50-Ton Capacity Scales Erected By H. Pullman

Henry Pullman might easily be classed as the city's most pronounced optimist, for he always does things in a big way.

Recently Mr. Pullman has installed a large platform scale, with a capacity of 100,000 pounds. It was manufactured by Fairbanks-Morse Co., one of the largest manufacturers of scales in the United States.

Scales of this capacity are not needed every day, but should arrive, Henry Pullman said, to be able to take care of the large trucks, tractors and vans that may be handled with the greatest of ease.

Around The Square With Mack

While most of us are spending plenty time discussing politics, there are few who take time out for serious thinking along other lines. For instance, Hood King, under a small heading, gives us this thought:

"It was George Bernard Shaw who remarked that youth is such a wonderful thing, that it is a pity to waste it on the young." Continuing he says, "It is strange that young people, at the height of their physical powers, with perfect reflexes, a wonderful sense of timing, and 20-20 vision should contribute so much to the rising toll of automobile accidents and fatalities. Youth's quest for excitement... the exhilaration rising from a sense of power when they edge themselves behind the wheel of a ton of death dealing metal... this is the reason for most of the traffic accidents involving young drivers. Anyway,"

Dogies To Play Last Conference Game Of Season

Tonight the Junior High School Dogies will meet the Dublin Junior High Cubs in Dublin. The game will begin at 7:30 and quite a number of Eastland fans are expected to attend.

This is the last conference game on the slate for Coach Brock's crew. If the Dogies win this game it will mean a 3-way tie with Cisco and Gorman. The Dogies had last week off and are expected to be fired up for the Cubs.

The other boys making the trip will be ends, Bobby Powell and Duke Corbell; tackles Charles May, Johnny McMahan and Dale Sloan; guards Herman Dempsen and Henry Van Geem, center, Kenneth Watson, backs Clinton Humphreys, Donald Lee, Mike Manning, Donald Ward, Saul Pullman and Clayton Stoker.

Chas. McFatter In Tarleton's Wainwright Band

The Professor of Military Science and Tactics at Tarleton State College has announced the selection of Cadet Charles E. McFatter as a member of the Wainwright Band for current school year.

The Wainwright Band, named in honor of General Jonathan W. Wainwright, Hero of Corregidor, is a musical organization that performs at various special events during the year. The Wainwright Band is made up of volunteer Cadets who are interested or have previous musical training.

Cadet McFatter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. McFatter and is a freshman in Tarleton College majoring in Pre-Vet.

'GOODY! GOODY!' COO WOMEN AS FOOD PRICES MOVE DOWN TO REVERSE OLD HCL TREND

More good news for Eastland County housewives—

Retail food prices in this region of the state reversed a six-month upward trend to show a slight decline in mid-September, the Bureau of Labor Statistics reported over the week-end.

Price drops were general in most Southern cities, the BLS said, and for the Eastland County area it was the first time the government food index had dropped since February.

A sharp 3.2 per cent decline then put the index at 228.8 in February. It was back up to 237.1 in September.

Fruits and vegetables led the decline with a drop of 3.8 per cent since mid-August. However, in some areas of the southland declines of these commodities averaged 13 per cent.

Egg prices continued upward in the South with marked increases in the West Texas area. Egg prices were reported up 60 per cent from pre-Korea prices, but were 4 per cent lower than September of last year.

Here is how the other categories of foods compared with prices in August, in September a year ago and on June 15, 1950, just before the Korean outbreak:

Cereals and bakery products, up .1 per cent in the month, up .6 per cent in the year and 11 per cent since Korea.

Meats, poultry and fish, down .9 per cent for the month; down .6 per cent for the year and up 9 per cent over pre-Korean prices.

Dairy products, respective increases of 4 per cent, 2 per cent and 31 per cent.

Fruits and vegetables, down 3.8 per cent; up 9.8 per cent and up 24 per cent.

Beverages, up .6 per cent; down 2 per cent and up 14 per cent.

Fats and oils, down 3 per cent; down 10 per cent and down 2 per cent.

Sugar and sweets, up 2 per cent; up 2 per cent and up 11 per cent.

By items, the largest drop was a seasonal one in sweet potatoes, which declined 18 per cent between August and September to sell for 16c a pound average. Oranges dropped 10 per cent to 61c a dozen average and lard dropped 6 per cent to average 18.8c a pound.

Corn meal prices jumped 10 per cent to sell for 11.6c a pound average and canned tomatoes at 18c a can average were up 8 per cent.

Staff Road Plan Given Nod From Commissioners

The committee appointed at a mass meeting at Staff last week, met with the Commissioners Court Monday morning, and while no definite steps were taken, with reference to the road and bridge for Staff community, once the proposed new lake is under construction, the committee did learn that the Court has the matter under advisement, and that it may be expected to lend support to the program at the proper time.

It seems that the lake will cover the old highway, and when it is full, water will be some 20 feet over the old bridge. It will be necessary to choose a new location, but it seems this can not be done until engineers make public their final figures.

Many are of the opinion that the new road and bridge will be approximately one mile from the old location and it is possible most people of the community will be satisfied.

Both Eastland and Ranger value the Staff community, and will see to it that a good road and bridge is erected at the most convenient and logical point.

The committee is composed of five men including Herbert Tanner of Eastland, Rip Galloway of Ranger, and Frank Williamson, I. S. Echols and Allen Crosby of Staff. They are to meet with the commissioners at a later date when it is thought more authentic information may be possible.

Commercial Feed Manufactured By Wilson Feed Co.

ST. LOUIS, Mo.—Wilson Feed & Seed has been issued a Certificate of Mixing Accuracy by the Ralston Purina Company, following an analysis of samples taken from custom-mixed feeds prepared specially for customers of the mill.

The proper mixing of ingredients using grain grown locally by farmers in this area, has long been recognized as an important factor in the efficient and economical feeding of livestock and poultry.

Before Purina approved the mill as an authorized mixing station using Purina formulas and ingredients, laboratory tests were made to determine the accuracy and uniformity of the mixing service rendered.

The samples which passed the most recent laboratory tests, and qualified the mill for the Certificate, did not vary more than one-half of one per cent in protein content.

A certificate is issued for each formula manufactured and approved.

New Demo Group Launches Drive For Stevenson

J. O. Jolly Has Rotary Program

Dr. J. O. Jolly, local dentist entertained Rotarians at the Luncheon Monday with information about "dentists" of which he is a member. While his remarks were educational, he managed to deliver his address in a more or less painless manner.

Time was when most anybody who cared to practice dentistry could do so, and during this period dental work was far from "painless." While modern day dentists with their new medicines have almost approached the dream of "painless dentistry," it is not guaranteed in every instance.

Americans, as a nation, have bad teeth, the speaker said, and it is not uncommon for children who are no more than five or six years old to come in for dental attention. Theories have been exploded, he said, when it comes to naming the cause for this. We "slay" our children from candies and sweets, and yet they have sugar. While in the tropics where sugar cane and sugar is consumed in large quantities, there is very little tooth trouble.

He made a splendid talk, and it was well received.

Attendance has been gradually growing for the past few weeks, and the Eastland Club has a record of better than 90 per cent.

Free Gas To Go To Good Guesser

If you really want something for nothing you might enter the contest at the Muirhead Motor Co. service station. All you have to do is just tell the service attendant how much gas you need to fill your tank. If you guess within 1-10 of a gallon of what the tank holds, they will fill it free with Mobil gas.

It costs nothing to try, so we are told.

A group of Eastland County Democrats, led by hard-hitting members of organized labor groups in the area, today launched a vigorous, county-wide campaign to "get out the vote" for the national Democratic ticket—Gov. Adlai Stevenson for president and Senator John J. Sparkman for vice president.

The whirlwind campaign, to be staged during the seven days remaining before Eastland County's general election, is headed by Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Bauman of Ranger.

Organization of the vote-getting drive got under way last night during meeting of Stevenson Sparkman supporters held in Ranger. Present were many representatives of unions of the American Federation of Labor and the CIO Oil Workers Union.

Bauman, construction superintendent and a member of an AF of L union, was given the nod to head a county "get-out-the-vote" Demo organization by Judge Jim Sewell, head of the Stevenson Sparkman state headquarters at Dallas. Apparently the loyal Democratic chiefdoms at state headquarters are not pleased with an apparent "lethargy" on the part of the regular Democratic party machinery in Eastland County.

Open Headquarters Today

The new group is opening headquarters in Ranger today in a building at 113 North Austin St. across from the Paramount Hotel & Coffee Shop. From that location volunteer men and women workers will fan out over Bauman and the surrounding territory armed with advertising matter and campaign literature which will be placed in the hands of voters. The headquarters telephone number is 22.

Also planned during last night's meeting was a big Democratic rally to be staged in downtown Ranger next Saturday afternoon immediately after the 3 p.m. weekly Trades Day drawing.

Scheduled to speak at the rally, Bauman said, will be an outstanding Texas Democrat who will be sent here by the Stevenson Sparkman state headquarters in Dallas.

The speaker, Bauman said, also probably will speak in Eastland and Cisco on the same day.

Bauman lashed out at Democrats who have deserted the Stevenson Sparkman ticket. Lack of GOP presidential nominee Dwight D. Eisenhower and his running mate, Sen. Richard Nixon.

Slaps the Demos

A life-long party member, the Ranger Democrat said, "I don't blame anybody for being ashamed of being a Republican, but I do blame a Democrat who votes Republican and still claims to be a Democrat."

Bauman predicted that labor-organized and unorganized—will overwhelmingly support the Stevenson Sparkman team.

In Eastland County he asserted, at least seven-eighths of organized labor will vote for the national Democratic nominees in next Tuesday's election. Organized labor, however, constitutes a small segment of the area's total labor force. Even so, Bauman said that 75 per cent of all labor in Eastland County will vote for Stevenson Sparkman.

Bauman flayed county party members who have been inactive during the campaign and declared that volunteer workers are needed to remind the voters of their responsibility in next Tuesday's election.

"We don't want to return to the Hoover depression days," Bauman said, "and we don't want to slide backward after having made such wonderful forward progress under 20 years of Democratic leadership."

Stevenson Sparkman leader also predicted Tuesday that Eastland County's rural vote—farmers and ranchmen of the area—will go overwhelmingly for the national Democratic ticket.

Is This Letter Addressed To You?

The Kremlin Moscow, U.S.S.R. October 27, 1952

Dear Non-Voting American Comrades in Eastland County:

I'm so pleased that I must tell you about it. We here in the Kremlin have been observing your voting habits closely. And I must say our observations here have been most gratifying. I see by our records that in 1940 only 59.5 per cent of you eligible voters in America went to the polls, in 1948 the percentage dropped to 51 per cent. That's great! We couldn't do much better if we planned the whole thing ourselves.

We're hoping to see the percentage drop even more this fall. The lower the better. You see, the less interest the citizens take in their government the better it is for our cause. If that trend continues, you'll soon have a minority government like we have in glorious Russia. And we Communists know how to infiltrate and dominate minorities. For instance, here in glorious and beautiful Russia we have only six million Communists, but we give orders to 200 million Russians. We're proud of that achievement.

So continue dreaming up excuses, any old excuse will do, to keep from going to the polls—if it isn't too hot, it will be too cold or raining. Or the polls will be crowded and you'll have to wait four or five minutes. Besides, you work hard all day, so why waste part of your evening by running to the polls?

After all, comrade, your one little vote doesn't matter anyway. JOSEPH STALIN

KICK-OFF BREAKFAST WILL MARK OPENING SCOUT DRIVE

A kick-off breakfast at the Connelley Hotel roof garden at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, will announce the opening of the 1952 drive for funds for Boy Scouts in this area. Slightly fewer than 100 men are expected to be present. Final plans will be made and by 8 o'clock the drive will be on and if the solicitors have good luck, it should be over before noon.

This is an annual affair, and judging from past activities, Eastland will do her part and do it promptly.

Brantley Hudson, scout executive from Brownwood, will be on hand to serve in an advisory capacity. There will be four major groups, assisted by 16 captains and 80 assistants.

Majors are Cyrus Frost, Jack Germany, Frank Sayre and H. B. McMeey. Each major will have five captains under his command, and each captain will have four workers other than himself. Captains include Joe Sparks, Bernard Hanson, Bud Ranney, Bill White, John Goode, Lowell Snyder, Dr. Lund, Paul Chaney, Travis Wheat, Bill Collier, George Leno, Leonard Eubank, Everett Plawman, E. K. Henderson and Parks Poe. Each captain will have five workers under his command.

Whether you be a major, captain or solicitor you should be featured on a meeting at the kick-off breakfast promptly at 7 o'clock Wednesday (tomorrow) morning. Each worker will make five calls and the job will be complete.

W. B. Pickens, local finance chairman, will preside at the breakfast, and Grady Plonkin, who is finance chairman for the entire Comanche Trail, will be present. The explanation of how to conduct the solicitation, will be made by Charles Freyschlag. He will also handle the distribution of the prospect cards.

Woman Author To Rising Star For Meeting

Dr. Mary Alice Jones, distinguished author, editor, and leader in children's work in the field of religious education, will speak at the First Methodist church in Rising Star on Thursday, October 30. Her theme for the Rising Star meeting will be "Let the Bible Speak to Children."

In announcing the meeting, Rev. J. Morris Bailey, local Methodist pastor, said the meeting will afford an unusual privilege for church leaders, teachers, parents, and all who work with children. Dr. Jones comes as the new Director of the department of Christian education of children of the general board of education of The Methodist church.

She is the author of a number of books, including, "Tell Me About God," "Tell Me About Jesus," "Tell Me About the Bible," "Tell Me About Prayer," "His Name was Jesus," "The Faith of Our Children," "Guiding Children in Christian Growth."

Jimmy Chambless In Hospital As Result Of Wreck

Jimmy Chambless is in the Eastland hospital suffering from head injuries, as the result of a motor scooter wreck which occurred near Dr. Treadwell's home about 6:30 a.m. today. Apparently the scooter skidded and overturned, and Jimmy was seriously injured. Billy Archer, another carrier boy, on the second scooter found the injured lad shortly after the crash and notified his father, V. W. Chambless, who came to the scene of the wreck and carried the lad to the hospital.

It is not known at this time just how serious the injuries are, though he is suffering from head injuries, as well as minor bruises and abrasions.

In a homecoming classic packed with thrills, the Tarleton State Plowboys of Stephenville topped Coach Boone Yarbrough's rugged Ranger Junior College Rangers, 7 to 6, at Bulldog Stadium in Ranger Saturday night while the largest fan audience of the year looked on.

The crowd of over 4,000 rabid watchers, including about 750 hepped-up Plowboys backers from Stephenville, were brought to their feet in awe time after time during the Pioneer Conference thriller which was a tightly-fought defensive contest until the third quarter.

First half statistics reflected the rock-ribbed defenses thrown up by both collegiate elevens during the initial quarters with first downs at halftime stacked at five for Ranger, six for Tarleton, and the ferocity of Ranger's charge-ing Purple & White play-busting defense during the first and second periods of the homecoming fray is shown in the mid-mark offensive figures of Tarleton—the Plowboys gained 25 yards rushing, but lost 29 for a net of minus 4. And the Rangers themselves, running from the usually effective spread, were able to garner but 46 hard-earned yards via the ground route during the first half.

Offenses Explode
The tense tightness which marked first half play loosened early in the exciting third period and continued through a second play through the fourth quarter and right up until the final gun brought highly-keyed onlookers to their feet half a dozen times.

Midway in the third, Quarterback Del Baker, whose bulls-eye pass-pitching accounted for 185 of the Rangers' total 227 offensive yards, laid a beauty in the arms of Clayborn from the Tarleton 40, and the 175-pound lineman hustled over the double-stripe. The crowd roared, but the cheerers died abruptly as officials returned the ball to the 40 and assessed 15 yards against the Rangermen for unnecessary roughness, thus nullifying the dazzling scoring play.

Set back on their own 45, the Rangers, now inspired and red-hot, began a pay-off drive in earnest. Halfback Rusty Talbot cracked center for two. Baker connected with backfield mate Charles Blanton on an aerial good for 17 and a gain down to the 36. Then Baker pitched to Clayborne and moved the oval 22 more strides to the Plowboy 14. He missed a fling to Skipwith, but on the next shot hit Blanton again for a 9-yarder which brought the RIC juggernaut down to the 5. Talbot hit the line for a 2-yard pickup, Blanton slammed over the middle of the stubborn Plowboy wall for 2 to reach the one-yard stripe. Then Baker handed off to Talbot who knifed across the score. Jeff Smith's attempted kick for the extra after-touchdown point, however fizzled. And with it, Dame Fate gave the visiting proteges of Coach Sandy Sanford the nod.

KICK CRUCIAL POINT

As the thrill-packed third quarter ticked away into history, the Plowboys began a fired-up push from their own 24. Five plays which accounted for two first downs on a pair of aerial gains of 9-yards and 32 respectively from triple-threatening

To which we heartily agree. Then, W. C. Whaley comes by with this: "I heard a fellow say that he didn't like the Truman ticket, but was against a military man for president, so was voting for Stevenson, I suppose he would have voted against another 5 star general, and first president—George Washington."

Then Ben Hamner tells this one: Seems that Pen had been up in Canada, and while shopping in a department store where he spotted an article marked $1 Ben decided to make the purchase and handed the clerk a one dollar bill, only to hear the clerk say—"come and give me the other six cents." Ben looked and felt funny, for he figured that our money was worth 100 cents on the dollar anywhere. The clerk noted his expressing and added: "If you keep your present administration in power for another four years, we probably won't want your money at all."

Little things like this causes us to wonder and investigate, and after investigation, we've decided to take a chance with Ike.

We may have a dollar one of these days, even after the tax is withheld, and if we do we sure want 100 cents for it. Today it is worth about 43c in this country, and it will not be worth anymore than that until the world has a little confidence in our leaders.

A few days ago we were informed that confidence in this country has reached the lowest ebb since the days of carpet-baggers. We had suspected it for many months, but just didn't have the nerve to admit it. However, it seems to be common knowledge now, so we put our feelings in our pocket and work with the majority. We are going to vote for the man whom we think capable of restoring some of this lost confidence. We don't want some fellow turning down a good American dollar when we offer it in payment for merchandise. Nor do we wish to have it discounted—even for six cents.

When we got our hands on a silver dollar we are going to squeeze it until the eagle will think it has on a corset. One of these days it will be worth 100 cents, and then we will spend it with relish.

People in Eastland have quit complaining about the water shortage since they have learned they are no worse off than half of the cities in Texas. We may be in for another drought for all we know, so we should begin looking for a less expensive water supply. We may or may not be able to get a better quality of water, but surely we can get water for less than we are paying at this time.

This is not being offered as criticism, but for due thought.

PLOWBOYS--

Quarterback Hudspeth to 185-pound Mims, stellar Tarleton end, moved the ball deep into Ranger territory—to the 19—as the final canto ended.

There Halfback Stold, picked up 8 yards over center, Castleberry hit the middle for 2 more, Stold pounded over left guard for 3, Castleberry picked up five on slashes over left tackle and center to reach the 2, and from there he bucked over left tackle to score. Quarterback Hudspeth's game-winning extra point kick was perfect.

The trailing Rangers, desperate to score TD No. 2, which would turn defeat into victory, started two drives a few minutes later, but both were chilled abruptly by Plowboy Walter Bryan's alert and highly spectacular pass interceptions.

Finally, starting on their own 11 as the game began to die, Blanton, final ball handler on a double reverse, reached the 20 on an end sweep to the right, Baker hit Talbot on a 42-yard pass to move the oval down to the enemy 38, Baker fluked on two pass pitches, then connected with Blanton on a 14-yarder to reach the 24. And two more desperate passes were incomplete. Then it was all over.

The outcome of the contest, dedicated to the memory of Cpl. Jimmy Max Crawley, 23-year-old RJC ex-gid star who died in Korea, not only dimmed Ranger's hopes of grabbing off the coveted 1952 Pioneer Conference title, but also pulled the rug out from under their bowl hopes. On Friday, the day prior to the Tarleton tilt, the Purple & White proteges of Coach Yarborough had been under consideration by sponsors of the Little Rose Bowl at Pasadena, Calif., as a result of the notoriety gained following their upset win over the San Angelo Junior College Rams, once rated the No. 1 junior collegiate machine of the nation.

H. C. Henderson Heads New C-C Finance Group

H. C. Henderson heads the finance and budget committee of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce for the coming year.

This group, one of 14 standing committees recently appointed to serve for the next 12 months of C of C activity by Charlie Joe Owen, president, has the major responsibility of supervising financial management of the Ranger business men's organization.

Planning of a budget for the operation of the annual program of the chamber, arranging for a periodic audit of the C of C books, and raising of special funds for projects of the group constitute the main duties of the six-man committee which Henderson heads, according to R. V. Galloway, secretary-manager of the Ranger Chamber of Commerce.

Serving with Chairman Henderson on this group are W. C. Whittle, W. F. Creager, Saulie Perstein, Wilson Guest and O. G. Lanier.

Summer Dream

By Irene Ernhart

THE STORY: Laurie French, coming to be married in October, has gone to Indiana to visit her father, who is estranged from her mother. She resumes a friendship with Steve Young, a young friend of her father's, whom she met four years before.

Steve?" she asked suddenly. "Nope. Gave it up. Wrote enough so that I got what was eating me out of my system and then quit. A lot of guys wrote books about the war for that reason. I'm working on a thing about the Civil War now. I teach history, you know."

He bent his attention to tidying the boat in against the dock and then threw the boat chain over a piling. It clanked loudly in the stillness, the sound echoing and re-echoing across the water. Then he jumped out and reached for Laurie. She felt again the warm strength of his calloused brown hand as she stepped from the rocking boat to the dock.

She stood there silently for a moment, watching as Steve got back into the boat and busied himself with the bait buckets, almost as though he had forgotten her presence. "What time do you usually go swimming, Steve?" she said presently.

He tipped back his hat and straightened up. "We'd best wait until the sun's had a chance to warm the water—say about 11."

"Okay." She smiled at him and then turned and started off.

"Tell Louis to come along," he called after her, "he's been itching for swimming weather."

Laurie felt like running the rest of the way up the path to her father's house. She felt hungry and filled with exhilaration. What a wonderful—purely wonderful summer it was going to be!

Louis French had a book propped on the breakfast table, but when Laurie came in he folded it up and laid it aside. "Well, my dear," he said, "I didn't look for you back in time for breakfast with me. You've been down helping Steve run his lines, haven't you?" His brown eyes twinkled at her.

Laurie blushed a little as she slid into her chair at the table and unfolded her napkin. Mrs. Jenner, her father's housekeeper, came and poured her coffee and put out fresh pecan rolls on a plate.

"I hope you'll have as much fun this summer as you did the last time you were here, Laurie. Steve and I often talked about it, how you took to the life of a river rat like you were born to it."

"I did have a wonderful time. I don't imagine Steve appreciated me too much though. I tagged after him everywhere he went, and once or twice when he wanted to work on his book and I tormented him to go swimming with me instead."

"You fancied yourself in love with him that summer, I believe."

"I'm afraid so," Laurie said laughing.

HER father sipped at his coffee in silence for a moment. "So you're engaged to be married, Laurie?"

"Yes. In October. It was supposed to be this month, but I changed my mind."

"Why?"

Laurie flushed again. "I wanted to spend the summer here with you."

"That's very flattering," her father said. They smiled at each other. "I hope it's worth the sacrifice, if it was a sacrifice. Didn't Fletcher object strenuously?"

"Rather. But it was mother who was really furious!"

Louis French laughed. "Oh yes, Emmy would hate you wanting to come here."

There was another small pause and then they began to talk about various people whom Laurie remembered from her previous visit.

Her father said at last, "Well, did Steve have any luck this morning with his lines?"

"No, and he said to ask you to come swimming with us at 11."

"Good. I'll phone the store I won't be down this morning and I can get some work done on the roses too!"

"Why Dad, you sound like a little boy about to play hooky!"

"Well," he raised his brows and shrugged in frank admission.

UNIONS ARE UNITED--FOR FIRST TIME IN HISTORY--SUPPORTING STEVENSON FOR PRESIDENT

The "big three" of the nation's most powerful labor unions are joined on the record behind a presidential candidate for the first time in history.

The leadership of the AFL, with eight million members; the CIO with five million members, and the 475,000-member independent United Mine Workers' union are out and fighting for Democratic candidate Adlai E. Stevenson.

This is the first time all three unions have publicly endorsed a candidate for president at the same time, although they were lined up together in support of Franklin D. Roosevelt during the early years of his presidential career.

The AFL, at its recent convention, broke a 71-year "non-intervention" pact when its delegates voted to throw the weight of the 107 unions of the "House of Labor" behind the Illinois governor.

The CIO this year, as in the past, is fully allied with the Democrats.

The United Mine Workers led by John L. Lewis broke a precedent of 16 years standing by going on record for the administration party.

The labor leaders do not claim they can "deliver the vote" of their union members. However, their political organizations are bombarding the workers with literature on what the Democratic party offers labor and what the workers have to "fear" under a "republican administration."

The CIO's Political Action Committee, for example, has circulated 15 million pieces of literature ranging from comic-strip type booklets to "speakers handbooks" giving "pro and con" arguments of the campaign.

You Don't Need Much Advice—

. . . but it is valuable at least twice in your insurance experience. First is, when you get ready to buy insurance, don't select just any kind of an agent or any kind of policy. There's a big difference. Second is, when you have a loss would you rather have your friend at home with year's of insurance experience or some one living in Dallas, St. Louis or elsewhere, to handle your claim? There's another big difference.

City Cops Bag Only Three Men Over Weekend

The weekend score at the Ranger Police Department: Two drunks and one traffic violator.

The erring motorist, a 32-year-old Ranger man, was wanted by city police out at Midland where he "forgot" about a couple of tickets for speeding within the city limits of that community.

Ranger officers, who held a warrant for his arrest, picked him up early Saturday night. He paid off the fines for the two Midland offenses and was released.

A Ranger Latin-American gent, about 30, was pretty tipsy in his pickup out on Highway 80 east and was arrested on a drunk charge. He was released after a sojourn in the city jail upon payment of the usual $15.70 fee.

A man hailing from Grand Prairie also got his nose a bit too damp Saturday night and his staggering steps were guided into one of the conveniently located cells in the City Hall. He was released later upon payment of the $15.70 tipping penalty.

Police Chief W. G. Pounds said it was a comparatively quiet weekend. And most of last week also saw little activity around police headquarters.

Annual crop loss for tobacco in the United States is approximately $96,000,000 pounds.

Last Rites For Spindle Are Set For Wednesday

Thomas J. Spindle, 46-year-old Ranger resident, died early Tuesday in a Ranger hospital following a brief illness.

A resident of Ranger for 25 years, Mr. Spindle made his home on Eastland Hill, Route 2. He was born Jan. 17, 1906 at Snyder and prior to his sudden passing he had been employed as an agent by the American National Insurance Co. Prior to his association with that company Mr. Spindle was engaged in the grocery business in Dublin for seven years.

Funeral services will be held at the First Methodist Church in Ranger Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery with Killingsworth Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Survivors include the widow, the former Miss Lillian Hagar, whom Mr. Spindle married at Ranger on June 11, 1938, two sons and one daughter, Richard Lee and Oran Randall and Joyce Ann Spindle, all of the home address; three sisters, Mrs. Jess Morgan of Ranger, Mrs. H. J. Keener of Houston and Mrs. J. L. Fox of Coleman; one brother, M. L. Spindle of Eastland; and his mother, Mrs. Luna E. Spindle, also of Ranger.

Miss Parmelee Injured In Auto Accident Sunday

Miss Elizabeth Parmelee, member of the faculty of Ranger High School, was treated at a local hospital Monday for injuries received in an automobile accident on Highway 80 west of the city Sunday at 11:30 p.m.

Miss Parmelee apparently drove off at the wheel of her automobile which crashed into a ditch. She was headed toward Ranger at the time of the mishap.

She was treated for bruises and cuts but suffered no serious injuries, it was reported.

More Scrap Today—More Steel Tomorrow

SCRAP IRON IS ESSENTIAL

At an annual production rate of 104,000,000 tons, one day's production is more than enough steel for all the following:

1 Aircraft Carrier	12,000 Automobiles
2 Heavy Cruisers	2,000 Homes
2 Cargo Ships	500,000 3-inch Shells
2 Tankers	1,000 Howitzers
500 Planes	2,000 Aerial Bombs
500 Tanks	20,000 Household Refrigerators
1,000 Freight Cars	20,000 Stoves
2,000 Trucks	1,000 Anti-Aircraft Guns

What Is Steel Made From?

Steel is made from approximately one-half scrap and one-half pig iron.

Why Is Scrap Iron Used?

Scrap is used to make new steel and foundry castings, because it adds to the quality of steel and foundry castings and helps to keep the cost down. Because scrap is composed of iron and steel, the refining process is shortened and perhaps made more complete. For every ton of scrap used we conserve approximately 2 tons of iron ore, 1 ton of coal, nearly 1 ton of limestone, and other materials.

WARNING GIVEN

I am 80 years old today. I have no political ambitions. Our Republic is in great danger. Our manpower is being exhausted. Our financial resources are being depleted. Just as the line was drawn in the Alamo, American patriots in the 69 counties I have represented in Congress, on Nov. 4, must cross a line to save the United States.

Our administration and United Nations are infiltrated with Communists. Truman protects them, and says: "Joe Stalin is a fine fellow and I like him." Our constitution is being destroyed. Only Congress can provide that General Wedem declare war from the Orient. He returned from the Orient in 1947 and in his report, suppressed by Truman, warned that withdrawing our soldiers from Korea would result in Russia's occupation, yet Truman and Acheson denied help and advice to the Chinese forces on Formosa, and permitted military forces trained by Russia to occupy North Korea and since June 1950, unauthorized by Congress, Truman has waged a bloody war in Korea causing 120,000 American casualties, has spent $40,000,000,000 and is requiring 45,000 American boys to be drafted each month as replacements, portending last-gasp grief in over a million American homes. Truman deliberately fired MacArthur for advocating courageous policies that would end the Korean War. With a ridiculous truce suspended for over a year, Truman carries on this bloody war, affording the political slogan "we never had it so good." Roosevelt-Garner campaigners in 1932 asserted that Hoover was bankrupting us with a twenty billion national debt and pledged that they would reduce same 25 per cent, yet they have increased it to $259,000,000,000.

cliques of corrupt policemen and office-holders and of logical legislators who openly censor with gangsters.

"It also remains the jungle of criminals who walk in the footsteps of Al Capone.

"There was no doubt in the minds of any of us, after the sort of testimony we heard in Chicago, that organized crime and political corruption go hand in hand, and that in fact there could be no bigtime organized crime without a firm and profitable alliance between those who run the rackets and those in political control."

Isn't that an indictment against Stevenson by Democratic Kefauver?

Truman's political career was sponsored by the rotten Pendergast machine of Kansas City, the rotten Democratic Hagur machine of New Jersey, and the corrupt Tammany machine of New York are supporting Stevenson.

Eisenhower is a Texan, born in Denison. His election will honor Texas. Electing Eisenhower is our only chance to prevent the theft of our valuable blood-bourne Tidelands, and save same for the school children of Texas.

Our Democratic State Convention asked us to support Eisenhower. Our Attorney General, who is our next United States Senator, and our Governor Shivers, and our former Governor Dan Moody, Coke Stevenson, and W. P. Hobby all ask us to support Eisenhower. I beseech all of you to help us save our Republic. Four years of Truman-Stevenson would Stalinize it.

Six To Be Out Of New Senate

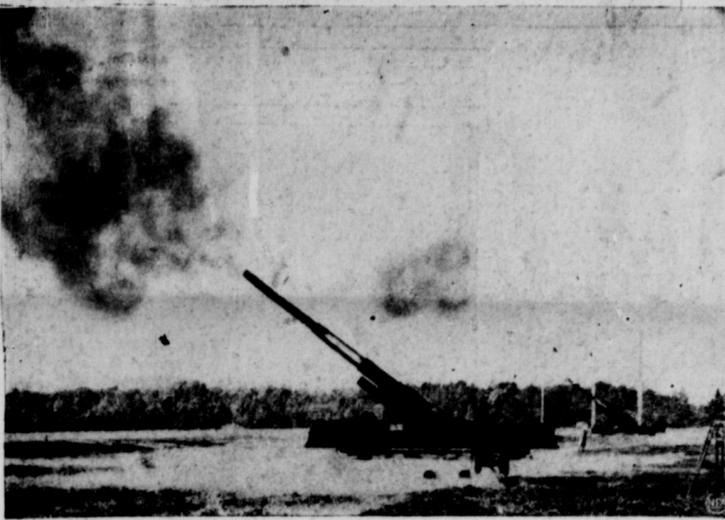

At least six incumbent Senators will be missing in the next Congress, regardless of what happens in the Nov. 4 elections.

Two were defeated in primary elections—Sen. Kenneth McKeller (D-Tenn.), veteran chairman of the appropriations committee and Sen. Owen Brewster (R-Me.)

Three retired voluntarily—Chairman Tom Connally (D-Tex.), Chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, and Sen. S. Herbert R. Q'Connor (D-Md.) and Fred Seaton (R-Neb.). Seaton was appointed last year to the seat left vacant by the death of Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry.

In Connecticut, two incumbents are running against each other for a full six-year term. They are Sen. William Benton (D) and Sen. William A. Purtell (R), who was appointed this fall to serve until Jan. 3 in the vacancy created by the death of Sen. Brien McMahon (D). Connecticut will elect another senator for the remaining four years of McMahon's unexpired term.

The first step in controlling erosion on any piece of land is to treat the soil to build up its fertility.

ARMY'S NEW GUNS SPEAK—Two of the Army's 280-mm. guns "sound off" at Aberdeen Proving Grounds, in Maryland, during a demonstration of the huge weapons. The guns will become the world's first "atomic artillery battery," when they are eventually tested with shells carrying nuclear fission charges.

Charlton Heston Says Hollywood Has Few Professional Actresses

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Charlton Heston has a few ideas about movie actresses that aren't calculated to boost his stock with the glamour-and-curve set.

To put it bluntly, Heston said Tuesday, he doesn't think there are many "professional" actresses in Hollywood.

Heston dodges the labels "good actress" or "bad actress" and categorizes leading ladies simply as "professionals" and "non-professionals," the professionals being those who can contribute something beside a full bosom to a picture.

"Acting is not as requisite in films as it is on the stage," the tall, husky actor philosophized between takes of his current movie, "The President's Lady" at 20th Century-Fox.

Cast for Other Reasons
"A good director can get an adequate, good or even very good performance from non-professionals.

"Consequently, actresses are often cast for—well, other reasons. And we both know that a person is seldom endowed exceptionally with more than one talent," he said. "Opera singers, for example, are usually lousy actors."

Heston believes there are plenty of "non-professional" male actors in Hollywood, too, but the label applies particularly to women, he said, because there are many more good acting parts for men than for the ladies.

"Many people in films are successful and often good without being professional," he said, "because motion pictures are primarily a director's medium."

Says Gregory Peck Best
"You might expect most movie stars to be professional, but the fact that they're not doesn't hamper them in films."

Heston picked Gregory Peck as the outstanding American actor in movies and Laurence Olivier as the top man in the business. Among the ladies, he said, Susan Hayward, his co-star in "The President's Lady," Jennifer Jones, Jan Sterling and Vivien Lindfors rate professional labels.

More than 4,000,000 barrels of crude petroleum were produced in New York State in 1949.

Harry Truman Has Taxed Us $310 Billion in 7 Years—
$65 Billion More Than All Preceding Presidents Put Together Including F.D.R.

PIKERS!

LINCOLN
WASHINGTON

High-Tax Harry may be dwarfed by the stature of previous presidents—but his merry tax collectors have raised a monument to Insatiable Greed that tops anything ever known to Americans.

If you'd like to know what this $310 billion means to you as, say, a married person with 2 children, here's the score:

If you earned $2,000 in 1940, you need $4,165 today to "have it so good" after swollen taxes and attendant inflation!
$3,000 earnings in 1940 matched $6,595 today—and if you earned $4,000 then, you need $9,010 now, to be as good a breadwinner!

So it's not your fault if you have to scramble like mad to make both ends meet.

But it is your fault if you let this continue. It is your fault if you believe the Tax-and-Spend Boys will ever reform.

Come Election Day, you'll have your last chance in 4 long years to keep a fairer share of your earnings. Don't miss that chance.

Eastland County HDC Achievement Day Set Nov. 12th In Eastland

Achievement Day for Eastland County Home Demonstration Clubs will be held in Eastland on Nov. 12, according to Miss Mildred Daniel, County Home Demonstration Agent. At 9:30 a.m. the doors of the Corbelius Building on the north side of the square will be opened for the day's activities.

This is an annual affair for the Home Demonstration Club women in the county. Accomplishments based on the year's demonstration will be displayed and prizes awarded. Miss Daniel has promised that Achievement Day this year will be of outstanding interest to every woman in the county regardless of whether or not she is a Home Demonstration Club woman, and invitations are extended to everyone to attend.

the lunch and the prizes will be awarded by County Judge John S. Hart.

There are eleven classes in foods, clothing, and crafts on which first, second, and third place awards will be given. The awards will be cash and ribbons for first and second place winners and a ribbon for third place winners.

Prizes will be awarded on the following: yellow cake made from Master Mix, a two-crust fruit pie, oatmeal drop cookies, whole egg sponge cake, children's play clothes, striped or plaid garments, copper and aluminum tooling, textile painting, lamps and lamp shades, party decorations and favors, and reporters' books.

Besides the articles listed above there will be displayed canned food, jelly, pickles, needlework, leather and aluminum craft, and many other articles of interest.

Mrs. A. A. Hansen of Cisco is the chairman of the Achievement Day and the following women were members of her planning committee: Mrs. A. C. Pierce, Pleasant Hill; Mrs. J. F. Harrellson, Cisco; Mrs. Jay Warren, Cisco; Mrs. B. H. Heintzen, Union Center; Mrs. Puck Maple, Union Center; Mrs. G. G. Crowell, Union Center; Mrs. H. E. Wilson, Flatwood; Mrs. Belah Turner, Flatwood; Mrs. Carl Burns, Okra; Mrs. Robert Burns, Okra; and Mrs. W. W. Fowell, Cisco.

Visitors will have a chance to take home some good "home cooking" in the form of prize-winning cakes and pies as well as many articles of crafts. For the hungry office worker's between-meal "pick-up snack" there will be coffee and pie or cake available.

The 4-H Club Girls will have bracelet pin cushions for sale. They are working to establish a county fund for their organization. Miss Rozelle Winston, assistant county home demonstration agent, will work with the girls.

There will be a covered-dish luncheon at noon followed by the regular meeting of the County Home Demonstration Council. The judging will begin shortly after

Fall Favorite... Apple Pie a la Mode

Now ripe and beautiful and plentiful in the market are pie apples, ready to be transformed into one of the all-time favorite desserts—apple pie a la mode. Apples make the pie, and you can take your choice of several especially recommended varieties. They include Greenings, Rome Beauties, McIntosh and Staygreen. As for the (ice cream, always keep some handy in a sturdy sanitized carton to have ready for pie a la mode. Vanilla is the old favorite, but chocolate is equally good stop flavors which you'll find pre-packaged in convenient pints and half-gallons are butter pecan, butter almond, banana and pineapple.
