Ranger, Eastland Elevens Ready For Battle

By GROVER LEE
The Eastland County sports atmosphere was charged with tense suspense today on the eve of the year's No. 1 schoolboy sports classic in this area—tomorrow night's grid thriller at the Bulldog Stadium in Ranger which pits the Eastland High Mavericks against Ranger's Bulldogs.

charges of Ranger High as they tapered off four days of deadly earnest pre-game practice sessions with light, tapering off drills this afternoon.

Opening kickoff for the big battle is slated for 8 p.m. sharp, and the collision between the two mole-skin-and-clant-clad crews, heightened by three decades of spirited rivalry, will be witnessed by a football-feverish throng which is expected to pack the 4,000-seat capacity Bulldog Stadium.

Both Teams Winless
Both elevens, winless in a pair of starts for each, will be gunning for their coveted initial victories of the yet-new 1952 pigskin campaign.

This afternoon Eastland's tutors, Coaches Ed Hooker and Gene Young, and master-minds of the Bulldogs, Stubby Warden and Sam Aills, were carefully studying starting line-up combinations. The lists will be released late this afternoon.

The Eastland machine dropped its opener two weeks ago to the classic Cisco Lobos, 20-6, and last week took a 39-6 humbling at the rough hands of Coleman.

The Rangerites were shelled, 18-7 by the Jacksboro High Tigers in their initial '52 combat two weeks ago, and last Friday night suffered another set back—19-7—at Stamford.

The annual Ranger-Eastland classic is a game in which all pre-game dope and all pre-game records "ain't necessarily so." Because it's the one contest of the season that each club is out to win. And that's the way the play goes—marked with cagey quarterbacking, vicious tackling and bone-crushing blocking.

DOUBLE DEATH—With Father Michael O'Shea, Mrs. Edna Boucher, Long Beach, Calif., prays for life of her 3-year-old daughter Tamarrah, who suffocated in an old refrigerator. Another 3-year-old girl Rowena Baird, also died in the accident.

Nixon's 'Vindication' Spurs GOP Drive

Hall No. 1, Now Flowing At Rate 112 Bbls. Daily

Woods No. 1 Hall Heirs test, one and one-half miles south of Carbon, seems to be doing better all the time according to reports. The well was opened for three days and nights last weekend, and reportedly yielded 112 barrels of oil each 24 hours. The well has been acidized, and the flow was increased. Output of the well if under the pump is not known.

WHEELING, W. Va., Sept. 25 (UP)—Elated Republican leaders said Thursday the Eisenhower-Nixon ticket has emerged "stronger than ever" from a trial unprecedented in American political history.

They hopefully closed the books on the campaign crisis which began one week ago with the disclosure that vice presidential candidate Richard M. Nixon had accepted an $18,235 private expense fund from wealthy California supporters.

Dwight D. Eisenhower, who had insisted that Nixon prove himself "clean as a hound's tooth" or quit the race, in effect renominated his running mate at a dramatic face-to-face meeting Wednesday night in this smoky Allegheny city.

Lewis Summons UMW Leaders For Conference

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (UP)—John L. Lewis Wednesday summoned the United Mine Workers 200-man wage policy committee to a meeting here Monday—two days before a strike deadline in southern soft coal pits.

Around The Square
With Mack

Senator Nixon, Republican vice-presidential nominee, certainly looked America in the eye Tuesday night when he answered the mud-slinging charges registered against him. We stated in the beginning, that he was not guilty of the charges, and his speech merely confirmed the views of millions of American voters.

State GOP Head Questions 'Gifts' Gov. Stevenson

DALLAS, Sept. 25 (UP)—The Texas Republican chairman Thursday asked Adlai Stevenson whether Stevenson would collect private funds to present to national officials if Stevenson were elected president.

Further drilling in the area will likely be announced sometime in the future. While most land in the section has been leased, there is some trading being done, and a few farmers in the community have never leased their land.

GOP Had Final Say

Mindful of the political proprieties, Eisenhower did not say in so many words that he had decided to keep Nixon on the ticket. Technically, only the Republican national committee could decide that question, and Eisenhower confined himself to reading a telegram from GOP Chairman Arthur E. Summerfield.

'Greatest Moment In My Life'

Nixon renewed his promise to "keep fighting" and promptly made good on it by hurling a new challenge at Democratic presidential nominee Adlai E. Stevenson to follow his example and make public "all the facts."

Nine Counties Report Heavy Rain Damage

AUSTIN, Sept. 25 (UP)—The torrential rains over nine Central and South Texas counties two weeks ago caused about $3,481,000 worth of damage, according to state defense and disaster relief headquarters.

REPORTS TO THE NATION—Republican Vice-Presidential nominee Sen. Richard Nixon and his wife Pat (above) as he made his financial report to the voters on a nationwide radio and TV program. Julie and Tricia Nixon (below) children of Sen. and Mrs. Nixon shown in the Nixon Washington, D. C. home with their cocker spaniel "Checkers," mentioned by their father in his speech as a gift from a Texas admirer.

While we are not looking for our bullfrog crop at City Lake to be drowned, we do have some water. In fact the recent rains raised the lake just 11 inches, and does not represent a great flood. We are thankful for the amount and hope it will be a very short while until we can announce water running over the spillway.

Shivers is Mum

At the same time, Gov. Allan Shivers, who is against Stevenson, declined to say if he favored a Republican congress. Shivers has urged Texas Democrats to vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican presidential candidate.

Doggies Are To Meet Midgets

The Eastland Junior football team will go into action tonight at 7:30, at the Maverick Stadium in Eastland.

Lasted Long Time

ITHACA, N.Y., Sept. 25 (UP)—Edward Lasher, while doing some remodeling work on a home he recently purchased, uncovered six 5-pound sacks of spoiled sugar wrapped in newspapers dated 1942.

Attack Called Unfair

Asserting that Nixon had been subjected to "a very unfair and vicious attack," Eisenhower told the crowd of 8,000 persons:

Curtain Time For Stylorma Is 7:30 Tonight At High School

Tonight at 7:30 p.m. Eastland High School Auditorium, the public will have that "once a year" opportunity to enjoy one of the most pleasurable evenings that could be arranged and for the very nominal cost of 50c to the patron.

$137,000,000 Is Asked By Iran In Oil Dispute

TEHRAN, Iran, Sept. 25 (UP)—Premier Mohammed Mossadegh demanded Wednesday that Great Britain immediately pay Iran $137 million but he did not threaten to break diplomatic relations if Britain failed to comply.

We would issue this warning, however, for we don't wish any more trouble: If you have been drinking water on the suggested ration plan, do not try to drink all you can at once. Hit it slowly, and gradually build up your water capacity. Don't try to drink it all in one day.

Shivers said he would vote for every Texas Democratic nominee for Congress, if he were able. He said he "had not gone into" the matter of a Republican congress, but that he thought "every state ought to elect the best people available."

Attack Called Unfair

Asserting that Nixon had been subjected to "a very unfair and vicious attack," Eisenhower told the crowd of 8,000 persons:

John W. Turner Passes; Funeral Rites Today

John W. Turner, 65, prominent Eastland attorney passed away at his home in Eastland, Wednesday afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock. Funeral services will be conducted from the Hamner Funeral Home at 3 o'clock this afternoon, with Rev. Philip W. Walker, long time pastor of the Eastland Methodist Church and close friend of the deceased, in charge of the services. Interment will follow in Eastland cemetery.

Little Items Of Local Interest

Dee High, who was injured recently when he fell from a scaffold in Gorman, and who was taken to an Abilene hospital for treatment is making a rapid recovery, and has been brought home.

Five Communist Leaders Indicted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25 (UP)—Five Communist party leaders were indicted by a federal grand jury in St. Louis Wednesday on charges of conspiring to advocate and teach the violent overthrow of the government.

H-SU Coach Is Sweating; Golden Hurricane Next

Murray Evans, head football coach at Hardin-Simmons University, Abilene, has only one problem this week. But that one is enough.

It is the University of Tulsa Hurricane, which will be the Cowboy's second foe of the young football season Saturday in the Oil City.

On paper and on the field Tulsa, which was the nation's top offensive team last year with an average of better than 480 yards in eleven games, figures to be better this season.

This week Evans and his associate coaches, Larry Cunningham, Bill Scott, and J. W. Steadman, must find a defensive alignment which can keep the Hurricane from creating too much havoc—a pretty large order for any team.

When Tulsa and the Cowboys met for the first time last year, the Hurricane knocked the Cowboys, who established a record 37 pass interceptions last season, completely out of the pass defense department, with eight completions for 320 yards and two touchdowns. Tulsa also rolled up 218 yards on the ground to bring its yardage for the season to 5,282 yards and down the Cowboys 33-14.

Evans is also troubled with his own offense. Last Saturday's loss, 26-7, to Arizona State of Tempe, showed that the Cowboy backfield definitely misses the services of Dunny Goode, second best runner in the land last year, and Bob Hart, all-Border Conference quarterback.

Evans will have to design his defensive patterns without the services of Maurice Waggsback, two-year letterman center, who will be out of action Saturday because of leg injuries sustained in the game with Tempe.

The Hurricane figures to be better this season of the strength of 16 regular offensive and defensive starters, who are all set to lead the Tulsa team to national grid power.

Returning are Howard Waugh, burly fullback who was the nation's third rushing leader; Jim Prewitt, all-Midwest tackle; Tom Miner, all-Missouri Valley Conference end; Willie Roberts, great pass catcher; Quarterback Ronnie Morris, seventh in total offense last year; and All-American guard Marvin Matuszak.

Evans will have to design his own offense. Last Saturday's loss, 26-7, to Arizona State of Tempe, showed that the Cowboy backfield definitely misses the services of Dunny Goode, second best runner in the land last year, and Bob Hart, all-Border Conference quarterback.

Clever Ruse Works As Thief Gets $850

NEW YORK, Sept. 25 (UP)—A stranger walked into a candy shop Wednesday and told the shop owner's wife someone was trying to steal her ashen from the sidewalk.

Mrs. Henry Albrecht investigated and found the ashen undisturbed but when she returned to her desk she found $850 missing.

Texas Ags Meet Sooner Plowboys in Cotton Bowl

COLLEGE STATION—Texas A&M invades the Cotton Bowl stadium in Dallas Saturday night for its seventh game with the Oklahoma Aggies.

The Cadets surprised a lot of people last week in their 21-13 victory over the Houston Cougars and will meet another Missouri Valley conference school this week in Coach J. E. Whitworth's Cowboys.

The Pokes played the powerful Arkansas Razorbacks a fine game, losing on the strength of a field goal, 22-20, in Little Rock Saturday night.

Thus, the Southwest conference came through with two close victories over its sister loop, the Valley, but it didn't fare so well in the Big Seven. Texas Christian defending SW champs, invaded Lawrence, Kan., Saturday afternoon and before the nation's several million television viewers, lost to Kansas University and former Army great, Gil Reich, 13-0.

Polio Cases Drop Over State Area

AUSTIN, Sept. 25 (UP)—Polio cases in Texas dropped to 117 last week, the lowest total since June 14, the State Health Department has announced.

The new cases boosted the year's total to 3,752, an all-time high record. The mark had been set several weeks previously, when the number of cases surpassed the previous high for a full year of 2,778 set in 1950.

During a similar period last year, only 1,356 cases had been listed.

The 117 cases compared with 151 for the previous week.

TAFT BACKS NIXON TO STAY ON TICKET

DETROIT, Sept. 25 (UP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft said Wednesday he saw "no reason why" Sen. Richard Nixon should quit as the Republican vice presidential candidate.

"I thought senator Nixon made a most effective speech," the Ohio senator said. "But I didn't need to be convinced. I was convinced already."

ed two terrific runners against Houston in Ray Graves, the "rubber-man" quarterback, and Don Ellis, the LUS transfer, must face two ex-Army stars in the Cotton Bowl Saturday night, Elmer Stout, fullback and defensive captain, and tackle Lew Zeigler.

The Cadets went into the Houston game a touchdown underdog but showed 56,000 Rice stadium fans that they may not be the doormat of the SW conference when the smoke dies away next Thanksgiving Day.

29-Hour Riot At Illinois State Prison Is Ended

CHESTER, Ill., Sept. 25 (UP)—The screams of a wounded youth stilled a 29-hour riot at Menard State prison and, one by one, 300 rebellious convicts were checked Wednesday for their grievances and concealed weapons.

Michael Seyffrit, director of the state department of public safety, took charge of an investigation into prisoners' grievances that included a demand for "more meat and less gravy."

State police helped regular guards watch over the restless prison of 1,884 convicts. Six hundred prisoners started rioting Monday night. An armistice was reached Tuesday, but 300 convicts broke the truce Tuesday night.

Police fired at least 20 tear gas bombs and volleys of shotgun shells from riot guns at the windows in the five-tiered east cell block building then.

The prisoners used fire hoses and tore steel from the walls and fixtures and hurled it at the authorities.

The rampaging prisoners shuffled off to their cells and guards entered and locked them in.

Court Charges Tulsa AFL Heads With Contempt

TULSA, Sept. 25 (UP)—Leaders of an AFL Machinists Union Wednesday faced contempt citations in connection with the 40-day strike against the Gas Pump Burner Mfg. Co., plant here.

The citation came shortly after County Attorney L. J. Bicking filed aggravated assault charges against two union members, Phillip J. Stewart and Wade Jones.

District Judge W. Lee Johnson set hearing for Oct. 1 on the citations, filed on complaint of company attorney Robert Huff that a restraining order issued earlier this month had been violated.

Stewart and Jones were charged after Raymond Stout, a plant employee, told Bicking he had been beaten.

ing then. The prisoners used fire hoses and tore steel from the walls and fixtures and hurled it at the authorities.

The rampaging prisoners shuffled off to their cells and guards entered and locked them in.

Gov. Stevenson Remains Mum

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 25 (UP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson returned here Wednesday after a campaign swing along the eastern seaboard and refused to elaborate on his position on the use of private funds to supplement the salaries of state employees.

Stevenson's plane landed at 11:53 a.m. CST. About 100 persons were on hand at Capital Airport to meet him and his party.

"I enjoyed very much traveling through New England, New York, Maryland and Virginia," Stevenson told reporters. "But I'm always glad to be home. I think it was a very satisfactory trip."

Asked by reporters if he would hold a news conference before he leaves Friday on another campaign tour, Stevenson said he did not know.

Rejects Nixon's Demand
A spokesman noted that Stevenson had refused to give any list of employees who received the money and asked if Stevenson also would refuse to list the donors.

The governor said he didn't know whether he would want to issue such a list. He then ended the interview by repeating that if he has anything more to say on the subject "I'll say it."

At Baltimore, he rejected Sen. Richard M. Nixon's demand that he disclose the names of the officials whose salaries were augmented with cash gifts.

AROUND—
it is a great improvement over the former Versions. It is much easier to read, as modern English has been substituted for antiquated and seldom used old English words. The meaning, in most instances, has not been changed. In fact, so far, we have found none. Sentence forming has been improved upon, and even a child in tender years, may now read and understand the Bible.
This Bible was not published for the purpose of modifying the real meaning of the Scriptures, but rather for clarifying them. A reader may pick up this book and begin reading and read for an indefinite period without having the chain of thought broken. In the older version this is not true, for while sentence formations may be good and they may be true, yet are put together in such fashion a reader may have to do a hand spring in order to get its real meaning. The new Bible may be read, with understanding, as rapidly as you would read a newspaper or magazine.

Assuming that the King James Version really is The Scriptures, which we seriously doubt, so far as translation is concerned, we have nothing to lose and much to gain by using the New Bible. Should you find a passage that seems too modernistic, you still have your King James Version to refer to.
We are not a modernist of any fashion, but the new book has not led us astray so far.

Grady Pipkins Return From European Tour

Mr. and Mrs. Grady Pipkin accompanied by their 14-year-old grandson, Jimmy Pipkin of Midland, returned Saturday from a two and one half months tour of European countries.

Mrs. Pipkin, when contacted about her trip said they had had a most wonderful time and had enjoyed seeing all of the sights, but for her the highlights were the tours through the Sheepshead Country, the Scotland Highlands, Danish Country side, Black Forests of Germany, Swiss Alps, Italian Country, the Malfi Drive, Versailles, Malcaison and the French Riviera.

Countries visited included England, Scotland, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, Italy, Switzerland and France. They sailed from New York, July 9th, on the Queen Marie and returned on the Queen Elizabeth, embarking Sept. 15th from Cherbourg.

District Deputy Makes Official Visit To Local Pythian Sisters

Mrs. Jennie May Kilpatrick, district deputy from San Angelo made her official visit to the Pythian Sisters at their meeting Monday evening in Castle Hall.

In her honor the meeting was opened in ritualistic form followed by the initiation of three members, with the drill team in formal dress.

Mrs. J. C. Poe, most excellent chief, presided at the business meeting, and heard reports, including the report of the recent 42 benefit.

Announcement was made of the quarterly covered dish birthday dinner.

Following the meeting refreshments were served from a table laid with a green linen cutwork cloth and was decorated with a yellow arrangement of Fuji mums and gladioli. Crystal and silver appointments were used in the service of lime frosted punch and white cake squares and toasted nuts. Presiding were Mrs. Ima Jordan, Bobby Jean Aker, James Wright and Tim Spurrier.

Mrs. Kilpatrick made a talk, praising the work of the group and invited them to the district meeting to be held Oct. 28, in San Angelo.

Mrs. Jack Lee, temple deputy announced a school of instruction for Sept. 29th.

New members initiated were Mrs. J. C. King, E. P. O'Brien and Aubrey Patton.

Others present were Mrs. C. C. Street, Frankie Flowers, Blanche Nicols, Wayne Brock, Dry, Porter Woods, Bill Darr, Lee Campbell, J. F. Brock, Roland Koch, Hal Boggus, Otto Crabb, Carrol Noble and Frank Williamson.

Mrs. Milton Gaines, who underwent surgery for an eye condition Tuesday at Medical Arts hospital is reported to be improving, according to Mr. Gaines, who talked with the doctors Wednesday.

COLLEGE INTER-CON CLASHES FOR WEEK PROMISE THRILLS

Many football fans will tell you that the best college football is played in September and early October because of the great number of inter-sectional games—and that argument will get a big boost from this weekend's schedule.

In another month, the nation's top teams will be deeply involved in conference schedules, often against some "weak sister" in the loop. But this week:

The inter-sectional program starts with two big battles on Friday night—Southern California vs. Northwestern, and Southern Methodist vs. Duke.

On Saturday, there are such classics as Texas vs. North Carolina, Notre Dame vs. Pennsylvania, UCLA vs. Texas Christian, Washington vs. Minnesota, Oregon vs. Nebraska, and Kansas vs. Santa Clara.

Smartans Meet Michigan Michigan State, ranked by the United Press board of coaches as the nation's No. 1 team, clashes with Michigan in the top game of another type—games that are non-league but not strictly inter-sectional. In the same group are Virginia vs. Vanderbilt, Dartmouth vs. Holy Cross, Navy vs. Yale, and Wisconsin vs. Marquette.

That's not to say there won't be any conference activity this week—every major conference in the nation will have at least one league game, with the Big Ten opener between Ohio State and Indiana heading the list.

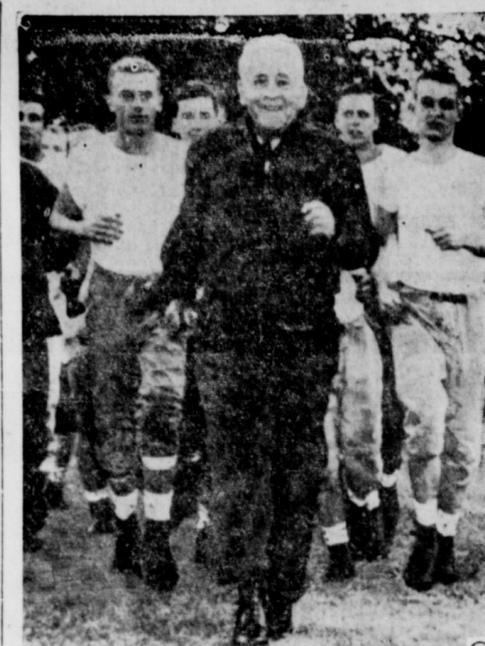

Judging from the thrills and surprises that marked the first big day of the season last Saturday, this big gridiron schedule should take a lot of headlines away from the final stages of the baseball pennant races. And, also, judging from last Saturday, there will be some upsets.

The two chief victims of the opening day show were Texas Christian, which suffered a 13 to 0 defeat by Kansas in front of the national television cameras, and Kentucky, upended 25 to 6 by surprising Villanova.

Ex-Army Stars Shine An odd note here was that both upsets were sparked by backs who performed for West Point until they were swept off the Plains by the "cribbing scandal." Gil Betch was the man who tossed two touchdowns passes for Kansas, and Gene Filipki was he hard-running back who ripped through Kentucky's forward wall.

Maryland, ranked the nation's No. 2 team, narrowly averted an even greater upset by Missouri in a 13 to 10 game.

In addition to the Ohio State-Indiana battle, conference play this week will be highlighted by Ivy League—Columbia-Princeton; Big Seven—Colorado-Oklahoma; Southeastern—Georgia Tech-Flori-rida, Kentucky-Mississippi, Louisiana State, Alabama, Tennessee-Mississippi State, and Tulane-Georgia; Southern—N. S. State-George Washington and four others:

PCC-Washington State Stanford Missouri Valley—Detroit-Wichita Friday; Skyline-Brigham Young-New Mexico, and Wyoming Montana.

Other leading games this week include: Army-South Carolina, Clemson-Villanova, Idaho-Utah, Illinois-Iowa State, Pittsburgh-Iowa, Syracuse-Boston U. Friday Cornell-Colgate, Harvard-Springfield and Penn State-Purdue.

Georgia Tech Is Week's Top 11; Texas Rates 7th

Georgia Tech, an impressive 54 to 6 victor over The Citadel, last weekend, crowded power-packed, but untested Michigan State for the No. 1 spot in the United Press football ratings this week.

Although Michigan State does not open its season until Saturday when it meets its traditional rival, Michigan, the 35 outstanding coaches who make up the United Press rating board accorded Coach Biggie Munn's team top position in the first weekly ratings of the new season.

But so impressed were they with Georgia Tech's showing that the Southeastern Conference team was ranked No. 2—just 36 points behind Michigan State. The Midwest team, the pick of the coaches in their pre-season ratings, received 14 first place votes and a total of 276 points while Georgia Tech received six first place ballots and a total of 240 points. In the pre-season ratings Georgia Tech was ranked third.

Maryland is Third Maryland, rated second at the start of the season, dropped to third place with 211 points after it barely managed to beat Missouri, 13 to 10, in its season's opener last Saturday.

In addition to Georgia Tech, California, Kansas, Villanova and Duke gained stature as the result of their victories in the first weekend of play of the 1952 season.

California, rated fifth pre-season, was given fourth place with 188 points as a result of a convincing 34 to 13 triumph over the College of Pacific.

Texas Moves Up Texas, with a 35 to 14 victory over Louisiana State, advanced from tenth to seventh place. Southern California, which buried a highly regarded Washington State team, 35 to 7, was placed eighth whereas it rated no better than a tie for 13th place in the pre-season predictions.

Kansas, 13 to 0 upset conqueror of Texas Christian, drew ninth place against its pre-season rating of 12th. Villanova, which failed to receive a single vote in the pre-season balloting, received 42 points, good for 13th place, as a result of its 25 to 6 triumph over Kentucky.

Duke with a 34 to 0 victory over Washington & Lee, received 28 points for 14th place against its pre-season placing of 19th.

In all, eight teams were given first place votes; Michigan State 14, Maryland 8, Georgia Tech 6, Kansas and Oklahoma 2 each, and California, Texas and Southern California, 1 each.

In addition to Michigan State, three other teams which have not opened their seasons were voted among the first 10—Oklahoma in fifth place, Illinois sixth and Wisconsin tenth.
