With very little encouragement from the younger group, the Eastland County 50-Year Pioneer Club would sponsor a homecom ing reunion of the Eastland County Pioneers.

The club will meet next Tuesday in the home of Mrs. R. F. Jones, 444 North Seaman. Some of the members are much in favor of sponsoring such a reunion while others of the group think it is too much of a job for them

And speaking of reunions the Las Leales Club's homecoming in celebration of their 20th anniversary, in which they honored Mrs James Horton, was indeed one the most enjoyable events it has been my pleasure to attend.

THE STORY: In order to keep the good name of High Hill, a summer resort, untarnished. At Kemmer, the proprietor, moved the body of a man murdéred in gangster style to the grounds of a rival resort. Dan Morrison, athletic director, and Midge Burnett, who actually found the body, threaten to tell the police, but Ai has sent an entertainer. Eddie Flelds, to notify the officers with an anonymous call in Italian dianeter. Officers find the body on the grounds of the rival resort, owned by Sam Stacey, and Al calls his competitor and taunts him on the "kind of guests" he takes in. Stacey's reply makes Al think maybe Stacey put the body on High Hill in the first place.

"... Can Spring Be Far Behind?"

If there are strawberries on your table, spring is here! For there is no surer sign of spring—nor any more welcome—than fresh, plump, red strawberries. Whether, like one of Mother Goose's heroines, you sit on a cushion and sew a fine seam as you munch your strawberries, sugar and cream; or whether you leave your cushion for the kitchen and concentrate on this beautiful Strawberry Bouquet Pie, you are on your way to a treat! And although you'll probably think this coconut beauty is almost too lovely to cut, you'll be sorry if you don't—'cause under the nosegay of luscious berries and the topping of snowy, tender coconut is a smooth creamy filling with still more berries!

Strawberry Bouquet Pie

cup sugar cup sifted flour teaspoon salt cups milk

desired
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten

2 cups strawbenries 1 cup shredded coconut, cut if

Combine ½ cup sugar, flour, and salt in top of double boiler; add nilk gradually, stirring until smooth. Add 1 cup coconut. Cook over rapidly boiling water 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Mix small amount of mixture with egg yolks, return to double boiler, and cook 2 minutes longer. Remove from heat. Add vanilla and butter. Cool. Cut 1½ cups strawberries in halves and place in pie shell; then add filling. Chill. Before serving, spread pie with whipped cream, sprinkle with ½ cups coconut. Garnish with remaining whole berries and mint leaves forming beuquet design in center of pie.
