It's Legal For Demos To Write In Ike Vote

AUSTIN, Oct. 16 (UP)—Texas Attorney General Price Daniel ruled Wednesday that Texans may legally write-in Eisenhower and Nixon on the Democratic ticket.

The ruling, in answer to a request from Gov. Allan Shivers, said that votes of Texans who write-in the Republican nominees over the names of the Democratic candidates would be legally counted.

However, Daniel and Shivers have broken with the Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson, over the Illinois governor's opposition to state ownership of the tidelands, and the two Texas officials have announced they will vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republican presidential candidate.

Spelling Doesn't Matter
Daniel said it wouldn't make any difference how Texans spell the names for write-in candidates.

"For instance," the attorney general said, "a write-in vote for 'Stephenson and Sparkman' should be counted for Adlai E. Stevenson and John J. Sparkman."

Likewise a vote for 'Eizenhower and Nixen' should be counted for Dwight D. Eisenhower and Richard M. Nixon."

Both Names Necessary
Daniel said "a voter must write in the names of both the candidate for president and the candidate for vice president nominated by the same party in order for his ballot to be counted."

"However," he added, "only the last name of the candidate is sufficient and their names do not need to be spelled correctly if the intention of the voter can be ascertained from the names and they are written on the ballot."

Daniel said it was "clear" that Texans using voting machines could not write-in the nominees as those using paper ballots could.

"The reason for making such a prohibition," he said, "is that otherwise it would be possible for a voter to vote twice for the same candidate—once on the voting machine and again on the irregular ballot."

AMERICAN CASUALTIES MOUNTING IN KOREA

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (UP)—American battle casualties in Korea now total 121,154, an increase of 885 over those reported last week, the Defense Department announced Wednesday.

The casualties reported include those from the beginning of the war whose next of kin have been notified through last Friday. It normally takes from one to three weeks to notify next-of-kin, so all casualties through last Friday are not included.

Thus, the new total did not reflect entirely the recent heavy fighting in Korea.

Until three weeks ago, weekly casualty increases reported were substantially below 800, but picked up with renewed activity on the front line.

Rangers, NTS Meet Tonight

Around The Square With Mack

This is "hog-killing" weather and only for the fact that we don't own as much as a small pig, we would be in the sausage making business before sundown.

It so happens that Eastland county is ideal for the production and growing of hogs, and the farmer who fails to grow his own meat, at least a portion of it, is missing a great blessing. When he flares back and tells you that he can't afford to feed a hog, it is a simple admission that he doesn't know anything about the subject—maybe he never tried to grow a hog.

When we were a kid most everybody had a hog—town people and all. Of course we don't wish to encourage "city hog raising" as certain fumes, in crowded areas, might become very unpleasant. Yet a farmer with 2 acres or more of land can grow a hog, and save money by doing so. Table scraps, tank water and a few "gray shorts" are all that will be necessary for several weeks. If and when it rains, we have "careless weeds" (likely misspelled) they are wonderful feed for hogs.

Just turn that shout out in the open, but see that your garden is well fenced, and he will find a lot of good food that you probably didn't know existed. Along about September, or a little earlier, put him back in his pen and begin feeding him a little. Corn is one of the best feeds you will find, but in case you don't have corn, and do have maize or kafir, feed these grain sorghums to him and he will grow and fatten.

Then along about the latter part of October, or as for that matter most any time during cold weather, begin giving him a little corn, if it is obtainable, for it will improve the meat texture and flavor. He now ready for slaughter, and he will have about a hundred dollars worth of hams, bacon, jowl, spareribs and sausage that hasn't cost you $20 actual cash. This is a tried and tested receipt.

As a matter of fact fall is about the most pleasant season in the year. It's hunting time and nimrods can usually bring home a well filled bag. It's the time of year when summer heat changes over to frosty mornings and beautiful afternoons. It's the season when golden leaves are found on almost all the trees. It's the season when you can enjoy a fat-ted goose or turkey poulter, along with cranberries and other trimmings.

Yes sir, autumn is beautiful and zestful. You feel like a million dollars whether you own a dime or not. It is the harvest season, a time when barns and cribs are replenished. The yellow pumpkin comes into its own, and football is the sport of the day. Yes, give us these "hog-killing" days of autumn. It is also the season we choose our presidents, so don't forget to vote.

If you are looking for the one outstanding sports event of the season, better make your plans to attend the Eastland-Cross Plains game here Friday night. We are expecting the Mavericks to do their stuff, and most likely they will. Even all the drug stores are going to close at 7:30 in order to make it possible for every body to go. If you need tickets you had better get them now. They are on sale at the business office at the high school.

Area football fans will get a chance to see the new, smooth-working TCU spread formation of the Ranger Junior College Rangers in action tonight at Bulldog Stadium in Ranger when the Purple & White collegians tangle with a band of reservists from North Texas State College, Denton, in a non-conference contest.

Opening kickoff of the inter-sectional contest is scheduled for 8 p.m. sharp, and a large attendance is expected.

Fans were disappointed at the last home showing of the Rangers two weeks ago on the Ranger turf when they bowed to the Navarro Junior College Bulldogs, 12-0, in the first of a series of upsets which have exploded among Pioneer Conference teams.

However, after their breath-taking 12-7 conquest of highly-rated San Angelo Junior College at San Angelo last Saturday night, fan interest has again mounted and a big crowd is expected to be on hand at the Ranger Bulldog grid plant for tonight's opening kickoff.

The Rangers won't have any lead-pipe cinch tonight, however. Late Wednesday, the starting lineup of the NTSC "B" squad was released and a check over the starting string of 11 reveals that their offensive eleven averages 196 pounds per man. Lightest starter is Randall, left half, 170 and beefiest bruisers are a trio of 215-pounders—215-pound linemen Wyse, tackle; Puryear, center; and Bryant, end.

Coach Boone Yarbrough, RJC mentor, said late today that his Purple and White charges are in fine shape for their encounter with the NTSC Bs and is hoping that an early assault by his first-stringers will pile up a substantial lead so his top performers will be able to spend most of the night on the bench for a needed rest preparatory to next week's crucial homecoming tilt with the Tarleton State Plowboys in a Pioneer Conference affair.

HARRICK'S 35-YARD PUNTING AVERAGE IS TOPS IN CIRCUIT
Individual honors in the Pioneer Conference are evenly distributed as league teams reach the half way mark of their 1952 schedules this week.

The Arlington State Rebels retain the lead in total offense with a net gain of 1,681 yards in five games. Ranger leads in running with 1,078 yards in five games but the San Angelo Rams have the best running average with a total gain of 1,043 yards in four games. The Rams' average is 260 yards per game.

Arlington State leads in passing with a total of 645 yards in five games. The Tarleton State Plowboys have the best passing average per game with a total overhead gain of 528 yards in four games, an average of 132 yards per contest.

Gene Henderson, classy San Angelo quarterback, is the loop's leading runner with a total gain of 316 yards in 35 carries, an average of 9 yards per carry. Durwood Watkins of Schreiner is runner-up with 34 carries for 253 yards.

Sam Howard, Arlington State quarterback, is far in front of the passers with 37 completions out of 87 pitches for 617 yards, an average of 17.2 yards per completion. Bobby Bowmer, Conference passing champion last year, pulled into second place last week-end.

Rites Pending For Mills; Dies In Plane Crash

W. H. (Bill) Mills, 47-year-old Sacramento, Calif., ranchman and former Ranger resident, was killed early Monday night in a private plane crash near San Francisco, it was learned last night.

Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Mills, 801 Cypress St., Ranger, ended a visit here with his parents Monday morning enroute home from the World Series and board of an American Airlines Stratoliner at Dallas and arrived in San Francisco about 6:30 p.m. Monday.

First reports from members of the family said that the airliner had crashed. News of Mills' death was telephoned to Buster Mills, a brother, at Waco Wednesday morning about 4 a.m. by a sister, Mrs. Tom Watson, of Sacramento.

However, a check Wednesday night finally revealed that the American Airlines Stratoliner had arrived safely at the San Francisco airport. A few minutes after arriving on the Dallas flight, however, Mills and C. K. Bowman, 45, also of Sacramento took off from the airport in a private single-engine cabin plane owned jointly by the two men. Shortly after the takeoff the plane crashed into a bayshore expressway. Both men died in the crash, cause of which remains undetermined.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills, grief-stricken parents of the crash victim, left Ranger Wednesday for California where funeral services are pending their arrival at Sacramento. Mills will be buried beside his wife, who passed away last summer, in a Sacramento cemetery.

Mills, a graduate of Ranger High School and North Texas State Teachers College, Denton, was a highly successful ranchman and was owner of the Mills Livestock Co., Sacramento.

Survivors in addition to the parents include two brothers, Buster Mills of Waco and Charles Mills of Los Angeles, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Tom Watson of Sacramento, Calif., and Mrs. Ken Hill of San Bernardino, Calif.

Thursday at noon it was announced that funeral services for the ex-Ranger resident will be held at the Andrews & Grielick Funeral Chapel in Sacramento, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock.

Too Many Cars, Hunter Declares

In an article in Wednesday's Telegram, it was stated that Bill Hunter of King Motor Co., sold 516 cars during the month of July. This was somewhat misleading, and we are glad to make a correction. The fact is he made 516 points during this period, but did not sell 516 cars. Some of the cars and trucks carried as much as 15 points.

Lone Star Floats Largest Loan To Continue Expansion; Texas And Oklahoma Rates Been Increased

DALLAS, Oct. 16—Lone Star Gas Company Wednesday, completed a $110 million loan with the Prudential Insurance Company of America. Proceeds from the new loan will retire the outstanding loans, help finance continuing expansion programs, and augment working capital until additional revenue is realized under the system-wide program seeking increased rates.

Eighty-five million dollars will go toward the retirement of all present outstanding funded debt, and part of the remaining $25 million, combined with revenue derived from operations, will be used for reinforcements and additions to physical properties throughout the line of Lone Star operating territory in Texas and Oklahoma.

US Infantryman Capture Korean Hill In Big Push

By ROBERT UDICK

SEoul, Korea, Oct. 16 (UP)—American infantrymen captured "Jane Russell" hill on covering Triangle mountain Thursday, completing a conquest that cost the Chinese Communists more than 2,500 casualties in three days of savage fighting.

A hard-hitting assault by fighting men of the Seventh division's 31st regiment battered the Chinese Reds from the hotly-contested peak and gave the UN troops all three heights on the central front hill mass—Jane Russell, Sandy hill and Triangle itself.

However, the Reds clung desperately to their last foothold on Pike's peak, a knob on the northeast corner of the mountain. U. S. soldiers took the knob against little resistance, but the Reds counter-attacked and forced the Allied troops back 300 to 400 yards.

Estimate 2,535 Casualties

Seventh division officers estimated that in three days of fighting for Triangle, a total of 2,535 Communist soldiers were killed, wounded or taken prisoner. Only 57 were counted killed in action, but another 566 were estimated killed and 1,192 wounded.

Warplanes from six Fifth Air Force fighter-bomber units flew more than 100 sorties in support of Allied ground soldiers in the Kumhwa area. In addition to hits on bunkers, gun emplacements, shelters and caves, pilots reported exploding Red ammunition.

South Korean troops at nearby Sniper ridge said they "pretty well cleaned up" stray Chinese by dropping TNT charges into the mouths of caves where it was suspected the Reds were hiding.

South Korean officers estimated they killed or wounded 571 Chinese Communists in the battle for Sniper, besides capturing 50,000 rounds of small arms ammunition, 850 hand grenades and a handful of rifles and burp guns.

Mop Up on Hill

Seventh division infantrymen were "mopping up" on Jane Russell hill, clearing out surviving Red soldiers.

United Press war correspondent Fred Fainton reported from the scene, however, that the Reds were "constantly" building up their forces on a northern finger leading to Triangle. He said reinforcements were believed coming from a regiment of about 3,000 men hidden in nearby foothills.

Some 700 buzle-blowing, screaming Reds from the hidden shelters assaulted the Americans on Triangle during the night, but got nowhere.

Attack Broken Up

"We had good foxholes," an officer said. "Our wire was up and machineguns zeroed in. We didn't give an inch. We completely busted up the attack. We cut them down with machineguns when they got close."

Fainton reported 30 UN troop carrier planes flew over the Seventh division sector in the Triangle area. There were no reports of parachute landings along the front, however, and the flight of paratroop planes was believed part of the elaborate training exercise feint which saw U. S. soldier fake an invasion on the Korean east coast Wednesday.

United Press Movie camera man Tom McAllen reported that seven American sailors were wounded in Wednesday's seaborne feint when a shell from a Communist shore battery splattered a U. S. destroyer with shrapnel.

STEVENSON AND TRUMAN, BIG DEMO GUNS, FIRE AWAY AT IKE; DANIEL HITS MITCHELL THREAT

By United Press
WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 (UP)—Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson and President Truman a n peppered Dwight D. Eisenhower with twin campaign guns again Thursday.

Stevenson accused the Republican presidential nominee of making political expediency "too much of a habit," while Mr. Truman charged that Eisenhower is trying to "trade away" U. S. oil resources for votes.

Eisenhower was campaigning in New Jersey following a swing through Texas, Louisiana and Tennessee in a bid to woo the South's traditionally Democratic votes. The GOP candidate said he "had a fine trip," during which he said a Stevenson victory Nov. 4 "might tangle us into still greater conflict" than the Korean war.

In a speech prepared for delivery on the state capitol steps in Sacramento, Calif., Stevenson said Republicans are talking at both sides of their mouths. He said they know they can't win on the GOP platform.

Mr. Truman launched a three-day whistle stop tour of New England by scoffing at published reports, attributed to Eisenhower aides, that "the Republican candidates' compromises are all be-

Foreign Boxers Dominate New NBA Rating List

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The National Boxing Association's quarterly ratings showed a distinct foreign flavor with U. S. fighters heading only four of the eight weight divisions.

the game or build a professional reputation. Many Foreign Titles NBA President George A. Barton explained to the forefront so fast that the welterweight title currently is held by Cuba, the lightweight championship by Mexico, the bantamweight crown by South Africa and the flyweight title by Japan.

Adding to the foreign dominance was the fact that all three logical contenders for Ray Robinson's middleweight championship are from outside the U.S. while the No. 1 featherweight challenger is Ray Famechon of France.

The NBA recommended two bouts — one between Fernando Gagnon of Quebec and Pappy Gault of South Carolina to determine a challenger for the bantamweight title now held by Vic Towel of South Africa, and another bout between Black Pico of Cuba and Buddy Baggett of Texas to produce a flyweight who might challenge world champion Yoshie Shirai of Japan. Shirai recently won the title from Dado Marino of Hawaii.

NBA Ratings Heavyweight — Champion, Rocky Marciano; logical contender, Joe Walcott, Rex Layne and Ezzard Charles. Light Heavyweight — Champion, Joe Maximbo, logical contenders, Archie Moore and Harry (Kid) Matthews. Middleweight — Champion, Ray

'Oil Progress' Theme Today's Gholson Meet

Ranger's Rotary and Lions Clubs and several non-member guests attended the "Oil Progress Week" luncheon at the Gholson Hotel in Ranger today at noon.

Featured message of the day, "The Tideland", was delivered by R. M. (Bob) Wafstaff, prominent Abilene attorney who is closely associated with the oil industry.

Lions, Rotarians and visitors also saw a special showing of the oil industry-produced motion picture film, "Crossroads of the U.S.A."

In charge of the noonday luncheon and "Oil Progress Week" program was David D. Pickrell, chairman of the Oct. 12-18 observance. Pickrell is superintendent of Premier Oil & Refining Company, Ranger plant.

Texas. Announcement was authorized by Lone Star President, D. A. Huley, of Dallas, shortly after 10 a.m. when formal "closing" ceremonies got under way in the board room of the Republic National Bank of Dallas.

The new loan bears annual interest at the rate of 3 and one-half per cent and has a term of 25 years, beginning, Oct. 1, 1952.

Negotiations for the loan were conducted by D. A. Huley, president of Lone Star, who dealt mainly with Charles Fleetwood, of Houston, vice-president in charge of the Southwestern home office of the Prudential Insurance Company of America.

Building Program Mr. Huley stated that the new funds from the Prudential will be used to bring the working capital up to requirement levels, in addition to increased revenues which are expected to be realized from new rates which are being "earnestly sought" throughout Lone Star's operating territory in which Lone Star serves more than 660,000 customers in 387 cities and towns in Texas and Oklahoma.

He pointed out that rate increases, "which are greatly needed", have been recently approved and are currently in effect in quite a number of cities and towns.

Mr. Huley stated that "the loan reflects great growth and development by Lone Star and while adequate rates are now being requested and needed, it is good evidence that strong financial institutions believe in the future of our company and have faith in the vast territory we serve in Texas and Oklahoma."

"Growth experienced by Lone Star since World War II," he continued, "has exceeded our predictions. We have met that growth, but it has been accomplished during a time when all costs have been constantly rising. Under these circumstances we have been required to rely substantially on long term borrowed capital, for large scale expansion."

Rapid Growth "Lone Star's growth," he pointed out, "is shown in the fact that since January 1947, net property additions have been in the amount of $115 million and property has been almost doubled in less than six years. Projection estimates call for expenditures of approximately $80 million for additions to properties during the next four years."

Mr. Huley said that expansion will include construction of gathering and transmission lines, compressor stations, exploration and the drilling of wells, adding of gas reserves, development of underground gas storage facilities, extensions and additions to local gas distribution systems, "all of which will enable the company to meet the demands for its service."

"During the past year," the Lone Star president stated, "Lone Star has added more than 50,000 new customers. A gas utility like ours must install distribution mains and other facilities before homes are completed and occupied. During our rapid expansion program, applications for gas service have been handled without undue delay."

Ratliff Visits Purina Farm, Research Labs

Several hundred guests, including James Ratliff of Ranger, visited the Purina Research Farm at Gray Summit, Mo., last week, and spent the following day touring the mills and research laboratories in St. Louis.

Among the units included in the farm tour were those where a grade dairy herd has been averaging upwards of 14,000 pounds of milk annually per cow, and a hog unit where 200 to 225 pound hogs are ready for market in 5 1/2 months.

The visitors were told of the progress made at the turkey unit and were shown how broiler and egg production have been developed to large scale commercial operations.

You Don't Need Much Advice—

... but it is valuable at least twice in your insurance experience. First is, when you get ready to buy insurance, don't select just any kind of an agent or any kind of policy. There's a big difference. Second is, when you have a loss would you rather have your friend at home with year's of insurance experience or some one living in Dallas, St. Louis or elsewhere, to handle your claim? There's another big difference.

Newnham Head C-C Livestock, Farm Group

Morris Newnham, manager of the Ranger Frozen Food Locker plant, is chairman of the agriculture and livestock committee, of the most important of 14 standing committees recently appointed by Charlie Joe Owens, new president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce.

Main function of the nine-man group, reports R. V. Galloway, secretary-manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, is to develop new sources of income for the farmers and ranchmen in this area, such as broiler production, turkey raising, etc. The committee also will assist rural communities in every way possible in the solution of their local problems, and will encourage better relations between farmers and ranchmen and Ranger business men.

The tour included sessions at the beef fattening units, the dog kennels, the rabbitry and fur-bearing animal research area.

In the evening the visitors were entertained at the Mills with a chicken dinner and a musical show staged by Purina employees. The farm tour was concluded at a luncheon at which W. Bridges spoke briefly of the Purina programs and how the individual farmers can get more from what they have.

Pups Plaster Comanche '11' By 13-0 Count

Undeclared in three years of play, the Ranger Junior High Pups are battling hard this season to make it four straight annuals packed with nothing but gridiron triumphs, report Coaches Stubby Warden and Sam Aills.

Next big test—Tuesday night, Oct. 21, out at Bulldog Stadium in Ranger, when the Pups tangle with one of the toughest junior high aggregations in the state. None other than the young Buckaroos of Breckenridge.

The Pups latest victory came Tuesday night over in Comanche when they shut-out a Comanche junior high eleven, 13-0.

The Ranger juniors, incidentally, haven't been scored against but twice—a total of only 12 points—during three years of gridiron combat.

In the Comanche contest, Jerry Cantrell, behind some beautiful blocking, got loose for TD No. 1 in the initial cante when he galloped over from the Comanche 30-yard stripe. Bradford powered over tackle for the point.

A few minutes later, in the second stanza, Freddie Cooper, left half, took a handoff from Cantrell and sprinted 25 yards to pay dirt. Try for the point failed.

David Whorton and Gene Bagwell also stood out as ball-toters for the Bulldogs of tomorrow.

The Pup backs worked effectively behind a strong, hard-hitting line-up—Paul Hinds, Mendoza, Tibbels, Nail, Angel, Penn, Go-forth, Hagaman and Dan Cruse.

NIGHT DANGER
CLEVELAND, O. (UP)—Street and Traffic Safety Light-Bureau statistics show that 30 per cent of all auto accidents occur at night although only one-fourth as many vehicles are on the road as in daytime. Inadequate street illumination, the bureau said, is one of the major reasons for difference.

Other members of the agriculture and livestock committee, in addition to Chairman Newnham, are P. T. Smith, Lee Everhart, James Ratliff, Leslie Hagaman, T. C. Wylie, H. G. Adams, J. D. Johnson and John Tibbels.

GENERAL PUBLIC IS INVITED TO HEAR RANGER TALKS OF DR. CUNNINGHAM ON FRIDAY

Dr. Glenn Cunningham, world renowned track star, will speak in Ranger Friday morning, and the general public is cordially invited to hear his addresses, Rev. Ralph Perkins, head of the Ranger Ministerial Alliance, sponsors of the athlete's visit to Eastland County said today.

Dr. Cunningham will deliver his first address to the student body in the Ranger High School auditorium Friday morning at 10 o'clock, announces Rev. Perkins, pastor of Ranger's First Baptist Church.

The famed ex-athlete's next appearance—an hour later—will be before the students of Ranger Junior College at 11 o'clock. Title of Dr. Cunningham's address is "Clean Living in the Race of Life."

This will be his only visit to Eastland County, according to the Ranger Ministerial Alliance.

Bulldogs Get Nod To Win Friday Night

The Ranger High Bulldogs wage their sixth battle of their 1952 grid war at Bulldog Stadium in Ranger Friday night when they meet White Settlement High. For Worth, in a non-conference schoolboy contest.

Opening kickoff—8 p.m. sharp. The Bulldogs, after dropping their openers to Jacksboro and Stamford in intersectional clashes, jumped over into the win column three weeks ago and rolled over Eastland, Winters and Hamilton in impressive succession to stack up three straight triumphs. The Maroon & White charges of Stubby Warden and Sam Aills, tater off pre-battle drills this afternoon and are in top shape for Friday night's tilt.

Most encouraging were reports that Fullback J. L. Barnes and ace pass-snatching End Tommy Hinds, both stellar RHS first-stringers who've been absent from the lineup due to injuries, may see action in tomorrow night's fracas.

The Bulldogs are rated favorites to win the contest with White

Settlement which has a none-too-impressive record thus far.

Coach Warden is expected to release his starting lineup early Friday.

Mounting fan interest in the Bulldogs as a result of their recent victories assures a fair attendance for the Friday night non-conference game.
