Around The Square

With Mack

Of all our many holidays in America, Christmas seems to be the most popular and widely observed. Young and old, saint and sinner, all pause at Christmas-time. Some of them may not be interested in the Saviour, whose birth we commemorate, but they are interested in the trimmings of this particular season.

They enjoy the merry-making, the good fellowship and the festive boards that are laden with the best in the land. It is truly a season of good cheer, and even the most obdurate heart will yield to the warm rays of a shining sun found at Christmas. It is a season of love and fellowship—a season where generosity prevails. In all it is wonderful.

And while there may be a commercial side to Christmas, we doubt if it is harmful. Did you know that in America, that one of the incandescent lamps manufactured are sold at Christmas time for Christmas trees and similar displays? That hundreds of thousands of good Americans depend upon their Christmas sale of toys, candies, gifts and trees for their livelihood? We shouldn't oppose this, as it would not be Christ-like to do so. But we do wish some of the celebrating parties would be more Christ-like with their celebrations. In other words let's not do those things that will bring sorrow or reproach upon the name of the one we would glorify.

We quite often find ourselves being led by facts, fancies, and foolishness. Somebody does something, and then the others of us do the same thing. For instance, it is an age-old custom to yell newly-weds with rice. Just why we cannot say, but it is done everywhere. Now that rice is becoming scarce people have been asked to do away with the silly custom. Normally we grow some 9 million tons of rice in this country, though last year it was only about half that amount. So it might be well to give up the custom of throwing rice at weddings—might need it for food some day.

According to the "grape-vine" news bureau, it appears that the sheriff's department is to get a new car. That's fine, as it will enable them to have a 50-50 break with law breakers. We hope the next addition will be another man on the force or another deputy, for it is certainly needed.

While the water situation in Eastland is about the same as it has been for some time—little water and high prices, we are better off than Dallas, at that. The reason for this is that there are a few more people in Dallas than in Eastland—just more people to perish. Also this may be encouraging. We are out of water but have arranged to haul enough for necessary uses. Dallas has not, so far as we know, have any place from which to draw additional water.

Maybe they had better begin changing the course of Red River, so that it will pass through Dallas and then open flood gates of the Denison Dam.

It's serious people. A city with almost half a million people, down to a 60-day water supply, and no relief in sight.

Only two weeks until the election, and most of us will be glad when it is over. It has been a long, drawn-out affair, and we, all of us want our candidate elected. There will be disappointment for some of us, though it likely will not prove fatal.

Be sure to vote. If you fail to do this you have no kick coming, and the candidate the other voters choose, and like it.

Little Items Of Local Interest

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Boggus spent the week end in Hobbs, N.M., in the home of their daughter. They report a splendid time, and Jim brought back a curious bug. Seems it is known as a "Child of Earth". He is quite vicious and to tough for close inspection.

Food Prices Dropping

Food prices in this section of Texas, including the Eastland County area, have taken the sharpest drop since the Korean War exploded back on June 25, 1950, it was announced early Monday.

The declines, lead by seasonal drops in pork products, were fairly general among the items checked by a retail grocers' organization.

Twenty-eight items were included. It cost $12.43 to buy those items Saturday.

Six weeks ago it took $13.04 to buy the identical foods. A drop, in other words, of 61 cents.

It was the biggest drop, incidentally, since similar price survey checks were instituted prior to the outbreak of hostilities in Korea, and the general declines put total cost of the 28 items back to the level of December, 1950—nearly two years ago. And that was just prior to the general price freeze.

Saturday's total cost, in fact, actually was lower—by a 19-cent margin—than the $12.62 the list of food items cost when prices were frozen in Jan., 1951.

Also, the current cost is far below last October, when the peak of $13.57 was recorded.

Prices are still higher than the period preceding the Korean war, however. Saturday's $12.43 was 71 cents above pre-Korean war's $11.72.

Recently, the survey showed, prices have dropped on 14 of the items, 11 have remained the same, and only three went up. Prices dropped substantially on pork, as the new crop of pigs came to market. Smaller declines also were registered on tomatoes, veal, seven-roast, ground meat, fryers, bacon and potatoes.

TESCO Veteran Employees To Be Given Awards

Eight veteran employees of TESCO Electric Service Company who this year have completed 25 years of continuous service will be honored at a dinner Tuesday night in the Eastland High School gymnasium, W. B. Pickens, Eastland district manager of the electric company announced Tuesday. They are Raymond Alvarado, G. A. Barker, J. L. Kuhn, and C. L. Little—all of Leon Plant; Wayne Caton, Eastland; J. L. Funderburgh, De Leon; S. B. Harbison, Graham; and J. M. Taylor, Breckenridge. The new members will bring the membership of the Quarter Century Club in the Eastland area to 26.

More than 300 employees and guests are expected to see the presentation of gold watches to the new members by J. B. Thomas, president of the company, and to hear an address by Dr. James W. Fifield, Jr. of Los Angeles.

Cemetery Group Meeting Called

A meeting of members of the Pleasant Grove Cemetery Association has been called for Thursday evening, Oct. 30, it was announced today.

The business session will be held at 7:30 p.m. that evening at the Harmony Baptist Church, Morton Valley, and all members are urged to attend the important meeting.

Rugged PC Elevens Open Title Scramble

The unpredictable Pioneer Conference title chase will get underway in earnest Saturday when the giant-killing Ranger Junior College Rangers play host to the smart, well-drilled Tarleton State Plowboys and the high-scoring Arlington State Rebels travel to Kerrville for a setto with the spirited Schriener Mountaineers.

As the loop race begins, Pioneer teams sport a gaudy record of 20 victories against 6 defeats in competition with outside opposition including intersectional, valley, Texas Junior College Conference, and Big Six Conference teams.

The two conference games this week will certainly bring out a pair of real contenders for the league championship.

Coach Boone Yarborough's loop-leading Rangers will put on the line the best defensive record in the league when they tangle with Tarleton State. Thus far this season the Rangers have allowed six opponents only 32 points. The Ranger line, spearheaded by such performers as Joe Angel, 185-pound guard from Birdville and Ross Nall, a 250-pound tackle from Graham, is rated one of the finest in its class.

Offensively, the Ranger passing attack has not appeared too impressive, but the club has an extremely effective rushing game featuring Freddy Sanders, one of the league's best runners, Rusty Talbot, Charles Blanton, and Bud Hamrick, a real triple threat.

IRON LUNG PATIENT, FORMER EASTLAND GIRL, GIVES BIRTH TO SON IN WICHITA HOSPITAL

A 28-year-old Olney woman, confined to an iron lung with polio for the past month gave birth to a son in Wichita Falls, Tuesday morning, Oct. 14, after a drama-packed hour and 15 minutes in which doctors and nurses worked to keep mother and child alive.

Doctors described the condition of Mrs. Edwin Boyd, still in the iron lung, and her son, Charles Edwin, as "fine."

The father, an Olney oilfield worker, was also in good shape after a 28-day vigil at Wichita General hospital. "I fell a lot better," he sighed.

A battery of five doctors and seven nurses worked feverishly in the early morning hours to make the unusual delivery a successful one.

Mrs. Boyd, who cannot breathe outside the iron lung without oxygen, was removed from the lung for the delivery.

While the doctors worked, the nurses gave Mrs. Boyd oxygen through an apparatus inserted in her tracheotomy tube, and opening in the throat.

The baby was born at 5:55 a. m. A doctor said the weight was around seven pounds.

Although several women with polio have had babies at the hospital in the past several years, doctors said this was the first time one had been born to a complete respirator case.

"We've been practicing for this for days," one doctor commented. "It was quite an affair. But Mrs. Boyd is a remarkable patient. I've never heard her complain once since she's been here."

Mrs. Boyd, a well-known piano teacher in Olney, was rushed to the hospital on the night of Sept. 16 and placed in the iron lung. The Boyd's are also parents of a daughter.

Mrs. Boyd is the former Linouese Lutz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas Lutz of Lee Ray, just north of Eastland, and her father is employed by Sun Oil Co.

Linouese was a graduate of Mary Hardin Baylor College, majoring in piano, and was a member of the faculty until her marriage.

She is the granddaughter of Mrs. Sam A. Davis and the late Sam A. Davis, residents of Eastland county for 65 years. She is also the mother of a five-year-old daughter, Linda Kay Boyd.

MASS MEETING AT STAFF WEDNESDAY

A mass meeting will be held at the Baptist Church in the Staff community Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock for the purpose of discussing the route of the new farm-to-market highway in that area and also the new lake. All citizens are urged to attend.

Both teams also boast bruising running games. Schreiner will strike with Durwood Watkins and Leon Sefton and the Rebs will counter with a half a dozen of the finest speed merchants; the team has had in five years.

Last week Ken Vavra, Bernie Cook, Joel Muse, Ron Bond, Malcolm Hammack, and Paul Wayne Ernst accounted for most of the 360 yards rushing the Rebs compiled against Blinn.

San Angelo, beaten 56-7 by Compton Junior College at Compton, California, last week, will be idle until next week-end.

Overcast Skies Blanket County; No Rain Is Due

Overcast skies blanketed Eastland County this morning, and "partly cloudy" was the weatherman's prediction for this area for today with highest temperatures due to be in the lower 70s.

A drop of 20 or more degrees is due late today, however, with tonight's mercury readings due to fluctuate around in the lower 50s.

Eastland Countians and all Southwesterners for that matter, who've had to endure the jibes and jests of friends and relatives in the North during the record-shattering summer and early fall, really came into their own today—enjoying balmy and comfortable weather while the north and east slipped and shivered through snow and ice, according to mid-day press dispatches.

Skies were clear from Wyoming to the Rio Grande. Temperatures were mild. The weather bureau said the same pattern would prevail at least through Wednesday.

The only unpleasant note was the same one that has spoiled the picture for many months—the continuing drought in Texas and Oklahoma. Forecasters saw no hint of relief.

The dry weather has also led to the danger of extensive forest fires in Wyoming. A light rain fell in the southeast part of the state Monday, but no station reported more than .02-inch.

Scout Drive For Funds Be Staged Wed., October 29

Scout-minded Rotarians enjoyed a good program Monday, by Brantley Hudson of Brownwood. It was Dick Wesson's program, and Mr. Wesson introduced Bill Brown, who in turn introduced the speaker.

Hudson is Scout Executive for the north district of the Comanche Trail group, and he is well informed. He stated that the first sponsor for a Scout troop was a Rotary Club, and that Rotarians are very active, even at this late date.

He mentioned the Scout Jamboree in Washington which was an imposing scene when 47,000 scouts moved in with their tented city. Another Jamboree is planned for 1953, and plans are being made to make it the greatest scout gathering in the history of the organization. It will be held in California.

Eastland has three scout groups, stated Hudson, and they are to take part in a national campaign to encourage a large vote.

Each year the Scouts here have a drive for finances. The drive this year will be staged on Wednesday, Oct. 29 which is next week.

There will be a kick-off breakfast at the Connellee Hotel roof garden at 7 a.m., and workers will go out from the meeting ready to complete the drive within hours.

Mrs. Ward was the daughter of Mrs. Tince Davenport, 602 South Walnut, and the late R. L. Davenport, Eastland pioneer.

She is survived by her mother, a daughter, Mrs. Jack DeKoster of New York City; a son, Guy J. Ward of El Paso; three sisters, Miss Elizabeth Davenport, Eastland; Mrs. Charles Sutton of Alamo, N. M., and Mrs. R. L. Crutcher of Beaumont and two brothers, Bill Davenport of Eastland and Ben Davenport of Dallas.

Ex-Convict Is Nabbed Sunday

Mrs. Gleason, 83, Passes Away In Massachusetts

Mrs. Albert H. Gleason, 83, for many winters a resident of Eastland, passed away at her home in Gloucester, Mass., Saturday evening at 8 o'clock, and services will be conducted in her late home in Gloucester, Tuesday afternoon, with the Rev. Willard L. Osborn officiating. Burial will be in Forestvale. Mrs. Gleason requested that the hymns "I Love Thy Church, Oh Lord", and "The King of Love, My Shepherd Is", be read.

Mrs. Gleason is the mother of Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, 1201 South Scamman, Eastland, and is quite well known here. She has spent several winters in this city, and was a member of the Eastland Music Club, and the Civic League for many years. She was also a member of the Susan Steele Class of the Methodist Church here.

Mary Sophia Folsom Gleason was born March 13, 1876, in the Houghton Farmstead in the Village of Rockbottom, Town of Stow, Mass. Her parents were Benjamin F. Folsom and Sarah (Priest) Folsom.

On October 4, 1892, she was married to Albert Howe Gleason. A few years later the village school became Gleasonville, and about that time the Methodist Church was built, and she was organist for a number of years. In fact she had served as organist since she was 15 years of age, or for 50 years, and her father directed the choir for equal length of time.

She was president of the Stow Woman's Association, the Hudson Woman's Club, Music Committee of the Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs, honorary member of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, and a founder of the headquarters building. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, the Folsom Family Association, and life member of the Mizpah Chapter, O.E.S. She was production chairman for the Red Cross in World War I, and always a worker on the Roll Call Membership drive.

It will also be remembered that her daughter, Mrs. Joseph M. Perkins, entertained with open house at her home here in March, 1950, honoring her mother on her 80th birthday.

She is survived by a daughter, Emily Gleason Perkins, and a son Howard Folsom Gleason; three grandchildren, Mrs. C. Keith Beyette, Fort Worth, Robert G. Perkins, Eastland, and Dorothy Perkins, Midland; four great grandchildren, Emily and Susan Beyette, and Sarah Elizabeth and Mary George Perkins, were her pride and joy.

What Goes On Here? Is This Guy A Swami?

Who's going to win the November 4 election? That's the $64 question in Eastland County, in Texas and all over the nation.

Will it be Illinois' Gov. Adlai Stevenson, nominee of the currently in-power Democratic party—or will it be Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, the Republicans' 1952 standard-bearer?

Grover Lee, Ranger Daily Times and Eastland Daily Telegram staffer, got an interesting answer to that $64 question for a quarter.

And you'll get it—for free—tomorrow!

Officers from Abilene were due to arrive in Ranger sometime today to pick up Thomas M. Spoon, 22-year-old Mineral Wells ex-convict who has been held in the Ranger city jail since his arrest late Sunday by Patrolman Ralph Veal of the Ranger Police Department.

The slight-built, light brown-haired man is wanted by law enforcement officers in at least two states for burglary, theft, forgery and breaking and entering.

Sheriff Fred Foreman of Palo Pinto County and Chief of Police Frank Granbury of Mineral Wells were in Ranger Monday and took a statement from the 5-foot 2-inch ex-Texas National Guardsman behind closed doors at the City Hall. They questioned the Resort City man regarding burglaries in adjoining Palo Pinto County.

Sheriff Foreman had a warrant for Spoon's arrest—the 22-year-old has been hunted during an intensive search by area officers for the past two weeks—but the Palo Pinto officer agreed to let representatives of the Taylor County sheriff's department have the young ex-convict who served a two-year term for burglary in the state penitentiary at Huntsville.

Taylor County officers have a warrant for Spoon's arrest on charges of "breaking and entering" and car theft.

However, Spoon is also wanted by officers at Hobbs, N. M., and at Lubbock, according to Police Chief W. G. Pounds of the Ranger Police Department. He faces burglary and forgery charges at Lubbock and is also charged with burglary in a warrant issued at Hobbs, N. M., Chief Pounds said. It is possible, too, he added, that the young Mineral Wells man may be named in warrants elsewhere.

Spoon's picture has appeared in several bulletins of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Spoon's post-penitentiary wave of petty crime came to a climax in Ranger little more than a week ago.

On Saturday, Oct. 11, the green-eyed ex-convict broke the lock on an auto dealer's used car lot in Abilene and drove away in a 1950 Chevrolet sedan.

About midnight, Ranger police officers, who have become "notorious" in recent months for their amazing success in spotting and recovering stolen automobiles, received a call from a service station on Highway 80 reporting that a "suspicious-acting" young man was attempting to sell a spare wheel and tire to finance the purchase of gasoline. He said the car was "borrowed," belonged to a friend. The suspicious service station attendant notified police. But Spoon quickly abandoned the vehicle and disappeared in the darkness behind another service station as the Patrolman Veal and Joe Fainboth whizzed to the scene in a patrol car.

On checking the abandoned vehicle, the Ranger officers found a suitcase of clothes. Later, down at headquarters, a thorough search of the bag payed off with discovery of a discharge certificate from the Texas National Guard which gave officers a complete description of the man and checked with the description on the FBI circular.

How Spoon was approached and picked up and arrested Sunday by Patrolman Veal is almost fantastic.

It was a beautiful Sunday afternoon and there was considerable traffic on Highway 80 west of Weatherford.

The neat-appearing, hitch-hiker, a nice-looking young gent in his early 20s, was headed westward toward Eastland.

He wouldn't have much difficulty. Not today. And he didn't. Because the driver of a pickup skidded to a halt a few yards ahead. The young man jumped in with the driver and his wife and the (Continued On Page 4)

Turkey Dressing Demonstration Be November 3

Plans are complete for the turkey dressing and processing demonstration to be held at the high school in Rising Star on November 3, says Dr. Ben H. Fraley, of that city, president of the Central Texas Turkey Growers Association, who is sponsoring the all-day affair.

Purposes of the demonstration is to teach the proper method of killing and dressing the big birds for the home freezer or for the locker box and to teach those who expect to exhibit at the National Turkey Show in Dallas in January how to prepare their dressed turkeys according to Dr. Bradley.

E. Z. Beamblossom of the A&M College Extension Service and George Draper, an official of the National Turkey Improvement Association will be present and have charge of the demonstration, Dr. Bradley said.

A large group of producers of the big birds in Eastland and adjoining counties are expected to attend this meeting which will start at 10 o'clock on the above date. Producers who wish are asked to bring one of their birds along to dress.

The turkey organization has been planning the affair for the past several months.

"More and more people are buying and using home freezers and should know when and how to kill and prepare the big birds for cold storage," Dr. Bradley said.

Turkey growers and those interested are cordially invited to attend.

The Chamber of Commerce in Rising Star is also cooperating in the all day meeting, it was said.

Two Duroc Hogs Enter Contest

Mike & Ike, two Duroc hogs, are getting ready for their annual contest to see which one can gain more weight at less cost during the next three months—which happens to be the football season.

Mike, the well-known triple threat star from the farm of Baldy Hapfel, will kick off to Ike, the hopeful from Pork-U-on-the-Pines, Wednesday at the Wilson Feed and Seed—L. J. Wilson store manager, announced today.

With a trip to the Pork Dowl at stake, condition will count for everything. L. J. Wilson pointed out and for that reason, Mike will be fed corn and Hog Chow, while Ike will depend on grain, shorts and mids.

The grand finale will be staged at the Wilson Feed Store on Saturday, December 8, when the special party will be staged to see the winner.

Meanwhile, all farmers and others interested in pork production are being invited to come in to watch the "pigskin parade," L. J. Wilson said.

"Ike" Democrats To Meet Friday

The Eastland County group of "Texas Democrats for Eisenhower" will have a special meeting on Friday night, at which time plans will be made for next week. If you are an Eisenhower Democrat, you are requested to be present.

Time and place will be announced Wednesday.

600 Expected To Attend Stockmen's Barbecue Thursday

S. P. Croffs, Cisco, prominent Angus breeder and president of the Eastland County Livestock Raisers Association for the past year, has been renominated according to a report of the nominating committee recently released.

The report stated that all of Election not only of the officers but also for the directors will be held in connection with the annual barbecue of the organization at the City Park in Eastland on next Thursday night, October 23 at 6:30 o'clock. Other nominations can be made from the floor prior to election. However, nomination is virtually tantamount to election, it was said.

At least 600 are expected to attend the annual affair and preparations are being made to feed that many according to Judge M. S. Long, Eastland, general chairman of arrangements. Varioucommittees have been at work for some time.

D. S. Buchanan, Stephenville, livestock specialist in England and Europe with the Marshall Plan Aid to foreign countries will make the principal address at the bar-

Chickens Score Success

TRUSSVILLE, Ala. (UP)—A success story was written by three teenage brothers here who built up a thriving chicken farm business which now has a block of 22,000.

Norman Moore, 16 and his brothers, Billy, 17, and LeRoy 13, started out with 3,000 baby chicks six years ago. Using modern methods of chicken farming and brain-knocks with determined work, they built the flock up to where they marketed 48,000 broilers in a year.

They have added a sixth shed which they built themselves and which will care for 10,000 more chickens. It is now possible for them to market 126,000 fryer-size chickens a year.

USDA Has Good News For Steak Lovers Of Nation

The department warned that because the increase in beef supplies will be gradual, price declines may be "moderate."

While slaughter is up enough this year to slow the expansion slightly, about 93 million cattle are expected to be on hand next January.

The department said the increased beef supplies may bring total meat production next year to a new peacetime high though it won't match the 1943-45 wartime average. It estimated total production will average about 144 pounds a person next year compared to 142 pounds this year and 137.8 pounds in 1951.

Drive-In Church Draws Worshipers

WARREN, O. (UP)—For about a year now, the Methodist Church in nearby Southington has been holding drive-in church services each Sunday and it appears the technique is popular.

Officials report attendance is up and membership has about doubled to the present figure of 300.

The drive-in feature was inaugurated under the direction of the Rev. Theodore Hubbell, whose sermons are "piped" outside through a loudspeaker system in the church's heltry. Listeners park on the church grounds.

The tiny church was built in 1838.

KOREAN WAR IS UNCLE SAM'S 'BABY'; 250,000 AMERICAN GIs DOING BULK OF FIGHTING

By PHIL NEWSOM

United Press Foreign Analyst. We may as well face it. The Korean war is our baby.

Which is not to argue the moral and political issues, nor events leading up to the war, nor even whether we should have gotten into it in the first place.

But, rather the situation that faces us now.

Having run into an apparently hopeless stalemate at Panmunjom, UN truce negotiators now are wiling that the issue come before the UN Assembly. First step is expected to be a move for blanket endorsement of U. S. direction of the war. The second will be to get more help in fighting the war.

Morally, those nations outside the Communist orbit are agreed that any peace in Korea must be a peace with honor.

U. S. H/ Most There Sixteen United Nations members now have troops in Korea. Of these, the United States, with approximately 250,000 men, has by far the greatest number.

Britain and the commonwealth nations, with a full division among them, plus air and naval strength, are next. After them, more or less in order, come France, Turkey, Greece, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg, Columbia, Ethiopia, Thailand and the Philippines.

Public Opinion

To the editor of the Eastland Telegram—will you kindly print the following:

'COOD OLD DAYS'

Yes those were the good old days when men were free. Those were the days when men swayed hungrily along the streets, groping their way from shop to factory clinging to a thread of hope that the next employer would give them a job. How hard it was when they had to say to their wives and kiddies: "I've gone everywhere, there's no work to be found". Those old enough to remember need no reminder. Those too young to remember, being used to the prosperous years of the present, would regard it as a horror story, and many may think "it can't happen to us," but it can if we don't put the right men in public offices. In those early '30's we paid no income tax, no social security, no hospitalization insurance, and when a job was finished our income was finished, and just plain poverty stared us in the face.

Now we make more in a week, I mean too our take home pay after all deductions, than we made in a month in the early '30's, with shorter working days and under better conditions. A progressive government and good unions have done that for us. With 62,000,000 fully employed, is it time for a change? I should say not. Let's cling to the good things we have and strive to improve them, rather than to barter our hard-earned gains to the political market for glorious empty Republican promises.

2,784 Texans To Be Drafted In December

AUSTIN (UP) — Texas' largest draft quota in 20 months—a call for 2,784 men in December—was recently announced by state Selective Service headquarters.

The national quota for December is 47,000 men, all for the Army. State Selective Service headquarters said the December induction call for Texas is the largest since March, 1951, when 4,145 men were taken into the Army. Only 362 men were called in December, 1951.

Lt. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, deputy state Selective Service director, said the state's 137 local boards will receive quotas later this month, to be filled mainly with men in the 20-year-old age group. He pointed out that local boards must fill the call with men 20 years old and older at time of induction.

Only delinquents and volunteers below the age of 20 may be inducted, Schwartz added. Texas draft boards recently were authorized to examine men down to the age of 19 years and

Movie, Book, TV Show Win Award

NEW YORK—A new motion picture, a recently published book, and the nation's most popular television program today were designated as winners of Christopher awards "for the inspiration and high quality entertainment they provide to a vast audience."

Awards for the month of October, as announced by Father James Keller, M. M., founder and director of the Christophers, go to the film "Ivanhoe," to "Karen" the biography of a youthful victim of cerebral palsy, and to the "I Love Lucy" TV show. Bronze medallions will be presented to the winners for their contribution that represents "a significant step in the direction of providing the public with entertainment of enduring spiritual quality."

"These three works are living proof of the power of the creative arts, under God, to provide a vast audience with inspiration and high quality entertainment," Father Keller said, adding that while it is not required that an award-winner have an explicit-religious theme, it is expected that "each of them will reflect a warmth and freshness that can stem only from a spiritual inspiration."

Price Controls Cover Less Than Half Of Items

WASHINGTON (UP) — Less than half the things you buy are under full price controls.

The Office of Price Stabilization reports that about 43 per cent of the budget of the average family of four goes for goods and 11 months, but Swartz emphasized that such men cannot be inducted under present authorization. Boards must receive authority from national headquarters to induct men under 20.

Induction of men in December was scheduled from Dec. 1 through Dec. 13, because of customary armed forces holiday leaves and furloughs at Christmas.

8 More Texans On Korean List Of Casualties

WASHINGTON, (UP) — The Department of Defense listed the names of eight Texans on its 671st casualty list of the Korean war.

Two were killed, one was missing in action, four were wounded and the eighth was injured, the department said.

Killed were Army Pfc's J. Brown, Corsicana and Will E. Flores, Floresville. Army Pfc. Gilberto Gonzales, Wharton, was missing in action. Three soldiers—2nd Lt. Ernest K. Falch Jr., Comfort; Pvt. David C. Huffman, Hemphill, and Sgt. Robert O. Meekes, Balmorhea—were wounded, as was Marine Pfc. Franklin D. Sanford, Port Arthur. Army Pvt. Robert L. Walker, 101 Zedds Drive, San Antonio, was injured.

services fully covered by price curbs. Certain foods which make up another 15 per cent of the family budget are under "partial" control, the agency reported.

Congress, in revising the defense production act last summer, removed controls from items which make up about 35 per cent of the budget, including all fruits and vegetables and some rents. OPS itself has lifted curbs over other items composing about seven per cent of the budget.

The price agency based its break down on a survey of some 200 items most important in the cost of living.

Wed To Live Long Is Advice Of Japs

TOKYO (UP) — A Japanese with a wife can live a lot longer than one without, according to the Welfare Ministry.

A single man faces three prime hazards—tuberculosis, fatal accidents and suicide, government researchers said.

Marriage, they concluded, "is helpful to maintain health."

"More than 40 per cent of the unmarried persons died of tuberculosis," the ministry reported.

"It might be expected that there were more deaths by suicide among the unmarried. However, more unmarried men were killed in accidents than married ones."

The ministry said a man could expect to live about 43 years after his marriage, if he started somewhere in his twenties. If a 25-year-old man stays single, the ministry said, his life may be expected to end—one way or another—at the ripe old age of 49.

PREDICT HISTORY-MAKING RECORD VOTE ON NOV. 4

The American people, spurred by groups ranging from Boy Scouts to auto dealers, Saturday appeared ready to break all voting records on Nov. 4.

Some observers have predicted the 1952 vote may reach 60 to 65 million. The record turnout of the past was 50 million in 1940. The vote was 48.8 million.

A preliminary United Press survey showed an increasing number of citizens, many of them stirred by "get-out-the-vote" organizations, registering for the right to help pick a new president.

Final figures are not in because registration books still are open in many states. If the actual turnout for the balloting approaches registration activity, a record is likely.

52 Per Cent in '48
Because of population increases, the 1948 vote showed a greater lack of interest than reflected numerically. It was only 52 per cent of the total adult population compared with 98 per cent of the adults in 1940.

But Boy Scouts weren't ringing doorbells before either of those elections nor were auto dealers in scattered areas offering free rides to register.

They are only two of the non-partisan groups urging citizens to register and vote for the candidates of their choice. In addition many of the tricks of high pressure advertising are being used.

Oklahoma City merchants—presumably of both political persuasions—have put up $5,000 for a unique lottery designed to encourage voting. All who deposit ballot stubs in boxes of stores of participating merchants will be included in the drawing.

Big Okla. Vote Forecast
Because of the intense interest in the campaign—plus various promotion ideas—Oklahoma's voter turnout is forecast at 925,000 about 100,000 more than 1940 and 200,000 more than 1948.

The big population states of the North, East and Far West are doing a land office registration business. Indications are that a good percentage of these actually will vote.

New York City alone hoped to register four million voters, and analysts estimate that the total New York state vote will be between 6.5 to seven million.

California is gaining population at the rate of 12,433 persons a month. This is an important factor in the outlook for that state. Registration of more than six million is expected with a vote of about five million considered likely.

Elsewhere across the nation general indications are the same: The largest registration and vote turnout in history.

trio were on their way. It was a nice ride. An enjoyable one with trival conversation and banter passing between the three.

Not too many minutes had passed before the pickup arrived in Ranger, turned to the right at the intersection of Main and Highway 30, rolled up a few blocks to the "Police Station at the City Hall."

"This is where you gather your rop," the driver of the pickup said.

And the young guy was surprised. Surprised beyond words.

The driver—none other than strolman Ralph Veal—wasn't. He'd recognized the face instantly when he'd neared the tech-hiker—the face that had appeared on those circulars from the FBI.

And this one face, the Ranger police officer who says "hunting stolen cars is like hunting squirrels," was indelibly stamped in Veal's mind. Because it belonged to the man who had escaped from a 1950 Chevrolet sedan a week before and disappeared into the larkness of that Saturday night.

Due to the fact that his wife was in the pickup, Veal kept his identity covered, didn't make any play.

"I probably wouldn't have mattered much, however, because when he was frisked at the police station prior to being locked in a cell his only weapon was a small pocket knife.

"I know they'll stick me," Spoon told a reporter Monday afternoon. "But I'll take it and then maybe I'll get another chance.

"I tried to go straight," he said. "But everytime I'd get a job they would find out I was an ex-con, they'd let me go. I got tired of it."

So, he explained, he went back to crime, the business "that doesn't pay."

"I've been doing some heavy thinking," he said. "And I hope I've learned my lesson.

"And when another chance comes," he added soberly, "I'll stick it out and make it—the right way."

"Wish I'd have done that this time," he said forlornly. Then he lit a cigar and went back to his bun.

NEW MUSIC LEADER AT TSCW

"The college with the singing students" is what Texans are calling the Texas State College for Women, Denton, since Dr. J. Wilgus Eberly, above, new director of music, is having every girl join in group singing throughout the Golden Anniversary year now underway. Kickoff day is November 6. Dr. Eberly, known for development of fine arts festivals in the South, came to TSCW in September. He also is expanding the all-girl symphony and choirs.

1,200 4-H Winners to Receive Coveted Trips

A panel of 4-H'ers discusses Club Congress theme "Serving as Loyal Citizens Through 4-H." More than $750,000 in college scholarships, savings bonds, trips, leader training and other rewards is being contributed through the National 4-H Committee to promote the activities of 4-H—the world's largest volunteer youth organization.

CLIMAX of a year of earnest 4-H Club work for some 1,200 enthusiastic 4-H boys and girls will be the 31st National 4-H Club Congress scheduled to convene in Chicago, November 30—December 4. These outstanding young people, selected from more than 2,000,000 4-H Club members in the 48 states, Alaska, Hawaii, and Puerto Rico, are winners in 4-H projects conducted through the Extension Service.

For this select group of 4-H'ers, the trip to the Congress is a coveted honor earned only through diligent effort. As Congress delegates, they receive various 4-H awards arranged through the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work, a citizens' group which lends support to the 4-H program.

More than 40 business firms, foundations, and public-spirited individuals sponsor national and sectional 4-H award projects as their contribution to this sound, successful youth program. The donor organizations provide to the National Committee grants totaling more than $750,000 to be used for 4-H medals, trips, college scholarships, watches, savings bonds, leader training, and other aids.

Among prominent citizens who provide award funds to be administered by the National Committee as an impetus to 4-H accomplishment are Mrs. Charles R. Walgreen, Thomas E. Wilson, Edward Foss Wilson, Wm. Wrigley, Jr., and Gene Autry. Other sponsors are: Westinghouse Educational Foundation, Ford Motor Co., Standard Brands, Kerr Glass, Sears Roebuck

Foundation, Spool Cotton Co., Lederle Laboratories, Ida Cason Callaway Foundation, Carnation Co., Simplicity Patterns, Conrad Hilton Hotel, Hercules Powder, General Motors, International Harvester, Kelvinox, American Forest Products, Allis-Chalmers, Montgomery Ward, Kellogg Co., Dearborn Motors, United States Rubber, Cudahy, Firestone, Standard Oil Companies of Indiana, Kentucky and Ohio, American Oil, General Petroleum, Pan-Am Southern, Stanolind Oil and Gas, Utah Oil Refining Co., Pure Oil Co., the Santa Fe and Illinois Central railroads, Toni Co., Proctor Electric, and Spinnerin Yarn Co.

"The awards presented at the 4-H Club Congress are bestowed for self-carried advancement," G. L. Noble, director of the National Committee points out, "To 4-H Club members they are priceless symbols of achievement and public recognition. That is why so many of our agricultural and industrial leaders are interested in providing incentives that will help to build aggressive, sturdy citizens."

Donors also sponsor educational tours, meal events, and entertainment, which make the National 4-H Congress a memorable experience. However, sober purposes of the meeting are not overshadowed by festivity. Fortnight group discussions, addresses by prominent speakers, exchange of ideas with youths from other countries, and other stimulating features will stress the theme of the year: "Serving as Loyal Citizens Through 4-H."

CORONATION OF HOMECOMING QUEEN SET BEFORE KICK-OFF OF GRID DUEL SATURDAY NIGHT

One of the highlights of the 1952 Homecoming of the Ex-Students Assn. of Ranger Junior College next Friday and Saturday will be the coronation of the Homecoming Queen just before the kick-off of the Pioneer Conference grid battle between the Rangers and the Tarleton State Plovboys.

Students of Ranger Junior College will elect the Homecoming Queen during balloting Wednesday.

The pre-kickoff ceremonies will consist of an invocation to be offered by the Rev. F. M. Talbot, pastor of the First Methodist Church, Electra. Rev. Talbot, is the father of Rusty Talbot, one of the Rangers' top secondary stars who will see action in the homecoming grid duel with Tarleton State.

Homecoming activities get underway Friday night with a banquet at the Gholson Hotel. Price for the dinner is $1.00 per plate and all exes are urged to make reservations for the banquet at once by contacting Pete Brashear, president of the Ex-Students' Association of Ranger Junior College.

Following the banquet a dance and party will be held at the Student Union building on the college campus.

Saturday's highlight feature of the '52 homecoming will be a mammoth parade in downtown Ranger. Included in the long and colorful procession will be several bands, units of the Texas National Guard, representative paraders of various Ranger civic groups and floats of college classes and business and commercial firms.

The parade is slated for 4 p.m. and a large throng of approximately 5,000 on-lookers is expected to line downtown streets to witness the event.

Kick-off time for the big homecoming battle, President Grover C. Boswell, Ranger Junior College head, announced Monday will be at 8:15 p.m. An overflow crowd is expected to jam Bulldog Stadium for the featured homecoming tilt, RJC officials said today.

Chest Drive Opens Today; Goal Is $6800

Ranger's 1952 Campaign Starts With Breakfast

Today is "C-Day" in Ranger. Today is the day Rangerites go to work—and go to give—to meet the $6,800 quota of their 1952 Community Chest campaign.

About 60 Chest leaders and volunteer workers kicked-off the big '52 fund-raising drive with a special breakfast at the Ghoson Hotel this morning at 7 o'clock. The Rev. Garland Lavender, pastor of the First Methodist Church, offered the opening invocation, followed by an enthusiastic "pep talk" to workers by W. C. Whittle, president of the local chest organization.

Mayor Price Crawley, in another message, expressed confidence in Ranger citizens in supporting the "worthy cause" and complimented his fellow townsmen for their "willingness to work and to give" in the campaign which will raise funds to finance eight important agencies here.

R. V. Galloway, chairman of the kickoff breakfast and secretary-manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, also spoke. Galloway discussed the distribution of solicitation cards and other details of the drive.

It was reported that W. F. Creager, Ranger banker and chairman of the big gifts committee, had secured pledges totaling approximately $1,000 as he and his co-workers began their contacts of industrial enterprises and business firms in the area.

Ranger families are asked to give liberally to the Community Chest this year in order to assure the support directly needed by the eight participating agencies—the Child Welfare unit, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Red Cross, Salvation Army, the Community Public Library, U.S.O. and the Teen Center.

"Give a day's pay!" is the keynote of Ranger's 1952 humanitarian fund push. A convenient, easy installment plan has been arranged in order to make donations simpler and to cushion contributions. "This is the simplest way in the world to solve the problem of the various organizations and agencies who request help from the citizens of Ranger in order to carry on their functions each year," President Whittle said. "By combining all requests into one lump and all fund-raising drives into one thorough and concentrated campaign it simplifies charitable giving for everyone concerned. It's the simple, the easy way—give ONCE for ALL!"

Dr. Harris Head C-C Committee On Education

Dr. Calvin W. Harris is chairman of the education committee, one of 14 standing groups recently appointed to serve during the coming year by Charlie Joe Owen, newly elected president of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce.

One of the main projects of the new group is consideration of a proposed elider track at Bulldog Stadium. The oval trackway, to be of regulation size, could be used by track and field teams of both Ranger Junior College and Ranger High School, proponents say. It also has been pointed out that the track would be of great benefit to both schools.

The eight-man committee desires its full activity to support the college and local public school system in whatever methods necessary. The group also will work to encourage safety and fire preventive measures for the benefit of the hundreds of public school and college students, R. V. Galloway, secretary-manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce, said.

C-C Directors, Regents Okay Special Train

Directors of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce and members of the board of regents of Ranger Junior College meeting in joint session in Ranger at the chamber headquarters Monday night voted to sponsor a special train to Arlington Saturday, Nov. 8, for the Pioneer Conference grid contest between the Rangers and the Arlington State College eleven.

Round-trip tickets, priced at only $5.10 each with tax included, went on sale this morning at the Chamber of Commerce office in Ranger.

The chamber and college leaders said a total of 275 reservations are required to make the special train possible. Final deadline for

Polio Epidemic Is Tapering Off

WASHINGTON (UP)—The Public Health Service reported 2,757 new cases of polio in the United States last week, a drop of 10 per cent from the 3,055 of the previous week.

A spokesman said the 1952 epidemic, the worst in history, is "definitely on the way out."

Polio cases were not available for New Hampshire, Rhode Island or Wisconsin. The 1952 epidemic, since the "disease year" began in April, now includes 43,916 reported cases, compared with 34,907 in 1949, the previous record year.

Woman Faces DWI Charge After Collision

Liquor got two Rangerites in trouble with the law over the weekend, Police Chief W. G. Galloway reported Monday morning.

Early Saturday night, officers picked up an intoxicated Ranger woman following a collision with another vehicle, occupied by Ranger residents, within the city limits. No one was injured, but an expectant mother suffered shock.

Shortly after her arrest by city officers, the woman was picked up by Sheriff Frank Tucker of Eastland and transferred to the county jail.

She is charged with driving while intoxicated, and due to the collision the case may grow into a serious matter.

Early Monday morning a 36-year-old Ranger man was taken from the city jail and held Sunday night for drunk-driving.

Wonderful Way to Start the Day!

Well, there he goes, backing out into the challenge of an October morning—and there's no denying that he's off to a wonderful start.

You see, he's at the wheel of a Golden Anniversary Cadillac—and there's no greater lift to the spirits than the deep-throated whisper of a Cadillac engine.

It says inspiring things to the man at the wheel.

It tells him, first of all, that life must have gone rather nicely—to take him from where he was—to a place where he owns and enjoys a beautiful Cadillac. Pretty good precedent for a good day today!

It tells him, too—that wherever he drives in the day's activities—the Cadillac crest will pave the way for the respect of the people he encounters.

Yes—he feels pretty good as he turns into the highway, touches his toe to the sensitive throttle, and heads into the adventure of another day.

The miles go softly by... the occasional tick-tick of the electric clock reminds him that he's ahead of time for his first appointment... and he settles back—relaxed and at ease. Nice, nice going!

Many men have told us that the drive to work in a Cadillac is the finest part of the day. Their heads are clear and their minds at ease as they roll serenely along—a wonderful time to think and plan.

Of course, this is only an extra value that comes with a Cadillac: comes in addition to comfort and safety—and dependability and long life—and all the other wonderful things that make this magnificent car the Standard of the World.

Why not come in and see us—and arrange to enjoy them all yourself?

We'd be happy to see you—any time.

Bit O'Meat Muffins add more than a bit of goodness to this vegetable platter. Bits of salami, and diced hard cooked eggs encased in tender muffin batter, make these muffins the center of attraction in any menu.

If it's a peppy luncheon menu you're wishing for—you'll find the answer in a menu featuring Bit O'Meat Muffins. These muffins play the double role of main dish and bread. They star bits of salami and diced hard cooked eggs mixed into a plain muffin batter.

Suitable accompaniment for these muffins is a vegetable plate of buttered peas, carrot slices and buttered lima beans. Accent the luncheon with a citrus salad. Serve tempting fudge squares or cup cakes from the bakery as a finishing touch.

This combination of "wheat 'n meat" is tops for building healthy bodies in an inexpensive way. One batch of Bit O'Meat Muffins costs only 40 cents.

BIT O'MEAT MUFFINS

Alabama's Only Ballot Bearing Racial Label

Alabama is the only Southern state that has a "white supremacy" label on its general election ballot.

That designation appears on a banner waving about a drawing of a game rooster heading the Democratic column on the ballot. Beneath the rooster is another banner containing the words "for the right."

The Louisiana Democrats also use the rooster as a party symbol but there is no reference on the ballot in that state to "white supremacy."

The New York governor said that while Gov. Adlai Stevenson "serves by honeyed words about the rights of minorities in one part of the country, he proudly advocates that you elect as his running mate and possible successor as president, a man who has spent his whole public life fighting to suppress the rights of American citizens."

Sen. John Sparkman of Alabama, Stevenson's running mate, said that he helped write the 1952 Democratic platform and that it contained a strong civil rights plank.

A leading Alabama Negro Democrat, Arthur Shores, predicted that Dewey's attack on the party slogan would not keep Negroes from supporting the Democratic ticket. He said the party candidates "are no more responsible for this slogan than Gov. Dewey."

The Alabama ballot became a topic of political conversation at the presidential campaign level when Gov. Thomas E. Dewey brought photostatic copies of the state's 1948 and 1952 ballots before a television camera Wednesday night and accused the Democratic ticket of the "ranked hypocrisy."

The Louisiana Democrats also use the rooster as a party symbol but there is no reference on the ballot in that state to "white supremacy."
