County Agent Tells Kiwanis About Animals

By: R. A. Bradley

Fourteen Kiwanians, Sweetheart Justine Haynes and two guests met Friday morning at the Old Corral. Guests were Chad Johnson, son of Reggie Johnson and Spencer Tanksley, Bailey County Agent.

President Keith Turner called the meeting to order. Nick Bamert led the club in the pledge to the flag and James Roy Jones gave the invocation.

President Keith presented Sweetheart Justine Haynes with her own personal name tag.

J. O. Parker gave the friendship coin to Kevin Harris, who is a new member of the fire department. J. O. figured that Kevin would need a friend.

Bailey County Agent Spencer Tanksley gave the program. Spencer told that the Bailey County Livestock Show would be January 19-21 for 4-H and FFA members at the Bailey County Civic Center. Mark your calendar and be sure to come out and cheer these young people on.

Each and every young person who enters and shows an animal will receive prize money. Spencer explained some of the new rules about drug testing for the animals in some of the bigger shows, such as Houston, Fort Worth, San Antonio, etc.

The local show will not test animals as none of these animals will be sold here after the show.

It takes dedication and lots of work to show an animal. This is a complete family effort for a youth to decide to buy, feed, clean animals, clean pens, train animals and take care of a show animal. This is an everyday job, Sunday, rain or snow, the job still goes on.

Spencer showed a video of three young people and some of the chores and rewards that come from raising and showing animals.

LOOKING OVER THE ARTS AND CRAFTS AT THE BAILEY COUNTY COLISEUM -- On the first weekend of December, on Friday and Saturday, the annual Arts and Crafts Fair is held at the Bailey County Coliseum, with the Jennyslippers serving their traditional barbecue luncheon. With lots of 'goodies' to look at, Anita Johnson has one youngster in a stroller, with another holding onto the handle, as she makes her way around the fun-filled arena.

Mulettes 'Up' For Challenges Posed By Coach Ruben Osuna

(Editor's note: The following feature story was written by Ben Beard, journalism student from the Texas Tech School of Mass Communications. The features, written especially for 'The Journals' are made possible through a grant from the Reader's Digest Foundation.)

While Muleshoe women's basketball team members prepared themselves for their recent game against Shallowater, it was not difficult to notice their optimism and confidence as they spoke in interviews before the game.

The structure of the women's basketball team in Muleshoe has changed drastically since the arrival of new coach Ruben Osuna, last year.

Debbie Brown, a third-year player for the Mulettes, said Coach Osuna has turned the team around by making them work harder during practice.

"It is easy to work hard for Coach Osuna, because he makes it bun, and we can see that he really cares about the team," Brown said.

With a record of 19-10, the Mulettes went all the way to the Bi-District playoffs last year. It

CofC Manager Resigns; Takes Hettinga Big Spring Job

Robert Montgomery, president of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture, was a visitor in The Journal offices late Tuesday afternoon, to notify us of the resignation of Toni Eagle, manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce and Agriculture.

He said her resignation is effective on Monday, December

The following is a story from the Thursday, December 1, 1988 edition of The Lubbock Avalanche Journal:

BIG SPRING-Toni C. Eagle of Muleshoe will join the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce as its new Convention and Visitors Bureau manager by the end of December, chamber president Whayne Moore announced Wed-

"Miss Eagle, 34, will assume the position vacated by Elizabeth Taylor, who left in May to assume a similar position with the Georgetown Chamber of Commerce near Austin.

"Miss Eagle currently is executive vice president and manager of the Muleshoe Chamber of Commerce, where she is in charge of economic development efforts.

"During her time in the Bailey County community, Miss Eagle said, she started annual membership and beautification drives, and helped revitalize the city's industrial foundation.

"Such activities are similar to ongoing efforts at the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce, she

the farm, but it's also a killer if safety is disregarded, said Spencer Tanksley county agent with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

Electrical shock, including lightning, causes nearly 1,000 deaths and many disabling injuries each year in this country, Tanksley said. Additional injuries and property damage result from fires caused by faulty wiring or electrical equipment. Lightning, downed power lines or a faulty extension corn can each kill or maim with equal speed.

Most electrical accidents can be prevented without undue difficulty or inconvenience by following these suggestions: -- Install adequate wiring according to established codes. -- Employ only qualified people to make changes or additions to wiring systems.

-- Do not overloaad circuits. Plug high-wattage appliances into unused circuits or consider adding new circuits to meet growing power needs.

-- Never bypass circuit protection or increase fuse sizes. Overloaded wiring can overheat and cause a fire.

-- Do not remove the grounding prong from three-wire power cords to fit a two-slot outlet. Use a 3/2 adapter, then attach the adapter's "pigtail" to the screw that holds the face plate to the outlet box.

-- Make sure certain boxes are grounded. If your system isn't three-wire grounded, choose double-insulated tools.

-- Keep electrical tools and appliances in good condition. Repair or replace frayed power cords. Examine motors powering farm equipment. Service them as directed in the instruction manuals and keep them free of excess dust, chaff and grease.

-- If electrical equipment fails to work, sparks, smokes or makes unusual noises, switch off and pull the plug. Don't attempt to use the equipment until it has been fixed.

-- To eliminate shock hazard. pull the plug before you attempt to repair or open up an electrical tool or appliance.

-- Install ground - fault - circuit - interrupters (GFCIs) to help prevent shocks at such wet locations as milk houses, heated rooms.

-- Don't stand in water or on wet surfaces when using or touching electrical equipment.

-Be wary of overhead power lines when using ladders, carry-

MANY TREES BEING PLANTED IN MULESHOE AND SURROUNDING TERRITORY

Over five hundred dollars worth of trees were received here the past week by citizens of Muleshoe and surrounding territory. This is the best month, according to nurserymen, to plant trees, and people in this section are taking advantage of the wet weather to plant orchards as well as shade trees. It is understood that many more will be received within the next few days. This is one of the best ways to add to the value of property at a small cost. It is hoped that by the time spring rolls around again, Muleshoe will put on one of the biggest tree planting campaigns of any town on the

1938 TEXAS WAGE LAW O.K. FEW FEW EFFECTED BY FEDERAL CHANGE

It is shown by special tabulations prepared by the Bureau of Business Research of the University of Texas that the average hourly wage for manufacturing industries in the State is 59.2 cents; hours of work average 40.7 a week. It was found that no industry convassed in connection with the regular emlployment and pay roll survey shows average earnings below the 25-cent-per-hour minimum set by the law. All important industries are represented. On the basis of industry averages, it may be stated that approximately 65 percent of all workers engaged in manufacturing in Texas are already receiving pay at hourly rates averaging more than 40 cents an hour, and that the remaining 35 percent receive between 25 and 40 cents an hour.

1958 PRICES INCREASE FOR LUNCHES AT SCHOOL JANUARY 5

Prices for lunches at Muleshoe school cafeterias will take a five cent increase, effective January 5, school business manager John Tompson announced today.

Thompson said the rising cost of groceries had placed the lunch-room in deficit operation, coupled with the increasing number of free lunches which must be given children unable to pay for them. He explained that free lunches must be furnished, at states direction to any child who cannot buy them and that 50 children are given free lunches daily in the three Muleshoe school cafeterias.

Beginning January 5 lunches will cost 35 cents for children, and 40 cents for teachers, an increase over the 30 and 35 cents charge made at the present time.

1978 SURPRISE SNOW CAUSES HOLLIDAY

Surprise! Surprise! Although it wasn't predicted, wasn't even thought of at this time of year, and certainly caught the area unprepared, a 'sneaky' snow invaded the area Wednesday night and Thursday morning. A week of damp, drizzly and foggy weather had carried through most of the week and around midnight Wednesday a slow cold rain was falling. Then, something happened, although National Weather Service had predicted the cold front was moving out of the area without measureable precipation. Around 2:30 a.m., anyone up and listening to a police scanner would have heard the police dispatcher, Ruth Briscoe and Patrolman, Wayne Holmes, discussing the changing weather. They were talking about snow. Holmes informed the dispatcher that around 1/2 to 1 inch of snow had fallen, and was continuing to fall. A quick look out the window confirmed the white, fluffy stuff piling up.

Six and three fourths inches of snow was measured on vehicle tops by 7:45 a.m. Thursday and snow continued to fall throughout the morning.

STRAWBERRY CONFECTION COOKIE

5 Tbsp. butter, 1 cup sugar, 2 eggs, beaten, 11/2 cups chopped dates, pinch salt, 1 tsp. vanilla, 1 cup pecans, chopped, 3 or 4 51/2 oz. bottles Red Sugar Crystals, Rice cereal (about 11/2 cups)

Put butter into electric skillet to melt at a low setting. Stir in beaten eggs combined with sugar. After chopped dates are added, increase heat to 350 degrees and stir constantly for five minutes. Turn the heat off and add salt and vanilla. Stir rice cereal and chopped nuts thoroughly into the melted mixture. When cool to handle, form the final mixture into strawberry shaped cookies. Quickly roll each into red sugar crystals and add stems and set aside. Makes 4 dozen. These can be frozen.

Future Farmers Change Name To National FFA

The Nation FFA Organization is the new name for the high school group previously known as Future Farmers of America.

"I view this action as a progressive move that needed to be made," said Jay Hays, president of the Student Body at Texas A&M University.

Hays, a former Texas FFA vice president, said delegates to the recent national meeting of the yough organization in Kansas City voted to take the word "farmers" out of the name because it was hurting recruit-

Hays said that although FFA remains in the organization's title, it no longer reflects farming as a career.

"One might compare the FFA name change with that several years ago of Texas A&M, which no longer stands for agriculno longer stands for 'agricultural and mechanical college' of Texas, " Hays said.

"We are now the National FFA Organization, or FFA oirganization of each state, as a result of action by delegates to the 61st annual conference of the youth group," he said.

Hays is an A&M senior from Wolfe City majoring in agricultural education. Hays said FFA officers and U.S. Education Department advisors to the organization recommended the name change to help reduce a 23 percent decline in membership since the mid-

Hays said the FFA has about 416,000 active members nationwide, with about 54,000 of them residing in Texas.

Another delegate to the FFA national meeting, Jeff Darby, a state FFA vice president from Jourdanton, said voting delegates also approved removing the words "vocational agriculture" from the constitution and by-laws and replacing them with "agricultural education" at the national level. "In Texas, however, the educational program will be known as 'agricultural science and technology' in high school to reflect to a higher degree the needs of the biotechnology age,"

Darby, a biochemistry major at Texas A&M, served as president of his chapter and district FFA organizations before being elected a state FFA officer.

He said Texas FFA officers at the meeting also included state president Donnell Brown, who attended Texas Tech before taking on the one-year officer assignment; and Lesa Ann King of Howe, first vice president; and state vice presidents Ellen Lumpkin, Lufkin; Stewart Luedke, Kingwood; Shawn Harris. San Antonio; and Chris Britton of Cleburne, all Texas A&M stud-

Also taking part were Dr. Herman D. Brown and Dr. Joe Townsend of A&M's Agricultural Education Department, who provided leadership for the science and technology curriculum for Texas schools, and Jay Eudy of Austin, state director for high school agriculture programs with the Texas Education

"I fully expected these changes to take place at the national level," Brown said.

FmHA has sent notices to borrowers who are more than 180 days late on their payments. These notices inform the borrowers that they have 45 days to decide whether they wish to try to restructure their debt and to prepare all necessary paperwork or to prepare for foreclosure.

Officials of the Texas Agricultural Loan Mediation Program will act as mediators between the borrowers and lenders upon request by either party.

"We're only here to serve as facilitators," said Gary Condra, director of the program and faculty member in the agricultural economics department at Texas Tech. "We're not judges, juries or advocates. We're just a neutral third party trying to make a deal possible."

Texas A&M researcher says headache relief may be all in the head

COLLEGE STATION - New research suggests that some relief for your migraine and tension headaches may be in your head because patients can learn skills to change headache-related stress

Non-medication treatments such as "Progressive Relaxation Training" combined with thermal-biofeedback and treatment with the standard preventive medication Ergotamine proved equally effective in controlling recurrent vascular headaches, says Texas A&M University psychologist Dr. Karl Hursey, Relaxation and thermal-biofeedback treatment involves a combination procedure of relaxing muscle groups in the body and relaxing blood vessels thereby controlling the activation of tension in the body, Hursey explained. Successful manipulation of the blood vessels is evident by the warming of the hands.

"What I'm promoting is an alternative to treating headaches with pain killers and medications used to prevent headaches," said Hursey. "Some people find that their medication loses its effectiveness over a period of time or that continual use of that medication provides too many side effects."

Texas A&M survey finds supermarkets trim 30 percent more beef fat

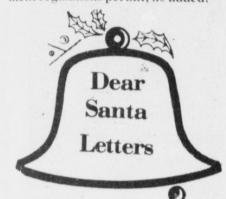

COLLEGE STATION - Supermarkets are really taking the fat off - their beef, according to results of a national survey coordinated by a Texas A&M meat scientist.

America's retail supermarkets are trimming off almost 30 percent more beef fat today than they were in 1986.

The external fat left on retail beef list of arrests. cuts has been sliced from an average of one-half to one-eighth inch in the past two years," said Dr. H. Russell Cross, a meat scientist with the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station (TAES) at Texas A&M University.

Beef's contribution to the fat in the American diet is much lower than current data suggest because national food consumption surveys have based their findings on beef cuts with one-half inch external fat," Cross said.

Study results also revealed that nearly 60 percent of the ground beef in America's supermarkets is labeled as 'lean" or "extra lean." Average fat content of all ground beef was 19.9 percent, a 10 percent decrease since 1986, said Dr. Dan Hale, a meat scientist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service (TAEX). Ground beef sold in America's supermarkets today has about one-third less fat than government regulations permit, he added.

The old proverb "still water runs deep" meant that people who talked very little, like Calvin Coolidge, were supposed to be thinking profound thoughts about important things. There is probably more truth here if the proverb is reversed "deep water runs still," for most great people are not noisy about their greatness. Nowhere is this principle truer than when applied to God. He does not force Himself upon us; He will not dazzle our eyes and force us to respect; He has left man free even to reject his Creator. The Bible says that this is exactly what man, every person, has done. We have all repeated the tragedy of Adam and the meaning send His rain on the just and unjust. But far more than this He sends an only son that through Him we may become reconciled to God, for here we can see the magnificent depth of God's steadfast love. His love continues to flow deep and still like this stream, ever there for whoever will

Our rejection, however, does not end God's love. He continues to
