expect perfection whenever I make a bed, draw a picture or throw a ball. My legs are short; please slow down so that I can keep up with you.

2. My eyes have not seen the world as yours have; please let me explore safely. Don't restrict me unnecessarily.

time...please take the time to explain things to me about this wonderful world, and do so willingly.

4. My feelings are tender; please be sensitive to my needs; don't nag me all day long. Treat me as you would like to be treated.

5. I am a special gift from God; please treasure me, holding me accountable for my actions, giving me guidelines to live by, and disciplining me in a loving manner.

6. I need your encouragement to grow. Please go easy on the criticism. Remember you can criticize the things I do without criticizing me.

7. Give me the freedom to make decisions concerning myself. Permit me to fail, so that I can learn from my mistakes. Then someday I'll be prepared to make the kind of decision life requires of me.

8. Please don't do things over for me. Somehow that makes me feel that my efforts didn't quite measure up to your expectations. I know it's hard, but try not to compare me with my brother or my sister. 9. Please don't be afraid to leave for a weekend together. Running stocker calves on wheat pasture? Now, more than ever, IVOMEC' can build your profits. At this year's beef prices, every pound you put on your calves is worth good money. And with IVOMEC® (ivermectin) you can put on plenty of extra pounds.

Whenever you have cattle on pasture, you're bound to have parasites. And if your calves have been sold and resold before shipping, you can't know what parasites they've picked up. And parasites steal weight.

But one shot of IVOMEC kills 31 different kinds of parasites-more than twice as many as TRAMISOL® and WARBEX® combined.

IVOMEC kills mature and immature worms, so you don't have to use it again in a couple of weeks. And IVOMEC gets external parasites, too. It does it all with just one simple shot under the skin. No wrestling. No Mess. No stress.

So go with your best shot. Get IVOMEC.
