SS United States Sets New East To West Speed Mark

NEW YORK, July 15 (UP)—The new queen of the seas—the super-liner United States—docked Tuesday completing a round trip speed run of the Atlantic. The Hudson river became a canyon of heroes with tumping brass bands, buzzing helicopters and tooting ships as the United States steamed in for a victorious welcome.

The superliner steamed up the harbor through a drifting fog from her maiden round trip voyage, flying from her mast a 20-by 40 foot "blue ribbon" for breaking both eastbound and westbound Atlantic speed records. The great liner returned the speed records to this country for the first time in 100 years.

Burleson Rips Into Opponent's Record

By WALTER BURCH
Reporter-News Staff Writer
ANSON, July 11. (RNS) — They turned out about 3,000 strong here Friday night to eat watermelon and hear Rep. Omar Burleson make a staunch defense of his congressional voting record and then tear into the record of his opponent, State Rep. Jack Cox of Breckenridge.

The occasion was a homecoming rally for Burleson, who is seeking re-election to Congress for a fourth term. Rousing applause interrupted his speech in which he called his opponent by name.

"He blames me for high taxes, for foreign policy where it has failed, for non-diligence to duty and I assume from inference that he blames me for all the graft and corruption in and out of government. It seems he holds me responsible for about all the evils that exist in the world and condemns me for it," Burleson declared.

Burleson said he recognizes the right to have his record examined, adding that "Cox's record, as is mine, is public property and every citizen has the right to inspect it."

Burleson said that he could gather four main points from Cox's speeches: (1) "He favors states rights. (2) He favors morality in government. (3) He seems to be for a firm foreign policy (whatever that is) and (4) is against increasing taxes."

"I will agree wholeheartedly with his forthright and bold accusations," he said with tongue-in-cheek to the delight of the crowd. Burleson then got down to specific cases. He asked what Cox knows about the issues.

The rising cost of operating the federal government, Burleson noted, is one of the points Cox has been making in speeches over the area. Burleson declared that the cost of operating the state government has almost doubled since Cox entered the Legislature. "I do not charge him with the full responsibility, but turn through the record and find that he has voted for one appropriation after another and when one votes for appropriations he can only honestly vote for higher taxes," the congressman told the crowd.

"Neither do I hold my opponent wholly and entirely responsible for the creation of 34 new boards, bureaus and commissions since he has been in the Legislature, but in looking through the record I do not find where he has opposed even one. Therefore, when he speaks of big government he should speak of it at all levels and point out what, if anything, he has done about it," he continued.

"My record shows that in six years of almost continuous sessions of the Congress, I missed my name 18 times when the roll was called. Yet during the same period of time, meeting every other year, Mr. Cox has the following record of attendance: In 1947, he was absent 186 times; in 1949, he was absent 375 times; in 1951 he failed to appear when his name was called 145 times," Burleson said.

"Mr. Cox, according to the House Journal on page 272, Volume 1 of the 51st Legislature, voted against granting permission to a group of farmers to hold a meeting in the state capital. Why, I cannot imagine, for they certainly couldn't have bothered you — you weren't there enough," Burleson told the crowd.

"It is for economy but he insisted that the governor call a special session of the Legislature to repeal the so-called Motor Vehicle and Inspection Law," Burleson said.

"The record shows that in March, 1951, Burleson notified out when the House had the bill on for passage. Cox was absent. Along about the middle of January 1952, Mr. Cox had an article in all the papers in this area advising the people that he was insisting on a special session of the Legislature to repeal this car inspection law and added incidentally, that he did not vote for it."

"He evidently is correct because he was not present to vote but he did have the state of Texas spend more than $900,000 for a call of a special session in order that he might be present and not on the popular side. And he called me a 'fence-straddler' in his speech," Burleson snorted.

The congressman said he planned to present a Cox record at a speech Monday night in Breckenridge.

He opened his address by pointing to his record in Congress, which he said shows that he supported "first and foremost" a military preparedness program.

"Certainly such a preparedness program is costly to the taxpayer, but it is insurance for us to enjoy freedom tomorrow. It is necessary insurance that we have to buy now because if we don't have it and need it, such insurance cannot be had," he said.

Congressman Burleson, many Jones and Taylor County officials and dignitaries joined the crowd in the watermelon feast on the courthouse lawn. Four truckloads of the melons were consumed.

Harley Sadler of Abilene, unopposed candidate for state senator from the district, was the master of ceremonies. Among those introduced were Mayors Ernest Grisom of Abilene, Clyde Westfall of Stamford, Dr. J. C. Duff of Anson, Joe Kell of Lueders and E. B. Ellis of Sweetwater.

Others recognized were Dr. Rupert N. Richardson, president of Hardin-Simmons University; Dr. Harold G. Cooke, president of McMurry; Hollis L. Manly, Sr., representing Abilene Christian College; and a host of others.

Anson and Stamford High School bands played during the feed.

JOLLY CHOLLY — Popular Charlie Grimm, who replaced Tommy Holmes at the Boston helm, is a one-man circus coaching at third base. Braves' base runners have little trouble hearing the former Milwaukee generalissimo with the fog-horn voice. (NEA)

Number Farmers Groups Turn In Classifications

About 80 per cent of the cotton farmers of this area have already turned in their group applications for classing and marketing news quotations.

This is an increase over a year ago, reports Mr. Sam W. Martin, in charge of Production and Marketing Production's Dallas Cotton Classing Office, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Deadline for making applications of these marketing services is August 1, 1952. They should be mailed to 1104 South Ervay Street, Dallas 1, Texas.

Farmer who organize into improvement groups, plant some of their acreage to an adopted variety, file and application and meet other requirements are eligible to take part. Both services are provided without cost under the Smith-oxey Act.

Last year, 31,423 farmers of this area organized into 336 groups to receive these services.

Horse Show For State Fair Will Be Enormous

A rip-roaring horse show program will provide excitement and color during all three week-ends of the 1952 State Fair of Texas, Oct. 4 through 19, Livestock Manager Ray W. Wilson has announced.

Premiums totaling $10,340 will be awarded for classes ranging from cow horses to pony-cart teams. The judging program for Quarter horses, Palominos, Shetland ponies and the open cutting horse contest is one of the most comprehensive in the fair's history.

The Quarter horse show, Oct. 4-12 will feature the Texas cow-poke's favorite mount in halter classes and in a series of roping, cutting and reining events that will demonstrate perfect partnership between man and horse. Eight trophies will be offered by the American Quarter Horse Association in addition to the $3,840 in cash prizes.

A couple of State Fair special awards will include two silver buckles in the Cowboy's Range Mount class and a trophy for the best all-around Quarter horse. The open cutting horse contest, Oct. 10-12, will offer $2,000 in prize money, plus a trophy from the National Cutting Horse Association for the champion cutting horse.

This will be one of the fair's most entertaining free shows. Wilson predicted, as highly intelligent animals present a colorful picture of range work at its best. Judging is based on the cutting horse's ability to enter a herd of cattle and cut out a specific animal, a talent requiring cow sense as well as horse sense.

The final week of the fairs, Oct. 13-19, will be enlivened by Palomino and Shetland pony shows, performance classes of which will be presented together to give the horse show program a colorful circus spirit.

Palominos will compete for $2,000 and Shetland ponies will vie for $2,500 in the first pony show to be presented at the fair in many years. The diminutive animals will participate in two fine-harness stakes to top off the performance classes.

A free Shetland pony will be given away Sunday, Oct. 19, to a boy or girl 12 or under. Rules of the prize contest will be announced later.

Horse events at the fair are free. All judging will take place in the new Livestock Pavilion.

First Methodist Church Is Scene Of Formal Wedding Of Miss Hoffmann And Mr. Gavrel Of Fort Worth

Miss Mary Katherine Hoffmann, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hoffmann, became the bride of Mr. Gus James Gavrel of Fort Worth in a formal candlelight ceremony read at 8 p.m. Saturday, July 12th, 1952 in the First Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Gavrel, 2320 Hill Crest, Fort Worth, are the parents of the bridegroom.

The Rev. J. Daniel Barron, pastor of the Grace Methodist Church, Dallas, officiated as the couple repeated their vows before an arch covered with fern and studded with majestic daisies. The arch was flanked by six tall white Grecian columns holding large arrangements of white gladioli and fern. They were joined with heavy white silk cord. White Caladiums and greenery banked the chancel rail and formed a background, all of which was lighted by many candles, forming a part of the elaborate decorations.

Mrs. Jim Jennings of Abilene, soprano soloist, sang, "With This Ring," "Indian Love Call" and at the close, "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Martha June Morehart, organist accompanied Mrs. Jennings and presented the traditional wedding music.

The bride was escorted and given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of exquisite star white Chantilly lace over satin. It was designed with a tulip oval yoke, appliqued with dainty lace flowers. The figurine bodice was fashioned down the back with tiny self covered buttons. The long sleeves edged with dainty ruffles were petal pointed over her hands. The voluminous lace skirt was accented with scalloped floating lace panels and was worn over old fashioned petticoats and hoops. The formal length train was outlined with a deep lace ruffle. She carried a brides bouquet containing four white orchids.

Miss Donna Lee deArnet, Conneaut Lake, Penn., was maid of honor. Her gown of nylon net in lemon peel color was fashioned with a strapless fitted bodice with which she wore a matching stole. The three tiered skirt had ruffles and satin trimming. She wore a matching large picture hat. She carried an arm bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Mrs. W. H. Hoffmann was matron of honor and Misses Patsy Young, Wanda Couch, and Miss Helen Gavrel, sister of the bridegroom from Fort Worth, were bridesmaids. Their costumes were identical to that worn by the maid of honor.

Little Misses Sherry Nicholson and Yolanda Sederis, Omaha, Neb. were flower girls. Chris Sederis was best man. Ushers and groomsmen were Robin Elliott, Houston, W. H. Hoffmann, brother of the bride, Jack Horton and Martin Phillips of Fort Worth, C. W. Hoffmann, Jr., brother of the bride and Miss Barbara Gavrel of Fort Worth, sister of the bridegroom, lighted the candles.

Mrs. Hoffman, mother of the bride wore an aqua colored dress of crepe and lace with a navy beaded hat, and an orchid corsage. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue and lace crepe dress, a blue flower hat and a white orchid corsage.

A reception followed the ceremony and was held in the Hoffmann home, 903 South Seaman, where the parents of the couple joined the wedding party in receiving the guests.

Miss Helen Hilton of Tyler and Mrs. C. W. Young, aunts of the bride, served the wedding cake. Mmes. Clyde Grissom and E. O. Everett poured the tea. Others in the house party were Mmes. Bill Collins, M. L. Long, Ben Hamner, Harold Durham, Gene Young, Edwin L. Witttrup, Bill Arther, and Jack Cole.

When the couple left for a wedding trip to Mexico City, Mrs. Gavrel was wearing a navy silk shantung suit, white hat, navy accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will make their home in Fort Worth, where Mr. Gavrel is associated in business with his father.

More Eloquent Than Words!

It is true, of course, that a Cadillac owner is proud of everything about his motor car.

But it is also true that he reserves a special place in his heart for the beautiful crest that rides high on the hood.

For here, as only he can fully appreciate, is one of the most wonderful and unique symbols in all the world of manufactured products.

In fact, it seems safe to say that no other mark of identification speaks so clearly or so eloquently of the product that bears it . . . and of the man who owns it.

It tells, for instance, of magnificent engineering and inspired design—and of experienced craftsmanship and painstaking construction.

It promises mile after mile of superlative motoring enjoyment—and it foretells year after year of dependable and enduring performance.

It proclaims, in short, the Cadillac pledge of quality—that here is an automobile built to the highest standards it is practical to enforce in the production of a motor car.

And, oh, the wonderful things it says about the man behind the wheel!

It reveals, more surely than if the words were spoken, that he is a man of position and achievement in his own private world of affairs.

It attests to the high regard he places on the safety and the comfort of his fellow passengers.

And it says, with unmistakable clarity, that he is a person of discernment and good taste.

Little wonder that the man who owns a Cadillac takes special pride in the beautiful crest that identifies it and adorns it.

The Cadillac crest tells its most eloquent story when it adorns the magnificent car illustrated above. For here is the illustrious eight-passenger Cadillac "75"—so luxurious, spacious and distinguished that it stands alone among the world's motor cars.

Removal Roaches Can Be Simple

AUSTIN, Texas—A dime store paint brush and a few ounces of chlordane are the only tools you need to run off those pesky cockroaches, State Health Office Geo. W. Cox advises.

But he says keeping them off is a bigger job.

Roaches are disease carriers from way back, the health officer pointed out. They've been found naturally infected with polio virus. And that alone, is reason enough to declare war against the filthy hidden pests. Here's the way to do it.

First: get a 2 per cent chlordane spray and a two-bit paint brush from the drug store. Then take all the pots, pans, and dishes from the kitchen cabinet and wash them in soapy water.

Now paint the chlordane into all the cracks where shelves join walls, and around the drain and water pipes. That's all—don't paint the whole cabinet. While the spray is drying in the cabinets, paint in corners of baseboards, behind the stove and the hot water heater where water and gas pipes enter the house.

Take off the motor panel of the refrigerator, and treat the floor and corners of the motor compartment. Paint the walls behind the refrigerator, because roaches will hide any place they can find protection. Be sure to paint around bathroom pipes, too.

In older houses it's possible that roaches will be hiding in cracks between the wall boards and window frames. So don't pass up a crack because it looks too small to harbor roaches. The young insects are mighty small.

After the spray in the cabinets has dried thoroughly, cover the shelves where dishes and food are stored with paper.

You can get a can of caulking compound for just a few cents, which makes filling cracks permanently an inexpensive process. But run some of the spray into cracks before sealing them up. This will kill ants, too.

All this will help you get rid of roaches, Dr. Cox emphasizes. But if you leave food exposed, they'll soon be back at the same old stand.

IT HAPPENS EVERY SUMMER—Fred Butler, of Cambridge, Mass., is high and dry atop the cabin of his cruiser, as he chops three inches of molding from each of two houses so that he may move his home-made craft from the back yard. He also had to chop down six trees, tear up a wire fence, and remove some shrubbery, to free the landlocked craft.

Farm Accidents Alarming Safety Experts of Nation

COLLEGE STATION—Farm and home accidents are creating such a serious problem that President Truman has issued a special proclamation urging farm residents and all persons interested in farm life to observe National Farm Safety Week, July 20-26. Estimates just released from the National Safety Council show that 14,500 farm people were accidentally killed this year and 1,250,000 others suffered lost time from injuries.

Suppository form—also tubes with perforated pile pipe for easy application. *Pazo Ointment and Suppositories.

On Monday, of National Safety Week, programs on home safety will be stressed. Home accidents are costing Americans over $600,000,000 annually, in lost wages, medical expenses and insurance overhead. The safe home, for family members and for children to grow up in, is one where the parents are safety conscious and where hazards are corrected.

Accidents in the home may happen because the homemaker is tired. The home management specialists with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, say it's a smart thing to plan devices to save strength and energy. Use the head instead of the feet; don't carry heavy clothes baskets to the line; put the wash in a plastic bag over the shoulders or in a basket on a small cart; save lifting heavy loads and save bending by having work surfaces of the right height.

It's a good idea to make Farm Safety Week last all the year according to the National Safety Council. Remember everyone is important, whether man, woman or child and cannot be replaced. Believe in the dignity of safety. It is worth the time it takes to be safe.

Texas Teachers Rank 26th On Amount of Salary

AUSTIN, —Twentyfive states, including traditional competitors like California and Florida, now are paying their public school teachers more than Texas does, Charles H. Tennyson, executive secretary of the Texas State Teachers Association, announced today.

In Texas the average classroom teacher is paid $2,960 a year, whereas in New York she makes 4,500 a year, California, the number two state in the nation, pays an average salary to teachers of $3,900.

Others that rate higher than Texas are Maryland, New Jersey, Delaware, Connecticut, Michigan, Washington, Arizona, Massachusetts, Oregon, Illinois, New Mexico, Indiana, Rhode Island, Nevada, Montana, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Wisconsin, Utah, Louisiana, Oklahoma, and Iowa.

Tennyson pointed out that teachers' salaries in Texas have not kept pace with the inflationary dollar. In 1939 teachers' salaries averaged $1,420 and the salaries of all employed persons, including laborers, was $1,269. Thus teachers were 12 per cent above the average. Since then the national average for all workers has climbed to 3,390 a year—$430 more than the average teachers get—leaving them 12 per cent behind the national group.

This trend is making it increasingly difficult to retain good teachers to recruit new ones, Tennyson College graduates trained to teach are turning to industry where salaries and wages match their professional knowledge.

In an effort to equalize present conditions, the Texas State Teachers Association will ask the next legislature to increase the minimum beginning salary for public school teachers to $3,000 a year. The legal minimum now for teachers is $2,403 a year.

John White Is Candidate For Re-Election

AUSTIN, July 15 (Sp.L.)—The first definite step towards putting the Texas Department of Agriculture on a self-supporting basis was claimed this week by Agriculture Commissioner John C. White.

White, who is asking a second term in the top agriculture job in Texas, said his department is requesting less aid from the state general revenue fund in 1954, despite plans to increase his office's scope of activities. If White's budget is approved by the Texas Legislature next year, the expansion program will be financed by fees collected by the department, he explained.

The commissioner said his action breaks the general custom of state offices requesting a surplus of funds in hopes of obtaining an adequate amount after legislative cutbacks. The Department of Agriculture was granted $309,540 from general revenue for 1953 expenses. The new budget asks $309,000 in 1954.

"While a saving of $540 may seem negligible on the surface," said White, "it means we are over the hump in maximum tax money spending and our request from year to year are now expected to decrease with no loss of services to agriculture in Texas. The use of department fees to finance new work is a step in the right direction towards making the department self-supporting and, in the long run, towards lightening the tax burden."

Before White won the agriculture post from veteran politician J. E. McDonald two years ago, he was head of the Division of Agriculture at Midwestern University, Wichita Falls.

held the office for eight years and is asking for ten. I consider that the people have been extra nice to him, having held the office longer than any other District Clerk.

"January, eight years ago, I was the first person to announce for office of District Clerk, but due to the fact that I was employed in defense work, I withdrew and did not make the race; however, I came back to Kokomo and Eastland and voted. I have never voted out of Eastland County but one time in my life, and that was when I was in defense work. Before I went into essential war work, I was rejected for the Army, because of an injury, but I am not asking for one single vote because I was rejected for Army service. I considered it more important to remain with the defense work, than make a political race, at that time. I feel that if the people are not willing for me to be District Clerk now, they never will be.

I have always been interested in court procedure. Early during the boom, due to a large amount of litigation, the 91st District Court was created, even then, the dockets of the two courts were crowded. Several years ago one court was discontinued. The salary of the District Clerk is larger now, than during the oil boom.

In my campaign, I appreciate the support and encouragement of my friends both old and new. It is nice to hear a voter say: "Keep knocking these doors, as you are now." Sometimes an office holder is inclined to brag how he performs the duties of the office. It is the duty of any public official to perform his services politely, honestly, and efficiently; if he cannot or does not, he is not worthy of the honor that the people have bestowed upon him.

If the office of the District Clerk is a good thing, pass it around; if it is a burden, let someone else bear it for awhile. I would like to be that person. I assure you that if I am elected, I will not ask for more than eight years in office. I am asking the people of Eastland County for a fair chance and consideration, please give me your vote.

Sincerely,

regardless of where he lives. If elected it will be a pleasure as your County Judge to head any delegation to Austin or any where else to get every mile possible for this county. Others get it so can we. Lets spend wisely, economically and legally our tax dollars.

My friends, if you elect me your County Judge I shall at all times have a deep sympathy for all our needy and unfortunate. Those who need help must have the maximum aid, and, if under the present set up sufficient aid cannot be granted lets use all our influence to get some change made by which our aged fathers and mothers can get a respectable living. Surely there is a way to remedy the present evils. Wonder if there isn't a way to get our legislature to do something about it. I'll do my part.

It is my earnest desire that this campaign be kept clean. I am running on my own merits and I'm not tied to any clique majority of Democrats could enthusiastically support for president.

"They don't want to join the Republican party. If they have not taken a pledge in a precinct convention to support the nominee of the Democratic Convention, then they are free to vote for Ike by voting for the Republican electors."

"Suggest the formation of 'Texans For Ike' clubs in every part of the state. Let's carry Texas for Ike two to one."

Sincerely,
L. T. (Lois) Everton

I want to recommend this picture to everyone! I think it is one of the best religious pictures I have ever seen. I have recommended pictures like Stars in My Crown, I'd Climb the Highest Mountain and now Reaching From Heaven. It is a must for everyone.

After a special screening we had sometime ago here is what some of the Cisco people had to say about Reaching From Heaven.

One of the most unusual pictures I have ever seen. It shows what Christianity is and how it works in the lives of ordinary people.
—Mrs. Grady James, 208 W. 4th St.

A very fine picture. Would recommend it to church people of all denominations and to those of no church at all.
—Mrs. J. W. Gill, 505 East 12th

I think this is a wonderful religious picture that meets people in a practical way.
—Rev. Grady James, Cisco

This is a picture with a terrific impact for the highest and best in life. A good family picture.
—Rev. J. W. Gill, Cisco, Texas

God, truly is "Reaching From Heaven" today, as always. He is ever mindful of us if we will but do our part. We should be interested in The Strangers. "Reaching From Heaven" is powerful and awakens spiritual need. Everyone should see it.
