FHA Members To Attend Leadership Conference

A group of Muleshoe High School FHA members recently attended the 1992 State Leadership Conference at Ft. Worth. The local FHA members attended all the workshops and still found time in their busy schedule for a beach party at Treasure Island.

The beach party dance was held in the East Exhibit Hall Friday, April 10. Toons Across Texas provided various kinds of music ranging from hip-hop to country.

There was a dance contest where everyone got to see the latest dances. Prizes provided by the Arts and Crafts Festival were awarded to the winners. It was reported that everyone had a fabulous time and is looking forward to next year.

For the first time since 1973, Texas membership has increased by 773 members. The total state membership is now approximately 36,000. All chapters who participated in Champions II, membership program designed to increase enrollment, were congratulated.

During the first session, the groups were led through a journey of adventures, helping them discover their map to hidden treasures. The 1992 Connection

Team asked the delegates, "What treasures have you discovered through FHA/HERO?" Some of the replies received were:

"Personal respect for ourselves", "I've learned to be patient", "The friendliness and the fun of working together", "The feeling of accomplishment, the leadership skills, and the unlimited opportunities". "As a competitor of STAR Events, I've learned how to handle stress", "FHA/HERO has taught me how to set goals and learn valuable leadership skills. I have been proud to represent this association for the year", "I have found out how to set goals, take responsibility build character and how to be a leader", and "FHA/HERO has given the treasure of all the speakers at this convention that inspire our lives."

During the second general session, scholarships, were presented and the Power of One participants were recognized. Clues were given for using the decision making treasures the best way.

In the third and last general session, STAR Event participants, and Connection Chapters were recognized for their achievements in discovering lasting treasures. The installation of the new crewmates aboard the FHA/HERO ship was conducted.

On Monday afternoon, the group met at Viola's Restaurant after school and were presented pins and certificates.

During this meeting, the students

Donkey Basketball Show Set

The Muleshoe High School Junior Class have warned some hearty local residents that they will need liniment in large doses when "Bob" Crosby brings his real live donkeys to town for a Donkey Basketball Show.

Sponsored by the Junior Class, the game will be played at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, April 23 in Watson Junior High School Gym.

The first game will be the Galloping Geezers (Muleshoe School Faculty) VS the Jivin' Juniors. The second game the Marvelous Muleshoe Merchants will take on the Jammin' Juniors.

It was reported that all four teams have been training extensively for this monumental event. Team coaches want to be ready physically and mentally and rumor has it that expert rodeo riders have been contacted on their expertise in riding.

Winners of the two teams will meet head on in an eight minute championship bout immediately following the second game. Each of the first rounds will consist of two eight-minute halves with a 15-minute intermission between the games.

The Crosby Donkey Ball Co. from Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin will be providing the beast of burden.

Adding to the fun are rules accompanying the game, such as not holding the ball for more than

Six Inches Of Rain Falls In Bula Area

Thunder storms have hovered over the area for the past several days, causing the National Weather Bureau out of Lubbock to issue severe weather watches for the entire area.

The heaviest rainfall fell in the Southern part of Bailey County, in the Bula Area, Tuesday night. Mrs. Bennie Claunch reported that they received two inches of rain Tuesday night, but about one and a half miles north of their farm, they received six inches of rain. She stated that it rained for about four hours. "Highway 303 had water over it in some places," Mrs. Claunch said. "On back west they didn't get any rain. Friday it was misty and foggy in that area."

Mrs. Ruel Kirby reported that they received about a half inch of rain and on back to the West of them they didn't get any rain.

To the west of Muleshoe, Mrs. Don Seales reported that they received four tenths of an inch of rain Tuesday. She stated that it wasn't enough to stop them from working in the fields, "but we'll take any moisture we can get."

In the Lazbuddie area, a spokesperson at Foster Fertilizer stated that they had very little rain, only four tenths of an inch.

Muleshoe received .52 of an inch of rain Tuesday night and showers fell periodically over the next several days, depositing a total of .58 inch of moisture.

A chance of thunderstorms continued for Saturday according to the National Weather Service in Lubbock. The long range weather forecast called for partly cloudy skies and wind for Saturday and cooler temperatures in most sections on Saturday night.

Sunday temperatures were expected to be near 70 for the area. Sunday is expected to be a little cooler and windy. A chance of thunderstorms is expected to return on Monday.

Lazbuddie EMS Awarded Grant For Rescue Tools

The Lazbuddie Volunteer Fire Department-EMS was recently awarded a grant from the Law Enforcement and Security Division-Texas A&M University System for hydraulic rescue tools. The Lazbuddie Fire Department-EMS were one of thirteen recipients in the state of Texas for these tools.

Dr. Gary Walker, division head of the law enforcement training division, and Amkus Inc. representatives will be in Lazbuddie to train firemen and EMS personnel in the use of the new equipment on Sunday morning, April 26 from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

This new equipment includes a spreader, also known as the "Jaws of Life." This is an important acquisition because of the advantage of a quicker rescue of people trapped in automobiles and entangled in machinery.

Combest Speaks Out On Disaster Relief

By Larry Combest

"I am not any more satisfied than our farmers are over the half-a-loaf portion of disaster relief now in the mail," said U.S. Representative Larry Combest (R-Texas). While working in the 19th Congressional District this week, Congressman Combest said he will continue to urge the President to release an additional $755 million in emergency funds. The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced that disaster payments will be reduced to 50-point-04 percent of their eligible losses.

"While the 50 percent payment calculation is more than the predictions of just pennies on the dollar, it is not enough," said Combest. "Patchwork disaster assistance usually fails to provide satisfactory compensation to farmers for disaster loss. By failing to work with us on a viable crop insurance program, the

It was reported that you don't have to be a golfer to attend, non-golfers are welcome.

Administration has a responsibility now to meet the disaster needs of producers by releasing the remaining funds. Instead of dealing with the unreliability of these disaster payments, farmers need a crop insurance program more suitable to their requirements."

"Immediate action to release the additional $755 million in disaster

Facts On Fat

*Use "comparison shopping" to select recipes. Pick the recipe that contains the least amount of fat. Even then, most fat in recipes can be reduced by one-third to one-half. This works well for casseroles and main dishes, as well as for muffins, quickbreads, and cakes.

Library Has Book Sale

By Anne Camp, Librarian

National Library Week at the Muleshoe Area Public Library was great! We had good participation in all the events. Fifty children attended the storyhour on Wednesday. This will be the last storyhour of the season. Some 21 of the children will start to school next fall, and were honored. The volunteers from Beta Sigma Phi sorority were honored, and received a certificate for their help.

Thursday, Friends of the Library were pleased to have new members, who joined and purchased books, had coffee and donut holes served. Then at 5 p.m., we were pleased to name the Kevin Smiths as Family of the Year. We appreciate all the news media who were here to interview them, the video Magann made, and Annette Bonds who came to make the presentation.

Friday and Saturday the book sale did very well. We want to thank some extra special people who helped. A.V. and Eddie Lou Woods for helping put the books out and bringing and setting up extra tables; Vivian White for helping put books out and also for several hours Friday on the book sale; Izetta Shain for several hours on the book sale; and Jeannie McVickers for several hours help on the book sale Saturday. Many thanks to all of you!

Last, but certainly not least, I want to thank my staff, Linda, Noella, and Lena for extra hard work they did. Oh, yes, thanks go to everyone who donated books and who came and bought books. The proceeds will be spent on something very nice for the Library.

Do you know which foods are your allies in the Food Fight Against Cancer? It will help you to learn more about the link between nutrition and cancer risk. Contact your local American Cancer Society or call 1-800-ACS-2345.

*Try adding a little bran or wheat germ to recipes, even casseroles and main dishes. Every little bit helps.

WORSHIPPERS--from throughout the community joined for Holy Week Services held Monday, Wednesday and Friday this week. Here singing is conducted by a representative from one of the area churches as participants gather for lunch and a sermon. (Journal Photo)

Holy Week Services Minister To Many

Several denominations in the Muleshoe community joined to celebrate Holy Week at services scheduled Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the Fellowship Hall of the First United Methodist Church. Churches shared the responsibility for preparing the meal with the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church, First Assembly of God Church and Nazarene Church acting as hostesses on the three days.

Easter lilies adorned the tables were filled with concerned members of the community who chose to worship and celebrate the Easter season in this way.

Various special musical selections by Curtis Shelburne, Bary Moynihan, and Richard Edwards during the week lifted the spirits of participants. Moynihan shared a solo titled "He grew the Tree" (that was used to make the old rugged cross) on Monday that was especially effective.

Curtis Shelburne of the 16th and Ave. D Church of Christ gave a moving message involving Judas' role that was a thorough explication on the topic. On Wednesday, Jimmy Low, the most senior minister in Muleshoe who pastors at the New Covenant Church, spoke. Dean Reid gave a preliminary devotion. "Be glad that it's Eastertime," Reid commented.

"With God in our lives this earth is like a dressing room that makes us ready for the time to come," Low noted. Low spoke from Luke 23 in giving his message. "We are at a time when there is an all-out assault on the Christian religion."

Friday at the service the Trinity Baptist Church and New Vision Nazarene Church were in charge of the meal. Leonard Gonzales shared special Easter music and gave the message that was helpful to those who listened.

Worshippers gained much from Low's, Shelburne's and other messages given at the Monday, Wednesday and Friday celebrations of Holy Week. Listeners will have a better Easter as a result of their attendance.

Lodge was opened by our Noble Grand Mary Ann. June read a letter from Pat, gee, we miss her. Our President Christene was introduced by Mary Slate. Then our Lodge Deputy Ona and District Deputy President Ruby were recognized. Christene gave a very interesting talk. A love gift was given to her.

Including President and Mary, five from Friona and sixteen from Muleshoe made the attendance of twenty three at the meeting. There were candles placed everywhere as the storm was causing our lights to blink, so we were prepared in case the light did go out.

The evening was enjoyed by all. Patsy gave the closing prayer.

A breakfast brunch at the Dinner Bell early Wednesday a.m. for these that wished to go before the President left town. She would be holding a meeting in Plainview, Lubbock and Crane in the next few days. We wish them a safe journey on their way. Bill Maddox has had knee surgery and in hospital some three weeks. Hopefully, he will be home soon.

The lights at Lodge were OK but when we got home our lights had been off an hour or so.

Rebekah Lodge

By Ina Wilemon

The South Plains Association meeting was held in Levelland April 4 with 29 Oddfellows and Rebekahs attending. Muleshoe did the memorial service and had the drill team. Our people brought home the trophy. Crispin Green went out as President. Next year Barbara Williams will be President and June Green, secretary.

Next April the meeting will be held in Brownfield.

On the evening of April 14 everyone was so excited as this was a very special occasion for our members. Our President Christene White and Sister Mary Slate, Marshall under the President, also her personal secretary from Irving goes with her on all her visits to the different Lodges.

There were five members from Friona. So wonderful to meet and see our sisters. One special, Sister Loretta Brookfield from Friona has been so ill pertaining to major eye surgery. Oh, no, I won't forget Louise Allen and Terie Snell. They both work and seldom can come. We sure miss you that didn't come.

Everyone brought food and all ate before the meeting.

Tips For Food Preparation

*Bake, poach, steam, oven-broil, stir-fry or roast meats, poultry, and fish without using extra fat. Avoid frying, which adds extra fat and calories.

*Ask your butcher to help you select low fat cuts of meat. Trim away all visible fat, and use 2-3 oz. portions. Cut meat into thin slices to look like more. Remove the skin from poultry.

*Use vegetable cooking sprays instead of frying in fat.

*Cook vegetables as quickly as possible and use as little liquid as you can.

*Use herbs and spices, such as onion or garlic, ginger, lemon and lime juice and mustard, instead of fats and oil to flavor meats, fish, and poultry.

*Use the paste method for gravy or sauces. Add flour or cornstarch to cold liquid slowly and blend well. This eliminates the need for fat.

*After making a soup or stew containing meat or poultry, refrigerate until the fat congeals on the surface. Remove it before heating and serving.

*Substitute skim or non-fat milk for whole and yogurt for sour cream whenever possible. Choose desserts made with milk or yogurt instead of those made with cream.

Tops Club

TOPS Chapter 34 met at the Girl Scout Hut, Thursday, April 16 at 6 p.m. Leader Laverne James called the meeting to order. The TOPS pledge was recited and the fellowship song was sung. Mrs. James led the group in a prayer.

Betty Jo Davis, weight recorder, called the roll with 15 members answering with the amount they had lost or gained. Minutes of the previous meeting were read by Aurora Mata, secretary and they were approved as read.

Best loser for the week is Betty Jo Davis. Runners-up are Tommie Fulcher, first runner-up and Alma Robertson, second runner-up.

The meeting was adjourned with the singing of the good night song.

BASKETS ARE READY--for gathering of Easter eggs at the April 16 hunt held at the Roger Buhrmans for the second grade class of Mrs. Mike O'Hare at Dillman Elementary. BREAST CANCER DETECTION UNIT AVAILABLE TO AREA WOMEN

Tuesday, April 21st
Muleshoe Area Medical Center
708 South 1st
Muleshoe, Texas

A Service of Transamerican Diagnostic Services (Providing Mammography Services for over 5 years)

CALL 272-4524 FOR APPOINTMENT

According to the American Cancer Society, one out of four women in the United States will develop breast cancer sometime in her lifetime. It is currently estimated that over 37,000 women die each year as the result of breast cancer.

Ninety percent of breast cancers are diagnosed by women or their physicians finding a lump in the breast. Women who are diagnosed with a lump large enough to feel have a 50 percent five year survival rate. A woman who is diagnosed as having breast cancer by mammography, before a lump can be felt, has a 97% five year survival rate and a 90% 10 year survival rate.

A mammogram can detect a cancer this small, even before it can be felt.

Guidelines For Screening Mammography Established by the American Cancer Society.

- I. 35-40 years of age - One baseline mammogram.
- II. 40-50 years of age - A mammogram every 1-2 years depending on breast type and risk factor.
- III. 50 years of age and over - An annual physical examination and annual mammogram.
- IV. Asymptomatic women under 50 years of age with significant high risk factors should be examined at appropriate intervals. These risk factors include previous breast cancer and family history of cancer.

V. A symptomatic woman should have a mammogram at any age when she experiences a mass, nipple discharge, skin changes or unexplained breast pain.

A screening mammogram is an x-ray of the breast using extremely low dosages of radiation (usually comparable to dental x-rays) and is designed to find very early cancers.

A female technologist who is highly trained in mammography will perform the examination.

The charge for the screening mammogram is $65.00. The Unit accepts cash, check, Visa, Mastercard and American Express.

Easter Renews Life Of The Muleshoe Community

RESURRECTION STORY--is remembered and re-sung by Jinks and Rowena Meyers who attend First United Methodist Church regularly. With a new stained glass window to inspire them, Rowena says "The sameness of life changes and becomes new at Easter. The Easter event helps me be more prepared for the future." Jinks notes that "this season is one of new birth and especially in this election year do we need a new beginning in our country." Meyers is a rural mail carrier and his wife works in the counseling center here. (Journal Photo)

Recently, I was caught up in an informal fashion show as my daughter and oldest son displayed for me their new Easter clothes. This fashion show must be a sign of the season. In my errands, shopping, banking, visiting, going to the hospital I have noticed many signs of the season. Stuffed rabbits, baskets, colored eggs, plastic grass, all seem to indicate that Easter is here.

But, are those the things that really excite us about Easter? Is it the trappings of the day which give the day meaning? Or are we excited by what we celebrate on this day? The meaning of Easter is more than just an occasion, more than just another event. The observance of Easter is a celebration of life.

The Resurrection of Jesus Christ was an endorsement of the entire ministry of Jesus Christ. Had Jesus not risen from the grave His ministry would have been a sham, lie, a red herring. He was not just another traveling teacher who walked around a Middle Eastern country teaching people the meaning of life. Without the resurrection, Jesus most likely would have been credited with being just another cult leader that I doubt you and I would have ever discovered. But, by his resurrection Jesus' claims and teachings were substantiated.

Jesus was the way, the truth and the life. He was the Good Shepherd, the Suffering Servant, the Bread of Life, Bright and Morning Star, Prince of Peace, Immanuel. He was everything He said He was. The power of God was found in the person, Jesus Christ.

The triumph of the day for you and me is that not only did the resurrection validate His ministry, but Jesus has passed His life onto you and I. In Jesus Christ we have abundant life. In Jesus Christ we have a constant source of companionship, comfort, joy, peace and assurance. This Sunday I hope you will make an effort to be in your house of worship celebrating the life we have in Jesus Christ.

PASTOR'S FAMILY--preparing for Easter at First Baptist are Stacy and Debbie Conner, their daughter Charissa and son Timothy. Rev. Conner holds new baby Caleb. "We are in a new place this Easter having come to Muleshoe less than a year ago. With our new baby this is a special experience for us in 1992. We love the newness and feel the good and joy of it. We really like Muleshoe." say the Conners. (Journal Photo)

FmHA Takes Leadership Role In Fighting AIDS

In an effort to halt the spread of a deadly disease and the equally harmful rumors which follow it, the Farmers Home Administration (FmHA) is taking a leadership role in informing its employees of the realities of Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS).

Texas FmHA State Director Neal Sox Johnson is attempting to promote increased awareness of the HIV virus, and life-threatening illnesses such as AIDS which result from it, by stamping out misinformation in the workplace.

"The only way to fight a disease relief could give farmers additional assistance for crop losses suffered in the year they have not yet claimed for disaster aid," said Combest. Currently, producers can qualify for disaster payments in only one year out of 1989, 1990 or 1991.

"The added effect of three straight years of crop disasters compounds producers' financial problems and magnifies the need for a positive, sound approach to the survival of farmers hard-hit and haggard by the weather," said Combest.

is to first know what it is," said Johnson. "If you aren't keyed into the facts, then the chances are slight that you're keyed into the solution, or for that matter prevention."

In this pursuit, the State Director has issued a policy statement on how his agency will deal with the potential effects of the disease. He has similarly taken to informing FmHA employees of the realities of the disease through pamphlets, seminars, Employee Assistance Counselors, and the availability of Telephone Hotlines.

"Texas FmHA has a tradition and commitment of caring for its employees," Johnson conveyed, "by maintaining a safe and healthful work environment."

The policy statement informs employees of the truths, and untruths behind the HIV virus. It furthermore sets forth the guidelines for handling issues that could arise when an employee is affected by AIDS.

Among the items discussed in this statement are the declarations that AIDS and AIDS-related illnesses will be treated in the same manner as any other catastrophic illness. Permanent employees effected by these conditions are covered by qualified Agency benefits and policies relating to insurance, health and disability benefits, non-discrimination, and equal work opportunities.

In designing the policy statement, the State Director and his staff kept in mind three fundamentals which Johnson feels should be assumed by other business and civic leaders in the community:

First, that all medical information obtained from employees with AIDS or any of its related conditions should be kept confidential. Second, that the personal integrity of employees stricken with the disease should be regarded with the compassion one would assert to any person affected by a life-threatening disease such as cancer or heart disease. And finally that employees suffering from this illness continue to be valued employees who may wish to maintain their normal lifestyle, including continuing their careers, for as long as their condition allows, and that every reasonable accommodation be provided for them as long as they continue to maintain an adequate level of performance and medical evidence does not indicate that there is a threat to the health of the employee(s) or to others.

"Based on an overwhelming preponderance of available medical and scientific opinion," said Johnson, "there is no evidence that the AIDS virus is casually transmitted in ordinary social or occupational settings. Therefore, co-workers have no basis upon which to refuse to work or withhold their services for fear of contracting the disease by working with an AIDS-affected person"

For these reasons, Johnson has made it clear that employees who engage in such refusals or who harass or otherwise discriminate against an AIDS-affected employee will be subject to disciplinary action. Additionally, no special consideration for transfer requests will be made for employees who feel threatened by a co-worker's AIDS-related condition.

"Recognizing the need for employees to be accurately informed about AIDS is the crucial thing," Johnson said. As a result, the Texas Farmers Home Administration has devoted itself to making available general information about the disease to its employees. Along these lines, it has affirmed the following AIDS HOTLINE: 10-800-344-7432 (Spanish-speaking operators, open 8 a.m. to 2 p.m., seven days a week).

Local Man Recognized Nationally

David Lust has been recognized nationally by the American Angus Association for having a registered Angus cow included in the American Angus Association's 1992 Pathfinder Report.

Only 1,228 of the more than 22,000 members of the American Angus Association are represented in this year's report, according to Richard Spader, executive vice president of the American Association with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The Pathfinder Program identifies superior Angus cows based upon recorded performance traits that are economically important to efficient beef production. These traits include regular calving and heavy weaning weights, reports John Crouch, director of performance programs for the American Angus Association. All registered Angus cows that met the strict Pathfinder standards are listed, along with their owners, in the Pathfinder Report which is published annually by the American Angus Association.

The 1992 Pathfinder Report lists 4,799 individual cows. It is published in the May issue of the Angus Journal and extra copies are available from the American Angus Association. The largest number of Pathfinder cows from a single herd this year is 112, and several hundred breeders have a single cow that qualifies for the executive listing.

Bowman Appointed New ASCS Executive Director

Sen. Phil Gramm announced the appointment of Donnie G. Bowman of College Station as State Executive Director of the Texas Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

"In these times when programs are so complicated and complex, it is extremely important to have someone in this position who understands firsthand the concerns of farmers and ranchers as they relate to government programs," Gram said. "We feel fortunate to have found in Donnie Bowman a first-rate administrator who comes from a rural area with an agricultural background and extensive practical experience."

Bowman has extensive experience in ASCS, covering almost 40 years' service and filling a number of positions. He began as an Assistant Compliance Supervisor in the Lamb County ASCS Office doing summer work in 1954, 1957, 1958 and 1961, advancing to County Office Trainee and serving as County ASCS office manager in both Dickens and Stephens counties.

He has been a Program Specialist in the Commodity Programs

Division in the Washington, DC, ASCS office and in the Price Support Division of the Texas State ASCS Office. For fifteen years he held the position of Administrative Officer as well as Chief of the Administrative Division in the Texas State Office. Prior to his designation as Acting SED, he was assistant to both the Texas State ASC Committee and the State Executive Director.

In 1990, Bowman received the ASCS Administrator's Award for Service to Agriculture and in 1979, and 1976, a Certificate of Merit from the Texas State ASC Committee for Outstanding Service.

A graduate of West Texas State University with a Bachelor of Business Administration degree, he and his wife, Janie, have three children and two grandchildren.

County, District Clerks Attend Seminar

About 500 county and district clerks and their staff took part in the 20th Annual County and District Clerks' Seminar at Texas A&M University, March 16 and 18.

The seminar is designed to update participants on duties and responsibilities of their offices, helping them become more capable and effective in serving the public.

"Workshop for Professionals" was the theme for the meeting. Participants took part in general sessions, workshops and discussions on topics that included ethics, legal research, probate law, budget presentations, reports, new legislation, grant searches and preparation of court minutes.

The seminar was sponsored by the V.G. Young Institute of County Government of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the County and District Clerks' Association of Texas in cooperation with the Texas Association of Counties. Clerks received 20 hours of credit from Texas A&M Office of Continuing Education by participating.

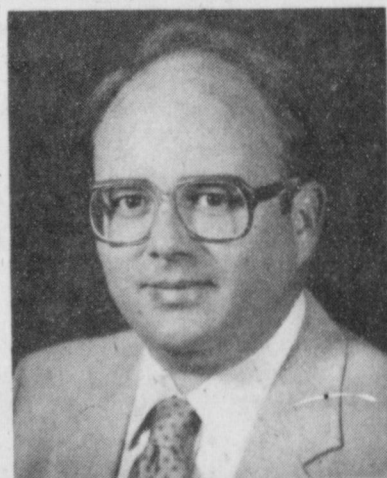

President of the association for 1991-1992 is Dorothy Browne of Gail, county and district clerk of Borden County.

Participating in the seminar from Bailey County were Barbara McCamish, County Clerk and Nelda Merriott, District Clerk. "The seminar provided valuable information and current procedures of the office to county and district clerks," said Mrs. McCamish and Mrs. Merriott.

Whenever a school, organization or individual plans a health subject, among the first resources to explore is the Texas Department of Health's (TDH) Audiovisual Library.

At the TDH central offices in Austin, the library is the nation's largest state-operated collection of films, videotapes and slide presentations on health subjects. And perhaps as important as the size of the selection is the low cost—usually no more than the price of return postage for any borrowed presentation.

Librarian Jane Hazelton said that the library's latest catalogue lists more than 1,500 separate presentations. She and her staff can supply nearly 5,500 prints, since multiple copies of the most popular presentations are made available to meet demand.

"In addition," Hazelton explained, "we try to offer selections suited to the audience's age and education level, as well as specialized professions. Also, some programs are available in Spanish." She said, "Such subjects as nutrition, sex education, AIDS and disease prevention are explained in a variety of formats." The collection includes 16mm films, 1/2-inch VHS videocassettes, 3/4-inch "U-Matic" videocassettes, slide-tape programs and some audiovisual models.

Although the library may not mail any presentation outside of Texas, she explained "any responsible person in Texas may borrow from the collection, at no charge other than return postage and insurance."

To borrow from the library, Hazelton explained that written requests are preferred. An order blank is enclosed in each of the library's Health Media Catalogues, which are free. To request a media catalogue or other information about the library's collection, anyone can write or visit: TDH Audiovisual Library, Service Building Room S-103, 1100 West 49th Street, Austin, TX 78756. Telephone requests may be made between 8:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, at (512) 458-7260.

Hazelton said that the library's peak time of year for orders coincides with the start of each new school year. For the beginning of the 1991 school year, the library accepted 2,688 orders in August, followed by 2,204 in September.

John F. Farris Receives Award

Citing Farris' knowledge of cotton production, Dr. James Supak, Extension Service cotton agronomist, says "his real expertise is in economics and marketing. His programs always stress the importance of budgets, financial management and the effects of inputs on the bottom line."

Supak calls AG-CARES "a unique, timely project that will have major impacts on cotton production systems in Dawson County and the Southern High Plains of Texas."

Farris obtained a $100,000 commitment from Lamesa Cotton Growers and support of the Extension Service and Dawson County Commissioners' Court to establish the research validation farm. It includes studies of irrigation efficiency, conservation tillage and other tilling techniques, cotton growth regulators, harvest-aid chemicals, alternate crops. He supervises the daily operation of the project, in addition to his other duties.

Farris, 45, was born in Alabama but grew up in Lamesa and Lubbock. He received bachelor's and master's degrees from Texas Tech University. From 1971-75 he taught vocational agriculture at Dimmitt. He joined the Extension Service in 1975 as assistant county agent in Dawson County. From 1977-82 he was county agent in Lamb County. He has served Dawson county as extension agent since 1982.

A county extension agent from Texas, John F. Farris of Dawson County, has been named the first agent to receive the Hoechst-Roussel Cotton Extension Education Award from the Cotton Foundation.

The award, which includes a $10,000 cash prize, was presented at the Beltwide Cotton Conference in Nashville, Tenn. The awards, funded by a grant from the Hoechst-Roussel Agri-Vet Co., have been presented annually since 1976. They were expanded this year to recognize the outstanding county agent from a cotton-producing state as well as an extension specialist or team making outstanding contributions to the U.S. cotton industry.

Farris, who serves the leading cotton-producing county in the state, was honored for conducting educational programs ranging from

Orders should be received at least 10 days before the date of the presentation. The loan period is for a maximum of two weeks, unless special arrangements are made with the library.

In Austin, borrowers must reserve and pick up their selections in person, and may do so in one visit if their selections are available. They may return their selection at a convenient "drop box" outside the Service Building after office hours.

"We also check all returned materials to see that they are in good conditions. Periodically, we clean and remove all dust and lint from films to be sure that they remain useful," she said.

production to marketing. He also has been named "Mr. Cotton" by the Lamesa Cotton Growers, Inc., and received the Superior Service Award of the Texas Agricultural Extension Service and the Texas A&M University System Award in Excellence for his educational programs.

Farris "seems to have a real talent for embracing the most significant new Technology available, or helping develop it, and then educating others about it," says Dave Nix, president of Lamesa Cotton Growers.

Report From Larry Combest

Spring Fever

by Larry Combest

I am encouraged that the majority in Congress are finally feeling the brisk breeze of Spring blowing through the usually musty air of Washington politics. This is a revolt I have asked for, anticipated and welcome. I am glad to see the American people say, "No more business as usual." Attitudes in Washington are changing, slowly, in favor of our new majority: A majority of the People.

There is evidence of this change in recent voting patterns in the U.S. House of Representatives. Just last week, the House voted against adding more taxpayer funds to the Resolution Trust Corporation (RTC) $105 billion boondoggle. The House clearly got the message from voters: no more money until RTC can efficiently handle the sale of foreclosed S&L properties. Meanwhile, all depositors accounts in Savings and Loans continue to be safe under FDIC insurance protection.

Congress is also recognizing the water caused by unnecessary federal regulations that cost small businesses and jobs. More than a year ago, I launched a Fight Against Invasive Regulations, the "FAIR" Campaign. In January, the President ordered review of out-moded and unneeded regulations during a 90-day moratorium on new federal regulations that expire at the end of this month. Last week, 61 of us in the House together introduced a resolution urging a one-year extension on the moratorium. That pause in regulatory pressure has so far saved the economy between $10 billion and $20 billion. The moratorium does not tamper with regulations that protect critical health or safety concerns.

The winds of change that have blown into Washington have done more than stir up a few loose checks and unpaid restaurant bills. A poorly supervised House Post Office operation allowed cocaine sales and cash drawer shortages that are a symptom of what is wrong. More at issue than a loss of public funds is a loss of public confidence. Citizens have taken an interest in Congress -- an intense interest. Proof is in the record numbers of congressmen who will leave Congress out of frustration or fear.

Those who want to remain are scrambling for reform.

However, I believe the public will watch to see that this cleanup is more than just a little light housework. Congress cried crocodile tears over the need for the reform of campaign financing. The majority had themselves a good cry at your expense. I voted against their insincere reforms because they carried a $1 billion taxpayer pricetag for publicly-financed congressional campaigns. I have never had a constituent ask me to increase their taxes to pay for congressional campaigns.

I think it is appropriate that there is a Spring cleaning now across the country right now. We can clean out the attic while we hold on to the valuable things we have inherited in our system. We don't need the junk, but we also don't need to tear away the furniture or tear the place down to clean house.

SPC Schedules Basketball Camp

Applications are now being accepted for Texan Basketball Camp, with two one-week sessions to be held at South Plains College in June and July.

The camp, under the direction of South Plains College men's basketball coach Ron Mayberry, will be held June 14-18 and July 26-30.

"I think our camp has grown and grown," Mayberry said. "But at the same time, it has stayed consistent in that we're the least expensive and we're people oriented."

The purpose of the camp is to provide an opportunity for boys and young men to improve their basketball skills in a fun environment. The fundamentals of basketball are stressed, with sportsmanship, team basketball and individual attention," Mayberry said. "The kids have a good time."

It's a learning camp. They can learn something about basketball, and they can also have fun. That's the key."

The camp, open to boys in the third grade through high school, will be held in Texan Dome on the SPC campus. Other facilities for use by the campers are an indoor swimming pool, outdoor racquetball courts and tennis courts. In addition, campers also may spend time at the SPC Student Center, which features a video arcade, pool and ping pong tables and a giant-screen television.

Camp participants may commute daily from their homes or spend the week on campus in a college residence hall.

The cost of the camp is $180 for overnight campers, $150 for day campers who eat in Texan Hall and $95 for day campers who do not eat in the dining hall. Campers who do not plan to eat in the dining hall are requested to bring a sack lunch.

Special discounts are available for families wishing to send more than one child to the camp. Included in the camp fee is instruction, insurance, awards and entertainment, as well as a camp report card, certificates, a t-shirt, official camp photo and a basketball for each participant.

The camp schedule will include ball handling, dribbling, passing and shooting drills, various contests and game situations.

Assisting Mayberry with the camp will be Darryl Beasley, assistant men's basketball coach at SPC. Other members of the camp staff include Clyde Neff, Dan Harris and Mike McCann of Levelland High School, Barry Voss and Jeff Evans of Coronado High School in Lubbock, members of the SPC men's basketball team and other area high school coaches and college players.

Other college coaches will be invited to the camp to visit and talk with the camp participants.

Mayberry, who recently completed his seventh season at SPC by guiding the Texans to their first-ever appearance at the NJCAA national tournament, is one of the few American coaches ever to be invited to direct a basketball camp and clinic for boys and coaches in the Grande Canary Islands in Spain.

Camp applications will be accepted as they are received and should be returned as soon as possible. A $50 deposit should be sent with the application, and the remaining balance will be due at the time of registration.

The deposit is non-refundable after May 20 and July 5. A $15 charge will be made on all refunds.

For more information, contact Mayberry at (806) 894-9611, ext. 222, or write: Texan Basketball Camp, South Plains College, 1401 S. College Avenue, Levelland, Tex., 79336.

Know The Weather

Why is it said that lightning is caused by updrafts? Is that true? First, it's true that updrafts are the cause of lightning. So that's why this statement is heard. Warm updrafts are the most usual producers of this spring's lightning electrical discharges. Warm air rises and when it rises fast, and cools quickly, it builds up an electrical charge, which is eventually dissipated with a flash and a bang. The cumulonimbus (thunderhead) cloud is the source of strong updrafts and lightning and thunder. After the first big drops, the heavy rain, and after the low, dark leading edge of this giant cloud passes above you, at that time the danger of lightning striking you on the ground is greatest.

Speeding Can Wreck Your Whole Day

With the first signs of Spring, many drivers are eager to roll down their car windows, turn up the radio and hit the road. "Just don't let spring fever tempt you to drive faster than posted speed limits," says Government Employees Insurance Company (GEICO) President Tony Nicely, "because speeding can wreck your day."

Nicely offers the following facts about excessive speed and traffic safety.

* At high speed, the distance required to brake to a stop increases significantly, while the time you need to perceive and react to traffic hazard remains fixed. If you're traveling too fast, you may be out of luck by the time you spot a problem ahead.

* Because the violent forces in a crash multiply dramatically with relatively small increases in speed, your chances of death in a crash double with each 10 mph increase in speed above 50 mph. About one-third of all traffic deaths are speed-related.

* On a typical 20-mile commute, you save only 3.5 minutes by driving 65 mph instead of 55 mph.

"Speeding isn't an us-against-them game with police," Nicely says. "It's a dangerous practice that leads to death and serious injury on our roadways. When you get behind the wheel, drive at or below the posted speed limit. Your life may depend on it."

Absurd

Urey--Your absurdity would make a donkey laugh.
Faqua--Yeah, I noticed you were laughing.

Evidently

Stranger--The postmaster here seems to be informed about all parts of the world. Has he traveled much?

Citizen--No, but he has received a liberal education from the picture postcards.

Re: Letter to the Editor

Dear Larry,

The Muleshoe Area Industrial Foundation would like to thank the people of this area for the overwhelming support shown during the recent prison project. Your support and the tireless effort of many people made it possible for us to be selected for the short list with our first prison bid proposal.

To be selected for the short list is an accomplishment. Muleshoe was repeatedly complimented on the proposal. We will be reviewing other successful bids during the next several weeks to try to determine what made the difference between their bids and ours.

There will be other projects that we will be working on in the future, and we hope that we can continue to have the communities support and assistance in them.

Again, we would like to stress that this project gained Muleshoe a great deal, and we can expect some good things to happen in the future.

Sincerely,
Jay Messenger

Such a familiar cry to any parent, and who could resist such an appeal. Many times the cry of "I'm thirsty" is a genuine one, but there are times when it is a scheme to linger a little longer, the result of a strong desire to remain awake and play with the dolls and toys that loving parents have provided.

While meeting the physical, play, and comfort needs, don't forget the need for "Living Waters." Take the family to church, where all may hear of, and be drawn closer to our loving Father.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.
